§ 329.3 Maximum rate of interest on time and savings deposits—(a) Maximum rate prescribed from time to time. Except in accordance with the provisions of this part, no insured nonmember bank shall pay interest on any time deposit or savings deposit in any manner, directly or indirectly, or by any method practice, or device whatsoever. No insured nonmember bank shall pay interest on any time deposit or savings deposit at a rate in excess of such applicable maximum rate as the board of directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation shall prescribe from time to time; and any rate or rates which may be so prescribed by the board will be set forth in supplements (see § 329.6) to this part, which

[2] Deposits, such as Christmas club accounts and vacation club accounts, which are made under written contracts providing that no withdrawal shall be made until a certain number of periodic deposits have been made during a period of not less than three (3) months, constitute "time deposits, open account" even though some of the deposits are made within thirty (30) days from the end of such period.

[3] If a deposit be made with respect to which the bank merely reserves the right to require notice of not less than thirty (30) days before withdrawal is made, the bank must require such notice to be given before permitting withdrawal.

[4] Deposits in joint accounts of two or more individuals may be classified as savings deposits if they meet the other requirements of the above definition, but deposits of a partnership operated for profit may not be so classified. Deposits to the credit of an individual of funds in which any beneficial interest is held by a corporation, partnership, association or other organization operated for profit or not operated primarily for religious, philanthropic, charitable, educational, fraternal, or other similar purposes may not be classified as savings deposits.

[5] Presentation of a pass book may be made over the counter or through the mails; and payment may be made over the counter, through the mails or otherwise, subject to the limitations contained herein as to the person to whom such payment may be made.

[6] The absorption of normal or customary exchange charges by an insured nonmember bank, in connection with the routine collection for its depositors of checks drawn on other banks, does not constitute the payment of interest within the provisions of this part.

[7] Sec. 12B (c) of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended (12 U. S. C. 264 (c) (7)), provides:

"The term 'savings bank' means a bank (other than a mutual savings bank) which transacts its ordinary banking business strictly as a savings bank under State laws imposing special requirements on such banks governing the manner of investing their funds and of conducting their business: Provided, That the bank maintains, until maturity date or until withdrawn, all deposits made with it (other than funds held by it in a fiduciary capacity) as time savings deposits of the specific term type or of the type where the right is reserved to the bank to require written notice before permitting withdrawal: Provided further, That such bank to be considered a savings bank must elect to become subject to regulations of the Corporation with respect to the redeposit of maturing deposits and prohibiting withdrawal of deposits by checking except in cases where such withdrawal is permitted by law on the effective date from specifically designated deposit accounts totaling not more than 15 per centum of the bank's total deposits."

[8] Deposits of moneys paid into State courts by private parties pending the outcome of litigation are not deposits of "public funds", within the meaning of the above provision.

will be issued in advance of the date upon which such rate or rates become effective.

(b) Modification of contracts to conform to regulation. No certificate of deposit or other contract shall be renewed or extended unless it be modified to conform to the provisions of this part, and every insured nonmember bank shall take such action as may be necessary, as soon as possible consistently with its contractual obligations, to bring all of its outstanding certificates of deposit or other contracts into conformity with the provisions of this part.

(d) Continuance of time deposit status. A deposit which was a time deposit at the date of deposit continues to be such until maturity, although it has become payable within thirty (30) days, and interest at a rate not exceeding that prescribed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section may be paid until maturity upon such deposit. A time deposit or a savings deposit, with respect to which notice of withdrawal has been given, continues to be such until the expiration of the period of such notice, and interest may be paid upon such deposit until the expiration of the period of such notice, and interest may be paid upon such deposit until the expiration of the period of such notice at a rate not exceeding that prescribed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section. Interest at a rate not exceeding that prescribed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section may be paid upon savings deposits with respect to which notice of intended withdrawal has not actually been required or given. No interest shall be paid by an insured nonmember bank on any amount which by the terms of any certificate or other contract or agreement, or otherwise, the bank may be required to pay within thirty (30) days from the date on which such amount is deposited in such bank,[9] except as to savings deposits with respect to which the bank consistently continues to adhere to a practice existing prior to January 23, 1936, of requiring notice of at least fifteen (15) days before permitting withdrawal.

(e) No interest after maturity or expiration of notice; exception. No interest shall be paid on any time or savings deposit for any period subsequent to maturity, whether such deposit matures by its terms on a specific date or at the expiration of a notice period pursuant to written notice actually given, except if a time certificate is renewed within ten (10) days after maturity, the renewal certificate [11] may draw interest from the maturity date of the matured certificate.

§ 329.4 Payment of time deposits before maturity—(a) Time deposits payable on a specified date. No insured nonmember bank shall pay any time deposit, which is payable on a specified date, before such specified date, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) Time deposits payable after a specified period. No insured nonmember bank shall pay any time deposit, which is payable at the expiration of a specified period, before such period has expired, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Time deposits payable after a specified notice. No insured nonmember bank shall pay any time deposit, with respect to which notice is required to be given a specified period before any withdrawal is made, until such required notice has been given and the specified period thereafter has expired, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Loans upon security of time deposits. An insured nonmember bank may make a loan to the depositor upon the security of his time deposit, provided that the rate of interest on such loan shall be not less than 2 percent per annum in excess of the rate of interest on the time deposit.

Where a loan to the depositor upon the security of his time deposit upon terms satisfactory to the insured nonmember bank and the depositor cannot be arranged, and where the depositor signs a written statement to be kept in the files of the bank that he is in need of money represented by the time deposit before the maturity thereof, stating the definite amount needed, the time deposit may be paid before maturity to the extent required to meet such need, but the depositor shall forfeit accrued and unpaid interest for a period of not less than three months on the amount withdrawn. When a portion of a time certificate of deposit is paid before maturity, the certificate shall be canceled and a new certificate shall be issued for the unpaid portion of the deposit, with the same terms, rate, date, and maturity as the original deposit.

§ 329.5 Notice of withdrawal of savings deposits—(a) Requirements regarding notice. An insured nonmember bank shall observe the requirements set forth as follows in requiring notice of intended withdrawal of any savings deposit or part thereof or in permitting withdrawal without requiring such notice.

(1) If an insured nonmember bank pay any amount or percentage of the savings deposit of any depositor without requiring such notice, it shall, upon request, and without requiring such notice, pay the same amount or percentage of the savings deposits of every other depositor, subject to the same notice requirement, except if the bank changes its practice in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) If an insured nonmember bank requires such notice before the payment of any amount or percentage of the savings deposits of any depositor, it shall require such notice before the payment of the same amount or percentage of the savings deposits of any other depositor, subject to the same notice requirement, except if the bank changes its practice in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section. Even though the bank's practice is to require notice, an insured nonmember bank is not prevented by this part from paying during the next preceding interest period without requiring notice of withdrawal interest on a savings deposit which has accrued during the preceding interest period.

(b) Requirements regarding change of practice. No insured nonmember bank shall change its practice with respect to the requiring or not requiring of notice of intended withdrawal of savings deposits, except after duly recorded action of its board of directors or of its executive committee properly authorized, and no practice in this respect shall be adopted which does not conform to the requirements of paragraphs (a) (1) and (a) (2) of this section.

(c) Change of practice for purpose of discrimination. No change in the practice of an insured nonmember bank with respect to the requiring or not requiring of notice of intended withdrawal of savings deposits shall be made for the purpose of discriminating in favor of or against any particular depositor or depositors.

(d) Requirements applicable although no interest paid. An insured nonmember bank shall observe the requirements of this section with respect to savings deposits even though no interest be paid on such deposits.

(e) Loans upon security of savings deposits. An insured nonmember bank may make a loan to any of its depositors upon the security of his savings deposits, provided that if the bank's practice is to require notice before permitting withdrawal of any amount or percentage of the savings deposits of any depositor, the rate of interest on such loan shall not be less than 2 percent per annum in excess of the rate of interest on the savings deposit.

§ 329.6 Maximum rates[12] of interest payable on time and savings deposits by insured nonmember banks—(a) Maximum rate of 2½ percent. No insured nonmember bank shall pay interest accruing after February 1, 1936, at a rate in excess of 2½ percent per annum, compounded quarterly,[13] regardless of the basis upon which such interest may be computed.

(1) On any savings deposit,

(2) On any time deposit having a maturity date six months or more after the date of deposit or payable upon written notice of six months or more,

(3) On any Postal Savings deposit which constitutes a time deposit, except that an insured nonmember bank may pay interest on any such deposits in accordance with the terms of any certificate of deposit or other contract which was entered into before February 1, 1936 (or, if the bank becomes an insured nonmember bank thereafter, before the date upon which it becomes an insured nonmember bank), which was in force on such date and which may not legally be terminated or modified by such bank at its option and without liability.

(b) Maximum rate of 2 percent. No insured nonmember bank shall pay interest accruing after February 1, 1936, at a rate in excess of 2 percent per annum, compounded quarterly, regardless of the basis upon which such interest may be computed.

On any time deposit (except Postal Savings deposits which constitute time deposits) having a maturity date less than six months and not less than ninety days after the date of deposit or which is originally or becomes payable upon written notice of less than six months and not less than ninety days, except that an insured nonmember bank may pay interest on such deposits in accordance with the terms of any certificate of deposit or other contract which was entered into before February 1, 1936 (or, if the bank becomes an insured nonmember bank thereafter, before the date upon which it becomes an insured nonmember bank) which was in force on such date and which may not legally be terminated or modified by such bank at its option and without liability.

(c) Maximum rate of 1 percent. No insured nonmember bank shall pay interest accruing after February 1, 1936, at a rate in excess of 1 percent per annum, compounded quarterly, regardless of the basis upon which such interest may be computed.

On any time deposit (except Postal Savings deposits which constitute time deposits) having a maturity date less than ninety days after the date of deposit or which is originally or becomes payable upon written notice of less than ninety days, except that an insured nonmember bank may pay interest on such deposits in accordance with the terms of any certificate of deposit or other contract which was entered into before February 1, 1936, (or, if the bank becomes an insured nonmember bank thereafter, before the date upon which it becomes an insured nonmember bank) which was in force on such date and which may not legally be terminated or modified by such bank at its option and without liability.

(d) Discontinuance of payments on outstanding certificates of indefinite maturities. Banks which on January 23, 1936, have outstanding certificates of indefinite maturities representing deposit liabilities drawing interest as savings deposits must within one year from February 1, 1936, discontinue to pay thereon the rate applicable hereunder to savings deposits unless meanwhile the same be converted into savings deposits as defined in this part.

[9] Deposits, such as Christmas club accounts and vacation club accounts, which are made under written contracts providing that no withdrawal shall be made until a certain number of periodic deposits have been made during a period of not less than three (3) months, constitute "time deposits, open account" even though some of the deposits are made within thirty (30) days from the end of such period.

[11] Where a time certificate is renewed within ten (10) days after maturity, the renewal certificate may be dated back to the maturity date of the matured certificate.

[12] The maximum rates of interest payable by insured nonmember banks on time and savings deposits as prescribed herein are not applicable to any deposit which is payable only at an insured nonmember bank, or at an office of an insured nonmember bank, located outside of the States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

[13] This limitation is not to be interpreted as preventing the compounding of interest at other than quarterly intervals: Provided, That the aggregate amount of such interest so compounded does not exceed the aggregate amount of interest at the rate above prescribed when compounded quarterly.

PART 330—RECOGNITION OF DEPOSIT OWNERSHIP NOT ON BANK RECORDS

Sec.

330.1 Deposits Evidenced by Negotiable Instruments.
330.2 Deposit Obligations for Payment of Items Forwarded for Collection by Bank Acting as Agent.
330.4 Deposits in Custodial Accounts

§ 330.2 Deposit obligations for payment of items forwarded for collection by bank acting as agent. Where a closed bank has become obligated for the payment of items forwarded for collection by a bank acting solely as agent, the owner of such items will be recognized for all purposes of claim for insured deposits to the same extent as if his name and interest were disclosed on the records of the bank when such claim for insured deposits, if otherwise payable, has been established by the execution and delivery of prescribed forms. Such bank forwarding such items for the owners thereof will be recognized as agent for such owners for the purpose of making an assignment of the rights of such owners against the closed insured bank to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and for the purpose of receiving payment on behalf of such owners.

§ 330.3 Deposits of public officers. The owner of any portion of a deposit appearing on the records of a closed bank under the name of a public official, state, county, city, or other political subdivision will be recognized for all purposes of claim for insured deposits to the same extent as if his name and interest were disclosed on the records of the bank: Provided, That the interest of such owner in the deposit is disclosed on the records maintained by such public official, state, county, city or other political subdivision and, Provided further, That such records have been maintained in good faith and in the regular course of business.

§ 330.4 Deposits in custodial accounts. The owner of any portion of a deposit appearing on the records of a closed bank under a name other than that of the claimant, whose name or interest as such owner is not disclosed on the records of the closed bank as part owner of said deposit, will be recognized for all purposes of claim for insured deposits to the same extent as if his name and interest were disclosed on the records of the bank: Provided, That the deposit is maintained in a specifically designated deposit account or accounts in such a manner as to disclose the custodial nature thereof and, Provided further, That the name and interest of such owner in the deposit is disclosed on the records of the person in whose name the deposit is maintained and such records have been maintained in good faith and in the regular course of business.

PART 331—INSURANCE OF TRUST FUNDS

§ 331.1 Claim by fiduciary insured bank for insured deposits of trust estates. In the event of the closing of an insured bank for inability to meet the demands of its depositors, the claim for insured deposits made by a fiduciary insured bank which, in the exercise of its trust powers, had deposited trust funds therein will be determined as follows:

(a) Allocated funds of a trust estate. If trust funds of a particular trust estate are allocated by the fiduciary and deposited, the deposit with respect to such estate will be determined by ascertaining the amount of its funds allocated, deposited and remaining to the credit of the claimant as fiduciary in the closed insured bank.

(b) Interest of a trust estate in unallocated trust funds. If trust funds of a particular trust estate be mingled [1] with trust funds of other trust estates and deposited by the fiduciary bank in one or more banks to the credit of the depositing bank as fiduciary, without allocation of specific amounts from the particular trust estate to an account in such bank or banks, the deposit with respect to such estate in any closed insured bank will be the amount which will bear the same ratio to all unallocated funds of the estate for which the fiduciary is accountable as the entire unallocated trust funds to the credit of the fiduciary bank in the closed insured bank will bear to the entire amount of such funds so deposited by the fiduciary in all depositories.[2]

(c) Claims for funds of corporate trusts determined on basis of allocation. The rule stated in paragraph (b) of this section will not be applied to funds of an insured bank held as fiduciary under a type of trust created to facilitate the issuance, distribution, or servicing of corporate bonds, debentures, or stock issues, commonly known as corporate trusts. The claim of the fiudiciary bank with respect to deposits of such funds will be determined according to allocations of the funds of particular estates to particular deposit accounts.

(d) Insured deposit of a trust estate. In arriving at the total insured deposit of an insured fiduciary bank with respect to any trust estate, the deposit of such estate as determined in accordance with any paragraph of this section shall be

[1] This section is not to be construed as an express or implied approval of such commingling of trust funds as may be involved in the maintaining of general trust accounts.

[2] In determining claims under this paragraph, unallocated trust funds in the insured fiduciary bank will be included in the totals of such funds.

combined with that determined under any other paragraph of this section and the insured deposit shall be the total less any amount thereof in excess of $5,000.

PART 332—POWERS INCONSISTENT WITH PURPOSES OF FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE LAW

Sec.
332.1 Inconsistent powers.
332.2 Exercise prohibited.

§ 332.1 Inconsistent powers. A State nonmember insured bank (except a District bank) which does not have any of the powers hereinafter enumerated, or which, although it has any such power, does not exercise the same, shall not hereafter exercise, take, or assume the power: (a) to do a surety business; (b) to insure the fidelity of others; (c) to engage in insuring, guaranteeing or certifying titles to real estate, or (d) to guarantee or become surety upon the obligations of others.[1]

§ 332.2 Exercise prohibited. After the effective date of this regulation, any State nonmember bank (except a District bank) becoming an insured bank shall not thereafter exercise any of the powers enumerated in the preceding section.

PART 333—EXTENSION OF CORPORATE POWERS

Sec.
333.1 Classification of general character of business.
333.2 Change in general character of business.

§ 333.1 Classification of general character of business. State nonmember insured banks are divided into six categories for the purpose of classifying their general character or type of business,[2] viz: commercial banks, banks and trust companies, trust companies (without banking powers), savings banks, (including mutual and stock), industrial banks, and cash depositories.

§ 333.2 Change in general character of business. No State nonmember insured bank (except a District bank) or branch thereof shall hereafter cause or permit any change to be made in the general character or type of business exercised by it after the effective date of this regulation without the prior written consent of the Corporation.

PART 334—REMOVAL OF PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS

§ 334.1 Removal of principal place of business. No State nonmember insured bank (except a District bank) shall move its principal place of business without the prior written consent of the Corporation.

PART 350—PUBLIC INFORMATION

Sec.
350.0 Scope and source of authority.
350.1 Description of organization.
350.2 Delegations of final authority.
350.3 Securing information.

[1] The limitations prescribed in clause (d) do not include acceptance or endorsements made in the usual course of the banking business.

[2] A bank's business may include two or more of the general classifications.

SUBCHAPTER D—FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

PART 350—PUBLIC INFORMATION

§ 350.0 Scope and source of authority. The rules contained in this part are promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Cong.), the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U. S. C. 1751–1771) as amended, other applicable laws and Executive Order 9148 of April 27, 1942 and, in accordance with the provisions of section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act, describe the Corporation's central and field organization pertaining to Federal credit unions and the established places at which, and methods whereby, the public may secure information or make submittals or requests, and include appropriate provisions with respect to the information specified in sections 3 (b) and 3 (c) of said Act.

§ 350.1 Description of organization—(a) Central organization—(1) Board of Directors. See § 302.1 (a) of this chapter.

(2) Federal credit union committee. A committee on Federal credit unions, consisting of a member of the board of directors and such other staff members of the Corporation as are appointed by the board, has been established to consider recommendations from the Federal Credit Union Section of the Division of Examination relative to Federal credit union matters and to recommend to the board of directors the action to be taken thereon.

(3) Division of Examination. In addition to the duties of the Division of Examination enumerated in § 302.1 (d) (1) of this chapter, the Division of Examination is responsible for the examination and supervision of Federal credit unions, and advises, assists and makes recommendations to the Federal credit union committee and the board of directors relative to (i) action on applications for approval of organization certificates; and (ii) all supervisory action pertaining to Federal credit unions.

(b) Field organization. In addition to the duties of the Supervising Examiners enumerated in § 302.2 (a) of this chapter, each Supervising Examiner, aided by a staff of credit union examiners, supervises and examines Federal credit unions located within the states and territories comprising the District, makes recommendations to the Chief, Division of Examination with respect to (1) applications from Federal credit unions (or proposed Federal credit unions) for approval of organization certificates or any changes in charters and bylaws, (2) suspensions of charters, appointment of liquidating agents, revocation and cancellation of charters and other matters regarding the supervision of Federal credit unions including Federal credit unions in liquidation, and acts as the Corporation's representative in dealing directly with Federal credit unions in his District. For location of District offices see § 302.2 (a) of this chapter.

§ 350.2 Delegations of final authority. Section 303.1 of this chapter applies to all functions, powers and duties of the Corporation relative to the supervision and examination of Federal credit unions and the administration of the Federal Credit Union Act.

§ 350.3 Securing information—(a) Published information—(1) Annual report of operations of Federal credit unions. The Corporation publishes annually a report of operations of Federal credit unions.

(2) Securing published information. Published information relative to Federal credit unions may be obtained or examined as provided in § 304.1 (j) of this chapter.

(b) Unpublished information. Section 304.2 of this chapter shall apply to "records" and "information" (as defined in that section) relating to Federal credit unions, and such records and information pertaining to (1) examinations or investigations of Federal credit unions, (2) proceedings incidental to the suspension of charters of Federal credit unions and (3) liquidation of Federal credit unions, shall be "privileged" within the meaning of that term as used in said § 304.2.

(c) Securing certain other information. Information with respect to Federal credit union matters generally may be obtained by writing to the appropriate District office or to the Division of Examination.

(d) Opinions and orders. The provisions of § 304.5 of this chapter shall apply to opinions and orders in adjudication of cases involving Federal credit unions.

PART 351—PROCEDURES AND RULES OF PRACTICE

Sec.
351.0 Scope and source of authority.
351.1 Formulation and promulgation of rules and regulations.
351.2 Applications, requests and submittals.
351.3 Forms, instructions, and reports.
351.4 Liquidation of Federal credit unions.

§ 351.0 Scope and source of authority. The rules contained in this part are promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Cong.), the Federal Credit Union Act, as amended, and other applicable laws and Executive Order 9148 of April 27, 1942, and, in accordance with the provisions of section 3 (a) (2) of the Administrative Procedure Act, state the general course and method by which the Corporation's functions with respect to Federal credit unions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirement of formal or informal procedures available as well as forms and instructions as to the scope and content of papers and reports. This part also includes, by reference, appropriate provisions with respect to rules making, adjudications, and hearings prescribed by law.

Proceedings by the Corporation as used in this part shall have the meaning ascribed to that phrase in § 305.0 of this chapter.

§ 351.1 Formulation and promulgation of rules and regulations. The provisions of Part 306 of this chapter shall apply to the formulation and promulgation of rules and regulations regarding Federal credit unions.

§ 351.2 Applications, requests and submittals—(a) Incorporation of Federal credit unions. The form of organization certificate for use in organizing a Federal credit union (Form No. F. D. I. C. 697a FCU) and instructions for its use may be obtained from the Division of Examination or the appropriate District office. This form must be executed by not less than seven natural persons who propose to organize a Federal credit union to serve a group having a common bond of occupation, or association, or a group within a well-defined neighborhood, community or rural district, and should be filed with the Supervising Examiner of the District in which the principal office of the proposed Federal credit union will be located. A check or money order in the amount of $25.00, payable to Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, for the investigation fee of $20.00 and charter fee of $5.00, shall be forwarded with said forms. Upon receipt of this form and such additional information as may be required in connection therewith, the Corporation shall cause an investigation to be made as required by section 4 of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U. S. C. 1754) and the report thereof together with the Superising Examiner's recommendations as to whether or not the organization certificate should be approved shall be forwarded to the Division of Examination, which shall make its recommendations to the Federal credit union committee. After action by the credit union committee, the recommendatons of the Supervising Examiner, the Division of Examination and the Federal credit union committee shall be placed before the board of directors of the Corporation. The board shall consider the factors enumerated in said section 4 of the Federal Credit Union Act and shall either approve or disapprove the organization certificate. Upon approval the incorporators shall be notified accordingly and one of the duplicate organization certificates filed by the incorporators shall be returned to them duly certified by the Secretary of the Corporation as approved. The organization certificate as approved by the Corporation shall be the charter of the Federal credit union. A copy of the standard form of bylaws will also be transmitted to the incorporators together with the certified organization certificate. If the organization certificate shall be disapproved, the incorporators shall be so notified and informed of the basis for disapproval, and the charter fee of $5.00 shall be returned to the incorporators. There shall be no refund of the investigation fee of $20.00 in any case.

(b) Other applications. Except as otherwise provided by rule or regulation, all applications, requests, and submittals regarding Federal credit unions for which no form of application has been prescribed by the Corporation should be (1) in writing; (2) signed by the applicant or his duly authorized agent; and (3) should contain a statement of the applicant's interest therein, a complete and concise statement of the action requested and the reasons and facts relied upon as the basis for such requested action, and should be addressed to the Supervising Examiner for the appropriate District or to the Division of Examination. The applicant shall furnish such other pertinent information as may be required by the Corporation.

Whenever applicable, the forms specified in § 351.3 should be used and the instructions issued with respect thereto should be followed and submission made as therein provided.

(c) Procedure on applications. Unless otherwise provided in this subchapter all applications regarding Federal credit union matters (including matters involving Federal credit unions in liquidation) shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration and action after action by and upon recommendations from the Supervising Examiner for the appropriate District, the Division of Examination and the Federal credit union committee.

(d) Notice of disposition of application. The provisions of § 307.11 of this chapter shall apply to grants or denials relating to Federal credit union matters.

§ 351.3 Forms, instructions, and reports—(a) Report of officials for each year. This report (Form No. FDIC 695 FCU Rev.) must be filed annually by each operating Federal credit union upon call by the Corporation. The report must be filed in quadruplicate with the Supervising Examiner of the District in which the Federal credit union is located. Copies of this form may be obtained from the District office or the Division of Examination.

(b) Supervisory committee audit report. This report (Form CU–110) must be made by the supervisory committee of every Federal credit union to its board of directors for each quarter of the year on the last days of March, June, September and December of each year. The supervisory committee must also submit a report on this form for the quarters ending June 30 and December 31 of each year to the Supervising Examiner of the District in which the Federal credit union is located promptly following said dates. Sample copies of this form may be obtained from the District office or the Division of Examination.

(c) Financial and statistical report. This report (Form No. FCU 109 Rev.) made as of June 30 of each year, must be filed by every operating Federal credit union, promptly following said date, with the Supervising Examiner of the District in which the Federal credit union is located. The Corporation may require a Federal credit union to file such report more frequently if in the judgment of the board of directors of the Corporation, the condition of the Federal credit union so requires. Sample copies of this form may be obtained from the District office or the Division of Examination. A similar report on Form 1057 made as of December 31 of each year must be filed by every operating Federal credit union, promptly following said date, with the Division of Research and Statistics. Form 1057 is furnished to all such credit unions by, and may be obtained form, that Division.

(d) Liquidation forms and reports. The forms relative to liquidation of Federal credit unions and the requirements for filing the same are described in § 351.4.

(e) Forms and instructions. The following forms and instructions have been prepared by the Corporation for the use of Federal credit unions and, unless otherwise indicated, may be obtained upon written request by any person properly and directly concerned therewith by addressing such request to the Supervising Examiner of the appropriate District office or the Division of Examination. These forms must be used wherever applicable in complying with the procedure set forth under this subchapter.

(1) FDIC 697 (a) FCU. Organization Certificate. At least seven of the organizers of a proposed Federal credit union must execute and sign, under oath, an organization certificate on Form FDIC 697 (a) FCU. The certificate must be executed and signed in duplicate and forwarded to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the proposed Federal credit union will be located.

(2) FDIC 697 (b) FCU. Standard Bylaws. Every Federal credit union must adopt bylaws in the standard form prescribed for Federal credit unions on Form FDIC 697 (b) FCU. Copies of the bylaws will be furnished to a newly organized Federal credit union when notice of approval of the organization certificate is sent to the Federal credit union by the Corporation.

(3) FDIC 695 FCU Rev. Report of Officials. Each operating Federal credit union must submit an annual report of its officials on Form FDIC 695 FCU Rev. which contains the name and title of each officer, director and committee member. The report must be executed in quadruplicate and filed with the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located.

(4) CU–110. Supervisory Committee Audit Report. The supervisory committee of each Federal credit union must prepare and submit a report on Form CU–110 to the board of directors of the Federal credit union with respect to its examination of the affairs of the Federal credit union, including audit of its books, for each quarter of a year ending on the last days of March, June, September and December of each year. Sample copies of Form CU–110 may be obtained from the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located or from the Division of Examination. Copies in quantity may be obtained from commercial sources. The supervisory committee must submit a report on the same form for the quarters ending June 30 and December 31 of each year to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located.

(5) FCU–109 Rev. Financial and Statistical Report. Each operating Federal credit union must file a Financial and Statistical Report as of the close of business on June 30 of each year, or more frequently if requested, on Form FCU 109 Rev., with the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located. Sample copies of Form FCU 109 Rev. may be obtained from the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located or from the Division of Examination. Copies in quantity may be obtained from commercial sources. The report is in the form of a standard statement of Assets and Liabilities and a standard profit and loss statement. When special circumstances so require additional detail information with respect to specific asset, liability, profit or loss items may be required. The report must be signed and certified as correct by the Treasurer of the reporting Federal credit union. The same report as of the close of business of the last day of each month must be posted in a conspicuous place in each Federal credit union office within seven days after the close of each month.

(6) FDIC–1057 FCU. Financial and Statistical Report. Each operating Federal credit union must file a Financial and Statistical Report as of the close of business on December 31 of each year on Form FDIC 1507 FCU which is substantially the same as Form FCU 109 Rev. The Report properly executed and certified as correct by the Treasurer of the reporting Federal credit union, must be forwarded to the Division of Research and Statistics.

(7) FDIC 952 FCU. Liquidation Request. Each Federal credit union contemplating dissolution must forward a liquidation request on Form FDIC 952 FCU to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located whenever it is impossible to obtain a meeting of members at which two-thirds will be present. The request must be signed by at least two-thirds of the members.

(8) FDIC 952 (a) FCU. Shares and Loan Balances at the Commencement of Voluntary Liquidation. At the commencement of voluntary liquidation of a Federal credit union the officer or agent conducting the liquidation must file with the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located a schedule of the shares held by members and loans outstanding on Form FDIC 952 (a) FCU.

(9) (No Number Assigned). Notice to Members and Share and Loan Confirmation. At the commencement of voluntary liquidation of a Federal credit union a notice of the liquidation must be given to each member together with a request that the member confirm in writing the (1) shares held by him in the Federal credit union and (2) the loans owed by him to the Federal credit union on the standard form prescribed for that purpose for Federal credit unions.

(10) (No Number Assigned). Request for Final Examination and Distribution of Assets. When the liquidation of a Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation has proceeded to the point where a final distribution of its assets may be made, the officer or agent conducting the liquidation must submit a request to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located for a final examination and distribution of assets on the standard form prescribed for that purpose for Federal credit unions. The application must be accompanied by Forms FDIC 952 (b) FCU, FDIC 952 (c) FCU, FCU 108, and a Form FCU 109 Rev. prepared after the Federal credit union's books are closed and prior to final distribution of its assets.

(11) FDIC 952 (b) FCU. Proposed Distribution to Shareholders. A Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation must submit a Form FDIC 952 (b) FCU showing the share balances of members at the commencement of liquidation, each member's pro rata share of profit or loss and the amount proposed to be distributed to each member in the final distribution of the Federal credit union's assets. Such Forms must be submitted to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located at the time it submits its application for final examination and final distribution of assets.

(12) FDIC 952 (c) FCU. Loan Collections During Liquidation. A Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation must submit a Form FDIC 952 (c) FCU showing the unpaid loan balances due from members at the commencement of liquidation, the amount paid thereon during liquidation, the amount of shares applied to bad loans and the amount of bad loans charged against reserve accounts. Such forms must be submitted to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located at the same time it submits its application for final examinations and final distribution of assets.

(13) FCU–108. Bank Reconciliation. A Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation must submit a bank reconciliation on Form FCU–108 showing that the cash on the Federal credit union's bank account statement is in agreement with the cash as shown on its books after proper adjustments. Such forms must be submitted to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located at the same time it submits its application for final liquidation and final distribution of assets.

(14) FDIC 952 FCU. Certificate of Dissolution. After the final examination of a Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation and a final distribution of its assets to members have been made, the officer or agent conducting the liquidation must sign, under oath, a Certificate on Form FDIC 952 D FCU that all of the liabilities of the Federal credit union have been paid and that its assets have been equitably distributed to its members. Such certificates must be submitted to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located as part of the final report of liquidation.

FDIC 952(e) FCU. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Trustee for Unpaid Claims. After the final distribution of the assets of a Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation to members of the officer or agent conducting the liquidation must submit a list of unpaid claims against the credit union to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on Form 952(e) FCU showing the name of the member of other creditor, the original amount of the claim, additions thereto or deductions therefrom, the unpaid balance and the last known address of the member or creditor. Such forms together with a check or money order payable to "Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Trustee" for such unpaid claims and the signature cards of members who have not received payment must be submitted to the Supervising Examiner of the District wherein the Federal credit union is located.

§ 351.4 Liquidation of Federal credit unions.—(a) Voluntary liquidation.—(1) Approval of members. Any Federal credit union may go into voluntary liquidation upon approval of two-thirds of its members in writing or by vote at a regular meeting of members or a special meeting called for that purpose. Where authorization for liquidation is to be obtained at a meeting of members, notice in writing shall be given to each member at least seven days before such meeting and promptly after said meeting a copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the appropriate District office of the Corporation together with a transcript of the minutes of the meeting duly certified by an officer or director of the Federal credit union and a letter stating the reasons for liquidation. If voluntary liquidation is authorized by members in writing two-thirds of the members must execute a Liquidation Request (Form FDIC 952 FCU) and an officer or director of the Federal credit union shall certify to the Supervising Examiner of the appropriate District office of the Corporation that at least two-thirds of the members have executed said Liquidation Request and shall forward such signed request to said District office.

(2) Effective date of liquidation. Upon approval of two-thirds of its members and the furnishing of the papers and information to the District office of the Corporation hereinabove required, a Federal credit union shall be deemed to be in voluntary liquidation effective as of the date of transmittal of the minutes of members' meeting or the written request to the said District office of the Corporation and the members of the board of directors of the Federal credit union shall thereupon become trustees for the purpose of liquidation, and through such persons as they may designate, shall proceed to convert its assets to cash, collect obligations owing to it, and wind up its affairs.

(3) Withdrawal of shares and making of loans prohibited during liquidation. Immediately upon decision by the board of directors of a Federal credit union to seek approval of members for liquidation, withdrawals of shares and granting of loans shall be suspended pending action by members on the proposal to liquidate, and, upon approval by members of such proposal, withdrawals of shares and the making of loans shall be permanently discontinued.

(4) Notice to creditors and members. Upon approval of two-thirds of the members of a Federal credit union of a proposal to liquidate, the board of directors of the Federal credit union shall immediately cause to be prepared and mailed to all creditors a notice to present claims within ninety days. Notice shall also be forwarded to each member informing him that the credit union is in liquidation, advising him as to the amount of his share and loan balances as shown on the books of the credit union, and requesting submission of his passbook for confirmation of share and loan balances. A form of notice to members and request for share and loan confirmation has been prepared for use by Federal credit unions. (See § 351.3 (e) of this part).

(5) Financial and statistical reports. As of the day voluntary liquidation of a Federal credit union becomes effective, its board of directors shall cause its books to be closed in a manner similar to the procedure used in closing books at the end of the year and shall cause a financial and statistical report (Form F. D. I. C. 109 Rev.) to be prepared and forwarded to the appropriate District office of the Corporation, and thereafter such reports shall be forwarded monthly to the said District office within ten days after the close of each month.

(6) Final examination, distribution and reports. A Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation shall not make any distribution of funds to members until after final examination has been made by the Corporation and the proposed distribution to members has been approved by the examiner for the Corporation who shall make the final examination. After all assets of the Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation have been converted to cash or found to be worthless and all loans and debts owing to it have been collected or found to be uncollectible, the Federal credit union may file with the appropriate District office of the Corporation a request for final examination and for approval of proposed distribution to members using the form entitled "Request for Final Examination". (See § 351.3 (e).) There shall be forwarded to the said District office together with said Request for Final Examination the following information and forms:

(i) Financial and statistical report after the books are closed prior to final distribution (Form FCU 109 Rev.);

(ii) Schedule of proposed distribution to members (Form FDIC 952b–FCU);

(iii) List of members having loans at the commencement of liquidation showing the amount collected from each and in addition if the loan has been charged off, the amount charged to reserve for bad loans (Form FDIC 952c–FCU);

(iv) Schedule showing in detail the assets which have been disposed of for cash (No special form required);

(v) Bank reconciliation showing that the cash on the credit union's bank account statement is in agreement with the cash as shown on its books after proper adjustments (Form FCU 108);

(vi) Statement indicating the number of passbooks or signed confirmations that have been submitted by the members and are in possession of the Federal credit union. The statement should also indicate where the records are located in order that the examiner may make the final examination. (No special form required.)

As soon as possible after receipt of said request, the Supervising Examiner shall detail a Federal credit union examiner to make said final examination. When the final examination has been completed and the examiner has found that the books and records are in satisfactory order and that the final dividend proposed to be paid by the Federal credit union has been properly computed, a check in payment of the examination fee as computed and billed by the examiner shall be drawn by the Federal credit union payable to "Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation" and delivered to the examiner. Checks shall then be drawn for the amounts to be distributed to each member who has submitted a passbook or a confirmation of his balance and entries shall be made in the members' passbooks on hand to reflect the dividend paid on members' shares. The members' passbooks shall be retained with the books and records of the Federal credit union.

A schedule shall be prepared by the Federal credit union showing the name of each member who has not submitted his passbook or a confirmation in support of his claim. This schedule should contain, in addition to the name, the total original amount of each claim, any additions to or deductions from this amount and the final balance which has not been paid. The original membership application (signature card) of each member listed on said schedule shall be attached thereto. A certified check payable to "Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Trustee" in an amount equal to the total of the dividends on the claims listed on said schedule shall be drawn by the Federal credit union and the schedule and check shall be delivered to the examiner for Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation upon completion of the examination. The Corporation will hold said funds as trustee for the individuals named on said schedule. Such individuals or any person claiming on their behalf may submit their claim for such funds to the Fiscal Agent. The charter of the Federal credit union, its bylaws and permit to operate shall also be delivered to said examiner upon completion of the examination. Within sixty days after final distribution has been approved by the examiner the Federal credit union shall complete and forward to the appropriate District office the following papers:

(i) Properly executed Certificate of Dissolution Form FDIC 952D–FCU);

(ii) All cancelled checks which have cleared through the bank since final examination;

(iii) A schedule listing all checks which have not cleared the bank within said sixty day period showing the name of the member or creditor to whom the check was issued and the amount of each check, and a certified check drawn by the Federal credit union in the total amount of all checks listed on the schedule, made payable to "Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Trustee". These funds shall be held by the Corporation as trustee for the individuals listed on such schedule.

(iv) All books and records of the credit union not previously surrendered to the examiner.

Further detailed instructions, information, and assistance pertaining to voluntary liquidations may be obtained from the appropriate District office of the Corporation.

(b) Involuntary liquidation: basis for action. The Corporation may suspend or revoke the charter of any Federal credit union, or place the same in involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent therefor upon the finding by the board of directors of the Corporation that the organization is bankrupt or insolvent or has violated any provisions of its charter, its bylaws, the Federal Credit Union Act, or of any regulations issued under authority of said Act.

(1) Notice of intention to suspend charter. In any case where the board of directors of the Corporation shall make any of the findings set forth in § 351.4 (b) of this part as to any Federal credit union, it may order that a Notice of Intention to Suspend Charter be served upon said Federal credit union, and that said Federal credit union show cause why its charter should not be suspended. Forthwith upon the issuance of said order, the said Federal credit union shall be notified thereof by mail and furnished with a certified copy of the order and a statement of the findings on which it is based, and, within the period of time specified in said order, the Federal credit union shall show cause why its charter should not be suspended. The order to show cause shall be returnable at the District office of the Corporation for the District in which the Federal credit union is located. No hearings shall be held on such orders but the Federal credit union may forward a statement in writing to the appropriate District office setting forth reasons why its charter should not be suspended, accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors of the Federal credit union authorizing the forwarding of the statement. If no statement is received within the period of time specified in the order, or if the proffered reasons why the charter should not be suspended are deemed insufficient, the board of directors of the Corporation may order that the charter be suspended and that the Federal credit union be ordered to show cause why it should not be placed in involuntary liquidation.

(2) Suspension of charter, show cause order for involuntary liquidation. After notice of intention to suspend charter and order to show cause why its charter should not be suspended have been served upon a Federal credit union and it shall fail to file the required statement within the period specified in said order, or the proffered reasons why its charter should not be suspended are deemed insufficient, or if the board of directors of the Corporation shall make any of the findings described in § 351.4 (b), the board of directors of the Corporation may order the suspension of the charter of said Federal credit union and order it to show cause why it should not be placed in involuntary liquidation. Forthwith upon the issuance of said order, the said Federal credit union shall be notified by mail thereof and furnished with a certified copy of the order, and a statement of the findings on which it is based. The order to show cause shall be returnable at the District office of the Corporation for the District in which the Federal credit union is located. No hearings shall be held on said show cause order, but the Federal credit union may show cause why it should not be placed in involuntary liquidation in the same manner, at the same place, and within the same period of time specified in § 351.4 (b) (1). If no statement is received within the specified time limit, or if the proffered reasons why it should not be placed in involuntary liquidation are not deemed sufficient, the board of directors of the Corporation may order liquidation of the said Federal credit union and appoint a liquidating agent therefor.

(3) Involuntary liquidation and appointment of liquidating agent. After order suspending charter of a Federal credit union and ordering it to show cause why it should not be placed in liquidation has been served upon a Federal credit union and it shall fail to file the required statement within the period of time specified in said order or the proffered reasons why it should not be placed in liquidation are deemed insufficient, or if the board of directors of the Corporation shall make any of the findings described in the first sentence of § 351.4 (b), the board of directors of the Corporation may order that a Federal credit union be placed in involuntary liquidation and may appoint a liquidating agent therefor. Forthwith upon the issuance of said order and the appointment of a liquidating agent for a Federal credit union pursuant thereto, a certified copy of the said order shall be served upon the Federal credit union together with a statement of the findings on which said order is based. Upon receipt of said order the officers and directors of the said Federal credit union shall deliver to the said liquidating agent possession and control of all books, records, assets and property of every description of the Federal credit union and said liquidating agent shall proceed to convert said assets to cash, collect all debts due to said Federal credit union and to wind up its affairs in accordance with the provisions of Section 16 of the Federal Credit Union Act, as amended, (12 U. S. C. 1766) and the instructions and procedures issued to said liquidating agent by the District office of the Corporation for the District in which the Federal credit union in liquidation is located.

(4) Immediate suspension or liquidation. In any case where the board of directors of the Corporation shall find that a Federal credit union is insolvent and the interests of its members require immediate action or that the issuance of orders to show cause provided for in §§ 351.4 (b) (1) and 351.4 (b) (2) will not serve any purpose, the board of directors of the Corporation may order suspension of the charter of a Federal credit union or may order involuntary liquidation of a Federal credit union and appoint a liquidating agent therefor without advance notice to the Federal credit union and without the prior issuance of the orders to show cause provided for in §§ 351.4 (b) (1) and 351.4 (b) (2).

SUBPART A—CENTRAL ORGANIZATION

§ 01.1 In general. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation was created as a body corporate by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act approved January 22, 1932 (47 Stat. 5; 15 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and has its principal office at Washington, D. C.

§ 01.2 Board of Directors. The management of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is vested pursuant to the provisions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, in a Board of Directors, consisting of five members, appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

§ 01.3 Executive Committee. The Executive Committee of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation consists of the Chairman and two other members of its Board of Directors.

§ 01.4 Divisions. The principal Divisions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation are as follows: Secretary's Office, Examining Division, Auditing Division, Self-Liquidating Division, Office of the Comptroller, Office of the Budget Director, Statistical and Economic Division, Division of Information, Railroad Division, Division of Personnel, Legal Division, Small Business Division, the Treasurer's Office, and the Agency Division.

§ 01.5 Offices—(a) In general. There are established in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation the Office of Metals Reserve, Office of Defense Plants, Office of Rubber Reserve, Office of Defense Supplies, and the Disaster Loan Section, which offices were separate corporations prior to the Joint Resolution approved June 30, 1945 which transferred the functions of Metals Reserve Company, Defense Plants Corporation, Rubber Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, and Disaster Loan Corporation to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

(b) Office of Metals Reserve. The Office of Metals Reserve of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation performs functions which were originally performed by Metals Reserve Company, a former subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which was created on June 28, 1940 under authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, with its principal office located in Washington, D. C. The Office of Metals Reserve is engaged principally in the production, acquisition, carrying, selling and otherwise dealing in strategic and critical materials, particularly metals and minerals. In the acquisition and distribution of these materials to manufacturers the Office of Metals Reserve works in cooperation with such other Agencies as Civilian Production Administration and the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Office of Defense Plants. The Office of Defense Plants performs functions which were originally performed by the Defense Plant Corporation, a former subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which was created on August 2, 1940 under authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act. The Office of Defense Plants is engaged in the establishment of facilities for the production and transportation of materials and supplies, the acquisition of critical items and the operation of facilities constructed by the Office of Defense Plants. The Office of Defense Plants is now engaged in the continuance, in accordance with section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act and the War Mobilization Act of such operations and activities as are deemed essential by Agencies of the Government which had recommended the established programs and by the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion. In addition to such continuing projects, Office of Defense Plants is engaged in the liquidation and disposition of RFC properties, particularly in relation to clearance of Government property from privately owned and Government owned plants; placing of plants in shut-down or stand-by condition and the protection and maintenance thereof; settlement of termination claims in accordance with the Contract Settlement Act; disposition of property in accordance with contractual operations and in accordance with the provisions of the Surplus Property Act; settlement of the accountability of contractors to whom facilities have been made available; activities necessary for the protection of the Government's investment in Reconstruction Finance Corporation owned properties and declaration of excess property as surplus in accordance with the Surplus Property Act.

(d) Office of Rubber Reserve. The Office of Rubber Reserve of Reconstruction Finance Corporation performs functions which were originally performed by Rubber Reserve Company, a former subsidiary of Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which was created on June 28, 1940 under authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, with its principal office located in Washington, D. C. The Office of Rubber Reserve is engaged in the importation of all natural rubber purchased abroad for consignment to this country; the production of various types of synthetic rubber in government-owned plants which are operated for its account; and in the warehousing and distribution of all natural rubber which it purchases and of all synthetic rubber which it produces.

(e) Office of Defense Supplies. The Office of Defense Supplies performs functions which were originally performed by Defense Supplies Corporation a former subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which was created on August 29, 1940 under authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act with its principal office located in Washington, D. C. The business of the Office of Defense Supplies includes the production and acquisition for sale under Government allocation and for storage and stock-pile purposes of strategic and critical materials necessary in connection with reconversion. The Office of Defense Supplies is also charged with the payment of subsidies on meat, petroleum, coal and other commodities and is engaged in premium payments to producers of building materials and the guarantee of markets for prefabricated houses in connection with the Veterans' Housing Program. In carrying out of the afore-mentioned programs close cooperation is maintained with the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, Civilian Production Administration, Office of Price Administration and National Housing Administration.

(f) Disaster Loan Section. The Disaster Loan Section of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation performs functions which were originally performed by the Disaster Loan Corporation, a corporation created by an Act of Congress approved February 11, 1937, with its principal office located in Washington, D. C. The Disaster Loan Section, upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, makes such loans as the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may determine to be necessary or appropriate because of floods or other catastrophes occurring during the period between January 1, 1936 and June 30, 1947.

§ 01.6 Affiliated organizations—(a) Rubber Development Corporation. Rubber Development Corporation is a Corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal office located at 811 Vermont Avenue, N. W., Washington 25, D. C. All of its capital stock is owned by Reconstruction Finance Corporation which by Executive Order 9630, dated September 27, 1945, has supervisory control over it. Rubber Development Corporation is engaged in carrying on all activities connected with, arising out of, or in any way related to the exploration, development, and procurement of crude rubber, balata, cryptostegia, guayule, and other gums of similar utility in all areas outside the continental United States for which the United States has assumed responsibility. It is also engaged in the procurement of liquid latex, scrap rubber, and reclaimed rubber and rubber products in foreign countries.

(b) U. S. Commercial Company. The U. S. Commercial Company was created March 27, 1942, by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation pursuant to section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended. During the period July 15, 1943 to October 20, 1945, control of the U. S. Commercial Company was vested in the Foreign Economic Administration. Pursuant to Executive Order 9630 the U. S. Commercial Company was returned to Reconstruction Finance Corporation on October 21, 1945 with its principal office located at 811 Vermont Avenue, N. W., Washington 25, D. C. The activities of the Company include facilitating the resumption of American trade with areas with which direct commercial dealings have been cut off or restricted by reason of the war and the operation of certain special projects for the Army, the Navy, the Department of State and other sponsoring agencies in liberated and occupied area.

(c) Federal National Mortgage Association. The Federal National Mortgage Association (formerly the National Mortgage Association of Washington) was organized pursuant to the provisions of Title III of the National Housing Act, as amended. The capital stock of the Association is owned by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The Association is staffed by Reconstruction Finance Corporation employees and functions through a principal office in Washington with agents stationed in the various Loan Agencies of the RFC. The principal objectives of the Association are (a) to establish a market for first mortgages, insured under Title II of the National Housing Act, as amended, covering properties upon which are located newly constructed houses on housing projects; (b) to facilitate the construction and financing of economically sound rental housing projects, apartment buildings which may be operated at a moderate scale of rentals, and groups of houses or multi-family dwellings for rent or sale, by making loans secured by first mortgages, covering such projects, apartment buildings, or groups of houses or multi-family dwellings; (c) to make available to individual and institutional investors, rates, bonds, or other such obligations issued by the Association pursuant to the provisions of section 302 of title III of the act and the regulations of the Federal Housing Administration. The Association is managed by a Board of Directors.

(d) The RFC Mortgage Company. The RFC Mortgage Company was organized under the laws of Maryland on March 14, 1935, to aid in the (a) maintenance of a market for sound mortgages on urban income-producing properties when credit is not otherwise available at reasonable rates and terms, and (b) maintenance of a market for mortgages insured under titles I and II of the National Housing Act, as amended; and to facilitate the construction of war housing by the purchase of mortgages insured under title VI of the National Housing Act, as amended; and by making loans secured by mortgages insured under section 608 of title IV of said act, as amended; also assists in the establishment of a market for veterans' home loans guaranteed or insured by the Veterans' Administration under title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended, by purchasing such loans from originating institutions.

(e) RFC Price Adjustment Board. Information regarding the organization of the RFC Price Adjustment Board is set forth in 32 CFR 822.6.

§ 02.1 Loans to business enterprises—(a) Statutory authority. The authority of Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make, and cooperate with banks or other lending institutions (hereinafter collectively called "banks") in the making of, loans to business enterprises is contained in section 5d of the RFC Act, as amended, and pursuant to the transfer or authority effected by Executive Order 9665, dated December 27, 1945, in section 4 (f) of the SWPC Act of June 11, 1942 (Pub. Law 603, 77th Cong.). Other statutory provisions bearing on such lending authority are found in section 16 (a), (b), and (e) of the RFC Act, as amended, and section 4 of the Act approved June 10, 1933. Pursuant to, and in compliance with such statutory provisions, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will:

(b) Direct loans. Make a direct loan to a business enterprise on application of such business enterprise to the appropriate Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency.

(c) Participation loans—administered by RFC. Authorize the execution of an agreement to sell to a bank a specified participation of a loan to be made by Reconstruction Finance Corporation to a business enterprise on application of the bank to the appropriate Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency. The business enterprise seeking such loan must make application therefor to the interested bank.

(d) Participation loans made and administered by banks. Authorize the purchase of a specified participation, or the execution of an agreement to purchase a specified participation, in a loan to be made by a bank to a business enterprise, on application of the bank to the appropriate Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency. The business enterprise seeking such loan must apply therefor to the interested bank.

(e) Blanket participations. Enter into a Blanket Participation Agreement (under which Reconstruction Finance Corporation agrees to purchase a participation of 75%, or such lesser percentage as may be requested by bank, of each loan approved by bank thereunder) with a bank approved by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Directors, which bank, after the execution of such Agreement, can make loans to business enterprises of not in excess of $350,000 to any one business enterprise, upon such terms and conditions and for such purposes as the bank may prescribe, provided that all applicable statutory conditions and the provisions of such Agreement, are complied with.

(f) Terms and conditions. All loans, participations or agreements to participate, except those referred to in paragraph (e) of this section, are made on such terms and conditions and for such purposes as are satisfactory to Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

(g) Additional information. Specific information may be found in Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circuluar No. 15 (Revised), dated January 1942; Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 25, dated March 1945; and Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 13 (Revised), dated May 1946, copies of which Circulars may be obtained from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agencies. Further information, if desired, may be procured by direct consultation with members of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agencies.

§ 02.2 Loans to banks and other financial institutions. Procedures in connection with loans to banks and other financial institutions are set forth in 13 CFR 1.1 et seq.

§ 02.3 Loans to railroads and railroad receivers. Procedures in connection with loans to railroads and railroad receivers are set forth in 13 CFR 2.1 et seq., subject to the following modification:

(a) The address of "1825 H Street NW., Washington, D. C." referred to in Section 2.3 should be changed to read "811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C."

§ 02.4 Banks and trust companies; subscriptions for and loans secured by preferred stock, purchase of capital notes and debentures. The procedures for subscriptions for and loans secured by preferred stock, purchase of capital notes and debentures of banks and trust companies are set forth in 13 CFR 6.1 et seq., subject to the following modification:

(a) Paragraph (b) of § 6.2 is amended to read as follows:

"The terms of the articles of association or incorporation of the bank or trust company governing its preferred stock, capital notes, or debentures, and the terms of the capital notes or debentures must comply substantially with standard forms prepared by the Corporation. The following forms have been prepared to cover provisions of articles of association or incorporation authorizing the issue of the following mentioned securities: (1) One class of preferred stock—RFC Form P. S. 1–A (Revised 10–15–34); (2) two classes of preferred stock—RFC Form P. S. 3 (Revised 10–15–34); (3) RFC Form P. S. 2 (Revised (10–15–34) has been prepared to cover the actual provisions of debentures."

§ 02.5 Loans for agricultural land improvements under Emergency Farm Mortgage Act, 1933. The procedures in connection with loans for agricultural land improvements under the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act, 1933, are set forth in 13 CFR 7.1 et seq., subject to the following modifications.

(a) Under § 7.11 applications should be sent to 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C., and three complete signed copies of each application will be required rather than five as heretofore set forth.

(b) Under § 7.13 the year "1938" should be substituted for the years designated in paragraph (d) subparagraphs (5) and (6); paragraph (h) and paragraph (n) subparagraph (1); paragraph (n) subparagraph (3); paragraph (o) subparagraph (5); and paragraph (p) subparagraph (4) (iv) and (v).

(c) Section 7.14 paragraph (e) should be amended to read as follows:

Quotations or sale prices applying to obligations of the applicant, local or otherwise, beginning with 1928, and each year thereafter, stating sources of quotations and sale prices, if available.

(d) Schedule A under § 7.17 should be amended by substituting the years 1939 and 1940 for the years 1929 and 1930, respectively.

(e) Schedule C contained in § 7.17 is amended by substituting for the years 1928 to 1934 the years 1938 to 1946.

§ 02.6 Loans to incorporated managing agencies of farmers' cooperative mineral rights pools. The procedures in connection with loans to incorporated managing agencies of Farmers' Cooperative Mineral Rights Pools are set forth in 13 CFR 16.1 et seq.

§ 02.7 Loans to fishing industry. Procedures relating to loans to fishing industries are set forth in 13 CFR 17.1 et seq.

§ 02.8 Refinancing of indebtedness incurred in connection with public schools. The procedures for refinancing of indebtedness incurred in connection with public schools are set forth in 13 CFR 20.1 et seq., subject to the following modifications:

(a) The address of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation referred to in § 20.17 should be amended to read "811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C."; further, three complete signed copies of an application should be submitted rather than six as required heretofore.

(b) In § 20.18 (h) the years 1938 through 1946 should be substituted for the years 1928 through 1935.

(c) In § 20.18 (k) (7) quotations on sale prices should be presented, beginning with 1928, and for each year thereafter.

(d) In Schedule B contained in § 20.20 there should be substituted for the years 1928 through 1935 the years 1938 through 1946.

(e) In Schedule B-1 contained in § 20.20 there should be substituted for the years 1928 through 1934 the years 1938 through 1946.

§ 02.9 Mining loans—(a) In General—(1) Statutory provisions. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized to make mining loans under the provisions of, section 14, of the act approved June 19, 1934, as amended, Public, No. 784, 76th Congress (54 Stat. Chap. 721, p. 897), which section provides:

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to make loans upon sufficient security to recognized and established corporations, individuals, and partnerships engaged in the business of mining, milling, or smelting ores. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered also to make loans to corporations, individuals, and partnerships engaged in the development of a quartz ledge, or vein, or other ore body, or placer deposit, containing gold, silver, or tin, or gold and silver, or any strategic or critical mineral which in the opinion of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation would be of value to the United States in time of war, when, in the opinion of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, there is sufficient reason to believe that, through the use of such loan in the development of a lode, ledge, or vein, or mineral deposit, or placer gravel deposit, there will be developed a sufficient quantity of ore, or placer deposits of a sufficient value to pay a profit upon mining operations: Provided, That not to exceed $20,000 shall be loaned to any corporation, individual, or partnership for such development purposes; except that not in excess of $40,000 in the aggregate may be loaned to any corporation, individual, or partnership for such purposes; if such corporation, individual, or partnership has expended funds previously obtained from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for such purposes in such manner as to justify an additional loan for such purposes: Provided further, That there shall not be allocated or made available for such development loans a sum in excess of $10,000,000.

(2) Applications. Application forms may be secured from any Loan Agency or Mining Section Field Office,[1] or by writing to Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C. Applications are not prepared by the Corporation or its representatives, but advice and information will be given upon request. Applications should be filed in duplicate with the nearest Loan Agency or Mining Section Field Office or may be mailed to Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

(3) Additional information. Specific information as to mining loans may be found in Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 14 (Revised), dated December 1944.

(b) General mining loans—(1) Purposes. Applications will be considered only in connection with the business of mining, milling, or smelting a native compound from which a metal or metals may be commercially extracted at a profit. Loans may be made for the construction, improvement, or repair of mills, smelters, refineries, dredges, etc., purchase of equipment, etc., and to provide working capital. Loans will not be granted to purchase mineral acreage, to prospect, to develop treatment processes, to make ore accessible for examination, where the loan is promotional, nor to pay outstanding indebtedness, except that an incidental portion of the loan may, under certain circumstances, be used to pay taxes on properties necessary to operation.

(2) Amount. Loans will be limited to an amount reasonably required to accomplish the purposes for which they may be authorized.

(3) Security. Security may consist of a mortgage on the mining property, or on property not connected with the mining project. The value of mining property offered as security should be established by blocked-out ore accessible for examination. If the applicant does not own the mining property, a mortgage by the owner, assignment and modification of leases or options, and subordination of royalties may be required. Assignment of favorable milling, smelting, sales, or transportation contracts also may be required.

(c) Development mining loans—(1) Eligibility. The Corporation is authorized to make loans to corporations, individuals, and partnerships engaged in development of an ore body, or placer deposit, containing gold or silver or a strategic or critical mineral of value in time of war, when there is sufficient reason to believe that through the use of such loan there will be developed a sufficient quantity of ore, or placer deposit of a sufficient value to pay a profit upon mining operations. Applicant must be owner or lessee of the property or of the right to remove the ore. Loans will not be made to purchase mineral acreage.

(2) Purposes. These loans are made to develop such ore deposits, and not to develop treatment processes, to construct mills, smelters or refineries, to prospect, to make ore accessible for examination, nor where the loan is promotional.

(3) Amount. Loans will be limited originally to amounts (not in excess of $20,000) reasonably required to pay for the cost of the contemplated development, including purchase of materials and supplies. Additional development loans will be made solely in the discretion of the Corporation. Development loans to any one applicant cannot exceed in the aggregate $40,000.

(4) Security. Except that Applicant must give a chattel mortgage on equipment acquired with loan or operation funds, the loan will be payable only out of proceeds of operation, for which a lien must be given. Cash minimum royalties or property payments must be subordinated and modification of leases and options may be required.

§ 02.10 Defense mining loans—(a) Statutory provisions. In addition to mining loans above provided for, the Corporation may authorize mining loans under the provisions of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended by Public 603, 77th Congress, which provides:

• • • In order to aid the Government of the United States in its national defense program, the Corporation is authorized. • • • (2) To make loans to and purchase the obligations of any business enterprise, including, when requested by the Secretary of Commerce, subscription to the capital stock thereof, for any purpose deemed by the Corporation to be advantageous to the national defense. Such loans, purchases, or subscriptions shall be made under such terms and conditions and with such maturities as the Corporation may determine. • • •

(b) Purposes. Applications for defense mining loans will be considered only in connection with the business of mining, milling, and smelting ores of strategic and critical minerals.

Loans to unwater, retimber, and otherwise make ore accessible for examination may not exceed $5,000 to any one borrower, excepting in unusual cases where reliable assay records or similar data clearly show the existence of ore, the development or the mining of which is deemed advantageous to the national defense.

Loans made for the development of mining properties, for the construction, improvement, or repair of mills, smelters, refineries, dredges, etc., purchase of equipment, etc., and to provide working capital will be limited to an amount reasonably required to accomplish the purposes for which they may be authorized.

(c) Eligibility. Applicant must be owner or lessee of the property or of the right to remove the ore.

(d) Unacceptable purposes. Loans will not be made to purchase mineral acreage, to prospect mineral deposits, to develop treatment processes, nor to pay outstanding indebtedness, except that an incidental portion of the loan may, under certain circumstances, be used to pay taxes on the properties necessary to operation. No loans will be made for purely promotional purposes.

(e) Technical data. Applications for loans to make mines accessible should give all available information of mine workings, ore deposits, and assay reports.

Where development is contemplated, the application must contain data to show that there are exposures of ore or mineral within the mining property, either on the surface or in the mine, the development of which is deemed advantageous to the national defense.

If mining, milling, or smelting equipment is to be purchased, or funds are to be used in preparation of a mining property for operation, or loan would be used for working capital, the application must contain data to show that the property contains proven ore reserves, the mining and beneficiation of which is deemed advantageous to the national defense.

(f) Security. When the loan does not exceed $30,000, it may be payable only out of proceeds of operation and proceeds of sale of equipment acquired with loan or operation funds, to secure which payment, liens must be given. Cash minimum royalties or property payments must be subordinated and modification of leases and options may be required.

When the loan exceeds $30,000, mortgage of the mining properties and perhaps other assets, and assignment of favorable milling, smelting, sales, and transportation contracts, may be required. If the mining property is to be equipped for operation, its value should be established by blocked-out ore accessible for examination. If the applicant does not own the mining property, a mortgage by the owner, assignment and modification of leases and options, and subordination of royalties may be required.

(g) Deposit to cover cost of examination. When the loan requested is $30,000 or less, the Corporation may, when the application indicates that a loan is warranted, examine the property at its own expense.

When the loan requested is in excess of $30,000 the applicant may, in some cases, be required to make a deposit in an amount to be determined in each case by the Corporation, to cover the cost of any field work which may be necessary in connection with the examination of the property of the applicant.

(h) Existing indebtedness. If the properties are encumbered, or the applicant has substantial indebtedness, it may be necessary for the applicant to arrange with creditors to defer or subordinate their claims.

(i) Maturities. Loans will come due in such instalments and at such times as the Corporation in each instance determines.

(j) Rate of interest. The rate of interest will be 4%.

(k) Disbursements. Loans will be disbursed in instalments as required to defray the cost of carrying on the project, and all expenditures will be subject to the approval of the Corporation. Applicants are required to agree that approval of an application or even partial disbursement of a loan does not necessarily bind the Corporation to make full disbursement. The Corporation reserves the right to suspend loan disbursements and to cancel unexpended parts of a loan, while nevertheless holding any security pledged, at any time the Corporation deems that further disbursement either would fail to accomplish the original purpose of the loan or would not lead to results advantageous to the national defense.

(l) Fees, commissions, etc. Reasonable compensation, approved by the Corporation, for actual and necessary services by attorneys, engineers, appraisers, accountants, etc., in connection with obtaining of a loan, may be paid. Percentage or contingent fees will be disapproved.

(m) Salaries. The applicant may be required to agree not to pay, without approval by the Corporation, any salary or compensation beyond an amount that will be specified in each case.

(n) Dividends, etc. An applicant may be required to agree that, without the consent of the Corporation, applicant will not, if a corporation, pay any dividends, make any distributions to stockholders, or undertake any corporate financing, reorganization, or capital revision; if a partnership, make any distributions to the partners; and if an individual, make any withdrawals. Pledge of the capital stock of corporate applicants may be required.

(o) Titles. Applicant may be required to furnish a policy of title insurance, or a legal opinion based upon an abstract.

§ 02.11 Loans to public agencies—(a) Statutory provisions. Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized, under the first paragraph of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, to make loans to public agencies, such as States, municipalities, and other public bodies, to aid in financing public construction and other projects undertaken by such agencies.

(b) Eligibility of borrowers, projects and securities. Types of public agencies which may be eligible for such Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans include States, counties, cities, towns, and public corporations, boards, commissions and similar public bodies. Projects which may be eligible for financial aid include the construction, repair or improvement of municipal water, sewer, transit or other utility systems, hospitals, bridges, tunnels, airports, college dormitories or similar public service projects which the borrower must be authorized by State law to carry out. Loans are made through the purchase by Reconstruction Finance Corporation of the bonds or other negotiable securities issued by the borrower directly to Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and the types of such municipal securities which may be eligible for such purchase include general obligation bonds, revenue bonds or other forms of valid obligations which the borrower must be authorized by State law to issue.

(c) Applications and procedure. Loan applications should be submitted, in triplicate with supporting engineering, financial and legal data, on forms supplied by Reconstruction Finance Corporation, directly to the Chief of the Self-Liquidating Division of Reconstruction Finance Corporation in the Washington Office. The processing of Reconstruction Finance Corporation loans to public agencies is centralized in the Washington Office of Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and is conducted as to engineering, financial or other matters, other than legal, by the Self-Liquidating Division, and as to legal matters by the Public Loans Section of the Legal Division. Loan application forms are obtainable from the Self-Liquidating Division in Washington or from any Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency.

(d) Terms and conditions. The loan terms and conditions are fixed in each instance and vary primarily according to the ability of the borrower and the project to effect repayment. The security issues purchased by Reconstruction Finance Corporation are fixed accordingly.

(e) General information. Inquiries or other requests for information concerning loans to public agencies should be submitted directly to the Chief of the Self-Liquidating Division in Washington. The municipal bonds or other security issues which are acquired by Reconstruction Finance Corporation in making these loans to public agencies, may be available for public purchase from Reconstruction Finance Corporation, usually when the projects are completed, and inquiries or bids regarding such purchase should be submitted to the Treasurer of Reconstruction Finance Corporation, in the Washington Office. Detailed information concerning loans to public agencies is contained in Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 22 (Revised), dated August 1945, copies of which are obtainable from the Self-Liquidating Division in Washington or from any Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency in the field.

§ 02.12 Loans on and purchases of rationed articles and commodities—(a) Statutory provisions. Section 5h of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, authorizes the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, acting directly or through any of its subsidiary corporations, to purchase, or make loans upon the security of, any article or commodity the sale or distribution of which is rationed under authority of the United States.

(b) Eligibility. Applications for loans or purchases of rationed articles or commodities may be made by any dealer, a substantial part of whose business consists of dealing in and servicing any article or commodity the sale or distribution of which is rationed or frozen by Federal authority and which has been rationed or frozen in a manner or under circumstances which have resulted, or are likely to result, in a substantial number of dealers being unable, in an ordinary course of business to sell such articles or commodities they have in stock within a period of six months from the beginning of such rationing or freezing.

(c) Applications. Application forms for loans on rationed articles and commodities may be obtained from the Loan Agency or Special Representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the applicant is located. Applications for purchases of rationed articles and commodities should be addressed to the Loan Agency or Special Representative but need not be on any special form and may be in the form of letters.

(d) Amount of loan. No loan made on rationed articles or commodities shall exceed the cost of such article or commodity to the dealer (to the extent that such cost is a reasonable cost) plus a reasonable allowance for transportation costs, storage, insurance and other expenses incurred by the dealer in connection with the care and preservation of the rationed articles or commodities against which the loan is made. Provision may be made for additional advances from time to time up to the maturity date of the note in amounts determined reasonable by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the payment of the cost of storage, handling, insurance and other expenses incurred by the dealer in connection with the care and preservation of the rationed article or commodity.

(e) Collateral. Collateral required for loans on rationed articles and commodities are such instruments as may be deemed necessary by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to obtain a first lien on the rationed article or commodity in connection with which the loan is being made.

(f) Interest rate. All loans on rationed articles or commodities shall bear interest at the stated rate of 4 per cent per annum.

(g) Terms and conditions. Loans on or purchases of rationed articles or commodities will be made upon such additional terms and conditions as the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may determine.

(h) Additional information. Specific information may be found in Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 24, dated July 1942, copies of which may be obtained from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agencies.

§ 02.13 Loans and purchases to aid in the national defense program—(a) Statutory provisions. Section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, authorizes the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make loans to or to purchase the capital stock of corporations for the purpose of producing, acquiring, and carrying strategic and critical materials as defined by the President, and for plant construction, expansion and equipment, and for the purchase and processing of materials used in the manufacture of equipment and supplies necessary to the national defense.

(b) Eligibility. Applications for such loans or purchases will be received from any corporate enterprise authorized to engage in the business of producing, acquiring or carrying strategic and critical materials as defined by the President, or in the business of manufacturing equipment and supplies necessary to the national defens .

(c) Applications. Application forms may be obtained from the Loan Agency or the Special Representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the applicant is located. With the exception of applications pertaining to the production of strategic and critical minerals, all applications and requests for information (preferably through applicant's bank) must be filed with the Loan Agency or Special Representative serving the applicant's district. All applications and requests for information pertaining to the production of strategic and critical minerals, must be transmitted directly to the Washington Office and such applications must be made on the regular mining loan forms. Applicants should go to their local banks, which will either have or obtain the necessary application forms, and which, if unable to provide all the credit needed, will then assist the applicants in filing applications with the appropriate Loan Agency or Special Representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for part or all of the loan needed.

(d) Terms and conditions. Loans or purchases to aid in the national defense program are authorized to be made on such terms and conditions and with such maturities as the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may determine (except that purchases of capital stock may be made only when requested by the Federal Loan Administrator with the approval of the President).

(e) Additional information. Specific information with regard to loans and purchases to aid in the national defense program is contained in Reconstruction Finance Corporation Circular No. 23 (Revised), dated January 1942, which Circular may be secured from the Washington Office of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or from its Loan Agencies.

§ 02.14 Small business loans—(a) Statutory provisions. The authority of the Smaller War Plants Corporation to make loans or advances to small business and to purchase Government owned surplus property for resale to small business contained in sections 18 (e) and 18 (f) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944, approved October 3, 1944, was transferred to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as of January 28, 1946 by Executive order of the President.

(b) Purposes. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation will consider loans or advances to enable small business concerns to finance plant construction, conversion or expansion, or to finance the acquisition of equipment or supplies, or to supply such concerns with capital to be used in the manufacture of essential civilian products and will consider the purchase of Government owned surplus property for retail to small business; making or guaranteeing loans to small business enterprises in connection with the acquisition, conversion and operation of surplus plants and facilities; and the arrangement for sales of surplus property to small business concerns on credit or time basis.

(c) Terms and conditions. Under the SWPC Act, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may make loans to eligible borrowers on such terms and conditions and with such maturities as the Board of Directors considers proper.

(d) Additional information. Inquiries regarding small business loan activities of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may be addressed to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency serving the territory in which the inquirer is located.

§ 02.15 Contract settlements. Procedures of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation relative to termination and settlement of war contracts are set forth in 32 CFR, 1944 Supp., 8000.1 et seq.

§ 02.16 Office of Metals Reserve. Inquiries regarding the activities of the Office of Metals Reserve should be addressed to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Office of Metals Reserve, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 02.17 Office of Defense Plants. Any inquiry regarding the activities of the Office of Defense Plants should be addressed to the appropriate Loan Agency or Special Representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

§ 02.18 Office of Rubber Reserve. Inquiries regarding the activities of the Office of Rubber Reserve should be addressed to Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Office of Rubber Reserve, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 02.19. Office of Defense Supplies—(a) In general. Inquiries regarding the activities of the Office of Defense Supplies should be addressed to Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Office of Defense Supplies, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C. or to the appropriate Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency.

(b) Petroleum compensatory adjustments. Procedures relating to petroleum compensatory adjustments are set forth in 32 CFR 7001.1 et seq. and 32 CFR, 1944 Supp., 7001.5.

(c) Livestock slaughter payments. Procedures relative to livestock slaughter payments are set forth in 32 CFR, 1944 Supp., 7003.1 et seq.

(d) Flour production payments. Procedures relative to flour production payments are set forth in 32 CFR, 1944 Supp., 7004.1 et seq.

(e) Mid-continent crude compensatory adjustments. Procedures relative to mid-continent crude compensatory adjustments are set forth in 32 CFR, 1944 Supp., 7005.1 et seq.

§ 02.20 Disaster loan section. When it has been determined by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation that a catastrophe has occurred which necessitates the assistance of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, applications for disaster loans will be received by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency or Regional Office[1] serving that territory. Such loans are made under such terms and conditions as are determined by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

§ 02.21 U. S. Commercial Company. Any inquiry regarding the activities of the U. S. Commercial Company should be addressed to its Washington Office, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 02.22 Federal National Mortgage Association. Inquiries regarding the activities of the Federal National Mortgage Association should be addressed to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agency serving the territory in which the inquirer is located.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURES, RULES AND RATES

§ 200.4 Regulations under the general program. Having terminated the issuance of policies of insurance, applications for insurance are no longer being received. Existing policies currently in effect have been issued under and are subject to the following rules and regulations:

EXPLANATION OF TERMS USED HEREIN

Applicant. The term "Applicant" shall mean any person, public or private, including any individual, partnership, corporation, association, State, County, municipality, or other political subdivision, having an insurable interest in property eligible for coverage by policies of insurance issued by the Corporation pursuant to these Regulations and making application to the Corporation for such coverage on the forms of Application prescribed by the Corporation.

Insured. The term "Insured" shall mean any Applicant to whom a policy of insurance is issued by the Corporation in accordance with these Regulations.

Producer. The term "Producer" shall mean (a) any authorized insurance broker or (b) any agent of a fire insurance carrier which has been appointed by the Corporation as its Fiduciary Agent, provided that such insurance broker or such agent is duly licensed in accordance with the legal requirements of the State, Territory or District in which he acts as a Producer.

A direct writing Mutual Company or Reciprocal Exchange appointed by the Corporation as its Fiduciary Agent may also act as a Producer and may also designate another direct writing Mutual Company or Reciprocal Exchange as a Producer, provided any such Producer so designated shall be licensed as an insurer in the jurisdiction where it acts as a Producer.

Fiduciary Agent. The term "Fiduciary Agent" shall mean any insurance carrier (Capital Stock Insurance Company, Mutual Insurance Company or Reciprocal Exchange) which has been specifically appointed by the Corporation to act as its Fiduciary Agent under a "Fiduciary Agent Agreement." Each Fiduciary Agent so appointed is empowered to receive Applications and remittances covering premiums, to issue Policies, and otherwise to transact such business of the Corporation in accordance with these Regulations.

RULES

(Certain rules no longer applicable owing to termination of issuance of policies are omitted.)

EFFECTIVE DATE AND TERM OF INSURANCE

RULE 4. The producer's acceptance of the application does not constitute a binder. The insurance applied for shall take effect on the "Effective Date," at noon standard time, at the place where the property is located, and shall terminate 12 months thereafter at the same hour. (For term of transit risk coverage, see Application WDC Form No. 3.) (For cancellation provisions, see Rule 6.) If the Application has been properly completed and is accompanied by full payment of premium, the "Effective Date" shall be the date on which the Application is received and date-stamped by the Fiduciary Agent (but in no event earlier that July 1, 1942), unless a later date is requested in the Application.

POLICY FORM AND COVERAGE

RULE 5. Insurance will be written only on the form of Policy prescribed by the Corporation. (See specimen form of Policy, WDC Form No. 1, appended to these Regulations.) The Policy will cover only direct physical loss of or damage to the property insured. The Policy does not provide consequential coverage, such as use and occupancy, rent and rental value, or coverage for other indirect losses.

CANCELLATION

RULE 6. The Policy may be cancelled, upon the request of the Insured and surrender of the Policy, only in case of change in ownership of the property or the Insured's interest therein. If the Policy is issued in violation of these Regulations, the Policy may be cancelled by the Corporation by delivering or mailing to the Insured and to the loss payee (if any) at the address given in the Application, five days' written notice. In the event of cancellation, the pro rata "Net Premium" shall be returned.

NET PREMIUM

RULE 7. The term "Net Premium" shall mean: the Gross Premium less (a) the Producer's service fee (5%—subject to the minimum and maximum provided in Rule 13), and (b) the Fiduciary Agent's expense reimbursement (3½%—subject to the minimum and maximum allowable in accordance with the "Fiduciary Agent Agreement").

REDUCTION OF OR ADDITION TO POLICY AMOUNT

RULE 8. The Policy may, upon application, be reduced in amount in the event that the Insured disposes of or changes his interest in any of the property covered by the Policy and the return premium due the Insured shall be calculated on a pro rata "Net Premium" basis. The Policy may, upon application, and upon payment of the proper premium, be increased in amount, subsequent to the "Effective Date," to cover property in additional amounts or at additional locations. Reporting forms of policies will not be issued. No Producer's service fee or Fiduciary Agent's expense reimbursement shall be paid on additional premiums. No payment shall be required by or made by the Corporation where the additional or return premium is less than fifty (50) cents. (For application forms covering reductions or additions, see WDC Form Nos. 8 and 9.)

BLANKET INSURANCE

RULE 9. Where more than one property is under the same ownership whether at one or more locations, all such properties may be insured under one Policy for an amount of insurance covering blanket on all such properties, provided the Application (and the Schedule, if any) shall set forth the approximate distribution of the total coverage on all such properties according to the respective States, Territories, possessions, and coded cities of location. The rate for blanket insurance shall be the rate for the highest rated building or location. The "Pro Rata Distribution" clause in the Policy applies with respect to blanket insurance written subject to less than 90% Coinsurance.

"RULE 10. Policies may be issued to mortgagees or other holders of security or financial interests in property eligible for coverage under these Regulations. The rate shall be determined according to these Regulations on the basis of the coded classification of the property and risks covered and the coverage shall be subject to all the conditions of the Policy; except that, with respect to any occupancy classification to which the 'Coinsurance' clause contained in the Policy is applicable, if the Applicant shall so elect, the Applicant may apply for insurance to the full extent of its interest in the property described in the Application and in such case, the Application shall set forth the declared dollar amount of the Applicant's interest in the property therein described. The rate for such coverage shall be the highest rate applicable to property under the respective coded classification as set forth in the Rate Schedule of Appendix 'A'. The Fiduciary Agent shall, in any such case, attach to the Policy the following form of endorsement:

"The 'Pro Rata Distribution' clause and the 'Coinsurance' clause contained in this policy are not applicable. All other terms and conditions of this policy remain unchanged.

(Authorized Fiduciary Agent)

"By_____"

"If blanket policies are issued covering mortgagee or other financial interests, the provisions of these Regulations relating to "Blanket Insurance" shall apply." (See Rule 9.)

LOSS PAYABLE CLAUSE

RULE 11. The Application forms include a loss payable provision, and in any case where the Applicant desires that payment under the Policy be made to any party in interest in addition to the Insured, the loss payable provision must be completed properly. No "mortgagee clause" will be attached to the Policy.

LOSS ADJUSTMENTS

RULE 12. In the event of loss, the Insured shall give immediate written notice to the Fiduciary Agent through which the Policy was issued, and the Insured shall comply with the provisions of the Policy relating to "Requirements in Case of Loss." Adjustment and settlement of the loss will be effected in accordance with the Corporation's established procedure.

SERVICE FEE TO PRODUCER

RULE 13. The service fee to the Producer shall not exceed 5% of the premium, with a minimum fee of $1.00 per Policy, and a maximum fee of $1,000 per Policy. The service fee shall not be deducted from the remittance which accompanies the Application. The service fee may be paid on each Policy issued, and shall become due upon the issuance of the Policy and shall be payable on or before the 20th day of the month following. Service fees shall be paid on renewals. Service fees may be paid only to Producers. (For provisions relating to service fees in connection with additional or return premiums, see Rule No. 8.)

MINIMUM PREMIUM

RULE 14. The minimum premium shall be $3.00 per Policy.

OTHER INSURANCE

RULE 15. The "Other Insurance" clause of the Policy provides that if there is any other insurance covering the property, whether prior to, subsequent to, or simultaneous with the insurance under the Policy, which in the absence of the insurance under the Policy would cover the loss or damage covered by the Policy, then the insurance under the Policy becomes "excess insurance" and does not apply except over and above such other insurance.

REPORTING FORMS PROHIBITED

RULE 16. Reporting forms of policies will not be issued.

LIMITS OF COVERAGE FOR VESSEL PROPERTIES AND CABOOSES STORED ON VESSELS

RULE 17. Insurance provided by the Corporation covers the vessels or craft or cargo hereinafter described while confined to the limits of the harbors or other inland waters of the United States, as defined in Section 2 of the Act of Congress of February 19, 1895, and set forth in the Pilot Rules for Certain Inland Waters as issued by the Department of Commerce, or while confined to the Great Lakes (including the waterways connecting them, and their harbors and tributaries in the United States), or while confined to harbors and inland waters of the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands and Territories of Hawaii and Alaska:

(a) Vessels used exclusively for storage, housing, manufacturing or generating power.

(b) Pleasure craft (including vessels utilized for pleasure fishing, but excluding those employed in commercial fishing), but only while laid up afloat or ashore.

(c) All vessels or craft while under construction until delivery by the builder or sailing on delivery or trial trip, whichever shall first occur.

(d) Cargoes on vessels described in (a) above.

POLICY EXCLUSIONS

RULE 18. Unless otherwise specifically provided in writing thereon in accordance with these Regulations, the Policy shall not cover accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, securities, money, bullion, stamps, furs, jewelry, precious and semi-precious stones, works of art, statuary, paintings, pictures, etchings, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books and printed publications more than 50 years old, models, curiosities, objects of historical or scientific interest, pleasure water craft, pleasure aircraft, standing timber, growing crops, orchards, or any real property which is not a part of a structure or building. Provisions for coverage by separate Application or endorsement with respect to some of the foregoing excluded types of property are set forth in Rule 23, Rule 24, Rule 25, Rule 26 and Rule 27. These Regulations make no provision for insurance with respect to other excluded types of property.

RATES

RULE 19. The rates for coverage under the Policy shall be determined according to the construction classification, occupancy classification, and coinsurance requirements, all as set forth in "Appendix A" which is made a part of these Regulations. The Producer shall determine the proper rate for the coverage applied for under the Application and shall insert such rate in the appropriate space provided on the Application and the Schedule (if any). (For provisions relating to: "Construction Codes," see Rule 20; "Occupancy Codes," see Rule 21; "Coinsurance Requirements," see Rule 22.)

CONSTRUCTION CODES

RULE 20. The Producer shall insert in the proper space on the Application and the Schedule (if any) the appropriate construction classification code number, in accordance with the construction classification code numbers set forth in "Appendix A" which is made a part of these Regulations. In the case of a risk composed of different classes of construction, if not less than 75% of the total floor area (including basements) is of one class of construction, the risk may be coded according to such predominating class of construction. Otherwise, such risk must take the class rate of the higher rated class of construction. The term "risk" shall mean a single building or a group of buildings, and contents situated at one location.

OCCUPANCY CODES

RULE 21. The Producer shall insert in the proper space in the Application and the Schedule (if any) the appropriate occupancy classification code number in accordance with the occupancy classification code numbers set forth in "Appendix A" which is made a part of these Regulations.

COINSURANCE CLAUSE

RULE 22. The "Coinsurance" clause contained in the Policy does not apply to dwellings or farm properties, nor to the types of property described in Rule 23, Rule 24, Rule 25 and Rule 26.

COVERAGE FOR COMMERCIAL FURS, JEWELRY, ART OBJECTS, AND THE LIKE

RULE 23. Furs and jewelry of commercial dealers, and works of art, statuary, paintings, pictures, etchings, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books and printed publications more than 50 years old, models, curiosities, and objects of historical or scientific interest, when owned by commercial dealers, cultural institutions, or, when open for public display, by private persons, may be specifically covered, provided the Application or the Schedule attached thereto sets forth separately the description, location and the amount of coverage of the property to be so covered. The limit of coverage shall be $5,000 for any one article and the limits of coverage for any one interest at any one location shall be as follows:

Works of art, statuary, paintings, etchings, pictures, and antiques	$100,000
Jewelry	100,000
Furs	100,000
Stamp and Coin Collections, manuscripts, and books and printed publications more than 50 years old	100,000
Models, curiosities, and objects of historical or scientific interest	100,000

In any such case the Fiduciary Agent shall attach to the Policy a separate endorsement (or endorsements) extending the coverage of the Policy to include each type of such property so listed in the Application and/or the Schedule, subject to the foregoing limits of coverage. Such endorsement shall also state that the "Coinsurance" clause and "Pro Rata Distribution" clause, both of which are a part of the Policy, shall not be applicable to the property covered under the endorsement. Such endorsement shall be in the form set forth in Rule 27.

The limit of coverage set forth in Rule 23 of Regulations "A" shall be inapplicable to "Furs" and "Jewelry" and such property shall be eligible for coverage without limitation. The rate for such coverage shall be the rate applicable to the appropriate coded classifications in lieu of the rate set forth under Occupancy Code 15 in the Rate Schedule of Appendix A.

COVERAGE FOR PRIVATELY OWNED FURS, JEWELRY, ART OBJECTS, AND THE LIKE

RULE 24. Furs, jewelry, works of art, statuary, paintings, pictures, etchings, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books and printed publications more than 50 years old, models, curiosities, and objects of historical and scientific interest, when privately owned, may be specifically covered, provided the Application or the Schedule attached thereto sets forth separately the description, location and the amount of coverage of the property to be so covered. The limits of coverage shall be $5,000 for any one article and a total of $10,000 for any one interest with respect to any and all of the foregoing types of property. In any such case the Fiduciary Agent shall attach to the Policy a separate endorsement (or endorsements) extending the coverage of the Policy to include each type of such property so listed in the Application and/or the Schedule, subject to the foregoing limits of coverage. Such endorsement shall also state that the "Coinsurance" clause and "Pro Rata Distribution" clause, both of which are a part of the Policy, shall not be applicable to the property covered under the endorsement. Such endorsement shall be in the from set forth in Rule 27.

COVERAGE FOR PLEASURE WATER CRAFT AND PLEASURE AIRCRAFT

RULE 25. Pleasure water craft and pleasure aircraft may be specifically covered while laid up ashore or afloat provided the Application or the Schedule attached thereto sets forth separately the description, location and the amount of coverage of the property to be so covered. The limit of coverage shall be $10,000 for any one craft. In any such case the Fiduciary Agent shall attach to the Policy a separate endorsement (or endorsements) extending the coverage of the Policy to include each type of such property so listed in the Application, subject to the foregoing limit of coverage. Such endorsement shall also state that the "Coinsurance" clause and "Pro Rata Distribution" clause, both of which are a part of the Policy, shall not be applicable to the property covered under the endorsement. Such endorsement shall be in the form set forth in Rule 27.

"COVERAGE FOR STANDING TIMBER

"RULE 26.01. Standing timber may be specifically covered, provided the Application (WDC Form No. 2) or the Schedule attached thereto sets forth separately the description, location and amount of coverage of the standing timber to be so covered. No limit of coverage shall be applicable. The rate for such coverage shall be 15 cents, with 100% coinsurance mandatory. In any such case the Fidiciary Agent shall attach to the Policy the following form of endorsement:

"This policy is hereby extended to cover the standing timber described in the Application (and the Schedule, if any) which is attached to this policy. All other terms and conditions of this policy remain unchanged."

(Authorized Fidiciary Agent)

"By_____"

"RULE 26. Growing crops and orchards may be specifically covered provided the separate form of Application for insurance covering growing crops and orchards is completed by the Applicant, such coverage to be at the following graduated rates: 5¢ for the first $100,000, 7½¢ for the second, 10¢ for the third, 12½¢ for the fourth, and 15¢ for all coverage in excess of $400,000; with no coinsurance requirements or credits being applicable."

"REGISTERED MAIL OR EXPRESS COVERAGE FOR MONEY AND SECURITIES (OCCUPANCY CODE 18)

"RULE 26.02. Money and Securities may be covered under the Policy while in transit by Registered Mail or Express (including Registered Airmail and Air Express) provided the separate form of Application (WDC Form No. 15) for such Registered Mail or Express coverage is completed by the Applicant. The terms 'Money' and 'Securities' are defined in Item 5 of said Application and the coverage limitations are set forth in Condition (b) appearing on the reverse side of said Application. The premium for such coverage will be computed on the basis of the declaration of maximum estimates of aggregate values of shipments of Money and Securities by the Applicant for the full period of twelve months from the effective date of the insurance and an adjustment will be made at the end of the term of the Policy based upon the written report of the total values of Money and Securities actually shipped by the Applicant during such term, all as described in Condition (f) appearing on the reverse side of said Application. The rates for such coverage are set forth in Item 3 of said Application, as follows: For Money, 3¢ per $1,000 of total aggregate declared value; for Securities, 1¢ per $1,000 of total aggregate declared value. Coverage is provided with respect to both of the following:

CLASS A—Shipments made by, to, or for the account of the Applicant; CLASS B—Shipments by the Applicant for the account of others. Class B coverage is optional. Class B coverage cannot be obtained without Class A coverage. The limits of liability are $500,000 for Money and $2,000,000 for Securities with respect to any one shipment to any one consignee on any one day. The 'Pro Rata Distribution' clause and the 'Coinsurance' clause contained in the Policy are not applicable and all other terms and conditions of the Policy are to be considered amended and modified to the extent necessary to conform to the provisions of said Application."

FORM OF ENDORSEMENT FOR EXCLUDED PROPERTY

RULE 27. All endorsements attached to the Policy for coverage pursuant to the provisions of Rule 23, Rule 24, or Rule 25, shall be in the following form:

"This policy is hereby extended to cover
(Insert description of property)
subject to a limit of loss not exceeding $_____ for any one article (craft). The 'Coinsurance' clause and the 'Pro Rata Distribution' clause contained in this policy are not applicable to the property covered by this endorsement. All other terms and conditions of this policy remain unchanged.

"By_____"

The dollar amount which shall be inserted in the blank space of the foregoing form of endorsement shall be the amount of coverage applicable to the property described in such endorsement, or the limit of coverage specified in Rule 23, Rule 24, or Rule 25, as the case may be, whichever is the lesser.

EXPLANATION OF PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION CLAUSE

RULE 28. The effect of the "Pro Rata Distribution" clause is to distribute proportionately the amount of insurance where more than one building, structure or place is covered under one blanket amount. This clause has the effect of prorating the total amount of the insurance in the proportion that the value of each building, structure or place bears to the total value of all buildings, structures or places insured. The following is an illustration:

If there is $100,000 worth of merchandise in two buildings, and blanket insurance is in force in the amount of $50,000, and if the value is distributed between the two buildings as follows:

In building A—Value	$ 75,000
In building B—Value	25,000
Total Value	100,000

the "Pro Rata Distribution" clause distributes the $50,000 insurance as follows:

75/100 of $50,000 in Building A..$37,500
25/100 of $50,000 in Building B.. 12,500

In other words, the effect of the "Pro Rata Distribution" clause is the same as if the property owner had carried insurance under two specific items, one for $37,500 covering in building A, and one for $12,500 covering ing building B, instead of the one $50,000 blanket amount.

EXPLANATION OF COINSURANCE CLAUSE

RULE 29. The effect of the "Coinsurance" clause is to assess equitably the cost of the insurance. The following is one illustration:

Value	$10,000
Insurance required by (50%) Coinsurance Clause	5,000
Insurance actually carried	5,000
Loss	1,000

In this case, the property owner has carried sufficient insurance to comply with the 50% "Coinsurance" clause and, therefore, the loss of $1,000 would be paid in full.

The following is another illustration:

Value	$10,000
Insurance required by (50%) Coinsurance Clause	5,000
Insurance actually carried	2,500

In this case, since the property owner has carried only one-half of the required amount of insurance, he would collect but one-half of his loss. The property owner would then recover only 50% of his loss, or $500.

In case of a total loss under either illustration, the property owner would collect the face amount of the policy.

APPENDIX

CONSTRUCTION CODE

For the purpose of determining rates for coverage, risks shall be coded as to construction as follows:

Coverage on or in buildings or structures of fire resistive construction according to fire insurance standards..... Code 1

Coverage on or in buildings or structures of any other construction, and property in the open..... Code 2

In the case of a risk composed of different classes of construction, if not less than 75% of the total floor area (including basements) is of one class of construction, the risk may be coded according to such predominating class of construction. Otherwise, such risk must take the class rate of the higher rated class of construction. (See Rule 20.)

(The term "risk" as used herein may be construed to mean a single building, or a group of buildings, and contents situated at one location.)

COINSURANCE CREDITS

Rates are based upon the use of the 50% Coinsurance clause, which is the minimum permissible, except as otherwise specifically provided herein:

For 80% Coinsurance clause, deduct 30% from the base rate.
For 90% Coinsurance clause, deduct 35% from the base rate.
For 100% Coinsurance clause, deduct 40% from the base rate.

SPRINKLER CREDIT

If not less than 75% of the total floor area (including basements) of the risk is equipped with a system of automatic sprinklers, deduct 10% from the base rate.

BLANKET POLICIES

Blanket policies take the rate of the highest rated building or location. (See Rule 9.)

23 AMOUNT OF LOSS — The amount of loss shall not exceed the actual cash value of 24 LOSS — the property nor the interest
25 of the Insured therein at the time of loss, nor the 26 amount it would cost to repair or replace the property
27 with material of like kind and quality within a reason-
28 able time after the loss. No allowance shall be 29 made for compensation for loss of use, loss of 30 profits, loss resulting from delay or deterioration,
31 loss or impairment of market, cessation of work, fluc-
32 tion of price or value, interruption of business or manufac-
33 ture or necessary or for consequential loss. No allowance
34 shall be made for any increased cost of repair or recon-
35 struction by reason of any ordinance or law regulating
36 construction or repair.
37 CONCEALMENT — This policy shall be void if,
38 OR FRAUD — whether before or after a loss,
39 — the Insured has wilfully con-
40 cealed or misrepresented any material fact or circum-
41 stance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof,
42 or the interest of the Insured therein, or in case
43 of any fraud or false swearing by the Insured relating 44 thereto.
45 PROPERTY — Unless specifically provided in 46 EXCLUDED — writing hereon, this policy shall 47 — not cover accounts, bills, cur-
48 rency, deeds, evidences of debt, securities, money, bullion,
49 stamps, furs, jewelry, precious and semi-precious stones,
50 works of art, statuary, paintings, pictures, etchings,
51 antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books
52 and printed publications more than 50 years old, models,
53 curiosities, objects of historical or scientific interest, plants,
54 any water craft, pleasure aircraft, standing timber, growing
55 crops, orchards, or any real property which is a part
56 of a structure or building.
57 PREMIUM — The premium required by the 58 — regulations of the Corporation
59 shall be paid in full prior to the effective date. If a check is 60 tendered in payment of premium and upon which any non-pay-
61 ment upon presentation for the full amount thereof, this 62 policy shall be void.
63 PERILS NOT — This insurance shall not be 64 COVERED — liable for loss caused directly
65 — or indirectly by:
66 (a) blackout, burglary, larceny, theft, larceny, pillage or 67 looting, sabotage, vandalism, malicious mischief, or 68 (b) neglect of the Insured to use all reasonable means
69 to save and preserve the property after damage resulting 70 from the perils herein covered.
71 PRO RATA — If any item of insurance covers
72 DISTRIBUTION — blanket in or on more than one
73 — building, structure or place, the
74 amount of insurance under such item shall attach in or on 75 each building, structure or place in that proportion which 76 the value of the property in or on each said building, struc-
77 ture or place shall bear to the value of all of the property
78 covered by such blanket item.
79 This pro rata distribution clause shall not apply if this
80 policy is subject to 90% or 100% coinsurance.
81 COINSURANCE — The Corporation shall not be
82 — liable for a greater proportion
83 of any loss than the amount of insurance under this policy
84 bears to the stipulated percentage of the actual cash value
85 of the property described in the application at the time when 86 such loss occurs. The stipulated percentage shall be 87 the percentage of coinsurance stated in the application. If 88 the claim for loss is both less than $10,000 and less than 89 2% of the total amount of insurance upon the property de-
90 scribed in the application, at the time such loss occurs, no
91 special inventory or appraisal of the undamaged prop-
92 erty shall be required, and if the property described in 93 the applications consists of two or more items, the provisions
94 of this paragraph shall apply to each item separately.
95 The provisions of this coinsurance clause shall not apply to 96 dwellings comprising less than five family units nor to farm
97 properties.
98 OTHER INSURANCE — If there is any other insurance
99 — covering the property insured
100 hereunder, whether prior to, subsequent to or simultaneous
101 with this insurance, which in the absence of this insurance
102 would cover the loss or damage hereby covered, then the 103 Corporation shall not be liable hereunder for more than the 104 excess over and above such other insurance.
105 MORTGAGE OR — If the application provides that 106 OTHER INTERESTS — loss hereunder shall be payable 107 — to a bailee or in part to a payee
108 — other than the Insured, such Insured fails to render proof
109 of loss within the time required by this policy, such payee
110 shall upon demand, as performed as the Insured herein under 111 proof of loss as herein specified within sixty days thereafter,
112 and shall be subject to the provisions hereof as to examina-
113 tion under oath, arbitration, time of payment and bringing suit.
114 CANCELLATION — This policy may be cancelled
115 — upon the request of the Insured
116 at any time. In order of this policy, only in case of change in own-
117 ership of the property, or in the Insured's interest therein
118 — (unless policy be issued in violation of the regulations 119 of the Corporation in effect at the time of issuance),
120 this policy may be cancelled by the Corporation by 121 delivering or mailing five days' written notice to the Insured, 122 and to the loss payee, if any, at the address given in the 123 application. In the event of cancellation, the net premium
124 shall be prorated and returned in conformity with the reg-
125 ulations of the Corporation.
126 REQUIREMENTS IN — In the event of loss the Insured
127 CASE OF LOSS — shall give immediate written 128 — notice to the Corporation, for-
129 nish a complete inventory of the destroyed, damaged and 130 undamaged property, stating the quantity, cost and actual 131 cash value of each article and the amount claimed thereon,
132 and file with the Corporation a proof of loss within 60 days
133 after the loss, unless such time is extended by the Corpora-
134 tion in writing. Such proof of loss, signed and sworn to 135 by the Insured, shall state the Insured's knowledge and be-
136 lief as to the time and origin of the loss, the interest
137 of the Insured and all others in the property, the actual 138 cash value of each item thereof and the amount of loss
139 thereto, and all contracts of insurance covering any of such 140 property. If required, the Insured shall furnish verified
141 plans and specifications of any buildings. Restores or machin-
142 ery destroyed or damaged, as often as may be required, ex-
143 hibit to any person designated by the Corporation all that 144 remains of any property herein covered; submit to examina-
145 tions under oath by any person named by the Corporation
146 and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be required,
147 produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices
148 and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof, if originals
149 be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be des-
150 ignated by the Corporation, and permit extracts and copies
151 thereof to be made.

§ 200.5 Regulations under the money and securities program. Having terminated the issuance of policies of insurance, applications for insurance are no longer being received. Existing policies currently in effect have been issued under and are subject to the following rules and regulations:

EXPLANATION OF TERMS USED HEREIN

Applicant. The term "Applicant" shall mean any person, public or private, including any individual, partnership, corporation, association, State, County, municipality, or other political subdivision, owning or holding Money or Securities and making application to the Corporation for insurance coverage in accordance with these Regulations and on the form of Application prescribed in these Regulations. Two or more related interests may be named as Applicant.

Policy. The term "Policy" shall mean the form of policy designated WDC Form No. 1 (A).

Insured. The term "Insured" shall mean any Applicant to whom a Policy of insurance is issued by the Corporation in accordance with these Regulations.

Producer. The term "Producer" shall mean (a) any authorized insurance broker or (b) any agent of a casualty or surety insurance carrier which has been appointed by the Corporation as its Fiduciary Agent, provided that such insurance broker or such agent is duly licensed in accordance with the legal requirements of the State, Territory or District in which he acts as a Producer.

A direct writing Mutual Company or Reciprocal Exchange appointed by the Corporation as its Fiduciary Agent may also act as a Producer and may also designate another direct writing Mutual Company or Reciprocal Exchange as a Producer, provided any such Producer so designated shall be licensed as an insurer in the jurisdiction where it acts as a Producer.

Fiduciary Agent. The term "Fiduciary Agent" shall mean any casualty or surety insurance carrier (Capital Stock Insurance Company, Mutual Insurance Company or Reciprocal Exchange) which has been specifically appointed by the Corporation to act as its Fiduciary Agent under a "Fiduciary Agent Agreement." Each Fiduciary Agent so appointed is empowered to receive Applications and remittances covering premiums, to issue Policies, and otherwise to transact the business of the Corporation in accordance with these Regulations.

RULES

(Omitted rules are no longer applicable, owing to termination of issuance of policies.)

TYPES OF COVERAGE

RULE 2. The following Money and Securities Coverages are available under the Application (see specimen form of Application, WDC Form No. 16, appended to these Regulations):

Coverage A—While within any "Preferred Vault" at any location specified in the Application.

Coverage B—While within any "Safe" or "Vault" (including any "Preferred Vault") at any location specified in the Application.

Coverage C—While within any of the "Premises" (including any "Safe," "Vault" or "Preferred Vault" located therein) specified in the Application, or within any of the "Custodians" (including any bank Vaults or safe deposit company Vaults used by any of the Custodians for safe-keeping) specified in the Application.

Coverage D—While in transit or otherwise within the geographical limits in which the Corporation insures, for any business purpose, outside any and all "Premises" and "Safe Deposit Boxes," irrespective of the locations specified in the Application, and outside Custodians specified in the Application, and outside bank Vaults and safe deposit company Vaults used by Custodians and specified in the Application; excluding, however, loss in the mail or in the custody of a carrier for hire other than an armored motor vehicle company.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND TERM OF INSURANCE

RULE 4. The producer's acceptance of the Application does not constitute a binder. The insurance applied for shall take effect on the "Effective Date," at noon Standard time, at the mail address of the Applicant, and shall terminate 12 months thereafter at the same hour. (For cancellation provisions, see Rule 6.) If the Application has been properly completed and is accompanied by full payment of premium, the "Effective Date" shall be the date on which the Application is received and date-stamped by the Fiduciary Agent (but in no event earlier than December 21, 1942), unless a later date is requested in the Application.

POLICY FORM

RULE 5. Insurance will be written only on the form of Policy prescribed by the Corporation. (See specimen form of Policy, WDC Form No. 1 (a), appended to these Regulations.) The Policy will cover only direct loss through damage to or destruction of the Money and Securities insured.

CANCELLATION

RULE 6. The Policy may not be cancelled upon the request of the Insured. If the Policy is issued in violation of these Regulations, the Policy may be cancelled by the Corporation by delivering or mailing to the Insured at the address given in the Application, five days' written notice. In the event of cancellation, the pro rata "Net Premium" shall be returned.

NET PREMIUM

RULE 7. The term "Net Premium" shall mean: the Gross Premium less (a) the Producer's service fee (5%—subject to the minimum and maximum provided in Rule 10), and (b) the Fiduciary Agent's expense reimbursement (3½%—subject to the minimum and maximum allowable in accordance with the "Fiduciary Agent Agreement").

REDUCTION OF OR ADDITION TO POLICY AMOUNT

RULE 8. The Policy may, upon application, be reduced in amount in the event that the Insured ceases to hold Money or Securities at the locations or in the amounts specified in the Application and the return premium due the Insured shall be calculated on a pro rata "Net Premium" basis. The Policy may, upon application, and upon payment of the proper premium, be increased in amount, subsequent to the "Effective Date," to cover Money or Securities in additional amounts or at additional locations. Reporting forms of policies will not be issued. No Producer's service fee or Fiduciary Agent's expense reimbursement shall be paid on additional premiums. No payment shall be required by or made by the Corporation where the additional or return premium is less than fifty (50) cents.

LOSS ADJUSTMENTS

RULE 9. In the event of loss, the Insured shall, as soon as practicable, give written notice to the Fiduciary Agent through which the Policy was issued, and the Insured shall comply with the provisions of the Policy relating to "Requirements in Case of Loss." Adjustment and settlement of the loss will be effected in accordance with the Corporation's established procedure.

SERVICE FEE TO PRODUCER

RULE 10. The service fee to the Producer shall not exceed 5% of the premium, with a minimum fee of $1.00 per Policy, and a maximum fee of $1,000 per Policy. The service fee shall not be deducted from the remittance which accompanies the Application. The service fee shall be paid on each Policy issued, and shall become due upon the issuance of the Policy and shall be payable on or before the 20th day of the month following. Service fees shall be paid on renewals. Service fees shall be paid only to Producers. (For provisions relating to service fees in connection with additional or return premiums, see Rule No. 8.)

OTHER INSURANCE

RULE 11. The "Other Insurance" clause of the Policy provides that if there is any other insurance covering the Money and Securities, whether prior to, subsequent to, or simultaneous with the insurance under the Policy, which in the absence of the insurance under the Policy would cover the loss or damage covered by the Policy, then the insurance under the Policy becomes "excess insurance" and does not apply except over and above such other insurance.

PREMIUM RATES

RULE 12. The rates for coverage under the Policy are set forth in Item 10 of the Application and are as follows:

Coverage	Annual rate per $1,000 of insurance
	Money	Securities
A	$0.25	$0.075
B	.50	.15
C	1.00	.30
D[1]	1.50	.45

[1] In any case in which the application specifies insurance under both coverage C and coverage D, the "Premium Sub-total" (as shown in item 10 of the application) shall be credited with one-half of the premium therein calculated for coverage C, but such credit shall not exceed one-third of the premium therein calculated for coverage D. The foregoing credit shall be separately available in connection with the calculation of the premium for coverage D on money and securities, respectively.

The Producer shall determine the proper premium for the Coverage applied for under the Application and shall insert such premium in the appropriate space provided on the Application.

MINIMUM PREMIUM

RULE 13. The minimum premium shall be $3.00 per Policy.

MAXIMUM LIMITS ON AMOUNT OF INSURANCE

RULE 14—The following maximum limits shall apply with respect to the amount of insurance for each Applicant under the following types of coverage:

	Limit of each specified premises or safe deposit box
Money
Coverage A	$750,000
Coverage B	750,000

Only the following forms of Coverage are available:

Coverage A—While within any Preferred Vault in any location specifically designated in Items 6, 7 and 8.

Coverage B—While within any Safe or Vault (including any Preferred Vault) in any location specifically designated in Items 6, 7 and 8.

Coverage C—While within any of the Premises specifically designated in Item 6 (including any Safe Vault or Preferred Vault therein in use at the said Premises) or within any of the Custodians specifically designated in Item 8 (including any bank Vaults or safe deposit company Vaults used by any of the Custodians for safekeeping).

Coverage D—While in transit or otherwise, for any business purpose, outside any one of Premises and Safe Deposit Boxes (insurance under Coverage D shall not attach while any of the Securities specifically designated in Item 9 are within any of the Premises or Safe Deposit Boxes or in the custody of any of the Custodians specifically designated in Item 8, excluding, however, items in the mail or in the custody of a carrier for hire other than an armored car company).

The insurance afforded by the Policy to which this Application is attached is only with respect to such and so many of the foregoing forms of Coverage and the divisions thereof between Money and Securities as are specifically designated in Items 6, 7, 8 and 9 of this Application. The limit of the Corporation's liability for any and all losses under each such Coverage and each division or liability under any one Coverage or division shall not exceed the amount of insurance covered thereon for such liability or division specified in said Items 6, 7, 8 and 9 and in no event to exceed the aggregate amount of insurance specified in Item 14 above. If more than one Coverage or division shall be applicable to any one loss or occurrence covered by the Policy to which this Application is attached, the Corporation shall not be liable for more than the largest amount payable under any one such applicable Coverage or division. Such limitations of liability shall apply notwithstanding more than one insurer is named in Application in this Application and as insured in the Policy to which this Application is attached. A schedule may be affixed wherever the space provided on the reverse side hereof is inadequate.

(d)—TERRITORIAL LIMITATIONS.

The Policy to which this Application is attached shall cover Money and/or Securities only while within the Continental United States of America, Alaska, Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone, respectively.

(e)—PREMIUM.

The required premium shall be paid in full prior to the effective date of the Policy to which this Application is attached, in accordance with the Regulations of the Corporation. If a check or reserve in payment of premium and such check is not honored upon presentation for the full amount therefor, the Policy shall be void.

(f)—CONCEALMENT OR FRAUD.

The Policy to which this Application is attached shall be void if, whether before or after a loss, the Applicant has willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning the insurance or the subject thereof, or the interest of the Applicant therein, or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the Applicant relating thereto.

21 AMOUNT OF LOSS — The amount of loss hereunder shall not exceed the actual value at the time of loss of 22 the Money and Securities damaged or destroyed. The value
23 of any Securities for the loss of which claim shall be made
24 hereunder, shall be determined by the closing market value
25 of such Securities on the business day next preceding the 26 date of such loss. If such Securities have no quoted or
27 market value, their value shall be determined by agreement
28 or by appraisal as set forth herein under "Appraisal". The 29 Corporation reserves the right to replace in kind such 30 Money and Securities.

31 NEGLECT OF INSURED — The Corporation shall not be 32 liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by neglect of the 33 Insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve
34 the Money and Securities after damage resulting from the 35 peril herein covered.

36 OTHER INSURANCE — If there is any other insurance
37 covering the Money and Secs.
38 rities insured hereunder, whether prior to, subsequent to,
39 or simultaneous with this insurance which in the absence of 40 this insurance would cover the loss or damage hereby cov-
41 ered, then the Corporation shall not be liable hereunder
42 for more than the excess over and above such other insurance.

43 CANCELLATION — This policy may be cancelled
44 only if it be issued in violation
45 of the Regulations of the Corporation in effect at the time
46 of issuance, on which event it may be cancelled by the Cor-
47 poration by delivering or mailing five days' written notice
48 to the Insured at the address stated in the application at-
49 tached hereto. In the event of cancellation, the premi-
50 um shall be prorated and returned in conformity with 51 the Regulations of the Corporation.

52 REQUIREMENTS IN CASE OF LOSS — In the event of loss, the Insured
53 shall give, as soon as prac-
54 ticable, written notice to the
55 Corporation, furnish a complete inventory of the damaged
56 or destroyed Money and Securities, and within sixty days after the loss, fur-
57 nish a proof of loss within 60 days after the loss, un-
58 less such time is extended by the Corporation in writing.
59 Such proof of loss, signed and sworn to by the Insured,
60 shall state the Insured's knowledge and belief as to the 61 time and origin of the loss, the interest of the Insured and 62 all others in the Money and Securities, and all encumbrances
63 thereon, the cash value of each item thereof, all other
64 insurance covering any of such Money and Securities.
65 As often as may be required, the Insured shall exhibit to 66 any person designated by the Corporation all that remains 67 of any Money and Securities herein covered, submit to 68 examinations under oath by any person named by the Cor-
69 poration and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be 70 required, produce for examination all books of account and 71 other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if originals be 72 lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be desig-
73 nated by the Corporation and permit extracts and copies
74 thereof to be made. Any claim for loss under this policy shall
75 be filed with the Corporation, by, through, or in the name
76 of the Insured, with proof of ownership and financial inter-
77 ests of others as hereinabove provided.

78 EXTENSION OF TIME — If the Insured is unable to com-
79 ply with any of the provisions
80 of this policy applicable to a
81 loss, because of enemy action, occupation or control, the 82 Insured's right of recovery shall not be prejudiced, provided

83 the Insured shall comply with such provisions within a rea-
84 sonable time, but in no event later than six months, after 85 the Insured becomes able to do so.

86 APPRAISAL — In case the Insured and the 87 Corporation fail to agree as to
88 the amount of loss, then, on the written demand of either,
89 each shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser
90 and notify the other of the appraiser selected within twenty 91 days after such demand. The appraisers shall first select a 92 competent and disinterested umpire; and, in the event of 93 their failure within fifteen days to agree upon such umpire, 94 then, on request of the Insured or the Corporation, such 95 umpire shall be selected by a Judge of a Federal Court of 96 the district of the mail address of the Insured. The ap-
97 praisers shall then determine the amount of loss and, fail-
98 ing to agree, shall submit only their differences to the um-
99 pire. An award in writing of any two when filed with the 100 Corporation shall determine the amount of loss. Each ap-
101 praiser shall be paid by the party selecting him and the 102 expenses of the appraisal and the umpire shall be paid by 103 the parties equally.

104 PAYMENT OF LOSS — Any loss shall be payable within 105 thirty days after proof of loss,
106 as herein provided, is received
107 by the Corporation and ascertainment of the loss is made
108 either by agreement between the Insured and the Corpora-
109 tion expressed in writing, or by the filing with the Cor-
110 poration of an award as herein provided. Upon agreement
111 between the Insured and the Corporation, expressed in writ-
112 ing, or in the event of loss, the loss or the 113 portion thereof so agreed upon shall be payable as soon as 114 practicable thereafter. Any loss payable under this policy
115 shall be paid only to the Insured, or to the order of the 116 Insured.

117 SUIT — No suit or action for recovery
118 of any claim shall be sustain-
119 able in any court of law or equity unless all the require-
120 ments of this policy shall have been complied with, and 121 unless commenced within twelve months after filing proof
122 of loss.

123 SUBROGATION AND SALVAGE — Upon payment hereunder on 124 account of any loss, the Cor-
125 poration may require from
126 the Insured an assignment of all its rights, title and interest
127 in and to the Money and Securities concerned in such loss
128 and the execution of all papers and documents necessary
129 to effect recovery on account of such loss. In case
130 of recovery, from any source other than insurance, surety-
131 ship, indemnity or reinsurance, whether made by the 132 Insured or the Corporation, on account of any loss coming 133 within the coverage of this policy, the net amount of such 134 recovery, after deducting the actual cost and expense of 135 making same, shall be applied first to such an extent as 136 fully to make whole the Insured on account of such loss
137 and the excess of such recovery shall belong to and be the 138 property of the Corporation.

139 WAIVER — No permission affecting this in-
140 surance shall exist, or waiver of
141 any provision be valid, unless granted herein or expressed
142 in written added hereto by the duly authorized Fiduciary
143 Agent. No provision, stipulation or forfeiture shall be held
144 to be waived by any requirement or proceeding on the part
145 of the Corporation relating to appraisal or to any examina-
146 tion provided for herein.

§ 200.6 Loss adjustment procedure under policies of insurance. Notices of loss under policies currently in effect may be presented by mail or in person at the office of the insurance company acting as fiduciary agent, pursuant to the following regulations:

DEFINITION OF TERMS

Corporation or WDC. The terms "Corporation" and "WDC" each shall mean War Damage Corporation, a corporation created by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation pursuant to Section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended.

Policy. The term "Policy" shall mean the form of policy designated WDC Form No. 1.

Insured. The term "Insured" shall mean any applicant to whom a Policy has been issued by the Corporation in accordance with Regulations "A", as amended.

Fiduciary Agent. The term "Fiduciary Agent" shall mean any insurance carrier (Capital Stock Insurance Company, Mutual Insurance Company or Reciprocal Exchange) which has been specifically appointed by the Corporation to act as its Fiduciary Agent under a Fiduciary Agent Agreement.

Producer. The term "Producer" shall mean any authorized insurance agent or broker who is qualified to receive applications for War Damage Corporation insurance under Regulations "A".

Claims Service Office. The term "Claims Service Office" shall mean any office established by the Corporation within the United States, and certain of the Territories and Possessions, to service claims under Policies. These offices, their addresses and telephone numbers, are shown in "Appendix D". Temporary Claims Service Offices will be established promptly at the scene of a catastrophe should circumstances require, and the location of such temporary offices will be made known through the press, radio, or other available means.

Adjuster. The term "Adjuster" shall mean any claims adjuster duly registered with a Claims Service Office.

Notice of Loss. The term "Notice of Loss" shall mean the notification to the Corporation's Fiduciary Agent of a claim under a Policy, including all of the particulars prescribed in the specimen Notice of Loss form shown in "Appendix A".

Proof of Loss. The term "Proof of Loss" shall mean a detailed sworn statement in proof of loss properly executed by the Insured, including all of the information prescribed in the specimen Proof of Loss form shown in "Appendix B".

Non-waiver Agreement. The term "Non-waiver Agreement" shall mean an agreement (substantially in the form of the specimen Non-waiver Agreement shown in "Appendix C") entered into between the Claims Service Office (acting on behalf of the Corporation) and the Insured so as to facilitate an agreement as to the amount of loss, without either party waiving any of its rights, where questions of liability are encountered which do not lend themselves readily to determination.

Custodian Bank. The term "Custodian Bank" shall mean any Federal Reserve Bank (or branch thereof) located as designated in Regulations "B", which acts as a Custodian for funds of the Corporation.

RULES

REPORTING A LOSS BY THE INSURED

RULE 1. The Policy (lines 127–129 inclusive) requires that "In the event of loss, the Insured shall give immediate written notice to the Corporation." Rule 12 of Regulations "A" provides that "In the event of loss, the Insured shall give immediate written notice to the Fiduciary Agent through which the Policy was issued and the Insured shall comply with the provisions of the Policy relating to requirements in case of loss." Hence, notice of loss delivered to the Fiduciary Agent shall constitute an effective notice of loss to the Corporation. Such notice of loss shall be given to the Fiduciary Agent, either by the Producer or by the Insured (or his legal representative). A copy of the Notice of Loss shall be sent by the Producer, or by the Insured (or his legal representative), to the appropriate Claims Service Office. The Notice of Loss shall contain the following information; the name and address of the Fiduciary Agent; the Policy number; the amount of coverage (by items where two or more are covered); the date of the Policy; the name of the Insured; the address of the Insured; the location of the insured property; the description of the insured property (whether building, contents, motor vehicle, etc.); the name of the loss payee (if any); an estimate of the loss or damage (by items where two or more are covered); the date of the loss or damage; the cause of the loss or damage; and any other pertinent information which may be helpful.

DUTIES OF CLAIMS SERVICE OFFICE

RULE 2. Upon receipt of the Notice of Loss under a Policy, the Claims Service Office shall promptly refer the claim to an Adjuster who forthwith shall proceed with the adjustment. The assignment of claims to Adjusters shall be made only by the respective Claims Service Office.

The sources upon which the Adjuster may rely for details as to insurance coverage are, in the order of their importance:

(a) The Insured's Policy.

(b) The Fiduciary Agent's copy of the Insured's original Application, and any amendments thereto.

(c) The Producer's copy of the Insured's original Application, and any amendments thereto.

(d) The tabulating ticket copy of the Insured's original Application, and any amendments thereto, as filed by the Fiduciary Agent with the Custodian Bank.

If questions of liability are encountered by the Adjuster, a Non-waiver Agreement may nevertheless be executed between the Insured and the Claims Service Office (acting on behalf of the Corporation) in order to facilitate an agreement as to the actual cash value of the property involved and amount of loss or damage. Questions of liability and other controversial issues arising between the Insured and the Adjuster during the course of the adjustment shall be submitted by the Adjuster with necessary supporting papers to the appropriate Claims Service Office for disposition. If necessary, the Claims Service Office shall refer such matters with necessary supporting papers to the Corporation for further instructions. Copies of correspondence between the Adjuster, the Claims Service Office, and the Corporation relative to any claim shall be sent to the Fiduciary Agent which issued the Policy. The completed Proof of Loss, the adjustment expense voucher, and supporting papers shall be sent by the Adjuster to the appropriate Claims Service Office. The Claims Service Office shall check the Proof of Loss and expense voucher and, if found to be in order, shall certify as to correctness. The completed Proof of Loss, accompanied by the Adjuster's expense voucher, shall be forwarded by the Claims Service Office to the respective Fiduciary Agent for disposition as outlined in Rule 3.

DUTIES OF FIDUCIARY AGENT IN CASE OF LOSS

RULE 3. Upon receipt of Notice of Loss, the Fiduciary Agent shall verify the coverage, acknowledge to the Insured (or the Producer) receipt of the claim, and confirm the existence of the coverage to the appropriate Claims Service Office, such confirmation to be supported by any details as to coverage which may be helpful to the Adjuster.

When the completed Proof of Loss, accompanied by the supporting papers, is received by the Fiduciary Agent from the Claims Service Office (as prescribed in Rule 2), the Fiduciary Agent shall:

(a) Check the Proof of Loss against its records and, if found to be in order, certify the correctness thereof on the face of the Proof of Loss over the duly attested signature of an authorized officer of the Fiduciary Agent. If the Proof of Loss is found not in order, the Fiduciary Agent shall communicate with the Claims Service Office in order to obtain satisfactory completion. If it becomes necessary to refer any question regarding the Proof of Loss to the Corporation for further instructions, a copy of the transmittal letter, and a copy of any related correspondence between the Fiduciary Agent and the Corporation, shall be sent to the appropriate Claims Service Office.

(b) Send the certified Proof of Loss and all supporting papers to the appropriate Custodian Bank for payment of the claim to the Insured.

(c) Certify as to the acceptability of the Adjusters' expense vouchers and return to the appropriate Claims Service Office for payment.

(d) Keep an appropriate record of losses certified for payment and the certified adjustment expenses incident thereto.

PROVISIONS OF THE POLICY RELATING TO LOSS

The Policy imposes upon the Insured and the Corporation certain conditions directly relating to loss. For convenient reference these are:

REPORTING A LOSS BY THE INSURED

REFERENCE 1. The policy (lines 127–129 inclusive) provides that "In the event of loss, the Insured shall give immediate written notice to the Corporation."

INSURED SHALL SAVE AND PRESERVE PROPERTY

REFERENCE 2. The Policy (lines 64–66 and 69–71, inclusive) provides that "The Corporation shall not be liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by: • • • (b) neglect of the Insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property after damage resulting from the perils herein covered."

INSURED SHALL EXHIBIT SALVAGE

REFERENCE 3. The Policy (lines 141 and 143–145, inclusive) provides that "• • • the Insured shall • • •, as often as may be required, exhibit to any person designated by the Corporation all that remains of any property herein covered • • •."

INSURED SHALL FURNISH INVENTORY

REFERENCE 4. The Policy (lines 127–132, inclusive) provides that "In the event of loss, the Insured shall • • • furnish a complete inventory of the destroyed, damaged and undamaged property, stating the quantity, cost and actual cash value of each article and the amount claimed thereon." (It will facilitate the loss adjustment if the Insured will have prepared and available for the Adjuster the information above required. The Corporation recommends that Insureds have prepared at all times and deposited for safe keeping, away from the premises involved, a detailed inventory of property covered.)

WAIVER OF INVENTORY OF UNDAMAGED PROPERTY

REFERENCE 5. The Policy (lines 88–95, inclusive) provides that "if the claim for loss is both less than $10,000 and less than 2% of the total amount of insurance upon the property described in the application, at the time such loss occurs, no special inventory or appraisal of the undamaged property shall be required, and if the property described in the application consists of two or more items, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply to each item separately."

IF REQUIRED, INSURED SHALL FURNISH SPECIFICATIONS

REFERENCE 6. The Policy (lines 141–143, inclusive) provides that "If required, the Insured shall furnish verified plans and specifications of any buildings, fixtures or machinery destroyed or damaged."

INSURED SHALL PRODUCE RECORDS

REFERENCE 7. The Policy (lines 141 and 147–152, inclusive) provides that "• • • the Insured shall • • • as often as may be required, produce for examination all books of accounts, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof, if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by the Corporation, and permit extracts and copies thereof to be made."

EXAMINATION UNDER OATH

REFERENCE 8. The Policy (lines 141 and 145–147, inclusive) provides that "If required, the Insured shall • • • submit to examinations under oath by any persons named by the Corporation and subscribe the same." same."

CONSEQUENTIAL LOSS EXCLUDED

REFERENCE 9. The Policy (lines 29–34, inclusive) provides that "No allowance shall be made for compensation for loss of use, loss of profits, loss resulting from delay or deterioration, loss or impairment of market, cessation of work, fixation of price or value, interruption of business or manufacture or occupancy, or for consequential loss."

NO ALLOWANCE FOR INCREASED COST OF CONSTRUCTION

REFERENCE 10. The Policy (lines 34–37, inclusive) provides that "No allowance shall be made for any increased cost of repair or reconstruction by reason of any ordinance or law regulating construction, use or repair."

LOSS SHALL NOT EXCEED ACTUAL CASH VALUE

REFERENCE 11. The Policy (lines 23–25, inclusive) provides that "The amount of loss shall not exceed the actual cash value of the property."

LOSS SHALL NOT EXCEED COST TO REPAIR OR REPLACE

REFERENCE 12. The Policy (lines 23–24 and 27–29, inclusive) provides that "The amount of loss shall not exceed • • • the amount it would cost to repair or replace the property with material of like kind and quality within a reasonable time after the loss."

CORPORATION MAY TAKE PROPERTY

REFERENCE 13. The Policy (lines 172–175, inclusive) provides that "It shall be optional with the Corporation to take all or any part of the property at the agreed value."

CORPORATION MAY REPAIR, REBUILD OR REPLACE—NO ABANDONMENT

REFERENCE 14. The Policy (lines 172–173 and 175–180, inclusive) provides that "It shall be optional with the Corporation • • • to repair, rebuild or replace the property destroyed or damaged with other of like kind and quality within a reasonable time on giving notice of its intention so to do within thirty days after the receipt of the proof of loss; but there can be no abandonment to the Corporation of any property."

LOSS SHALL NOT EXCEED INTEREST OF INSURED

REFERENCE 15. The Policy (lines 23–26, inclusive) provides that "The amount of loss shall not exceed • • • the interest of the Insured therein at the time of loss."

MORTGAGE OR OTHER INTERESTS

REFERENCE 16. The Policy (lines 106–114 inclusive) provides that "If the application provides that loss hereunder shall be payable in whole or in part to a payee other than the Insured, and the Insured fails to render proof of loss within the time required by this policy, such payee shall, upon notice, as if named as the Insured herein, render proof of loss as herein specified within sixty days thereafter, and shall be subject to the provisions hereof as to examination under oath, appraisal, time of payment, and bringing suit."

OTHER INSURANCE

REFERENCE 17. The Policy (lines 99–105, inclusive) provides that "If there is any other insurance covering the property insured hereunder, whether prior to, subsequent to, or simultaneous with this insurance, which in the absence of this insurance would cover the loss or damage hereby covered, then the Corporation shall not be liable hereunder for more than the excess over and above such other insurance."

RIGHT OF SUBROGATION

REFERENCE 18. The Policy (lines 195–198, inclusive) provides that "the Corporation may require from the Insured an assignment of all right of recovery against any party for loss to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation."

INSURED SHALL FILE PROOF OF LOSS WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

REFERENCE 19. The Policy (lines 127–128 and 133–135, inclusive) provides that "In the event of loss, the Insured shall • • • file with the Corporation a Proof of Loss within 60 days after the loss, unless such time is extended by the Corporation in writing." (It is the function of the Claims Service Office to obtain from the Insured a duly executed and completed Proof of Loss, and it is expected this will be accomplished within the time prescribed in the Policy. If for any reason it becomes necessary for an Insured independently to file a Proof of Loss in order to preserve his rights under the Policy, such Proof of Loss shall be filed with the appropriate Fiduciary Agent, if practicable, otherwise with the duly constituted supervisory insurance official of the State (including the District of Columbia), Territory or Possession wherein the insured property is located, or with the nearest Claims Service Office, or with the Corporation).

INSURED PREVENTED FROM COMPLYING WITH POLICY REQUIREMENTS

REFERENCE 20. The Policy (lines 209–213, inclusive) provides that "If the Insured is unable to comply with any of the provisions of the policy applicable to a loss because of enemy action, occupation or control, the Insured's right of recovery shall not be prejudiced; provided the Insured shall comply with such provisions within a reasonable time after the Insured becomes able to do so, but in no event later than six months thereafter."

APPRAISAL

REFERENCE 21. The Policy (lines 153–171, inclusive) provides that "In case the Insured and the Corporation fail to agree as to the actual cash value or the amount of loss, then, on the written demand of either, each shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser and notify the other of the appraiser selected within twenty days after such demand. The appraisers shall first select a competent and disinterested umpire, and, in the event of their failure within fifteen days to agree upon such umpire, then, on request of the Insured or the Corporation, such umpire shall be selected by a Judge of a Federal Court of the district in which the property is located. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating separately actual cash value and loss to each item; and, failing to agree, shall submit their differences, only, to the umpire. An award in writing, so itemized, of any two when filed with the Corporation shall determine the amount of actual cash value and loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting him and the expenses of appraisal and the umpire shall be paid by the parties equally."

NO SUIT OR ACTION SUSTAINABLE

REFERENCE 22. The Policy (lines 190–194, inclusive) provides that "No suit or action for recovery of any claim, shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity, unless all the requirements of the policy shall have been complied with, or unless commenced within twelve months after the date of loss."

PAYMENT OF LOSS WITHIN SIXTY DAYS

REFERENCE 23. The Policy (lines 181–189, inclusive) provides that "Any loss shall be payable sixty days after proof of loss, as herein provided, is received by the Corporation and ascertainment of the loss is made either by agreement between the Insured, mortgagee or loss payee, if any, and the Corporation, expressed in writing, or by the filing with the Corporation of an award as herein provided, and if the loss shall be payable to a payee other than the Insured, the amount of any loss shall be payable to such payee as interest may appear."

CONCEALMENT OR FRAUD

REFERENCE 24. The Policy (lines 38–45, inclusive) provides that "This policy shall be void if, whether before or after a loss, the Insured has wilfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof, or the interest of the Insured therein, or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the Insured relating thereto."

§ 200.7 Instructions to insured and producers. Do not telegraph—always use a Notice of Loss form including all of the information prescribed on the reverse side. Please fill out a separate Notice of Loss for each policy involved and state probable amount of loss under each Policy.

Do not change a Policy or any entry relating to coverage after a loss; all such matters should remain precisely as the loss finds them.

In case of damage to merchandise, household furniture, or other personal property, Insured is required to have both the sound and damaged articles at once protected, put in order, and inventoried; and, if possible, see that books and papers are carefully preserved.

There can be no abandonment to the Corporation of any property under any circumstances.

§ 200.10 Exceptions to protection, and statements of policy. The following exceptions, interpretations, and statements of policy have been adopted by War Damage Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to sec. 2, 56 Stat. 175; 15 USC, Sup. 606b–2:

War Damage Corporation, deeming advisable the following general exceptions to the protection authorized under section 5g of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended (Public Law No. 506, 77th Congress):

(a) Does except from such protection (1) all accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, securities, money, bullion, stamps, precious and semiprecious stones, works of art, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, models, curiosities, objects of historical and scientific interest, pleasure watercraft and pleasure aircraft, and standing timber, not specifically listed or designated as insured under a policy of insurance issued by this Corporation; (2) all property interests of an "enemy" or an "ally of an enemy" as defined in the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, or of an alien enemy, wherever resident, or of any person or persons, real or juridical, whose names are contained in the Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals, as amended, unless legally protected under a policy of insurance issued by this Corporation; (3) all furs and jewelry not specifically listed or designated as insured under a policy issued by this Corporation, except furs and jewelry of any claimant or policyholder to an aggregate value not exceeding $1,000.

(b) Does except from any and all protection under said act the following:

(1) All intangible property (other than securities insured under a policy of insurance issued by this Corporation);

(2) All real property (other than standing timber, growing crops and orchards) not a part of a building or structure;

(3) All cargo or ocean going, coastwise, intercoastal, or overseas vessels, whether in the ports or inland or coastal waters of the United States, the Philippine Islands, the Canal Zone, or the Territories or possessions of the United States or otherwise (except cargo damaged or destroyed before July 1, 1942, by enemy attack while in transit between points located in any of the foregoing), and all goods and property which are or have been diverted to, detained at, or unloaded, landed, or stored within, the United States, the Philippine Islands, the Canal Zone, or the Territories or possessions of the United States while in transit by sea or by air to or from a foreign port, so long as such goods shall be detained or prevented from proceeding to their ultimate destinations as designated in the applicable ocean or air bills of lading or shipping documents;

(4) All vessels and water-craft wherever situated (and their tackle, apparel, fittings, equipment, stores, ordnance, boilers and machinery), other than (i) vessels used exclusively for storage, housing, manufacturing or generating power, (ii) vessels while under construction, until delivery by the builder or sailing on delivery or trial trip, whichever shall first occur, and (iii) pleasure water-craft while laid up afloat or ashore, which are subject to protection within the limits indicated in paragraphs "1" and "E" of this resolution;

(5) All loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by neglect of the insured, or of the claimant (as the case may be) to use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property after damage;

(6) All interest of foreign nationals in property located, at the time of loss, otherwise than within the United States, the Canal Zone, or the Territories or possessions of the United States;

(7) All other classes of property heretofore generally excepted by this Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, from the protection authorized by said Act; all claims with respect to which notice of loss and proof of claim have not been or shall not be presented to and filed with this Corporation in accordance with its regulations as from time to time promulgated and in effect; and all claims not proved and established to the satisfaction of the Corporation; the Corporation reserving the right to except from the protection authorized by the Act such other classes of property as it shall deem advisable.

(c) All property insured against war risks by insurers other than this Corporation is excepted from protection under the said Act to the extent of any excess of the fair cash value of such property over and above the amount of such other insurance, whether collectible or not.

(d) Works of art, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books and printed publications more than 50 years old, models, curiosities, and objects of historical or scientific interest owned by commercial dealers, cultural institutions or persons who keep the same open for public display, are excepted from protection under the said Act otherwise than in an amount not exceeding $25,000 for any one article of any of the classes in this paragraph "B" described, as well as conditionally excepted from protection as elsewhere provided herein.

(e) Furs, jewelry, works of art, antiques, stamp and coin collections, manuscripts, books and printed publications more than 50 years old, models, curiosities, and objects of historical or scientific interest, when privately owned and not open for public display, are excepted from protection under the said Act otherwise than in an amount not exceeding $5,000 for any one article of any of the classes in this paragraph "C" described, and not exceeding a total of $10,000 for any one interest with respect to any or all of the aforementioned classes of property wherever located, as well as conditionally excepted from protection as elsewhere provided herein.

(f) Records, accounts, plans, drawings and formulae and excepted from protection under the said Act otherwise than in an amount not exceeding $10,000 for any one film, copy, record, account, plan, drawing or formula, as well conditionally excepted from protection to the extent elsewhere provided herein.

(g) Pleasure water-craft while laid up afloat or ashore and pleasure aircraft are excepted from protection under the said Act otherwise than in an amount not exceeding $10,000 for any one craft, as well as conditionally excepted from protection as elsewhere provided herein.

§ 200.11 Limitation of time for presentation of claims for free protection. All claims for free compensation for loss or damage to property in the Territories or possessions of the United States must be presented to War Damage Corporation before October 16, 1946. Compensation is allowable only for losses that occurred after December 6, 1941 and before July 1, 1942 as a result of enemy attack.

This section does not operate to revive any right which has expired by reason of undue delay in presenting notice of loss or proof of loss, and is not applicable to claims for compensation for losses that occurred in the Philippine Islands, authority regarding which has been extended to the recently-organized Philippine War Damage Commission.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

PART 01—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
01.0 Introduction.
01.1 Nature and authority of Commission.
01.2 Functions.
01.3 Organization.
01.4 Delegations of final authority.
01.5 Offices of Commission; information; requests and submittals.
01.6 Duties of Commission staff groups.

§ 01.0 Introduction. This part describes the central and field organization of the Federal Power Commission, including delegations of final authority and the established places at which, and methods whereby, the public may secure information or make submittals or requests.

§ 01.1 Nature and authority of Commission. (a) The Commission is an independent agency composed of five commissioners, nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate, one of whom is chairman and principal executive officer of the Commission.

(b) The Commission is charged with the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act and the Natural Gas Act, and the duties delegated to it under the Flood Control Acts of 1938, 1939, 1941, 1944, and 1946, the River and Harbor Acts of 1945 and 1946, the Bonneville Act, Tennessee Valley Authority Act, Fort Peck Act, Boulder Canyon Project Act, the Acts of 1928 and 1929 relating to the Fort Apache, White Mountain, and Flathead Indian Reservations, and the Stabilization Act of 1942.

(c) The Commission is also charged with certain duties under Executive Order No. 8202 concerning the transmission of electric energy between the United States and foreign countries and the exportation and importation of natural gas from and into the United States.

§ 01.2 Functions. The principal functions of the Commission are:

(a) The licensing of water power projects on waters over which Congress has jurisdiction, or on lands of the United States, or at Government dams.

(b) The regulation of the transmission and sale for resale of electric energy in interstate commerce, and of the accounts, rates, certain security issues, dispositions of properties, mergers and consolidations, depreciation practices, and interconnection and coordination of facilities of electric public utilities; and the compilation and publication of statstical and other information concerning the electric utility industry in the United States.

(c) The regulation of the transportation and sale for resale of natural gas in interstate commerce, including the issuance of certificates of public convenience and necessity for the construction and operation of facilities, and the regulation of the accounts, rates, and depreciation practices of natural-gas companies, and the compilation and publication of statistical and other information concerning the natural gas industry in the United States.

(d) The making of surveys and studies on the comprehensive development of river basins for hydroelectric and other purposes; and the recommendation of hydroelectric power installations in certain Federal power projects.

(e) The approval of rates, accounts, and related matters for certain Federal hydroelectric power projects, including those under the control of the War Department.

§ 01.3 Organization. The staff of the Commission is organized into the following groups, all of which report directly to the Commission:

(a) The Office of the Secretary; the Bureau of Power; the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates; the Bureau of Law; the Division of Trial Examiners; the Publications and Information Division; the Office of the Chief Engineer; the Budget and Fiscal Division; and the Personnel and Administrative Services Division.

(b) The Natural Gas Investigation (Docket No. G–580), which is being conducted by a separate staff unit under a Special Assistant to the Commission, and which is expected to be concluded during the present fiscal year.

§ 01.4 Delegations of final authority. The Commission has authorized:

(a) The Secretary to receive and pass upon petitions of electric public utilities, licensees, and natural gas companies for 30-day extensions of time for filing required reports, data, and information.

(b) The Chief of the Bureau of Power to interpret schedules of power system statements of electric utilities (Forms No. 12, etc.) and to obtain supplemental information required to assure complete and adequate statements; and Regional Engineers to grant 30-day extensions of time for filing such statements.

(c) The Chief of the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates to issue interpretations of the Uniform Systems of Accounts for Public Utilities, Licensees, and Natural Gas Companies; to suspend the requirements of Account 901—Charges by Associated Companies—Clearing, of those systems; to interpret schedules of annual reports of electric public utilities, licenses, and natural gas companies (Forms No. 1, 2, etc.) and obtain supplemental information re-

NOTICE

Part II of this issue contains organizational and procedural material submitted pursuant to section 3 (a) (1) and (2) of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 238). This material is presented by Departments in the order of their establishment, followed by independent agencies in alphabetical order. Placement within the Code of Federal Regulations is indicated by bold face brackets at the head of each unit and by appropriate part and section designations within the unit.

Due to the volume of material presented in Part II it has been necessary to bind the part in several sections and to place the table of contents at the end of the last section.

(d) Presiding officers to exercise the functions stated in Sec. 1.27 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure.

§ 01.5 Offices of Commission; information; requests and submittals. (a) The principal office of the Commission is located in the Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C. Regional offices of the Bureau of Power are maintained in Atlanta, Chicago, Fort Worth, New York, and San Francisco and a section of the Division of Original Cost of the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates in San Francisco, as described below.

(b) Official information concerning any matter pending before, or action taken by, the Commission may be secured by written or personal request to the Secretary.

(c) Information concerning matters assigned to the Regional Offices may be obtained by written or personal request and certain submittals may be made thereto as provided below.

(d) All formal requests or submittals to the Commission should be addressed the Secretary pursuant to § 1.2 (c) of this chapter.

(e) The types of official records in the files of the Commission, and their availability to the public, are described more particularly in § 1.36 of this chapter.

§ 01.6 Duties of Commission staff groups. The duties of the various groups into which the staff of the Commission is organized are described as follows:

(a) Office of the Secretary. The Office of the Secretary, under the direction of the Secretary, receives, records, assigns, and distributes all matters filed with and brought before the Commission for action. In addition to the duties specified in § 01.4 (a) above, the Secretary serves the orders, rules, regulations, and notices of Commission action; acts as official liaison officer in contacts between the Commission and the public, parties to proceedings, and public officials. The Office of the Secretary includes a public reference section where official dockets and records are maintained, available for public inspection.

(b) Bureau of Power. The Bureau of Power, under the direction of the Chief of the Bureau, performs the engineering phases of the licensed project, electrical, river basin, and projects cost work of the Commission. The duties of the Chief include those specified in § 01.4 (b) above. The Bureau is composed of four functional divisions, the work of which is described as follows:

(1) Licensed Projects Division. The Licensed Projects Division studies and reports on declarations of intentions, applications for preliminary permits and for licenses for water power projects, and related matters; inspects and reports on the construction, operation, and maintenance of such projects; investigates and reports on unlicensed water power developments; studies and reports on applications for restoration of or rights-of-way over power site lands.

(2) Electrical Division. The Electrical Division studies and reports on power markets, adequacy of power supply, interconnection and coordination of power systems, electrical system planning and related matters; collects and checks power system statements submitted by electric utilities; investigates and reports on the engineering features of applications for the approval of security issues, consolidations, mergers, acquisitions, and disposal of properties of utilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and the jurisdictional status of electric utility systems; makes electrical studies in connection with Commission approval of rate filings for Federal hydroelectric power projects.

(3) River Basin Division. The River Basin Division studies and reports on the comprehensive utilization of river basins for development of hydroelectric power alone and in connection with flood control, navigation, irrigation, and other beneficial purposes; makes investigations and reports as bases for recommendations to other Federal agencies on provisions for hydroelectric power developments at proposed multiple-purpose projects; and makes hydroelectric studies in connection with the approval of rate filings for Federal power projects.

(4) Projects Cost Division. The Projects Cost Division develops and analyzes detailed factual basic cost data covering the construction, maintenance, and operation of water power plants, fuel plants, and transmission facilities; develops and maintains current detailed costs for use of other groups, including Regional Offices, of the Bureau in the performance of their respective functions; and provides consulting service to other staff groups of the Commission in highly technical cost matters.

(5) Regional Offices. Five Regional Offices are operated as part of the Bureau of Power, under the general direction of the Chief of the Bureau. Their locations and the territories they serve are:

(iii) Fort Worth Regional Office, Seventh and Lamar Streets, Fort Worth 2, Texas: Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, parts of Mississippi and Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas, and Wyoming.

(v) San Francisco Regional Office, Phelan Building, Market and O'Farrell Streets, San Francisco 2, California: Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington.

Each Regional Office is under the direction of a Regional Engineer, who is responsible for the activities of the Bureau within the particular territory, including cooperation with other governmental agencies in those activities. He is also responsible for the duties specified in § 01.4 (b).

The Regional Office activities include the investigation of proposed multiple-purpose river basin projects; assisting applicants in complying with requirements for preliminary permits and licenses; field supervision of licensed projects; receipt and checking of anual power system statements submitted by electric utilities; power market surveys; reports on power requirements and supply, interconnection and coordination of electric utility systems, and regional power pools; investigation of interruptions to electric service; and representation of the Commisison on field committees.

(c) Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates. The Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, under the direction of the Chief of the Bureau, performs the accounting, original cost, finance, statistical, rate, and gas certificate phases of the Commisison work. The duties of the Chief include those specified in § 01.4 (c) above. The Bureau is composed of five divisions, the work of which is described as follows:

(1) Division of Accounts. The Division of Accounts performs all work relating to the accounting practices of electric public utilities, licenses, and natural-gas companies, with the exception of reviewing reclassification and original cost studies of electric public utilities and natural-gas companies and claimed net investment in licensed projects; prepares, reviews, and interprets the Uniform Systems of Accounts for Public Utilities, Licensees, and Natural Gas Companies; makes accounting studies and investigations in rate cases; makes depreciation studies; prepares, reviews, and interprets the annual financial reports prescribed by the Commission; and makes special accounting studies as ordered by the Commission.

(2) Division of Original Cost. The Division of Original Cost reviews, investigates, and reports on the reclassification and original cost studies of electric public utilities and natural gas companies and the disposition of related accounting adjustments; and reviews, investigates, and reports on claimed net investment in licensed projects and the disposition of related accounting adjustments. A section of the Division of Original Cost, located in the San Francisco Regional Office described above, audits and reports on the statements of claimed net investment in licensed projects in the western United States.

(3) Division of Finance and Statistics. The Division of Finance and Statistics analyzes and reports on matters relating to electric utility finance, rate of return, security issues, sales and mergers of electric public utility properties; gathers and publishes financial, rate, cost, production, and other statistical information relating to the electric and natural gas industries.

(4) Division of Rates. The Division of Rates investigates the operations, service lives of property, natural gas reserves, and makes cost allocation studies in rate cases involving electric public utilities, licensees, and natural gas companies; analyzes, reports on, and makes recommendations regarding the rate schedules filed by electric public utilities, natural gas companies, and certain Federal hydroelectric power projects, including those under the control of the War Department.

(5) Division of Gas Certificates. The Division of Gas Certificates handles matters relating to applications by natural gas companies and others for certificates of public convenience and necessity and the determination of service areas, the exportation and importation of natural gas, and the jurisdictional status of natural gas companies.

(d) Bureau of Law. The Bureau of Law, under the direction of the General Counsel, performs the legal work related to the activities of the Commission. The Bureau is composed of four divisions, the work of which is described as follows:

(1) Electric Power Division. The Electric Power Division performs the legal work under the Federal Power Act and the duties delegated to the Commission under the Bonneville Act, Tennessee Valley Authority Act, Fort Peck Act, and the other authorizations specified in §§ 01.1 (b) and (c), except those matters handled by the Hydroelectric Projects Division.

(2) Natural Gas Division. The Natural Gas Division performs the legal work under the Natural Gas Act and the other authorizations conferring duties or jurisdiction upon the Commission with respect to natural gas.

(3) Hydoelectric Projects Division. The Hydroelectric Projects Division performs the legal work under Part I of the Federal Power Act and under the duties delegated to the Commission under the Flood Control Acts and the River and Harbor Acts specified in § 01.1 (b) (other than the determination of net investment in licensed projects, rate and service matters, and security issues of licensees under Part I of the Federal Power Act and rate matters under the Flood Control Act of 1944, which are handled by the Electric Power Division).

(4) Interpretative and Research Division. The Interpretative and Research Division prepares legal interpretations and conducts legal research for the General Counsel and the Bureau generally; assists in the preparation of briefs, regulations, and reports on proposed legislation.

(e) Division of Trial Examiners. The Division of Trial Examiners is under the direction of the Chief Trial Examiner. Trial Examiners, when duly designated, preside at prehearing conferences and make recommendations as to stipulations reached therein by counsel; preside at public hearings, and rule on the admission of evidence and all procedural questions arising in the course of such hearings; hear oral arguments; consider briefs; report to the Commission on the cases heard, and make initial or recommended decisions supported by findings of fact and conclusions of law. When serving as presiding officers, Trial Examiners may exercise the functions specified in § 01.4 (d).

(f) The Publications and Information Division. The Publications and Information Division, under the direction of a Special Assistant to the Commission, edits Commission publications and handles their sale and other distribution; prepares and distributes general information concerning the activities of the Commission; and assists the Commission in contacts with the public.

(g) Office of the Chief Engineer. The Office of the Chief Engineer, under the direction of the Chief Engineer, advises the Commission on special engineering matters, including economic studies and reports on the allocation of costs of multiple-purpose water control projects, and advises with the Bureau of Law on special engineering matters in connection with litigation relating to water power projects.

(h) Budget and Fiscal Division. The Budget and Fiscal Division, under the direction of the Chief of the Division, handles all budget, fiscal, and related matters of the Commission; solicits bids, awards contracts and purchases supplies, equipment, and other materials; assists the Commission in contacts with the Bureau of the Budget, the Comptroller General, and the Appropriation Committees of Congress.

(i) Personnel and Administrative Services Division. The Personnel and Administrative Services Division, under the direction of the Chief of the Division, performs all personnel functions for the Commission, including recruitment; and all administrative services, including the preparation of illustrative and duplicative material for the other staff groups of the Commission.

FUNCTIONS UNDER OTHER AUTHORIZATION

02.81 Executive Order No. 8202.

§ 02.0 Introduction. (a) This part indicates the general course and method by which the public functions of the Commission are channeled and determined. Functions under Part I of the Federal Power Act, relating principally to the conservation of water power resources and the licensing of water power projects, are treated first; next, those under Parts II and III of the act, relating principally to the regulation of the transmission and sale for resale of electric energy in interstate commerce, and of public utilities engaged therein; followed by those under the Natural Gas Act, relating, principally to the regulation of the transportation and sale for resale of natural gas in interstate commerce, and of natural-gas companies engaged therein. Functions under other authorizations are treated thereafter. Internal management functions within the Commission or the Federal Government are not included. References are given to the pertinent statutory provisions and other authorities under which the Commission acts. References are also given to the rules, regulations, and orders (published and available in the FEDERAL REGISTER and the Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Title 18) showing the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available, and forms and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, and examinations.

(b) Appearance and practice before the Commissioners are subject to the provisions of § 1.4 of this chapter. All applications, complaints, declarations, petitions, pleadings, protests, reports, and other documents addressed to the Commission are received in the Office of the Secretary pursuant to § 1.14 of this chapter. The requirements for all such papers, and for notice and service thereof, are set forth in the pertinent Rules. The Secretary assigns such material to the appropriate Bureaus for study and recommendation to the Commission, in accordance with the description of functions in Part 01 above.

(c) Whenever further information is required by the Commission or the staff, it may be sought by correspondence, field investigation, or hearing. Intervention in proceedings before the Commission is provided for by § 1.8 of this chapter.

(d) In any proceeding, a party may request a conference for the submission and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement, or proposals of adjustment where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit.

(e) Where no hearing is held, the Commission acts on the basis of the material filed and the staff studies and recommendations thereon. (See also § 1.32 of this chapter.) If a hearing is held under the Federal Power Act, the procedure described in § 02.39 is followed; if under the Natural Gas Act, the procedure described in § 02.69 is followed. Whether or not a hearing has been held, an application may be made for rehearing under the Federal Power Act in the manner described in § 02.42, or under the Natural Gas Act in the manner described in § 02.72.

FUNCTIONS UNDER PART I OF THE FEDERAL POWER ACT

§ 02.1 Investigations. (a) Investigations under section 4(a) of the Act concerning water power resources and their utilization, are initiated by the Commission upon its own motion or request of another governmental agency. The staff work is performed by the Bureau of Power, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Such investigations may be conducted in cooperation with other governmental agencies. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

(b) Investigations pursuant to section 4 (g) of the act to determine Federal jurisdiction over water power projects which may require authorization under the act, are initiated by the Commission upon its own motion, request of another Federal agency, or complaint. The staff work is performed by the Bureau of Power, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Whenever it appears from such investigation that a license is required, the owner of the project may be so informed by the Secretary. If an application for license is not filed, an order to show cause therefor may be issued and a hearing held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.2 Declarations of intention. The requirements for declarations of intention to construct a dam or other project works, pursuant to section 23 (b) of the act, are stated in § 24.1 of this chapter. Notice of such declarations are given to interested public officials and State agencies. The declarations are referred to the Bureau of Power and to the Bureau of Law for studies to determine whether the interests of interstate or foreign commerce would be affected by the proposed construction. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.3 Preliminary permits. (a) The requirements for applications for preliminary permits to maintain priority of applications for license, under section 4 (f) of the act, are stated in §§ 4.80, et seq. and 131.10 of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. In addition to the usual notices, notice is given to States and municipalities and published pursuant to section 4 (f) of the act. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0). If a permit is authorized, it is issued in the manner provided in § 4.85 of this chapter.

(b) Applications for amendment of preliminary permit are governed by the provisions of § 4.84 of this chapter and are processed in the same manner as initial applications.

(c) Proceedings for the cancellation of a preliminary permit may be initiated by a complaint or by Commission order served on the permittee and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such order is based on staff studies and recommendations by the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.4 Licenses. (a) The requirements for applications for licenses are governed by the following sections of this chapter:

(1) Applications for license for proposed major project or minor part thereof (§§ 4.40, et seq. and 131.2).

(2) Applications for license for constructed major project or minor part thereof (§ 4.50, et seq. and 131.2).

(3) Applications for licenses for minor projects (§§ 4.60, et seq. and 131.6).

(4) Applications for license for transmission line only (§§ 4.70, et seq. and 131.5).

(5) Applications for renewal of license for project under license which expires on a specified date (§ 16.1). Such applications are processed in the manner stated in § 02.3 above for applications for preliminary permits. Licenses are issued pursuant to § 4.33 of this chapter.

(b) The following applications are processed in similar manner, except for local publication of notice, according to the requirements of the cited regulations:

(1) Applications for amendment of licenses or plans (§§ 5.1, et seq. and 131.30).

(2) Applications for extension of time for commencing or completing construction of a project (§§ 5.3 and 131.30).

(3) Applications for approval of transfer of license or lease of project property (§§ 9.1, et seq. and 131.20).

(4) Applications for surrender of license (§§ 6.1, et seq.).

§ 02.5 Annual charges. Petitions for adjustment of annual charges are referred to the Bureau of Power for study and recommendation. Petitions by State or municipal licensees for exemption from payment of such charges are similarly referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates. Petitions of both types are referred to the Bureau of Law for legal study and recommendation. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.6 Cost of fair value determinations. Proceedings for the determination of actual legitimate original cost or fair value of a licensed project are initiated by the filing of an initial statement of cost or value (Form No. 6) pursuant to the requirements of the license and subject to the requirements of §§ 4.1, 4.10, or 4.20 of this chapter, respectively. Such statement is referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, for audit and report, with participation by the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Such report is served as provided in §§ 4.4, 4.12, or 4.22 of this chapter. Protest thereto may be filed as provided in §§ 4.5, 4.13, or 4.23. If a protest is filed, a hearing is held after notice (see § 02.0). In the absence of protest, the Commission makes the determination upon the basis of the staff report and recommendations. The licensee is required by §§ 4.7, 4.14, or 4.25 of this chapter to file within 90 days a statement on Form No. 7 showing its compliance with the Commission determination.

§ 02.7 Determinations of net investment. Proceedings for the determination of net investment in a licensed project may be initiated by petition or by Commission order served on the licensee and interested State agencies and published in the Federal Register. Such order is based upon staff studies and recommendations by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.8 Headwater benefits. Commission action for the determination of headwater benefits under section 10 (f) of the Act may be initiated by petition containing such information as the Secretary will specify upon written request. Answers thereto shall also contain such information as the Secretary will specify. Such petitions and answers are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0 above).

Information concerning the procedures to be followed for determination of just and fair compensation for a licensed project taken over by the United States under Section 16 of the Act may be secured by written request to the Secretary.

§ 02.10 Rates; services; securities. (a) Rate schedules. The requirements applicable to the filing of rate schedules by licensees are stated in § 35.20 of this chapter. The functions and procedures followed in connection therewith are as stated in § 02.26 below.

(b) Services, etc. Proceedings to determine the services to be rendered by licensees, and rates and charges of payment therefor, under Sections 19 and 20 of the Act are as described in §§ 02.27 and 02.29.

(c) Security issues. Proceedings for obtaining Commission authorization for the issuance of securities by licensees pursuant to sections 19 and 20 of the Act are subject to the requirements of Part 20 of this chapter. The functions and procedures followed in connection therewith are as stated in § 02.25.

§ 02.11 Restoration of Government lands. The requirements for applications for restoration of Government lands withdrawn for power purposes under section 24 of the act are stated in Part 25 of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and to the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0). In the event of a favorable determination, the Commission notifies the Secretary of the Interior in accordance with section 24 of the act.

§ 02.12 Field inspections and revocation of permits and licenses by court action. Compliance with the terms of licenses and with the approved plans in construction, operation, and maintenance of licensed projects, and compliance with the terms of preliminary permits, is enforced by periodic inspections by the Bureau of Power, principally through the Regional Offices, or through designated Federal agencies. Apparent violations of such terms or plans, or of provisions of the Act and regulations of the Commission, are reported to the Commission either by the staff or other agency or by complaint. Reports and recommendations thereon by the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law are submitted to the Commission and attempts made through correspondence or field investigation to secure compliance by the permittees or licensees. If satisfactory adjustments are not made, show cause orders are issued and served upon the permittees or licensees and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. After notice, hearings may be held (see § 02.0) and the matter referred to the Attorney General for institution of court proceedings pursuant to sections 13 and 26 of the act.

§ 02.13 Approved forms, etc. (a) The following is a list of approved forms, statements, and reports under Part I of the Act, descriptions of which have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER or in 18 CFR, Parts 131 and 141.

(1) Certificate of service, 18 CFR, 131.1).

(2) Application for license for major project or minor part thereof (18 CFR, 131.2).

(3) Certificate of organization (18 CFR, 131.3).

(4) Certificate of exhibits (18 CFR, 131.4).

(5) Application for license for transmission lines only (18 CFR, 131.5).

(6) Application for license for minor project having installed capacity of 100 horsepower or less (18 CFR, 131.6).

(7) Application for preliminary permit (18 CFR, 131.10).

(8) Application for approval of transfer of license (18 CFR, 131.20).

(9) Application for amendment of license (18 CFR, 131.30).

(10) Application for exemption from payment of annual charges (18 CFR, 131.70).

(11) Form No. 1D. Annual Report for licensees using special condensed accounting rules (18 CFR, 141.5).

(12) Form No. 1E. Annual Report for Class I licenses (18 CFR, 141.6).

(13) Form No. 6. Initial statement showing actual legitimate original cost of project (18 CFR, 141.11).

(14) Form No. 7. Statement of actual legitimate original cost of construction (18 CFR, 141.12).

(15) Form No. 8. Report of claimed increases and decreases in licensed project plant accounts (18 CFR, 141.13).

(b) The forms listed in subparagraphs (1) to (9) inclusive, are published in the Regulations, copies of which Regulations may be obtained from the Secretary upon written request. Copies of statements and reports listed in subparagraphs (10) to (15) inclusive, may be obtained from the Publications and Information Division.

FUNCTIONS UNDER PARTS II AND III OF THE FEDERAL POWER ACT

§ 02.21 Determination of jurisdictional status. In the course of the administration and enforcement of the requirements of Parts II and III of the act, the staff classifies as to jurisdictional status under the terms of section 201 of the act, persons owning or operating electric power facilities. These classifications, which are tentative and not binding on the persons or the Commission, are made on the basis of data reported to the Commission by such persons, supplemented when necessary by staff investigation of the facilities and their operations. The technical phases of such work are in general performed by the Bureau of Power except that, in certain proceedings in which such phases are closely related to those for which the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates is responsible, the latter may perform the technical work with the cooperation of the Bureau of Power. In all instances, the Bureau of Law participates in the legal aspects of the work. If any person involved disagrees with the classification and refuses to comply with the requirements of the act in accordance therewith, a formal proceeding may be initiated to resolve the questions presented. The proceeding is initiated by Commission order served upon such person and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.22 Interconnection and coordination of facilities. (a) For the establishment of regional districts for the voluntary interconnection and coordination of electric facilities pursuant to section 202 (a) of the act, the Bureau of Power analyzes data submitted by the owners and operators of the facilities and makes any necessary field studies. Before establishing any such districts and fixing or modifying the boundaries thereof, the Commission notifies the State commissions affected and affords them opportunity to present their views and recommendations. Information concerning the manner of submitting such applications may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

(b) The requirements for applications for orders directing the establishment of physical connection of transmission facilities or sale or exchange of electric energy pursuant to section 202 (b) of the act, are stated in § 32.1 of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. Notice is given to each State commission and public utility affected and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

(c) The authority of the Commission under section 202 (c) of the act to require emergency connections of facilities and generation, delivery, interchange, or transmission of electric energy may be exercised upon its own motion or upon complaint, with or without notice, hearing or report. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law. If the parties fail to agree upon the terms or any arrangements between them in carrying out a Commission order in such a proceeding, either party may file an application or the Commission may by order served upon the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, initiate a proceeding to prescribe terms pursuant to the last sentence of section 202 (c) of the act. A hearing is held after notice (see § 02.0).

(d) Any person other than a "public utility" within the meaning of that term as used in the Act, making a temporary connection during an emergency without thereby becoming subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, is required to report in accordance with § 32.21 of this chapter.

(e) The requirements for applications for approval of permanent connections of facilities for emergency use only, under the last provision of section 202 (d) of the act, are stated in §§ 32.22 and 32.24 of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. A hearing may be held after notice (see § 02.0).

§ 02.23 Exportation of electric energy. (a) The requirements for applications for authorization to transmit electric energy from the United States to a foreign country pursuant to section 202 (e) of the act, are stated in §§ 32.20, et seq. of this chapter. In addition, the requirements for Presidential Permits under Executive Order No. 8202, described in § 02.81, must be satisfied. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0). Such authorizations are issued simultaneously with the requisite Presidential Permits. The requirements for filing rate schedules and pertinent reports under such authorizations are stated in §§ 32.38 and 35.15 of this chapter.

cies. The declarations are referred to sion order served on the licensee and in- are similarly initiated

(b) Proceedings for supplemental orders under the last provision of section 202 (e) of the act may be initiated by application or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.24 Disposition of property, consolidation; purchase of securities. (a) The requirements for applications for approval of disposition of property, consolidation of facilities, or purchase of securities by public utilities pursuant to section 203 of the act, are stated in Part 33 of this chapter. Written notices of such applications are given to the Governor and State commission of each State affected and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The applications are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, the Bureau of Power, and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

(b) Proceedings for supplemental orders under the last provision of section 203 (b) of the act may be initiated by application or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, the Bureau of Power, and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.26 Rate schedule. (a) The requirements for filing rate schedules and changes therein under section 205 of the act, are specified in Part 35 of this chapter. Such schedules and any accompanying requests for waiver of the 30-day provision are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates for study and recommendation, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Any complaint under section 205 (e) of the act and any answer thereto, are similarly referred. Upon such complaint or upon its own motion the Commission may suspend the operation of rate schedules proposing changes in existing schedules, after notice and a statement of reasons therefor. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing is held pursuant to sections 205 (e) and 308 of the act (see also § 02.0).

(b) Further requirements for public utilities filing rate schedules under section 205 of the act are specified in §§ 35.5, et seq. and 131.51 of this chapter.

§ 02.27 Fixing rates and charges. Proceedings to determine just and reasonable rates, charges, etc. under section 206 (a) of the act are initiated by complaint or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations in such proceedings are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and by the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.28 Cost of production and transmission. Investigations under section 206 (b) of the act to determine the cost of production and transmisison of electric energy, are initiated by request of a State commission or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates with the participation of the Bureau of Power on power supply and system operation, and of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects involved. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.29 Furnishing adequate service. Notice of complaints by State commissions pursuant to section 207 of the act, concerning the adequacy or sufficiency of interstate service rendered by a public utility, are given each State commission and public utility affected and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such complaints and answers thereto are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. Where rate questions are involved, the complaints and answers are also referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.30 Ascertainment of cost and depreciation. Investigations to ascertain the actual legitimate cost of public utility properties and depreciation therin pursuant to section 208 (a) of the act, are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Such investigations are usually made in connection with rate proceedings under sections 205 and 206, or accounting proceedings under section 301 of the act, and frequently involve field studies of utility records and properties. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.32 Accounting. The Uniform System of Accounts for Public Utilities and Licensees prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 301 (a) of the act, is published in the Code of Federal Regulations as Subchapter C of Chapter I, Title 18. Before prescribing any rules or requirements as to accounts, records, or memoranda, the Commission notifies interested State commissions and affords reasonable opportunity for presentation of their views, pursuant to section 302 (b) of the act. Studies and examinations of the accounting practices of public utilities and licensees are conducted by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. The procedures for adjustment of accounts and reports are specified in Part 41 of this chapter. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.33 Depreciation. (a) Rules, regulations, and forms of account for depreciation are set forth in the Uniform System of Accounts for Public Utilities and Licensees. Studies and recommendations concerning depreciation under section 302 (a) of the act are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Information concerning the procedures to be followed in fixing depreciation accounts and rates of depreciation under this section of the act may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

(b) Before prescribing any rules or requirements as to depreciation, the Commission notifies interested State commissions and affords reasonable opportunity for presentation of their views, pursuant to section 302 (b) of the act.

§ 02.34 Reports. The reports and forms prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 304 (a) and other sections of the act are listed in § 02.44.

§ 02.35 Interlocking positions. The requirements for applications for authority to hold interlocking positions pursuant to section 305 (b) of the act, are stated in Part 45 of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.2). Authorizations under this section of the act are subject to revocation after notice and opportunity for hearing, as described in § 45.6 of this chapter.

§ 02.36 Complaints; answers. The requirements for the submission of complaints pursuant to section 306 of the act, are stated in § 1.6 of the Rules, and for answers thereto in § 1.9. Action is taken thereon according to the subject matter, as described in the foregoing sections.

§ 02.39 Hearings. Hearings are subject to the requirements of section 308 of the act and § 1.20 of this chapter. The time and place of hearings and the issues involved are stated in Commission orders served on the participants and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A prehearing conference procedure is provided by § 1.18 of this chapter. Provisions are also made in the Rules concerning expert witnesses, stipulations, evidence, presiding officers, copies of transcripts, motions, and time requirements. Evidence may be offered and cross-examination conducted by any party to the proceeding and by staff counsel. Testimony and exhibits are given and prepared, and other assistance rendered staff counsel by the technical staff as may be required. Appeals from rulings of presiding officers during the course of proceedings may be made to the Commission in accordance with § 1.28. Briefs and oral arguments before presiding officers, and proposed findings and orders, are subject to § 1.29. The presiding officer's report, exceptions thereto, briefs and oral arguments before the Commission, decisions by the Commission, and reopening of proceedings are governed by §§ 1.20, et seq. of this chapter.

§ 02.40 Rules and Regulations. The requirements for petitions for rule making under section 309 of the act are stated in § 1.7 of this chapter. After notice, hearings may be held (see § 02.0). The Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Commission are printed in Part 1 of Subchapter A, Chapter I, Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations.

§ 02.41 Investigations relating to electric energy, etc. Investigations relating to electric energy and other matters referred to in section 311 of the act are conducted in the manner described in § 02.37. The results of such investigations may be published by the Commission pursuant to section 312 of the act. Lists of titles and prices of such publications may be secured from the Publications and Information Division.

§ 02.42 Rehearings. The requirements for applications for rehearings under section 313 (a) of the act are stated in § 1.34 of this chapter. Such applications may be filed with respect to any final Commission order, whether or not a hearing has previously been held in the matter.

§ 02.43 Forfeitures. On the basis of staff studies and recommendations, proceedings to fix the amount of forfeitures under section 315 (a) of the act are initiated by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.44 Approved forms, etc. (a) The following is a list of approved forms, statements, and reports under the Federal Power Act, descriptions of which have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER or in 18 CFR, Parts 131 and 141.

(1) Certificate of Services (18 CFR, 131.1).
(2) Balance Sheet (18 CFR, 131.40).

(28) Form No. Temp. 2–48. Directory of Electric (and Gas) Utilities (18 CFR, 141.27).

(b) The approved forms listed in subparagraphs (1) to (10) inclusive, are published in the Regulations, copies of which regulations may be obtained from the Secretary upon written request. Copies of statements and reports listed in subparagraphs (11) to (28) inclusive, may be obtained from the Publications and Information Division of the Commission.

§ 02.45 Other matters. Information concerning any function, form, or procedure of the Commission under Parts II and III of the act, not described above, may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

FUNCTIONS UNDER THE NATURAL GAS ACT

§ 02.51 Determination of jurisdictional status. In the course of the administration and enforcement of the requirements of the Natural Gas Act, the staff classifies as to jurisdictional status under the terms of Section 1 of the Act, persons engaged in the transportation or sale of natural gas. These classifications, which are tentative and not binding on the persons or the Commission, are made on the basis of available information, including data reported to the Commission by such persons, supplemented when necessary by staff investigation. The technical phases of such work are performed by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, and the legal phases by the Bureau of Law. If any person involved disagrees with the classification and refuses to comply with the requirements of the act in accordance therewith, a formal proceeding may be initiated to resolve the questions presented. The proceeding is initiated by Commission order served upon such person and interested State agencies, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.52 Exportation or importation of natural gas. (a) The requirements for applications for authorization to export or import natural gas from or to the United States, pursuant to section 3 of the act, are stated in § 153.1, et seq. of this chapter. In addition, the requirements for Presidential Permits under Executive Order No. 8202, described in § 02.81, and for certificates of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the act as amended, described in § 02.59, must be satisfied. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law. Notice is given to each State commission and gas company affected and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A hearing may be held (see § 02.0). Such authorizations are issued simultaneously with the requisite Presidential Permits. The requirements for filing rate schedules and pertinent reports under such authorizations are stated in § 153.8 of this chapter.

(b) Proceedings for supplemental orders under the last provision of section 3 of the act may be initiated by application or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts,

Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.53 Rate schedules. (a) The requirements for filing rate schedules and changes therein under section 4 of the act are specified in Part 154 of this chapter. Such schedules and any accompanying requests for waiver of the 30-day provision, are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates for study and recommendation, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Any complaints under section 4(e) of the act and any answers thereto, are similarly referred. Upon such complaint or upon its own motion, the Commission may suspend the operation of rate schedules proposing changes in existing schedules, after notice and a statement of reasons therefor. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing is held pursuant to sections 4 (e) and 15 of the act (see also § 02.0).

(b) Further requirements for natural gas companies filing rate schedules under section 4 of the act are specified in §§ 154.5, et seq. and 250.2, et seq., of this chapter.

§ 02.54 Fixing rates and charges. Proceedings to determine just and reasonable rates, charges, etc., under section 5 (a) of the act are initiated by complaint or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the Federal Register. Staff studies and recommendations in such proceedings are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, and by the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.55 Cost of production and transportation. Investigations under section 5 (b) of the act to determine the cost of production and transportation of natural gas, are initiated by request of a State commission or by Commission order served on the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.56 Ascertainment of cost and depreciation. Investigations to ascertain the actual legitimate cost of the properties of natural gas companies and depreciation therein, pursuant to section 6 (a) of the act, are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Such investigations are usually made in connection with rate proceedings under sections 4 and 5, or accounting proceedings under section 8, of the act and frequently involve field studies of records and investigation of the properties of natural gas companies. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.57 Extension of facilities. Action to require the extension or improvement of transportation facilities, the establishment of physical connection between facilities, and the sale of natural gas under section 7 (a) of the act, may be initiated by application or by the Commission upon its own motion. Information concerning the requisite contents of such applications may be secured upon written request to the Secretary. Notice is given to each company affected and interested State agencies, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Staff studies and recommendations are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.58 Abandonment. Information concerning the requirements of applications for approval of abandonment of facilities or service pursuant to section 7 (b) of the act may be secured upon written request to the Secretary. Notices of such applications are served upon the parties and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The applications are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.59 Certificates. The requirements for applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction, extension, acquisition, or operation of facilities or the sale of natural gas under sections 7 (c) and 7 (e) of the act as amended, are stated in Part 157 of this chapter. Notice of the applications is given to the parties and interested State agencies, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and to the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. After notice, a hearing is held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.60 Service areas. Information concerning the determination of service areas, pursuant to section 7 (f) of the act as amended, may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

§ 02.61 Accounting. The Uniform System of Accounts for Natural Gas Companies, prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 8 (a) of the act, is published in the Code of Federal Regulations as Subchapter F of Chapter I, Title 18. Before prescribing any rules or requirements as to accounts, records, or memoranda, the Commission notifies interested State commissions and affords reasonable opportunity for presentation of their views, pursuant to section 9 (b) of the act. Studies and examinations of the accounting practices of natural gas companies are conducted by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. The procedures for the adjustment of accounts and reports are specified in Part 158 of this chapter. After notice, a hearing may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.62 Depreciation. (a) Rules, regulations, and forms of account for depreciation are set forth in the Uniform System of Accounts for Natural Gas Companies. Studies and recommendations concerning depreciation under section 9 (a) of the act are made by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates, with the participation of the Bureau of Law on the legal aspects thereof. Information concerning the procedures to be followed in fixing depreciation accounts and rates of depreciation under this section of the act may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

(b) Before prescribing any rules or requirements as to depreciation, the Commission notifies interested State commissions and affords reasonable opportunity for presentation of their views, pursuant to section 9 (b) of the act.

§ 02.63 Reports. The reports and forms prescribed by the Commission pursuant to section 10 (a) and other sections of the act are listed in § 02.73.

§ 02.64 State compacts. The information required under section 11 of the act concerning matters covered in any proposed State compact on natural gas is assembled and maintained by the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates. Inquiries concerning such information may be made to the Secretary.

§ 02.65 Complaints; answers. The requirements for the submission of complaints pursuant to section 13 of the act are stated in § 1.6 of the Rules, and for answers thereto in § 1.9 of this chapter. Action is taken thereon acording to the subject matter, as described in the foregoing sections.

§ 02.66 Investigations. Investigations pursuant to section 14 (a) of the act are conducted by the Bureau primarily concerned with the subject matter, with the Bureau of Law participating on the legal aspects thereof. After notice, hearings may be held (see § 02.0).

§ 02.67 Adequacy of reserves. Information concerning the manner of determination of the adequacy of gas reserves and other matters specified in section 14 (b) of the act, may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

§ 02.69 Hearings. Hearings are subject to the requirements of section 15 of the act and § 1.20 of this chapter. The time and place of hearings and the issues involved are stated in Commission orders served on the participants and interested State agencies and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A prehearing conference procedure is provided by § 1.18 of this chapter. Provisions are also made in the Rules concerning expert witnesses, stipulations, evidence, presiding officers, copies of transcripts, motions, and time requirements. Evidence may be offered and cross-examination conducted by any party to the proceeding and by staff counsel. Testimony and exhibits are given and prepared, and other assistance rendered staff counsel by the technical staff as may be required. Appeals from rulings of presiding officers during the course of proceedings may be made to the Commission in accordance with § 1.28. Briefs and oral arguments before presiding officers, and proposed findings and orders, are subject to § 1.29. The presiding officer's report, exceptions thereto, briefs and oral arguments before the Commission, decisions by the Commission, and reopening of proceedings are governed by § 1.30, et seq., of this chapter.

§ 02.70 Rules and regulations. The requirements for petitions for rule making under section 16 of the act are stated in § 1.7 of this chapter. After notice, hearings may be held (see § 02.0). The Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Commission are printed in Part I of Subchapter A, Chapter I, Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations.

§ 02.72 Rehearings. The requirements for applications for rehearings under section 19 (a) of the act are stated in § 1.34 of this chapter. Such applications may be filed with respect to any final Commission order, whether or not a hearing has previously been held in the matter.

§ 02.73 Approved forms, etc. (a) The following is a list of approved forms, statements, and reports under the Natural Gas Act, descriptions of which have been published in the Federal Register or in Parts 250 and 260, Chapter I, Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations:

(1) Certificate of service (18 CFR, 250.1).
(2) Certificate of concurrence (18 CFR, 250.2).
(3) Notice of cancellation or termination (18 CFR, 250.3).
(4) Notice of succession in ownership or operation (18 CFR, 250.4).
(5) Form No. 2. Annual Report for natural gas companies, Classes A and B (18 CFR, 260.1).
(6) Form No. 2A. Annual Report for natural gas companies, Classes C and D (18 CFR, 260.2).
(7) Form No. 11. Monthly statement of operating revenue and income for natural gas companies (18 CFR, 260.3).
(8) Form No. Temp. 2–46. Directory of gas (and electric) utilities (18 CFR, 260.4).

(b) The approved forms listed in subparagraphs (1) to (4) inclusive, are published in the regulations, copies of which regulations may be obtained from the Secretary upon written request. Copies of statements and reports listed in subparagraphs (5) to (8) inclusive, may be obtained from the Publications and Information Division of the Commission.

§ 02.74 Other matters. Information concerning any function, form, or procedure of the Commission under the Natural Gas Act, not described above, may be secured upon written request to the Secretary.

FUNCTIONS UNDER OTHER AUTHORIZATIONS

§ 02.81 Executive Order No. 8202. (a) The requirements for applications for construction, operation, maintenance, or connection of facilities for the transmission of electric energy from the United States to foreign countries, under Executive Order No. 8202, are stated in §§ 32.50 et seq. of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Power and to the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. Upon the basis of the application, staff studies, recommendations of the Secretary of State and the Secretary of War, and other pertinent data, the Commission submits such applications to the President with its recommendations concerning appropriate disposition.

(b) The requirements for applications for construction, operation, maintenance, or connection of facilities for the exportation and importation of natural gas from or into the United States are stated in §§ 153.10, et seq. of this chapter. Such applications are referred to the Bureau of Accounts, Finance and Rates and to the Bureau of Law for studies and recommendations. Thereafter they are processed in the manner described in paragraph (a) of this section, for applications for the exportation of electric energy.

§ 03.0 Introduction. This part states the substantive rules of general application and statements of general policy and interpretations formulated and adopted by the Commission for the guidance of the public. Those under the Federal Power Act are stated first, followed by those under the Natural Gas Act.

SUBSTANTIVE RULES UNDER THE FEDERAL POWER ACT

§ 03.1 Uniform system of accounts. (a) The Uniform System of Accounts prescribed for Public Utilities and Licensees subject to the provisions of the Federal Power Act, is published in Parts 101, 102, and 103 of Subchapter C, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Other accounting regulations thereunder are published in Parts 104, 116, 120, and 125.

STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY AND INTERPRETATIONS

§ 03.26 Transmission lines. In a public statement dated March 7, 1941, the Commission announced its determination that transmission lines which are not primary lines transmitting power from the power house or appurtenant works of a project to the point of junction with the distribution system or with the interconnected primary transmission system as set forth in section 3 (11) of the act are not within the licensing authority of the Commission, and directed that future applications filed with it for such licenses be referred for appropriate action to the Federal department having supervision over the lands or waterways involved.

§ 03.27 Jurisdictional status. The Commission approved on June 26, 1945, the following conclusions concerning the jurisdictional status under the act of persons owning or operating specified facilities:

The ownership or operation of facilities for the transmission of electric energy from a point within a State to a foreign country makes one a "public utility" under the Federal Power Act, even though the portion of such facilities in this country is located wholly within such State.

§ 03.28 Suspension of rate schedules. The Commission approved and adopted on May 29, 1945, the following conclusions as to its powers of suspension of rate schedules under section 205 of the act:

(a) The Commission cannot suspend a rate schedule after its effective date.
(b) The Commission can suspend any new schedule making any change in an existing filed rate schedule, including any rate, charge, classification, or service, or in any rule, regulation, or contract relating thereto, contained in the filed schedule.
(c) Included in such changes which may be suspended are:
(1) Increases.
(2) Reductions.
(3) Discriminatory changes.
(4) Cancellation or notice of termination.
(5) Changes in classification, service, rule, regulation or contract.
(d) An initial rate schedule cannot be suspended.
(e) Immaterial, unimportant, or routine changes will not be suspended.
(f) During suspension, the prior existing rate schedule continues in effect and should not be changed during suspension.
(g) Changes under escalator clauses may be suspended as changes in existing filed schedules.
(h) Suspension of a rate schedule, within the ambit of the Commission's statutory authority is a matter within the discretion of the Commission.

SUBSTANTIVE RULES UNDER THE NATURAL GAS ACT

§ 03.51 Uniform system of accounts. The Uniform System of Accounts prescribed for Natural Gas Companies subject to the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, is published in Part 201 of Sub-chapter F, Chapter I, Title 18, of the Code of Federal Regulations. Other accounting regulations thereunder are published in Part 221.

STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY AND INTERPRETATIONS

§ 03.76 Jurisdictional status. The Commission approved on June 26, 1945, the following conclusions relating to the jurisdictional status under the Act of persons owning or operating specified facilities:

The transportation of natural gas from or to a point within a State to or from a foreign country makes one a "natural gas company" under the Natural Gas Act, even though the portion of such transportation which takes place within this country is limited to such State.

§ 03.77 Suspension of rate schedules. The Commission, in approving and adopting the interpretation stated in § 03.28 above, applied it also to the suspension of rate schedules under section 4 of the Natural Gas Act.

§ 03.78 Certificate applications. The Commission, in a letter dated December 20, 1945, addressed to all natural gas companies, stated in part:

• • • It has come to the attention of the Commission, • • • that certain natural gas companies subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission have constructed, and in some instances operated, facilities without having received prior authorization required by Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act. The Commission, therefore, gives notice to all companies that appropriate action will be taken against any such company constructing or operating facilities in violation of the Natural Gas Act.

The Commission realizes that the problems of the reconversion period came upon the industry suddenly, but believes that the natural gas companies should now be able to plan their construction programs for the reasonable future so as to avoid the filing of multiple applications involving portions of what are essentially single extension projects. Intermittent applications for piecemeal construction are costly in time and money. Moreover, proper planning and timely application for authority to construct new facilities will reduce so-called emergency applications under Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, and thus provide for adequate capacity and service. Time will also be conserved if all applications are supported by complete data.

The Commission recognizes the possibility that natural gas companies may be faced with real emergency situations, and is prepared to act promptly to enable companies to deal with such contingencies when shown to exist and where the public interest demands emergency action.

LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

And the Commission orders that:

(1) No power, right, obligation or duty in any proceeding initiated prior to September 11, 1946, arising or existing under or by virtue of any Rule or Regulation superseded as hereinabove provided shall be affected thereby;

(2) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order, the "Rules of Practice and Procedure", and the accompanying statements, to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 1.1 The Commission[1]—(a) Offices. The principal office of the Commission is at Washington, D. C. All communications to the Commission shall be addressed to Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., unless otherwise specifically directed. Regional offices are maintained at Atlanta, Chicago, Fort Worth, New York, and San Francisco.

(b) Hours. The offices of the Commission will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. of each week-day except Saturday, unless otherwise provided by statute or Executive order.

(c) Sessions. The Commission meets and exercises its powers in any part of the United States.

(1) Public. Public sessions of the Commission will be held after due notice as ordered by the Commission.

(2) General. General sessions of the Commission for the transaction of its business will be held at the principal office of the Commission at Washington, D. C., on regular business days as scheduled by the Commission.

(3) Special. Special sessions of the Commission for the transaction of business may be held at any time and place as may be scheduled by the Commission.

(d) Quorum. Three members of the Commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(e) Action by members or representatives. The Commission may, by one or more of its members especially authorized, or by such other representatives as it may designate and authorize, conduct in any part of the United States any inquiry, investigation, hearing or other process necessary to its duties and functions.

(f) Definitions. As used in these rules, except as otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Person" means and shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, joint stock companies, public trusts, organized groups of persons, whether incorporated or not, receivers or trustees of the foregoing, municipalities, including cities, counties, or other political subdivisions of a State, States of the Union, including the District of Columbia or any territory of the United States, or any agency, authority or instrumentality of the United States, or of any one or more of the foregoing, or any corporation which is wholly owned directly or indirectly, by the United States, or by any one or more of the foregoing, or any officer, agent, or employee of any of the foregoing acting as such in the course of his official duty.

[1] A statement of the Commission's organization is contained in Part 01 of this subchapter, the Commission's course and method of operation in Part 02 of this subchapter, and in Part 03 there are contained statements of substantive rules and general policy and interpretations of the Commission, with appropriate references to the "Rules of Practice and Procedure" and to Subchapters B—Regulations under the Federal Power Act, C—Accounts, Federal Power Act, D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, E—Regulations under the Natural Gas Act, F—Accounts, Natural Gas Act, and G—Approved Forms, Natural Gas Act.

(2) "Participant" means and shall include any party, any person admitted by the Commission to limited participation in a proceeding, and staff counsel.

(3) "Commission" and "Commissioner" means the Federal Power Commission, and a member thereof, respectively.

(4) "Secretary" means and shall include the Secretary or the Office of the Secretary of the Commission.

(5) "State Commission" means and shall include the regulatory body of any State or municipality having jurisdiction to regulate rates and charges for the sale of electric energy or natural gas to consumers within the State or municipality.

(6) "Presiding Officer" means and shall include any one or more of the members of the Commission duly designated, but not including the Commission when sitting as such, or one or more trial examiners appointed according to law and duly designated, to preside at hearings or conferences, or other officers specially provided for and designated pursuant to statute to conduct specified classes of proceedings.

(7) "Attorney" means and shall include any attorney admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, or the highest court of any State or Territory of the United States, or the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, or the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any other person with the requisite qualifications to represent others, who acts in a representative capacity for any party or participant to a proceeding before the Commission.

(8) "Applicants." In proceedings involving applications for permission or authorization which the Commission may give under statutory or other authority delegated to it, the parties on whose behalf the applications are made are styled applicants.

(10) "Complainants." Persons who complain to the Commission of anything done or omitted to be done in contravention or violation of the provisions of any statute or other delegated authority administered by the Commission, or of any orders, rules, or regulations issued or promulgated thereunder, or any other alleged wrong over which the Commission may have jurisdiction, are styled complainants.

(12) "Defendants." Persons subject to any statute or other delegated authority administered by the Commission, or any orders, rules, or regulations issued or promulgated thereunder, against whom any complaint is filed, are styled defendants.

(13) "Interveners." Persons petitioning to intervene as provided by § 1.8, when admitted as a participant to a proceeding, and State Commissions giving notice of intervention as provided in said section, are styled interveners. Admission as an intervener shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that such intervener might be aggrieved by or suffer legal wrong because of any order of the Commission in such proceeding.

(14) "Protestants." Persons objecting on the ground of private or public interest to the approval of an application, petition, motion or other matter which the Commission may have under consideration, are styled protestants. Protestants desiring to become interveners in any proceeding before the Commission may file a petition for intervention as provided by Sec. 1.8.

(15) "Respondents." Persons subject to any statute or other delegated authority administered by the Commission, to whom an order or notice is issued by the Commission instituting a proceeding or investigation on its own initiative, are styled respondents.

(16) "Staff Counsel" means and shall include the counsel of the Commission participating in a proceeding before the Commission.

(g) Public information. All pleadings, submittals and requests for official information shall be addressed to the principal office of the Commission, or shall be filed in or submitted to the Office of the Secretary, as provided hereinafter by these rules.

§ 1.2 The Secretary—(a) Official records. The Secretary shall have custody of the Commission's seal and official records, and shall be responsible for the maintenance and custody of the docket, files and records of the Commission, including the transcripts of testimony and exhibits, with all papers and requests filed in proceedings, the minutes of all action taken by the Commission, and all its findings, determinations, reports, opinions, orders, rules, regulations and approved forms.

(b) Authentication of Commission action. All orders and other actions of the Commission shall be authenticated or signed by the Secretary or such other person as may be authorized by the Commission.

(c) Requests and submittals. Pleadings and other submittals or papers required to be filed with the Commission shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., within such time limits as are prescribed for such filings; and, similarly, requests for official information, copies of official records, or opportunity to inspect public records, shall be made to the Office of the Secretary, as provided in these rules.

§ 1.3 Notice of public sessions and proceedings. Public sessions of the Commission for taking evidence or hearing argument and public conferences and hearings before any presiding officer, including substantive rule-making proceedings, will not be held except upon due notice.

§ 1.4 Appearances and practice before the Commission—(a) Appearances. (1) Participants may appear in any proceeding in person or by an attorney or other qualified representative. An individual may appear in his own behalf, a member of a partnership may represent the partnership, a bona-fide officer of a corporation, trust, association or organized group may represent the corporation, trust, association or group, and an officer or employee of a State commission, of a department or political subdivision of a State or other governmental authority, may represent the State commission or the department or political subdivision of the State or other governmental authority, in any proceeding.

(2) Any person compelled to appear or voluntarily testifying or making a statement before the Commission or the presiding officer, may be accompanied, represented and advised by an attorney or other qualified representative.

(3) All persons appearing before the Commission or the presiding officer must conform to the standards of ethical conduct required of practitioners before the Courts of the United States; and where applicable, to the requirements of section 12 (i) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (49 Stat. 825; 15 U. S. C. 79*l* (i)).

(4) Any person appearing before or transacting business with the Commission in a representative capacity may be required by the Commission or the presiding officer to file a power of attorney showing his authority to act in such capacity.

(b) Suspension. (1) After hearing the Commission may disqualify and deny, temporarily or permanently, the privilege of appearing or practicing before it in any way to any person who is found (i) not to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others, or (ii) to have engaged in unethical or improper professional conduct, or (iii) otherwise to be not qualified.

(2) Contumacious conduct at any hearing before the Commission or a presiding officer shall be ground for exclusion of any person from such hearing and for summary suspension for the duration of the hearing by the Commission or the presiding officer.

(c) Appearances of former employees barred for one year. Except upon special permission of the Commission, no person having served as a member, officer, expert, examiner, attorney, accountant, engineer, or other employee of the Federal Power Commission may practice before or act as attorney, expert witness, or representative in any proceeding before the Commission within one year next after the separation of the said person from the service of the Commission.

§ 1.5 Applications—(a) General. Applications for authorization or permission which the Commission may give under statutory or other delegated authority administered by it, in addition to the requirements herein prescribed, shall conform to the requirements of the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commission separately under the several statutes and delegations of authority administered by it. (See 18 CFR, Subchapters B and E.)

(b) Contents. All applications shall be in writing and under oath, shall state clearly and concisely the authorization or permission sought, shall cite by appropriate reference the statutory provision or other authority under which Commission authorization or permission is sought, and shall set forth in the order indicated the following (unless otherwise provided by Commission rules or regulations for the specific type of application involved):

(1) The exact legal name of the applicant, if the applicant is a corporation, trust, association, or other organized group, the State or territory under the laws of which the applicant was created or organized, the location of applicant's principal place of business, and the names of all states where applicant is authorized to do business.

(2) The name, title and post office address of the person to whom correspondence or communications in regard to the application is to be addressed. The Commission will serve, where required, all notices, orders and other papers upon the person so named and such service shall be deemed to be service upon applicant.

(3) All other information as required by the Commission's rules and regulations under which a specific type of application is filed, and as may be required by the Commission in a particular case or proceeding.

(c) Form. Except where otherwise provided by the Commission rules and regulations under which a specific type of application is filed, applications shall conform to the requirements of § 1.15 as to copies and style, and to § 1.16 as to subscription and verification.

§ 1.6 Complaints—(a) General. Complaints may be informal or formal.

(b) Informal—(1) Form. Informal complaints may be made by letter or other writing, and will be filed as received. Matters informally presented will, if their nature so warrants, be taken up by correspondence or conference with the party or parties complained of in an endeavor to bring about satisfaction of the complaint without formal hearing.

(2) Substance. No form of informal complaint is prescribed, but in substance it should contain the name and address of complainant, the name and address of the party against whom the complaint is made, and a brief statement of the facts forming the basis of such complaint. Although the filing of an informal complaint is without prejudice to complainant's right to file a formal complaint, only formal complaints submitted and prosecuted in the manner hereinafter prescribed will initiate formal proceedings or make complainant a party to any proceedings already initiated, and only formal complaints will be admitted in the record of formal proceedings. It is desirable that the informal complaint be accompanied by sufficient copies to enable the Commission to transmit one to each party named and to each interested State commission, and retain one for its own use, and it may be accompanied by supporting papers.

(c) Formal—(1) Form. Formal complaints shall be in writing and under oath and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15 and 1.16. In such complaints there shall be stated the names and addresses of all parties, complainant and defendant, in full without abbreviations, with the name and address of each complainant's attorney, if any.

(2) Substance. Formal complaints shall be so drawn as fully and completely to advise the parties defendant and the Commission of the facts constituting the grounds of the complaint, the provisions of statutes, rules, regulations and orders relied upon, involving authority of the Commission, the injury complained of, and the relief sought.

(d) Joinder. Two or more grounds of complaint involving the same purposes, subject, or state of facts, may be included in one complaint, but should be separately stated and numbered; and two or more complainants may join in one complaint if their respective causes of complaint are against the same defendant or defendants, and involve substantially the same purposes and subject, and a like state of facts.

§ 1.7 Petitions—(a) General. Petitions for relief under any statute or other authority delegated to the Commission shall be in writing and under oath, shall state clearly and concisely the petitioner's grounds of interest in the subject matter, the facts relied upon, and the relief sought, and shall cite by appropriate reference the statutory provision or other authority relied upon for relief and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15 and 1.16.

(b) For issuance, amendment or repeal of rules. A petition for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule by the Commission shall set forth clearly and concisely petitioner's interest in the subject matter, the specific rule, amendment, or repeal requested, and cite by appropriate reference the statutory provision or other authority therefor. Such petition shall set forth the purpose of, and the facts claimed to constitute the grounds requiring, such rule, amendment, or repeal, and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15 and 1.16. Petitions for the issuance or amendment of a rule shall incorporate the proposed rule or amendment.

(c) For declaratory orders. Petitions for the issuance, in the discretion of the Commission, of a declaratory order to terminate a controversy or remove uncertainty, shall state clearly and concisely the controversy or uncertainty which is the subject of the petition, shall cite the statutory provision or other authority involved, shall include a complete statement of the facts and grounds prompting the petition, together with a full disclosure of petitioner's interest, and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15 and 1.16.

§ 1.8 Intervention—(a) Initiation of intervention. Participation in a proceeding as an intervener may be initiated as follows:

(1) By the filing of a notice of intervention by a State Commission, including any regulatory body of the State or municipality having jurisdiction to regulate rates and charges for the sale of electric energy, or natural gas, as the case may be, to consumers within the State or municipality.

(2) By order of the Commission upon petition to intervene.

(b) Who may petition. A petition to intervene may be filed by any person claiming a right to intervene or an interest of such nature that intervention is necessary or appropriate to the administration of the statute under which the proceeding is brought. Such right or interest may be:

(1) A right conferred by statute of the United States;

(2) An interest which may be directly affected and which is not adequately represented by existing parties and as to which petitioners may be bound by the Commission's action in the proceeding (the following may have such an interest: consumers served by the applicant, defendant, or respondent; holders of securities of the applicant, defendant, or respondent; and competitors of the applicant, defendant, or respondent).

(3) Any other interest of such nature that petitioner's participation may be in the public interest.

(c) Contents of petition. Petitions to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner's alleged right or interest can be determined, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission as to the issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted, citing by appropriate reference the statutory provisions or other authority relied on.

(d) Form, filing and service. Petitions to intervene and notices of intervention shall be filed with the Commission within the time provided in any notice of the proceeding or in the order fixing date of hearing, but not less than 10 days before the date set for the commencement of the hearing, if any, except as otherwise specially permitted by the Commission in extraordinary circumstances for good cause shown. They shall in all other respects comply with the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17. Where a person permitted to intervene fails to file within the time limited in this paragraph, the Commission or presiding officer may, where the circumstances warrant, admit any exhibit in evidence without requiring additional copies thereof to be produced for such intervener.

(e) Limitation—(1) In proceedings. In acting upon a petition to intervene the Commission may, as found to be appropriate, authorize limited participation as provided in its order.

(2) In hearings. The Commission or presiding officer may, where there are two or more interveners having substantially like interests and positions, arrange appropriate limitations on the number of attorneys who will be permitted to cross-examine each witness and to make and argue motions and objections, properly to expedite the hearing.

§ 1.9 Answers—(a) Answers to formal complaints and petitions. Answers to formal complaints and petitions shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date of service. This period may be shortened or extended by the Commission in its discretion. Any defendant failing to file answer within such period shall be deemed in default, and all relevant facts stated in such complaint or petition shall be deemed admitted. All answers shall be in writing and under oath, shall be so drawn as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission as to the nature of the defense, and shall admit or deny, specifically and in detail, each material allegation of the pleading answered, shall state clearly and concisely the facts and matters of law relied upon. They shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(b) Answers to petitions to intervene. Answers to petitions to intervene need not be made unless the parties so elect. If made, they shall be filed with the Commission within 15 days after the date of service of the original petition, but not later than 5 days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing, if any. This period may be shortened or extended by the Commission in its discretion. They shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(c) Defendants seeking affirmative relief. Defendants seeking relief against other parties in a proceeding by reason of the presence of common questions of law or fact shall set forth in their answer the facts constituting the grounds of complaint, the provisions of the statutes, rules, regulations, or orders relied upon, the injury complained of, and the relief sought. The answer shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of this section and of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(d) Replies to defendants seeking affirmative relief. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, replies to answers seeking affirmative relief must be filed and served within 15 days after the service of the answer, but not later than 5 days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing, if any. They shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(e) Satisfaction of complaints. If the defendant satisfies a formal complaint either before or after answering, a statement to that effect signed by the opposing parties shall be filed, setting forth when and how the complaint has been satisfied and requesting dismissal. Such statements shall be served upon all parties, and the original copies of such statements, when filed, shall show service on all parties, and in other respects shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17; all additional copies shall be conformed thereto.

§ 1.10 Protests—(a) General. Protests may be informal or formal.

(b) Informal—(1) Form. Informal protests may be made by letter or other writing, and will be filed as received, and will be given such consideration as their contents and nature warrant.

(2) Substance. No form of informal protest is prescribed, but in substance the letter or other writing should contain the name and address of protestant, the proceeding or nature of the matter which is the subject of the protest, the action or omission to which objection is made, and the grounds of protest.

(c) Formal—(1) Form. Formal protest shall be in writing and under oath, shall be served and in other respects shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17. In such protests there shall be stated the names and addresses of all protestants, in full without abbreviations, with the name and address of each protestant's attorney, if any.

(2) Substance. Formal protests shall set forth clearly and concisely the position and interest of the protestant in the proceeding and shall be so drawn as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission as to the grounds of opposition to the acts or omissions complained of, and shall in other respects conform to the requirements of § 1.6.

(d) Intervention by protestant. Protestants desiring to become interveners in any proceeding before the Commission may file a petition for intervention as provided by § 1.8.

§ 1.11 Amendments and withdrawal of pleadings—(a) Amendments. Any modification or supplement to a pleading shall be deemed an amendment to the pleading, and shall comply with all requirements of these rules relating to the pleading amended insofar as appropriate and in all other respects shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17. Upon its own motion or upon motion promptly filed by any participant, the Commission may for good cause decline to permit, or may strike in whole or in part, any amendment. No amendment to a pleading may be filed within 5 days next preceding the commencement of or during a hearing unless directed or permitted by the Commission or the presiding officer after opportunity for all parties to be heard thereon.

(b) Amendments to conform to the evidence. When, at a hearing, issues not raised by the pleadings are introduced by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these new issues may be made upon motion of any participant at any time during the hearing. If evidence upon such new issues is objected to on the ground that it is not within the issues raised by the pleadings, the Commission or the presiding officer may allow the pleadings to be amended and such evidence to be received, when it appears that the presentation of the merits of the proceeding will be served thereby without prejudicing the public interest or the rights of any participant. When, in the discretion of the Commission or the presiding officer, a continuance is necessary in order to enable the objecting participant to meet such new issues and evidence, a continuance may be granted by the Commission or the presiding officer.

(c) Directed amendments. The Commission may at any time, or during a hearing the presiding officer may on his own motion or the motion of any participant, direct a party to state his case by way of amendment more fully or in more detail. Such amendment shall be reduced to writing and filed within such time as may be fixed therefor, and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(d) Withdrawal of pleadings. A participant desiring to withdraw a pleading filed with the Commission may file a notice of withdrawal thereof with the Commission. Such notice shall set forth the reasons for the withdrawal and conform to the requirements of this section and §§ 1.15–1.17 as to copies, form, service, subscription and verification. A certificate shall accompany or be incorporated in every such notice showing service on all participants. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission for good cause, such notice shall, 15 days after the filing thereof, be deemed to have effected the withdrawal of the pleading, including amendments, if any.

§ 1.12 Motions—(a) General. All motions and requests for rulings by the Commission or the presiding officer shall state clearly and concisely the purpose of and the relief sought by the motion, the statutory provision or principal authority relied upon, and the facts claimed to constitute the grounds requiring the relief requested.

(b) Method of presentation—(1) Before or after hearing. All motions and requests for rulings made before the commencement or after the conclusion of hearings in any proceeding shall be in writing and under oath and shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

(2) During hearings. Motions and requests which are made during a hearing in any proceeding may be stated orally and shall be made a part of the transcript, subject, however, to any requirement by the Commission or the presiding officer that such motion or request be reduced to writing and filed in the manner provided in paragraph (b) (1) of this section and further, to the requirements of these rules relating to the motion filed.

(c) Rulings on. Motions which relate to the introduction or striking of evidence, or with respect to procedure during the course of hearings, or to any other matters within the authority of the presiding officer, shall be made to the presiding officer and ruled on by him. No exception need be taken to any such ruling in order to entitle a party to urge an objection thereto before the Commission. All other motions shall be addressed to and ruled upon by the Commission.

§ 1.13 Time; extension of time; continuances—(a) Computation of Time. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, in computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in which event the period shall run until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is 5 days or less, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A part-day holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(b) Issuance of orders. In computing any period of time involving the date of the issuance of an order by the Commission, the day of issuance of an order shall be the day the Office of the Secretary mails or delivers copies of the order (full text) to the parties or their attorneys of record, or makes such copies public, whichever be the earlier. The day of issuance of an order may or may not be the day of its adoption by the Commission. In any event, the Office of the Secretary shall clearly indicate on each order the date of its issuance.

(c) Extensions of time. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, whenever by any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission, or any notice given thereunder, an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the time fixed or the period of time prescribed may, by the Commission or the presiding officer, be extended if application therefor is made before expiration of four-fifths of the period originally prescribed or as previously extended; and upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, the act may be permitted to be done where reasonable grounds are found for the failure to act.

(d) Continuances. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the Commission may for good cause at any time, with or without motion, continue or adjourn any hearing. A hearing before the Commission or a presiding officer, shall begin at the time and place ordered by the Commission, but thereafter may be adjourned from time to time or from place to place by the Commission or the presiding officer.

(e) Requests for continuance, time extensions. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, requests for continuance of hearings or for extensions of time in which to perform any act required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time by any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission, shall be by motion in writing, timely filed with the Commission, stating the facts on which the application rests, except that during the course of a hearing in a proceeding, such requests may be made by oral motion in the hearing before the Commission or the presiding officer. Written motions filed under this section shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.12, 1.15–1.17.

§ 1.14 Filings; docket; hearing calendar—(a) Filing with the Commission—(1) Defined. The filing of written applications, complaints, declarations, petitions, protests, answers, motions, briefs, exceptions, rate schedules, notices, reports, or other pleadings, amendments to pleadings, documents, or papers, with the Commission as required or allowed by these rules, by any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission, or by any applicable statute, shall be made by filing them with the Office of the Secretary of the Commission in Washington, D. C. Any such papers must be received by the Commission in Washington, D. C., within the time limit, if any, for such filing.

(2) Acceptance for filing. There will be accepted for filing only such applications, pleadings, and other papers as conform to the requirements of these rules, and any other applicable rule, regulation, or order of the Commission or applicable statute; applications, pleadings or other papers tendered for filing which fail so to conform may be refused acceptance for filing and may be returned by the Secretary with an indication of the deficiencies of the tendered filing and the reasons for non-acceptance and return. No matter so tendered but not accepted for filing shall be entered on the Commission's docket. Acceptance for filing shall not waive any failure to comply with the rules, and such failure may be cause for striking all or any part of such filing.

(b) Docket. The Secretary shall maintain a docket of all proceedings, and each proceeding as initiated shall be assigned an appropriate designation. The docket shall be available for inspection and copying by the public during the office hours of the Commission insofar as consistent with the proper discharge of the Commission's duties.

(c) Hearing calendar. (1) The Secretary shall maintain a hearing calendar of all proceedings set for hearing.

(2) In the absence of cause requiring otherwise, and as time, the nature of the proceedings, and the proper execution of the Commission's functions permit, matters required to be determined upon the record after opportunity for hearing will be placed upon the hearing calendar in the order the proceedings are initiated and recorded upon the Commission's docket. Proceedings pending upon this calendar will in their order of assignment, so far as practicable, be heard at the times and places fixed by the Commission, giving due regard to the convenience and necessity of the parties or their attorneys; however, in its discretion with or without motion, the Commission for cause may at any time with due notice to the parties advance or postpone any proceeding on the hearing calendar.

§ 1.15 Formal requirements as to pleadings, documents and other papers filed in proceedings—(a) Title. Pleadings, documents, or other papers filed with the Commission in any proceeding shall clearly show the docket designation and title of the proceeding before the Commission.

(b) Copies. Except as may be otherwise required by the rules or regulations of the Commission, or ordered or requested by the Commission, at the time pleadings, documents, or other papers other than correspondence, are filed with the Commission, there shall be furnished to the Commission 25 copies of such papers, and exhibits, if any; Provided, however, When service is made by the parties, only 15 copies need be filed. (See § 1.17 (f).)

(c) Form—(1) Typewritten. Pleadings, documents, or other papers filed in proceedings, if not printed, shall be typewritten on paper cut or folded to letter size, 8 to 8½ inches wide by 10½ to 11 inches long, with left-hand margin not less than 1½ inches wide and other margins not less than 1 inch. The impression shall be on only one side of the paper and shall be double spaced, except that quotations in excess of a few lines shall be single spaced and indented. Mimeographed, multigraphed, hectographed, or planographed copies will be accepted as typewritten, provided all copies are clearly legible.

(2) Printed. If printed, they shall not be less than 10-point type on unglazed paper, cut or folded so as not to exceed 8½ inches wide by 11 inches long, with inside margin not less than 1 inch wide, and with double-leaded text and single-leaded, indented quotations.

(e) Signature. Except as may be otherwise required by the rules or regulations of the Commission, or ordered or requested by the Commission, the original copy of each application, complaint, declaration, petition, protest, answer, motion, brief, exception, rate schedule, notice, report, statement and other pleading, amendment to pleading, document or paper, shall be signed in ink by the party in interest, or by his or its attorney, as required by these rules, and shall show the office and post office address of the same. All other copies filed shall be fully conformed thereto.

(f) Improper matter. Any paper containing defamatory, scurrilous, or unethical matter will be rejected by the Commission.

§ 1.16 Subscription and verification—(a) Subscription. Pleadings, amendments thereto, notices, reports, exhibits, and other requests, submittals, or statements filed with the Commission shall be subscribed: (1) By the person filing the same, and severally if there be more than one person so filing; (2) by an officer thereof if it be a corporation, trust, association, or other organized group; (3) by an officer or employee thereof if it be a State commission, a department or political subdivision of a State, or other governmental authority, agency, or instrumentality; or (4) therefor by an attorney having authority with respect thereto, except that applications, formal complaints and petitions to intervene shall be subscribed by the person or party in interest, or if such applicant, complainant, or petitioner be a corporation, trust, association, or other organized group, such subscription shall be made by an officer thereof.

(b) Verification. In addition, any facts alleged in the matter filed shall be verified under oath by the person filing, an officer, or an attorney having knowledge of the matters set forth.

(c) Evidence of authority. If either the subscription or the verification be by any one other than the person filing, or an officer or attorney thereof, the reason therefor shall be stated. In such event there shall be filed with the Commission appropriate evidence of the authority for filing the pleading or other matter, and of the authority for the officer subscribing any application, formal complaint or petition to intervene, if such applicant, complainant or petitioner be a corporation, trust, association, or other organized group.

§ 1.17 Service—(a) By the Commission. Applications, formal complaints, petitions other than intervening petitions, orders and all forms of Commission action shall be served by the Secretary by registered mail, except when service by other method shall be specifically required by the Commission, by registering and mailing a copy thereof to the person, partnership, corporation, trust, association, or other organized group to be served, addressed to the person or persons designated in the initial pleadings, at his or its principal office or place of business. When service is not accomplished by registered mail, it may be effected by any one duly authorized by the Commission (1) by delivering a copy of the document to the person to be served, or to a member of the partnership to be served, or to the president, secretary, or other executive officer or a director of a corporation to be served, or to the representative of the trust, association or other organized group to be served, or (2) by leaving a copy thereof at the principal office or place of business of such person, partnership, corporation, trust, association or other organized group to be served. The return post office receipt for said document or other paper registered or mailed as aforesaid, or the verified return by the person accomplishing service, setting forth the manner of said service, shall be proof of such service.

(b) By parties. Answers, protests, intervening petitions, supplements or amendments thereto or to applications, complaints or petitions, motions, briefs, notices, and all other papers, except depositions, filed in proceedings pending before the Commission upon its docket, when filed or tendered to the Commission for filing, shall show service thereof upon all participants to the proceeding. Such service shall be made by delivering in person or by mailing, properly addressed with postage prepaid, one copy to each participant.

(c) Upon attorneys. When any participant has appeared by attorney, service upon such attorney shall be deemed service upon the participant.

(d) Date of service. The date of service shall be the day when the matter served is deposited in the United States mail, or is delivered in person, as the case may be. In computing the time from such date, the provisions of § 1.13 (a) shall apply.

(e) Certificate of service. There shall accompany and be attached to each pleading, document, or other paper filed with the Commission a certificate of service in the form prescribed, 18 CFR 131.1, 250.1.

(f) Copies. Where service is made by the parties or service is not required to be made, 15 copies of such pleadings, documents, or other papers, together with exhibits, if any, shall be filed with the Commission, in lieu of the 25 copies required by § 1.15 (b).

§ 1.18 Prehearing conferences—(a) To adjust or settle proceedings. In order to provide opportunity for settlement of a proceeding, or of any of the issues therein, there may be held at any time prior to or during hearings before the Commission or a presiding officer designated to preside at conferences or hearings, such informal prehearing conferences for the submission and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement, or proposals of adjustment as time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest may permit.

(b) To expedite hearings. To expedite the orderly conduct and disposition of any hearing, at such prehearing conferences as may be held, there may be considered, in addition to any offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment, the possibility of the following:

(1) The simplification of the issues;

(2) The exchange and acceptance of service of exhibits proposed to be offered in evidence;

(3) The obtaining of admissions as to, or stipulations of, facts not remaining in dispute, or the authenticity of documents which might properly shorten the hearing;

(4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;

(5) Such other matters as may properly be dealt with to aid in expediting the orderly conduct and disposition of the proceeding.

(c) Conference results stipulated. Upon conclusion of a prehearing conference, attorneys for the parties and staff counsel shall immediately reduce the results thereof to the form of a written stipulation which recites the action proposed to be taken, and 10 copies thereof shall forthwith be filed with the Commission by the presiding officer of such conference with a statement of his recommendations. Such stipulations may be received in evidence at a hearing and, when so received, shall be binding on the parties and staff counsel with respect to the matters therein stipulated.

(d) Adjustment; settlement offers at any time. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as precluding any interested party in a proceeding from submitting at any time offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment to all other parties and to the Commission (or to staff counsel for transmittal to the Commission), or from requesting conferences for such purposes.

§ 1.19 Notice—(a) Rule-making. The Commission will cause general notice to be given by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (unless all persons subject thereto are named and either personally served or otherwise have actual notice thereof in accordance with law) not less than 15 days prior to the adoption of any rule or any hearing on any proposal of a rule, if any hearing is ordered by the Commission. Such notice will state the time, place, and nature of the proceeding, recite the authority under which the rule is proposed to be adopted and promulgated, and include either the terms or substance of the proposed rule or a description of the subjects and issues involved to inform interested persons of the nature of the proceeding, so as to permit any interested person to submit views, data or proposals relative thereto; and such notice will set forth a time period in which interested persons may submit written data, views or arguments concerning the proposed rule, indicating also whether opportunity for oral presentation or public hearing is contemplated; Provided, however, That:

(1) Where the Commission, for good cause, finds it impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest to give such notice, it may proceed with the adoption of rules without notice by incorporating therein a finding to such effect and a concise statement of the reasons therefor;

(2) Except where notice or hearing is required by statute, the Commission may issue at any time rules of organization, procedure or practice, or interpretative rules, or statements of policy, without notice or public proceedings; and

(3) This section is not to be construed as applicable to the extent that there may be involved any military, naval, or foreign affairs function of the United States, or any matter relating to the Commission's management or personnel, or to United States property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts.

(b) Hearings. Before any hearing, except where a shorter period is reasonable and good cause exists therefor, the Commission will cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER either a notice of hearing or the Commission's order setting the proceedings for hearing, such notice or order to be filed with the FEDERAL REGISTER not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of the hearing. Such notice or order will state the time, place and nature of the proceeding, recite the authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held, and indicate briefly the matters of fact and law asserted, to inform parties to the proceeding and the public of the subject matter and the issues involved, and, if already designated, the name of the presiding officer before whom the proceedings are to be conducted. In addition to such publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, for hearings in proceedings involving matters other than substantive rules of general applicability, copies of the notice or order setting the proceeding for hearing will be mailed by the Office of the Secretary to the parties of record and to States or other governmental authorities deemed to have an official interest in the proceeding.

§ 1.20 Hearings—(a) How ordered. Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence shall be held as ordered by the Commission and pursuant to adjournments thereof. In fixing the time and place of hearing the Commission will, so far as time and the proper execution of its functions permit, give due regard to the convenience and necessity of the parties or their attorneys, and give notice as provided in § 1.19; however, unless otherwise directed by the Commission or the presiding officer, not less than 15 days notice of the time and place of any indefinitely postponed hearing shall be given to the participants or their attorneys of record.

(b) Consolidation. The Commission upon its own motion, or upon agreement between the parties and staff counsel, may order proceedings involving a common question of law or fact to be consolidated for hearing of any or all the matters in issue in such proceedings; and the Commission may, in its discretion, make such orders concerning the conduct of such proceedings as may tend to avoid unnecessary cost or delay and as may expedite their disposition in the public interest.

(c) Presiding officers. All such hearings shall be held before the Commission or a duly designated presiding officer; but nothing herein shall be deemed to supersede or preclude the conduct of proceedings before boards or other officers specially provided for in § 1.37 or as the Commission may, after due notice, specially authorize and order.

(d) Disqualification of a presiding officer. A presiding officer may withdraw from a proceeding when he deems himself disqualified, or he may be withdrawn by the Commission for good cause found after timely affidavits alleging personal bias or other disqualifications have been filed and the matter has been heard by the Commission or by a presiding officer to whom it has delegated the matter for investigation and report.

(e) Appearances. The Commission or the presiding officer before whom the hearing is held will cause to be entered upon the record all appearances, with a notation in whose behalf each appearance is made. Included in such appearances shall be staff counsel participating, and a notation shall be made in the record of the names of the members of the Commission's technical staff participating, including accountants, engineers, and other experts, who have been assigned to work on the investigation or to assist in the trial of the case.

(f) Order of procedure. In hearings upon applications, declarations of intention, and determinations of the actual legitimate original cost of licensed projects, the applicant, declarant or licensee shall open and close. In hearings on formal complaints or petitions, the complainant or petitioner, as the case may be, shall open and close. In hearings involving suspended rates, the respondent shall open and close. In hearings on investigations, the presiding officer may direct who shall open and close. In hearings in proceedings in which accounting entries are questioned by the Commission, the party whose entries are in question shall open and close. When proceedings have been consolidated for hearing, the presiding officer shall designate who shall open and close. Interveners shall follow the parties in whose behalf the intervention is made; where the intervention is not in support of an original party, the presiding officer shall designate at what stage such intervener shall be heard. In proceedings where the evidence is peculiarly within the knowledge or control of another party or participant, the foregoing order of presentation may be varied by the presiding officer.

(g) Presentation by parties. (1) Parties and staff counsel shall have the right of presentation of evidence, cross examination, objection, motion, argument and appeal. Witnesses shall be examined orally unless the testimony is taken by deposition as provided in § 1.24, or the facts are stipulated in the manner provided in §§ 1.18 and 1.25. The taking of evidence and subsequent proceedings shall proceed with all reasonable diligence and with the least practicable delay.

(2) When objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence befcre the Commission or the presiding officer are made, the grounds relied upon shall be stated briefly. Formal exceptions are unnecessary and will not be taken to rulings thereon.

(h) Prepared expert testimony. With the approval of the Commission or the presiding officer, an expert witness may be permitted to offer as his testimony on direct examination (either by reading it into the record or by offering it for incorporation in the transcript without reading, as may appear more desirable depending upon its nature and extent) his own relevant and material statements of fact and expressions of opinion within his special field, in written form, Provided, That copies of such prepared testimony shall have been served upon all parties to the proceeding or their attorneys of record, including staff counsel of record, at least 5 days in advance of the session of the hearing at which such testimony is to be offered. Such prepared testimony shall be subject to the same rules of admissibility, and the author thereof may be cross examined in all respects as if such testimony were offered in the usual manner. Pertinent objections to such testimony or to any part of it may be made and prosecuted by means of motions to strike. Whenever in the circumstances of a particular case it is deemed necessary or desirable, the Commission or the presiding officer may direct that expert testimony to be given upon direct examination shall be reduced to writing and be served in advance of the time it is to be offered in evidence, and offered in the manner hereinbefore described. A reasonable period of time shall be allowed for the preparation of such written testimony.

(i) Limiting number of expert witnesses. The Commission or the presiding officer may limit appropriately the number of expert witnesses that may be heard upon any issue.

(j) Additional evidence. At any stage of the hearing, or after the close of testimony, the Commission or the presiding officer may call for further evidence upon any issue, and require such evidence to be presented by the party or parties concerned or by the staff counsel, either at that hearing or adjournments thereof. At the hearing, the Commission or the presiding officer may, if deemed advisable, authorize any participant to file specific documentary evidence as a part of the record within a fixed time, expiring not less than 10 days before the date fixed for filing and serving briefs.

(k) Transcript and record. Hearings shall be stenographically reported by the official reporter of the Commission, and a transcript of said report shall be a part of the record and the sole official transcript of the proceeding. Such transcripts shall include a verbatim report of the hearings; nothing shall be omitted therefrom except as is directed on the record by the Commission or the presiding officer. All material facts officially noticed by the Commission or the presiding officer shall be referred to in the record, and with the transcript of testimony and exhibits, together with all pleadings, papers and requests filed in the proceedings, shall constitute the record for decision. After the closing of the record, there shall not be received in evidence or considered as part of the record any document, letter or other writing submitted after the close of testimony except as provided in subparagraph (j) of this section, or changes in the transcript as provided in subparagraph (l) of this paragraph.

(l) Transcript corrections. Corrections in the official transcript may be made only to make it conform to the evidence presented at the hearing and to speak the truth. No corrections or physical changes shall be made in or upon the official transcript of the proceeding, except as herein provided. Transcript corrections agreed to by opposing attorneys may be incorporated into the record, if and when approved by the Commission or the presiding officer, at any time during the hearing or after the close of evidence, as may be permitted by the Commission, or by the presiding officer before the filing of his report, but not less than 10 days in advance of the time fixed for filing final briefs. The Commission or the presiding officer may call for the submission of proposed corrections and may make disposition thereof at appropriate times during the course of a proceeding.

§ 1.21 Copies of transcripts—(a) Availability to participants in public hearings. The Commission will cause to be made a stenographic record of all public hearings and such copies of the transcript thereof as it requires for its own purposes. Participants desiring copies of such transcript may obtain the same from the official reporter upon payment of the fees fixed therefor.

(b) Availability to persons who give evidence in investigations and nonpublic proceedings. Any person compelled to furnish data or to give evidence in any investigation shall be entitled to retain or, upon payment of the lawfully prescribed fees therefor to the Official Reporter, the Secretary, or other designated officer of the Commission, to obtain a copy of the official transcript thereof; Provided, however, That where such data or evidence have been furnished or given in a nonpublic investigatory proceeding conducted by the Commission, such person may, for good cause, be limited to an inspection only, either in person or by a duly accredited representative, of the official transcript of his testimony.

§ 1.22 Witnesses—(a) Oral examination. Witnesses shall be examined orally, and for good cause the Commission may permit their testimony to be taken by deposition as provided in § 1.24. Witnesses whose testimony is taken shall be sworn, or shall affirm, before any questions are put to them or any testimony given.

(b) Expert witnesses. Written testimony of an expert witness may be received as provided in § 1.20, where properly supported by the oral testimony of its author on direct examination, subject to cross-examination and motions to strike.

§ 1.23 Subpenas—(a) Issuance. Subpenas for the attendance of witnesses or for the production of documentary evidence, unless directed by the Commission upon its own motion, will issue only upon application in writing to the Commission or the presiding officer, who is hereby given authority to determine the relevancy and materiality of the evidence sought and to issue such subpenas in accordance with such determination. Such applications shall be verified and shall specify as nearly as may be the general relevance, materiality and scope of the testimony or documentary evidence sought, including, as to documentary evidence, specification as nearly as may be, of the documents desired and the facts to be proved by them in sufficient detail to indicate the materiality and relevance of such documents.

(b) Service and return. If service of subpena is made by United States marshal or his deputy, such service shall be evidenced by his return thereon. If made by another person, such person shall make affidavit thereof, describing the manner in which service is made, and shall return such affidavit on or with the original subpena. In case of failure to make service, the reasons for the failure shall be stated on the original subpena. In making service, a copy of the subpena shall be exhibited to and left with the person to be served. The original subpena, bearing or accompanied by the authorized return, affidavit or statement, shall be returned forthwith to the Secretary or, if so directed on the subpena, to the presiding officer before whom the person named in the subpena is required to appear.

(c) Fees of witnesses. Witnesses who are subpenaed shall be paid fees as provided in § 1.22.

§ 1.24 Depositions—(a) When permissible. The testimony of any witness may be taken by deposition, at the instance of a participant to any proceeding pending before the Commission, at any time before the hearing is closed, upon approval by the Commission or the presiding officer.

(b) Notice and application. Unless notice is waived, no deposition shall be taken except after at least 10 days' notice to the parties within the United States, and 15 days' notice when a deposition is to be taken elsewhere. Such notice shall be given in writing by the participant proposing to take such deposition or by his attorney to the other participants or their attorneys of record and to the Commission. In such notice and application to take evidence by deposition, the participant desiring to take the deposition shall state the name and post office address of the witness, the subject matter concerning which the witness is expected to testify, the time and place of taking the deposition, the name and post office address of the officer before whom it is desired that the deposition be taken, and the reason why such deposition should be taken. The other participants may, within the time stated above, make any appropriate response to such notice and application. Such notices and responses thereto shall conform, as applicable, to the requirements of §§ 1.5, 1.15–1.17.

(c) Authorization for taking. Thereupon, if the application so warrants, the Commission or presiding officer will issue and serve, within a reasonable time in advance of the time fixed for taking testimony, upon the participants or their attorneys an authorization naming the witness whose deposition is to be taken, and the time, place and officer before whom the witness is to testify, but such time, place and officer so specified may or may not be the same as those named in the said notice and application.

(d) Officer before whom taken—(1) Within the United States. Such depositions may be taken before a member, a presiding officer or other authorized representative of the Commisison, any judge, commissioner, or clerk of any court of the United States, any chancellor, judge, or justice of a State court, any mayor or chief magistrate, of a city, or any notary public, not being counsel or attorney for any of the participants, or interested in the proceeding or investigation, according to such designation as may be made in the authorization.

(2) In foreign countries. Where such deposition is taken in a foreign country, it may be taken before a secretary of an embassy or legation, counsel general, counsel, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or before such person or officer as may be designated in the authorization or agreed upon by the parties by stipulation in writing filed with and approved by the Commission or the presiding officer. The magistrate, person, or officer so designated in this rule will be referred to as the Officer.

(e) Oath and reduction to writing. Every person whose testimony is taken by deposition shall be sworn, or shall affirm concerning the matter about which he shall testify, before any questions are put or testimony given. The testimony shall be reduced to writing by the Officer or under his direction, after which the deposition shall be subscribed by the witness and certified in the usual form by the Officer. Unless otherwise directed in the authorization, after the deposition has been so subscribed and certified, it shall, together with nine copies thereof made by such Officer or under his direction, be forwarded by such Officer in a sealed envelope addressed to the Commission at its office in Washington 25, D. C., with sufficient stamps for postage affixed. Upon receipt thereof, the Secretary shall file the original in the proceeding and shall forward a copy to each party or his attorney of record and to staff counsel.

(f) Form. Such deposition shall conform to the requirements of § 1.15 in all respects except as to the number of copies.

(g) Scope and conduct of examination. Unless otherwise directed in the authorization, the deponent may be examined regarding any matter which is relevant to the issues involved in the pending proceeding, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents or other tangible things, and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts. Parties or their attorneys and staff counsel shall have the right of cross-examination, objection and exception. In making objections to questions or evidence, the grounds relied upon shall be stated briefly, but no transcript filed by the Officer shall include argument or debate. Objections to questions or evidence shall be noted by the Officer upon the deposition, but he shall not have power to decide on the competency or materiality or relevancy of evidence. Objections to questions or evidence not taken before the Officer shall be deemed waived.

(h) Not part of record unless received in evidence. No part of a deposition not received in evidence shall constitute a part of the record in the proceeding, unless the parties and staff counsel shall so agree or the Commission so orders. Objection may be made at the hearing in the proceeding to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witnesses were then present and testifying. At such hearing any party or staff counsel may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition, whether introduced by him or by any other party. If only a part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, any other party to the proceeding or staff counsel may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party or staff counsel may introduce any other parts.

(i) Fees of officers and deponents. Deponents whose depositions are taken and the officers taking the same shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the District Courts of the United States, which fees shall be paid by the party or participant at whose instance the depositions are taken.

§ 1.25 Stipulations—(a) Presentation and effect. In addition to stipulations made as provided by § 1.18, the parties and staff counsel may stipulate as to any relevant matters of fact or the authenticity of any relevant documents. Such stipulations may be received in evidence at a hearing, and when so received shall be binding on the parties and staff counsel with respect to the matters therein stipulated.

(b) Form, style and service. Stipulations shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.15–1.17.

§ 1.26 Evidence—(a) Form and admissibility. Any oral or documentary evidence which is relevant, material, and not unduly repetitious or cumulative shall be admissible in any proceeding before the Commission or the presiding officer.

(b) Reception and ruling on. The presiding officer, subject to appeal to the Commission as provided in § 1.28, shall rule on the admissibility of all evidence, and shall otherwise control the reception of evidence so as to confine it to the issues in the proceeding. The number of expert witnesses to be heard on any issue may be limited appropriately or the production of further evidence upon any issue may be called for, as provided in § 1.20.

(c) Documentary—(1) Designation. Where relevant and material matter offered in evidence is embraced in a document containing other matter not material or relevant and not intended to be put in evidence, the participant offering the same shall plainly designate the matter so offered, segregating and excluding insofar as practicable the immaterial or irrelevant parts. If other matter is in such document in such bulk or extent as would necessarily encumber the record, such document will not be received in evidence, but may be marked for identification, and, if properly authenticated, the relevant and material parts thereof may be read into the record, or if the Commission or the presiding officer so directs, a true copy of such matter in proper form shall be received in evidence as an exhibit, and copies shall be delivered by the participant offering the same to the other parties or their attorneys and staff counsel appearing at the hearing, who shall be afforded an opportunity to examine the entire document and to offer in evidence in like manner other material and relevant portions thereof.

(2) Commission's files. In case any matter contained in a report or other document on file with the Commission is offered in evidence, such report or other document need not be produced or marked for identification, but may be offered in evidence by specifying the report, document, or other file containing the matter so offered.

(3) Records in other proceedings. In case any portion of any record, in any other proceeding before the Commission, is shown to be relevant and material to the instant proceeding, a true copy of such portion shall be presented for the record in the form of an exhibit unless:

(i) The participant offering the same agrees to supply, within a period of time specified of record by the Commission or the presiding officer, such copy at his own expense, if and when required by the Commission; and

(ii) The portion is specified with particularity in such manner as to be readily identified; or

(ii) The parties represented and staff counsel at the hearing stipulate upon the record that such portion may be incorporated by reference, and that any portion offered by any other party may be incorporated by like reference, subject to(i) and (ii); and, finally,

(iv) The Commission or the presiding officer directs such incorporation, but not otherwise.

(4) Form and size. Wherever practicable, all exhibits of a documentary character received in evidence shall be on paper of good quality and so prepared as to be plainly legible and durable, whether printed or typewritten. If typewritten, they shall conform to the requirements of § 1.15 whenever practicable.

(5) Copies to parties and commission. Except as otherwise provided in this part, when exhibits of a documentary character are offered in evidence, copies shall be furnished to other parties or counsel, including staff counsel, unless the Commission or the presiding officer otherwise directs. In addition, unless otherwise directed by the Commission or the presiding officer, 10 copies of each exhibit of documentary character shall be furnished for the use of the Commission.

(d) Official notice of facts. Official notice may be taken of such matters as might be judicially noticed by the courts of the United States or of any other matter of tecnical or scientific fact of established character peculiarly within the general knowledge of the Commission as an expert body; Provided, That any party shall, on timely request, be afforded an opportunity to show the contrary.

§ 1.27 Presiding officers—(a) Designation. When evidence is to be taken in a proceeding, either the Commission or, when duly designated for that purpose, one or more of its members or other representative appointed according to law, may preside at the hearing.

(b) Authority delegated. Presiding officers duly designated by the Commission to preside at hearings shall have the authority, within its powers and subject to its published rules, as follows:

(1) To regulate the course of hearings;

(2) To administer oaths and affirmations;

(3) To issue subpenas;

(4) To rule upon offers of proof and receive evidence;

(5) To take or cause depositions to be taken;

(6) To hold appropriate conferences before or during hearings;

(7) To dispose of procedural motions and requests and similar matters;

(8) Within their discretion, or upon the direction of the Commission, to certify any question to the Commission for its consideration and disposition;

(9) To submit their recommended findings, conclusions, and forms of order or rule in accordance with § 1.30.

(10) To take any other action necessary or appropriate to the discharge of the duties vested in them, consistent with the statutory or other authorities under which the Commission functions and with the rules, regulations and policies of the Commission.

(c) Limitations. Presiding officers shall perform no duties inconsistent with their duties and responsibilities as such. Save to the extent required for the disposition of ex parte matters as authorized by law and by the rules of the Commission, no presiding officer shall, in any proceeding in which the Commission may so direct, or in any proceeding for an adjudication required by statute to be determined on the record after opportunity for hearing, other than in determining applications for initial licenses and proceedings involving the validity or application of rates, the facilities or practices of public utilities or natural-gas companies, consult any person or party on any fact in issue unless upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(d) Conduct of hearings. It is the duty of the presiding officer to conduct a fair and impartial hearing and to maintain order. Any disregard by participants or counsel of his rulings on matters of order and procedure shall be noted on the record, and where he deems it necessary, shall be made the subject of a special written report to the Commission. In the event that participants or counsel should be guilty of disrespectful, disorderly or contumacious language or conduct in connection with any hearing, the presiding officer immediately may submit to the Commission his report thereon, together with his recommendations, and in his discretion suspend the hearing.

§ 1.28 Appeals to Commission from rulings of presiding officers during hearings—(a) Limited during hearings—(1) When permitted. Appeals from rulings of presiding officers during the course of hearings shall not be made or permitted except where the ruling may be materially prejudicial to the interests of the participants, or in extraordinary circumstances where the prompt decision of such appeal is necessary to prevent undue delay or expense should the presiding officer's ruling later be reversed by the Commission, or for other similar cause. In all other situations appeals may be taken to the Commission only as authorized in paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) Offer of proof. Any offer of proof made in connection with an objection taken to any ruling of the presiding officer rejecting or excluding proffered evidence, in any of the Commission's hearings, shall, if it concerns excluded oral testimony, consist of a statement by counsel of the substance of the evidence he contends would be adduced by such testimony; and if the excluded evidence consists of an exhibit or of evidence offered by reference, the offer of proof shall consist of a copy of the exhibit or document offered by reference, as the case may be.

(b) Procedure at close of evidence—(1) Notice of appeal. Any party or staff counsel in any proceeding may at the close of the taking of evidence notify the presiding officer that a motion will be filed with the Commission to reverse or modify one or more of the presiding officer's rulings to which timely objection has been made. In such event the hearings for the reception of evidence in the proceeding shall not be deemed to have been concluded until the Commission has disposed of the motion, and until either the reception of further evidence under the direction of the Commission shall be completed, or the Commission shall have directed that no further evidence shall be taken.

(2) Time of appeal. If any party or staff counsel shall elect to make such motion, the same shall be filed within seven days after the transcript of the record is filed. In such motions each objection shall be separately set out, with exact citations to each portion of the record involved and references to the principal authorities relied upon, and such motions shall otherwise conform to the requirements of §§ 1.12, 1.16–1.17. Any objections to rulings of presiding officers during the course of hearings not thus laid before the Commission shall be deemed waived.

(b) Oral argument, when made. When, in the opinion of the presiding officer, time permits and the nature of the proceedings, the complexity or importance of the issues of fact or law involved, and the public interest warrant, such presiding officer may, either of his own motion or at the request of a party or staff counsel at or before the close of the taking of testimony allow and fix a time for the presentation of oral argument, imposing such limits of time on the argument as deemed appropriate in the proceeding. Such argument shall be transcribed and bound with the transcript of testimony.

(c) Contents and scope. In oral arguments there may be presented proposed findings and conclusions aid, if desired, the reasons therefor, and such proposed forms of order or rule as may be deemed requisite in view of the facts, the law, and the public interest. Briefs should contain: (1) A concise statement of the case, (2) an abstract of the evidence relied upon by the party filing, preferably assembled by subjects, with references to the pages of the record or exhibits where the evidence appears, and (3) proposed findings and conclusions and, if desired, a proposed form of order or rule, together with the reasons and authorities therefor, separately stated.

(d) Briefs, form of. Exhibits should not be reproduced in the brief, but may, if desired, be reproduced in an appendix to the brief. Any analyses of exhibits relied on should be included in the part of the brief containing the abstract of evidence under the subjects to which they pertain. Every brief of more than 20 pages shall contain on its front leaves a subject index, with page references, and a list of all cases cited, alphabetically arranged, with references to the pages where the citations appear. All briefs shall be as concise as possible and shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of § 1.15.

(e) Briefs, filing and service. Briefs not filed and served on or before the dates fixed therefor shall not be accepted for filing, except by special permission of the Commission or the presiding officer. All briefs shall be accompanied by a certificate showing service upon all parties or their attorneys who appeared at the hearing or on brief, and 25 copies of each brief shall be furnished for the use of the Commission. Requests for the extension of time in which to file briefs shall conform to the requirements of § 1.13, such requests being filed at least 5 days before the time fixed for filing such briefs.

(b) Recommended or tentative decisions. In proceedings in which, prior to the filing of the presiding officer's report, the Commission, with notice to the parties, directs (in specific cases or by general rule) the certification to it of the record for decision by the Commission, unless otherwise provided, the presiding officer's report shall constitute a recommended decision, except that in rule-making or determining applications for initial licenses, in lieu thereof, (1) the Commission may designate any of its responsible officers to recommend a decision, or (2) the Commission may issue a tentative decision. Such recommended or tentative decision shall be served upon all parties, or their attorneys of record, and staff counsel, who may file exceptions in the manner and within the time provided in § 1.31.

(c) Omission of intermediate decisions. (1) In any proceeding any party thereto or staff counsel, with the written consent of the other parties and staff counsel, may request that, in lieu of an intermediate decision (initial by presiding officer, recommended by presiding officer or designated responsible officer, or tentative by the Commission), the Commission forthwith render the final decision. In such requests for omitting the intermediate decision procedure there shall be specified: (i) Whether opportunity for presenting oral argument or filing briefs before the Commission is desired or waived; (ii) whether opportunity for presenting proposed findings and conclusions, with supporting reasons therefor, is desired or waived; and (iii) whether, in lieu of any opportunity for filing exceptions to the decision of the Commission, the parties reserve only their rights to apply to the Commission for rehearing and to petition the courts for review of the Commission's decision or order as provided in the statute under which the proceeding was initiated and conducted.

(2) Such requests shall be made by motion filed with the Commission at any time during, but no less than five days next following, the conclusion or adjournment sine die of the hearing; shall be in writing under oath, subscribed and verified; and shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of §§ 1.12, 1.15–1.17.

(3) In rule-making or initial licensing proceedings the Commission, with or without motion, may render the decision upon a finding on the record that due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably so required.

(d) Final decisions. All decisions of the Commission shall be final (subject only to application for rehearing provided for by the statute under which the proceeding is initiated and conducted), except tentative decisions that may be issued in rule-making or determining applications for initial licenses as herein provided. Final decisions shall include: (1) Decisions by the Commission in proceedings in which the Commission has presided at the reception of evidence; (2) decisions upon appeal of intermediate decisions to the Commission by the parties or staff counsel, by filing exceptions in the manner and time provided by § 1.31, or upon review initiated by the Commission within 10 days next following the expiration of the time for filing exceptions under the aforesaid section, or such other time as the Commission may fix in specific cases; (3) intermediate initial or tentative decisions, upon the expiration of the time provided for an appeal to or review by the Commission without such appeal or review having been initiated; (4) decisions by the Commission in rule-making, or initial licensing proceedings, in which the Commission omits the intermediate decision procedure upon a finding that due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably so requires; and (5) decisions by the Commission in shortened proceedings as provided in § 1.32.

(e) Rehearing only of final decisions. No application for rehearing, provided for by the statute under which a proceeding is initiated and conducted, will be entertained by the Commission until a decision is issued and becomes final under the provisions of this rule.

(f) No participation by investigative or prosecuting officers. In any proceeding in which the Commission may so direct or in any proceeding for an adjudication required by statute to be determined on the record after opportunity for hearing, other than applications for initial licenses or proceedings involving the validity or application of rates, facilities, or practices of public utilities or natural-gas companies, no officer, employee or agent assigned to work upon the investigation or trial of a case for the Commission or to assist in the trial thereof, shall, in that or any factually related proceeding, participate or advise as to the findings, conclusions or decision, except as a witness or counsel in public proceedings.

(g) Contents. All decisions shall include a statement of (1) findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, and (2) the appropriate rule, order, sanction, relief, or denial thereof. There shall be stated all facts officially noticed pursuant to § 1.26, relied upon in the decision.

(h) Part of record. All decisions (including initial, recommended, or tentative decisions) shall become a part of the record.

(i) Service. All decisions shall be filed with the Secretary who shall serve copies thereof upon all parties or their attorneys of record, including staff counsel, whose appearances have been entered pursuant to § 1.20 (e). Such service shall be by registered mail or by delivery to the parties or their attorneys, as may be appropriate, in accordance with § 1.17.

(j) Unavailability of presiding officer. If a presiding officer becomes unavailable to the Commission, the Commission will either designate another qualified officer to report and recommend the decision or will cause the record to be certified to it for decision, as may be deemed appropriate, giving notice to the parties or their attorneys of record.

(k) Application of section. This section shall apply in all proceedings required by statute to be determined on the record after opportunity for hearing.

§ 1.31 Exceptions to intermediate decisions and briefs and oral arguments before Commission—(a) Exceptions, filing of. Any party or staff counsel desiring to appeal to the Commission may, within 15 days after the service of a copy of an intermediate decision (initial or recommended by subordinates, or tentative by Commission), or such other time as may be fixed by the Commission, file a statement of exceptions thereto. Such statements shall be filed with the Secretary.

(b) Exceptions, nature of. Exceptions to findings and conclusions of fact shall specify the particular statements or parts to which exception is taken; shall designate, by special references, the portions of the record relied upon in support of such exceptions; shall set out specific findings and conclusions proposed in lieu thereof; and shall include any proposed additional findings and conclusions of fact. Exceptions to conclusions of law shall be specific; shall briefly cite the statutory provisions or the principal authorities relied upon; shall set forth conclusions suggested in lieu thereof; and shall include any proposed additional conclusions. Exceptions to the form of order or rule shall specify the portions thereof excepted to, and shall set forth a form of order or rule suggested in lieu of that served. Supporting reasons for the exceptions may, if desired, be included, but shall be separately stated.

(c) Failure to except results in waiver. Failure to file a statement of exceptions within the time allowed under this section shall constitute a waiver of all objections to the intermediate decision served. No matter not included in the statement of exceptions, filed as provided in this section, may thereafter be objected to before the Commission upon brief or oral argument, or in an application for Commission rehearing; and any matter not included in such statement of exceptions shall be deemed waived. Admission or exclusion of evidence not objected to at the reception of evidence will be unavailing to the party.

(d) Briefs and oral argument before Commission—(1) Hearing before Commission. Requests for opportunity to present oral argument or to file briefs, when the Commission presides at the reception of the evidence, may be made at any time during the hearing or at the conclusion of the taking of evidence. Before adjournment sine die, the Commission will announce and fix the time for the filing of briefs, and for oral argument, if allowed.

(e) Briefs and arguments, contents and scope. When the Commission has presided at the reception of the evidence, or when the parties have waived the intermediate decision procedure, briefs and arguments before the Commission may include and present for consideration the matters as provided in § 1.29 relating to briefs and oral arguments before presiding officers, and in all other respects, as applicable, such arguments and briefs shall conform to the requirements of the aforesaid section. In all other proceedings, briefs and oral arguments before the Commission may include those matters that may properly be included and presented in statements of exceptions to intermediate decisions, subject to the same conditions contained in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Exceptions and briefs, form and service. Statements of exceptions and briefs shall conform to the requirements as applicable of §§ 1.15 and 1.17 as to copies, form and service, 15 copies thereof being filed with the Commission, in addition to the copies served on the parties to the proceeding.

§ 1.32 Shortened procedures—(a) Where hearing waived. In any proceeding in which the Commission is authorized to act after opportunity for hearing, if the parties waive hearing, such opportunity shall be deemed to have been afforded by service or publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of notice of the application or other initial pleading, request, or other filing, such notice fixing a reasonable period of time within which any person desiring to be heard may file a protest or petition. Upon the expiration of such period of time, in the absence of a request for hearing, the Commission may forthwith dispose of the matter upon the basis of the pleadings and other submittals and the studies and recommendations of the staff. A party not requesting oral hearing in its pleadings shall be deemed to have waived a hearing for the purpose of such disposition, but shall not be bound by such waiver for the purposes of any application for rehearing with respect to an order so entered.

(b) Noncontested hearings. In any proceeding required by statute to be set for hearing, the Commission, when it appears to be in the public interest and to the interest of the parties to grant the relief or authority requested in the initial pleading, and to omit the intermediate decision procedure, may after a noncontested hearing forthwith dispose of the proceeding upon consideration of the pleadings and other evidence filed and incorporated in the record: Provided: (1) The applicant or initial pleader requests that the intermediate decision procedure be omitted and waives oral hearing and opportunity for filing exceptions to the decision of the Commission; and (2) no request to be heard or protest or petition raising an issue of substance is filed subsequent to publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the notice of the filing of an initial pleading and order fixing date of hearing, which notice and order shall state that the Commission considers the proceeding a proper one for disposition under the provisions of this section, and shall otherwise conform with the requirements of § 1.19. Requests for the procedure provided by this section may be contained in the initial pleading or subsequent request in writing to the Commission. The decision of the Commission or presiding officer in such proceeding, after noncontested hearing, will be final, subject to rehearing on application as provided by the provisions of the statute requiring the hearing.

§ 1.33 Reopening proceedings—(a) Method of reopening—(1) By parties. At any time after the conclusion of a hearing in a proceeding or adjournment thereof sine die, but before entering and issuance by the Commission of a final order or rule, any party to the proceeding or staff counsel may file with the Commission a petition to reopen the proceeding for the purpose of taking additional evidence. Such petition shall set forth clearly the facts claimed to constitute grounds requiring reopening of the proceeding, including material changes of fact or of law alleged to have occurred since the conclusion of the hearing, and shall in all other respects conform as applicable to the requirements of §§ 1.7, 1.15–1.17.

(2) By the Commission on its own initiative. If, after the hearing in a proceeding, the Commission shall have reason to believe that conditions of fact or of law have so changed as to require, or that the public interest requires, the reopening of such proceeding, the Commission will issue an order for the reopening of the same.

(b) Petitions to reopen—(1) Notice. Upon the filing by any party or staff counsel of such petition for the reopening of a proceeding, appropriate notice will be given any participants, or their attorneys of record who may not have been served with a copy of the petition.

(2) Responses. Within 10 days following the service of such petition or notice thereof, any other party to the proceeding or staff counsel may file with the Commission his answer thereto, and in default thereof shall be deemed to have waived any objection to the granting of such petition.

(3) Commission action. As soon as practicable after the filing of responses to such petitions or default thereof, as the case may be, the Commission will grant or deny such petition.

§ 1.34 Application for rehearing—(a) Form, filing and service. An application for rehearing of a proceeding may be filed within 30 days after the issuance of any final decision or order by the Commission. Such application shall be made by petition, under oath, stating specifically the grounds relied upon, shall be filed with the Commission and served by the petitioner upon all parties to the proceeding or their attorneys of record, and shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of §§ 1.7, 1.15–1.17.

(b) Specification of errors. Such petitions for rehearing shall state concisely the alleged errors in the Commission decision or order. If an order of the Commission is sought to be vacated, reversed, or modified by reason of matters that have arisen since the hearing and decision or order, or by reason of a consequence that would result from compliance therewith, the matters relied upon by the petitioner shall be set forth in the petition.

§ 1.35 Reports of compliance. When any licensee, permittee, or any other person subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission is required to do or perform any act by Commission order, permit, or license provision, there shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days following the date when such requirement became effective, a notice, under oath, stating that such requirement has been met or complied with; Provided, however, That the Commission, by rule or order, or by making specific provision therefor in a license or permit, may provide otherwise for the giving of such notice of compliance. Such reports shall conform in all other respects to the requirements of §§ 1.15 and 1.16.

§ 1.36 Public information—(a) Access to opinions, orders and rules—(1) Current notice. The Commission shall cause current notice to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the adoption of all final opinions or orders of the Commission in adjudicative proceedings, except those required for good cause to be held confidential and not cited as precedents, and all rules except those addressed to and served upon named persons and those published in full in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with law. Where the Commission may desire to rely upon citation of any such confidential material as a precedent, it shall make available an appropriate abstract thereof, showing the principles relied upon.

(2) Copies. Copies of all final opinions and orders, except those required for good cause to be held confidential and not cited as precedents, and all rules, shall be available for public inspection in the Office of the Secretary and, as practicable, in the Regional Offices during regular office hours. Copies thereof shall be furnished to any person upon request to the Secretary and payment of the charge therefor, if required.

(b) Official reports and publications. The final opinions, and orders and rules in the nature of opinions, shall be published in the official reports of the Commission issued from time to time and, as printed and available, will be furnished to any person upon request to the Secretary and payment of the charge therefor. Other reports that may be made and published by the Commission shall be likewise available on request and payment of the prescribed charges. Such reports as published by the Commission, and its rules as contained in 18 CFR and Supps., Chapter I, may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., upon payment of the prescribed charges.

(c) Public records. Save as otherwise required by law, all matters of official record, other than information held confidential for good cause found, shall be available at the principal office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., to persons properly and directly concerned, upon application to the Office of the Secretary during regular office hours. Such official records shall include all matters filed with or submitted to the Commission under the provisions of any order, rule, or regulation of the Commission or any applicable statute, as well as matters embodying Commission action. In public proceedings before the Commission the docket records relating to such proceedings and the pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits and all documents received in evidence or made a part of the record therein shall be likewise available for inspection and copying by the public, insofar as consistent with the proper discharge of the Commission's duties.

(d) Other records. The records and files of the Commission, and all documents, memoranda, correspondence, exhibits and information of whatever nature, other than the matters described in paragraph (c) of this section, coming into the possession or within the knowledge of the Commission or any of its officers or employees in the discharge of their official duties, are confidential, and none of such material or information may be disclosed, divulged, or produced for inspection or copying except that, upon good cause shown, the Commission may by order direct that certain records, files, papers, or information be disclosed to a particular applicant.

(e) Procedure in event of subpena. In cases in which an officer or employee of the Commission has been lawfully served with a subpena duces tecum, material designated herein as confidential shall be produced only as authorized by the Commission. Service of such a subpena shall immediately be reported to the Commission with a statement of all relevant facts. The Commission will thereupon enter such order or give such instructions as it shall deem advisable.

§ 1.37 Cooperative procedure with State commissions—(a) Policy. (1) The Federal Power and Natural Gas Acts, sections 209 and 17, respectively, authorize cooperation between the Federal Power Commission and the State commissions of the several States in the administration of said acts, which include authorization for:

(i) Reference of any matter arising in the administration of these acts to a board to be composed of a member or members from a State or States affected, or to be affected, by the particular matters pending before the Federal Power Commission;

(ii) Conferences with State commissions regarding the relationship between rate structures, costs, accounts, charges, practices, classifications, and regulations of public utilities or natural gas companies subject to the jurisdiction of such State commissions and of the Federal Power Commission; and

(iii) Joint hearings with State commissions in connection with any matter with respect to which the Federal Power Commission is authorized to act.

(2) The matters that should be the subject of a conference, referred to a board, or heard at a joint hearing of State commissions and the Federal Power Commission, obviously, cannot be determined in advance. It is understood, therefore, that the Federal Power Commission or any State commission will freely suggest cooperation with respect to any proceeding or matter affecting any public utility or natural gas company subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission and of a State commission, and concerning which it is believed that cooperation will be in the public interest.

(b) Notice—(1) By Federal Power Commission. (i) Whenever there shall be instituted before the Federal Power Commission any proceeding under either the Federal Power Act or the Natural Gas Act, the State commission or commissions of the State or States affected thereby will be given notice thereof immediately by the Federal Power Commission. As deemed necessary for an understanding of the subject matter, each such notice will be supplemented by copies of applications, complaints, petitions, or orders instituting proceedings. Each such notice given to a State commission will request that the Federal Power Commission be notified within a reasonable time whether the proceeding is deemed one that should be considered under the cooperative provisions of this section, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter, and further, to specify whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, as defined herein, and the reasons for such request.

(ii) Any commission suggesting some form of such cooperative procedure should also state whether there is pending, or will be pending before it, a proceeding in which a concurrent hearing might appropriately be held and whether its proposal is for such hearing covering any such proceeding and the proceeding pending before the Federal Power Commission.

(iii) Any State commission recommending to the Federal Power Commission reference of a proceeding to a board, under either the Federal Power or the Natural Gas Act, should state with fullness the reasons which led it to believe that such reference is desirable and in the public interest.

(iv) Upon the receipt from a State commission of a communication suggesting cooperation, the Federal Power Commission will consider the same, and may confer with the commission making the request and with other interested commissions, if any, in such manner as may be most suitable, and, if cooperation in the manner proposed, or in any other manner, shall appear to be practicable and desirable, will so advise each interested State commission, and will invite it to participate therein.

(2) By State commission. (i) Each State commission should, in like manner, notify the Federal Power Commission of any proceeding instituted before it, the subject matter of which is also subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission, or in which it believes the Federal Power Commission is interested. Such notice should be supplemented by copies of applications, petitions, complaints, or orders instituting proceedings which may be necessary to an understanding of the subject matter. Such notice should include such suggestions as the State commissions may wish to make concerning cooperative procedure.

(ii) Upon receipt of such notice, the Federal Power Commission will consider the same and will promptly notify the State commission whether or not in its opinion cooperation in the manner proposed, or in any other manner, appears to be practicable and desirable. The Federal Power Commission shall be free to propose cooperative procedure, if deemed appropriate, whether or not such proposal of cooperation has been made by the State commission first giving notice of the proceeding.

(3) Federal Power Commission or State commissions to invite participation in cooperative procedure. In the event that cooperation in a particular proceeding has been determined upon, the Federal Power Commission or a State commission before which the proceeding is pending will so advise each interested State commission and will invite it to take part therein.

(c) Conferences. Inasmuch as experience has proved that informal conferences are the means most often used to enable commissions to work together to promote good regulation, affording means whereby common understandings may be reached, and the imposition of inconsistent or conflicting regulations upon companies subject to both Federal and State control may be avoided, and means whereby State commissions may secure the assistance in State regulatory work which sections 209 and 17, respectively, of the Federal Power and Natural Gas Acts authorize the Federal Power Commission to extend, any commission, Federal or State, should always feel free to suggest a conference to another commission, concerning any matter of regulation subject to the jurisdiction of either, with respect to which it is believed that a cooperative conference may be in the public interest. The commission desiring a conference upon any such matter should notify other interested commissions without delay, and thereupon the Federal Power Commission or a State commission, as may be agreed, will promptly arrange for a conference in which all interested commissions will be invited to be represented.

(d) Procedure governing matters referred to a board. It is believed that the statutory provisions of sections 209 and 17, respectively, of the Federal Power and Natural Gas Acts, for the reference of a proceeding to a board constituted as therein provided, were designed for use in unusual cases, and as a means of relief to the Federal Power Commission when it might find itself unable to hear and determine cases before it, in the usual course, without undue delay.

Whenever the Federal Power Commission, either upon its own motion or upon the suggestion of a State commission or at the request of any interested party, shall determine that it is desirable to refer a matter arising in the administration either of the Natural Gas Act or Part II of the Federal Power Act, to a board to be composed of a member or members from the States or States affected or to be affected by such matter, the procedure will be as follows:

The Federal Power Commission will send a request to each interested State commission to nominate a specified number of members to serve on such board. Whenever more than one State is involved, the representation of each State concerned shall be equal, unless one or more of the States affected chooses to waive such right of equal representation. The Federal Power Commission will specify the functions to be performed by such board in each instance. When the member or members of any board have been nominated and appointed in accordance with the provisions of either section 209 of the Federal Power Act or section 17 of the Natural Gas Act, the Federal Power Commission will make an order referring the particular matter to such board, and such order shall fix the time and place of hearing, define the "force and effect" the action of the board shall have, the manner in which the proceedings shall be conducted, and specify the allowances to be made for the expense of the members of the board. As far as applicable, the rules of practice and procedure as from time to time adopted or prescribed by the Federal Power Commission shall govern such board. The board shall have authority to adjourn the hearing from day to day, subpena witnesses, rule on the relevancy, competency, and materiality of evidence, and shall, after hearing all interested parties, submit its report to the Federal Power Commission.

(e) Joint and concurrent hearings. (1) The term "joint hearing" used in sections 209 and 17, respectively, of the Federal Power and Natural Gas Acts is understood to cover any hearing in which members of the Federal Power Commission and members of one or more State commissions may sit together in a proceeding pending before one such commission, whether or not a proceeding or proceedings involving similar or corresponding issues be pending before any other commission.

(2) Two different types of proceedings have been called "joint hearings". One is that type of proceeding where members of one or more State commissions sit with members of the Federal Power Commission for information or in an advisory capacity. The State commissioners in such case do not develop a record for their respective commissions and may or may not, at their own discretion, make a recommendation to the Federal Power Commission. The other type of joint hearing is often referred to as a "concurrent hearing". Under this procedure the Federal Power Commission and one or more State commissions sit together to hear and jointly make a record upon a matter over which all of the participating commissions have jurisdiction and responsibility for action.

(3) The Federal Power Commission or any State commission or commissions should feel free to suggest or request a joint or concurrent hearing at any time. It is believed, however, that the concurrent hearing is the type of cooperative hearing which is likely to be most useful and effective.

(4) Whenever a concurrent hearing has been agreed upon by the Federal Power Commission and one or more State commissions, the procedure will be as follows:

(i) Each commission will designate the representative or representatives of such commission to sit at such concurrent hearing, and will designate the representative who will be the presiding officer for such commission.

(ii) It will be understood that participation in such concurrent hearing shall in no way affect the complete control by each commission of the proceeding before it. It will be understood, also, that participation in either a joint or concurrent hearing shall in no way preclude any commission from causing to be presented in any such case pertinent evidence with respect to matters in issue.

(iii) The representative designated by the Federal Power Commission will be the presiding officer to announce rulings with respect to which there is no disagreement; and all such rulings shall be considered concurrent rulings. However, the presiding officer for any commission which does not concur in any ruling may announce a divergent ruling and such divergent ruling, whether with respect to the admissibility of evidence or any other matter, shall be considered the ruling for his commission.

(iv) The record of the concurrent hearing shall be the record of each commission participating, except that, if divergent rulings are made, the rulings shall be so reported as to separate and distinguish clearly the record of the respective participating commissions and the evidence admitted in each record, in accordance with the rulings of the respective presiding officers of such participating commissions. If, in any proceeding, the ruling of one presiding officer has the effect of admitting any voluminous exhibit or testimony which is excluded by the ruling of another presiding officer, the taking of such evidence will, whenever possible be deferred until after the completion of all proceedings which can be conducted under concurrent rulings. When such testimony is taken, the transcript of such evidence will be made available to all the participating commissions, if desired.

(v) In all respects concerning which there shall be no divergence of ruling, the hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Practice and Procedure prescribed by the Federal Power Commission, subject to the express understanding that each participating State commission shall control its own record and make its own rulings as to the admissibility of evidence and as to other matters affecting its proceedings, and shall make its own separate final decision or order therein.

(5) Before either the Federal Power Commission or a participating State commission shall enter any order or orders in a concurrent proceeding, opportunity shall be afforded for conference between the Federal Power Commission and the State commission or commissions participating.

(6) Whenever a joint hearing other than a concurrent hearing shall be agreed upon, the commissions which will take part therein shall agree upon the procedure to be followed in such hearing in advance of the opening of the same. With respect to any concurrent hearing, a special agreement may be made by the commissions taking part therein for a procedure or action differing from that outlined in this plan.

(7) Cooperation between two or more commissions in a concurrent hearing shall preclude either from taking the position of an advocate or a litigant. If a commission wishes to take such a position, it will not be appropriate for that commission to be a cooperating participant in that proceeding. In such situation the appropriate method of procedure will be intervention under § 1.8.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[12 CFR, Ch. II]

PART 261—RULES OF ORGANIZATION

Sec.
261.1 Basis and purpose.
261.2 Composition and location.
261.3 Central organization.
261.4 Field organization.
261.5 Delegations of final authority.
261.6 Published information.
261.7 Obtaining information, making submittals or requests.
261.8 Unpublished information.
261.9 Subpoena of officers.

§ 261.1 Basis and purpose. These rules are issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (hereinafter sometimes called the Board) pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and other relevant provisions of law, including the Federal Reserve Act. As specified in section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act, these rules describe the Board's "central and field organization including delegations [illegible] of final authority and the established places at which, and methods whereby, the public may secure information or make submittals or requests"; they include appropriate provisions regarding the information specified in sections 3 (b) and 3 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act. The rules relate to the consumer credit functions of the Board exercised pursuant to the President's Executive Order No. 8843, dated August 9, 1941, as well as to the other functions of the Board.

§ 261.2 Composition and location.—(a) Governors, Chairman, Vice Chairman. The law provides for a Board of Governors composed of seven members appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for fourteen-year terms. Of these, one is designated by the President as Chairman and one as Vice Chairman to serve as such for terms of four years. At meetings the Chairman presides or, in his absence, the Vice Chairman presides. In the absence of the Chairman and Vice Chairman, the Board elects a member to act as Chairman Pro Tempore. The Chairman of the Board, subject to its supervision, is its active executive officer.

(b) Location. The principal offices of the Board are in the Federal Reserve Building, Twentieth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C. Information as to business hours, which may be changed from time to time, will be furnished upon request.

§ 261.3 Central organization. The Board's central organization, in addition to the members of the Board, consists of personnel organized as follows:

(a) Secretary's Office. The Secretary's Office is headed by the Board's Secretary, who acts as Chief Administrative Officer of the Board in its relations with the divisions of its staff and with the Federal Reserve Banks. It clears and conducts official correspondence of the Board and is charged with responsibility for the official records of the Board.

(b) Legal Division. The Legal Division is headed by the Board's General Counsel. It advises and assists the Board with respect to legal matters, including, among other things, litigation, and preparation of, or assistance on, regulations, orders, opinions and other documents or correspondence of legal or semi-legal character.

(c) Division of Research and Statistics. The Division of Research and Statistics is headed by a Director. It advises and assists the Board with respect to general economic and statistical matters, and collects, prepares and interprets statistics, charts and other economic information appropriate for that purpose.

(d) Division of Examinations. The Division of Examinations is headed by a Director. It reviews and coordinates the bank examination functions of the Federal Reserve Banks (which examine the State member banks and their holding company and other affiliates), reviews reports of such examinations, examines the Federal Reserve Banks, and advises and assists the Board with respect to bank supervisory activities of the Federal Reserve System, and with respect to various applications such as for membership in the System, for trust powers, for establishment of branches, and for voting permits of holding company affiliates.

(e) Division of Bank Operations. The Division of Bank Operations is headed by a Director. It advises and assists the Board with respect to matters concerning the condition, operation, and reports of the Federal Reserve Banks, arranges for the printing and shipment of Federal Reserve notes to supply the Federal Reserve Banks, and collects and prepares various data regarding condition, earnings, expenses, and other statistics of Reserve Banks, member banks, and other banks.

(f) Division of Security Loans. The Division of Security Loans is headed by a Director. It advises and assists the Board with respect to questions of credit policy in selected fields, and deals with administrative matters arising under Parts 220 and 221 of this chapter, relating to security-market credit, and Part 222, relating to consumer credit.

(g) Division of Personnel Administration. The Division of Personnel Administration is headed by a Director. It serves as central personnel unit of the Board, and advises and assists the Board with respect to personnel matters of the Federal Reserve Banks coming before the Board.

(h) Division of Administrative Services. The Division of Administrative Services is headed by a Director. It serves as the central budgetary, procurement, duplicating, communications and service unit of the Board and advises and assists the Board with respect to such matters. It also performs various administrative functions including the distribution of Board publications and the operation of the Board's building and other facilities.

(i) Other personnel. In addition to the divisions mentioned above, the staff of the Board includes Advisers to the Board and Assistants to its Chairman; these are listed in the Federal Reserve Bulletin. The Federal Reserve Bulletin is issued monthly under the direction of the Staff Editorial Committee, which is listed in the Bulletin and which is responsible for interpretations and opinions expressed therein, except in official statements and signed articles. The Board has occasion to hold so few formal hearings that it does not employ a trial examiner as a regular member of its staff. In accordance with applicable provisions of law and in individual cases as the need may arise, the Board will obtain and utilize competent trial examiners, whose functions in such capacity will be appropriately separated from investigative and prosecuting functions of the staff as required by law.

§ 261.4 Field organization. The United States is divided into 12 Federal Reserve Districts. In one city of each Federal Reserve District there is a Federal Reserve Bank, and in 10 of the districts there are one or more branches of the Federal Reserve Bank in other cities. Each Federal Reserve Bank is a separate legal entity created pursuant to the Federal Reserve Act. The locations of the 12 Federal Reserve Banks and 24 branches and the boundaries of the Federal Reserve District and branch territories are shown in Appendix A. Each Federal Reserve Bank, in addition to its other important duties, carries out many local functions for the Board pursuant to instructions of the Board, and in many matters acts as the Board's field representative in the bank's district. It administers the Board's policies locally under instructions of the Board, keeps the Board informed of local conditions, and recommends such action as it thinks appropriate for general policies or in particular cases.

It is desirable and convenient for persons concerned with Federal Reserve matters to deal with the Federal Reserve Bank of the appropriate district, or a branch thereof, in the first instance, and the Board requests all persons to follow this procedure.

At each Federal Reserve Bank, one of the three directors of the bank appointed by the Board is designated by the Board as Chairman of the board of directors of the bank and as Federal Reserve Agent. He acts as the Board's official representative and maintains a local office of the Board on the premises of the Federal Reserve Bank.

§ 261.5 Delegations of final authority. The Board does not delegate its authority on any question of general policy, and its functions are such that there are no delegations of final authority in the usual sense of that term. Subject to the Board's control, there are, however, provisions for the Federal Reserve Banks to relax certain requirements promptly in the field in individual instances in order to avoid undue rigidity. This is the case with respect to some special conditions of membership (such as those regarding reduction of capital stock, investment in bank quarters, and disposal of stocks by member banks), minor penalties for deficiences in member bank reserves, and the determination of facts in connection with disaster credits and "cycle billing" under Part 222 of this chapter. Provision is also made for appropriate committees of national securities exchanges or associations to grant extensions of time or approve certain other transactions under Part 220 of this chapter.

§ 261.6 Published information—(a) Annual report. The Board's Annual Report to Congress, made pursuant to section 10 of the Federal Reserve Act gives a report of the Board's operations during the year, and frequently includes recommendations to Congress and an economic review of the year. Under the law it must include a complete record of actions taken by the Board or by the Federal Open Market Committee with respect to policies determined by the Board or Committee and must show the votes taken and the reasons underlying the actions.

(b) Federal Reserve Bulletin, other published information. (1) In the Federal Reserve Bulletin, which has been published monthly since 1915, the Board publishes much other information available to it. In addition to various kinds of economic and statistical information, the following are published in the Bulletin:

(i) All regulations of the Board of general interest to the public (including rules of organization and procedure, as specified in the Administrative Procedure Act), and amendments thereto; and

(ii) Statements of general policy, or interpretations, for the guidance of the public.

(2) Some material that appears in the Bulletin is released in advance during the month so that it will be more nearly current, examples being certain regulations and rulings, the monthly summary of business conditions, the Board's index of industrial production, and certain other statistical series.

(3) Among such information published in the Bulletin and also released in advance is the weekly statement, published pursuant to section 11 (a) of the Federal Reserve Act, showing the condition of each Federal Reserve Bank and a consolidated statement of all Federal Reserve Banks. These weekly statements show in detail the assets and liabilities of the Federal Reserve Banks, single and combined, and furnish full information regarding the reserves and the amount, nature and maturities of the paper and other investments owned or held by the Federal Reserve Banks.

(4) From time to time, the Board issues various other publications, of which the more important are listed in the Federal Reserve Bulletin.

(c) Federal Register. All the information specified in § 261.6 (b) (1) and such of the information specified in § 261.6 (b) (2) as is appropriate, is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 261.7 Obtaining information, making submittals or requests—(a) Obtaining published information. Anyone may subscribe to the Federal Reserve Bulletin at the standard rate, which is published in the Bulletin. A copy of each issue of the Bulletin is sent to each member bank. Current or back issues of the Bulletin, Annual Report, rules, regulations, or other published information may be examined at the offices of the Board or any Federal Reserve Bank, and copies, if in stock, will be supplied by the Board at small cost or no cost.

(b) Government agencies, etc. The Board, directly or through such persons as it may designate, (1) makes available to each State member bank a copy of the report of the regular examination of the bank and, when the Board deems it in the public interest, may furnish such bank other information pertaining to its affairs; and (2) may make available to the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, certain other agencies of the United States, and any authority having general supervision of a State bank, copies of reports of examination and other information, for use where necessary in the performance of their official duties: Provided, That all reports or other information furnished under subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this section shall remain the property of the Board and under no circumstances shall any person or authority to whom the information is made available, nor any officer, director, or employee thereof, disclose or otherwise make public any such information except in official publications of general statistical reports which are not in such detail as to disclose the affairs of any person.

(c) Other applications, requests or submittals. (1) Other applications, requests and submittals, including requests for access to unpublished information of the Board, should be sent to the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank, which will forward them to the Board when necessary. It is preferable and more convenient for all concerned to send applications, requests or submittals to the Reserve Bank in the first instance, and the Board requests all persons to follow this procedure.

(2) When applicable, the forms specified in § 262.5 (b) of this chapter shall be used. In the case of all other applications or requests, including requests for access to unpublished information, the application, in addition to being signed by the person making it or his duly authorized agent, shall, in so far as practicable, clearly, completely and concisely state the full name and address of the applicant, the facts involved (including the purposes for which any unpublished information requested will be used if made available), the action requested, the applicant's interest in the matter, and the reasons why the request should be granted. Copies of any form prescribed in § 262.5 (b) of this chapter, and further details regarding those forms or the matter to be included in any application, request or submittal, may be obtained from the Federal Reserve Banks.

§ 261.8 Unpublished information—(a) General rule regarding unpublished information. Except as authorized by the Board, no person, whether or not an officer or employee of the Board or of a Federal Reserve Bank, shall disclose or permit the disclosure of any unpublished information of the Board to anyone (other than an officer or employee of the Board or of a Federal Reserve Bank properly entitled to such information for the performance of his official duties), whether by giving out or furnishing such information or copy thereof or allowing any person to inspect, examine or copy such information or copy thereof or otherwise. For the purpose of these rules, "unpublished information of the Board" includes all information or advice (including any examination report, or related information, in connection with examinations made by examiners selected or approved by the Board), which is not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, Federal Reserve Bulletin, or elsewhere, and which comes to the Board or to any officer, employee, or agent thereof (including any Federal Reserve Bank, or officer, agent, or employee thereof) in the performance of duties for or on behalf of the Board, whether contained in files, memoranda, documents, reports, books, accounts, records, or papers, or acquired by any such officer, employee, or agent in the performance of such duties, and whether located in the Board's files, at a Reserve Bank, or elsewhere.

(b) Disclosure of certain grants of permission or authority. The approval by the Board of an application of a State bank for membership in the Federal Reserve System, the granting of permission to establish a branch or to exercise trust powers, and other similar grants of permission or authority by the Board may not in all cases be of sufficient general interest to justify publication, but the fact that the Board has granted such approval, permission or authority in such cases will at the appropriate time be disclosed to any person upon request made in accordance with § 261.7 (c), to the extent that such disclosure would not conflict with the principles stated in § 261.8 (d).

(c) Certain unpublished information not disclosed. For the reasons and good cause found as set forth in § 261.8 (d), and except as provided in §§ 261.7 (b) or 261.8 (b), the Board will not make available or otherwise disclose in response to requests any unpublished information of the Board, whether or not a matter of official record within the meaning of the Administrative Procedure Act, if such information relates to any of the following:

(1) Examinations, investigations, inspections, or reports of any particular bank or affiliate thereof, broker, finance company, or other person engaged, or proposing to engage, in the business of extending any kind of credit or in the business of a holding company affiliate; or information concerning the business, personal or financial affairs of any such person or of anyone employed by or doing business with any such person.

(2) Proceedings in connection with the consideration of (i) the removal of a director or officer of a member bank pursuant to section 30 of the Banking Act of 1933, (ii) the granting of approval or permission for a bank to establish a branch or exercise trust powers, (iii) the granting or termination of membership in the Federal Reserve System, (iv) the granting or revocation of a voting permit to a holding company affiliate, (v) the suspension from the use of the credit facilities of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act, or (vi) the granting or termination of permission or authority in other cases in which public hearing is not required by statute or Board regulations.

(3) The determination of policies concerning discount rates, reserve requirements, open-market operations, interest rates, margin requirements, consumer credit controls, or other matters of monetary, fiscal or credit policy.

(4) Relations between the Board and any Federal Reserve Bank, activities of any Reserve Bank for any agency of the United States or for any international organization, and internal operations of the Board or any Reserve Bank, including, among other things, any matters of administration.

(5) Relations with, or activities that affect relations with, any foreign bank, banker or country.

(6) Any other matter as to which the Board, in a particular case, determines that, in the public interest and for the reasons stated in section 8 (d), the information should not be disclosed.

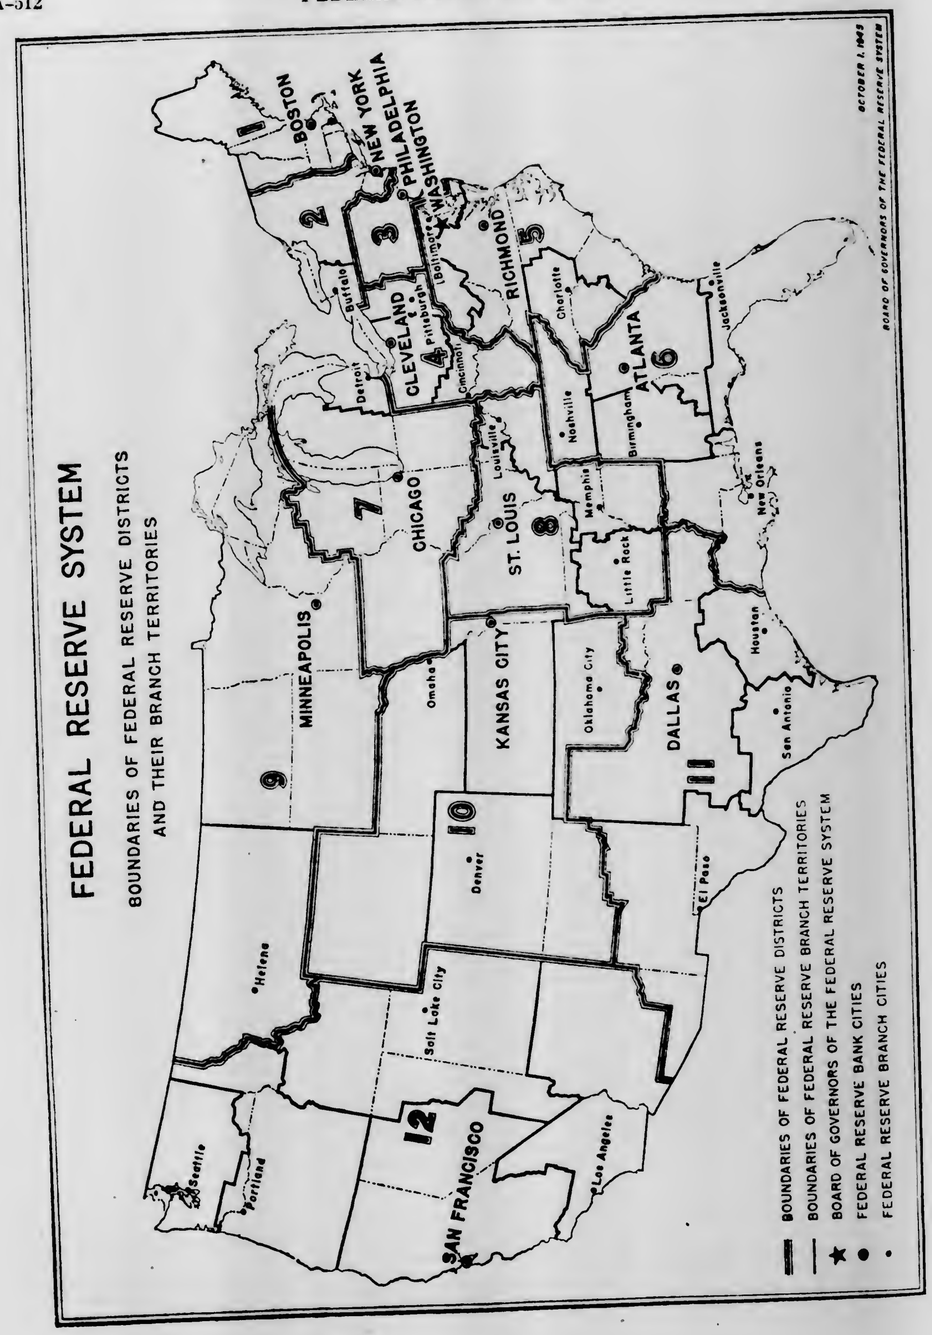
(d) Reasons for non-disclosure. The public interest requires that certain unpublished information, as mentioned above, be not disclosed. For the following good cause found, such non-disclosure is a manifest need in order that the Board may achieve the due execution of its authorized functions:

(1) The Board's investigating, examining and information-gathering functions, and the appropriate safeguarding of information regarding such functions, are essential to the proper enforcement of the legislation it administers.

(2) In connection with its activities described in § 261.8 (d) (1), its proceedings as more fully specified in § 261.8 (c) (2), and its other activities in the field of monetary, fiscal and credit policy, the Board necessarily has much information that is secret or confidential or that relates solely to the internal management of the Board or of other Government agencies. This includes advice and other information received by the Board from its staff, other Government agencies, the Reserve Banks, and others. It also includes information concerning the business, personal, and financial affairs of individual banks and their holding company and other affiliates, brokers, finance companies, and other extenders of credit, and also concerning such affairs of persons employed by or doing business with them. Improper disclosure of such information would:

(i) Permit speculators and others to interfere with the Board's actions taken with a view to accommodating commerce and business and with regard to their bearing upon the general credit situation of the country;

(ii) Permit speculators and others to reap unfair profits and other unfair advantages by speculative trading in securities and otherwise;



(iii) Unreasonably and unnecessarily disturb and interfere with individual privacy and confidential business relations;

(iv) Interfere with the orderly execution and accomplishment of the objectives of policies adopted by other Government agencies concerned with economic and fiscal matters;

(v) Impede the Board's necessary collection of information and advice, much of which cannot be obtained except on a confidential and voluntary basis; and

(vi) Cause misinterpretations and misunderstandings as to the Board's policies and purposes, and as to the status of particular financial institutions, with resulting disturbance of securities markets and impairment of public confidence in individual institutions or in the Nation's financial structure.

(3) Relations of the Board, of the Federal Reserve Banks, or of other banks, with foreign banks, bankers or countries involve matters of foreign affairs. Other activities of the Board and of the Reserve Banks influence the flow of gold and of dollar balances to or from foreign countries, with vital effects upon such countries and the United States. Improper disclosures regarding such matters would interfere with the orderly conduct of the foreign affairs of the United States.

(4) Unpublished information regarding personnel or other matters of the Board's internal administration could be of no proper benefit to other persons; and its improper disclosure would needlessly interfere with the privacy of the Board's personnel, with their performance of duties for the Board, and with the Board's necessary functions.

(5) The Federal Reserve Banks stand in a peculiarly close relationship to the Board. In addition to their other important functions, they act in many matters as the Board's field representatives, and give the Board much valuable advice and assistance on both local and national problems. The Reserve Banks also perform certain functions for various agencies of the United States and certain international organizations. Improper disclosure of information regarding the Board's supervision and regulation of the Reserve Banks, its relations with them, or their activities for agencies of the United States or for international organizations, would damage the public interest in the manner described in § 261.8 (d) (1), (2), (3), and (4).

§ 261.9 Subpoena of officers—(a) Advice by person served. If any person, whether or not an officer or employee of the Board or of a Federal Reserve Bank, has unpublished information of the Board and in connection therewith is served with a subpoena, order, or other process requiring his personal attendance as a witness or the production of documents or information upon any proceeding, he shall promptly advise the Board of such service and of all relevant facts, including the documents and information requested and any facts which may be of assistance to the Board in determining whether such documents or information should be made available; and he shall take action at the appropriate time to advise the court or tribunal which issued the process, and the attorney for the party at whose instance the process was issued, if known, of the substance of these rules.

(b) Appearance by person served. Except as the Board has authorized disclosure of the relevant information, or except as provided in section 22 (b) of the Federal Reserve Act, any such person who has unpublished information of the Board and is required to respond to a subpoena or other legal process shall attend at the time and place therein mentioned and respectfully decline to produce any documents or disclose any information or give any testimony with respect thereto, basing his refusal upon these rules. If, notwithstanding, the court or other body orders the production of any documents, disclosure of any information, or giving of any testimony, the person having such unpublished information of the Board shall promptly report the facts to the Board.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Secretary.

PART 262—RULES OF PROCEDURE

Sec.
262.1 Basis and purpose.
262.2 Procedure for regulations.
262.3 Adjudications with formal hearing.
262.4 Action on applications or requests, and similar matters.
262.5 Appearances, forms.

§ 262.1 Basis and purpose. These rules are issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (hereinafter sometimes called the Board) pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and other relevant provisions of law, including the Federal Reserve Act. As specified in section 3 (a) (2) of the Administrative Procedure Act, these rules state "the general course and method by which" the Board's "functions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of all formal or informal procedures available as well as forms and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, or examinations." The rules relate to the consumer credit functions of the Board exercised pursuant to the President's Executive Order No. 8843, dated August 9, 1941, as well as to the other functions of the Board.

§ 262.2 Procedure for regulations—(a) Notice. General notice of proposed making of regulations (including amendments thereto) will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except as specified in § 262.2 (e) or otherwise excepted by law. The notice will include either the terms or substance of the proposed regulation or a description of the subjects and issues involved; but the giving of such notice does not indicate Board approval of any feature of any proposal. The notice will also include a reference to the authority for the proposed regulation and a statement of the time, place and nature of public participation.

(b) Public participation. The usual method of public submission of data, views or arguments shall be in writing. Although submittals or requests may be sent directly to the Board, it is preferable that they be sent to the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank, which will forward them to the Board. The locations of the 12 Federal Reserve Banks and the boundaries of the Federal Reserve districts are shown in Appendix A of the Board's Rules of Organization. (Part 261 of this chapter.)

(c) Preparation of draft and action by Board. In the light of consideration of all relevant matter presented or ascertained, the Legal Division, in collaboration with other appropriate divisions of the Board's staff, will prepare drafts of proposed regulations or amendments, and the staff will submit them to the Board with recommendations. The Board in due course will take such action as it deems warranted in the circumstances and appropriate in the public interest. Any other documents that may be necessary to carry out any decision by the Board in the matter will be prepared by the Legal Division, in collaboration with the other appropriate divisions of the staff.

(d) Effective dates. Any regulation (including any amendment) issued by the Board will be published or served not less than thirty days prior to the effective date thereof, except as specified in § 262.2 (e) or otherwise excepted by law.

(e) Exceptions as to notice or effective date. For one or more of the reasons hereinafter indicated, in certain situations either or both of the following is true: (1) Notice and public participation are impracticable, unnecessary, contrary to the public interest, or otherwise not required in the public interest, or (2) there is reason and good cause in the public interest why the effective date should not be deferred for 30 days. The reason or reasons in such cases usually are that such notice, public participation or delay would prevent the action from becoming effective as promptly as necessary in the public interest, would permit speculators or others to reap unfair profits or to interfere with the Board's actions taken with a view to accommodating commerce and business and with regard to their bearing upon the general credit situation of the country, would provoke other consequences contrary to the public interest, would unreasonably interfere with the Board's necessary functions with respect to management or personnel, would not aid the persons affected, or would otherwise serve no useful purpose. The following may be mentioned as some examples of situations in which such advance notice or such deferred effective date, or both, will ordinarily be omitted in the public interest: The review and determination of discount rates established by Federal Reserve Banks, and changes in general requirements regarding reserves of member banks, interest rates, credit for purchasing or carrying securities, or consumer credit.

§ 262.3 Adjudications with formal hearing. In adjudications which a statute or the Board's regulations require to be preceded by opportunity for hearing, the procedure shall be as set forth in Part 263 of this chapter, entitled "Rules of Practice for Formal Hearings". Among the examples of such adjudications are: Termination of a bank's membership in the Federal Reserve System, removal of a bank official under section 30 of the Banking Act of 1933, suspension of a license under Part 222, of this chapter, revocation of a voting permit of a holding company affiliate, suspension from the use of the credit facilities of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to section 4 of the Federal Reserve Act, and issuance of a cease and desist order under section 11 of the Clayton Act.

§ 262.4 Action on applications or requests, and similar matters—(a) Kinds of applications. The Board receives various applications and requests as to which neither statute nor Board regulation requires an opportunity for hearing. Among the examples are: Requests for the issuance, amendment or repeal of regulations, requests for access to unpublished information, requests for interpretations, and applications for permission or authority to exercise certain powers or privileges (such as for membership in the Federal Reserve System, for a voting permit to a holding company affiliate, for a bank to establish a branch, or for a national bank to exercise trust powers).

(b) Form of application. The forms specified in § 262.5 (b) for certain applications shall be used where applicable. In all other cases the application or request, in addition to being signed by the person making it or his duly authorized agent, shall, in so far as practicable, clearly, completely and concisely state the full name and address of the applicant, the facts involved (including the purposes for which any unpublished information requested wil be used if made available), the action requested, the applicant's interest in the matter, and the reasons why the request should be granted. Copies of any form prescribed in § 262.5 (b), and further details regarding those forms or the matter to be included in any application may be obtained from the Federal Reserve Banks.

(c) Procedure. Applications or requests should be sent to the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank, which will forward them to the Board when necessary. When appropriate, the Reserve Bank will make an investigation and report the relevant facts, with its recommendation, to the Board. It is preferable and more convenient for all concerned to send applications or requests to the Reserve Bank in the first instance. The Board requests all persons to follow this procedure, as it usually facilitates prompt preparation of recommendations by the staff, and action by the Board. The locations of the 12 Federal Reserve Banks and the boundaries of the Federal Reserve districts are shown in Appendix A of the Board's Rules of Organization. (Part 261 of this chapter.)

(d) Recommendations by staff. In the light of consideration of all relevant matter presented or ascertained, the appropriate divisions of the Board's staff will prepare and submit to the Board recommendations on the subject. The Board in due course will take such action as it deems warranted in the circumstances and appropriate in the public interest. Such documents as may be necessary to carry out any decision by the Board are prepared by the staff.

(e) Notice of granting or denial. Prompt notice will be given to the applicant of the granting or denial in whole or in part of any written application or request of any interested person made in connection with any Board proceeding. In the case of any denial, except in affirming a prior denial or where the denial is self-explanatory, such notice will be accompanied by a simple statement of procedural or other grounds.

(f) Action at Board's initiative. When the Board, without receiving an outside application or request, is acting in matters in which opportunity for hearing is not required by statute or Board regulation, similar procedure will be followed, including investigations, reports and recommendations by the staff and by the Reserve Banks, where appropriate.

§ 262.5 Appearances, forms—(a) Appearance and practice. Appearance and practice before the Board in all matters shall be governed by § 263.1 of this chapter.

(b) Forms. The following forms, which are available at the Federal Reserve Banks, shall be used for the purposes indicated:

PART 263—RULES OF PRACTICE FOR FORMAL HEARINGS

Sec.
263.1 Appearance and practice before the Board.
263.2 Notice of hearings.
263.3 Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence.
263.4 Continuances, changes, extensions of time.
263.5 Proposed findings and conclusions.
263.6 Trial Examiner's report.
263.7 Exceptions.
263.8 Briefs.
263.9 Appearance before Board or Board members.
26310 Taking evidence before Board or member thereof.
263.11 Filing papers, docket, computation of time.
263.12 Service of reports, exceptions, briefs, and other papers.
263.13 Formal requirements as to papers filed in proceedings.

§ 263.1 Appearance and practice before the Board. (a) No register of attorneys or agents who may practice before the Board is maintained. No application for admission to practice is required. Any person desiring to appear before or transact business with the Board in a representative capacity may be required to file a power of attorney with the Board showing his authority to act in such capacity, and he may be required to show to the satisfaction of the Board that he is properly qualified.

(b) Any person appearing before or transacting business with the Board in a representative capacity, or desiring so to act, may for cause, sufficient in the judgment of the Board, be suspended or disbarred from so doing.

(c) Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before the Board, any member thereof, or a trial examiner shall be ground for exclusion from any hearing and for summary suspension for the duration of any hearing or for such further period as the Board may prescribe.

§ 263.2 Notice of hearings. Whenever a hearing is ordered by the Board in any proceeding, notice of such hearing shall be given to the party or parties to the proceeding by the Secretary of the Board or such other person as the Board may designate for the purpose. Such notice shall be given by serving a copy of the Order for Hearing in accordance with § 263.12 a reasonable time in advance of the hearing. In any proceeding, the Board may make amendments to the Order for Hearing.

§ 263.3 Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence. (a) Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence shall be held as ordered by the Board, and the Board may provide for such a hearing to be held before a duly designated officer, herein referred to as a trial examiner.

(b) All such hearings shall be private and shall be attended only by respondents and their representatives or counsel, representatives of the Board, witnesses, and other persons having an official interest in the proceedings; Provided, however, That on the written request of one or more respondents or counsel for the Board, or on its own motion, the Board, when not prohibited by law, may permit other persons to attend or may order the hearing to be public.

(c) All such hearings shall be stenographically reported and a transcript thereof shall be made which shall be a part of the record of the proceeding. Transcripts will be supplied to a respondent or respondents (and to any person applying therefor if the Board has ordered the hearing to be public) at the prescribed rates.

(d) A trial examiner may at any time withdraw if he deems himself disqualified; and, upon filing in good faith of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or disqualification of the trial examiner, the Board will determine the matter as a part of the record and decision in the case.

(e) Except as permitted by the Administrative Procedure Act, the trial examiner shall not consult any person or party on any fact in issue unless upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate, nor be responsible to or subject to the supervision or direction of any officer, employee, or agent engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions.

(f) The trial examiner shall have authority in connection with the hearing to administer oaths and affirmations, rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence, regulate the course of the hearing, hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties, dispose of procedural requests or similar matters, certify any question to the Board (at his discretion or at the Board's direction) for its consideration and disposition, and take other action consistent with the rules or regulations of the Board and other requirements of law.

(g) Any oral or documentary evidence may be received, except that irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded.

(h) Objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence shall be in short form, stating the grounds of objections relied upon, and the transcript shall not include argument or debate thereon except as ordered by the Board or the trial examiner. Rulings on such objections shall be a part of the transcript except as the Board may otherwise require with respect to a particular ruling. Exception to any such ruling must be noted before the trial examiner in order to be urged in the consideration of the matter by the Board, except as otherwise permitted by the Board.

(i) The Board or trial examiner may call for the production of further evidence upon any issue, and, upon appropriate notice, the trial examiner may reopen any hearing at any time prior to his report or the Board may reopen any hearing at any time prior to its order disposing of the proceeding.

(j) Subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing, or requiring the production of documentary evidence, will be issued only by the Board and as authorized by law. Application may be made either to the Secretary or to the presiding trial examiner, who will report to the Board. Such application must be in writing and must state, as definitely as practicable, the reasonable scope of the evidence sought (reasonably identifying any document desired) and the facts to be proved thereby, in sufficient detail to indicate the materiality and relevance thereof.

(k) Witnesses summoned by the Board at the request of the respondent or of counsel for the Board will be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid to witnesses in the courts of the United States, unless the Board otherwise directs. Such payments as witnesses may be entitled to receive under this section shall be made by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear.

§ 263.4 Continuances, changes, extensions of time. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the Board may by the Order for Hearing or otherwise provide time limits different from those specified in these rules, may on its own motion or for cause shown extend any time limits prescribed by these rules or an Order for Hearing, and may continue or adjourn any hearing. Each hearing shall begin at the time and place ordered by the Board, but thereafter may be successively adjourned to such time and place as may be ordered by the Board or by the trial examiner.

§ 263.5 Proposed findings and conclusions. (a) Following any hearing before a trial examiner the transcript of the testimony shall forthwith be filed with the Secretary of the Board.

(b) Within 15 days after the filing of the transcript with the Secretary of the Board (or within 15 days after the party's receipt of a copy of such transcript, if the party has ordered a copy promptly at the conclusion of the hearing), any party or counsel to the Board may submit to the trial examiner a statement in writing setting forth proposed findings and conclusions, which may be accompanied by a brief in support thereof. If a party or council to the Board submits any such proposed findings or conclusions or briefs, he shall as promptly as practicable furnish copies thereof to the opposing side. All such proposed findings or conclusions shall be a part of the record.

§ 263.6 Trial examiner's report. (a) The trial examiner, within 15 days after the expiration of the time allowed for filing proposed findings and conclusions, or within such different period as the Board may prescribe, shall file with the Secretary of the Board his report containing his recommended decision.

(b) A copy of such report shall be forthwith served on each party and on counsel to the Board by the Secretary of the Board or such other person as the Board may designate for the purpose.

§ 263.7 Exceptions. (a) Within 15 days after receipt of a copy of the trial examiner's report, any party or counsel to the Board may file exceptions to the recommended decision of the trial examiner or any portion thereof, or to his failure to follow a proposed finding or conclusion, or to the admission or exclusion of evidence; and within such period he may file a brief in support of his contentions and exceptions. A copy of such exceptions and briefs shall be forthwith served on each party and on counsel to the Board by the Secretary of the Board or such other person as the Board may designate for the purpose. Exceptions shall be argued only at the final hearing, if any, on the merits before the Board or one or more members thereof.

(b) Objections to the recommended decision of the trial examiner or to his failure to follow a proposed finding or conclusion not saved by exception filed pursuant to § 263.7 will be deemed to have been abandoned and may be disregarded. Objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence not saved by exception at the time of the hearing for the purpose of taking evidence and included in the exceptions filed pursuant to § 263.7 will be deemed to have been abandoned and may be disregarded.

(c) Exceptions not briefed in accordance with §§ 263.7 and 263.8 may be regarded by the Board as waived.

§ 263.8 Briefs. (a) All briefs shall be confined to the particular matters in issue. Each exception or proposed finding or conclusion which is briefed shall be supported by a concise argument and by citation of such statutes, decisions and other authorities, and by page references to such portions of the record, as may be relevant. If the exception relates to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the substance of the evidence admitted or excluded shall be set forth in the brief with appropriate references to the transcript.

(b) Within 10 days after receipt of an original brief any party or counsel to the Board may file a reply brief, which shall be confined to matters in the original brief of the opposing party. Copies of any such reply brief shall be filed and served or furnished the opposing party in the same manner as specified for the original brief.

(c) Briefs not filed on or before the time fixed in these rules will be received only upon special permission of the Board.

§ 263.9 Appearance before Board or Board members. Upon written request of any party or of counsel to the Board, the Board may, if it deems such action appropriate, order the matter to be set down for oral argument before the Board, or one or more members thereof. Such request must be made within the time provided for filing the original briefs.

§ 263.10 Taking evidence before Board or member thereof. Instead of hearings for the purpose of taking evidence before a trial examiner as specified in § 263.3 (a), such hearings may, as the Board determines, be held before the Board, one or more of its members, or more than one trial examiner. Hearings so held shall be subject to the same procedure as that applicable under these rules to hearings before a trial examiner, except that the Board and members thereof are not subject under the law to the requirements regarding separation of functions and, with respect to hearings before the Board, the trial examiner's report referred to in § 263.6 and the related exceptions and briefs referred to in § 263.7 will be omitted.

§ 263.11 Filing papers, docket, computation of time. (a) All reports, exceptions, briefs, and other papers required to be filed with the Board in any proceeding shall be filed with the Secretary. Any such papers may be sent to him by mail or express, but must be received by him in the office of the Board in Washington, D. C., within the time limit, if any, for such filing.

(b) Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Board, the Order for Hearing, the transcript, the report of the trial examiner, exceptions thereto, proposed findings or conclusions, and briefs in support of such proposals or in support of or in opposition to such exceptions, and other papers which are filed in connection with any hearing shall not be made public and shall be for the confidential use only of the Board, appropriate members of its staff, the respondent or respondents, and counsel.

(c) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by order of the Board, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the District of Columbia. Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be included in the computation. A half-holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(d) The Order for Hearing may provide for the number of copies of papers to be filed.

§ 263.12 Service of reports, exceptions, briefs, and other papers. All reports, exceptions, briefs, proposed findings or conclusions, or other documents or papers required by these rules to be served on any party to a proceeding, or on counsel to the Board, shall be served by the Secretary of the Board or such other person as the Board may designate for the purpose. Such service, except on counsel to the Board, shall be made by personal service on the party or his attorney of record, by registered mail addressed to the party or his attorney of record, or by other appropriate means specified by the Board. Service by registered mail shall be deemed to be made as of the date of receipt by the person addressed.

§ 263.13 Formal requirements as to papers filed in proceedings. (a) All papers filed under these rules shall be typewritten, mimeographed, or printed.

(b) All papers shall be signed by the party filing the same, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, or counsel to the Board, and, except in the case of counsel to the Board, must show the address of the signer.

(c) All papers filed shall include at the head thereof, or on a title page, the name of the Board, the names of the parties, and the subject of the particular paper or pleading.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

FEDERAL OPEN MARKET COMMITTEE

[12 CFR, Ch. II]

PART 271—RULES ON ORGANIZATION AND INFORMATION

Sec.
271.1 Basis and scope.
271.2 Composition and meetings of committee.
271.3 Executive committee.
271.4 Other personnel.
271.5 Submittals, petitions, and requests.
271.6 Availability of information.
271.7 Subpoenas.

§ 271.1 Basis and scope. These rules are issued by the Federal Open Market Committee (hereinafter sometimes called the Committee) pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and the Federal Reserve Act. Included therein are the rules specified by sections 3 (a) (1), 3 (b), and 3 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 271.2 Composition and meetings of Committee—(a) Members. The Federal Open Market Committee consists of the members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and five representatives of the Federal Reserve Banks who are Presidents or First Vice Presidents of such banks. The representatives of the Federal Reserve Banks, and an alternate for each representative, are elected in accordance with section 12A of the Federal Reserve Act for terms of one year commencing on March 1 of each year.

(b) Chairman and Vice Chairman. At its first meeting on or after March 1 of each year, the Committee selects a Chairman and a Vice Chairman from among its membership.

(c) Meetings. The Committee meets at Washington, D. C., on call by the Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or at the request of three members of the Committee, at least four times each year and oftener if deemed necessary.

§ 271.3 Executive Committee—(a) Members. At its first meeting on or after March 1 of each year, the Federal Open Market Committee selects from among its membership an Executive Committee consisting of three members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and two of the representatives of the Federal Reserve Banks. Alternates to serve in the absence of members of each group represented on the Executive Committee are likewise selected. The Chairman of the Federal Open Market Committee is one of the members of the Executive Committee and serves as its Chairman.

(b) Meetings. The Executive Committee meets periodically, on call of the Chairman or at the request of two members, as necessary in the performance of the duties assigned to it.

(c) Duties. The duties of the Executive Committee are:

(1) To direct the execution of transactions in the open market in accordance with open-market policies adopted by the Federal Open Market Committee;

(2) To allocate the Government securities and other obligations held in the System Open Market Account among the several Federal Reserve Banks in accordance with the principles determined by the Federal Open Market Committee;

(3) To keep the members of the Federal Open Market Committee informed of all transactions executed under the direction of the Federal Open Market Committee and of all allocations and reallocations of government securities and other obligations held in the System Open Market Account; and

(4) To perform such other functions and duties in connection with open-market operations as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Federal Open Market Committee.

§ 271.4 Other personnel—(a) Official staff. The official staff of the Federal Open Market Committee includes its Secretary, Assistant Secretary, General Counsel, Assistant General Counsel, Economist, and Associate Economists, who perform the duties indicated by their titles. These staff members are selected from among the officers and employees of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Banks.

(b) System Open Market Account. One of the Federal Reserve Banks is selected by the Committee to execute transactions for the System Open Market Account. Such bank selects a Manager of the System Open Market Account, satisfactory to the Committee.

(c) Others. The services of other officers and employees of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and Federal Reserve Banks are made available and are utilized by the Committee as required.

§ 271.5 Submittals, petitions, and requests—(a) Place. The mailing address of the Federal Open Market Committee is: Federal Reserve Building, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington 25, D. C. The Committee customarily meets at the offices of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System at that address.

(b) Method. All submittals, petitions, and requests, including requests for access to information, shall be made in writing and mailed to the Committee at the address stated in section 5 (a) of these rules. Any petition or request shall be signed by the person making it, or his duly authorized agent, and shall, in so far as practicable, clearly, completely and concisely state his full name and address, the facts involved (including the purposes for which any unpublished information requested will be used if made available), the action desired, the person's interest in the matter, and the reasons why the petition or request should be granted.

§ 271.6 Availability of information—(a) Fedcral Register. Rules describing the Committee's organization and procedure and any substantive rules or statements of policy which are formulated and adopted by the Committee for the guidance of the public will be published in the Federal Register.

(b) Policy record. A complete record of the actions taken by the Committee during the preceding year upon all matters of policy relating to open market operations, showing the votes taken and the reasons underlying the actions, is included in each annual report made to Congress by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in accordance with Section 10 of the Federal Reserve Act.

(c) Unpublished information. Except as may be specifically authorized by the Committee or its Executive Committee, or as may be required in the performance of duties for, or pursuant to the direction of, the Committee, no person shall disclose, or permit the disclosure of, any unpublished information of the Committee to anyone, whether by giving out or furnishing such information or copy thereof, by allowing any person to inspect, examine or copy such information or copy thereof, or by any other means. Unpublished information of the Committee shall include all information concerning the proceedings, deliberations, discussions, and actions of the Committee and all information or advice coming to the Committee or to any member of the Committee or any officer, employee or agent of the Committee, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or any Federal Reserve Bank, in the performance of duties for, or pursuant to the direction of, the Committee, whether contained in files, memoranda, documents, reports, books, accounts, records, or papers or otherwise acquired and whether located at the offices of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Reserve Banks, or elsewhere: Provided, That it shall not include information which has been published in accordance with §§ 271.6 (a), 271.6 (b) or information which is available to the public through other sources.

(d) Reasons for non-disclosure. The non-disclosure of unpublished information of the Committee generally is required in the public interest for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Disclosure of unpublished information concerning policies with respect to future open market operations which are under consideration or have been adopted by the Committee, and of unpublished information which might aid in anticipating action by the Committee, would:

(i) Interfere with the accomplishment of the objectives of the Committee's actions taken with a view to accommodating commerce and business and with regard to their bearing upon the general credit situation of the country;

(ii) Permit speculators and others to reap unfair profits or other unfair advantages by speculative trading in securities and otherwise;

(iii) Interfere with the orderly execution of policies adopted by the Committee;

(iv) Result in unnecessary and unwarranted disturbances in the securities markets;

(v) Make open market operations more costly to the Federal Reserve Banks;

(vi) Interfere with the orderly execution and accomplishment of the objectives of policies adopted by other Government agencies concerned with economic and fiscal matters; and

(vii) Cause misinterpretations and misunderstandings, with possible resultant impairment of public confidence in the nation's financial structure.

(2) The Committee's unpublished information includes much that is furnished to it on a secret or confidential basis and its disclosure would:

(i) Have the effects described in §271.6 (d) (1);

(ii) Impede the necessary collection of information and advice, much of which cannot be obtained except on a confidential and voluntary basis;

(iii) Unreasonably and unnecessarily disturb and interfere with individual privacy and confidential business relationships.

(e) Requests for unpublished information. Requests for access to unpublished information will be granted only if it clearly appears that disclosure of the information will not be contrary to the public interest for any of the reasons set forth in §271.6 (d).

§ 271.7 Subpoenas—(a) Advice by person served. If any person, whether or not an officer or employee of the Committee, of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or of a Federal Reserve Bank, has unpublished information of the Committee and in connection therewith is served with a subpoena, order, or other process requiring his personal attendance as a witness or the production of documents or information upon any proceeding, he shall promptly advise the Committee of such service and of all relevant facts, including the documents and information requested and any facts which may be of assistance in determining whether such documents or information should be made available; and he shall take action at the appropriate time to advise the court or tribunal which issued the process, and the attorney for the party at whose instance the process was issued, if known, of the substance of these rules.

(b) Appearance by person served. Except as disclosure of the relevant information has been authorized pursuant to these rules, any such person who has unpublished information of the Committee and is required to respond to a subpoena or other legal process shall attend at the time and place therein mentioned and respectfully decline to produce any documents or disclose any information or give any testimony with respect thereto, basing his refusal upon these rules. If, notwithstanding, the court or other body orders the production of any documents, disclosure of any information, or giving of any testimony, the person having such unpublished information of the Committee shall promptly report the facts to the Committee.

FEDERAL OPEN MARKET COMMITTEE,
S. R. CARPENTER,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 272—RULES ON PROCEDURE

Sec.
272.1 Basis and scope.
272.2 Committee action.
272.3 Notice and public procedure.
272.4 Effective date.
272.5 Submittals, petitions and requests.

§ 272.1 Basis and scope. These rules are issued by the Federal Open Market Committee (hereinafter sometimes called the Committee) pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and the Federal Reserve Act. They include the rules specified by section 3 (a) (2) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 272.2 Committee action. The function of the Committee is the direction and regulation of open market operations which are conducted by the Federal Reserve Banks. This involves the determination of the policies which are to be pursued with respect to the purchase and sale of securities by the Federal Reserve Banks with a view to accommodating commerce and business and with regard to their bearing upon the general credit situation of the country, together with consideration and action upon incidental matters relating to the manner in which such operations are to be conducted. The discharge of the Committee's responsibilities requires the continuous gathering of information and study of changing financial, economic, and credit conditions and other pertinent considerations by the members of the Committee and its personnel. These activities are closely interrelated with other activities of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Banks and all relevant information and views developed by these organizations are available to the Committee. With this background, action is taken by the Committee upon its own initiative at periodic meetings held at least four times each year and oftener if deemed necessary. Attendance at Committee meetings is restricted to members of the Committee and its official staff, the Manager of the System Open Market Account, the Presidents of Federal Reserve Banks who are not at the time members of the Committee, and such other advisers as the Committee may invite from time to time. The Committee acts through the adoption and transmittal of directives and regulations to its Executive Committee or to the Federal Reserve Banks. Operations in the System Open Market Account are conducted under the direction of the Executive Committee pursuant to directives issued by the Committee.

§ 272.3 Notice and public procedure. There ordinarily will be no published notice of proposed action by the Committee or public procedure thereon, as described in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, because such notice and procedure is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest for one or both of the following reasons:

(a) Non-disclosure of information is required in the public interest for reasons stated in § 271.6 (d) of this chapter; and

(b) Expeditious and timely action, without the delay incident to such notice and procedure, is required in the public interest.

§ 272.4 Effective date. Committee action ordinarily will be made effective on the date the action is taken because the nature of the subject matter and the action taken is such that the public interest and the proper discharge of the Committee's responsibilities so require.

§ 272.5 Submittals, petitions, and requests. Submittals, petitions, and requests may be made to the Committee at any time in the manner stated in § 271.5 of this chapter. They will be considered by members of the Committee's official staff and, where appropriate, will be brought to the attention of the members of the Committee or its Executive Committee for consideration and any necessary action.

FEDERAL OPEN MARKET COMMITTEE,
S. R. CARPENTER,
Assistant Secretary.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY

[45 CFR, Subtitle A]

NOTE: Chapter I of this title is assigned to Subtitle B—Regulations Relating to Public Welfare, and Parts 1, 2, and 3 thereof are redesignated Parts 103, 104, and 105, respectively.

PART 1—ORGANIZATION AND DELEGATIONS OF FINAL AUTHORITY

Sec.
1.1 In general.
1.2 Office of Administration.
1.3 Office of the General Counsel.
1.4 Office of Federal-State Relations.
1.5 Office of Inter-Agency and International Relations.
1.6 Office of Research.
1.7 Office of Information.
1.20 Public Health Service.
1.21 Social Security Administration.
1.22 Office of Education.
1.23 Office of Special Services.

§ 1.1 In general. The Federal Security Agency is under the general supervision and direction of the Federal Security Administrator. In the absence or disability of the Administrator, or in case of a vacancy in the Office of the Federal Security Administrator, the Assistant Federal Security Administrator acts as Administrator. The Agency is composed of six staff officers, to wit: Office of Administration, Office of the General Counsel, Office of Federal-State Relations, Office of Inter-Agency and International Relations, Office of Research, and Office of Information, and four operating branches, to wit: Public Health Service, Social Security Administration, Office of Education, and Office of Special Services. The Assistant Administrator is authorized to make contracts for personal services, supplies and equipment.

§ 1.2 Office of Administration. The Office of Administration is under the direction and supervision of the Executive Assistant and is responsible for the development and establishment of standards and procedures and for the general direction, coordination and review of all management functions of the Agency. It also conducts the liquidation of the Civilian Conservation Corps, the National Youth Administration, and Office of Community War Services. The Office is composed of four divisions: Budget Division, Division of Personnel Management, Division of Service Operations, and Division of Administrative Planning. The Executive Assistant is authorized to make contracts for personal services, supplies and equipment.

(a) Budget Division. The Budget Division is under the direction and supervision of the Budget Officer. It formulates budget policies, establishes standards and procedures, supervises the preparation of budget estimates, exercises general direction over functions of the Agency in connection with appropriations and maintains liaison with other Government establishments in matters relating to budgets, appropriations and finance. The Budget Officer is also charged with the responsibility for supervising the liquidation of the National Youth Administration, Civilian Conservation Corps and the Office of Community War Services. In liquidating the Civilian Conservation Corps, the Agency is authorized to dispose of the buildings and property of the Corps by transfer to Federal, State, county, municipal or nonprofit agencies for the promotion of conservation, education, recreation or health. The Budget Officer is authorized to make contracts for personal services, supplies and equipment.

(b) Division of Personnel Management. The Division of Personnel Management is under the direction of the Director of Personnel. It is responsible for the development and establishment of standards and procedures, and for general direction and coordination of the Agency's functions in connection with personnel and for the conduct of the personnel operations of the Staff Offices of the Agency. It maintains liaison with other Government agencies or establishments in matters relating to personnel. The authority of the Operating Branches of the Agency or their constituent organizations to appoint field personnel is contained in the portion of the Code of Federal Regulations assigned to the Operating Branch or Constituent Organization.

(c) Division of Service Operations. The Division of Service Operations is under the Direction and supervision of the Director of Service Operations and is responsible for establishment, coordination and general direction of the procurement, travel and other service operations of the Agency. It conducts the service operations of the Staff Offices of the Agency. The Division maintains liaison with other Government agencies and establishments in matters relating to service operations. The Director and Assistant Director of Service Operations are authorized to make contracts for personal services, supplies and equipment. The authority of the Operating Branches of the Agency or their constituent organizations to contract is contained in the portion of the Code of Federal Regulations assigned to the particular Operating Branch or Constituent Organization.

(d) Division of Administrative Planning. The Division of Administrative Planning is under the direction and supervision of the Administrative Consultant and is responsible for organization planning and for elimination of duplication, for simplification of method, and for standardization of procedure within the Agency.

§ 1.3 Office of the General Counsel. The Office of the General Counsel is under the direction and control of the General Counsel. It renders legal advice to the Administrator, to the Staff Offices and Operating Branches of the Agency and to the heads thereof, and is responsible for all legal activities of the Agency. It represents the Agency in litigation when direct representation is authorized by law and maintains liaison with other Government agencies and establishments in legal matters. The Office of the General Counsel is composed of a departmental staff located in Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Maryland, a division in New York, New York, to service the Bureau of Employees' Compensation and a regional staff under the direction of regional attorneys, whose offices are located as follows:

Region and Address

No. 1. Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut: Boston, Mass.

Nos. 2 and 3. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware: New York, N. Y.

No. 4. Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia, District of Columbia: Washington, D. C.

No. 5. Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio: Cleveland, Ohio.

No. 6. Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin: Chicago, Ill.

No. 7. South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida: Atlanta, Ga.

No. 8. North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota: Minneapolis, Minn.

No. 9. Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma: Kansas City, Mo.

No. 10. Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico: San Antonio, Tex.

No. 11. Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado: Denver, Colo.

No. 12. California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona: San Francisco, Calif.

§ 1.4 Office of Federal-State Relations. The Office of Federal-State Relations is under the direction and supervision of the Director of Federal-State Relations. The Office is responsible for recommending to the Federal Security Administrator plans for the coordination of grant-in-aid programs administered by the Agency and for recommending the establishment, insofar as is possible, of uniform standards and procedures relating to fiscal, personnel and other matters common to two such programs and standards and procedures under which a State agency participating in more than one grant-in-aid program may submit a single plan of operation and be subject to a single Federal fiscal and administrative review of its operations.

§ 1.5 Office of Inter-Agency and International Relations. The Office of Inter-Agency and International Relations is under the supervision and direction of the Director of Inter-Agency and International Relations. It is responsible for the establishment and coordination of Agency relationships with other Federal agencies, international agencies and organized groups concerned with health, education, welfare, social insurance and related programs. The Director formulates and integrates Agency policies, acts as liaison with representatives of foreign governments, advises the Administrator on opportunities for study and exchange of experience, information, interchange of students and personnel with foreign governments, and the effect of policies and programs of governmental and other agencies upon those of the Agency.

§ 1.6 Office of Research. The Office of Research is under the direction and supervision of the Director of Research. It is responsible for the general direction and coordination of all research activities of the Agency and keeping the Administrator and the heads of the Staff Offices and Operating Branches of the Agency advised of research activities carried on by other Federal, State and local agencies and non-governmental organizations in fields of interest to the Agency.

§ 1.7 Office of Information. The Office of Information is under the direction and supervision of the Director of Information. It is responsible for the establishment of a unified information policy in the Agency and for the general direction and the coordination of all information activities in the Agency. The Director represents the Administrator in informational matters and serves as liaison officer for the Agency in contacts with outside agencies with respect to informational matters.

§ 1.20 Public Health Service. The Public Health Service is administered by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service under the direction and supervision of the Federal Security Administrator. By Agency Order the Surgeon General also supervises and directs the activities of Saint Elizabeths Hospital and Freedmen's Hospital. For a description of the organization and functions of Public Health Service, see 42 CFR Chapter I, Public Health Service; of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, see 42 CFR Chapter III, Saint Elizabeths Hospital; of Freedmen's Hospital, see 42 CFR Chapter IV, Freedmen's Hospital.

§ 1.21 Social Security Administration. The Social Security Administration is under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner for Social Security. The Deputy Commissioner assists the Commissioner in the performance of all his duties and acts for him in his absence; the Deputy Commissioner is responsible for the effectuation, through the several bureaus and offices of the Administration, of the policies and decisions of the Commissioner, and for the coordination of all operations and activities of the Administration, and for the general direction of staff services. The Administration includes four operating bureaus, namely, Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Bureau of Employment Security, Bureau of Public Assistance, and the Children's Bureau; three staff bureaus, namely, Bureau of Accounts and Audits, Bureau of Research and Statistics, and Informational Service; the Office of the Actuary; the Office of the Appeals Council; the State Technical Advisory Service; Personnel and Business Management Service; and divisions or offices aiding the Deputy Commissioner directly in his responsibilities for coordination and budget preparation and control, direction of field operations, publications preparation and reviews, and staff training. The Administration maintains thirteen regional offices, each under the supervision of a Regional Director as representative of the Commissioner:

Region and Address

No. 1. Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut: Boston, Mass.

Nos. 2 and 3. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware: New York, N. Y.

No. 4. Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia, District of Columbia: Washington, D. C.

No. 5. Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio: Cleveland, Ohio.

No. 6. Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin: Chicago, Ill.

No. 7. South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida: Atlanta, Ga.

No. 8. North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota: Minneapolis, Minn.

No. 9. Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma: Kansas City, Mo.

No. 10. Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico: San Antonio, Tex.

No. 11. Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado: Denver, Colo.

No. 12. California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona: San Francisco, Calif.

No. 13. Territory of Alaska: Juneau, Alaska.

No. 14. Territory of Hawaii: Honolulu, T. H.

In addition, the Children's Bureau has eleven regional child-welfare consultants, and eight regional medical, nursing, medical social, and nutrition consultants, the location and regional responsibility of whom may be found by referring to the description of the organization of that Bureau. (42 CFR, 205.3.) Besides supervising and directing the operations of the Social Security Administration, the Commissioner for Social Security makes and publishes rules and regulations necessary for the efficient administration of the functions which have been delegated to him by the Administrator. He is also responsible for making studies and recommendations as to the most effective methods of providing economic security through social insurance. For a description of the organization and functions of the four operating bureaus and the Office of the Appeals Council, and the functions of the Commissioner for Social Security in relation thereto, see 20 CFR Chapter III, Social Security Administration (Old-Age and Survivors Insurance); 42 CFR Chapter II, Children's Bureau; 45 CFR Chapter II, Public Assistance; and 45 CFR Chapter III, Employment Security. Descriptions of the functions of the State Technical Advisory Service and of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits (so far as this Bureau is concerned with States' relations programs rather than with the internal fiscal affairs of the Administration) are contained in the material relating to the operating bureaus.

Basic studies in the field of social security, which are beyond the scope of the operating bureaus, are conducted by the Bureau of Research and Statistics which also integrates the statistical activities of the operating bureaus. The Office of the Actuary advises the Commissioner with respect to technical aspects of social security. The function of keeping the public informed concerning the Social Security Act and increasing the effectiveness of the operations of the operating bureaus through a wider understanding of the rights, benefits, and responsibilities of the public is performed by the Informational Service. The Office of the Deputy Commissioner is responsible for the business management functions of the Administration, including matters pertaining to personnel, travel, contracts and procurement of space and supplies. Contracts are signed by the Procurement Officer. The regional directors and acting regional directors also have authority to appoint certain field personnel.

§ 1.22 Office of Education. The Office of Education is administered by the Commissioner of Education under the direction and supervision of the Federal Security Administrator. By Agency Order the Commissioner of Education supervises and directs those activities of the Federal Security Agency relating to the American Printing House for the Blind, Columbia Institution for the Deaf, and Howard University. For a description of the organization and functions of the Office of Education, see 45 CFR Chapter I.

§ 1.23 Office of Special Services. The Office of Special Services is under the direction and supervision of the Commissioner for Special Services. It is composed of five operating constituents, namely: Bureau of Employees' Compensation, Food and Drug Administration, Office of War Property Distribution, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, Employees' Compensation Appeals Board. In addition to direction and supervision the Commissioner is responsible for preparing for approval by the Administrator regulations and standards required in connection with the operation of the constituents listed. For a description of the organization and functions of these constituents see 20 CFR Chapter I, Bureau of Employees' Compensation; 21 CFR Chapter I, Food and Drug Administration; 32 CFR Chapter XXIII, War Assets Administration; 45 CFR Chapter VI, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

§ 10.1 Public information. Information concerning the Federal Security Agency generally or the functions of the Federal Security Administrator, Assistant Administrator, Staff Offices and Operating Branches of the Agency may be obtained, and submittals or requests made in person or by letter at the Office of Administration, Federal Security Agency, Federal Security Building, Washington 25, D. C. For places at which information may be obtained or submittals or requests made with respect to particular programs administered within the Federal Security Agency, see 20 CFR Chapter I, Part 01, Bureau of Employees' Compensation; 20 CFR 421.1 (b), 421.6 (b), Social Security Administration (Old-Age and Survivors Insurance); 21 CFR 1.3, Food and Drug Administration; 32 CFR Chapter XXIII, War Assets Administration; 42 CFR 02.107, Public Health Service; 42 CFR 205.5, Children's Bureau; 42 CFR 300.1, Saint Elizabeths Hospital; 42 CFR 400.1, Freedmen's Hospital; 45 CFR 100.3, Office of Education; 45 CFR 200.7, Public Assistance; 45 CFR 300.7, Employment Security; 45 CFR 605.3, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

§ 10.5 Inspection of final opinions, orders and official records. All final opinions and orders of the Federal Security Administrator in the adjudication of cases, all rules and official records relating to particular programs administered within the Federal Security Agency are available for inspection in accordance with rules set forth at 20 CFR, 01.5, 01.6, Bureau of Employees' Compensation; 20 CFR 422.2, 422.7, Social Security Administration (Old-Age and Survivors Insurance); 21 CFR 1.5, 1.6, Food and Drug Administration; 32 CFR Chapter XXIII, Surplus Property Administration; 42 CFR 02.111, 02.112, Public Health Service; 42 CFR 205.6, 205.7, Children's Bureau; 42 CFR 300.5, Saint Elizabeths Hospital; 42 CFR 400.6, Freedmen's Hospital; 45 CFR 100.4, 100.5, Office of Education; 45 CFR 200.8, 200.9, Public Assistance; 45 CFR 300.8, 300.9, Employment Security; 45 CFR 605.4, 605.5, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation. All other final opinions and orders in the adjudication of cases, all other rules and, as to persons properly and directly concerned, all other official records are available for inspection at the Office of Administration, Federal Security Agency, Federal Security Building, Washington 25, D. C., except that the Federal Security Administrator, for good cause, may hold any official records, final opinion or order or any part thereof confidential, in which event such opinion, or order or part thereof will not be cited as a precedent.

PART 30—ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES AND FORMS

Sec.
30.1 In general.
30.2 Claims for damages.
30.3 Disposal of property of Civilian Conservation Corps.

§ 30.1 In general. The procedures and forms relating to the particular programs administered within the Federal Security Agency are set forth in 20 CFR Chapter III, Social Security Administration (Old-Age and Survivors Insurance); 21 CFR Chapter I, Food and Drug Administration; 42 CFR Chapter XXIII, War Assets Administration; 42 CFR Chapter I, Public Health Service; 42 CFR Chapter II, Children's Bureau; 42 CFR Chapter III, Saint Elizabeths Hospital; 42 CFR Chapter IV, Freedmen's Hospital; 45 CFR Chapter I, Office of Education; 45 CFR Chapter II, Public Assistance; 45 CFR Chapter III, Employment Security; 45 CFR Chapter VI, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

The procedures and forms, other than those relating to internal management, employed in connection with recruitment and employment of personnel are those prescribed by the United States Civil Service Commission. See Code of Federal Regulations, Title 5. The procedures and forms used in connection with the procurement of supplies and the making of contracts are those prescribed by the Procurement Division, Department of the Treasury, and other Federal agencies having jurisdiction. See Code of Federal Regulations, Title 41 (Public Contracts).

§ 30.2 Claims for damages. No formal procedures have been established for the consideration of claims for damage to or loss of property or injury to person alleged to have been caused by commissioned or civilian officers or employees of the Federal Security Agency. Claims should be filed in writing within the time limit prescribed by law at the field office of the constituent organization of the Agency by which the officer or employee allegedly causing the damage is employed, at the departmental office of the Constituent Organization, or at the Office of Administration, Federal Security Agency, Federal Security Building, Washington 25, D. C.

Upon receipt of a written claim, a form is mailed to the claimant at the address indicated in his claim. The form should be completed and returned together with a verified repair bill if the damage has been repaired, or if not repaired, with verified estimates of the cost of making the repairs. Separate estimates by three reputable individuals or concerns who are in the business of making the repairs required to remedy the damage allegedly caused by the officer or employee of the Agency should be submitted. If the property is destroyed or damaged beyond repair competent proof of the value of the property at the time of loss in addition to evidence of its original cost should be submitted. If personal injuries are involved, a complete medical statement and verified bills for such medical, surgical, hospital and nursing expenses as have been incurred should be submitted together with an itemized statement of any loss of earnings. If claim is made for pain and suffering or permanent injury, the amount so claimed should be separately stated.

In case of damages occasioned by collisions or incident to the operation of vessels of the Public Health Service, a board may be convened to investigate the accident. Notice of the creation of the board, if convened, is given to the claimant and he may submit pertinent and relevant evidence for consideration by the board. Upon receipt of the report of the field office, or in cases where an investigatory board has been convened, by the investigatory board, and the forms properly completed together with the other requisite information, the head of the constituent organization considers the claim and makes appropriate recommendations to the Administrator indicating whether the claim should be allowed or disallowed, and if allowed, the amount that should be awarded. The Office of the General Counsel reviews these recommendations for legal sufficiency, after which they are considered by the Administrator, who may accept, reject or modify the recommendations. The claimant is promptly notified of the Administrator's action.

§ 30.3 Disposal of property of Civilian Conservation Corps. No formal procedures have been adopted in connection with the disposition of property of the Civilian Conservation Corps. Inquiries and applications for such property should be in writing and addressed to the Liquidation Officer, Federal Security Agency, Federal Security Building, Washington 25, D. C.

BUREAU OF EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION

PART 01—ORGANIZATION

SUBPART A—GENERAL STATEMENT

Sec.
01.1 Establishment of the Bureau.
01.2 Acts affecting employees in Federal service.
01.3 Acts affecting private employees.
01.4 Acts relating to war injuries and detentions.
01.5 Public inspection of final opinions and orders.
01.6 Availability of official records.

§ 01.1 Establishment of the Bureau. The Bureau of Employees' Compensation was created by the Federal Security Administrator as part of the Office of Special Services, Federal Security Agency (see 45 CFR Subtitle A), to perform the functions performed by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission prior to the transfer of such functions to the Administrator by Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946 (11 F. R. 7837). The Bureau administers workmen's compensation laws falling within two general categories,—which are, respectively, the statutes providing workmen's compensation benefits in cases of persons employed by, or in the service of, the Government of the United States (including its instrumentalities), and the statutes providing workmen's compensation benefits in cases of privately employed persons whose employments fall within the exclusive Federal jurisdiction. The central and field offices of the Bureau are organized in conformity with statutory requirements and functions, and with respect to the differences in the laws administered.

§ 01.2 Acts affecting employees in Federal service. In the first general category of acts administered by the Bureau is the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916 (39 Stat. 742; 5 U. S. C. 751, et seq.), which is applicable to civil employees of the United States suffering injury or death while in the performance of duty. This act has been extended from time to time, with and without limitations, to other groups which include the following: the employees of the Government of the District of Columbia (except members of the police and fire departments); members of the Naval Reserve, while on authorized training duty in time of peace; members of the Officers' Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army while on authorized training duty in time of peace; members of the Coast Guard Reserve while on authorized training duty in time of peace, temporary members of the Reserve while on active duty, and members of the Auxiliary while on Coast Guard patrol; members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps (prior to the establishment of the Women's Army Corps); members of the Women's Reserve of the Navy while on active duty (prior to July 30, 1942); evacuees in the War Relocation Camps; persons employed on various Federal emergency relief projects; commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service; Federal student nurses; National Youth Administration project workers; enrollees of the Civilian Conservation Corps; and others. Aside from administering the benefit provisions, the Bureau performs statutory functions in respect to the prevention of accidents.

§ 01.3 Acts affecting private employees. In the second general category of acts administered by the Bureau, under which privately employed persons subject to exclusive Federal jurisdiction may receive benefits, are the following acts: Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act of March 4, 1927 (44 Stat. 1424; 33 U. S. C. 901, et seq.); the District of Columbia workmen's compensation law, act of May 17, 1928 (45 Stat. 600, D. C. Code, 1940, Title 36, Chapter 5, secs. 1 and 2); and the act of August 16, 1941, as amended (the so-called Defense Bases Act; 55 Stat. 622, 42 U. S. C. 1651). Aside from administering the benefit provisions of such acts, the Bureau performs statutory functions in respect (a) to the prevention of accidents, (b) the authorization of insurance carriers to write workmen's compensation insurance under the several laws, and (c) the authorization of employers as self-insurers under such laws.

§ 01.4 Act relating to war injuries and detentions. The Bureau administers a law which partakes of the nature of the laws referred to in §§ 01.2 and 01.3. This is the act of December 2, 1942 (56 Stat. 1028; 42 U. S. C. 1701) which is applicable (a) to employees of contractors with the United States, (b) to persons rendering service for the United States under personal service contracts, and (c) to employees of post exchanges or ship stores, where the employees are engaged for services outside the United States.

Such act prescribes workmen's compensation benefits for injuries and deaths due to war-risk hazards, and benefits for persons detained by an enemy. Integrated in the plan of the act are the administrative features of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, and the benefit provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, with certain modifications applicable to cases of detained persons. In addition to the provisions of such act in respect to injury, death, and detention, there are further provisions authorizing the reimbursement of employers, insurance carriers, and compensation funds for lose attributable to certain war risks.

§ 01.5 Public inspection of final opinions and orders. All final orders or opinions issued by the Bureau or by any authority subordinate to the Bureau in respect to the adjudication of claims or any other public function are made available to public inspection. Those issued by the Bureau will be available for inspection at its central office located at 285 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. Those issued by its deputy commissioners or other subordinate authority will be available for inspection in the district office in which filed, with copies available for inspection at the central office of the Bureau.

§ 01.6 Availability of official records. (a) The official records of the Bureau consist of case records relating to claims for benefits, to claims for reimbursement of benefits (42 U. S. C. 1704), to applications for certificates of authority to write insurance, and to applications for the grant of the self-insurance privilege.

(b) Such official records are made available to persons properly and directly concerned with a particular official record. Any official record or part thereof may be held confidential for good cause under particular circumstances found to exist, or as may be specified by applicable published regulation, and not be made available for inspection. Prompt notice of denial to inspect an official record or part thereof will be given, together with a statement of the ground for such refusal.

SUBPART B—UNITED STATES EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION ACT AND EXTENSIONS THEREOF

Sec.
01.11 Central office.
01.12 Field offices and delegations of authority.
01.13 Requests for information.
01.14 Types of applications.

§ 01.11 Central office. (a) The Bureau is organized (in respect to laws referred to in § 01.2 dealing with persons rendering service for the United States) with the central office divisions and sections under the general administration of the Director or Acting Director of the Bureau, stated and functioning as follows:

(1) Administrative Office of the Director—(i) Personnel Section. Handles personnel matters. The Director or Acting Director may appoint field personnel and authorize travel by employees of the Bureau. District Commissioners in charge of district offices outside the United States may appoint field personnel within their respective district offices.

(ii) Mail and Files Section. Receives, routes and files correspondence and forms.

(2) Audit and Accounting Division. Makes administrative examination and audit of all accounts certified to the Treasury Department for payment; maintains accounts of receipts and expenditures, and keeps accounts and records, including Budgetary controls.

(3) Claims Division. Examines, investigates and processes claims filed under the Act of September 7, 1916, and the extensions thereof, and claims for compensation for injury, death and detention, under the Act of December 2, 1942.

(i) Subrogation Section. Supervises all legal actions to recover damages in cases of third party liability.

(4) Medical Division. Directs the furnishing of medical services and examinations of claimants; audits and settles accounts submitted by public and private facilities for medical care of beneficiaries.

(5) Safety and Statistical Division. Compiles and summarizes factual data relative to the frequency, severity, cause and cost of injuries; makes actuarial computations and studies for the computation of certain awards; engages in studies and development of means for the prevention of occupational disabilities.

The Employees' Compensation Division of the General Counsel's Office, Federal Security Agency, handles the legal matters of the Bureau.

(b) The central office of the Bureau is located at 285 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y., and at such place claims are processed to completion and payment in respect to cases arising under the laws referred to in § 01.2. The Director or Acting Director of the Bureau is the final authority within the Bureau in the adjudication of claims thereunder.

§ 01.12 Field offices and delegations of authority. Final authority to receive, process, and pay claims, as well as to authorize medical treatment, has been delegated by the Bureau to its deputy commissioner at Manila, P. I., for the western Pacific area (address: AFWESPAC, A. P. O. 707, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, California), and to its deputy commissioner in France for the European area (address: c/o Headquarters, U. S. F. E. T. (Rear), A. P. O. 887, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.). Authority to receive, process and pay claims, as well as to authorize medical treatment (but with limitation of payment of benefits to a period not to exceed 180 days) has been delegated by the Bureau to its deputy commissioner at Honolulu, T. H., for the Hawaiian Islands (address: 407-408 Hawaiian Trust Building), to its deputy commissioner at San Juan, Puerto Rico, for Puerto Rico and the West Indies (address: "L" PRRA Buildings, Stop 8), to its Resident Claims Examiner in the Canal Zone for the Canal Zone and Panama (address: Balboa Heights, C. Z.—Building 705), and to Foreign Claims Commission No. 197, of the War Department, with headquarters at Cairo, Egypt, for the area served by such Commission. Actions upon claims pursuant to such delegations of authority are subject to review and modification by the Bureau. Claims or applications for compensation, and other forms specified in the regulations of the Bureau (20 CFR, chapter I, subchapters A, B and F) may be filed at the central office of the Bureau, 285 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y., or with the above specified officers or offices in any case arising within their respective areas.

§ 01.13 Requests for information. Requests for information in respect to the jurisdiction of the Bureau, the procedure in respect to claims, the forms required, or relating to any matter arising under such acts, including examination of case files by parties in interest, may be addressed to the central office of the Bureau, at the adddress stated in § 01.11, or to the authorized field representatives to whom authority to process claims has been delegated, as stated in § 01.12.

§ 01.14 Types of applications. The types of applications which may be made are as follows: claims for compensation for injury and death, applications for review of cases, for lump sum awards, for medical and hospital care, treatment or examination, for allowances for attendant, for funeral and burial expenses (including transportation of the body), and for prosthetic appliances, within the purview of the applicable provision of the statute. Applications may be filed directly with the Bureau at its central office, or with the proper field office as indicated in § 01.12.

SUBPART C—LONGSHOREMEN'S AND HARBOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT

Sec.
01.21 Central office.
01.22 Field offices.
01.23 Geographic areas covered by field offices.
01.24 Requests for information.
01.25 Types of applications.
01.26 Decision upon claims.

§ 01.21 Central office. (a) The Bureau is organized (in respect to laws referred to in § 01.3; that is, the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and applications thereof, affecting private employees in certain employments subject to Federal jurisdiction) with the central office divisions under the general administration of the Director or Acting Director of the Bureau, stated and functioning as follows:

(1) Administrative Office of the Director. Handles personnel matters; commutations of lump sum awards; space and location of field offices; training and rehabilitation; prosthetic appliances; awards from special funds (second injuries); matters requiring final approval by the Director of the Bureau; and other matters referred to in § 01.11.

(3) Safety and Statistical Division. Maintains accounts and records of receipts and expenditures from special funds; audits accounts and vouchers for payment certified to the Treasury Department.

(3) Safety and Statistical Division. Compiles and summarizes factual data relative to the frequency, severity, cause and cost of injuries; studies and develops means for prevention of injuries and disabilities; makes actuarial studies and computations of certain awards and future compensation liability.

The Employees Compensation Division of the General Counsel's Office, Federal Security Agency, handles the legal matters of the Bureau.

(b) In respect to such act, the Bureau performs statutory functions in relation to the approval or disapproval of agreed settlements and applications for lump sum awards, the transfer of cases, and the administration of special funds for the payment of "second injury" compensation benefits, rehabilitation expenses and prosthetic appliances; and, in connection with the insurance features of the act, receives and acts upon applications for authority to write workmen's compensation insurance and for the grant of the self-insurance privilege under such act, including the issuance of the certificates of authority to authorized insurance carriers. Certificates of compliance (33 U. S. C. 937) in respect to employers who have complied with section 32 of the act are issued to employers by the deputy commissioners in the respective compensation districts.

§ 01.22 Field offices. The following field offices serve in the administration of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act; deputy commissioners administering such act in the field are located at such offices:

District No. 1, Boston 9, Mass. (address: Room 756, 10 Post Office Square).
District No. 2, New York 14, N. Y. (address: 641 Washington Street, at Christopher).
District No. 3, Philadelphia 7, Pa. (address: 1515 Market Street National Bank Building.
District No. 4, Baltimore 2, Md. (address: Van Sant Building, 210 East Lexington Street, Fourth Floor).
District No. 5, Norfolk 10, Va. (address: 303 Adams Building, City Hall at Bank Street).
District No. 6, Jacksonville 2, Fla (address: 404 Lynch Building).
District No. 7, New Orleans 12, La. (address: 600 Maritime Building, 203 Carondelet Street).
District No. 8, Galveston, Texas (address: 502 U. S. Post Office Building).
District No. 9, Cleveland 13, Ohio (address: 1341 Terminal Tower Building).
District No. 10, Chicago 7, Ill. (address: 804 U. S. Post Office, 433 West Van Buren Street).
District No. 13, San Francisco 5, California (address: Room 318, 417 Market Street).
District No. 14, Seattle 4, Washington (address: 390 Colman Building).
District No. 15, Honolulu 48, T. H. (address: 407-408 Hawaiian Trust Building.

§ 01.23 Geographic areas covered by field offices. The geographic areas comprising the several compensation districts established under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act will be found described in 20 CFR, Chapter I, subchapter C, § 31.2.

§ 01.24 Requests for information. (a) Claims for compensation for injury or death under such act are required by applicable statute (33 U. S. C. 913 (a)) to be filed with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which the injury or death occurred. Requests for information in respect to the jurisdiction of the Bureau relative to such act may be sent directly to the Bureau to its central office, or to a deputy commissioner in a field office. Requests for information concerning the procedure in respect to claims, the forms required, or relative to any matter arising in individual cases, including requests for examination of case files by any party in interest, should be addressed to the deputy commissioner in the proper compensation district. The individual case files remain with the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction of the case.

(b) Inquiries for information in respect to lump sum awards, agreed settlements, transfer of cases, payments from the special funds administered by the Bureau, rehabilitation, and prosthetic appliances should be addressed to the deputy commissioner in the proper compensation district. Inquiries for information in respect to authority to write insurance or for the grant of the self-insurance privilege or in connection with the issuance of certificates of compliance should be addressed to the central office of the Bureau.

§ 01.25 Types of applications. (a) The types of applications which may be made are claims for compensation for injury and death and applications (1) for review of cases, (2) for lump sum awards, (3) for approval of agreed settlements, (4) for physical examination, (5) for approval of attorney's fees, (6) for transfer of cases, (7) for subpoenas, and (8) for formal hearings and orders. For reference to forms see § 02.31.

(b) Applications for maintenance of employee undergoing vocational rehabilitation, for the furnishing of prosthetic appliances, and for compensation from the special fund established under section 44 of such act need not be made upon any particular form but should be filed with the deputy commissioner having jurisdiction in the case; such applications are subject to consideration by the deputy commissioner and the subsequent approval by the Bureau.

(c) Types of applications which may be addressed to the central office of the Bureau, in respect to section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (the insurance feature of the several acts) are applications for certificates of authority to write insurance and for the grant of the self-insurance privilege.

§ 01.26 Decision upon claims. The deputy commissioners administering such act are invested with statutory power to make final decision upon the claims for workmen's compensation benefits filed with them under the statute. This decision is subject to judicial review by a United States district court upon questions of law (33 U. S. C. 921 (b)). The statutory function of the deputy commissioner is to receive and process claims for compensation (injury and death) and for other benefits. This function includes verification of the accuracy of voluntary payments, claims adjustment, informal conferences, formal hearings, the making of decisions, and the review of cases for modification of awards (33 U. S. C. 922). It also includes certain discretionary acts, such as requiring medical examinations, initial approval of the transfer of cases to other deputy commissioners, the intitial approval of lump sum awards and agreed settlements, and the approval of attorney's fees. The transfer of cases and the approval of lump sum awards and agreed settlements are subject to final approval by the Director or Acting Director of the Bureau.

§ 01.52 Delegations of authority. For statement showing the delegations of authority to receive and process claims under such act, see 20 CFR 61.10, and the section dealing with the filing and processing of claims, 20 CFR 61.8, 61.9.

§ 01.53 Requests for information. Requests for information relative to the scope of the act, forms, procedure in respect of claims, adjudications, and any matter within the purview of such act may be addressed to the central office of the Bureau. Claims for detention benefits should be filed with the central office of the Bureau; claims for compensation for injury and death may be filed with the Bureau or with the deputy commissioner or other person specified in 20 CFR 61.8.

§ 01.54 Types of applications. The types of applications used in connection with benefits for injury, death and detention, are claims for benefits, requests for review of cases, application for transportation of a person released from detention, for transportation of bodies of deceased persons, for approval of attorney's fee.

SUBPART G—REIMBURSABLE INSURANCE CLAIMS

Sec.
01.61 Central office.
01.62 Requests for information.
01.63 Types of applications.

§ 01.61 Central office. For the organization of the central office of the Bureau, see § 01.11. Under the act of December 2, 1942 (42 U. S. C. 1704), the Bureau performs the statutory function of reimbursing employers, insurance carriers, or compensation funds for compensation losses due to the hazards of war. All matters pertaining to reviewing, processing, and auditing of claims for reimbursement are handled by the Bureau. The Audit and Accounting Division applies administrative examination and final audit of such claims, after verification by the Employees' Compensation Division of the General Counsel's Office, Federal Security Agency. The Director or Acting Director of the Bureau makes the final decision thereon.

§ 01.62 Requests for information. Requests for information relative to the scope of the reimbursement provisions (42 U. S. C. 1704), the processing of reimbursement claims, and the disposition of cases in which the Bureau assumes direct payment of benefits under such provision of the statute should be addressed to the Bureau at its central office.

§ 01.63 Types of applications. Claims for reimbursement of benefits paid (42 U. S. C. 1704), which are the only applications to be filed, should be filed with the central office of the Bureau.

PART 02—STATEMENT OF PROCEDURES

SUBPART A—UNITED STATES EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION ACT AND EXTENSIONS THEREOF

Sec.
02.1 Required forms; notice and claims.
02.2 Required reports.
02.3 Processing of claims.
02.4 Review of decisions.
02.5 Attorney's fees.
02.6 Medical and other benefits.
02.7 Forms.

§ 02.1 Required forms; notice and claims. Pursuant to statutory requirement notice of injury within the purview of the United States Employees' Compensation Act is required to be given by a claimant within a specified time, to the official superior, stating particularized information (5 U. S. C. 765–767). Written claims for compensation for injury and death are required by the statute to be filed in a stated manner and within a stated time (5 U. S. C. 768–770). The statute, in respect to notice of injury, has been implemented by regulations (20 CFR 1.2, 21.2), and in respect to claims for disability and death benefits has been similarly implemented (20 CFR 1.4, 1.8, 1.13, 1.14, 21.4, 21.8, 21.13, 21.4). Claim may be filed by delivering it at the central office of the Bureau or to any person designated by the Bureau to receive it. The employees' official superiors are designated to receive claims, for transmission to the Bureau.

§ 02.2 Required reports. (a) Reports of injury to employees are required by statute to be executed by the employee's official superior and transmitted to the Bureau (5 U. S. C. 774). This statutory provision has been implemented by regulations (20 CFR 1.3, 21.3). Similar reports are required if injury causes death (5 U. S. C. 774; 20 CFR 1.12, 21.12).

(b Reports are required of official superiors upon the return to work of an employee (20 CFR 1.6, 21.6) or upon recurrence of disability for work (20 CFR 1.7, 21.7). Claims for continuation of compensation for disability and death benefits are required to be submitted at stated intervals (20 CFR 1.8, 21.8, 1.14, 21.14). Partially disabled employees are required to report their employments and earnings (20 CFR 1.10, 21.10) and to seek employment when they are able (20 CFR 1.9, 21.9), and to report efforts to obtain employment (20 CFR 1.11, 21.11).

(c) In death cases claims for continuance of compensation for death are required (20 CFR 1.14, 21.14) and beneficiaries are required to notify the Bureau when an event takes place which under the statute terminates benefits (20 CFR 1.15, 21.15), or upon change of status of beneficiaries affecting compensation for death (20 CFR 1.16, 21.16). Applications for reimbursement of allowable funeral expenses are required (20 CFR 1.17, 21.17), as well as applications for embalmment and transportation of bodies (20 CFR 1.18, 21.18).

§ 02.3 Processing of claims. (a) Claims for compensation for disability and death are processed by claims examiners in the Claims Division of the Bureau whose duty is to apply the law to the facts as reported, received, or obtained upon investigation. The act requires determination of a claim, with findings of fact and an award for or against the payment of compensation, upon consideration of the claim presented by the beneficiary, and the report furnished by the immediate superior and the completion of such investigation as the Bureau may deem necessary. Hearings are not provided for by the act, nor is there any required procedure for the production of evidence. Evidence in written form is accepted. The final authority in the Bureau in the determination of a claim is vested in the Director or Acting Director of the Bureau. His final order is subject to review by the Employees' Compensation Appeals Board, Office of Special Services, Federal Security Agency, on questions of law and fact.

(b) The field employees of the Bureau are employed in accordance with procedures prescribed by the United States Civil Service Commission and the applicable forms are those prescribed by such Commission (see 5 CFR).

§ 02.4 Review of decisions. Compensation cases are subject to review by the Bureau as specified in the act (5 U. S. C. 787). No formal application for review is required, but request for review in writing stating the ground for review is necessary to invoke action.

§ 02.5 Attorney's fees. Claims for fees of attorneys and representatives under certain acts extending the act of September 7, 1916, are subject to approval by the Bureau, and the procedure in respect to applications for such approval is specified (20 CFR 21.20).

§ 02.6 Medical and other benefits. Medical treatment, services, appliances, drugs, and supplies which in the opinion of the Bureau are necessary for the treatment of an injury are provided for by the act (5 U. S. C. 759), including necessary transportation expenses. Additional compensation for an attendant may be allowed by the Bureau (5 U. S. C. 756). The procedure in respect to the furnishing of such medical and other care is specified by regulation (20 CFR, Chapter I, subchapters A and B, Parts 2 and 22), which also specified the conditions under which treatment shall be furnished. For the procedure, forms, conditions, and scope of such treatment, as well as the authority under which it may be obtained, the regulations should be examined.

§ 02.7 Forms. The following forms are used under such act and extensions thereof:

CA–1 Employee's Notice of Injury and Original Claim for Compensation and Medical Treatment. (See also Forms 124.)

CA–2 Official Superior's Report of Injury. (See also Forms 124.)

SUBPART B—LONGSHOREMEN'S AND HARBOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT

Sec.
02.21 Required forms; notice and claims.
02.22 Required reports.
02.23 Processing of claims.
02.24 Review of decisions.
02.25 Attorney's fees.
02.26 Medical and other benefits.
02.27 Notices.
02.28 Authorization of insurance carriers.
02.29 Authorization of self-insurers.
02.30 Certificates of compliance.
02.31 Forms.

§ 02.21 Required forms; notice and claims. (a) The processes required by the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (including the application of such act by other acts extending the provisions of such act) are the filing with the deputy commissioner and the employer, by the employee or his dependents, of notice of injury or death, submitted in the form and manner specified in the act (33 U. S. C. 912), as implemented by the regulations (20 CFR 31.4, 41.3 and 51.1). Claim for compensation for injury or death must be filed, by the person claiming benefits, with the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which the injury occurred, within the time specified by the Act (33 U. S. C. 913, 919); such provision in respect to claims has been implemented by regulation (20 CFR 31.5, 41.4, 51.1, 51.3).

(b) The employer is entitled to notice of claim against him and is required to file answer to the claim (in duplicate); the employee is entitled to receive a copy of the answer (33 U. S. C. 919; 20 CFR 31.6, 41.5, 51.1).

(c) A person seeking a lump sum award of compensation should apply to the deputy commissioner upon a form which may be obtained from the deputy commissioner, observing the applicable provisions of the regulations (20 CFR 31.16, 41.15, 51.1). Such applications are subject to approval by the deputy commissioner and by the Bureau.

(d) A person seeking approval of a settlement agreed to with the employer, of the kind specified in the act (33 U. S. C. 908 (i)), should use the approved type of agreement form which the deputy commissioner will supply on application (20 CFR 31.25, 41.24, 51.1). Such agreement is subject to approval by the deputy commissioner and by the Bureau.

(e) Applications (1) for maintenance of an employee undergoing vocational rehabilitation, (2) for the furnishing of prosthetic appliances, (3) for medical examinations, and (4) for compensation from any special fund, should be made to the deputy commissioner. Such applications need not be made upon any particular form; they are subject to consideration by the deputy commissioner, and to subsequent approval by the Bureau.

§ 02.22 Required reports. Reports of injury and death (including supplementary reports) are required to be filed with the deputy commissioner by the employer (33 U. S. C. 930; 20 CFR 31.3, 41.2, 51.1, 51.3) in the manner stated in the act and in the regulations. Reports are required of physicians who render medical treatment or who examine claimants. If the employee suffers recurrence of disability, the employer is required to report the recurrence of subsequent disability.

§ 02.23 Processing of claims. (a) The deputy commissioners adjudicate claims under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (33 U. S. C. 919), in compensation districts established pursuant to such act. The deputy commissioner performs the quasi-judicial function of deciding the rights of private parties—the employee, or his dependents (as the claimant or claimants), and the employer, or employer and his insurance carrier (as respondent or respondents).

(b) Claims for compensation or for reimbursement of medical expenses (where the employer has failed or neglected to furnish medical care) are processed by the deputy commissioner, with or without the assistance of claims examiners in his office, by the verification of payments, and informal adjudicatory processes, in uncontested cases. Claims not subject to informal adjustment are processed by the deputy commissioner after pre-hearing conference (to afford amicable disposition of controversies, to narrow issues, and to simplify subsequent methods of proof), or after formal hearing provided for by the act (33 U. S. C. 919), implemented by regulations (20 CFR 31.8, 31.9, 41.7, 41.8, 51.1, 51.4).

(c) Formal proceedings are terminated by the filing of a compensation order containing findings of fact and award, or other order of the deupty commissioner (33 U. S. C. 919, 20 CFR 31.11, 31.12, 31.13, 41.10, 41.11, 41.12, 51.1).

§ 02.24 Review of decisions. Review of a compensation case by the deputy commissioner may be had as prescribed by the act (33 U. S. C. 922). The procedure outlined in the regulations requires an application to be filed in duplicate with the deputy commissioner stating the ground for review, which shall be supported by appropriate evidence (20 CFR 31.15, 41.14, 51.1). The procedure in respect to such application for review is the same as is prescribed for claims by the act and regulations. The act does not authorize review by the Bureau of the action upon a claim by the deputy commissioner; judicial review of such action is however authorized, and the manner thereof is specified (33 U. S. C. 921 (b)).

§ 02.25 Attorney's fees. The procedure in respect to persons representing claimants before the deputy commissioner and also in respect to attorney's fees is provided for by the act, and by regulation (33 U. S. C. 928; 20 CFR 31.20, 41.19, 51.1).

§ 02.26 Medical and other benefits. The obligation to furnish medical treatment is the direct obligation of the employer and not the United States (33 U. S. C. 907). If the employer fails to provide such treatment, after request by the employee, the injured employee may obtain necessary treatment at the expense of the employer. In such case, the physician furnishing the employee with treatment is required to furnish the employer with a report of the injury and treatment, within twenty days following the first treatment.

§ 02.27 Notices. The employer is entitled to a notice of claim for compensation filed against him (33 U. S. C. 919; 20 CFR 31.6, 41.5, 51.1). Notices of hearing are required (33 U. S. C. 919; 20 CFR 31.9, 41.8, 51.1). In case of default in payment of compensation, application may be made to the deputy commissioner for a supplementary order declaring the default, and notice in respect thereto is required (30 CFR 31.13, 41.12, 51.1). If an employer controverts the employee's right to benefits, notice thereof must be given upon the form prescribed by the Bureau; but if payment has begun without an award, notice thereof must be given to the deputy commissioner; if compensation is stopped or suspended, notice of that fact must be given to the deputy commissioner (33 U. S. C. 914). If an employee elects to sue a third party, instead of claiming compensation, notice of his election must be given to the deputy commissioner (33 U. S. C. 933).

§ 02.28 Authorization of insurance carriers. An applicant seeking authority to write insurance under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (or any other act extending that act) should apply directly to the Bureau at its central office in the manner stated in the appropriate part of the regulations. The procedure in respect to the authorization of insurance carriers is specified in 20 CFR, Chapter I, subchapter C, Part 32. Applicants granted authority to write insurance are furnished with certificates to such effect.

§ 02.29 Authorization of self-insurers. An applicant seeking to be granted the privilege of self-insurance under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (or any other act extending that act) should apply directly to the Bureau at its central office in the manner stated in the appropriate part of the regulations. The procedure in respect to the authorization of self-insurers is specified in 20 CFR, Chapter I, Subchapter C, Part 33. Applicants granted the privilege of self-insurance are furnished with certificates of compliance showing such fact. A form of application is supplied by the Bureau upon request.

§ 02.30 Certificates of compliance. Employers who comply with section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (or any extension of that act), either by obtaining an insurance policy or through the grant of the self-insurance privilege, are furnished with a certificate by the deputy commissioner pursuant to the applicable regulations (20 CFR, Chapter I, Subchapter C, Part 34).

US-201 Employee's first notice to Deputy Commissioner of accident or occupational disease.

02.82 Forms.

§ 02.81 General procedures. The procedure in respect to the benefit provisions, in so far as administration of the Act of December 2, 1942 (42 U. S. C. 1701) is concerned, is stated by regulations in detail in 20 CFR, Chapter I, subchapter F. Under such regulations claims may be filed directly with the Bureau or with a deputy commissioner or other designated officer and may be processed completely by the Bureau or completely or partially by the authorized field officers. In practice most claims are processed directly by the Bureau through its Claims Division, with supplementary actions by other divisions of the Bureau as a particular case may require, including final audit by the Audit and Accounting Division. The final authority in the Bureau in the approval of claims is the Director or Acting Director thereof. Hearings are not authorized by the applicable statute, and the adjudication of cases is upon written evidence as in other cases under the Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916. For further statement of procedures see § 02.3.

§ 02.82 Forms. Forms used in connection with the benefit provisions of the Act of December 2, 1942, are as follows:

CAEA-5 Dependent's Claim for Disbursement of Detention Benefits.
CAEA-12 Wife or Husband's Claim for Continued Disbursement of Detention Benefits.

SUBPART F—REIMBURSABLE INSURANCE CLAIMS

Sec.
02.91 General procedures.
02.92 Form.

§ 02.91 General procedures. Reimbursement of employers, insurance carriers, and compensation funds, for losses resulting from hazards of the war, is provided for in such Act of December 2, 1942 (42 U. S. C. 1704). The procedure in respect to reimbursement and the prerequisites of claims are set forth in detail by regulations in 20 CFR, Chapter I, subchapter F. Under such regulations claims may be filed directly with the Bureau. They are examined by the Audit and Accounting Division of the Bureau after verification by the Employees' Compensation Division of the General Counsel's Office, Federal Security Agency. Hearings upon such claims are not authorized by applicable statute. The final authority in the Bureau in the approval of such claims is the Director or Acting Director thereof.

U. S. R-1 Claim for Reimbursement of Benefit Payments and Claims Expense.

PART 03—STATEMENT RELATIVE TO SUBSTANTIVE RULES

The principal function of the Bureau and its subordinate parts is that of adjudicating claims for workmen's compensation. This function is quasi-judicial in character and involves the application of statutes and principles of law to resolved factual situations. The field of activity is within the specialized branch of the law generally referred to as "workmen's compensation". This branch of the law has its own particularized principles which have general applicability to workmen's compensation statutes (State and Federal), as such statutes have certain common or underlying similarity in respect to the meaning of terms and phrases, and in respect to scope, jurisdiction, and general basic concepts of employers liability.

In the administration of the several workmen's compensation laws within its jurisdiction, the Bureau has one general policy, which is to follow and to adhere to the principles of workmen's compensation law as stated in the opinions of the Supreme Court, the Federal Circuit Courts of Appeal, and the District Courts of the United States, as they may appropriately be applied in like situations arising under the laws administered by the Bureau. In addition, decisions and opinions of the judicial tribunals of the several States and Territories furnish principles of law of general applicability in the specialized field of workmen's compensation, which form part of the foundation of general principles relied upon in the application and interpretation of the several Acts administered by the Bureau. The Bureau applies the statute, applicable in respect to a particular case or situation, to the extent that the statute can readily be applied without extrinsic aid, but where such aid is necessary, the source thereof is the body of principles embodied in authoritative decisions of the courts within such well-recognized branch of the law.

Certain statutes administered by the Bureau (relating to military or quasi-military establishments) contain as the fundamental prerequisite to compensation that injury or death shall have occurred in the "line of duty",—a phrase not having a counterpart in workmen's compensation statutes. The policy of the Bureau in respect to such phrase is to follow the principles and interpretations in respect thereto as may be applied by the particular service in which the disabled or deceased individual served.

To the extent that any rule of substantive nature may appear in the published regulations of the Bureau, such regulations are made part of this statement relative to substantive rules.

For ready reference to such regulations, and to their scope, the following citations are given. The regulations appear in Title 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS, Code of Regulations, Chapter I.

Subchapter A—Regulations applicable to the Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916.

Subchapter B—Regulations applicable to extensions of such Act of September 7, 1916, providing the application of that Act to specific classes of persons, but with limitations upon the aggregate maximum amount of compensation.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 300.1 General. The Social Security Administration (see 45 CFR 1.21) includes the following Bureaus and offices which carry on activities relating to employment security, and the operation of the Federal-State system of unemployment insurance:

Bureau of Employment Security.
State Technical Advisory Service.
Bureau of Accounts and Audits.
Thirteen regional offices (see 45 CFR 1.21).

§ 300.2 Bureau of Employment Security. The Bureau of Employment Security is headed by a Director. In his absence or disability an Assistant Director acts for him. The Bureau's functions and activities include review of State laws and appraisal of State administration from the standpoint of conformity with Federal requirements and eligibility for grants and certification for tax credit; making recommendations to the Commissioner regarding funds needed for administration of State employment security programs; assistance to States in developing legislation, rules and regulations, interpretations and administrative procedures; and continuing evaluation of the operation and effectiveness of the employment security programs with a view to developing recommendations for improvements through Federal unemployment insurance legislation. Operating divisions in the Bureau are an Administrative Standards Division, a Fiscal Division, and a Program Division.

(a) Administrative Standards Division. The Administrative Standards Division is headed by a Chief, and has the following functions: Development of principles and guides applicable to the legislative, interpretative and administrative aspects of State unemployment insurance programs; review and appraisal of State laws and administration of State programs from the standpoint of conformity with Federal requirements and eligibility for grants and for certification for tax credits; assistance to States in improving State laws and operating methods; preparation of analyses and publication of decisions showing trends in appealed decisions on coverage and benefit payments; development of recommendations for Federal legislation; and maintenance of a reference service of State laws, procedural materials, forms, etc.

(b) Fiscal Division. The Fiscal Division is headed by a Chief, and has the following functions: Development of principles and procedures with respect to expenditures of funds by State agencies for administrative purposes and assistance to States in applying such principles and procedures; preparation of recommendations with respect to funds needed for administration of State employment security programs; development and application of principles and procedures for State merit systems; assistance to State agencies in developing and maintaining functional time and cost distribution systems; appraisal of State agency administration of the fiscal, business management and personnel aspects of their programs from the standpoint of eligibility for grants.

(c) Program Division. The Program Division is headed by a Chief, and has the following functions: Development of principles applicable to the problems of benefits, coverage, and contributions under the unemployment insurance program; study of the social, financial, and economic aspects of unemployment insurance and analysis of Federal legislative proposals, for the purpose of recommending improvements in the program; formulation of requirements and procedures for State statistical reporting and publication of nation-wide statistics related to unemployment insurance; preparation of work-load estimates for appraising State budgets; and assistance to States in meeting Federal reporting requirements and in conducting special research and statistical studies.

§ 300.3 State Technical Advisory Service. The State Technical Advisory Service is headed by a Chief. This division is responsible for assisting State agencies administering unemployment insurance programs in attaining conformity with the merit system requirements of the Social Security Act and achieving maximum economy and efficiency in the operation of personnel programs. It gives to State agencies technical assistance in formulating merit system rules and regulations, in establishing merit system organizations, in developing and maintaining classification and compensation plans, in establishing and operating State-wide merit system examination programs, and in installing internal personnel procedures. It reviews operations of State merit systems from the standpoint of continuing compliance with the requirements of Federal law.

§ 300.4 Bureau of Accounts and Audits. The Bureau of Accounts and Audits is headed by a Director. In his absence or disability, an Assistant Director acts for him. The Bureau's functions and activities in relation to employment security includes the audit of State expenditures for the administration of the employment security program; review of State unemployment compensation fund accounts for compliance with State law provisions conforming with sections 303 (a) (4) and (5) of the Social Security Act; and advice and service to the State agencies concerning accounting matters. Divisions of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits which perform functions relating to employment security are:

(a) Field Division. The Field Division is headed by a Chief, and has the following functions: Planning and direction of activities of regional audit staff; collaboration in the preparation of audit instructions; formulation of operating polices for field activities; and collaboration in the development of procedures for processing audit findings.

(b) Finance Division. The Finance Division is headed by a Chief and has the following functions: Collaboration in formulation of standards and preparation of instructions for conduct of audits; analysis of audit reports; review of appeals from audit findings; development of procedures for processing audit findings; and furnishing of constructive accounting services to State employment security agencies.

§ 300.5 Thirteen Regional Offices (see 45 CFR 1.21). Each regional office includes a representative of the Bureau of Employment Security, the State Technical Advisory Service, and the Bureau of Accounts and Audits. (In Alaska and Hawaii the Regional Director represents these three offices.)

(a) Regional Representative of Bureau of Employment Security. The Regional Representative of the Bureau of Employment Security represents the Bureau on all matters involved in the Federal-State employment security relationship; assists State agencies in meeting Federal requirements, in establishing procedures and in other problems related to the program; reviews and appraises State agency budget requests and makes recommendations regarding amounts needed for State administration; and reports on State administration and programs.

(b) Regional Representative of the State Technical Advisory Service. The Regional Representative of the State Technical Advisory Service, called Personnel Representative, provides advisory service to State merit system and employment security agencies on personnel laws and rules, merit system budgets, and practices in such field, as classification, compensation, examinations and personnel management functions; and conducts periodic reviews of State merit system administration covering all phases of personnel selection and retention in relation to merit system requirements of the Social Security Act.

(c) Regional Representative of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits. The Regional Representative of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits, called Regional Auditor, carries out the Bureau's program and instructions within the region; participates in rendering consultative service to State officials on fiscal matters; conducts fiscal audits of administrative expenditures of State employment security agencies; develops administrative information regarding State fiscal policies; participates in development and installation of improved fiscal practices in State agencies; and reviews State appeals regarding proposed exceptions.

SUBPART B—DELEGATION OF FINAL AUTHORITY

§ 300.6 Commissioner for Social Security (see 45 CFR 1.21). By delegation from the Federal Security Administrator, the Commissioner for Social Security has the following authorities in relation to employment security:

(a) Approval of State unemployment compensation laws meeting specified conditions; certification thereof to Secretary of the Treasury at year-end for normal tax credit purposes. (Section 1603 (a), (b), (c), and (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.)

(b) In relation to experience rating, findings and determinations as to State laws meeting specified conditions, certification to State agencies and to Secretary of the Treasury at year-end for additional tax credit purposes. (Section 1602 (a), (b), and (c) of the Internal Revenue Code.)

(c) In relation to grants to States for administration, (1) determination of purposes and amounts necessary, (2) certification of such amounts to Secretary of the Treasury for payment to each State (or under certain conditions for payment into Railroad Unemployment Insurance account), (3) findings and determinations that specified conditions to such certifications are met, (4) agreements with Postmaster General concerning the transmission of official mail matter by State agencies. (Sections 302 (a) and 303 (a), (b), and (c) of the Social Security Act; section 13 (d) of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act; and Appropriation Acts.)

(d) Hearings to State agencies on conditions affecting (1) certifications for normal tax credit purposes, (2) certifications for additional tax credit purposes, and (3) grants for administration. (Sections 1603 (c) and (d) and 1602 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and section 303 (b) and (c) of the Social Security Act.)

(e) Findings and certifications in connection with advances to States from Federal unemployment account in the Unemployment Trust Fund. (Section 1201 of the Social Security Act, as amended by the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act of 1944.)

(f) Determinations as to adequacy of services, information and facilities furnished by the United States Employment Service to State agencies. (Executive Order No. 9617, approved September 19, 1945.)

(g) In the administration of the Veterans Readjustment Allowance Program, (1) certification to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the States of amounts for administration as certified by the Veterans Administration, and (2) furnishing of services as requested by Veterans Administration. (Section 1100 (a), (b), (c), and (f) of the Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance Act of 1944.)

(h) Issuance of rules and regulations. (Sections 1102 and 1106 of the Social Security Act.)

SUBPART C—PLACES AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

§ 300.7 Information to Public. Information concerning employment security, including the Federal-State system of unemployment insurance, may be obtained by request in person or by letter at any of the regional offices or at the central offices of the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Administration, Washington, D. C.

§ 300.8 Public inspection of final opinions, orders, and rules. All final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules relating to employment security are available for public inspection, except that the Commissioner for Social Security may hold any such opinions, or orders or parts thereof confidential for good cause (See Regulation 1, 20 CFR, Part 401). Opinions and orders not held confidential (or copies thereof) and all rules may be inspected at any of the regional offices or at the central office of the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Administration, located at Washington, D. C. Requests to inspect at the central office must be submitted to the Director of the Bureau of Employment Security.

§ 300.9 Availability of official records. The record of any hearing held by the Commissioner for Social Security including transcripts of testimony, exhibits and all documents received in evidence or made part of the record of such hearing are official records.

Official records are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned upon written application to the Commissioner for Social Security, except that upon good cause found by the Commissioner (See Regulation 1, 20 CFR, Part 401), such records or parts thereof may be held confidential. Notice of denial of a request to inspect official records will be given promptly together with a statement of the reason for denial.

PART 310—ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

SUBPART A—APPROVAL, CERTIFICATION AND FINDINGS WITH RESPECT TO STATE LAWS FOR NORMAL AND ADDITIONAL TAX CREDIT AND GRANT PURPOSES

Sec.
310.1 General.
310.2 Approval of State laws.
310.3 Findings with respect to State laws.
310.4 Withholding payments and certifications.

SUBPART B—GRANTS, ADVANCES AND AUDITS

310.5 Grants for administration of unemployment insurance.
310.6 Request for funds for veterans' readjustment allowance program.
310.7 Grants for costs incurred for United States Employment Service.
310.8 Agreement with Postmaster General.
310.9 Advances to States.
310.10 Audits.

SUBPART A—APPROVAL, CERTIFICATION AND FINDINGS WITH RESPECT TO STATE LAWS FOR NORMAL AND ADDITIONAL TAX CREDIT AND GRANT PURPOSES

§ 310.1 General. State laws are approved and certified as provided in section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code; findings are made regarding reduced rates permitted by a State law (section 1602 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code) and such laws are certified as provided in section 1602 (b); findings are made regarding the inclusion of specified provisions (section 303 (a) of the Social Security Act) in State laws approved under section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Normal and additional tax credit is given to taxpayers against taxes imposed by section 1600 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Grants of funds are made to States for administration of their unemployment compensation laws if such laws meet required conditions of Federal law. Section 303 (a) of the Social Security Act and section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code).

§ 310.2 Approval of State laws. States may at their option submit their laws for approval (Section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code).

(a) Submission. The States submit to the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Employment Security four copies of the State law, one copy of which must be certified in the manner prescribed by law for proper certification of acts of the legislature and the other three copies properly certified by an authorized State official to be true and complete, together with a written request for approval.

(b) Review of State law. The Regional Representative reviews the State law and forwards three copies to the central office of the Bureau with his comments. The Bureau reviews the Regional Representative's comments and analyzes the State law from the standpoint of the requirements of section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Bureau Director makes recommendations to the Commissioner for Social Security regarding approval of the State law.

(c) Approval. The Commissioner for Social Security determines whether the State law contains the provisions required by section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the State law is approved, the Commissioner notifies the Governor of the State within 30 days of the submission of such law.

(d) Certification. On December 31 of each taxable year the Commissioner for Social Security certifies, for the purposes of normal tax credit (section 1601 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code), to the Secretary of the Treasury each State the law of which he has previously approved. (See also § 310.4.)

§ 310.3 Findings with respect to State laws. For purposes of grants, findings are made regarding the inclusion in State laws, approved under section 1603 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, of provisions required by section 303 (a) of the Social Security Act (see § 310.2); for purposes of additional tax credit, findings are made regarding reduced rates of contributions permitted by the State law (section 1602 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code).

So that the Commissioner for Social Security may be enabled to determine the status of State law, all relevant State materials, such as statutes, rules, regulations, interpretations, court decisions, etc., are required to be submitted currently. In addition, States are required to submit a monthly summary of such materials.

(a) Submission. The States submit currently to the Regional Representative four copies of relevant State material, properly certified by an authorized State official to be true and complete. In the case of statutes one copy must be certified in the manner prescribed by law for proper certification of acts of the legislature.

(b) Review. The Regional Representative reviews the State material and forwards three copies to the central office of the Bureau with his comments. The Bureau reviews the material from the standpoint of its conformity with section 303 (a) of the Social Security Act or section 1602 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the case may be. If questions are raised concerning such conformity, negotiations to resolve them are undertaken with State officials. Any questions then remaining unresolved are presented to the Commissioner with appropriate recommendations.

(c) Findings. The Commissioner makes findings as provided in the cited sections of the Federal law. In the event that the Commissioner is unable to make the findings required for certification for payment or for certification of the law for purposes of additional tax credit, further discussions with State officials are undertaken.

(d) Certification. Within 30 days after submittal of a State law for such purpose, the Commissioner certifies to the State agency, in accordance with the provisions of section 1602 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, his findings regarding reduced rates of contributions allowable under such law. On December 31 of each taxable year the Commissioner certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury the law of each State, certified with respect to such year under section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code (see § 310.2), which he finds allows reduced rates with respect to such taxable year only in accordance with the provisions of section 1602 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

With regard to certification for payment, see § 310.5.

§ 310.4 Withholding payments and certifications—(a) When withheld. Payments are not made where the provisions required by section 303 (a) of the Social Security Act are found no longer to be included in the State law. In addition, payments of funds to States and/or year-end certification of State laws are withheld, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, in the following circumstances as required by indicated statutory provisions:

(1) Where the State law has been so changed as no longer to meet the conditions required by Federal law (sections 1602 (b) (3) and 1603 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code); or

(2) Where in the administration of the State law there has been a failure to comply with required provisions of such law (section 303 (b) (2) of the Social Security Act and sections 1602 (b) (3) and 1603 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code); or

(3) Where in the administration of the State law there has been a denial, in a substantial number of cases, of benefits due under such law (section 303 (b) (1) of the Social Security Act); or

(4) Where a State fails to make its records available to the Railroad Retirement Board or fails to cooperate with Federal agencies charged with the administration of unemployment compensation laws (section 303 (c) of the Social Security Act).

(b) Informal discussion. Such hearings are generally not called, however, until after every reasonable effort has been made by regional and central office representatives to resolve the question involved by conference and discussion with State officials. Formal notification of the date and place of a hearing does not foreclose further negotiations with State officials.

(c) Notice of noncertification. If, at any time during the taxable year, the Commissioner for Social Security has reason to believe that a State whose law he sas previously approved may not be certified, he promptly notifies the Governor of the State to that effect (section 1603 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code).

(d) Hearings. Hearings are held pursuant to the provisions of section 303 (b) and (c) of the Social Security Act and sections 1602 (b) (3) and (c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(1) Notice of hearing is sent by the Commissioner for Social Security to the State employment security agency. The notice sets forth the purpose of the hearing and the time, date, and place at which the hearing will be held. At a hearing the State is given an opportunity to present arguments and all relevant evidence, written or oral. The Commissioner presides at hearings and makes the necessary determination or findings on the basis of the record of such hearings. A notice of the Commissioner's determination or finding is sent to the State employment security agency.

SUBPART B—GRANTS, ADVANCES, AND AUDITS

§ 310.5 Grants for administration of unemployment insurance. Grants of funds for administration of State unemployment insurance programs are made to States under section 302 (a) of the Social Security Act.

(a) Requests for funds. The forms and instructions used by State agencies in requesting funds are available upon request from the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Administration, Washington 25, D. C. and at the regional offices. The forms and instructions call for detailed information for each budgetary period concerning the specific amounts requested for personal services and other current expenses of State agencies, supported by work-load and unit-cost estimates. Supplementary budget requests are processed in the same manner as regular requests. The Bureau's representatives in the regional office furnish assistance to the State agencies in preparing requests for funds.

(b) Processing of requests. State agencies send their requests for funds to the Regional Representative of the Bureau who reviews the requests and forwards them to the central office of the Bureau with his recommendations as to the amounts necessary for proper and efficient administration of the State law.

The Bureau appraises the requests and the recommendations of the regional representatives from a nation-wide point of view, examining each State's request in the light of the experience of other States to insure equitable treatment among the States in the allocation of funds made available by Congress for the administration of State unemployment compensation laws. The request is then presented to the Commissioner with the recommendations of the Bureau.

(c) Action by Commissioner. If the Commissioner approves the State's budget request the State agency is notified; and, provided the conditions precedent to grants continue during the budgetary period, certifications for payment, under the approved budget, stating the amounts, are made by the Commissioner to the Secretary of the Treasury quarterly. Upon denial of a request, in whole or in part, the State agency is notified and the Bureau's Regional Representative is instructed to negotiate with the State with a view to removing the basis for denial.

§ 310.6 Request for funds for servicemen's readjustment allowance program. Allotments of funds for the administration of the servicemen's readjustment allowance program are made to States by the Commissioner for Social Security upon certification by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs under section 1100 (f) of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944. The Administrator of Veterans Affairs by agreement with the Commissioner for Social Security uses the services and facilities of the Bureau of Employment Security in activities pertaining to State employment security budgetary matters which involve the administration of servicemen's allowances.

(a) Request for funds. Requests for funds for administering the servicemen's readjustment allowance and unemployment insurance programs are integrated in one budget at the beginning of each budgetary period. The forms and instructions used by State agencies in requesting funds for this purpose are available upon request from the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and the regional offices. The forms and instructions require that the amount included for administration of servicemen's allowances be justified on the same basis as the request for unemployment insurance administrative funds. The Bureau's Regional Representative assists States in preparing the necessary information.

(b) Processing of requests. The integrated budget request is submitted to the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Employment Security. The State also sends a copy of the budget directly to the Veterans Administration. The Regional Representative sends a copy of this integrated budget request to the central office of the Bureau together with his recommendation. The budget request, insofar as it relates to the servicemen's allowance program, and the Regional Representative's recommendation are reviewed by the Veterans' Administration, which determines the funds needed by the State for administering the servicemen's readjustment allowance program.

(c) Certification for payment. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs certifies to the Commissioner for Social Security the amount to be allotted to each State, and the Commissioner in turn certifies the amount to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment under title V of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944. Allotments from the total amount approved for servicemen's allowance purposes are made to the State agency quarterly.

§ 310.7 Grants for costs incurred for United States Employment Service. The annual appropriation for the United States Employment Service includes authorization for that agency to transfer funds to the Social Security Administration to meet costs of premises, equipment, and services made available by State employment security agencies for the operation of local employment offices.

(a) Requests for funds. The forms and instructions used by State agencies in requesting funds for this purpose are available upon request from the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and the regional offices. The amounts requested are based on agreements reached for each budgetary period by the State employment security agency and the State United States Employment Service Director. The Bureau's Regional Representative assists States in preparing such requests.

(b) Processing requests. The State agency's requests are submitted to the Regional Representative as part of the State's integrated budget for administration of the unemployment insurance and servicemen's readjustment allowance programs. The signed agreement for the amount requested, together with the other budget documents, is forwarded to the central office of the Bureau. Upon receipt, the Bureau informs the central office of the United States Employment Service as to the amount involved and, upon approval by that office, it is included in the total amount certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Commissioner for Social Security for payment to the State agency for administration of its unemployment compensation law.

§ 310.8 Agreement with Postmaster General. The Social Security Administration and the Postmaster General have been directed by the Congress (Title II of the Labor-Federal Security Appropriation Act, 1947) to prescribe a mutually satisfactory procedure whereby official State employment security postal matter will be handled without the prepayment of postage. In lieu of such prepayments, the Social Security Administration periodically certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the Post Office Department the amount necessary to cover the cost of State agency mailings. The amount of payment is based on a formula agreed upon by the Social Security Administration and the Post Office Department.

§ 310.9 Advances to States. Title XII of the Social Security Act provides that if the balance in a State's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund falls below a level specified in the statute, the State employment security agency may apply to the Social Security Administration for an advance from the Federal Unemployment Account, such advance to be repaid by the State at such time as the State fund exceeds a stipulated amount.

Applications for advances are submitted by State agencies to the Regional Representative of the Bureau for transmittal to the central office of the Bureau. The Bureau reviews applications and makes appropriate recommendations to the Commissioner for Social Security. If the Commissioner finds that the prescribed conditions for the advance are met, he certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount to be transferred from the Federal Unemployment Account to the State's account in the Unemployment Trust Fund.

§ 310.10 Audits. As soon as practicable after the close of each budgetary period, or at other times as necessary, the books of account and records pertaining to employment security administration in each State are audited to determine whether the expenditures have been made for purposes and in amounts found necessary by the Commissioner for Social Security for proper and efficient administration of the State's unemployment compensation law.

(a) If the audit, as reviewed by the regional office, results in no exceptions, the agency is advised by letter of this result. If the regional office concurs in exceptions taken by the examining auditor, the State agency is given an opportunity within 15 days to concur in them or to submit additional facts for purposes of clearing the exceptions. If the agency's reply does not result in clearance of the exceptions by the regional office, the agency is given a further opportunity within 15 days to concur in the exceptions or to appeal to the Commissioner, giving a full statement of its reasons.

(b) The Commissioner upon consideration of an appeal determines whether (1) the exceptions are properly taken and replacement of the amount involved is required, or (2) the exceptions should be withdrawn. In either case the State agency is notified of the action taken.

Commissioner for Social Security.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 200.1 The Social Security Administration. (See 45 CFR, 1.21.) The Social Security Administration includes the following Bureaus and offices which carry on activities relating to public assistance, and the operation of the Federal-State system of public assistance:

Bureau of Public Assistance.
State Technical Advisory Service.
Bureau of Accounts and Audits.
Thirteen regional offices (see 45 CFR 1.21).

§ 200.2 Bureau of Public Assistance. The Bureau of Public Assistance is headed by a Director. In her absence or disability an Assistant Director acts for her.

The Bureau of Public Assistance was established as the operating unit concerned with the administration of Titles I, IV, and X of the Social Security Act, which provide for grants-in-aid to the States for old-age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind, respectively. Under Title VII of the Social Security Act, the Bureau of Public Assistance has responsibility for participating in studies and making recommendations as to the most effective methods of providing economic security through social insurance and as to legislation and matters of administrative policy concerning public assistance and related subjects. Under the 1947 Federal Security Agency Appropriation Act, the Bureau administers civilian war assistance.

The three assistance programs, old-age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind, are State-initiated and State administered. The Social Security Act stipulates certain minimum conditions which the State's plan for administering its public assistance programs must meet. If these conditions are met, the act requires that the plan be approved. The particular eligibility requirements within the limits of the Social Security Act, and amounts of payment, however, are prescribed by the State. When a State plan is submitted and approved, the State becomes eligible for Federal funds approximating half of the total cost of assistance payments to recipients and the cost of administration.

Through its regional representatives and the departmental staff the Bureau of Public Assistance reviews provisions and operation of State plans for these three special types of assistance to determine their initial and continuing conformity with the specifications of the Social Security Act. The Bureau reviews the State's request for Federal funds and recommends the amount to be granted each quarter as the Federal share of expenditures under each approved plan. The Bureau also collects and analyzes data on the operation of all forms of public assistance in the States and advises them on developing and improving the operation of their public assistance programs.

The Divisions of the Bureau are, an Operations Division, a Standards and Program Development Division, and a Statistics and Analysis Division.

(a) Operations Division. The Operations Division is responsible for directing all field activities including the administrative review of State operations, coordinating of all services that are furnished to the regional staff and the State public assistance agencies, review and analysis of State plans and supplementary plan material, computation of grants to the States, and preparation of materials on trends and progress of the public assistance programs.

(b) Standards and Program Development Division. The Standards and Program Development Division formulates policies and standards implementing the requirements of the Social Security Act, develops standard-setting materials in such areas as services necessary for the welfare of needy individuals, the determination of need and amount of assistance, organization and administrative practices, the health and medical aspects of public assistance, and State public assistance legislation. This Division also provides technical advice to the regional representatives and State agencies on these subjects, and prepares written materials for use by States and interested organizations on the maximum development of public assistance and related programs.

(c) Statistics and Analysis Division. The Statistics and Analysis Division is responsible for developing and supervising the statistical and research programs of the Bureau, formulating the procedures for collecting and analyzing the statistical and research data from the State public assistance programs, analyzing and estimating State and Federal expenditures for public assistance, and providing consulative services to State agencies on reporting requirements of the Act and on developing their own statistical and research programs.

§ 200.3 State Technical Advisory Service. The State Technical Advisory Service is headed by a chief. This Division is responsible for assisting State agencies administering public assistance programs in attaining conformity with the merit system requirements under the Social Security Act and achieving maximum economy and efficiency in the operation of personnel programs. It gives to State agencies technical assistance in formulating merit system rules and regulations, in establishing merit system organizations, in developing and maintaining classification and compensation plans, in establishing and operating State-wide merit system examination programs, and in installing internal personnel procedures. It reviews operations of State merit systems from the standpoint of continuing compliance with the requirements of Federal law.

§ 200.4 Bureau of Accounts and Audits. The Bureau of Accounts and Audits is headed by a Director. In his absence or disability, an Assistant Director acts for him. The Bureau's functions and activities in relation to public assistance include the audit of State expenditures for assistance and administration of the public assistance program; and advice and service to the State agencies concerning accounting and fiscal matters. Divisions of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits which perform functions relating to public assistance are:

(a) Field Division. The Field Division is headed by a Chief, and has the following functions: Planning and direction of activities of regional audit staff; collaboration in the preparation of audit instructions; formulation of operating policies for field activities; and collaboration in the development of procedures for processing audit findings.

(b) Finance Division. The Finance Division is headed by a Chief and has the following functions: Collaboration in formulation of standards and preparation of instructions for conduct of audits; analysis of audit reports; review of appeals from audit findings; development of procedures for processing audit findings; and furnishing of constructive accounting services to State public assistance agencies.

§ 200.5 Thirteen regional offices. (See 45 CFR, 1.21). Each regional office in the Continental United States includes a representative of the Bureau of Public Assistance, the State Technical Advisory Service, and the Bureau of Accounts and Audits. In Alaska and Hawaii the functions are performed by the Regional Director.

(a) Regional representative of the Bureau of Public Assistance. The regional representative of the Bureau of Public Assistance and his staff is the major point of contact by State public assistance agencies and by other interested persons for securing general information. Required reports, official documents, and other related communications are submitted through the regional offices. The regional public assistance staff is available at all times to the State agency for consultation and advice on any aspect of the State's administration of public assistance. The regional public assistance representative is also authorized to initiate discussion with State public assistance agencies on the content of any of the reports or other materials submitted by the State which raise questions because of lack of clarity or incompleteness and because of possible conflict with basic requirements of the Social Security Act.

The regional public assistance representative, in addition to advising with States on the application of Federal standards and requirements and on the improvement of the States' administration, is responsible for conducting a continuing review of State and local public assistance operations to determine compliance with the minimum requirements of the Social Security Act. The regional public assistance staff also furnishes technical assistance to State agencies in carrying out research and statistical programs and in the development of data needed for program planning and appraisal of operations.

(b) Regional representative of the State Technical Advisory Service. The regional representative of the State Technical Advisory Service, called Personnel Representative, provides advisory service to State merit systems and public assistance agencies and conducts periodic reviews of State merit system administration covering all phases of personnel selection and retention in relation to merit system requirements of the Social Security Act.

(c) Regional representative of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits. The regional representative of the Bureau of Accounts and Audits, called Regional Auditor, carries out the Bureau's program and instructions within the region; renders consultative service to State officials on fiscal matters; conducts fiscal audits of assistance and administrative expenditures of State public assistance agencies; develops administrative information regarding State fiscal policies; participates in development and installation of improved fiscal practices in State agencies; and reviews State appeals regarding proposed exceptions.

SUBPART B—DELEGATION OF FINAL AUTHORITY

§ 200.6 Commissioner for Social Security. (See also 45 CFR 1.21). By delegation from the Federal Security Administrator, the Commissioner for Social Security has the following authority in relation to public assistance:

(a) All powers and duties of the Administrator concerning public assistance, contained in the Social Security Act, Titles I, IV, VII, X, and XI, Social Security Act.

(b) Civilian war assistance: Administration of civilian war assistance program to provide temporary aid to certain citizens affected by the war, and to provide return transportation to the Philippines and Hawaii for civilian evacuees. (Pub. Law 549, 79th Cong.)

SUBPART C—PLACES AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

§ 200.7 Information concerning public assistance. Information concerning public assistance, or any of the functions for which the Bureau of Public Assistance is responsible, may be obtained by request in person or by letter at the regional offices of the Social Security Administration, or at the Washington, D. C. office, Third and Independence Avenue, S. W. Since the Bureau of Public Assistance exercises no authority with respect to determination of eligibility or amount of payment made by State public assistance agencies in individual cases, inquiries in such instances will be disposed of more expeditiously if addressed to the appropriate State public assistance agency.

§ 200.8 Public inspection of final opinions, orders, and rules. All final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules relating to public assistance are available for public inspection, except that the Commissioner for Social Security may hold any such opinions, or orders, or parts thereof confidential for good cause (See Regulation 1, 20 CFR, Chap. III, Part 401). Opinions and orders not held confidential (or copies thereof) and all rules may be inspected at any of the regional offices or at the central office of the Bureau of Public Assistance, Social Security Administration, located at Washington, D. C. Requests to inspect at the central office must be submitted to the Director of the Bureau of Public Assistance.

§ 200.9 Availability of official records. The record of any hearing held by the Commissioner for Social Security including transcripts of testimony, exhibits and all documents received in evidence or made part of the record of such hearing are official records.

Official records relating to public assistance are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned upon written application to the Director of the Bureau of Public Assistance, except that upon good cause found by the Commissioner (See Regulation 1, 20 CFR, Chap. III, Part 401) such records or parts thereof may be held confidential. Notice of denial of a request to inspect official records will be given promptly together with a statement of the reason for denial.

SUBPART A—APPROVAL OF STATE PLANS FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND CERTIFICATION OF GRANTS

Sec.
201.1 General.
201.2 Approval of State plans and amendments.
201.3 Grants.
201.4 Withholding certification.

SUBPART B—REVIEW AND AUDITS

201.5 Continuing review of State and local administration.
201.6 Public assistance fiscal audits.

SUBPART A—APPROVAL OF STATE PLANS FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND CERTIFICATION OF GRANTS

§ 201.1 General. The State plan is a comprehensive statement prepared by the State public assistance agency describing all pertinent aspects of its operations necessary for the Social Security Administration to reach a determination as to conformity with the specific requirements stipulated in the Social Security Act. The State plan sets forth the basic State laws enabling and limiting the administration of public assistance; a description of the agency's organization and functions; its rules and regulations governing personnel administration; policies, instructions, and interpretations with regard to eligibility conditions and methods of determining the amount of assistance; fiscal operations and procedures; and reporting and research activities. Detailed instructions and suggestions for the content and submission of the documents comprising the State public assistance plan are contained in form PA-502, "Guide for Submitting Basic Material Pertaining to State Public Assistance Plans."

§ 201.2 Approval of State plans and amendments. The set of documents setting forth the State's plan may be submitted as one plan covering the three types of assistance where the programs have a common basis of administration, or a separate plan covering any one of the three assistance programs. After initial approval by the Commissioner, all relevant changes such as new statutes, rules, regulations, interpretations, and court decisions are required to be submitted currently so that the Commissioner may determine the status of State plans for purposes of certification of grants from time to time.

(a) Submission. The State public assistance plan and revised plan material is submitted to the Bureau through the regional office. The States are encouraged to obtain consultation of the regional staff if the plan is in process of preparation or revision.

(b) Review. The regional public assistance representatives are responsible for preliminary review of State plans, and they also initiate discussion with the State agency on clarification of significant aspects of the plan material which come to their attention in the course of the preliminary review. The material is submitted to the Washington office with the regional representative's recommendations. In the Washington office, this review is completed to determine whether the plan material contains any provision inconsistent with the requirements of the Social Security Act. Concurrently, comments and suggestions, including those of consultants in specialized areas of public assistance administration, may be prepared for use by the regional representatives in negotiations with the State agency.

(c) Approval. The Bureau of Public Assistance is delegated the authority of initial approval of State plans or State laws as provided in titles I, IV, and X of the Social Security Act. Final authority has been reserved by the Commissioner. The Bureau advises the State public assistance agency through its regional representative of the approval of State plans or revisions or the need for clarifying information. A letter is sent to the State public assistance agency advising them of the disposition of the material submitted.

§ 201.3 Grants. To States with approved plans, grants are made each quarter for assistance and administration. The determination as to the amount of a grant to be made to a State public assistance agency is based upon three documents which contain the information required under the Social Security Act.

(a) Form and manner of submission—(1) Time and place. The estimate for public assistance grants for each quarterly period together with the State Fiscal Officer's certificate of available funds, are forwarded to the regional office 45 days prior to (i) July 1 in cases of annual submission, (ii) July 1 and January 1 in cases of semiannual submission, and (iii) the next succeeding budgetary period in cases of quarterly submissions. The State Fiscal Officer's certificates of available State funds usually submitted with the grant estimates may be submitted to cover a quarterly, semiannual, or annual period. The quarterly expenditure statement and any necessary supporting schedules are forwarded to the regional office within 20 days after the end of the quarter. Ordinarily, estimates for public assistance grants are submitted quarterly to the regional offices. However, States are permitted upon agreement with the Bureau of Public Assistance to submit estimates for grants at annual or semiannual rather than quarterly intervals.

(2) Description of forms. "Report of Estimated Expenditures and Funds to be Available," PA-101, PA-102, or PA-103 for old-age assistance, aid to dependent children, and aid to the blind, respectively, represents the State agency's estimate of the number of recipients to receive aid during each of the three months of the quarter. The forms also contain the estimated average assistance payment per recipient, and the estimated expenditures for assistance and administration, from which is computed the total estimates to be expended during the quarter. Estimated expenditures that exceed the Federal matching maxima for payments to individuals are not to be included in computing the Federal grant and are deducted from the total estimate. In addition, the report of the estimated expenditures indicates the amount of State and local funds appropriated and available for public assistance during the pertinent quarter.

In addition, the State agency must submit a certificate of the State Treasurer or other fiscal officer having custody or control of the State assistance funds, as to the amount of State funds (exclusive of any balance of assistance received from the Federal government) actually on hand and available for expenditure. If the amount of State funds, or State and local funds if localities participate in the program, shown as available for expenditures, is not sufficient to cover the State's proportionate share of the amount estimated to be expended, the certificate of the Fiscal Officer should contain a statement showing the source from which the amount of the deficiency is expected to be derived and the time when this amount is expected to be made available.

The third document submitted by the States is the quarterly statement of expenditures for each of the categories. This is an accounting statement of the disposition of the Federal funds granted for past periods, and reflects the adjustments necessary because the State's estimate for any prior quarter was greater or less than the amount which the State expended. The statement of expenditure also shows the share of the Federal government in any recovery of assistance from recipients and also expenditures not properly subject to Federal financial participation which are acknowledged by the State agency or have been revealed in the course of the fiscal audit.

(b) Review. The State's estimates are reviewed in the regional office by the regional office staff. The same procedure is followed in reviewing State estimates as is followed in the review of State public assistance plans (see § 201.2 (b)).

(c) Estimate of amount due and certification. Upon consideration and approval of the grant request, the Commissioner for Social Security estimates the amount to be paid to the States and certifies it to the Secretary of the Treasury for the ensuing quarter. Payment to the State is made by the Secretary of the Treasury at the beginning of each month of the quarter.

§ 201.4 Withholding certification—(a) When withheld. Certification of grants to States are withheld, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, in the following circumstances:

(1) When the State has changed the plan so as to impose any requirement prohibited in the Social Security Act, or when in the administration of the plan any such prohibited requirement is imposed, with the knowledge of the State agency, in a substantial number of cases; or

(2) If in the administration of the plan there is a failure to comply substantially with any provision required by the Act to be included in the plan. (Sections 4, 404, and 1004 of the Social Security Act.)

(b) Informal discussions. Such hearings are generally not called, however, until after reasonable effort has been made by regional and central office representatives to resolve the questions involved by conference and discussion with State officials. Formal notification of the date and place of hearing does not foreclose further negotiations with State officials.

(c) Hearings. Hearings are held in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 404, and 1004 of the Social Security Act and the Commissioner of Social Security presides. The requirements of sections 5 through 8 of the Administrative Procedures Act are observed in conducting these hearings.

(d) Notice of non-certification. After the hearing the Commissioner notifies the State agency that further payment will not be made to the State until the Commissioner is satisfied that such prohibited requirement is no longer imposed and that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until the Commissioner is so satisfied he makes no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such a State. (Sections 4, 404, and 1004 of the Social Security Act.)

SUBPART B—REVIEW AND AUDITS

§ 201.5 Continuing review of State and local administration. In order to provide a basis for determining that State welfare departments are adhering to Federal requirements and to the substantive legal and administrative provisions of their approved plans, the Bureau of Public Assistance conducts a continuing review of State and local administration.

The administrative review includes analysis of procedures and policies of State and local agencies and review of records of individual recipients. A sample of case records is read, and schedules are filled out for various types of cases, such as for approved applications, for cases active a year or more, and for rejected applications. If the review reveals cases in which there appears to have been an improper expenditure of Federal funds, the State agency is asked for further information. If the information the State submits is not sufficient to substantiate the payment, the State is asked to make an adjustment on its expenditure report.

§ 201.6 Public assistance fiscal audits. Semiannually, or at other times as necessary, the State public assistance agency claims for Federal funds are audited by the Social Security Administration to determine that the agency has properly reported its accountability for grants of Federal funds for public assistance; the amounts granted for Federal funds for assistance payments where actually disbursed to individuals who had been determined by the agency to be entitled to public assistance under the appropriate category; administrative expenditures claimed for Federal financial participation are proper under the Federal Act and State plan including State laws and regulations; amounts expended and used as the basis for claiming Federal funds under title I, IV, and X were not derived from other Federal sources or were not used as a basis for other Federal matching; and the share of the Federal government in any recovery was accurately and promptly adjusted with, or limited to, the Federal government.

If the audit results in no exceptions, the public assistance agency is advised by letter of this result. The general course for the disposition of exceptions resulting from audits involves the submittal of details of these exceptions to the State public assistance agency which then has an opportunity to concur in the exceptions or to assemble and submit additional facts for purposes of clearance. Provision is made for the State agency to appeal audit exceptions in which they have not concurred and which have not been deleted on the basis of clearance material. After consideration of a State agency appeal, the Commissioner advises the State agency of any expenditures in which the Federal government may not participate and requests it to include the amount as adjustments in a subsequent statement of expenditures. Expenditures in which it is found the Federal government may not participate and which are not properly adjusted through the State's claim will be deducted from subsequent claims made by the Social Security Administration to the State agency.

[SEAL] A. J. ALTMEYER,
Commissioner for Social Security.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 205.1 General. The Children's Bureau is a part of the Social Security Administration of the Federal Security Agency. (See 45 CFR 1.21.)

§ 205.2 Functions and divisions. The Children's Bureau is headed by a Chief. In her absence or disability the Associate Chief acts for her. The Children's Bureau has the following functions:

(a) To investigate and report upon all matters pertaining to the welfare of children and child life and to this end to conduct research and provide information and advisory service (39 Stat. 79, Ch. 73);

(b) To administer grants to the States under Ttitle V of the Social Security Act: Part 1. Maternal and child health services; Part 2, Services for crippled children; Part 3. Child welfare services. (Social Security Act 1935, 49 Stat. 620, as amended 1939, 53 Stat. 1360; 42 U. S. C., Chapter 7, and 1946, Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong.);

(c) To administer funds appropriated for Emergency Maternity and Infant Care—Appropriation for fiscal year ending June 30, 1947 (Pub. Law 549, 79th Cong.), and

(d) To cooperate with other American Republics under the program of the Interdepartmental Committee on Scientific and Cultural Cooperation; and the following divisions and services:

(e) General Bureau services. The Administrative Division handles the business management operations of the Bureau including its mailing service, distribution of publications, and central files. The State Audits Unit performs accounting work including field audits in connection with grants to the States administered by the Bureau. The Merit System Unit gives advisory service to the Division of Health Services and the Social Service Division and to State agencies on methods relating to the establishment and maintenance of personnel standards on a merit basis under Federal-aid programs administered by the Children's Bureau.

(f) Division of Reports. The Division of Reports provides information service related to the Bureau programs to the press, radio, magazines, and other public information media, serves as liaison for the Bureau with other Federal information offices, and issues Bureau publications and other informational material.

(g) Inter-American Unit. The Inter-American Unit promotes the exchange of information relating to children and services for children between agencies in the United States and international organizations and agencies in other countries. It conducts Children's Bureau cooperation with the American International Institute for the Protection of Childhood (Headquarters, Montevideo, Uruguay) on whose council the Chief of the Children's Bureau represents the Government of the United States as technical advisor. The Inter-American Unit provides consultation service on maternal and child health and child welfare to the other American Republics on request and directs programs of training in such fields for officials of such Republics under the program of the Interdepartmental Committee on Scientific and Cultural Cooperation of the Department of State (53 Stat. 654, 76th Cong. Ch. 115 and 53 Stat. 1290, 76th Cong. Ch. 616).

(h) Division of Statistical Research. The Division of Statistical Research provides statistical service to the Other Divisions of the Bureau and conducts statistical research relating to children, collects and analyzes current statistics from the State agencies relating to maternal and child health services, the emergency maternity and infant care program, services for crippled children, child welfare services, and juvenile delinquency, and analyzes statistics on maternal and child mortality, accidents to children, economic status of families and other factors affecting the well-being of children.

(i) Mental Health Unit. The Mental Health Unit includes on its staff a psychiatrist, psychiatric social-worker, and a psychologist. Under an interdivision committee headed by the Chief of the Children's Bureau, the Unit provides information and consultation services to the Divisions of the Bureau, to State agencies and other agencies, public and private, for the purpose of promoting the development and improvement of the mental health aspects of child health and child welfare programs and the development of diagnostic and treatment resources for children with behavior problems and for mentally retarded childen.

(j) Division of Research in Child Development. The Division of Research in Child Development conducts research on the health, growth, and development of children; develops standards for maternal and child care, for services for the health of mothers and children, and for equipment, hospitals, and other facilities needed for their care; and prepares reports on its research and publications on maternal and child care for parents, physicians and other health workers, and for health agencies public and private.

(k) Division of Health Services. The Division of Health Services has a director, an assistant director for maternal and child health, an assistant director for crippled children, a Nursing Unit, a Medical Social Unit, a Nutrition Unit, a Medical Care Administrative Methods Unit and other professional consultants. The functions of the Division of Health Services include the administration, under the supervision of the Chief and Associate Chief of the Bureau, of grants to States for maternal and child health services, for emergency maternity and infant care for the wives and infants of men in the lowest 4 pay-grades of the Armed Forces, and for services for crippled children; consultation service to the State health and crippled children's agencies on the development and operation of State plans for such services, and review of State plans in preparation for approval by the Chief of the Bureau.

(1) Social Service Division. The Social Service Division is headed by a director and has a director of special services and a director of field services, and a staff of special consultants on various types of social services for children. The Division conducts research, develops standards for service and gives information and advice directed toward improving the social well-being of all children and the provision of protection and care for children who are physically, mentally, or socially handicapped. The Division analyzes laws relating to the welfare of children and advises on the drafting of such legislation on the basis of standards developed in special fields. The Division prepares reports on its research and publications on social services for children for the use of social workers, public and private agencies, and community groups concerned with social services for children. The Social Service Division under the supervision of the Chief of the Children's Bureau, administers grants to the States for child welfare services under Title V, Part 3, of the Social Security Act as amended; develops jointly with the State public welfare agencies State plans for child welfare services for the protection and care of children who are homeless, dependent, neglected and in danger of becoming delinquent, in rural areas and in areas of special need; and reviews State plans for child welfare services in preparation for their approval by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

REGION I: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont. Medical director (plus New York), New York, N. Y. Child welfare consultant, Boston, Mass.

REGION II–III: New York, Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania. Medical director (excluding New York), Washington, D. C. Child welfare consultant (plus Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands), Washington, D. C.

(b) Health services. The Division of Health Services has representatives serving 8 regions including for each region a medical director, nursing consultant, medical-social consultant, and nutrition consultant. The regional medical director serves as director of the group of consultants in each region. Within their respective fields the consultants give consultation service to the State health agencies and the State crippled children's agencies on the extension and improvement of maternal and child health services, on the provision of care for the wives and infants of servicemen, and on the location and care of crippled children. The regional medical director is responsible for the conduct of negotiations with the heads of the State agencies with regard to the State plans submitted in requesting grants under the 3 programs administered by the Division.

(c) Child Welfare Services. The Social Service Division has a regional child welfare consultant in each of 11 regions. The regional child welfare consultants give consultation service to the State public welfare agencies on the program for child welfare services financed in part with Federal funds and to public and private agencies and community groups on the development, organization, and administration of State and local child-welfare programs and in regard to (1) foster care for children including institutional and foster family care; (2) licensing and supervising of children's institutions, child caring agencies, and foster homes; (3) day care services for children; (4) adoptions and care of children of illegitimate birth; and (5) measures for controlling juvenile delinquency, including juvenile courts, detention facilities, training schools and community programs for the prevention of juvenile delinquincy.

SUBPART B—DELEGATION OF FINAL AUTHORITY

§ 205.4 Delegation of authority. The Commissioner for Social Security has been delegated by the Federal Security Administrator all functions of the Children's Bureau and the Chief of the Children's Bureau and all functions of the Secretary of Labor under Title V of the Social Security Act as amended, providing for the administration of grants to States for maternal and child health services, services for crippled children, and child welfare services, except that the functions heretofore performed by the Children's Bureau in the Department of Labor shall continue to be performed through the Children's Bureau in the Social Security Administration.

SUBPART C—PLACES AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

§ 205.5 Places to secure information. Information concerning any of the functions for which the Children's Bureau is responsible may be obtained in person or by letter at the central office of the Bureau in Washington, D. C. or at the regional offices listed. (See 45 CFR 205.3.) A list of Children's Bureau publications is available on request. Single copies may be obtained from the Children's Bureau without charge so long as a supply for such distribution is available. Orders for the purchase of Bureau publications and subscriptions for its monthly publication, The Child, should be sent to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 205.6 Public inspection of final opinions, orders, and rules. All final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules are available for public inspection, except that the Commissioner for Social Security may hold any such opinions or orders or parts thereof confidential for good cause. Opinions and orders not held confidential (or copies thereof) and all rules may be inspected at any of the regional offices or at the central office of the Children's Bureau located at Washington, D. C. Requests to inspect at the central office must be submitted to the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

§ 205.7 Availability of official records. The record of any hearing held by the Commissioner for Social Security including transcripts of testimony, exhibits, and all documents received in evidence or made part of the record of such hearings are official records. Official records are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned upon written application to the Chief of the Children's Bureau, except that upon good cause found by the Commissioner for Social Security, such records or parts thereof may be held confidential. Notice of denial of a request to inspect official records will be given promptly together with a statement of the reason for denial.

SUBPART B—GRANT TO STATES

206.5 General.
206.6 Grants to States for maternal and child health services and emergency maternity and infant care.
206.7 Grants to States for services for crippled children.
206.8 Grants to States for child welfare services.

SUBPART A—RESEARCH, INFORMATION, AND ADVISORY SERVICE

§ 206.1 Research. Research studies are made by the research divisions of the Children's Bureau using their own staff and in cooperation with other agencies, public and private. Requests or recommendations for research are considered in relation to the Bureau's other research commitments and are approved by the Chief of the Children's Bureau when staff and funds are available. Studies to be made in any State are reported in the planning stage to the State agency operating in the field of the study. Schedules for studies are cleared by the Division of Statistical Research with the Bureau of the Budget.

Reports on research studies are presented in manuscript form to the agencies concerned and are issued as Bureau publications, in its monthly bulletin, The Child, or in scientific journals.

§ 206.2 Current statistics. Current statistics concerning children are collected through State agencies or through other cooperating agencies usually on forms provided by the Children's Bureau and in accordance with instructions developed in consultation with the cooperating agencies and technical advisory committees.

Current statistical analyses and reports are issued periodically on births, maternal, infant, and child mortality, maternal and child health services, emergency maternity and infant care for families of enlisted men in the armed forces, crippled children on State registers, services for crippled children, children receiving services from public welfare agencies and public institutions, personnel in public welfare agencies providing services for children, and juvenile court statistics.

§ 206.3 Development of standards. The Divisions of the Children's Bureau within their respective fields develop standards for the care of mothers and children, for equipment and facilities to be used in their care, for health and welfare services for children and for legislation benefitting children. Such standards are based on research findings and the experience of agencies serving children and are developed with the aid of professional leaders and advisory committees.

§ 206.4 Information and advisory service. The technical knowledge of the Bureau's staff, information obtained from research, and from reports of public and private agencies serving children, and the standards developed for maternal and child care, for services for children, and for legislation form the basis for its publications and for information and advisory service given by the Bureau.

Requests for information and advise from individuals or agencies are answered by interview, correspondence, publications, and consultation service.

SUBPART B—GRANTS TO STATES

§ 206.5 General. The Children's Bureau under authority delegated by the Federal Security Administrator and the Commissioner for Social Security, administers grants to States for maternal and child-health services, services for crippled children, and child-welfare services under Title V, Parts 1, 2, and 3 of the Social Security Act as amended (49 Stat. 629, Ch. 531, Pub. Law 271; 53 Stat. 1360, Ch. 666 Pub. Law 379; and Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong.) and under appropriations for emergency maternity and infant care for wives and infants of men in the lowest 4 pay grades of the armed forces and army aviation cadets. (Pub. Law 549, 79th Cong.) For regulations see CFR 42, Ch. II, Parts 200, 201, 202, 203, and 204.

§ 206.6 Grants to States for maternal and child health services and emergency maternity and infant care. Annual appropriations are made for grants to State health agencies for the purpose of enabling each State to extend and improve services for promoting the health of mothers and children especially in rural areas and areas suffering from economic distress. Annual appropriations are made for emergency maternity and infant care to provide, in addition to similar services otherwise available, medical, nursing, and hospital maternity and infant care for wives and men of the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh pay grades in the armed forces of the United States and of army aviation cadets.

(a) Apportionment of funds. The Chief of the Children's Bureau makes an apportionment to the States of the annual appropriation for maternal and child-health services in accordance with the terms of Section 502 of the Social Security Act as amended allowing for each State $35,000 and such part of $5,500,000 as the number of live births bears to the total number of live births in the United States in the latest calendar year for which statistics are available (MCH Fund A—State matching required); and an apportionment from $5,500,000 according to the financial need of each State for assistance in carrying out its State plan as determined after taking into consideration the number of live births in such State (MCH Fund B—State matching not required).

The Chief of the Children's Bureau makes an apportionment to the States of the annual appropriation for State expenses for administering emergency maternity and infant care in accordance with the terms of the appropriation act on the basis of need as determined by the Chief of the Children's Bureau (EMIC Fund E).

(b) Approval of State plans and revisions. The Children's Bureau submits to the State health agencies an Information Circular entitled "Instructions to Official State Agencies with regard to plans for Maternal and Child Health Services Under the Social Security Act, as amended, and Emergency Maternity and Infant Care Program" which calls for the following:

Part 1: A permanent MCH State plan file including laws and regulations basic to the plan and merit system material.

Part 2: An outline of basic plan material for the development of a program for a five-year maternal and child health State plan.

Part 3. Material needed annually as a basis for determining that conditions are met for allotment of funds under the provisions of Title V, Part 1, of the Social Security Act, as amended

Part 4: Instructions for preparation of maternal and child health budgets for the current fiscal year.

The forms provided for the State plans include MCH 1—Certificate of Executive Officer of State Health Agency; MCH 7a—Certificate of State Attorney General as to Legality of State Plan; MCH 8—Quarterly Estimate of Proposed Expenditures; EMIC 8—Monthly Report and Request for Fund E; Joint Budget Form 3—Master Budget for Health Services—Summary of Budget Totals; Joint Budget Form 3a—Budget for Health Services; and Joint Budget Form 3b—Revision of Budget for Health Services.

Joint Budget forms used in State plans have been adopted jointly for the use of State health agencies by the United States Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau. They are made out in accordance with "Instructions for Use of Joint Budget Forms Effective July 1, 1946."

Each State health agency sends its State plan for maternal and child health services, including its Emergency Maternity and Infant Care plan, in triplicate, and 4 copies of the quarterly estimate of expenditures on Form MCH 8 in quadruplicate, to the regional medical director of the Children's Bureau who forwards the original plan and one copy each of the plan and quarterly estimate to the Assistant Director for Maternal and Child Health of the Division of Health Services and a copy of the plan and 2 copies of the quarterly estimate of expenditures to the State Audits Unit.

The plans are reviewed by the regional medical, nursing, medical-social, and nutrition consultants. The budget is reviewed by the State Audits Unit. The regional medical director recommends approval or modification to the Assistant Director and Director of the Division of Health Services. Any questions that arise concerning the conformity of the State plan to the requirements of the Social Security Act and policies of the Children's Bureau are negoitated by the regional medical director with the State health agency, and, if necessary, the plan or the budget is modified and resubmitted. The division director recommends approval of the plan to the Chief. The plan is approved and signed by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

Revisions of the State plan are submitted and proceed through the same process of review and approval. To the regional medical director has been delegated by the Chief of the Children's Bureau authority to approve revisions of the MCH plan and budget as submitted by State agencies if these documents do not propose any substantial departures from the annual plan as approved. Revisions involving substantial changes in program in the Maternal and Child Health plan are reviewed, considered, and approved according to the procedure for the annual plan.

The material submitted for the annual State plan for the fiscal year 1947 includes the request for the extension of the Emergency Maternity and Infant Care 1946 plan through the succeeding year. This plan was adopted under similar procedure of submission and review and in accordance with the administrative policies, Emergency Maternity and Infant Care program (EMIC information Circular No. 1).

If an annual State plan cannot be completed prior to the beginning of the fiscal year and the balance of funds from previous allotments is sufficient to cover the cost of the operation of the program a request for extension of the previously approved plan may be submitted. Such a request proceeds through the same process of submission, review, and approval as the annual plan. The annual plan subsequently submitted contains all budget items carried during the period of extension.

(c) Allotments, quarterly estimates, and payments. After the approval of a State plan the Chief of the Children's Bureau sends a notice of the approval to the Commissioner of Social Security who makes the allotment of funds and provides for payments to the States by signing the following 3 documents: (1) the annual allotment of maternal and child health funds to the State in accordance with the approved apportionment from MCH Fund A and the quarterly allotment from MCH Fund B in acoordance with funds requested in the State plan as approved; (2) the estimate for the first quarter's payment based on the State quarterly estimate of expenditure submitted with the State plan; and (3) the voucher for the first payment certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

MCH Fund A allotments are made at the beginning of the fiscal year for the full amount of the apportionment. MCH Fund B allotments are made quarterly within the approved budget on the basis of needs shown in the quarterly estimate of expenditure submitted by the State agency taking into consideration unobligated balances on hand at the end of the preceding fiscal year.

EMIC Fund E allotments for State administration are made quarterly on the basis of estimates submitted by the States within the total of the approved annual budget (Form MCH 8 Quarterly Estimate of Proposed Expenditures).

EMIC Fund E allotments for care of mothers and infants are made monthly on the basis of monthly reports of obligations incurred and unliquidated obligations which are submitted monthly by the State Health Department (EMIC 8 Monthly Report and Request for Fund E).

Subsequent quarterly and special interim allotments, estimates, and vouchers are similarly submitted to the Commissioner for Social Security who indicates his approval by signing the documents submitted.

The vouchers for payments to the States as certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau and the Commissioner for Social Security are listed on a schedule of disbursements which is sent with the vouchers to the Secretary of the Treasury as the basis for payments to the States.

(d) Review of operation and consultation service. For purposes of information on the operation of the State plan reports are submitted by the State public health agencies to the Children's Bureau.

Financial reports on State maternal and child health services include reports on the following forms: Joint Financial Report Form 11 Quarterly Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of Funds for Health Services; Joint Financial Report Form 11.1 Summary of Expenditures by Budget Total (Quarterly); Joint Financial Report Form 11.3 Detail—Expenditure by Budget Item (Annual); Joint Financial Report Form 11.4 Certificate of Executive Officer on Amounts Reported on Forms 11.1 and 11.3 (Annual); and Joint Financial Report Form 11.5 List of Unliquidated Obligations (Submitted with financial reports for the fourth quarter.)

Reports on maternal and child health services are made on the following forms: MCH–51 Quarterly Statistical Report on Maternal and Child Health Services; and MCH–53 Annual Report on Certain Maternal and Child Health Services. A form for a report submitted on the option of the State health agency is provided entitled Report of Public Health Personnel, Facilities, and Services to be submitted Annually to the United States Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau. States using the optional report form include data so gathered in the annual report on form MCH 53.

The following reports on the Emergency Maternity and Infant Care Program are made by the State health agencies on the following forms: EMIC–8 Monthly Report and Request for Fund E (Monthly); EMIC–51 Report on Cases Completed under the Emergency Maternity and Infant Care Program (Quarterly); and EMIC–5 Report on Extent of Complete Maternity Care Provided by Attending Physicians. (In case a State elects to pay for maternity care on a case basis this report is submitted monthly for 3 months and, if State is then authorized to pay on a case basis, at end of the third month of authorized operation and every 6 months thereafter.)

The regional medical, nursing, medical-social, and nutrition consultants at intervals visit each State health agency and confer with the State health officer, the maternal and child-health director and other members of the staff on the operation of the State plan, problems that have arisen, standards of quality and service, and ways of extending and improving health services for mothers and children. With the State staff, visits are made to local health departments, clinics, hospitals, and other facilities used under the program. Special consultation service from the headquarters staff of the Children's Bureau is given on request.

Occasionally, the regional staff team together with special consultants from the headquarters staff of the Division of Health Services makes a joint administrative review of the operation of the State plan.

(e) Audit of expenditures. Annual audits by Children's Bureau field auditors from the State Audits Unit are made on a test or detail basis, depending on auditor's findings, of expenditures for the previous year under the State Maternal and Child Health and Emergency Maternity and Infant Care plan from Federal funds and State, local, and private funds used for matching expenditures from Federal funds under the maternal and child health program (MCH FUND A). Advice is given State officials on the keeping of accounts relating to the budgets and financial reports under the State plan.

(f) Withholding of Federal payments. Under section 505 of the Social Security Act as amended in the case of any State plan for maternal and child health services which has been approved by the Chief of the Children's Bureau, if the Commissioner for Social Security, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency administering or supervising the administration of such plan, finds that in the administration of the plan there is a failure to comply substantially with any provision required by section 503 of the act to be included in the plan, he shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State until he is satisfied that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until he is so satisfied he shall make no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such State.

(1) Hearings. At hearings held as required under section 505 of the Social Security Act as amended, the Commissioner for Social Security presides and the hearings are conducted in accordance with sections 5 and 7 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 206.7 Grants to States for services for crippled children. Annual appropriations are made for grants to State crippled children's agencies for the purpose of enabling each State to extend and improve (especially in rural areas and in areas suffering from severe economic distress) services for locating crippled children, and for providing medical, surgical, corrective, and other services and care, and facilities for diagnosis, hospitalization, and aftercare for children who are crippled or who are suffering from conditions that may lead to crippling.

(a) Apportionment of funds. The Chief of the Children's Bureau makes an apportionment of the annual appropriation for services for crippled children in accordance with the terms of section 512 of the Social Security Act as amended allowing for each State $30,000 and part of the remainder of $3,750,000 according to the need of each State as determined after taking into consideration the number of crippled children in such State in need of such services and the cost of furnishing services to them (CC Fund A—State matching required); and an apportionment from $3,750,000 according to the financial need of each State for assistance in carrying out its State plan after taking into consideration the number of crippled children in such State in need of the services and the cost of furnishing services to them (CC Fund B—State matching not required).

(b) Approval of State plans and revisions. The Children's Bureau submits to the State crippled children's agencies an Information Circular entitled "Instructions to Official State Agencies with Regard to Plans for Services for Crippled Children, Under the Social Security Act, as amended."

The State agencies submitted for the fiscal year 1945 a complete descriptive plan for services for crippled children showing how the purposes of Title V, Part 2, of the Social Security Act are to be carried out and its requirements met. Each year subsequently the State agencies have submitted a request for the extension of the 1945 plan together with changes, supplementary information, a reaffirmation that the requirements of the Social Security Act as amended will be met, and an annual budget showing Federal and State funds to be used for the program and the proposed expenditures.

The forms provided for State plans include CC 1 Certificate of Executive Officer of Official State Agency; CC 5 Estimate of Funds from Private Sources; CC 7A Certificate of State Attorney General as to Legality of State Plan; CC8 Quarterly Estimate of Proposed Expenditures; Joint Budget Form 3—Master Budget for Health Services—Summary of Budget Totals; Joint Budget Form 3a—Budget for Health Services; and Joint Budget Form 3b—Revision of Budget for Health Services. Joint budget forms adopted for the use of State health agencies by the United States Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau are used for State crippled children's programs. They are made out in accordance with "Instructions for Use of Joint Forms, effective July 1, 1946."

Each State crippled children's agency sends its State plan for services for crippled children in triplicate and 4 copies of the quarterly estimate of expenditures to the regional medical director of the Children's Bureau who forwards the original plan and one copy of the quarterly estimate of expenditures to the assistant director for Crippled Children of the Division of Health Services and a copy of the plan and 2 copies of the quarterly estimate of expenditures to the State Audits Unit.

The plans are reviewed by the regional medical, nursing, medical-social, and nutrition consultants. The budget is reviewed by the State Audits Unit. The regional medical director recommends approval or modification to the assistant director for crippled children and the director of the Division of Health Services. Any questions that arise concerning the conformity of the State plan to the requirements of the Social Security Act are negotiated by the regional medical director with the State crippled children's agency, and, if necessary, the plan or the budget is modified and resubmitted. The plan is approved and signed by the Chief of the Children's Bureau. The division director recommends approval of the plan.

Revisions of the State plan are submitted and proceed through the same process of review and approval. To the regional medical director has been delegated by the Chief of the Children's Bureau authority to approve budget revisions of the plan and revisions to the annual State plan as submitted by State agencies if these documents do not propose any substantial departures from the annual plan as approved. Revisions involving substantial changes in program in the Crippled Children's plan are reviewed, considered, and approved according to the procedure for the annual plan.

If an annual State plan cannot be completed prior to the beginning of the fiscal year and the balance of funds from previous allotments is sufficient to cover the cost of the operation of the program a request for extension of the previously approved plan may be submitted. Such a request proceeds through the same progress of submission, review, and approval as the annual plan. The annual plan subsequently submitted contains all budget items carried during the period of extension.

Upon the approval of a State plan or a revision of a State plan a notice of such approval is sent by the approving official to the head of the State crippled children's agency.

(c) Allotments, quarterly estimates, and payments. After the approval of a State plan the Chief of the Children's Bureau sends a notice of the approval to the Commissioner of Social Security who makes the allotment of funds and provides for payments to the States by signing the following 3 documents: (1) the annual allotment of funds for services for crippled children to the State in accordance with the approved apportionment of funds from CC Fund A and the quarterly allotment from CC Fund B in accordance with funds requested in the State plan as approved; (2) the estimate for the first quarter's payment based on the State quarterly estimate of expenditure submitted with the State plan; and (3) the voucher for the first payment certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

Allotments for CC Fund A are made on the basis of estimated needs of the States but the first allotment each year is in an amount not less than $30,000. Allotments for CC Fund B are made on the basis of estimates submitted quarterly by the State agency taking into consideration unexpended balances in the States.

Subsequent quarterly and special interim allotments, estimates, and vouchers are similarly submitted to the Commissioner for Social Security who signifies his approval by signing the documents submitted.

The vouchers for payments to the States as certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau and the Commissioner for Social Security are listed on a schedule of disbursements which is sent with the vouchers to the Secretary of the Treasury as the basis for payments to the States.

(d) Review of operation and consultation service. For purposes of information on the operation of the State plan reports are submitted to the Children's Bureau by the State crippled children's agencies.

Financial reports on State services for crippled children include reports on joint financial report forms as listed for financial reports under grants to States for maternal and child health services (§ 206.6 (d)).

Reports on services for crippled children are made on the following forms: CC 51—Quarterly Statistical Report of Services for Crippled Children; CC 52—Quarterly Report—Children on State Registers; and CC 55 (Special report) Crippled Children on State Register as of December 31—Age, Race, Sex; Diagnosis and Age.

Annual Progress Reports for Services for Crippled Children under the Social Security Act, Title V, Part 2, not called for since the fiscal year 1941, will again be submitted annually.

State crippled children's agencies are asked to report at the close of each year information regarding (1) the unduplicated count of crippled children who have received service during the year and (2) the fotal amount expended for crippled children's srevices for the calendar year.

The regional medical, nursing, medical-social, and nutrition consultants at intervals visit each State crippled children's agency and confer with the executive officer of the agency, the director of services for crippled children, and other members of the staff on the operation of the State plan, problems that have arisen and ways of extending and improving services for crippled children. Together with the State staff visits are made to local health departments, clinics, hospitals, and other facilities used in the program. Special consultation service from the headquarters staff of the Children's Bureau is given on request.

Occasionally, the regional staff team, together with special consultants from the headquarters staff of the Division of Health Services, makes a joint administrative review of the operation of the State plan for services for crippled children.

(e) Audit of expenditures. Auditors from the State Audits Unit visit each State crippled children's agency to make an audit on a test or detail basis, depending on auditor's findings, of expenditures for the previous year under the State plan for services for crippled children from Federal funds and State, local and private funds used for matching Federal funds under the crippled children's program (CC Fund A). Advice is given to State officials on the keeping of accounts and records relating to the budgets and financial reports under the State plan for services for crippled children.

(f) Withholding of Federal payments. Under sec. 515 of the Social Security Act as amended in the case of any State plan for services for crippled children which has been approved by the Chief of the Children's Bureau, if the Commissioner of Social Security, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State agency administering or supervising the administration of such plan, finds that in the administration of the plan there is a failure to comply substantially with any provision required by section 513 to be included in the plan, he shall notify such State agency that further payments will not be made to the State until he is satisfied that there is no longer any such failure to comply. Until he is so satisfied he makes no further certification to the Secretary of the Treasury with respect to such State.

(1) Hearings. At hearings held as required under sec. 505 of the Social Security Act as amended, the Commissioner for Social Security presides and the hearings are conducted in accordance with sections 5 and 7 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 206.8 Grants to States for child welfare services. Annual appropriations are made for grants to State public welfare agencies for the purpose of enabling the United States, through the Children's Bureau, to cooperate with State public-welfare agencies in establishing, extending, and strengthening, especially in predominantly rural areas, child welfare services for the protection and care of homeless, dependent, and neglected children, and children in danger of becoming delinquent

(a) Apportionment of funds. The Chief of the Children's Bureau makes an apportionment of the annual appropriation for child welfare services in accordance with the terms of Section 521 of the Social Security Act as amended allowing for each State $20,000 and the remainder of $3,500,000 to each State on the basis of State plans for child welfare services not to exceed such part of the remainder as the rural population of such State bears to the total rural population of the United States.

(b) Approval of State plans and revisions. The Children's Bureau transmits to the State public welfare agencies each year an Information Circular entitled, "Instructions to State Public Welfare Agencies in Regard to Official Material (Annual Plan, Revisions, Quarterly Estimates, and Quarterly and Annual Reports of Expenditures) Required in the Administration of Child Welfare Services." The plan material includes a narrative description of the current State child welfare program and of proposed activities for which the Federal funds are to be used and a budget for the expenditure of Federal funds. The forms provided for State plans include CWS 1 Certificate of Executive Officer of State Public-Welfare Agency; CWS 2 State Plan for Child Welfare Services (State services); CWS 2a State Plan for Child Welfare Services (Local services); CWS 3 Budget for Child Welfare Services included Under State Plan—Summary; CWS 3.1 and CWS 3.2 Budget for Child Welfare Services—State Services for Assisting Community Child Welfare Organization; CWS 3.3 Budget for Child Welfare Services—State or Local Child Welfare Services (Areas of Special Need or Rural Areas); CWS 4a Certificate of Attorney General as to Legality of Plan; CWS 8 Quarterly Estimate of Proposed Expenditures; CWS 9 and 9a State and Local Child Welfare Services—Revision of Annual Plan and Budget.

The State plan is developed jointly by the State agency staff and the regional child welfare consultant of the Children's Bureau.

Each State agency sends its annual plan in triplicate and 4 copies of the estimate of expenditures for the first quarter to the regional child welfare consultant who forwards the original plan and one copy of the State plan and 3 copies of the quarterly estimate to the Director of Field Service of the Social Service Division. One copy of the plan and 2 copies of the quarterly estimate are sent to the State Audits Unit.

The plan is reviewed by the regional child welfare consultant. It is also reviewed in the office of the Director of Field Service for conformity to statutory and administrative requirements. The budget is reviewed by the State Audits Unit. The plan may be reviewed by special consultants of the Social Service Division or of other divisions in the Children's Bureau if it contains special projects within their fields, by the Merit System Unit if new or revised merit system material is submitted, and by the Solicitor if new legislation is submitted which affects the authority of the State agency to cooperate with the Children's Bureau. Any questions that arise concerning the plan are taken up with the State agency by the regional child welfare consultant and, if necessary, the plan is modified. The Director of Field Service examines the plan and makes a recommendation to the Director of the Social Service Division regarding action to be taken. When the plan is acceptable, the Director of the Division recommends approval and the plan is sent to the Chief of the Children's Bureau. After reviewing the plan, the Chief approves the plan by signing the original copy. A letter informing the State agency of the approval then is sent over the signature of the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

Revisions to the plan may be submitted during the year and proceed through the same process of review and approval as the plan.

If an annual State plan cannot be completed prior to the beginning of the fiscal year and the balance of funds from previous allotments is sufficient to cover the cost of the operation of the program a request for extension of the previously approved plan may be submitted. Such a request proceeds through the same process of submission, review and approval as the annual plan. The annual plan subsequently submitted contains all budget items carried during the period of extension.

(c) Allotments, quarterly estimates, and payments. After the approval of a State plan the Chief of the Children's Bureau sends a notice of approval to the Commissioner for Social Security who makes the allotment of funds and provides for payments to the States by signing the following 2 documents: (1) The annual allotment of funds for child welfare services to the State in accordance with the approved apportionment of funds; and (2) the voucher for the first quarterly payment certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

The allotment made is for the entire fiscal year and for the maximum fund available under the apportionment.

Subsequently vouchers for quarterly payments to each State are submitted to the Commissioner for Social Security who indicates his approval by signing the document.

The vouchers for payments to the States as certified by the Chief of the Children's Bureau and the Commissioner for Social Security are listed on a schedule of disbursements which is sent with the vouchers to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment.

(d) Review of operation and consultation service. For purposes of information on the operation of the State plan reports are submitted by the State public health agencies to the Children's Bureau.

The following financial reports are submitted quarterly: CWS 11—Statement of Receipts and Expenditures; CWS 11.1—Summary of Expenditures by Budget Total; and CWS 11.3—List of Unliquidated Obligations. The following annual financial reports are submitted: CWS 11.1—Summary of Expenditures by Budget Total; CWS 11.2—Detail of Expenditures by Budget Item; CWS 11.2—Supplemental Sheet, Supplemental report on indirect participation; and CWS 11.4—Certificate of Executive Officer of State Public Welfare Agency on amounts reported on Forms CWS 11.1 and 11.2.

The following reports on child welfare services under the State plan are submitted by each State public welfare agency: CWS 51—Report on Service to Individual Children (Quarterly); CWS 51a—Statement on Coverage of Current Service Report CWS 51 (Quarterly); CWS 60—Personnel in the Child Welfare Program (Annual); CWS 70—Annual Report on Characteristics of Children Receiving Service; and CWS 71—Annual Report on Children Receiving Service from Institutions.

The regional child-welfare consultants visit each State public welfare agency periodically and confer with the State welfare administrator, the child welfare director and other members of the staff on the operation of the State plan, problems that have arisen, and ways of extending and strengthening State and local child-welfare services. With the State staff, visits are made to local units, district offices of the State agency or State children's institutions where services are being provided through the use of child-welfare services funds. Through arrangement by the regional consultant, special consultants on the staff of the Children's Bureau such as the consultant on foster care, the consultant on group work, the staff of the Mental Health Unit may provide special service to a State to aid in improving the child welfare program.

(e) Audit of expenditures. Annual audits by Children's Bureau field auditors from the State Audits Unit are made on a test or detail basis, depending on auditors findings, of expenditures from Federal funds for the previous year under the State plan for child welfare services. Advice is given State officials on the keeping of accounts relating to the budgets and financial reports under the State plan.

§ 1.2 Delegations of authority. (a) Final authority of the Federal Security Administrator is delegated:

(1) To the Commissioner, Associate Commissioner, and Assistant Commissioners of the Food and Drug Administration, to make determinations of probable cause contemplated by section 304 (a) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 334 (a)).

(2) To officers of Stations of the Food and Drug Administration, to determine whether articles offered for import are in compliance with the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and the Federal Caustic Poison Act. Decisions by such officers are subject to review successively by the Chief of Districts, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, and the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency.

(3) To the Commissioner of Food and Drugs and to any other officer or employee of the Food and Drug Administration whom he may designate to act on his behalf for the purpose, to make determinations with respect to disclosure of official records and information in accordance with § 1961 (c) of this chapter.

(b) Final authority of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs is delegated:

(1) To Arnold J. Lehman, Bert J. Vos, Jr., and R. Lorimer Grant, to sign on behalf of the Commissioner certificates issued by the Food and Drug Administration for drugs composed wholly or partly of insulin.

(2) To G. Robert Clark and Kenneth A. Freeman, to sign on behalf of the Commissioner certificates issued by the Food and Drug Administration for coal-tar colors.

(3) To Charles W. Crawford, Louis D. Elliott, George P. Larrick, Henry Welch, and Donald C. Grove, to act in behalf of the Commissioner for the purposes of the regulations in part 146 of this chapter, governing certification of batches of penicillin-containing drugs.

(4) To William R. Jester, to sign on behalf of the Commissioner certificates issued by the Food and Drug Administration for drugs composed wholly or partly of penicillin.

(5) To C. W. Crawford, L. D. Elliott, and G. P. Larrick, to make determinations with respect to disclosure of official records and information in accordance with § 196.1 (c) of this chapter.

§ 1.3 Obtaining information and making submittals and requests. (a) General information pertaining to the functions of the Food and Drug Administration may be obtained from any of the offices listed in § 1.1. Responses to letters directed to inspection posts are likely to be delayed since inspectors assigned to such posts are frequently absent on official travel. Earlier responses to inquiries concerning the legality of new products or processes or to suggestions involving change in policy are ordinarily obtained by directing such requests and suggestions to the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

(b) Disclosure of official records and information on investigations by the Food and Drug Administration is subject to the procedure prescribed in § 196.1 of this chapter.

(c) The following should be directed to the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, and mailed to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs:

(1) Applications for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of any regulation authorized by any law listed in § 1.1.

(2) Applications for new drugs submitted pursuant to section 505 (b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 355 (b)).

(3) Applications for permits under the Federal Import Milk Act.

(d) Requests for certification of batches of coal-tar colors, drugs composed wholly or partly of insulin, and drugs composed wholly or partly of penicillin should be directed to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

(e) Applications for the granting of sea food inspection service at establishments packing canned shrimp or canned oysters should be directed to the Atlanta Station or the New Orleans Station.

§ 1.4 Procedures. (a) Evidence acquired through examinations and investigations by the Food and Drug Administration of violations of any of the acts listed in § 1.1, on which criminal, libel for condemnation, or injunction proceedings are contemplated under the authority of such act, is referred by the Federal Security Administrator to the Department of Justice with recommendation for the institution of such proceedings.

(b) Any interested person may propose to the Federal Security Administrator the issuance, amendment, or repeal of any regulation authorized by any law listed in § 1.1. The request should set forth the proposal in general terms and should state reasonable grounds therefor. Procedures on proposals with respect to regulations to which the provisions of sections 507 (f) or 701 (e) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 357 (f) and 371 (e)) apply are prescribed in those sections and in the rules of practice for hearings under section 701 (e) (21 CFR, Cum. Supp., 2.701 et seq.). Proposals with respect to regulations under a statute which requires no hearing for such regulations are announced for informal public hearing or for the submission of written comments, unless such proposals are clearly noncontroversial.

(c) Procedure governing imports under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act is prescribed by 21 CFR 2.300 et seq.; procedure governing imports under the Federal Caustic Poison Act is prescribed by 21 CFR, Part 175. Consular forms 197 and 198 for use in making shipper's declaration under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act may be obtained from Consular offices. Appeals from decisions under either Act of officers of Stations, referred to in § 1.2 (a) (2), are informal and may be made by letter or in person by the importer or his representative.

(d) Procedure governing the filing of applications with respect to new drugs pursuant to section 505 (b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 355 (b)) is prescribed by 21 CFR, Cum. Supp., 2.110, as amended by 21 CFR, 1944 Supp., 2.110. Form FD 356, containing detailed information on material to be submitted as part of an application, should be followed in preparing such applications. Copies of the form may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, the Medical Division, and the Districts and Stations. Procedure for the conduct of hearings under section 505 (d) and (e) of the act (21 U. S. C. 355 (d) and (e)) is stated in notices of such hearings.

(e) Procedure governing the importation of merchandise subject to the Federal Tea Act is prescribed in 21 CFR, Part 170, as amended by 21 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 170. Form T. I. S. Cat. No. 1 for use in the submission of samples for examination and Form No. T. I. S. Cat. No. 20 entitled "Application For Review by United States Board of Tea Appeals" may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, the New York and San Francisco Stations, and from any Collector of Customs.

(f) Procedure governing the importation of milk and cream under the Federal Import Milk Act is prescribed by 21 CFR, Part 185. Forms I. M. 4, application for permit; I. M. 1, report of tuberculin tests of cattle; I. M. 2, report of physical examination of cows; I. M. 3, certification of authority of examining veterinarians and inspectors; I. M. 5, score card for dairy farms; and I. M. 6, score card for receiving and shipping plants, may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs and from Veterinary Director General, Health of Animals Division, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Canada. Canadian shippers may obtain from the Veterinary Director General information as to the Canadian officials who are available to supervise such tests and examinations.

(g) Procedure governing the certification of coal-tar colors under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act is prescribed by 21 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 135, as amended by 11 F. R. 6970. Specimen forms for use as guides in preparing requests for certification of batches of straight colors, color mixtures, and repacked colors may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, the Cosmetic Division, and the Districts and Stations.

(h) Procedure for the certification under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of drugs composed wholly or partly of insulin is prescribed by 21 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 144, as amended by 21 CFR, 1943 Supp., Part 144; 10 F. R. 2904; 11 F. R. 6970 et seq. Specimen forms for use as guides in preparing requests for approval of master lots, trial dilutions, trial mixtures of protamine zinc insulin or globin insulin with zinc, lots of protamine, and lots of globin hydrochloride, and requests for certification of finished batches of insulin-containing drugs, may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs and the Division of Pharmacology.

(i) Procedure for the certification under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of drugs composed wholly or partly of any kind of penicillin is prescribed in 10 F. R. 11227 et seq., as amended by 10 F. R. 14176, 14545; 11 F. R. 2151 et seq., 3080, 6664 et seq., 6971, 7333 et seq., 7804 et seq., 8031. Specimens of the following forms for use as guides in preparing the applications and requests indicated by their titles may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs and the Division of Penicillin Control and Immunology:

Form No.:	Title
1	Application for Exemption for Storage.
2	Application for Exemption for Processing.
3	Application for Exemption for Labeling.

7	Request for Check Tests and Assays on a Batch of Sodium Penicillin or Calcium Penicillin.
8	Request for Certification of a Batch of Sodium Penicillin or Calcium Penicillin.
9	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin in Oil and Wax.
10	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin Ointment.

[1] Revised.

Form No.:	Title
11	Request for Certification of a Batch of Tablets Buffered Penicillin.
12	Request for Certification of a Batch of Capsules Penicillin in Oil.
13	Request for Certification of a Batch of Sodium Penicillin or Calcium Penicillin for Packaging with Aluminum Hydroxide Gel.
14	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin Troches.
15	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin Dental Cones.
16	Application for Exemption for Repacking.
17	Request for Supplemental Certification of a Batch of a Penicillin Drug.
18	Request for Certification of a Batch of Tablets Alum Precipitated Penicillin.
19	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin for Surface Application (Initial request to be accompanied or preceded by data specified in Penicillin form 6).
20	Request for Certification of a Batch of Calcium Penicillin for Packaging with Vasoconstrictor.
21	Request for Certification of a Batch of Penicillin Sulfonamide Powder.

(j) Procedure governing the service of inspection of establishments packing sea food under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, and applications therefor, is prescribed in the case of canned shrimp by 21 CFR, Cum. Supp., 155.0 et seq., as amended by 21 CFR, 1943 Supp., 155.0 et seq.; 21 CFR, 1944 Supp., 155.0 et seq.; 10 F. R. 7971, 12800; 11 F. R. 5904; and in the case of canned oysters by 21 CFR, 1943 Supp., 155.30 et seq., as amended by 21 CFR, 1944 Supp., 155.30 et seq.; 10 F. R. 7971, 12800. Forms for application for such service, its renewal, or extension may be obtained from the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs and the Atlanta and New Orleans Stations.

(k) Informal conferences may be arranged for discussion of any subject pertaining to the functions of the Food and Drug Administration, although the scope of discussion of pending court cases is necessarily limited. Such conferences are particularly encouraged in connection with the formulation of proposals to issue, amend, or repeal regulations. The Food Standards Committee usually holds informal public hearings, after appropriate notice, on proposals to formulate definitions and standards of identity for food to be announced for formal public hearings.

§ 1.5 Inspection of orders and opinions. (a) Final orders and opinions involving detention of importations under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, the Federal Caustic Poison Act, and the Federal Tea Act are available for inspection at the offices of the Food and Drug Administration where issued, except those which are designated for good cause to be confidential and not cited as precedents.

(b) Final orders and opinions of the Administrator issued under section 505 (d), (e), and (f) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 355 (d), (e), (f)) involving new drug matters are available for inspection at the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, except those which are designated for good cause to be confidential and not cited as precedents.

§ 1.6 Inspection of public records. Public records pertaining to the functions of the Food and Drug Administration, including records of formal and informal public hearings on proposals to issue, amend, or repeal regulations, are available for inspection at the Office of the Commissioner of Food and Drugs. Records of investigations by the Food and Drug Administration are available for inspection, subject to the procedures and limitations prescribed by § 196.1 of this chapter.

JEWELL W. SWOFFORD,
Commissioner for Special Services.

FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL

[42 CFR, Ch. IV]

PART 400—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

Sec.
400.1 General statement.
400.2 Functions.
400.3 Administration.
400.4 Staff.
400.5 Persons eligible for hospitalization.
400.6 Official records and information.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURE

400.51 Admission; rates for pay patients.
400.52 Discharge.
400.53 Rules governing patients and operation of out-patient department.
400.54 Unclaimed property of patients.
400.55 Claims for damages.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

§ 400.1 General statement. Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, D. C., is a constituent unit of the Federal Security Agency, operating under the general supervision and direction of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, and the immediate supervision and direction of the Superintendent of the Hospital.[1]

Requests for information concerning the Hospital or its activities may be addressed to the Superintendent, Freedmen's Hospital, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 400.2 Functions. The primary functions of the Hospital are (1) the care of the sick and injured, (2) the training of medical students, interns, residents, student nurses, dietitians, and other workers in the field of health, and (3) the advancement of clinical research and scientific research.

[1] Regarding general organization, procedures, and regulations of the Federal Security Agency, see Title 45, Subtitle A. Regarding organization, procedures, and regulations of the U. S. Public Health Service, see Title 42, Chapter I.

§ 400.3 Administration. The Assistant Superintendent is the responsible officer in the absence of the Superintendent. The hospital is organized along conventional lines to provide care of patients, to perform related service activities, and to carry out its business functions.

All admissions, discharges, and transfers are handled centrally through the Admitting Office. Two medical officers, one for the general Hospital and one for the annex (which is reserved for tuberculous patients exclusively), are responsible to the Superintendent for medical administrative details.

§ 400.4 Staff. Under a cooperative agreement between Freedman's Hospital and Howard University, all members of the professional staff of the Hospital, except the nursing staff, are nominated by the University for appointment by the Federal Security Administrator after approval by the Superintendent of the Hospital. The staff is responsible for the professional care of all patients other than those retaining private physicians, and for the maintenance of proper professional standards of patient care. Under the cooperative agreement, an Executive Committee is established consisting of the Chief of Staff as Chairman, the heads of the Departments of Surgery, Medicine, Obstetrics, and Gynecology, the Chief of the Division of Pediatrics, the Superintendent of the Hospital, and the Dean of the School of Medicine of Howard University. The Committee coordinates the professional activities of the various departments and divisions and recommends professional policies for adoption by the Superintendent of the Hospital. The Director of Nurses is in charge of the Division of Nursing Service and the School of Nursing.

§ 400.5 Persons eligible for hospitalization. The classes of persons eligible for hospitalization are described in regulations, § 401.2 (11 F. R. 7506).

§ 400.6 Official records and information. The principal official records of the Hospital are Administrative and Clinical Records. All Clinical Records are confidential.

(a) No records or other official instruments containing information shall be withdrawn from the files of the Hospital, by or furnished to any person not an authorized employee of the Hospital, without prior authority of the Hospital Superintendent, or the Federal Security Administrator.

(b) No copy of, or information relative to, any official record or other official business of the Hospital, which appears to be of confidential nature, shall be given to any person unless (1) such person obtains a court order therefor, or makes application therefor in the manner hereinafter prescribed in this paragraph, and (2) it appears to the Superintendent of the Hospital that the furnishing thereof would not be inimical to the public interest or to the welfare of the patient. The application mentioned above shall be addressed to the Superintendent and must set forth the interest of the applicant in the subject matter and the purpose for which such copy or information is desired.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURE

§ 400.51 Admission; rates for pay patients. For a description of admission procedures and the schedules of charges for pay patients, see regulations, §§ 401.1 to 401.13, inclusive, of this chapter.

§ 400.52 Discharge. Patients are discharged upon (a) written order of the attending physician or his representative, (b) legal order of a court, (c) signed order of the Superintendent or one of the medical officers stating that discharge is necessary for the maintenance of order and discipline, or (d) upon the patient's request, in which case he is required to sign a statement to that effect.

§ 400.53 Rules governing patients and operation of out-patient department. Rules governing property of patients, passes, and the Out-Patient Department are contained in Part 401 of this Chapter.

§ 400.54 Unclaimed property of patients. Unclaimed money of deceased patients is deposited in the Treasury after the expiration of three years, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of July 1, 1916, 39 Stat. 311, 32 D. C. Code, sec. 320. Unclaimed clothing left at the hospital by discharged or deceased patients is disposed of by the Hospital after the expiration of one year.

§ 400.55 Claims for damages. Procedures regarding claims for damages to or loss of property, or injury to persons, alleged to have been caused by officers or employees of Freedmen's Hospital, are described in 45 CFR and Supp., 30.2.

[SEAL] THOMAS PARRAN,
Surgeon General, Public Health Service.

OFFICE OF EDUCATION

[45 CFR, Ch. II]

PART 100—ORGANIZATION, DELEGATIONS OF FINAL AUTHORITY, AND PLACES AT WHICH INFORMATION MAY BE SECURED

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
100.1 Office of Education.

SUBPART B—DELEGATIONS OF FINAL AUTHORITY

100.2 Commissioner of Education.

SUBPART C—PLACE AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

100.3 Information.
100.4 Public inspection of final opinions, orders and rules.
100.5 Availability of official records.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 100.1 Office of Education. The Office of Education (20 U. S. C. 1–5; 5 U. S. C. 133 t note; 45 CFR 1.22) is headed by a Commissioner who functions under the general direction of the Federal Security Administrator. In his absence or disability the Executive Assistant to the Commissioner acts for him. By agency order the Commissioner of Education supervises and directs the activities of the Federal Security Agency in connection with American Printing House for the Blind (20 U. S. C. 101–105), Columbia Institution for the Deaf (5 U. S. C. 153 t note; 31 D. C. 231–250), and Howard University (20 U. S. C. 121–125). The Office of Education includes the following divisions which carry on activities relating to education:

Division of Elementary Education.
Division of Secondary Education.
Division of Vocational Education.
Division of Higher Education.
Division of Central Services.
Division of International Educational Relations.
Division of Auxiliary Services.
Division of School Administration.

(a) Division of Elementary Education. The Division of Elementary Education is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of elementary education and the dissemination of information with respect thereto.

(b) Division of Secondary Education. The Division of Secondary Education is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of secondary education and the dissemination of information with respect thereto.

(c) Division of Vocational Education. The Division of Vocational Education is headed by an Assistant Commissioner for Vocational Education. In his absence or disability a Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Vocational Education acts for him. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of vocational education and the dissemination of information with respect thereto. The Division's functions and activities also include the promotion and development of vocational education in the several states under the provisions of the Smith-Hughes and George Deen Acts (20 U. S. C. 11–30; Pub. Law 586, 79th Cong., 2d Session; 45 CFR, 103.1–103.18 inclusive) and the administration of the Food Conservation Program (Pub. Law 549, 79th Cong., 2d Session). The operating sections in the Division are the Agriculture Education Service, the Business Education Service, the Home Economics Education Service, the Trade and Industrial Service, the Occupational Information and Guidance Service and the Research and Statistical Service.

(d) Division of Higher Education. (1) The Division of Higher Education is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of higher education and the dissemination of information with respect thereto. The Division also administers the Veterans Educational Facilities Program, (Pub. Law 697, 79th Cong., 2d Session; 44 CFR Chapter II) under the provisions of which the Federal Works Agency provides educational facilities, other than housing, for educational institutions in which the Commissioner of Education finds that an acute shortage exists or impends and where such facilities are needed for the training and education of veterans under title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 (Pub. Law 346, 78th Cong., 2d Session; Pub. Law 268, 79th Cong., 1st Session). The responsibilities assigned to the Commissioner of Education under this law are discharged through a Director who reports to the Director of the Division of Higher Education and who is responsible for the formulation of general policies, for coordination with the Federal Works Agency and other Federal agencies, and for the general supervision of the Field Staff. The field staff for this program is as follows:

Acting Chief, Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, 101 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.
Acting Chief Education Officer, Federal Works Agency, 1720 New York Avenue, NW., Washington 25, D. C.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, 114 Marietta Street, NW., Atlanta 5, Georgia.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, Room 1506, 20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago 6, Illinois.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, 700 Mutual Building, Kansas City 6, Missouri.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, 710 Electric Building, Fort Worth 2, Texas.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, Room 865, 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, Room 511, 618 Second Avenue, Seattle 4, Washington.
Acting Chief Educational Officer, Federal Works Agency, 1651 Glenarm Place, Denver 2, Colorado.

(2) The Division also administers the collection of loans made to students under the Student War Loans Program (Pub. Law 647, 77th Cong., 2nd Session; Pub. Law 135, 76th Cong., 1st Session; 45 CFR 105.1–105.12 inclusive). The Division also administers the grants-in-aid to land-grant colleges under the provisions of the Morrill and supplementary acts (7 U. S. C. 301–308; 321–328; 343 (d); 5 U. S. C. 135 t note).

(e) Division of Central Services. The Division of Central Services is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include the management of the Office of Education library, supervision of the Information and Publications Section of the Office of Education, of the Research and Statistical Section of the Office and of the Administrative Management and Services of the Office, which include budget, fiscal and personnel. In addition the Division administers the Veterans Educational Information Clearance Service for the collection and dissemination of information concerning educational opportunities for veterans in cooperation with the Veterans Administration. Pursuant to instructions issued under date of July 29, 1946 by the Director of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, the Office of Education through the Division of Central Services acts as the certifying agency for all college and university teachers for whom deferment is requested under the Selective Service System. (See Local Board Memorandum No. 115, as amended 8/12/46.)

(f) Division of International Educational Relations. The Division of International Educational Relations is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of international educational relations and the dissemination of information with respect thereto. In addition the Division administers the programs for graduate students and for teacher trainees under the Convention for the Promotion of Inter-American Cultural Relations (T. S. 928, 75th Congress, 2nd Session) under a delegation from the Department of State (22 CFR 28.1–28.12 inclusive).

(g) Division of Auxiliary Services. The Division of Auxiliary Services is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in connection with Visual Aids, Library Services, and Educational Use of Radio and the dissemination of information with respect thereto.

(h) Division of School Administration. The Division of School Administration is headed by a Director. The Division's functions and activities include research in the field of school administration and the dissemination of information with respect thereto.

SUBPART B—DELEGATIONS OF FINAL AUTHORITY

§ 100.2 Commissioner of Education. By delegation from the Federal Security Administrator the Commissioner of Education has the following authority in relation to education:

(a) The Commissioner of Education supervises and directs the activities of the Federal Security Agency in connection with American Printing House for the Blind (20 U. S. C. 101–105), Columbia Institution for the Deaf (5 U. S. C. 133t note; 31 D. C. Code 231–250) and Howard University (20 U. S. C. 121–123).

SUBPART C—PLACE AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

§ 100.3 Information. Information concerning education, or any of the functions for which the Office of Education is responsible may be obtained by request in person or by letter at the Office of Education, Federal Security Agency, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 100.4 Public inspection of final opinions, orders, and rules. All final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules relating to public assistance are available for public inspection, except that the Commissioner of Education may hold any such opinions, or orders, or parts thereof confidential for good cause. Opinions and orders not held confidential (or copies thereof) and all rules may be inspected at the central office of the Office of Education, located at Washington, D. C. Requests to inspect at the central office must be submitted to the Commissioner of Education.

§ 100.5 Availability of official records. Official records relating to education are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned upon written application to the Commissioner of Education, except that upon good cause found by the Commissioner such records or parts thereof may be held confidential. Notice of denial of a request to inspect official records will be given promptly together with a statement of the reason for denial.

SUBPART A—ADMINISTRATION OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

§ 101.1 Vocational education; policies applying to use of federal funds.

CROSS REFERENCE: See 45 CFR 103.1–103.18 inclusive.

SUBPART B—ADMINISTRATION OF THE FOOD CONSERVATION PROGRAM

§ 101.2 Purposes for which grants are made. The purpose of the Food Conservation Program is to assist States in conserving as much food as possible during the fiscal year 1946–1947. Due to the shortage of food all over the world, all available fruits, vegetables and meats must be saved. This appropriation provides funds for the payment of special instructors in community food conservation centers and one secretary at the State level. Local communities are to take care of expenses such as heat, light, power, water, cans and janitorial service.

§ 101.3 Manner in which funds are channeled to the States. Funds for the Food Conservation Program are allocated to the States on the basis of the number of centers within a State which are capable of processing a minimum of 500 cans of food daily. The number of weeks of operation of community canning centers is also taken into consideration in making the allotment. The first certification, one-half of the allotment of funds, is sent to the State as a working fund. Before any additional funds are certified to a State, evidence must be given to the U. S. Office of Education that funds are needed on forms provided for that purpose. Form 1 will show the contractual obligations undertaken by the States in connection with the program and Form 4 will show the unexpended balance at the time it is submitted.

§ 101.4 Certification of funds. Certification to the Treasury is made by the Commissioner of Education. It is based upon the allotment to the State, with deductions made for a released fund allotted to a State or by any unauthorized expenditure of Federal funds by the State Boards for Vocational Education. This is determined by a letter of allotment which was sent to the States and later returned to the U. S. Office of Education and also by audit.

§ 101.5 Financial and statistical reports. Financial and statistical reports for State Boards for Vocational Education are prepared by staff members of State Boards for Vocational Education and transmitted to the Office of Education on a quarterly basis by the executive officer of State Boards. They are reviewed by the Agricultural Education Service where a professional audit is made of the Food Conservation Program.

§ 101.6 Audit of State Boards for Vocational Education. At the conclusion of the Food Conservation Program, June 30, 1947, the accounts of State Boards for Vocational Education will be audited by members of the auditing staff of the Agricultural Education Service. These audits will be made at the headquarters at each of the State Boards for Vocational Education. The Office of Education reserves the right to make audits of the accounts of local centers.

SUBPART C—VETERANS EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES PROGRAM

§ 101.7 Justifications of need. A Chief Educational Officer located in each of the nine division offices of the Federal Works Agency is given authority to approve or disapprove statements of need from educational institutions wishing to participate in the program. These statements are submitted on a form called "Justification of Need". Additional information may be secured from an educational institution through visits by Office of Education representatives. Institutions may appeal in writing to the Commissioner of Education from the decision of a Chief Educational Officer in any instance. The Commissioner may also review such decisions on his own motion in any instance.

§ 101.8 Forms. Justifications of Need are to be submitted to the Chief Educational Officer in each FWA division office, on Form VEFP–1. These forms may be secured from the Chief Educational Officer together with a pamphlet of Information for Applicants, prepared jointly by the Office of Education and the Federal Works Agency. Copies of the Information for Applicants, which contains a sample copy of Form VEFP–1, have been sent to the presidents of all colleges and universities listed in the Educational Directory of the Office of Education and to the Chief State School Officers of every State.

§ 101.9 Informal conferences. Institutional representatives may confer personally with the Chief Educational Officer and the Divisional Engineer, Bureau of Community Facilities, Federal Works Agency, before submitting the Justification of Need.

SUBPART D—STUDENT WAR LOANS PROGRAM

CROSS REFERENCE: See 45 CFR 104.1-104.12, inclusive.

§ 101.10 Cancellation of loans. Institutional Representatives are required to submit application for relief of the borrower on SWL Form 9, which must be accompanied by proof in the form of an official copy of orders or photostatic or certified true copy thereof; authorized evidence in lieu thereof; death certificate or other legal evidence of death; authorized legal evidence of permanent disability.

§ 101.11. Determination on applications for cancellation of loans. Final determination on applications for relief is made by the Commissioner of Education who acts only on applications received from institutional representatives.

SUBPART E—GRANTS TO LAND-GRANT COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

§ 101.12 Purposes for which grants are made. The Morrill-Nelson and Bankhead-Jones appropriations for the land-grant colleges and universities may be applied to instruction in agriculture, the mechanic arts, the English language and the various branches of mathematical, physical, natural, and economic science, with special reference to their applications in the industries of life, and to the facilities for such instruction, and a portion thereof may be used for providing courses for the special preparation of instructors for teaching the elements of agriculture and the mechanic arts.

§ 101.13 Manner in which funds are channeled to the States. The Federal funds for the land-grant colleges and universities are channeled to the institutions as follows: From a study of the information contained in reports covering the preceding year from the presidents and treasurers of the land-grant colleges and universities together with further investigation if necessary, it is determined whether the several States and Territories are entitled to participate in the Federal appropriations. On or before July 1 each year the Federal Security Administrator certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury as to each State and Territory whether it is entitled to receive its share of the annual appropriation for the land-grant colleges and universities, and the amount it is entitled to receive. On or before July 31 the Secretary of the Treasury pays to each State and Territory, to the State or Territorial treasurer, or to such officer as has been designated by the laws of the State or Territory to receive it, the amount it is entitled to receive. Immediately upon request of the appropriate officials of the land-grant colleges or universities the State or Territorial treasurers or other officers designated to receive the grants pay the money over to the treasurers of the land-grant institutions.

§ 101.14. Forms for reports from land-grant colleges and universities. The following forms, prepared by the Office of Education, are used by the presidents and treasurers of the land-grant colleges and universities for their annual reports to the office:

8-041 Part I Staff and Students for the Academic Year. Contains four schedules: A—Staff; B—Students; C—Enrollments and Degrees; D—Distribution of Degrees in Colleges of Arts and Sciences; E—Preparing for Teaching. 104 items. 4 pages.

8-041 Part II Financial Report for the Fiscal Year. Contains five schedules: A—Receipts Specifically Designated for Additions to Physical Plant and Additions to Endowments and to Other Nonexpendable Funds; B—General Income; C—Bond Issues and Other Borrowings; D—Expenditures by Function or Purpose; E—Fund and Plant Values. 58 items. 4 pages.

8-041 Part II Schedule G, Federal Funds. 15 items. 1 page.

8-041 Part III Land-Grant Fund, First Morrill Act of 1862. 19 items. 2 pages.

8-041 Part IV Supplementary Morrill Funds. 1 page. Itemized report of Receipts and Disbursements of Morrill-Nelson and Bankhead-Jones funds.

§ 101.15 Withholding of grants. In the event that the Federal Security Administrator withholds certification from a State or Territory of its share of the appropriation, he reports the facts and reasons therefor to the President of the United States and the amount involved is kept separate in the Treasury until the close of the next Congress, in order that the State or Territory may, if it should so desire, appeal to Congress from the determination of the Federal Security Administrator. If the next Congress does not direct such sum to be paid, it is covered into the Treasury.

SUBPART F—PROCEDURE RELATING TO REQUESTS FOR DEFERMENT OF COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY TEACHERS

§ 101.16 Applications for deferment. Application for certification of requests for deferment of college and university teachers should be submitted by institutions on Selective Service System Form 42A (Special-Revised), executed in triplicate. Copies of Form 42A (Special-Revised) may be secured from local boards of the Selective Service System. In executing Form 42A (Special-Revised) care should be taken to insure that entries are made which provide specific evidence in support of standards and criteria established in Selective Service regulations and by this statement.

§ 101.17 Forms. Selective Service Form 42A (Special-Revised) should be attached to a covering letter which provides the following information:

(a) Date on which individual was last classified, if already reclassified, or

(b) Date on which individual will again be subject to reclassification.

(c) Other information believed pertinent to the case.

The covering letter, together with executed Form 42A (Special-Revised) in triplicate, should be submitted to Faculty Deferment Section; Office of Education; Washington 25, D. C.

§ 101.18 Criteria for certification. The Faculty Deferment Section of the Office of Education will review requests for certification received from institutions in accordance with Selective Service regulations and the standards and procedures established herein. If the request meets the criteria established it will be certified to the Director of Selective Service and the institution will be notified of the date of such certification. Thereafter information concerning action taken on the request for deferment will be furnished by the Selective Service System. If the request submitted to the Faculty Deferment Section does not meet the established criteria for certification, it will be returned to the institution. Unfavorable action upon a request for certification for deferment does not preclude subsequent resubmission of the request when the established criteria have been complied with. Selective Service System procedures require that a separate request be made in each individual case. The Faculty Deferment Section will give consideration to requests for certification for deferment in the order of the relative imminence of reclassification.

605.5 Availability of official records.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 605.1 Organization. The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation is headed by a Director and in his absence or disability an Associate Director acts for him. This Office's functions and activities include under the general supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Special Services the responsibility for the administration of the Vocational Rehabilitation Program, the Business Enterprises Program for the Blind, the Program for Vending Stands for Blind in Federal Buildings, the approval of State Plans and Amendments thereto, the certification of amounts of money to the Secretary of Treasury for payment to the States, the dissemination of information to the States, the supervision of the District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service, and the supervision of the regional offices. Divisions in the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation are:

Division of Rehabilitation Standards.
Division of Administrative Standards.
Information Service.
District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service.
Seven Regional Offices.

(a) Division of Rehabilitation Standards. The Division of Rehabilitation Standards is headed by the Assistant Director who is responsible to the Director for: developing and establishing policies, procedures and standards; furnishing technical and consultative services to State agencies; conducting research in order to evaluate and improve policies, standards and procedures; maintaining cooperative relationships with national, public and voluntary organizations concerned with welfare services to disabled persons.

(b) Division of Administrative Standards. The Division of Administrative Standards is headed by a Division Chief responsible to the Director for: developing policies, procedures, and standards to assist State agencies on organization and administrative management, including personnel and fiscal practices; conducting administrative surveys, evaluating effectiveness of State administrative organizations and practices and furnishing consultative services; certifying grants to State agencies and controlling funds; preparing final Federal budget.

(c) Information Service. The Information Service is headed by a Chief responsible to the Director for: developing policies, standards, and techniques for disseminating information concerning services available to disabled persons through State agencies; conducting a program of public information; assisting States in establishing and carrying on information programs; maintaining relations with press, radio, and other media.

(d) District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service. The District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service is headed by a Chief responsible to the Director for: operating a program of rehabilitation for disabled persons residing in the District of Columbia, which includes preparation of plan of operation and amendments; development and maintenance of cooperative agreements with community agencies; and preparation of budget justifications.

(e) Seven regional offices. The seven regional offices are each headed by a regional representative responsible to the Director for: coordinating within the region Federal activities relating to the program; exercising supervision required to assure execution of State programs in accordance with established policies, procedures, and standards; surveying State technical and administrative programs and reporting thereon. For the location of the regional offices see § 605.3 of this chapter.

SUBPART B—DELEGATION OF FINAL AUTHORITY

§ 605.2 By delegation from the Federal Security Administrator to the Director of Vocational Rehabilitation. Under the direction and general supervision of the Commissioner of Special Services the following authority has been delegated to the Director of Vocational Rehabilitation.

(a) All powers and duties of administration concerning Vocational Rehabilitation contained in the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, as amended, Public Law 113, 78th Congress except that the Federal Security Administrator has reserved the power to issue regulations and to appoint personnel.

(b) The administration of the act, entitled "An Act to authorize the operation of stands in Federal Buildings by blind persons, to enlarge the economic opportunities of the blind and for other purposes", Public Law 732, 74th Congress, except that the Federal Security Administrator has reserved the power to issue Regulations and to appoint personnel.

(c) The Business Enterprises Program for the Blind which makes available Federal funds in accordance with the Regulations issued by the Administrator for one-half the cost of acquisition of vending stands or other equipment for the use of blind persons, such stands or other equipment to be controlled by the State agency. Public Law 549, 79th Congress, 2nd Session. (See this title, Chapter VI, Part 601.)

SUBPART C—PLACES AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION

§ 605.3 Places at which public may secure information. Information relating to Vocational Rehabilitation, the Business Enterprises Program for the Blind, and the Vending Stand Program for the Blind in Federal Buildings may be obtained and submittals or requests made in person or by letter at: Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, 815 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C.; Office for Region I, 120 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts; Office for Region II, Railroad Retirement Building, Fourth and C Streets, SW., Washington, D. C.; Office for Region III, 441 West Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia; Office for Region IV and V, 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois; Office for Region VI, 1006 Grand Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri; Office for Region VII, Equitable Building, Denver, Colorado; Office for Region VIII, 785 Market Street, San Francisco, California; and with respect to the District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service at Room 2058, Railroad Retirement Building, Fourth and C Streets SW., Washington, D. C.

§ 605.4 Public inspection of final opinions, orders, and rules. All final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules relating to vocational rehabilitation are available for public inspection, except that the Director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation may hold any such opinions or orders or parts thereof confidential for good cause. Opinions and orders not held confidential (or copies thereof) and all rules may be inspected at any of the regional offices or at the central office of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation located at Washington, D. C. Requests to inspect at the central office must be submitted to the Director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

§ 605.5 Availability of official records. The record of any hearing held including transcripts of testimony, exhibits and all documents received in evidence or made part of the record of such hearing are official records. Official records relating to vocational rehabilitation are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned upon written application to the Director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, except that upon good cause found by him such records or parts thereof may be held confidential. Notice of denial of a request to inspect official records will be given promptly together with a statement of the reason for denial.

SUBPART D—REVIEW AND AUDITING

606.10 Auditing procedures
606.11 Review.

SUBPART A—APPROVAL OF STATE PLANS AND GRANTS FOR VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND THE BUSINESS ENTERPRISES PROGRAM FOR THE BLIND

§ 606.1 General. As condition to receiving Federal funds for Vocational Rehabilitation and for the Business Enterprises for the Blind each State is required to submit and to have approved by the Director a State Plan setting forth all policies and procedures relating to the program. These plans are required to conform to the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, as amended, and the Regulations issued by the Federal Security Administrator. The general form and content of the State Plans are set forth in the State Plan Guide and in the Business Enterprises Plan Materials Guide which are available at the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation and at its regional offices. (See this Chapter, Part 600 and 601.)

§ 606.2 Approval of state plans and amendments. Both original Plans and Amendments thereto are submitted by the States to the regional representative of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation. The Plans and the Amendments are reviewed in the regional office and are then either returned to the States for suggested revisions or submitted to the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation for appropriate action. The Plans and Amendments are reviewed by the appropriate division and section of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation who make recommendations to the Director for approval, modification, or disapproval of the material. The Director advises the State as to the approvability of the material in question and if it is approvable incorporates it into the approved State Plan. The Plans should be amended as often as is necessary to reflect actual, or where Federal requirements are involved, contemplated changes in any phase of State law, policy, procedure, or operation which affect the Rehabilitation or Business Enterprises Program. Six copies of all plans and plan materials should be submitted by the State. (See Regulations this Chapter, Parts 600 and 601.)

§ 606.3 Grants—(a) General. For each State which has an approved Plan the Director estimates for each quarter or shorter period the amounts necessary to meet the Federal share of the cost of the program within that State. The amount so estimated is then certified to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the State.

(b) Computation of amount of grant. The amount certified by the Director to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the States is based upon the Director's appraisal of the following information: (1) a certification by the appropriate State official as to amount of funds available for the period; (2) an estimate of the total expenditures to be made within the period for Vocational Rehabilitation; (3) an estimate of administrative expenditures to be made within the period; (4) a statement showing the number of individuals in the State needing and eligible for vocational rehabilitation; (5) copies of the appropriation covering the period in question; and (6) such other pertinent information as the Director may require. This information is contained in Form VR–AS–1 and VR–AS–1 (a) and are submitted in triplicate to the regional office.

§ 606.4 Withholding of funds—(a) When withheld. The Director withholds funds from the State when after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State Board of Vocational Education he finds that there is (1) a failure on the part of the State to comply substantially with the provisions of the approved State plan; or (2) a failure on the part of the State to afford reasonable cooperation to other Federal and State Agencies providing Vocational Rehabilitation or similar services.

(b) Hearings. If after notice of an opportunity for a hearing a State desires such a hearing it is held by the Director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation in accordance with Section 4 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act as amended and with the Administrative Procedure Act. (See also Part 600 and 601.)

(c) Notification of suspension of grant. If after a hearing the Director finds that there is a failure on the part of the State to comply as set forth above he shall notify the State Board of Vocational Education that there will be no further certification of funds until he is satisfied there is no longer such a failure to comply and makes no further certification of funds to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the State.

(d) Informal discussions. Such hearings are generally not called however until after reasonable effort has been made by regional and central office represenatives to resolve the questions involved by conference and discussion with State officials. Formal notification of the date and place of a hearing does not foreclose further negotiations with State officials.

SUBPART B—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA REHABILITATION SERVICE

§ 606.5 Application for services. Residents of the District of Columbia may apply directly to the District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service, Room 2058, Railroad Retirement Building, or may be referred to that service by cooperating agencies, employers, or other interested persons or agencies.

§ 606.6 Determination of eligibility; formulation of individual plan for service. The eligibility of all persons coming to the attention of the District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service is determined by qualified members of the staff on the basis of a general medical examination, specialists examinations, psychological and psychometric tests, and where indicated complete informational background of the individual obtained through an interview with him and all other pertinent information gathered from individuals or agencies familiar with the individual. If, as a result of the above procedure, it is determined that the individual is eligible for and feasible of rehabilitation, a plan of service for that individual is formulated, with his cooperation, setting forth his employment objective and all rehabilitation services necessary to obtain that objective. The agreement of the client to this plan is secured.

§ 606.7 Provision of rehabilitation services. The District of Columbia Rehabilitation Service, either through members of its staff or through purchase or acquisition from other agencies, persons or institutions, arranges for the provision of the rehabilitation services for which the client is eligible and which are necessary to achieve his vocational objective as set forth in his individual plan of rehabilitation. (See also this Chapter, Part 600.)

SUBPART C—VENDING STANDS FOR BLIND IN FEDERAL BUILDING

§606.8 The program relating to the operation of vending stands by blind persons in Federal buildings—(a) Designation of licensing agencies. The State Commission for the Blind or other agencies desiring to be designated as the licensing agency for the purpose of licensing blind persons to operate stands in Federal Buildings makes application through the Governor of the State to be so designated by the Director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation. This application sets forth the procedure and policies which the State agency will follow in issuing such licenses.

§ 606.9 Approval of individual licenses and locations. The Director approves individual licenses and locations for each blind person licensed by the State agency to operate a vending stand in a Federal building. The information required is contained in Form 8–B1–1, entitled "Application for Authority to Establish a Vending Stand in a Federal Building," and in Form 8–B1–1a, entitled "Application for Approval of Person Selected to Operate a Vending Stand in a Federal Building." These forms must be submitted by the State agency in quadruplicate.

SUBPART D—REVIEW AND AUDITING

§ 606.10 Auditing procedures. Each year all fiscal transactions of the States are audited by a representative of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation to determine whether or not expenditures made have been in accordance with the Act, the Regulations, State Plans, State Rules, Standards, and Requirements. If it finds as a result of the audit that insufficient Federal funds have been made available to the State to meet the Federal share of expenditure, succeeding grants to the States are increased by an appropriate amount to adjust for the discrepancy. If the expenditure from Federal funds are not in accord with the criteria above the State is so advised and after an opportunity to justify the expenditure made through the submission of additional material or through explanation of the records involved the amount so determined to be improperly expended is deducted from succeeding grants to the State.

§ 606.11 Review. From time to time members of the staff of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation review with the States assistance, administrative and fiscal methods and practices and make constructive suggestions for the improvement of such methods and practices.

JEWELL W. SWOFFORD
Commissioner for Special Services.

APPENDIX A—LIST OF FIELD STATIONS

SUBPART A—GENERAL ORGANIZATIONS AND FUNCTIONS

§ 02.101 General statement. The U. S. Public Health Service is an agency concerned solely with the health of the Nation. It is one of the operating units of the Federal Security Agency, and is administered by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, under the general supervision of the Federal Security Administrator. The basic statute is the Public Health Service Act (58 Stat. 682, 42 U. S. C. 201–286), as amended.

§ 02.102 Commissioned Corps. There is established in the Service a corps of commissioned officers who have ranks and rates of pay similar to those of the Medical Corps of the Army. The Surgeon General is appointed from the Regular Corps for a four-year term by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. He may be reappointed. The Surgeon General assigns one commissioned officer from the Regular Corps to serve as Deputy Surgeon General and six other officers to serve as Assistant Surgeons General.

§ 02.103 Organization. The activities of the Service are organized in four bureaus. These are: (1) Office of the Surgeon General; (2) National Institute of Health; (3) Bureau of Medical Services; and (4) Bureau of State Services. Direct administration of the functions of the Service is vested in the bureaus and their component units. The Deputy Surgeon General acts as chief of the Office of the Surgeon General; each of the remaining three bureaus is headed by an Assistant Surgeon General.

§ 02.104 Delegation of authority. Delegations of final authority for specific actions are described in pertinent sections.

§ 02.105 Major functions. The powers and duties of the Public Health Service include:

(1) Provision of medical and hospital care for persons declared eligible for such benefits by Congress;

(2) Administration of the National Quarantine Service to prevent the introduction of certain epidemic diseases into the United States from foreign countries;

(3) Prevention of the spread of communicable diseases from State to State;

(4) Licensing of biologic products (vaccines, serums, etc.) applicable to the prevention and treatment of diseases of man, which are sold in interstate traffic;

(5) Conduct of scientific research, investigations, and demonstrations related to the cause, prevention, and cure of the diseases of man;

(6) Administration of grants-in-aid to States for public health services;

(7) Administration of grants-in-aid to qualified institutions or individual scientists for research upon the physical and mental diseases;

(8) Provision of technical assistance and consultant services to the States and to Federal agencies;

(9) Collection and dissemination of statistical and other information on health problems;

(10) Training of professional personnel in the public health and medical sciences through (a) fellowship for research scientists, (b) payment of tuition and stipends for individuals employed by State and local health departments, for student nurses,[1] and for physicians intending to become specialists in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer; and, (c) grants to approved institutions for training of psychiatrists and other personnel concerned with the care of mental patients;

(11) Collaboration with the governments of other countries and with international organizations in activities for the improvement of world health, as well as with private national organizations and institutions concerned with health.

§ 02.106 Location of offices. The headquarters of the Public Health Service are located in Washington, D. C. Operations are carried on at headquarters and in a large number of field stations located in the continental United States and in our insular and territorial possessions.

§ 02.107 Mailing address. The mailing address of the headquarters of the Public Health Service is: U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. Correspondence with headquarters should be addressed to The Surgeon General, except as otherwise noted in this Chapter. Addresses of Public Health Service field stations may be found in Appendix A, List of Field Stations.

§ 02.108 District Offices of the Public Health Service. (a) In order to maintain direct contact with State and local authorities, with field offices of other Federal agencies, and with other official and nonofficial organizations concerned with its activities, the Public Health Service maintain 9 District Offices. Eight of these are located in the continental United States, each serving a group of States. One is located in Puerto Rico, serving Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Caribbean area. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations for addresses and jurisdictions of District Offices.)

(b) The District Offices are headed by medical officers, whose title is District Director. The District Directors have general supervision over all activities of the Public Health Service in their jurisdiction. They represent the Surgeon General in interpreting and carrying out the broad policies of the Service. The largest task of the District Offices, however, is the field administration of the several Federal-State cooperative health programs, including the administration of Public Health Service functions in related programs of other Federal Agencies.

(c) The immediate staff of a District Office is composed of consultants and technicians concerned with such Federal-State cooperative programs as: sanitary engineering and sanitation, venereal disease control, tuberculosis control, public health nursing, hospital survey and construction, etc. The District Director and his staff work directly with State authorities in the preparation of plans, programs, and budgets for Federal-State cooperative activities.

§ 02.109 Advisory bodies. (a) The Congress has established certain advisory councils to assist the Surgeon General in carrying out specific functions of the Service. The Councils are composed of outstanding experts in medicine, public health, and related professions. In addition, the Surgeon General from time to time appoints advisory committees of experts to make recommendations on particular subjects.

(b) The National Advisory Health Council has fourteen members. Ten of these are experts who are not otherwise employed by the Federal Government. They are appointed by the Surgeon General with the approval of the Federal Security Administrator. The four ex officio members are the Director of the National Institute of Health, and representatives of the Army, the Navy, and the Bureau of Animal Industry (Department of Agriculture) respectively. The Council reviews and makes recommendations on reasearch in the medical and related sciences (Exclusive of cancer research and mental health research); and certifies approval of grants-in-aid for research projects. It recommends regulations for the apprehension and detention of persons known to be spreading communicable diseases from State to State; and advises the Surgeon General upon all matters connected with the various programs of the Service.

(c) The National Advisory Cancer Council is composed of six experts in the study, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer, and the Surgeon General as chairman, ex officio. It reviews and certifies approval of applications for grants-in-aid for cancer research, collects and makes available to interested organizations and individuals, information upon the study, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer, and makes other recommendations to the Surgeon General in relation to cancer control.

(d) The National Advisory Mental Health Council is composed of six experts in the study, diagnosis, or treatment of psychiatric disorders, and the Surgeon General as chairman ex officio. It advises and makes recommendations to the Surgeon General on matters relating to the activities and functions of the Service in the field of mental health; it reviews research projects or programs and recommends to the Surgeon General the conduct of such projects as the Council believes will make valuable contributions to human knowledge for the advancement of mental health. It collects information on research in this field and makes it available to interested organizations and individuals. The Council recommends and certifies approval of grant-in-aid for research and for training of personnel in this field; and it determines the number of individual specialists to be given training in psychiatry by the Public Health Service.

(e) The Federal Hospital Council is composed of eight members appointed by the Federal Security Administrator, and the Surgeon General as chairman ex officio. Four of the members are experts in hospital and health matters and four are representatives of consumers of hospital services. The Council may appoint special advisory committees. The Federal Hospital Council approves the regulations for the administration of the Hospital Survey and Construction Act; it also reviews appeals of States from disapproval of State plans by the Surgeon General.

§ 02.110 Conference of State and Territorial Health Officers. (a) A conference of State and Territorial Health Officers is called annually by the Surgeon General. State mental health authorities are also invited when matters relating to mental health are to be discussed. The Surgeon General may also call other such conferences when the interests of the public health warrant and must call a conference upon the request of five or more States.

(b) The conference is designed to provide opportunity for mutual consultation between State authorities and Public Health Service officials and for the Surgeon General to present contemplated grant-in-aid regulations and amendments.

§ 02.111 Inspection of final opinions, orders and rules. All final opinions and orders in the adjudication of cases and all rules issued in the administration of the Service, not limited in their application to matters of internal management, are available for public inspection, except as the Surgeon General may for good cause hold confidential any such opinions or orders, or parts thereof.

(a) Final orders, issued after opportunity for hearing, with respect to licenses for biological products will be available for inspection at the National Institute of Health, U. S. Public Health Service, Bethesda 14, Maryland.

(b) Final orders, issued after opportunity for hearing, with respect to the withholding of grants to States will be available for inspection at the Bureau of State Services, U. S. Public Health Service, Bethesda 14, Maryland.

(c) Final orders, issued after opportunity for hearing, with respect to projects for hospital construction under Title VI of the Public Health Service Act, as amended (the "Hospital Survey and Construction Act") will be available for inspection at the U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C.

(d) Application to inspect other documents, if any, which may be subject to the requirements of this regulation, should be made to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 02.112 Availability of public records. (a) Official records of the Service include (1) applications, registrations, petitions, and reports filed by members of the public pursuant to statute or regulations, (2) pleadings, transcripts of testimony, exhibits and documents received in evidence in any formal proceeding, and (3) documents evidencing the official disposition of material covered by (1) and (2). Official records are made available for inspection to persons properly and directly concerned, except that upon good cause found by the Surgeon General such records may be held confidential.

(b) Requests for permission to inspect official records should be addressed to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C., unless otherwise directed in published organizational, procedural or regulatory statements pertaining to specific records or classes of records. Such requests must set forth the interest of the applicant in the subject matter.

(c) The following classes of information are confidential and will not be disclosed except as indicated:

(1) Information relating to admission and treatment of narcotic addicts accepted as voluntary patients, not to be disclosed except upon written waiver by the patient and only to the extent specified in such waiver (58 Stat. 701; 42 U. S. C. Sup., sec. 344);

(2) Clinical and other information relating to patients committed to the care of the Service by other Government agencies, not to be disclosed except in accordance with the policies and instructions of such other agencies;

(3) Clinical information relating to beneficiaries of the Service, to be disclosed only upon application of the beneficiary or his duly authorized representative upon Form 19468 "Application for Abstract from Clinical Record", Provided, That information of minor importance and diagnoses of nonconfidential character may be supplied to employers, relatives or friends, in the discretion of the medical officer in charge of the hospital or station when determined by him to be in the interest of the patient;

(4) Clinical information regarding deceased beneficiary patients, to be disclosed only to persons legally entitled to such information;

(5) Information concerning individuals or business enterprises obtained in the course of the investigatory activities of the Service in connection with interstate and foreign quarantine activities and in connection with the licensing of biological products, to be disclosed only for the purposes for which obtained or to other Federal, State or local authorities engaged in the performance of related governmental functions and solely for such related purposes;

(6) Information relating to research projects to the extent and for such period as may be recommended in the public interest by the National Advisory Health Council, the National Advisory Cancer Council, or the National Advisory Mental Health Council.

(7) Records of vital statistics which identify individuals, not to be disclosed under any circumstances;

(8) Information relating to private individuals obtained for limited purposes in the administration of the functions of the Service, to be disclosed only for the purposes for which obtained or with the consent of the individual concerned; such information would include, for example, information obtained from applicants for research fellowships, for research grants, for membership in the Cadet Nurse Corps, applicants for commissions in the Service, and so on.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Surgeon General may authorize the disclosure of any information within the categories enumerated, other than categories (1) and (7), upon written application and upon determination that such disclosure would be in the public interest. Information will be furnished, subject to the general rules of evidence, upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction when a subpoena is served upon a representative of the Service competent to testify thereon. When an officer or employee of the Service is called upon to testify or produce records falling within category (1), in the absence of waiver by the patient, he shall call the attention of the court to the provisions of 58 Stat. 701; 42 U. S. C. Sup., sec. 344. When a subpoena involves a patient committed to the care of the Service by the Employees' Compensation Commission, the Veterans' Administration, or other Federal agency, the matter should be brought to the attention of such agency in accordance with the arrangement smade for the care of such patients and the attention of the court be called to any regulations of such other agencies requiring that the information sought to be diclosed is confidential. Except in the interests of the Government, no officer or employee (either full-time or part-time) of the Public Health Service shall willingly be qualified as an expert witness in the case of a litigant who has been a patient of the Service.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE SURGEON GENERAL

§ 02.201 Principal subdivisions:

Division of Commissioned Officers.
Division of Dentistry.
Division of Sanitary Engineering.
Division of Nursing.
Division of Public Health Methods.
National Office of Vital Statistics.
Office of International Health Relations.
Office of the Executive Assistant.
Budget and Fiscal Office.

§ 02.202 Functions. The major function of the Office of the Surgeon General is administration of the internal affairs of the Public Health Service, as contrasted with administration of services to the public by other bureaus. A second important function is to advise and assist the Surgeon General and his staff in the formulation of policies and in the planning of future programs for the advancement of national health. In exercising the latter function, the component units conduct fact-finding studies; collect, collate, and analyze pertinent data; and maintain working relationships with other Federal agencies, with the various professional groups involved in functions of the Service, and with other public and private organizations. Three units in the Office of the Surgeon General (The Divisions of Sanitary Engineering and of Nursing, and the National Office of Vital Statistics) have additional important functions which constitute operating programs. These functions are discussed in the appropriate sections.

§ 02.203 Division of Commissioned Officers. (a) This Division is responsible for personnel administration of all commissioned officers, Regular and Reserve, regardless of their professional classification. The Chief of the Division is a Medical Director. The specific functions of the Division include: recruitment, assignment, training, utilization, promotion, separation, retirement, and discipline of the commissioned corps.

(b) In connection with recruitment, the Division maintains contact with professional institutions and organizations; receives applications for commission in the corps and for internships in hospitals of the Service; conducts examinations; and recommends successful candidates for appointment.

(c) Final authority for the assignment of commissioned personnel has been delegated by the Surgeon General to the Chief of the Division of Commissioned Officers. The Division maintains close liaison with bureaus and other divisions; establishes priorities among the several programs for the assignment of officers; analyzes qualifications of individual officers and evaluates their performance with a view to securing the most effective utilization of the commissioned corps.

(d) The Division of Commissioned Officers administers the examination of officers for promotion and retirement; it recommends separation of officers and carries out recommendations of disciplinary boards (convened by the Surgeon General). The Division also provides consultation for individual officers as to their professional and personal problems and secures to the commissioned corps those rights, privileges, benefits, and immunities provided for them and their dependents by law. A special program of in-service training for officers is provided. All personnel actions related to the commissioned corps are carried out by this Division.

§ 02.204 Division of Dentistry. This division exercises general supervision over professional standards and performance in all dental activities of the Public Health Service. The Chief of the Division is the Chief Dental Officer of the Service who holds the rank of Assistant Surgeon General. He advises the Surgeon General and the operating bureaus and divisions as to the professional qualifications of dental personnel, the standards of dental service rendered to beneficiaries of the Service, and the standards for dental equipment and materials purchased by the Service. He also advises the Surgeon General on plans for the improvement of dental health in the general population.

§ 02.205 Division of Sanitary Engineering. (a) This Division has general supervision over all sanitary engineering and sanitation activities of the Public Health Service. The Chief of the Division is the Chief Sanitary Engineer Officer of the Service who holds the rank of Assistant Surgeon General. The Division also exercises supervision over professional qualifications and performance of engineering and sanitation personnel, both commissioned and noncommissioned. It advises the Surgeon General and the bureaus regarding plans and programs for environmental sanitation in the United States; and it formulates uniform policies for sanitary engineering for the guidance of other bureaus and divisions.

(b) The Division is responsible for certain operating programs of the Service, namely: (1) inspection and certification of sanitary facilities used by and on interstate carriers (railroad trains, vessels, airplanes, busses); (2) certification of sources of shellfish and shaving brushes sold in interstate commerce; (3) basic research on water pollution, sewage and industrial-waste disposal; (4) provision of consultative and technical assistance to State and local health departments, other Federal agencies, and private businesses concerned with sanitary facilities and services.

(c) In connection with these operating programs, the Division conducts an extensive fact-finding program, including: (1) nation-wide inventory of needs for sanitary facilities in urban and rural areas; (2) annual report of outbreaks of disease the sources of which are water, milk, and foods; (3) continuous listing of water and sewerage systems in the United States. It conducts field surveys on a wide variety of sanitary problems. It develops standards for the sanitation of water supplies, shellfish production, milk and food sanitation, sewage disposal, vessel sanitation, and laboratory analysis. In cooperation with interested industries and health authorities, it develops standard ordinances and codes for water, milk, and food sanitation for voluntary adoption by State and local governments. Periodically the Division rates communities which have adopted ordinances recommended by the Public Health Service, and publishes the ratings.

§ 02.206 Division of Nursing. (a) This division has general supervision over all nursing operations in the Public Health Service and over professional standards and performance of all nursing personnel, both commissioned and noncommissioned. The Chief of the Division is a Nurse Officer with the rank of Medical Director.

(b) The three major fields in which the Division is involved are: public health nursing, nursing service, and nurse production and resources. The Division is responsible for consultant services to the States in public health nursing, and for the formulation of plans, programs, and policies pertinent to the advancement of public health nursing both in the Service and in other official and nonofficial agencies. The Division also deals with standards of nursing practice and with the maintenance of such standards in the hospital facilities and medical programs of the Public Health Service.

(c) The Division of Nursing is immediately responsible for the administration of the Nurse Training Act of June 15, 1943, as amended (50 U. S. C., App. Sup., 1451-1462). It is also concerned with the development of plans, programs, and policies for the recruitment, training, and utilization of nurses and ancillary personnel.

(d) The Chief of the Division also advises the Surgeon General regarding plans, programs, and policies related to the entire field of nursing. In carrying out its advisory function, the division conducts fact-finding studies upon various profesisonal problems in nursing and nurse-training.

§ 02.207 Division of Public Health Methods. (a) The four main functions of this Division are: (1) to evaluate national health problems; (2) to develop methods for meeting such problems; (3) to advise the Surgeon General on these matters; and (4) to transmit public health information to the public and specialized groups.

(b) Among the specific problems with which the Division is concerned are: the relation of sickness and death in the general population to social and economic conditions; administrative methods and procedures for the provision of health services and medical care; technics for the analysis and utilization of statistical information; evaluation of clinical service in public and private institutions; and methods for the training of public health personnel. These problems and methods are studied in the Office of Health Statistics and Methods and the Office of Planning and Analysis.

(c) The Office of Health Information prepares materials relating to public health and acts as a clearing house for informational and educational material issued by the Public Health Service. It maintains liaison with information services of other agencies, with the press and radio; answers requests for health information; plans and directs the distribution of materials and evaluates the effectiveness of distribution technics.

§ 02.208 National Office of Vital Statistics.[2] A division in the Office of the Surgeon General, the National Office of Vital Statistics has the primary function of collecting, analyzing, and publishing statistics on births, deaths, marriages, divorces and annulments, and related data. In connection with this primary function, the Office maintains the U. S. Death Registration Area and the U. S. Birth Registration Area in cooperation with State, territorial, and insular governments. (The Registration Area now includes the 48 States, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands; Alaska is the only territory which has not been admitted.) The National Office of Vital Statistics works closely with State and local Registrars of Vital Statistics and provides them with consultative and technical assistance for the purpose of maintaining high standards of performance in registration procedures. The National Office of Vital Statistics also conducts an International Vital Statistics Program, in cooperation with the State Department, for the purpose of promoting the collection and interchange of comparable statistical information among nations. The Chief of the National Office of Vital Statistics is assisted by professional personnel especially trained and experienced in the collection, analysis, and utilization of mass data.

§ 02.209 Office of International Health Relations. This office coordinates and directs all activities of the Public Health Service in the international health field. Specifically, it serves as the principal unit within the Service for dealing with all official and nonofficial agencies concerned with international health matters. A primary responsibility is liaison with the Department of State through which cooperative activities with foreign countries are directed. These include: international conferences, exchange of information and personnel, and development of plans, programs, and policies for a World Health Organization.

§ 02.210 Office of the Executive Assistant. (a) The general function of this office is supervision over administrative procedures in the internal management of the Public Health Service. The Executive Assistant is Chief of the Office. The office includes: (1) the Personnel Office; (2) Purchase and Supply Office; and (3) the Chief Clerk's Office.

(b) The Personnel Office is responsible for the recruitment, employment, assignment, classification, promotion, and retirement of all noncommissioned personnel, including those employed at field stations and at headquarters. It is administered in accordance with Civil Service Regulations.

(c) The Purchase and Supply Office is responsible for the requisition, procurement, and delivery of all purchases and supplies, both for field stations and headquarters. All procurement actions and property records are the responsibility of this unit.

§ 02.211 Budget and Fiscal Office. (a) This office administers all budgetary and fiscal affairs of the Public Health Service. It is headed by a Chief Budget Officer.

(b) The office prepares or supervises the preparation of all estimates for appropriations required for the operation of the Service, including justifications for such appropriations; it presents estimates to the Budget Officer of the Federal Security Agency and through him, to the Bureau of the Budget.

(c) The Budget and Fiscal Office also maintains accounts for the control of appropriated funds. It processes all disbursements, including expenditures for salaries, travel expenses, purchases and supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenditures.

SUBPART C—NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HEALTH

§ 02.301 Principal subdivisions:

National Cancer Institute.
Division of Infectious Diseases.
Division of Physiology.
Research Grants Division.
Biologics Control Laboratory.
Chemistry Laboratory.
Industrial Research Laboratory.
Pathology Laboratory.
Zoology Laboratory.

§ 02.302 Functions. (a) The National Institute of Health is the bureau responsible for scientific research activities of the Public Health Service. The director of the institute holds the rank of Assistant Surgeon General; in addition to administering the work of the institute, he advises the Surgeon General on all matters pertaining to scientific research and coordinates research programs initiated by other bureaus of the Service with those of the institute.

(b) The several divisions and laboratories of the National Institute of Health conduct broad programs of research in their respective fields. Many projects are initiated as cooperative studies with other Federal agencies and with private institutions and organizations. The exceptional facilities of the institute frequently are made available to research scientists of such institutions. The studies of the divisions and laboratories are coordinated in a comprehensive program of research so that a particular problem may be approached through various related sciences. Many studies are conducted at field stations, either in branch laboratories of the institute or at the facilities of cooperating institutions. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations.)

(c) The National Institute of Health administers a program of grants-in-aid for research in the medical sciences. Through this program, the Public Health Service provides financial assistance to public and private institutions and to individual scientists whose applications for such aid are recommended and certified by the National Advisory Health Council, or, in the case of cancer research, by the National Advisory Cancer Council. Final authority to approve and allot such grants (after certification by one of the above councils) has been delegated to the Director of the National Institute of Health by the Surgeon General. The Research Grants Division also acts as a clearing house in processing and auditing all research grants allotted by the Public Health Service, including those allotted by the Division of Mental Hygiene, Bureau of Medical Services, after certification by the National Advisory Mental Health Council.

(d) Fellowships for research scientists also are provided by the National Institute of Health.

§ 02.303 National Cancer Institute. (a) The National Cancer Institute is a division of the National Institute of Health; it conducts and sponsors research upon the causes, prevention, and treatment of cancer. It also provides fellowships for research scientists interested in this field, as well as financial assistance for physicians desiring special training in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer. The National Cancer Institute also loans radium to qualified hospitals for the treatment of cancer patients.

(b) The National Cancer Institute administers a special program of grants-in-aid for research in its field. The National Advisory Cancer Council recommends and certifies the applications of public and private institutions and of individual scientists for such grants. This council is independent of the National Advisory Health Council, although joint meetings of the councils are held to consider the total research program of the National Institute of Health and the National Cancer Institute, and to make joint recommendations to the Surgeon General.

§ 02.304 Biologics Control Laboratory. Through its Biologics Control Laboratory, the National Institute of Health is immediately responsible for the administration of the provisions of the Public Health Service Act for the licensing of establishments engaged in the manufacture of biological products, and of their products. Licenses are issued by the Federal Security Administrator, under regulations made jointly by the Surgeons General of the Public Health Service, the Army, and the Navy, and approved by the Administrator. The Biologics Control Laboratory conducts inspections of the manufacturing establishments and tests of their products.

SUBPART D—BUREAU OF MEDICAL SERVICES

§ 02.401 Principal subdivisions:

Hospital Division.
Foreign Quarantine Division.
Mental Hygiene Division.

§ 02.402 Functions. (a) The major functions of this bureau are the provision of medical and hospital services and operation of the National Quarantine Service. In general, the Bureau of Medical Services may be considered as the unit within the Service which deals with clinical practice, as compared with research in the National Institute of Health and with public health practice in the Bureau of State Services.

(b) Officers of the Public Health Service are assigned to other Federal agencies for the purpose of developing, supervising, and, in some cases, rendering medical care. The Service provides medical and dental service to the U. S. Coast Guard at shore stations and aboard vessels. The program is administered by the Chief Medical Officer of the Coast Guard (a Public Health Service officer who holds rank of Assistant Surgeon General), in cooperation with the Chief of the Bureau of Medical Services. Medical and psychiatric units at Federal penal institutions are staffed by professional personnel of the Service, under the direct administration of a Public Health Service officer assigned to the Bureau of Prisons for this purpose. The hospitals, medical service, and public health programs of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, are supervised by Public Health Service physicians.

(c) Other Federal agencies to which one or more Public Health Service physicians are assigned through the Bureau of Medical Services for the development and administration of medical programs include: the Bureau of Employees' Compensation and the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (Federal Security Agency); the War Shipping Administration; and the Health Services Division, Labor Branch (Department of Agriculture).

§ 02.403 Hospital Division. (a) The Hospital Division operates 25 U. S. Marine Hospitals, the National Leprosarium, and supervises the administration of Freedman's Hospital. The U. S. Marine hospitals are operated as general hospitals where all types of illness and injury are treated; one of these, at Fort Stanton, New Mexico, is operated as a tuberculosis hospital. All beneficiaries of the Public Health Service are eligible for care in the U. S. Marine Hospitals.

(b) The National Leprosarium at Carville, Louisiana, receives persons afflicted with leprosy from any part of the United States and provides medical and institutional care for them.

(c) Freedmen's Hospital, located in Washington, D. C., is operated as a general hospital for the care of Negro patients; it is the teaching hospital of Howard University.

(d) The Hospital Division also administers all other forms of medical and dental care provided for beneficiaries of the Service in dispensaries and field stations located at coastal and inland ports not served by a U. S. Marine Hospital. In all there are 141 hospitals and field stations in the continental United States and our territories and possessions, to which beneficiaries of the Service may turn for immediate attention. Eleven of the U. S. Marine Hospitals also operate supplementary dispensaries in the business section of the ports which they serve. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations.)

§ 02.404 Foreign Quarantine Division. (a) The Foreign Quarantine Division is immediately responsible for the enforcement of the national foreign quarantine laws, as they apply to sea, land and air transport. Officers of the Service examine crews and passengers arriving at sea-and-airports and border stations in the United States for the purpose of preventing the introduction of quarantinable disease. It also administers activities of the Service in connection with the physical and mental examination of immigrants to the United States. For this purpose, officers of the Service are detailed to consulates of the United States in foreign countries, and to the quarantine and immigration stations of this country. At small ports of entry and border stations, quarantine and immigration services are provided through the principal stations. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations.) At foreign ports, persons intending to emigrate to the United States are examined by Public Health Service officers before receiving their visas. At immigration stations in this country, immigrants are examined and the Public Health Service certifies to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (Department of Justice) the physical and mental eligibility of such persons.

(b) The Foreign Quarantine Division operates 25 major quarantine stations in the continental United States; 117 additional ports and border points are served through these stations, through other facilities of the Public Health Service, or through part-time quarantine officers. Quarantine stations also are located in the Hawaiian Islands, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Alaska and the Panama Canal Zone. At present, officers of the Public Health Service are assigned for immigration service to American consulates in Canada, Cuba, England, France, Germany, Italy, Holland, China, Japan, Mexico, and the Philippine Islands. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations.)

§ 02.405 Mental Hygiene Division. (a) The Mental Hygiene Division administers the National Mental Health Act, Public Law 487 (79th Cong.), approved July 3, 1946. The act provides for the establishment of a National Mental Health Institute to conduct a program of research upon the causes, prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of mental and nervous diseases; to allot grants-in-aid for research to public and private nonprofit institutions, and to individual scientists. The act further authorizes: financial assistance to similar institutions for training of psychiatrists and other personnel concerned with the diagnosis, treatment, and care of mental patients; financial assistance to individuals for such training; allotment of grants-in-aid to the States for the development of community mental health services; and the conduct of demonstrations by the Public Health Service and other activities which will promote the mental health of the Nation. The act establishes a National Advisory Mental Health Council to advise the Public Health Service on all matters pertaining to mental health, and to recommend and approve grants-in-aid for research and for training.

(b) The Mental Hygiene Division operates two hospitals at which mentally ill beneficiaries of the Public Health Service and of other Federal agencies, including the armed services, are treated. To these hospitals also, Federal prisoners who are addicted to the use of narcotic drugs are transferred for treatment and rehabilitation. Any person who is a drug addict may also obtain treatment at these hospitals by voluntary admission. A program of research upon narcotic drug addiction and upon the medical use of narcotics is also carried on by this division.

SUBPART E—BUREAU OF STATE SERVICES

§ 02.501 Principal subdivisions.

Hospital Facilities Division.
Industrial Hygiene Division.
States Relations Division.
Tuberculosis Control Division.
Venereal Disease Division.

§ 02.502 Functions. The major function of this bureau is the administration of all phases of the Federal-State cooperative health program and the operation of Public Health Service activities initiated in support of that program. The bureau is not only responsible for the administrative programs at headquarters but also supervises services to States in the field and coordinates all other such services administered by other bureaus or divisions, as for example, those operated by the Division of Sanitary Engineering and the Division of Nursing, Office of the Surgeon General. Chiefs of divisions hold the rank of Medical Director.

§ 02.503 Administrative activities. Administrative activities common to all the Federal-State cooperative programs and common to all divisions of the bureau are carried on in coordinating services directly supervised by the chief of the bureau. These services include: budget, fiscal, administrative procedures, grants-in-aid, records and reports.

§ 02.504 Hospital Facilities Division. (a) This division is immediately responsible for administration of the Hospital Survey and Construction Act (Public Law 725, 79th Congress) approved August 13, 1946. The law authorizes the appropriation of Federal funds to be allotted to the States as grants-in-aid for the conduct of State-wide surveys of the needs for hospitals and related facilities, and for construction of such facilities. The Federal Hospital Council (see Subpart A, sec. 02.109 of this part) assists in the administration of the law.

(b) The Hospital Facilities Division also conducts fact-finding studies with respect to hospital services and related facilities, and it provides consultation and technical aid to the States in the various phases of their hospital survey and construction programs.

§ 02.505 Industrial Hygiene Division. (a) This division supervises the industrial hygiene phases of the total Federal-State cooperative health program, with special reference to the control of occupational diseases and the promotion of health among industrial workers. It provides consultant services and technical aid to the States, especially to State industrial hygiene units, as well as to industrial establishments and labor organizations. It sponsors and promotes the establishment and maintenance of industrial hygiene service in State governments.

(b) Among the special services provided by the Industrial Hygiene Division are: surveys of industrial hygiene problems within particular areas or industries; laboratory analysis of substances believed to be hazardous; investigation of occupational disease outbreaks, especially of occupational dermatoses, to determine the causes and to recommend methods for the elimination or control of the hazards; collection, analysis, and publication of occupational morbidity and mortality statistics. The several units of the division deal with, and offer technical assistance in the various elements of an industrial hygiene program, as: medical, engineering, and chemical control of hazards; industrial dentistry and nursing; morbidity records and reports.

§ 02.506 States Relations Division. (a) This division has two major functions: first, administration of that part of the Federal-State cooperative health program known as "general health services," and second, administration of acute communicable disease control activities of the Public Health Service, including interstate quarantine. The division also conducts demonstrations of new technics in public health control of disease in order to determine the methods by which local health services may bring the benefits of new discoveries to bear upon health problems of the people. These demonstrations are carried on in cooperation with selected local health departments and institutions. In cooperation with other divisions of the Service, the States Relations Division also initiates and conducts projects for the training of public health personnel employed by State and local agencies.

(b) For the control of acute communicable diseases, the division provides investigatory and consultant services to States and communities where outbreaks occur, or where the continued threat of an outbreak exists. Upon request of State health authorities, the Service may provide epidemiologic units to determine the cause, sources, and extent of the epidemic, to recommend control measures, and, in emergencies, to initiate controls pending the mobilization of local and other resources.

(c) In parts of the United States, certain diseases are endemic and present a continued threat of epidemics which may spread to other areas. The States Relations Divisions carries on programs for the control of these diseases to supplement the activities of State and local agencies and in cooperation with the States in affected areas.

(d) Activities of the States Relations Division are carried on at headquarters and at various field stations. (See Appendix A, List of Field Stations.)

§ 02.507 Tuberculosis Control Division. This division administers a broad program of grants-in-aid to the States, research, training, and demonstrations in the control of tuberculosis. The program sponsored by the division requires: survey of the problem of tuberculosis state by state and community by community; facilities and activities for the discovery of causes in large population groups, with follow-up and medical supervision of discovered cases; expansion and improvement of sanatorium facilities and treatment; and rehabilitation of tuberculous patients. The division provides consultant services in a variety of related fields, as: rehabilitation, tuberculosis nursing, medical social work, records, reports, and statistical evaluation of tuberculosis problems and programs. An extensive program of field studies upon the epidemiology, prevention, and treatment of tuberculosis is conducted by the division, in cooperation with other official and nonofficial organizations, and with certain industries concerned with the production of radiologic equipment used in the diagnosis of tuberculosis.

§ 02.508 Venereal Disease Division. This division administers a broad program of grants-in-aid to States, research, training, and demonstrations in the control of syphilis and gonorrhea. It is also responsible for the development and administration of activities to prevent the spread of syphilis and gonorrhea from State to State. In this connection, it has developed a network of medical centers for the treatment of infectious patients; some of these facilities are operated by the division; others are operated by State and local health departments in cooperation with the division. The division also carries on an extensive program of education for professional groups and for the public. The division sponsors both laboratory and clinical research projects for the study of new methods in the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of venereal diseases. In addition to grants-in-aid for venereal disease control, the division provides consultant services and technical assistance to State and local health departments and carries on special cooperative programs with such agencies for the improvement of case-finding and other epidemiologic technics for the control of venereal diseases.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROCEDURES

GIFTS

§ 03.101 General statement. On behalf of the United States, the Federal Security Administrator is authorized to accept gifts made for the benefit of the U. S. Public Health Service or for carrying out its functions, in accordance with sections 403 and 501 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended. Information may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C.

CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES

§ 03.102 General statement. Procedures regarding claims for damage to or loss of property or injury to persons, alleged to have been caused by commissioned or civilian officers or employees of the Public Health Service (including claims for damages occasioned by collisions or incident to the operation of vessels of the Public Health Service) are described in Title 45, sec. 30.2.

CIVIL SERVICE POSITIONS

§ 03.103 General statement. Information regarding civil service positions in the Public Health Service may be obtained by writing to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. For procedures and forms prescribed by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, see Code of Federal Regulations, Title 5.

(a) The Public Health Service offers internship training in medicine and dentistry in civil service positions at some of its stations; information regarding such training may be obtained by writing to the Surgeon General.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE SURGEON GENERAL

REGULAR AND RESERVE COMMISSIONED CORPS

§ 03.201 General statement. Commissions in the Regular and Reserve Corps of the Public Health Service are available to individuals trained in the fields of medicine, dentistry, sanitary engineering, pharmacy, scientific specialties related to public health, nursing, dietetics, and physical therapy. Regulations relating to the commissioned corps, prescribed by the President, are contained in Part 2 of this chapter.

All appointments in the commissioned corps are made by the President and in the case of the Regular Corps are subject to confirmation by the Senate. Officers retain commissions in the Regular Corps for life, contingent upon their passing prescribed promotion and physical examinations. Reserve commissions are for a period of not more than five years, after which an officer may be reappointed. Reserve commissions may be terminated at any time by the Federal Security Administrator, upon recommendation of the Surgeon General, under authority delegated to the Administrator by the President (Executive Order 9655, sec. 3.11).

§ 03.202 Application for commission. Applications may be made on Form 8938 "Application for Commission in the United States Public Health Service." Application forms and instructions may be obtained by writing to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C., attention: Division of Commissioned Officers. Eligibility requirements and the contents of the application are described in the regulations.

§ 03.203 Regular Corps; examiations and appointment. Competitive written examinations for appointment in the Regular Corps are usually held annually in the principal cities in the early spring or summer. Announcements of the time and place of examinations are published at least thirty days prior to the date of the examination, in the leading medical and other professional journals. Applicants with satisfactory qualifications are instructed to present their completed applications and supporting documents to a board of commissioned officers, appointed by the Surgeon General, which conducts oral and written professional examinations and physical examinations as prescribed in regulations.

The procedure for establishment of merit rolls on the basis of examination ratings and relative standings of candidates, and for nominations from merit rolls, are described in the regulations.

§ 03.204 Reserve Corps; examination and appointment. The examination consists of a review of the candidate's qualifications by the examining board in Washington, D. C., and a physical examination which is arranged at a Public Health Service station. Recommendations for appointment of a candidate, after approval by the Surgeon General and the Federal Security Administrator, are transmitted to the President for final action.

§ 03.205 Other provisions governing commissioned officers. Procedures regarding allotments, leave, promotion, separation, retirement, uniforms, decorations, and discipline, of commissioned officers, are described in the regulations.

LAND AND AIR CARRIER SANITATION

§ 03.231 General statement. Common carriers must comply with requirements of the Interstate Quarantine Regulations, contained in Part 12 of this chapter, regarding the sanitary quality of food and drinking water served on conveyances operating in interstate traffic. The activities described here are performed under the supervision of the Land and Air Carrier Section of the Sanitary Engineering Division.

§ 03.232 Water supplies and watering points. (a) Sources of water used on carriers are inspected to determine compliance with the Drinking Water Standards prescribed in the regulations. Sanitation features of watering points are inspected to determine compliance with the regulations; these inspections are made on the basis of provisions of the Sanitation Manual for Land and Air Conveyances Operating in Interstate Traffic; Public Health Reports Reprint No. 2444, 1943.

(b) Immediately before the beginning of each calendar year all carrier companies are circularized by letter from the Surgeon General requesting a statement identifying sources of water used by the carrier, ownership of the supply, and location of watering points at which the water is loaded on the conveyances. This information submitted to district offices of the Service and is transmitted by them to the appropriate State health authorities. In cooperation with the district offices, State authorities inspect the water supplies and watering points. Inspection reports and recommendations are sent to the district offices, and to the carrier company. On the basis of these reports and recommendations, the district offices recommend to the Surgeon General one of three certifications: (1) Approved; (2) Provisionally approved pending correction of defects, with a time limit set for correcting deficiencies found; (3) Prohibited. If the supply or point is given a prohibited certification, the carrier may not, consistent with the regulations, take on water at that point. A prohibited point will be reinspected upon receipt of a request for such reinspection addressed to the Surgeon General by the carrier company. Carrier companies are notified of certifications by the Surgeon General on Form 8921–D entitled "Certification of Examination of Water Provided for Common Carriers Engaged in Interstate Traffic"; in the case of change to a "prohibited" certification the company is also notified by telegram.

§ 03.233 Food and milk. (a) The sanitary quality of food served on carriers and methods and facilities used in the handling, preparation, and serving of such food are inspected to determine compliance with the regulations; the Ordinance and Code for Eating and Drinking Establishments (recommended by the Public Health Service, 1943, Public Health Bulletin No. 280) is used as a guide in such inspections. Sources of milk served on conveyances are inspected to determine compliance with the regulations; the Milk Ordinance and Code (recommended by the Public Health Service, 1939, Public Health Service Bulletin No. 220) is used as a guide.

(b) On August 1 of each year the district offices send to the home offices of the carrier companies within their districts, copies of Form DS–1 which calls for a statement identifying the suppliers of food or milk served on its conveyances, the address of the supplier, and the type of container in which the product is received. Completed forms are returned to the district offices, which transmit the information received to the appropriate State health authorities who make necessary inspections. Inspection reports and recommendations are sent to the district offices. The reports are forwarded to the carrier companies with Form DS–6 which include certifications similar to those used for water supplies.

(c) Commissaries furnishing food to carrier companies and food handling facilities on the conveyances are inspected by personnel from the district offices. Reports on such inspections, along with recommendations for necessary improvements, are forwarded to the carrier company.

VESSEL SANITATION

§ 03.236 General statement. Sanitation of vessels operating as common carriers in interstate traffic, excepting ratproofing, are subject to the provisions of the Interstate Quarantine Regulations contained in Part 12 of this chapter. The activities relating to shore sources of water are performed under the supervision of the Land and Air Carrier Section of the Sanitary Engineering Division; those relating to sanitation on board vessels, under the Vessel Sanitation Section, Sanitary Engineering Division.

§ 03.237 Water supplies and watering points on shore. Procedures are the same as those described in § 03.232 (regarding land and air carrier water supplies and watering points) except that here the circularization is performed by District offices and data are submitted by the vessel company on a form entitled "Data Concerning Sources of Drinking Water used on Vessels."

§ 03.238 Sanitation on vessels. Vessels while in port are inspected by personnel of the district offices to determine compliance with the regulations; the tentative vessel sanitation manual (July 1944) is used as a guide in such inspections. The inspector prepares and presents to the senior officer on board a "Memorandum to the Captain of the Vessel" (Budget Bureau No. 68–R239), listing the defects found and recommended methods of correction. This memorandum is kept with the ship's papers. Upon the basis of the inspector's report to him, the district engineer in the district office transmits to the vessel operator either a record of inspection, which is issued in the case of vessels having defects and which records those defects and makes recommendations for their removal, or a certificate of compliance, which is issued to vessels on which no defects are found. A copy of the record or certificate is kept with the ship's papers until superseded.

ington 25, D. C., assist architects in developing constructions plans which will assure that sanitation aspects of the completed vessel will comply with regulations. Plans will be reviewed during the developmental stage, using the "Tentative Vessel Sanitation Manual" (July 1944) as a guide, and recommendations will be made as to any changes that may be indicated. Completed plans and specifications may be submitted to the Division in duplicate and, if approved, one set will be so marked and returned to the architects; if not approved, the plans and specifications will be returned with recommendations.

(b) In connection with the actual construction activity, the District offices will offer the advice of inspectors on compliance with plans or on measures necessary to qualify the vessel for certification by the Service of the vessel's drinking water system and ratproof construction. Upon completion of construction, such "Certificate of Inspection of Drinking Water System on Vessel," and "Certificate of Ratproof Construction" are issued to qualifying vessels and are valid until the vessel enters operation and is inspected during the course of its operation.

INTERSTATE SHIPMENT OF SHAVING AND LATHER BRUSHES

§ 03.246 General statement. Shaving or lather brushes may not be shipped or carried in interstate commerce unless manufactured in compliance with the regulations contained in Part 12 of this chapter.

§ 03.247 Permit: application and issuance. (a) Application forms for permits certifying approval of manufacturing procedures (Budget Bureau No. 68–R107) may be obtained from the Sanitary Engineering Division, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. This form calls for the name and location of the manufacturing establishment, a list of products manufactured or processed, and the signature and title of the executive officer of the establishment. The application form is submitted in duplicate to the Sanitary Engineering Division. The facilities and processes of the applicant's establishment are then inspected for compliance with provisions of the regulations by a representative of the District office within whose jurisdiction the establishment is located. Copies of the identifying marks to be used on brushes are also obtained. The District office transmits to the Sanitary Engineering Division an inspection report, together with recommendations. If upon the basis of the report the head of the General Sanitation Section of the Division determines that the establishment is complying with the regulations, a permit is forwarded to the applicant. If the application is not approved, the applicant is notified of this fact, reasons given, and suggestions are offered for improvements that would result in favorable action.

(b) After a permit is issued, all District offices and all State health authorities are so notified in order that establishment's products may be recognized on the market. State and local health departments make periodic checks of brushes for sale on the retail market and when brushes are found not carrying a registered mark as required by the regulations, a report of that fact is sent to the Surgeon General for enforcement action. Establishments holding permits are subject to periodic inspection; the permit is revoked if it is determined that the regulations are not complied with.

SHELLFISH SANITATION

§ 03.251 General statement. (a) As a service to the shellfish industry and to State authorities, the Public Health Service publishes, semimonthly, a list of shellfish shippers holding certificates issued by those State regulatory authorities which conduct a shellfish sanitation program approved by the Service on the basis of a "Manual of Recommended Practices for the Sanitary Control of the Shellfish Industry." The manual contains standards which generally have been agreed upon by the industry and State authorities.

(b) Copies of certificates issued by State authorities are forwarded to the Sanitary Engineering Division through the District offices for publication purposes. These lists are used by State and local health authorities as a source of information concerning the sanitary precautions observed by shellfish shippers.

§ 03.252 Approval of State control program. The District offices under the guidance of the General Sanitation Section of the Sanitary Engineering Division work with the States in the development and improvement of their control programs and also conduct annual evaluations of the States' activities. Reports on control programs conducted within the States are forwarded to the Division and are given consideration in determining whether continued endorsement of the States' programs is warranted.

GRANTS TO SCHOOLS OF NURSING

§ 03.261 General statement. (a) Grants to schools of nursing are authorized in Public Law 74 (78th Cong.), as amended, and are administered under Regulations, Parts 28 and 30 of this chapter. The purpose of such grants is to provide basic training for student nurses, under accelerated programs of study, and to provide postgraduate and refresher courses in nursing. Students in approved schools of nursing who enrolled in the basic training program formed the membership of the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps.

(b) On June 30, 1946, all grants except those providing for continued undergraduate training were discontinued. No new enrollments for any portion of the Nurse Training Program have been accepted by the schools since October 15, 1945. Students who entered the Corps prior to that date, however, may continue their courses of study in the school of nursing in which they are enrolled until completion of their training, provided that the school complies with all requirements of the program.

§ 03.262 Application for grants. Application forms (Forms 50) for continued participation in the Nurse Training Program are submitted annually to the Surgeon General by each school or institution. Information required in the application is described in Regulations, Part 28 of this chapter.

§ 03.263 Processing of application. Applications are reviewed by the Chief of the Division of Nursing and the Nurse Education Consultants of the Division. They recommend to the Surgeon General the action to be taken in each case.

§ 03.264 Approval of application. Upon the basis of these recommendations, the Surgeon General approves or disapproves the applications. If a proposed plan meets all requirements, a grant to the school is approved for one year. Official notification of approval, signed by the Surgeon General, is sent to the Director of the School.

COLLECTION OF MORBIDITY AND MORTALITY REPORTS

§ 03.271 General statement. Morbidity and mortality reports are collected by the Public Health Service from State or local governments, in accordance with section 313 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended, and provisions of International Sanitary Conventions to which the United States is a signatory power. Reporting policies and procedures are developed in consultation with the Conference of State and Territorial Health Officers.

§ 03.272 Reports. (a) Weekly and special telegraphic morbidity reports, monthly morbidity reports (Forms 8958–A and DF–399), quarterly mortality reports (Form 8958–C) and annual morbidity and mortality summaries (Forms 8964–A and 8964–B) are submitted by cooperating State Health Departments. (b) In addition to these State reports, weekly morbidity reports (Forms 8960–A) and annual morbidity and mortality summaries (Form 8960–B) are submitted directly by a selected sample of cities. (c) Report forms, as well as instructions governing such reports (Form 8958) may be obtained upon request from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 03.273 Processing and publication of data. Data obtained from these several reports are compiled and analyzed by the Division of Public Health Methods. Summaries of these data are made available to State and local health officers, Army and Navy medical departments, the Pan-American Sanitary Bureau, and other interested agencies in this country and abroad through (a) the "State Health Officers' Weekly Statement," (b) "Public Health Reports", and (c) answers to special inquiries from health officers and the public.

COLLECTION OF VITAL STATISTICS

§ 03.281 General statement. The National Office of Vital Statistics contracts with States, territories, and independent registration cities for the purchase of transcripts of births, death, and stillbirth certificates, in accordance with Title 13, U. S. Code, 101.

§ 03.282 Contracts for transcripts. Contracts are of two types: (1) for handwritten transcripts purchased from the State or city at the rate of four cents for each death transcript and three cents for each birth and stillbirth transcript; and (2) for microfilm transcripts at the rate of three cents each. Contracts are made for a term of five years provided that it is mutually agreed by the National Office of Vital Statistics and the State or city concerned, at least thirty days in advance of the end of each fiscal year during the term, that the contract shall continue in force. This permits revision of the contract or substitution of a new contract if it becomes necessary or desirable to do so.

§ 03.283 Use of transcripts. Transcripts purchased under these contracts are used by the National Office of Vital Statistics for statistical purposes only.

SUBPART C—NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HEALTH

BIOLOGICAL PRODUCTS; LICENSES

§ 03.301 General statement. Licenses are issued to establishments engaged in the manufacture and preparation of biological products, under the authority of section 351 of the Public Health Service Act. Standards designed to insure the continued safety, purity, and potency of such products are prescribed in regulations made jointly by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, the Surgeon General of the Army, and the Surgeon General of the Navy, and approved by the Administrator. They appear in Part 22 of this Chapter.

§ 03.302 Products and establishments subject to license. Products subject to license include any virus, therapeutic serum, toxin, antitoxin, or analogous product, or arsphenamine or its derivatives (or any other trivalent organic arsenic compound), applicable to the prevention, treatment, or cure of diseases or injuries of man. Foreign as well as domestic establishments are subject to license requirements with respect to products prepared for sale in the District of Columbia or to be carried across the lines of any State or possession for sale, barter, or exchange.

§ 03.303 Applications for licenses. Applications for licenses may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. Detailed information is required on the technical facilities of the establishment and on the methods of preparation and test of the product. Assistance in completing application forms may be obtained from the Biologics Control Laboratory, National Institute of Health, Bethesda 14, Maryland.

§ 03.304 Processing of applications. Completed applications, reviewed by the Biological Control Laboratory are forwarded with a report to the Surgeon General. The report is based in part on inspection of the establishment and laboratory tests of the product. The Surgeon General transmits the application, the report and his recommendations for action to the Federal Security Administrator. In certain cases the Surgeon General appoints a Special Board of Officers to review applications. The findings of the Board are submitted to the Administrator with the Surgeon General's recommendations.

§ 03.305 Issuance of licenses. Licenses for approved establishments and products are issued by the Administrator. Licensed establishments are subject to reinspection and licensed products to retesting.

§ 03.306 Suspension, cancellation, or revocation. Upon recommendation of the Surgeon General, the Administrator may suspend, cancel, or revoke licenses in accordance with regulations, Part 22 of this chapter. Such recommendations are ordinarily based upon inspection reports and laboratory tests.

§ 03.307 Hearings. The Surgeon General grants opportunity for hearings

(a) Prior to denial, revocation, or suspension of license; or

(b) After a license has been denied or, because of danger to health, summarily suspended without prior opportunity for a hearing.

Such hearings are provided before an officer or board of officers designated by the Surgeon General for that purpose. The findings and recommendations of the officers or board are forwarded by the Surgeon General with his recommendations to the Administrator.

§ 03.308 Complaints. Any person who has reason to question the safety, purity, or potency of any licensed biological products on the open market should communicate with the Biologics Control Laboratory.

GRANTS FOR RESEARCH

§ 03.331 General statement. Grants for medical research are made to universities, hospitals, laboratories, other public and private institutions and individual scientists, in accordance with sections 301 and 404 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.332 Applications for grants. Application forms and instructions for preparing the forms may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The principal items in the application require from the applicant detailed information on the proposed research project as well as the qualifications of those who would conduct it. Assistance in completing application forms may be obtained from the Research Grants Division.

§ 03.333 Processing of applications. Applications received are submitted to one or more of the Special Study Groups covering designated areas of medical research. These groups, consisting of Public Health Service scientists and outside consultants, review applications and prepare recommendations for consideration by the appropriate National Advisory Council. Applications for grants for cancer research, accompanied by the Special Study Group's recommendations, are submitted to the National Advisory Cancer Council; those on mental hygiene research are submitted to the National Advisory Mental Health Council: and those on other medical research subjects are submitted to the National Advisory Health Council.

§ 03.334 Action following Council consideration. If the National Advisory Cancer Council or the National Advisory Health Council recommends approval of a grant, it transmits a Certificate of Approval to the Director of the National Institute of Health for final action under authority delegated by the Surgeon General. In the case of approval of a grant by the National Advisory Mental Health Council, the Certificate of Approval is submitted to the Surgeon General for final action. Upon final approval of a grant, the applicant is notified. Upon disapproval of a grant, the applicant is notified and, where appropriate, suggestions are given for revision to make the application acceptable.

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

§ 03.341 General statement. Research fellowships are awarded to individuals who have demonstrated outstanding or potential ability for scientific research in the various fields of science related to public health, in accordance with sections 301 and 402 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.342 Applications for fellowships. Application forms may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The principal items in the application form require from the applicant detailed information on his education, training, and experience.

§ 03.343 Processing of applications. Applications are considered by a Research Fellowship Board appointed by the Surgeon General. The Board consists of persons representing various fields of science.

§ 03.344 Action following Board consideration. If the Board approves a research fellowship, its recommendations are forwarded to the Surgeon General who awards the fellowship. If the Board disapproves an application, the applicant is so notified.

TRAINEESHIPS

§ 03.351 General statement. Traineeships in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer are given to properly qualified physicians, in accordance with section 403 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.352 Applications for traineeships. Application forms and instructions may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The forms require data on the applicant's education and experience, his reason for seeking the training, and his plans for making use of it. A personal interview with a member of the staff of the National Cancer Institute, the National Advisory Cancer Council, or a District Director of the Public Health Service is required.

§ 03.353 Processing of applications. The application and the report of the personal interview are reviewed by the Chief of the National Cancer Institute, or by persons designated by him, and the applicant is notified by letter whether he has been accepted for training.

§ 03.354 Action following approval of applications. If the application is approved, the applicant is appointed as a trainee on the staff of the National Cancer Institute to be effective on a date agreed upon.

RADIUM LOANS

§ 03.361 General statement. Loans of radium are made to agencies and institutions for treatment of cancer patients and for cancer research, in accordance with sections 402 and 403 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.362 Applications for loans. Application forms and a statement of the conditions under which loans are granted may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The application requires a description of the size and equipment of the hospital or clinic, the qualifications of the staff, and a statement of the number of cancer patients using the facilities. In order to coordinate the loan program with the cancer control programs of State health departments, applicants are required to secure approval of the applications from their respective State health departments.

§ 03.363 Processing of applications. The completed application is reviewed by the Chief of the National Cancer Institute, or persons designated by him. The main points considered are the qualifications of staff, the need for the radium as determined by the amount the hospital already has and the number of cancer patients using its facilities, the adequacy of the hospital's radiological equipment and the availability of other radium in the community. In order to effect an equitable distribution of radium, loans already made to institutions in the State and community are considered.

§ 03.364 Loan contract. The applicant is notified of the decision made on his application. If the loan is approved, a loan contract is sent to the applicant for signature. The essential elements in the contract provide that the borrowers agree to:

(a) Replace any lost radium.

(b) Make no charge to patients for the use of the radium.

(c) Permit the radium to be used for treatment purposes only by experts whose qualifications are the equivalent of the standards established for radiologists by the American Board of Radiology.

(d) Maintain adequate standards for the protection of their personnel from overexposure to the radium, and

(e) Furnish such reports on the use of the radium as the Service may require.

Upon completion of the contract, the radium is shipped to the borrower. Loan contracts are made for a period of one year and may be renewed.

SUBPART D—BUREAU OF MEDICAL SERVICES

MEDICAL CARE; GENERAL INFORMATION

§ 03.401 Addresses of U. S. Marine Hospitals and medical relief stations. For addresses of marine hospitals, medical relief stations and other field stations of the Service, see Appendix A, Part 02 of this Chapter.

§ 03.402 Saint Elizabeths Hospital and Freedmen's Hospital. For organization, procedures, and regulations of these institutions, see Chapters III and IV of this title.

MEDICAL CARE FOR SEAMEN AND OTHERS

§ 03.421 General statement. Persons listed below are entitled to medical, surgical and dental treatment and hospitalization, without charge, at Service hospitals and established medical relief stations of the Public Health Service. In emergencies, such treatment may be furnished at private and other than Service facilities at Public Health Service expense when authorized. These services are furnished in accordance with Regulations, Part 2a of this Chapter.

Group 1. Seamen employed on vessels of the United States registered, enrolled, and licensed under the maritime laws thereof, other than canal boats engaged in the coasting trade;

Group 2. Seamen employed on United States or foreign-flag vessels as employees of the United States through the War Shipping Administration;

Group 3. Seamen, not enlisted or commissioned in the military or naval establishments, who are employed on State-school ships or on vessels of the United States Government of more than five tons' burden;

Group 4. Seamen on vessels of the Mississippi River Commission;

Group 5. Officers and crews of vessels of the Fish and Wildlife Service;

Group 6. Seamen on foreign-flag vessels owned or operated by United States citizens or corporations;

Group 7. Enrollees in the United States Maritime Service on active duty and members of the Merchant Marine Cadet Corps;

Group 8. Cadets at State maritime academies or State training ships;

Group 9. Employees and noncommissioned officers in the field service of the Public Health Service when injured or taken sick in line of duty.

§ 03.422 Form of application—(a) Groups 1–6. All seamen in these groups must present a Master's Certificate, Form 1915, in person or by proxy if unable to appear themselves. The seaman or master of the vessel may obtain this form from the nearest Service hospital or medical relief station upon request. If Form 1915 is not available, other evidence of recent employment as a seaman beneficiary is acceptable.

(b) Groups 7–8. A written request from a responsible official of the organization concerned must be furnished.

(c) Group 9. Evidence of status as Public Health Service field employee.

§ 03.423 Place of application. Persons in all groups make application to the admitting office of the Service hospital or second class medical relief station, the medical officer in charge of third class medical relief stations or the authorized Government representative in charge of fourth class medical relief stations.

§ 03.424 Emergency treatment—(a) Groups 1–6. In emergencies where application cannot be made in person to an established medical relief facility of the Service, application may be sent to a medical officer in charge of a medical relief station, quarantine station, or to a Public Health Service District Director, together with documents evidencing eligibility as a seaman beneficiary. Application must be made at the time treatment is required .

(b) Groups 7–8. Same as for Groups 1–6 and, in addition, application made to the responsible officer of the Public Health Service assigned to a Maritime Service, Merchant Marine Cadet Corps school or State Maritime Academy.

(c) Group 9. Same as for Groups 1–6 and, in addition, when on duty in any foreign place, the officer in charge or the patient himself, if necessary, may make arrangements for care and treatment without prior authorization.

§ 03.425 Eligibility for treatment. (a) Upon examination of the application and oral interrogation, where required, the admitting officer or medical officer in charge or authorized Government representative, as the case may be, determines eligibility in accordance with Regulations, Part 2a of this chapter. If found eligible, medical relief benefits are accorded the patient; if not, the applicant is rejected. Where, due to the emergency of the case, treatment at other than Service facilities is indicated, the Service or other authorized official receiving the application examines the evidence of eligibility, determines whether a true emergency exists and authorizes treatment for the applicant if eligibility is established. If time does not permit, treatment is authorized conditionally pending establishment of eligibility and genuineness of the emergency.

(b) Where the admitting or authorizing official of the Service is in doubt as to eligibility, he submits a report of the case to the headquarters of the Public Health Service, for decision by the Chief of the Hospital Division, or someone designated by him. Treatment is withheld pending receipt of this decision, except for emergency treatment which is furnished provisionally.

MEDICAL CARE FOR COAST GUARD PERSONNEL AND OTHERS

§ 03.441 General statement. Persons listed below are entitled to medical, surgical, and dental treatment and hospitalization, without charge, at Service hospitals and established medical relief stations of the Public Health Service. In emergencies, such treatment may be furnished at private and other than Service facilities at Service expense when authorized. These services are furnished in accordance with the regulations contained in Executive Order 9703 (11 F. R. 2625).

Group 1—Coast Guard. (a) Commissioned officers, chief warrant officers, warrant officers, cadets, and enlisted personnel of the Regular Coast Guard, including those on shore duty and those on detached duty, whether on active duty or retired;

(b) Regular members of the Coast Guard Reserve when on active duty or when retired for disability;

(c) Temporary members of the Coast Guard Reserve when on active duty or in case of physical injury incurred or sickness or disease contracted while performing active Coast Guard duty;

(d) Members of the Women's Reserve of the Coast Guard when on active duty or when retired for disability;

(e) Members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary in case of physical injury incurred or sickness or disease contracted while performing active Coast Guard duty.

Group 2—Coast and Geodetic Survey. Commissioner officers, ship's officers, and members of the crews of vessels of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, including those on shore duty and those on detached duty, whether on active duty or retired.

Group 3—Public Health Service. (a) Commissioned officers of the Regular Corps of the Service, whether on active duty or retired;

(b) Commissioned officers of the Reserve Corps of the Service when on active duty or when retired for disability.

Group 4. Lightkeepers, assistant lightkeepers, and officers and crews of vessels of the former Lighthouse Service, including any such persons who, subsequent to June 30, 1939, have involuntarily been assigned to other civilian duty in the Coast Guard; who were entitled to medical relief at hospitals and other stations of the Service prior to July 1, 1944; and who are now or hereafter on active duty or who have been or may hereafter be retired under the provisions of section 6 of the Act of June 20, 1918, as amended (33 U. S. C. 763).

§ 03.442 Form of application. The applicant must present evidence of status or connection with the Service groups specified above.

§ 03.443 Place of application. Persons make application to the admitting office of a Service hospital or second class medical relief station, the medical officer in charge of third class medical relief stations or the authorized Government representative in charge of fourth class medical relief stations.

§ 03.444 Emergency treatment. In emergencies where application cannot be made in person to established facilities of the Service, an officer or other supervisory official of the organization concerned arranges for treatment or hospitalization at private and other than Service facilities at Public Health Service expense. As soon as possible, a report of the case is made to the Chief of the Hospital Division, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. Transfer of the patient to an established Service facility or other Federal medical facility is effected as soon as the condition of the patient permits.

§ 03.445 Eligibility for treatment. (a) Upon examination of the certificate of identification or other written evidence of status, the receiving Service officer determines eligibility in accordance with regulations (Executive Order 9703). Treatment is then furnished at Public Health Service facilities, other Federal medical facilities, or at private facilities where the former are not available.

(b) When the admitting or authorizing official of the Service is in doubt as to eligibility, he submits a report of the case to the headquarters of the Public Health Service for decision by the Chief of the Hospital Division, or someone designated by him. Treatment is withheld pending receipt of this decision, except for emergency treatment which is furnished provisionally.

MEDICAL CARE—FOR DEPENDENTS AND OTHERS

§ 03.461 General statement. The types of medical care available to three groups of beneficiaries of the Public Health Service are described below.

Group 1. The following persons may receive medical advice and outpatient treatment at Service hospitals, second and third class medical relief stations, and hospitalization at Service hospitals only. Hospitalization in hospitals of the Service will be at a per diem cost to the officer, enlisted person or member of the crew concerned at the uniform rate set by the President for such dependents.

Dependent members of the families of personnel in the—

(a) Coast Guard. Commissioned officers, chief warrant officers, warrant officers, cadets, and enlisted personnel of the Regular Coast Guard, including those on shore duty and those on detached duty, whether on active duty or retired; and regular members of the United States Coast Guard Reserve and members of the Women's Reserve of the Coast Guard, when on active duty or when retired for disability.

(b) Coast and Geodetic Survey. Commissioned officers, ship's officers, and members of the crews of vessels of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, including those on shore duty and those on detached duty, whether on active duty or retired.

(c) Public Health Service. Commissioned officers of the Regular Corps of the Service, whether on active duty or retired, and commissioned officers of the Reserve Corps of the Service when on active duty or when retired for disability.

Group 2. Seamen on foreign flag vessels other than those entitled to free treatment by the Public Health Service may be hospitalized at Service hospitals and furnished outpatient treatment at Service hospitals, second and third class medical relief stations of the Service at rates prescribed by the Surgeon General and approved by the Administrator.

Group 3. Red Cross uniformed personnel serving with the Coast Guard will be furnished emergency hospitalization at Service hospitals only and at the uniform per diem reimbursement rate for Government hospitals as approved by the President. Emergency medical outpatient care and treatment will be furnished at Service hospitals and second class medical relief stations of the Service.

The services for persons in Group 1 are furnished in accordance with regulations contained in Executive Order 9703 (11 F. R. 2625), and for persons in Groups 2 and 3, in accordance with regulations.

§ 03.462 Form of application. (a) Group 1. Evidence of dependency status is acceptable in any appropriate form.

(b) Group 2. The foreign seamen must present an authorization for treatment signed by the master, owner or agent of the vessel; or by a responsible official of the consular office of the country concerned.

(c) Group 3. Proper evidence of assignment with the U. S. Coast Guard must be presented.

§ 03.463 Place of application. Application is made to the admitting office of the marine hospital, or second class medical relief station, or the medical officer in charge of the third class medical relief station.

§ 03.464 Eligibility for treatment. The Public Health Service medical officer receiving the application will determine eligibility of the applicants for treatment and furnish the required services in accordance with applicable regulations.

§ 03.465 Payment of bills. (a) Groups 1 and 3. The billing office of the Service hospital presents the patient with a bill, Form 1928, showing the number of days spent in the hospital and requesting that payment be made to the account of the Treasurer of the United States by check, money order, etc. Payment is made through the hospital.

(b) Group 2. Form 1928 is prepared and forwarded to the Collector of Customs for collection from the master, owner or agent of the foreign vessel or other responsible person or agency. Any voucherable expenditures authorized are paid by the responsible parties.

MEDICAL CARE FOR PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH LEPROSY

§ 03.481 General statement. Any person afflicted with leprosy residing in any State, territory, or the District of Columbia may be received into and treated at the U. S. Marine Hospital (National Leprosarium), Carville, Louisiana. This service is furnished in accordance with Part 2a of this chapter.

§ 03.482 Form of application. The application for admission may be in one of several forms, i. e., Form DF-118, a letter requesting permission to enter the Hospital, personal presentation at the Hospital, written or oral request through a State health officer, or any other appropriate communication to the Public Health Service.

§ 03.483 Place of application. Application may be made at any established facility of the Public Health Service.

§ 03.484 Eligibility for admission. Tissue slides for each patient must be sent to the medical officer in charge of the Hospital, Carville, Louisiana, for pathological examination and confirmation of the diagnosis. The information is transmitted to the Chief of the Hospital Division, Public Health Service, in order that arrangements may be authorized for transfer of the patient to Carville. Before the Public Health Service actually transfers the patient, he must execute and sign a statement indicating his willingness to be so transferred.

§ 03.485 Initial examination of arriving patients. The Public Health Service provides transportation and escort for the patient to the Hospital at Service expense. Upon arrival, the patient is examined by a board of three medical officers convened by the medical officer in charge for the purpose of final confirmation of the diagnosis. Treatment is prescribed for those whose conditions are confirmed; if diagnosis is not confirmed, the patients are discharged and returned to their homes.

§ 03.486 Discharge. The medical officer in charge of the Hospital convenes a board of three medical officers and the patient is examined. A recommendation of the board that the patient be discharged is transmitted through the medical officer in charge to the Chief, Bureau of Medical Services, for final consideration.

§ 03.487 Notification to health authorities. Upon discharge of a patient, the medical officer in charge of the Hospital notifies the State health officer of the State where the patient expects to reside.

MEDICAL CARE FOR NARCOTIC DRUG ADDICTS

§ 03.501 General statement. Persons addicted to the use of habit-forming narcotic drugs who have been convicted of offenses against the United States, or who voluntarily submit themselves for treatment, are admitted and treated in hospitals of the Service especially equipped for the accommodation of such patients, in accordance with Part 8 of this chapter.

§ 03.502 Prisoners and probationers. (a) Prisoner addicts are admitted to such hospitals upon certification to the medical officer in charge by the Bureau of Prisons, Department of Justice. A certificate of addiction signed by the prosecuting officer, on the form "Preadmission Report of Drug Addiction in a Convicted Person," accompanies the prisoner. Custody and discharge are governed by rules and regulations of the Bureau of Prisons. For procedures regarding the granting, forfeiture, and restoration of industrial good time and good conduct allowances, see §§ 8.2, 8.3 of this chapter.

(b) Addicts placed on probation are admitted, upon presentation to the medical officer in charge, of a copy of the court order establishing the probation and a certificate of addiction signed by the prosecuting or probation officer.

(c) Upon discharge of a prisoner or probationer from a Public Health Service Hospital, determination of the cash, clothing and transportation allowances are made by the medical officer in charge in accordance with §§ 8.5, 8.6.

§ 03.503 Ex-prisoner patients, admission. One month prior to the expiration of sentence, each prisoner is examined by the medical officer in charge, or an officer designated by him, and is advised regarding further treatment. The prisoner may then apply for continued treatment on the form "Application of Prisoner for Treatment beyond Expiration of Sentence," obtained from the medical officer in charge. The contents of the form are described in § 8.4. The application is forwarded to the Chief, or Assistant Chief, Mental Hygiene Division, U. S. Public Health Service, for approval and return to the hospital. If the application is approved, the prisoner remains in the hospital as an ex-prisoner in accordance with § 8.4.

§ 03.504 Voluntary patients; admission. A person seeking admission as a voluntary patient must submit two forms: "Application for Voluntary Admission to a United States Public Health Service Hospital" and "Medical Certificate of Drug Addiction." The contents of these forms are described in § 8.7. If an applicant is financially unable to pay for his subsistence, care, and treatment, he must submit notarized affidavits, on the form "Affidavit of Applicant's Inability to Pay for Hospital Treatment," from three unrelated and disinterested persons, testifying to his inability to pay for treatment. All of the foregoing forms mentioned in this section, together with instructions for making applications, may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The Chief or Assistant Chief, Mental Hygiene Division, reviews the application and supporting papers and determines whether or not the applicant is eligible for admission. If eligible, the application is approved and, if suitable accommodations are available, the applicant is notified by a letter to proceed to the hospital at his own expense.

§ 03.505 Ex-prisoner and voluntary patients, discharge. Ex-prisoner and voluntary patients are discharged by the medical officer in charge (a) upon cure, or (b) upon expiration of the maximum period estimated to effect a cure, or (c) when the presence of such patient becomes, in the opinion of the medical officer in charge, detrimental to the hospital, or (d) in the case of a voluntary patient, upon failure to make payments required for care and treatment.

MEDICAL CARE; DISPOSITION OF MONEY AND EFFECTS OF DECEASED PATIENTS

§ 03.521 General statement. (a) The money and effects of deceased Service patients are disposed of as follows:

(1) Officers or enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Veterans' Bureau patients, to the legal representative.

(2) Alien patients, when the heirs all reside abroad and are all aliens and the total value of the money and effects is less than $500, to the proper consular officer; otherwise, to the collector of customs.

(3) Other service patients, to the legal representative, except that when the value of the money and effects is less than $500 and an executor or administrator has not been and will not be appointed, delivery may be made to the person or persons who under the laws of the domicile of the decedent or an applicable Federal statute would be entitled to receive the money and effects if administration were had.

(b) Unclaimed effects. Moneys and valuable effects of deceased patients of the Public Health Service remaining unclaimed for three months are delivered at the close of each quarter by the medical officer in charge of the Service station to the proper customs officer.

(c) Disposition of unclaimed effects. The valuable effects of deceased patients deposited with the customs officer, remaining unclaimed for a period of one year, are reported to the Hospital Division. The Administrator of the Federal Security Agency authorizes the sale of said effects by public auction. The proceeds are deposited to the credit of a special Treasury Department Account by the customs officer, subject to claim by legal claimants.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE; GENERAL INFORMATION

§ 03.552 Penalty procedures. For penalty procedures, see § 03.651.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE, VESSELS

§ 03.571 General statement. Vessels departing from foreign ports for ports under the control of the United States are required to comply with Quarantine Regulations (Part 11 of this chapter), (a) at ports of departure, (b) while en route, and (c) at time of first arrival on each voyage at a port in the United States, in accordance with secs. 361 to 368, inclusive, of the Public Health Service Act, as amended. Definitions of terms used in the following sections on Foreign Quarantine are contained in § 11.1 of this chapter.

§ 03.572 Measures at foreign ports and in transit. The master of a vessel is required to enter in the ship's sanitary log, or other official record, a statement of measures taken (a) at foreign ports, to comply with §§ 11.11 to 11.19, inclusive; and (b) in transit to comply with §§ 11.31, 11.32. The sanitary log is a record of events and conditions of sanitary significance to the vessel. The occurrence or suspected occurrence on board of any of the communicable diseases listed in § 11.24, while the vessel is in transit, must be reported by radio to the medical officer in charge at the port of entry.

§ 03.573 Measures at ports of arrival. (a) Upon arrival at a port under control of the United States, unless exempted by §§ 11.46, 11.47, vessels must anchor at a point designated by port authorities and await boarding and inspection by a quarantine officer of the U. S. Public Health Service. The vessel signifies its readiness for inspection by hoisting a yellow (Q) flag. The usual hours of boarding are 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., daily. Ships in distress or those carrying perishable cargoes may be boarded at any hour.

(b) Usually, a quarantine officer and one or more sanitary inspectors board the vessel. Quarantine and sanitary operations and inspections are conducted in accordance with §§ 11.63 to 11.71, inclusive; §§ 11.81 to 11.91, inclusive; and §§ 11.101 to 11.104, inclusive.

(c) If inspection requirements are met satisfactorily, the master of the vessel is given a free pratique, signed by the quarantine officer. A pratique is a certificate issued by a quarantine officer releasing or provisionally releasing a vessel from quarantine. This certificate, which permits the vessel to enter the port, is presented to the Collector of Customs as evidence of compliance with quarantine regulations.

(d) If inspection requirements are not met satisfactorily, the vessel may be detained in quarantine, or a provisional pratique may be issued by the quarantine officer permitting the ship to enter the port, but specifying additional measures which must be met before or after discharge of cargo or landing of passengers. For example, it may require fumigation before the cargo is unloaded or after the cargo is partially or completely unloaded. After the conditions specified in the provisional pratique are met, a free pratique may be issued.

(e) The Medical Officer in Charge of a Quarantine Station may grant pratique by radio as provided in § 11.125.

(f) Vessels arriving from a foreign port are subject to fumigation every 6 months. When a vessel is fumigated or inspected and found free of rodents, a deratization certificate or deratization exemption certificate is issued by the medical officer in charge. The certificate is valid for six months.

§ 03.574 Remanding of vessels. (a) As applied to vessels, the term "remand" is the procedure by which a vessel coming from a foreign port may be kept under quarantine surveillance as it proceeds from one United States port to another. The quarantine officer of the port from which a vessel is remanded transmits in writing, to the Collector of Customs and the quarantine officer at the port to which the vessel is remanded, a notice that the vessel is to remain under observation or is to be subjected to further quarantine measures. When a vessel is merely referred to another quarantine station for the purpose of continuing sanitary control, no notice is sent to the Collector of Customs.

(b) Vessels remanded to other United States ports. (1) Vessels which have residue cargo for other United States ports sufficient in amount to prevent complete and final rat infestation inspection, and on which the observed evidence of active rat life is insufficient to warrant fumigation, are remanded to the next United States port at which cargo will be discharged for further inspection and for such treatment as may be indicated.

(2) When a vessel has been granted provisional pratique and remanded to another quarantine station for fumigation, the master or agents are given explicit instructions in writing relative to the required fumigation.

(3) Vessels containing an appreciable amount of residue cargo for other United States ports after fumigation are remanded to the next United States port where cargo is to be discharged, for further search for rats and for such additional treatment as may be indicated. When a deratization certificate cannot be completed on account of inability to ascertain the results of fumigation, the incomplete certificate is forwarded with the notice of remand to the station receiving the remand. The certificate is completed by the quarantine station making the final inspection and is delivered to the master or to the agents for the vessel.

(4) In remanding a vessel full information as to the reasons therefor are given to the station receiving the remand.

(5) Notice of remand is timed to reach its destination at least 48 hours ahead of the arrival of the vessel concerned, a telegram being sent when necessary.

(c) Vessels remanded from other United States ports. (1) If from known or suspected plague ports: The vessel is treated as if direct from infected ports except that the vessel may be permitted to dock and to discharge cargo under supervision of the quarantine station. Quarantine treatment is predicated upon the finding of the inspection undertaken during the discharge of cargo. If the vessel has residue cargo for other United States ports, it is remanded to the next port where cargo will be discharged unless preliminary inspection shows the need for immediate fumigation.

(2) If from non-plague ports. The vessel is treated as if direct from a clean foreign port.

(d) Upon completion of quarantine treatment at a port to which a vessel has been remanded, a report of the action taken and of the results obtained is sent to the quarantine station which remanded the vessel.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE; AIRCRAFT

§ 03.591 General statement. Aircraft departing from a foreign port for a port under the control of the United States are required to comply with Part 11 of this chapter, at (a) ports of departure, (b) while en route, and (c) at time of first arrival on each flight at a port in the United States.

§ 03.592 Measures at foreign ports and in transit. An aircraft quarantine declaration (a form available at any quarantine station) showing sanitary measures undertaken and statements of the occurrence of any sickness among passengers or persons employed on board and of any sanitary treatment performed en route must be presented on arrival to the quarantine officer.

§ 03.593 Measures at airports of entry. (a) Upon arrival at an airport under the control of the United States, unless exempted by regulations, all aircraft are inspected by a quarantine officer of the Public Health Service. No cargo, passengers or baggage may be discharged without permission of the quarantine officer.

(b) Usually, a quarantine officer and a sanitary inspector board the aircraft. The quarantine officer may inspect the passengers in quarters outside the aircraft. Quarantine and sanitary operations (including insecticide spraying) and inspections are conducted in accordance with §§ 11.63 to 11.71, inclusive, §§ 11.81 to 11.91, inclusive, §§ 11.101, 11.102 and 11.104 and §§ 11.503 to 11.516, inclusive.

(c) If inspection requirements are met satisfactorily, the passengers are released from quarantine jurisdiction and pass on to the jurisdiction of the Immigrations and Customs Service.

(d) If inspection requirements are not met satisfactorily, or in the case of infected aircraft, control measures including observation, surveillance, detention, and vaccination of persons and disinfection or disinfestation of the aircraft, may be undertaken as provided in the Regulations.

(e) An aircraft arriving from a foreign airport may be required to proceed to another airport with all passengers, crew and cargo, for required quarantine and sanitary measures, upon determination by the quarantine officer that the aircraft cannot be adequately handled at the airport of arrival.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE; PERSONS

§ 03.611 General statement. Unless aboard an aircraft or vessel exempt under §11.46, all persons arriving at an airport or port under the control of the United States from a foreign country are subject to quarantine regulations contained in Part 11 of this chapter, in accordance with sections 361 to 368, inclusive, of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.612 Measures at port of arrival and airports of entry. (a) Upon arrival, except as provided in § 11.65, all persons, their personal effects and their records are subject to measures determined by the Quarantine Officer as necessary to prevent the introduction of quarantinable diseases into the United States. These measures, including detention, observation and surveillance, are set forth in §§ 11.64 to 11.71, inclusive.

(b) Persons arriving on infected vessels or aircraft are subject to detention, isolation, vaccination and other control measures set forth in §§ 11.81 to 11.91, inclusive.

(c) Aliens are subject to physical and mental examinations required by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. The examinations are made by medical officers of the Public Health Service.

§ 03.613 Border quarantine. Persons entering the United States at international border stations are subject to all pertinent requirements governing persons entering from aircraft or vessels; that is, detention, observation, surveillance, vaccination and other restrictions as set forth in §§ 11.136 to 11.140, inclusive.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE; IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN THINGS

§ 03.631 General statement. Quarantine regulations governing the importation of lather brushes; psittacine birds; pet cats, dogs and monkeys; etiological agents and vectors; and dead bodies, are contained in §§ 11.151 to 11.157, inclusive, in accordance with §§ 361 to 368, inclusive, of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.632 Lather brushes.[1] For procedures, see § 11.151. On written request by an importer, the Surgeon General will register and appropriately distribute information on trade-marks on lather brushes that are approved as free from anthrax.

§ 03.633 Psittacine birds. For procedures, see §§ 11.152, 11.153. Under these sections, no prescribed forms have been adopted for (a) the request by the importer to the Surgeon General for permission to import the birds, and (b) the permit. Until forms are adopted, if the information required is in writing, it will suffice:

§ 03.634 Pet cats, dogs and monkeys. For procedures, see §§ 11.154 and 11.155.

§ 03.635 Etiological agents and vectors. Applications in writing for permits to import etiological agents and vectors, described in § 11.156, should be addressed to the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. If the application is approved, the Surgeon General issues a "Permit to Import Bacteria, Viruses, or Disease Vectors" and copies are sent to the Collector of Customs and the Quarantine Officer at the port of entry. The Collector of Customs will not release a shipment until receipt of a permit from the Surgeon General. In special cases, the Surgeon General may issue a permit by telegram.

§ 03.636 Dead bodies. For procedures, see § 11.157.

FOREIGN QUARANTINE; PENALTY PROCEDURES

§ 03.651 General statement. Penalties for violations of quarantine regulations, Part 11 of this chapter, are prescribed in secs. 367 and 368 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

§ 03.652 Action following violations. (a) When a violation of quarantine laws or regulations by any person is reported to or discovered by the medical officer in charge of a Quarantine Station, he notifies the person by letter, stating the violation and requesting a statement of facts. In the case of a violation by a vessel or aircraft, the medical officer in charge notifies the Collector of Customs who in turn notifies the operator, owner, or agent of the violation and of the forfeiture incurred. The operator or owner of the conveyance may apply to the Surgeon General for remission or mitigation of such forfeiture; the application may be transmitted to the Collector of Customs.

(b) The file in each case is forwarded by the medical officer in charge or by the Collector of Customs to the Chief of the Foreign Quarantine Division for consideration of whether the circumstances warrant prosecution proceedings in the case of violation by a person, or forfeiture proceedings in the case of violation by a vessel or aircraft.

(c) Violation by a person. If, in his judgment, prosecution is not justified, the Division Chief so notifies the medical officer in charge. If he believes prosecution is justified, the Division Chief, through the Chief of the Bureau, so advises the Surgeon General who decides whether to recommend to the Federal Security Administrator that the matter be referred to the Department of Justice for prosecution.

(d) Violation by a vessel or aircraft. The Division Chief, through the Bureau Chief, recommends to the Surgeon General whether or not the forfeiture should be remitted or the extent to which it should be mitigated. The Surgeon General makes a final determination, with the approval of the Federal Security Administrator, and the Collector of Customs is so notified. The Surgeon General, with the advice of the Division and Bureau Chiefs, makes recommendations to the Federal Security Administrator as to whether forfeiture cases shall be referred to the Department of Justice for further proceedings.

(e) During the time a vessel stands charged with a violation, it will not be given a clearance for sailing by the Customs Service, unless a Customs Bond is executed on Customs Forms 7567 or 7569. These forms provide that the principal shall pay all charges, penalties, or other sums legally due the United States from any master or owner of the vessel, and also for the payment of such penalties as may be incurred by the vessel itself.

SUBPART E—BUREAU OF STATE SERVICES

GRANTS TO STATES FOR HEALTH SERVICES

§ 03.701 General statement. Grants for (1) venereal disease control, (2) tuberculosis control, and (3) general health purposes are made to the 48 States, District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands pursuant to section 314 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended. Applicable regulations are contained in Part 9 of this chapter. Under the Public Health Service Act such regulations are made only after conference with the State health authorities.

General administrative responsibility for the three programs is exercised by the following Divisions in the Bureau of State Services: (1) Venereal Disease Control, (2) Tuberculosis Control, and (3) States Relations. In addition, the Industrial Hygiene Division in the Bureau of State Services is responsible for aspects of the general health program which involve industrial hygiene, and the Mental Hygiene Division in the Bureau of Medical Services is responsible for aspects of the general health program which relate to mental health. An administrative office (Grants-in-Aid Section) in the Bureau is concerned with the personnel and fiscal management phases of the grant programs.

§ 03.702 Determination of amounts available for allotment. Based upon the recommendation of the division heads and the Bureau Chief, the Surgeon General transmits to the Administrator for approval his written determination of what part of the total sum of each of the appropriations under subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 314 of the act shall be available for allotment among the States.

§ 03.703 Making of allotments. With respect to each of the three programs, the division head concerned determines the allotment to each State, upon the basis of criteria prescribed in regulations. When feasible, estimates of allotments are made prior to the beginning of the fiscal year. Each State health authority is notified of such allotments (or estimates of allotments) by letter of the Bureau Chief prepared in the Grants-in-Aid Section. The Secretary of the Treasury is also notified.

§ 03.704 State plans; forms. Payments from allotments to States are made only when a plan has been presented by the health authority and approved by the Surgeon General. The plan, which may include all three programs, comprises two parts. Parts I and II of the plan are prepared on Form 9413 and Joint Budget Form Series 3, which are furnished to State authorities together with instructions. The first form requires information on the organization of State health activities, the number of personnel assigned to such activities, and a description and evaluation of the proposed health program.

The Joint Budget Form requires a statement of proposed expenditures (and the expected source of funds) for each unit of the health department, and for each political sub-division of the State which is receiving State or Federal aid, or in which local funds are to be used by the State to fulfill the matching requirements prescribed in the Regulations.

§ 03.705 State plans; preparation. Specialized consultants of the Service (general medical, venereal disease, tuberculosis, dental, sanitary engineering, industrial hygiene, mental hygiene, nursing, and fiscal) in the District Offices of the Service assist the States in developing health programs and in preparing the plan concerning such programs. Close working relationships are maintained with the State health authorities for this purpose. The consultants maintain direct contact with the respective division offices at headquarters for guidance in this work.

§ 03.706 Plans; submission and approval. Plans are submitted by the State health authorities to the respective District Office where they are reviewed. Generally, the District Director tentatively approves or disapproves the plan, and transmits the plan to headquarters for final action. The State health authority is notified of final approval or disapproval.

Amendments of approved plans are handled in the same fashion as the original plans.

§ 03.707 Payments from allotments. After its plan is approved, a State authority may submit an application for payment on Form 8944. The form contains (a) a statement of the program for which grant monies are requested and (b) certifications (1) that monies listed in the plan as emanating from State or local sources will be available for expenditure according to the plan; (2) that no portion of such funds will be used as a basis for requests for grants from any other agency of the United States; and (3) that monies paid to the State will not be used to reduce State or local appropriations or expenditures for public health services. Payment vouchers are prepared which, when signed by the Surgeon General and approved by the Administrator, are transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 03.708 Merit system requirements. On the basis of documents submitted by the State (including applicable rules and regulations, and classification and compensation plans), the District Office reviews the system of personnel administration of the State and local units to determine compliance of the State plan with the standards contained in "Merit System Policies of the Public Health Service" as provided in the Regulations. Consultants are sent to State health departments which request their assistance in developing the merit system. On the basis of a review by analysts of the Grants-in-Aid Section at headquarters, it is determined whether the system conforms with requirements and the State authority is so notified through the District Director.

§ 03.709 Use of grant monies for training. Grant monies may be utilized for training personnel for State and local health work in accordance with "Minimum Standards for Sponsored Training", a document which is distributed to all State health authorities. Expenditures for training persons employed or to be employed in official health programs are subject to post-audit by the District Offices at the time of the periodic audit of all grant-in-aid activities. Other expenditures for training must receive prior approval; applications for such training are submitted by State authorities to the respective District office which transmits the application to the Bureau with favorable or adverse recommendation; final approval or disapproval is made by the division head concerned based on a review by the Grants-in-Aid Section; and the State health authority is notified of such action through the District office.

§ 03.710 Audits. Audits of activities and programs described in the State plan and of fiscal transactions are made periodically, by arrangement with the State authority, by personnel attached to the District Office. Exceptions taken are reviewed by the District Director who recommends to the Bureau the sustaining or withdrawal of the exceptions. On the basis of a review by the Grants-in-Aid Section, and after consultation with the division head concerned, the Chief of the Bureau determines whether the exception shall be sustained or withdrawn.

Analysts also advise States as to methods of conducting fiscal affairs and upon request assist State and local health agencies in installing fiscal and related business methods, procedures, and records.

§ 03.711 Reports. Reports of information pertinent to the operation of State plans, which State authorities are required to submit, are described in § 9.15. Activity reports are received by the respective divisions and are tabulated and analyzed for program planning, control and administration.

GRANTS FOR RAPID TREATMENT FACILITIES

§ 03.731 General statement. Funds are made available through the Venereal Disease Division to any State or, with the consent of the State health authority, to any county, health district or other political subdivision of a State, for the operation of rapid treatment facilities in which persons infected with venereal diseases are given in-patient care, in accordance with authorizations contained in current appropriation acts, including Public Law 549 (79th Cong.). Under the same authority, funds may be allotted to rapid treatment facilities for the payment of fees to private physicians or non-profit institutions for the diagnosis and referral of persons infected with syphilis in the infectious or potentially infectious stages.

§ 03.732 Application for grant. Application forms and instructions for preparing the forms may be obtained from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington 25, D. C. The forms require information on the proposed plan and budget for the operation and maintenance of the facility, and on the financial resources of and contributions to be made by the applicant. Completed forms are submitted to the Surgeon General through the District Director. Evidence of the legal authority of the applicant to operate rapid treatment facilities and to receive and expend funds for that purpose may be required. A statement of "Terms and Conditions Governing Grants for Rapid Treatment Facilities" is sent to all applicants, which specifies types of acceptable and unacceptable facilities and the limits of Federal aid for such projects.

§ 03.733 Approval of applications. The Surgeon General notifies the applicant (a) of the basis on which he offers to extend Federal aid, including any modifications of the plan submitted, and (b) of the amount of Federal aid which he offers to make available. The applicant then notifies the Surgeon General of his acceptance or rejection of the offer on a form provided for this purpose. Upon notice of such acceptance, the Surgeon General determines the proportion of the total grant to be paid and certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury payment to the applicant of such sum less the pro rata value of services, supplies, facilities, and equipment to be furnished by the Service. Subsequent payments are made at intervals and in amounts determined by the Surgeon General, upon the bases of (a) the continued need of the facility, (b) the amount which, together with other available resources, is deemed sufficient for the maintenance and operation of the project for a particular period, and (c) the progress, financial status, and unit cost of the project as indicated by reports, audits, and inspections.

§ 03.734 Reports. Reports required from grantees are described in the statement "Terms and Conditions Governing Grants for Rapid Treatment Facilities" and in the form "Monthly Report of In-Patient Care".

COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS

§ 03.781 General statement. The Public Health Service engages in various cooperative public health programs with State and local health agencies, other Federal agencies, and voluntary or non-official organizations, in accordance with secs. 301, 311, and 314 of the Public Health Service Act, as amended. Cooperative programs as defined in this section are under the administration of the Bureau of State Services.

§ 03.782 Participation. The role of the Service in such programs may take the form of: detail of Public Health Service personnel; provision of materials and equipment; the organization of field study units to undertake particular investigations; or, a combination of such services. In general, the participating agency or institution provides facilities or part of the services needed in the program. In some instances, the Public Health Service provides all facilities and services.

§ 03.783 Procedures. A cooperative program may be initiated by the request of a State health agency to the Surgeon General or by a local health agency through its State health authority. Requests by nonofficial agencies may be made directly to the Surgeon General. Procedures for establishment and operation of cooperative programs are not governed by specific regulations; they are developed by the Service and the cooperating agency in joint agreements.

INTERSTATE QUARANTINE

§ 03.801 General statement. The interstate travel of persons who are capable of spreading a communicable disease or who are believed to be spreading a disease is governed by Part 12 of this chapter. The interstate transportation of articles which may be the source of a communicable infection are governed by these regulations.

§ 03.802 Reference to procedures. For interstate quarantine procedures, see Part 12 of this chapter.

SUBPART A—ORGANIZATION

§ 300.1 General statement. (a) Saint Elizabeths Hospital, Washington, D. C., is a constituent unit of the Federal Security Agency operating under the general supervision and direction of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service and the immediate supervision and direction of the Hospital Superintendent.

CROSS REFERENCE: Regarding general organization, procedures, and regulations of the Federal Security Agency, see Title 45, Subtitle A. Regarding the Public Health Service, see Title 42, Chapter I.

(b) Requests for information concerning the Hospital or its activities may be addressed to the Superintendent, Saint Elizabeths Hospital, Washington 20, D. C.

§ 300.2 Organizational units. Saint Elizabeths Hospital is composed of two departments under the direction of the Hospital Superintendent: (a) Department of Medical Services, and (b) Department of Administration.

(a) The Department of Medical Services consisting of the First Assistant Physician, Clinical Directors, Chiefs of Services and Medical Department personnel is responsible for all matters relative to the care and treatment of patients. The First Assistant Physician acts for the Superintendent in his absence.

(b) The Department of Administration consisting of the Executive Assistant, Division Chiefs and Administrative Department personnel is responsible for business management, maintenance, industrial and all other nonmedical activities of the Hospital.

§ 300.3 Functions. The principal functions of the Hospital are to provide care and treatment of mentally ill persons described in Subpart B, § 300.51; in connection with those activities, the Hospital conducts scientific research activities dealing with the nature, causes, prevention, and treatment of mental illness, and trains interns, nurses and attendants in the care and treatment of mental patients.

§ 300.4 Delegations of authority. (a) The Federal Security Administrator has delegated to the Superintendent, and in his absence to the First Assistant Physician, the authority to determine whether individuals certified by the Courts of the District of Columbia, pursuant to sections 927 and 928 of the Act of March 3, 1901, as amended by the Acts of April 14, 1906, and July 2, 1945 (24 D. C. Code, sections 301 and 302, as amended), shall be committed to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, and to sign letters authorizing such committal.

(b) The Federal Security Administrator has delegated to the Superintendent, the First Assistant Physician, the Executive Assistant, the Administrative Officer, and the Purchasing Agent of the Hospital, the authority to accept bids, approve purchase orders and sign contracts as Contracting Officers for supplies, equipment, and service to be obtained under any funds available for the work of Saint Elizabeths Hospital.

§ 300.5 Availability of public records. The principal official records of the Hospital are Administrative and Clinical Records. All Clinical Records are confidential.

(a) No records or other official instruments containing information shall be withdrawn from the files of the Hospital, by or furnished to any person not an authorized employee of the Hospital, without prior authority of the Hospital Superintendent, or the Federal Security Administrator.

(b) No copy of, or information relative to any official record or other official business of the Hospital, which appears to be of confidential nature, shall be given to any person unless (1) such person obtains a court order therefor, or makes application therefor in the manner hereinafter prescribed in this paragraph, and (2) it appears to the Superintendent of the Hospital that the furnishing thereof would not be inimical to the public interest or to the welfare of the patient. The application mentioned above shall be addressed to the Superintendent and must set forth the interest of the applicant in the subject matter and the purpose for which such copy or information is desired.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURE

§ 300.51 Admission of patients. The Federal Security Administrator upon receipt of application, authority or order described below admits or transfers the following persons to Saint Elizabeths Hospital:

(a) Insane prisoners of war and interned persons. Requesting authority, letter from the Secretary of War or Secretary of Navy; authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 192.

(b) Insane patients of Public Health Service. Requesting authority, letter from the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, a constituent agency of the Federal Security Agency; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 193, 42 U. S. C. Sup. 222.

(c) Insane inmates of Soldiers' Home. Requesting authority, letter from the President of the Board of Commissioners of Soldiers' Home; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 194.

(d) Insane inmates of National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. Requesting authority, letter from the Administrator of Veteran Affairs; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 195.

(e) American citizens adjudged insane in Canal Zone. Requesting authority, letter from the Governor of the Panama Canal Zone; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 196.

(f) American citizens adjudged insane in Canada. Requesting authority, letter from the Secretary of State; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 196a.

(g) American citizens adjudged insane in Virgin Islands: Requesting authority, letter from the Governor of the Virgin Islands; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 196b.

(h) Insane natives of Philippine Islands serving in the Army of the United States. Requesting authority, letter from the Secretary of War; authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 198.

(i) Insane persons of the District of Columbia. Requesting authority, statement by the Superintendent of Gallinger Hospital, on Form GMH-114, that the patient has not been adjudicated insane; that a petition for a writ de lunatico inquirendo has been filed with the District Court as required by law, and requesting that he be admitted to Saint Elizabeths Hospital and detained there pending formal commitment, or other order of the court. The detention or discharge of the patient is dependent on the order of the court. If the court, upon the recommendation of the Commission on Mental Health, issues a decree of adjudication and commitment to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, the decree is received by the Hospital with Form GMH-8, "Decree of Adjudication and Commitment." Authority for admission, 21 D. C. Code Sec. 311.

(j) Insane persons accused of crime. Requesting authority, letter from the Superintendent of Gallinger Hospital, from a District Court of the United States, or from the Municipal Court, District of Columbia; authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 211; 24 D. C. Code, Secs., 301 and 302, as amended.

(k) Indian insane. Requesting authority, letter from the Secretary of the Interior; Authority for admission, current appropriation acts, including Public Law 549, 79th Congress.

(m) Insane convicts from United States Penitentiary. Requesting authority, letter from the Bureau of Prisons, Department of Justice; Authority for admission, 24 U. S. C. Sec. 211a.

(n) Insane alien enemies. Requesting authority, letter from the Attorney General of the United States, or from the Secretary of War; Authority for admission, President's Proclamation No. 2525, December 7, 1941; Proclamation No. 2526, December 8, 1941, and Proclamation No. 2527, December 8, 1941; 3 CFR Cum. Sup., pp. 273-279.

§ 300.52 Discharge of patients. Patients are discharged from the Hospital in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) Cured or recovered patients. Patients (other than prisoner patients) are discharged when sufficiently cured or recovered to be capable of returning to community life. Such patients' condition is determined by the Hospital Superintendent and the Medical Staff.

(b) Discharge of patients on bond. The release of patients (other than prisoner patients) on bond as not cured or recovered is subject to the approval of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. (See 24 U. S. C., Sec. 221.)

(c) Prisoner patients. Patients accused of or convicted of crime who are sufficiently cured or recovered to be released from the Hospital are referred to the authority which directed their admission.

§ 300.53 Pension money and personal funds of patients. Pension money and personal funds of patients are disbursed, accounted for and otherwise handled in accordance with the provisions of 24 U. S. C., Sec. 165; 31 U. S. C. Sec. 725p, 725s. See Part 302 of this chapter.

§ 300.54 Disposition of moneys belonging to deceased patients; claims thereto. The disposition of all moneys belonging to deceased patients and the handling of claims thereto will be in accordance with the provisions of 24 U. S. C., Sec. 177. See Part 303 of this chapter.

§ 300.55 Claims for damages. Procedures regarding claims for damages to or loss of property or injury to persons alleged to have been caused by officers or employees of Saint Elizabeths Hospital are described in Title 45, § 30.2.

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

[20 CFR, Ch. III]

PART 421—STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION

SUBPART A—BUREAU OF OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE

Sec.
421.1 Organization of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE APPEALS COUNCIL

421.6 Organization of the office of the Appeals Council.

SUBPART A—BUREAU OF OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE

§ 421.1 Organization of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance—(a) Authority. The Social Security Act, approved August 14, 1935, provided for the establishment of the Social Security Board. Among the functions assigned to the Board was the authority for administering Federal old-age and survivors insurance and certifying to the Secretary of the Treasury amounts to be paid to entitled persons as monthly benefits or lump sums under that program. In general, this authority was delegated by the Board subject to its general supervision and direction to the Director of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance. The Board became a part of the Federal Security Agency, and subject to the supervision of the Federal Security Administrator, on July 1, 1939, in accordance with Reorganization Plan No. 1 approved June 7, 1939. Effective July 16, 1946, Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946 abolished the Board and transferred its functions to the Federal Security Administrator. Under Agency Order No. 57, issued July 16, 1946, the Federal Security Administrator delegated all such duties, powers, and functions to the Commissioner for Social Security except those with respect to administrative hearings and appeals and the service by the Administrator as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, subject to his general supervision and direction. Under Administrative Order No. 65, issued July 16, 1946, the Commissioner for Social Security directed that the Bureau continue to function as it had under the Social Security Board. (For a statement of the powers and functions of the Federal Security Administrator and the Commissioner for Social Security, see Title 45, Subtitle A, Code of Federal Regulations.)

Under such delegation of authority, the Director of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance is responsible for assigning identifying numbers to workers and employers covered by the program, maintaining wage records of amounts to be used as each worker's credits toward benefits under the program, determining whether workers or their dependents and survivors are qualified for monthly benefits or lump-sum payments, and certifying to the Treasury the amounts which should be paid on individual claims. All final authority delegated to the Director of the Bureau is exercised by him.

(b) Established offices and their functions. The operations of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance are distributed on a functional basis among its central, area, and field offices.

The central office of the Bureau located in the Equitable Building, Fayette and Calvert Streets, Baltimore 2, Maryland, is responsible for the overall administration of the program, including the development of policy, the general supervision of all operations, the procurement of the necessary supplies and services, and the planning of future activities. In the central office, studies are made of the actuarial, economic, fiscal, and administrative factors which affect the number of covered workers, the amounts of their wage credits, the effect of their wage history on their insurance status, trends in claims and the extent to which the program fulfills and is likely to fulfill its purpose of providing basic economic security.

The wage records of wage earners covered by the program are maintained in the Accounting Operations Division of the central office, located in the Candler Building, Market Place and Pratt Street, Baltimore 2, Maryland. This division is responsible for establishing and maintaining individual accounts of the earnings of each wage earner in covered employment.

The Bureau's field offices, detached official stations, and itinerant stations issue account numbers, assist workers in establishing their wage credits, aid claimants in filing applications for monthly benefits or lump-sum payments and in obtaining the evidence necessary to establish their rights, determine eligibility of claimants to benefits or lump-sum payments, compute the amounts of payments due, and upon request assist claimants in filing requests for reconsideration, hearing or appeal.

Many of the field offices have points of call or itinerant or detached official stations which are serviced periodically or at specially appointed times by field office representatives. Inquiry may be directed to any field office as to whether any itinerant or detached official stations are serviced by such office, their location and the times when a field office representative will be in attendance.

The area offices of the Bureau review field office determinations regarding eligibility and amount of benefits and certify to the Treasury Department the names of eligible beneficiaries and the amount they are to be paid. They also make adjustments in benefits necessitated by events causing suspension of benefits, termination of benefits, or change in amount of benefits, and record changes in beneficiaries' addresses.

The public may secure information or make submittals or requests with respect to the old-age and survivors insurance program by calling at or writing to any field office, or detached official station, or by writing to any area office or to the central office in Baltimore, Maryland. A list of the field and area offices of the Bureau, and their respective locations, are set out in Appendix A attached hereto.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE APPEALS COUNCIL

§ 421.6 Organization of the office of the Appeals Council—(a) Authority and functions. On March 1, 1940, the Social Security Board established the Office of Appeals Council and delegated powers to the members of this office by the following formal action:

In order to afford hearings as may be provided by regulations which the Board shall adopt with respect to benefit payments under Title II and with respect to the revision of wage records maintained by the Board, the Social Security Board, pursuant to authority conferred on it by the Social Security Act and the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939:

(a) Hereby establishes an Appeals Council, consisting of three members, one of whom shall act as Chairman of the Council and as the administrative officer;

(b) Hereby delegates to the Appeals Council all necessary and appropriate powers to direct and supervise the referees appointed by the Board and to review decisions in accordance with such regulations as the Board shall adopt;

(c) Hereby delegates to the members of the Appeals Council and to the referees all necessary and appropriate powers to hold hearings and render decisions in accordance with such regulations as the Board shall adopt;

(d) Hereby delegates to the members of the Appeals Council and the referees all necessary and appropriate powers to administer oaths and affirmations, issue subpoenas, examine witnesses and receive evidence.

On July 16, 1946, the functions of the Social Security Board were transferred to the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency. On July 16, 1946, the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency made the following delegation of authority to the Office of the Appeals Council:

d. All duties, powers, and functions relating to the holding of hearings, the rendition of decisions, and the review of decisions in connection with administrative appeals from determinations made under title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, and affecting benefits, lump sums or wage records, including the administration of oaths and affirmations, the issuance of subpoenas, the examination of witnesses and the receipt of evidence, and all duties, powers, and functions relating to judicial review of decisions made upon appeal, which were transferred from the Social Security Board by Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1946 are assigned to the Office of Appeals Council in the Social Security Administration and shall be exercised by the Appeals Council, its members and referees in accordance with applicable rules as from time to time amended by the Commissioner with the approval of the Administrator.

(b) Established offices. The Council consists of the Chairman and two members. There is also a staff of professional clerical and stenographic employees. The Chairman is responsible for the administration of the office. It is the function of the three members of the Appeals Council in Washington to pass on requests for review of decisions rendered by referees; render decisions where the request has been granted; review decisions of referees on its own motion; render decisions on cases certified by the referees and prepare and certify the record of the case where a civil action has been instituted to review a decision of the office. It is the function of the referees, as designated by the Chairman of the Appeals Council, to hold hearings and render decisions in cases where a request for hearing has been filed. The referee may, if he deems it advisable, certify the case to the Appeals Council for decision. A reporter is assigned to each referee.

The central office of the Office of Appeals Council is located in the Federal Security Agency Building, 4th and Independence Avenue, Washington, D. C. The field staff consists of 12 referees located at the following addresses:

1 Referee—120 Boylston Street, Boston 16, Mass.
3 Referees—11 West Forty-second Street, New York 18, N. Y.
1 Referee—1523 L Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.
1 Referee—Euclid Avenue and East Ninth Street, Cleveland 14, Ohio.
1 Referee—Midland Bank Building, Fourth Floor, Minneapolis 1, Minn.
1 Referee—441 West Peachtree Street, Atlanta 5, Ga.
1 Referee—1006 Grand Avenue, Kansas City 6, Mo.
1 Referee—North Presa and East Houston Street, San Antonio 5, Tex.
2 Referees—785 Market Street, San Francisco 3, Calif.

422.2 Inspection of official records.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE APPEALS COUNCIL

422.6 Procedures of the Appeals Council.
422.7 Inspection of official records.

SUBPART A—BUREAU OF OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE

§ 422.1 Procedures of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance—(a) Account and identification numbers—(1) Employee's account number. The Bureau maintains a record of the pay each worker receives. Every worker who has a social security account receives a social security account number card. The employee's name, together with the number on his card, identifies his account so that wages repoted for him in tax returns and informational returns can be properly posted to his credit. The form which a worker uses to apply for an account number is Treasury Department Form SS–5, "Application for Social Security Account Number."

Any person who wishes to file an application for an account number may do so, by filing Form SS–5. Form SS–5 may be obtained at any social security field office. Upon request, the field office will distribute Forms SS–5 to labor or other representative organizations. All post offices, except the main post office in cities having a social security field office, supply Forms SS–5 on request. Except in cities having a social security field office, the United States Employment Service offices will upon request furnish applicants for jobs and unemployment compensation Forms SS–5.

The social security field offices will assign an account number to an applicant on the basis of a completed Form SS–5. If it appears probable that an account number has been previously established for any applicant, his application is checked against central files. In such case, if the applicant states that he needs a social security card at once, the field office prepares and gives to the applicant Form OANN–5028, Temporary Unnumbered Card.

As soon as it is determined that no account has been previously established for an applicant, the field office prepares and delivers Form OA–702, Account Number Card. The card shows the applicant's name and the number of his social security account.

The Accounting Operations Division of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance located in the Candler Building, Baltimore, Maryland, uses the Forms SS–5 and duplicate copies of the Forms OA–702 to establish the necessary records for the maintenance of individual wage records. The duplicate copy of the Form OA–702 is then sent to the appropriate State Employment Security office for use in establishing a numerical file of account numbers in that office. Form SS–5 is retained by the Accounting Operations Division for use in identifying the wage earner to whom the account number is assigned.

In the event that a social security card is lost or damaged, the worker may obtain a duplicate card bearing the same account number. Any social Security field office will issue a duplicate card at once upon presentation by the worker of the lower half of his previous card.

The wage earner may obtain a duplicate account number card by submitting a properly completed Form SS–5, Application for Social Security Account Number, noted "Duplicate Requested" to any field office or to the Accounting Operations Division located in the Candler Building, Baltimore 2, Maryland. A facsimile Form SS–5 is attached to Form Letter OAAN–L7012, sent to applicants by field offices in response to a letter requesting a duplicate card, if the letter contains insufficient identifying information. If the wage earner is in urgent need of a duplicate account number card, any field office will assist him in preparing a telegram to the Accounting Operations Division, giving the necessary identifying information. Upon receipt of the request, the Accounting Operations Division makes an immediate search for the account number and notifies the individual by telegram "Collect" of the results of the search. If a previously assigned account number is located, the field office will issue a duplicate account number card. If no previously assigned number can be found, the field office will assign a new account number.

Form OAAN–7003, or OAAN–7003.1, Employee's Request for Change in Records, should be completed by any person who wishes to correct or change the information he submitted previously. These may be obtained from any field office, from the Accounting Operations Division, or from one of the sources mentioned earlier where Forms SS–5 may be obtained. The completed request for change in records may be submitted to any office of the Bureau.

(2) Employer's identification number. Every person who has in his employ one or more individuals in employment for "wages" as defined in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, must file Form SS–4, Employer's Application for Identification Number.

This form may be obtained by employers at any office of the Bureau. All post offices, except the main post office in cities having a social security field office will supply Forms SS–4 on request. The form also may be obtained from collectors of internal revenue.

A completed Form SS–4 may be filed by the employer with the field office nearest to, and in the same State as, the principal place of business of the employer. The form may also be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the employer's principal place of business is located. Properly completed Forms SS–4 which have been filed with a social security field office are transmitted to the appropriate collector of internal revenue. The collector sends the necessary tax forms to the employer and forwards the second copy of the Form SS–4 to the Accounting Operations Division of the Bureau. This office assigns an identification number and sends Form SS–6, Notice of Employer's Identification Number, to the appropriate collector of internal revenue for transmittal to the employer. The employer may obtain specific instructions as to his duties under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act from the collector of Internal Revenue for his district or from the field office at the time he files Form SS–4.

A new employer's identification number is assigned in every case in which there is a change in the ownership of a business (except in cases where a business is acquired by an employer who already has a number), or in which an employer who has been filing his social security tax returns in one internal revenue collection district moves to or begins filing such returns in a different district. (Information regarding the filing of new and corrected applications for employer identification numbers and the forwarding of the applications to the Accounting Operations Division for the assignment of numbers will be furnished by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.)

(b) Wage records—(1) Maintenance of wage records. Field offices cooperate with employers in establishing methods to insure correct and complete reporting.

If an employer reports an employee without an account number, the Collector of Internal Revenue prepares Form Letter SS–11 to notify the employer of the incomplete item. The employer is asked to furnish the missing information or appropriate identifying information Forms OAAN–L7019.1 and OAAN–L7019.1a are prepared as carbon copies of Form SS–11 and are sent to the social security field offices to be used as follow-ups if no reply to Form SS–11 is received. Replies to Form SS–11 received by the Collector are forwarded to the field offices. If the field office fails to receive employer replies to the above letters, personal contact is made with the employer where practicable. In addition, contact with the wage earner is sometimes necessary.

Form OAR–1058, Listing of Incompletely Reported Wage Items, is prepared by the Accounting Operations Division. It lists available information from employers' tax returns with respect to incomplete wage items for which no report has been received from the field office. The form is sent to the field office servicing the employer to be used in securing the correct information.

Form OAR–5031, Unidentified Items Reported Incorrectly by Employer, lists available information with respect to wage items reported with incorrect account numbers or names. The form is sent by the Accounting Operations Division to the appropriate employer for the correct information. If an employer is unable to furnish satisfactory identifying information, but has indicated an address for the employee, Form OAR–L5039 is sent to the employee to determine whether the unidentified incorrectly reported wage item belongs to him.

(2) Wage statements. A wage earner may obtain a statement of wages recorded in his old-age and survivors insurance account by filling out and mailing Form OAR–7004 or by a signed written request giving his social security account number and date of birth addressed to Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Candler Building, Baltimore 2, Maryland. Upon receipt of this form or the required letter, the Bureau forwards a Form OAR–7014, Statement of Wages Recorded in Your Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Account, containing the requested information to the wage earner. The Form OAR–7014 will show a grand total of wages reported to date, the total for the last complete year, and the amount of wages reported since the last complete year. If the wage earner requests an itemized statement on Form OAR–7004 or in his letter itemized statement will be sent to him.

(3) Wage discrepancies. If a wage earner disagrees with the amount of wages credited to his social security account he may request a revision by executing Form OAR–7008, Statement of Wages and Employment. These forms may be obtained at any field office or from the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Candler Building, Baltimore 2, Maryland. Upon receipt of this form the Bureau will initiate an investigation of his wage record.

Field offices are authorized to investigate questions of coverage raised by wage earners, and requests for revision of wage records which cannot be resolved through examination of the Accounting Operations Division records. In conducting such investigations, field office representatives may request employers and wage earners to submit information concerning the employment in question. On the basis of information submitted, the field office may determine, subject to review, whether the employment is covered by the Social Security Act. In the event that wages cannot be established on the basis of the records of the employer, the field office will accept wage evidence on behalf of the employee and will determine, subject to review, whether the evidence is sufficient to establish payment of the alleged wages.

After the field investigation has been completed, and the results reviewed by the Accounting Operations Division, the Bureau notifies the wage earner of the status of his wage account. The wage earner will also be informed of any determinations with respect to wage or coverage questions which arose from the investigation.

Form OAR–L5069, Letter Notifying Employee of an Adverse Adjustment to His Wage Record, is addressed to the employee (in care of the last known employer) to notify the employee of the adverse adjustment received subsequent to the issuance of the wage statement previously sent to him. The employee is requested to notify the Bureau if he disagrees with the adjustment to his account. This notice of disagreement must be received by the Bureau before the elapsed six months subsequent to the date indicated on the letter or within four calendar years after the period to be adjusted—whichever is later.

Wage investigations are also made on the basis of Form OAAN–7005, Supplemental Form Relative to Application for Account Number, if a wage earner upon making application for a social security account number indicates that he has been previously employed. An investigation is made to determine if the wages earned before the wage earner received a social security number were reported without an account number or if the employer failed to file the returns.

(c) Claims procedure. The field offices provide local facilities for the public to file claims and to obtain assistance in perfecting them. To become entitled to any benefit or payment or to a recomputation of benefits, the appropriate application form, which can be obtained from any field office, must be filed with a Bureau office. (20 CFR, Cum. Supp., § 403.701.) The application forms and corresponding forms containing instructions as to their execution are as follows:

1. Form OA–C1, Application for Wage Earner's Primary Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C1, Instructions to Applicant for Primary Insurance Benefits.
2. Form OA–C1.1, Application for Recomputation of Primary Insurance Benefits.
3. Form OA–C2, Application for Wife's Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C2, Instructions to Applicant for Wife's Insurance Benefits.
4. Form OA–C3, Husband's Certification (this form is a part of the wife's application, Form OA–C2, above).
5. Form OA–C4, Application for Insurance Benefits for Child of Living Wage Earner.
Form Inst. OA–C4, Instructions to Applicant for Insurance Benefits for Child of Living Wage Earner.
6. Form OA–C5, Application of Widow, and Widow on Behalf of Child, for Survivors Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C5.1, Instructions to Applicant for Widow's Current Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C5.2, Instructions to Applicant for Widow's Insturance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C5.3, Instructions Covering Application for Insurance Benefits by Widow on Behalf of Children.
7. Form OA–C6, Application on Behalf of Child for Survivors Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C6, Instructions to Applicant for Insurance Benefits for Child of Deceased Wage Earner.
8. Form OA–C7, Application of Dependent Parent for Survivors Insurance Benefits.
Form Inst. OA–C7, Instructions to Dependent Parent.
9. Form OA–C8, Application for Lump-Sum Death Payment.
Form Inst. OA–C8, Instructions to Applicant for Lump-Sum Death Payment.
10. Form OA–C10, Application for Widow's Insurance Benefits (for use of widow who has previously filed an application for wife's insurance benefits, widow's current insurance benefits, or a lump-sum death payment with respect to her deceased husband's wages).
Form Inst. OA–C5.2, Instructions to Applicant for Widow's Insurance Benefits.
11. Form OA–C11, Application for Substitution of Payee (for use when substitute payee files application to receive insurance benefits on behalf of self, minor child, or incompetent beneficiary).

In addition to filing the appropriate application form, the claimant must establish by satisfactory evidence the material allegations in his application, except as to wages shown in the Bureau's records. (See 20 CFR, Cum. Supp., 403.702 and 403.703.) Claims application forms, instructions, report forms, and forms for the various proofs necessary to support the claims are available to the public in field offices, itinerant stations, and detached official stations. These offices assist claimants in preparing their applications and in obtaining the proofs required to support their claims. Claims adjudicated in the field offices are subject to review in one of the six area offices of the Bureau. The area office notifies claimants of the action taken on their claims, informing them at the same time of their right to a reconsideration, hearing, or appeal.

Recipients of monthly benefits are variously obligated to report to the Bureau the occurrence of events, which suspend or terminate benefits. Post cards, Forms OA–C611a and OA–C612a, for reporting these events are given the claimant at the time he files application for benefits. Additional ones may be obtained from any field office.

(d) Reconsideration and hearing. Provisions regarding requests for reconsideration of Bureau determinations are contained in 20 CFR, Cum. Supp., 403.707 and 403.708. Provisions regarding requests for hearing with respect to Bureau determinations are contained in 20 CFR, Cum. Supp., 403.707 and 403.709. Such requests may be filed with any Bureau office.

§ 422.2 Inspection of official records. Section 1106 of the Social Security Act prohibits disclosure of any official records of the Bureau, except as prescribed by the Social Security Board (now the Social Security Administration). Circumstances under which disclosure may be made are set out in 20 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 401.

SUBPART B—OFFICE OF THE APPEALS COUNCIL

§ 422.6 Procedures of the Appeals Council—(a) Request for hearing by referee. A claimant who is dissatisfied with a determination of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance of the Social Security Administration, may file a request for a hearing of his case before a referee of the Office of the Appeals Council. This request may be made on Form AC-501, Request for Hearing, which may be obtained at any referee's office or any office of the Bureau. Instead of executing the form, the request for hearing may be made by an informal letter. The executed form or informal letter may be filed at or mailed to any office of the Bureau or the office of any referee or the Office of the Appeals Council. The request must be made within six months from date of mailing of notice of the Bureau's initial determination or within three months from date of mailing of notice of the Bureau's reconsidered determination. This time may be extended by a referee upon a showing of good cause.

(b) Hearing by referee. The referee holds a hearing, upon ten days' notice to the claimant unless such notice is waived, at a place reasonably convenient to a claimant. A stenographic record of the testimony taken at the hearing is made. This record is not transcribed except where necessary in the judgment of the referee or where required by law. The referee may render a decision or certify the case to the Appeals Council in Washington for decision. In either case a claimant is furnished with a copy of the decision.

(c) Review of referee's decision by Appeals Council. If a claimant is dissatisfied with the referee's decision he may file a request for review of the decision by the Appeals Council in Washington. This request may be made on Form AC-520, Request for Review of Referee's Decision, which may be obtained at any referee's office or office of the Bureau, or the request for review may be made by an informal letter. The request may be filed at or mailed to any referee's office, any office of the Bureau, or the Appeals Council in Washington. Such request must be made within thirty days after the date of mailing of the referee's notice of decision. It is within the discretion of the Appeals Council to grant or deny the request for review. If it denies the request, the referee's decision stands as the final decision of the Federal Security Agency. If the request for review is granted the Appeals Council renders a decision either with or without the taking of further evidence. The Appeals Council also renders a decision in cases which are certified to it by a referee.

(d) Judicial review. A claimant may secure a court review of a decision by a referee, if the Appeals Council has denied the claimant's request for review, or of a decision by the Appeals Council by instituting a civil action in the United States District Court of his residence. Such action must be filed within sixty days of the Appeals Council's notice of denial of request for review of the referee's decision or notice of decision by the Appeals Council. This time may be extended by the Appeals Council upon a showing of good cause.

(e) Where detailed procedural regulations are located. Detailed procedural regulations relating to the work of the Office of the Appeals Council may be found in Regulations No. 3 under (20 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 403) the following subjects and section numbers:

§ 7.1 The Commission. The Federal Trade Commission is composed of five Commissioners appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. It was established in 1914 as an agency to foster fair and free competition and to supplement the antitrust laws. It has remedial functions in the administration and enforcement of various statutes prohibiting the use of unfair, deceptive, discriminatory, and monopolistic trade practices. These functions are exercised by way of adversary proceedings and orders to cease and desist, by the stipulated acquiescence of the parties or by trade practice conference proceedings. The Commission also exercises supervision over associations engaged in export trade. The Commission also has advisory functions which are exercised by way of general investigations and reports to Congress or to the President and by recommendations for legislation. These functions are exercised through various divisions of the Commission as hereinafter described.

All communications to the Commission should be addressed to Federal Trade Commission, Pennsylvania Avenue at Sixth Street, Washington 25, D. C., unless otherwise specified.

Branch offices of the Office of Legal Investigations are maintained at Room 501, 45 Broadway, New York 6, New York; 1118 New Post Office Building, 433 West Van Buren Street, Chicago 7, Ill.; Third Floor, Sharon Building, 55 Montgomery Street, San Francisco 5, Calif.; 447 Federal Office Bldg., Seattle 4, Washington; 1107 Pere Marquette Building, 150 Baronne Street, New Orleans 12, La.

§ 7.3 Hours. Offices are open on each business day from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

§ 7.4 Sessions. The Commission may meet and exercise all its powers at any place, and may, by one or more of its members, or by such representatives as it may designate, prosecute any inquiry necessary to its duties in any part of the United States.

Sessions of the Commission for hearings will be held as ordered by the Commission.

Sessions of the Commission for the purpose of making orders and for transaction of other business unless otherwise ordered are held at the principal office of the Commission at Pennsylvania Avenue at Sixth Street, Washington, D. C., on each business day.

§ 7.5 Quorum. A majority of the members of the Commission constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

§ 7.6 Public information. All requests, whether for information or otherwise, and submittals should be addressed to the principal office of the Commission.

§ 7.7 The Secretary. The Secretary is the executive officer of the Commission and is the legal custodian of its seal, papers, records, and property; and all orders of the Commission are signed by the Secretary or such other person as may be authorized by the Commission.

§ 7.8 Preliminary legal investigations. All preliminary legal investigations of the Commission are conducted by the staff of its Office of Legal Investigations which is made up of a Director, an Assistant Director, a Chief Examiner, and a Chief of the Radio and Periodical Division. The Chief Examiner has four Assistants, and there is one Assistant Chief in the Radio and Periodical Division.

(a) Applications for Complaint. Any person, partnership, corporation, or association may apply to the Commission to institute a proceeding in respect to any violation of law over which the Commission has jurisdiction.

Such application for complaint should be in writing, signed by or in behalf of the applicant, and should contain a short and simple statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation of law, and the name and address of the applicant and of the party complained of, together with all relevant available information. No forms or formal procedure are required in making an application for complaint.

(b) Status of applicant for complaint. The applicant is not a party to a Commission proceeding except where allowed to intervene as provided by the statute. It has always been and now is the rule not to publish or divulge the name of an applicant.

(c) Docketing of applications for complaint. Upon receipt of an application for complaint, the Commission through its Office of Legal Investigations, considers the essential jurisdictional elements before deciding whether or not it shall be docketed. Also, the Commission, acting on its own motion, dockets applications for complaint and initiates investigations. It is the policy not to docket an application for complaint or institute proceedings where the alleged violation of law is merely a private controversy and does not tend adversely to affect the public.

(d) Investigation of docketed matters. The general procedure is that after a matter has been docketed, it is assigned to an attorney or examiner for the purpose of developing all the material facts. He is directed to interview the applicant. He is also directed to interview the party complained against, advise him fully of the charges, and obtain relevant information, oral and documentary, including such as may be furnished in defense. Such additional investigation is made as may be necessary. Preliminary investigations under the Export Trade Act are made in the same manner.

(e) Report on investigation of docketed matters. After developing all the relevant facts, the attorney examiner summarizes the material in a report, reviews the law applicable, and makes recommendations as to what action he believes the Commission should take. The file is reviewed by the Chief Examiner, and, if found to be complete, is submitted by him to the Commission (through the Director of the Office of Legal Investigations), with a summary of the issues involved, his conclusions thereon, and his recommendation. He may recommend (1) closing of the file without prejudice to the right of the Commission to reinstate the matter if and when conditions may warrant, or (2) disposition of the application for complaint by the respondent signing a stipulation as to the facts, and an agreement to cease and desist from the practices set forth in the stipulation, or (3) issuance of formal complaint, or (4) other appropriate action.

(f) Radio and periodical advertising. The Radio and Periodical Division of the Office of Legal Investigations conducts a current and continuing survey of radio, newspaper, magazine, and mail order catalog or circular advertising. If it appears that a published advertisement may be misleading, a contact letter is sent to the advertiser containing a request for pertinent information and material regarding the product and the advertisement thereof. He is also invited to submit any statement he may care to make regarding the product and his advertising of it. When all available data have been examined and analyzed, the Chief of the Division makes his recommendation to the Commission (through the Director of the Office of Legal Investigations) in the same manner as described with relation to docketed matters.

§ 7.9 Agreement to cease and desist on stipulated facts. (a) The Commission maintains a Division of Stipulations consisting of a Director, Assistant Director, and staff of attorney conferees.

(b) Whenever the Commission has reason to believe that any person has been or is using unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in commerce, and that the interest of the public will be served by so doing, it may withhold the issuance of a formal complaint and extend an opportunity to execute a stipulation satisfactory to the Commission, in which the proposed respondent, after admitting the material facts, agrees to cease and desist from, and not to resume such unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices. It is not the policy of the Commission thus to dispose of matters involving intent to defraud or mislead; false advertisement of food, drugs, devices, or cosmetics which may be injurious to health; suppression or restraint of competition through conspiracy or monopolistic practices; violations of the Clayton Act; violations of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939 or the rules promulgated thereunder; or where the Commission is of the opinion that such procedure will not be effective in preventing continued use of the unlawful method, act, or practice. The Commission reserves the right in all cases, for any reasons which it regards as sufficient, to withhold this privilege. Stipulations after acceptance by the Commission are matters of public record. When a case is referred to the Division of Stipulations, that Division gives the proposed respondent notice of such reference, together with a statement of the alleged illegal acts, practices, or methods, and requests a reply within a specified period of time.

(c) The proposed respondent may reply by correspondence or upon his request, may confer with the Director of the Division of Stipulations, or with a designated attorney conferee either in person or through his authorized representative.

(d) If the proposed respondent enters into a satisfactory stipulation to cease and desist from such practices as the Director of the Division of Stipulations deems in accord with the Commission's direction, and to have been sufficiently substantiated by the investigational records and reports, or by the admissions of the proposed respondent, said stipulation is submitted to the Commission for its approval. In the event of failure of the proposed respondent to sign a satisfactory stipulation covering the charges which the Director considers to have been so substantiated, the Director then reports the matter to the Commission with recommendation as to what action is required in the public interest. He may recommend formal complaint or closing of the matter in whole or in part without prejudice to the right of the Commission to reopen the same at a later date, or other appropriate action.

§ 7.10 Procedure upon formal complaints and before the courts. (a) When the issuance of a formal complaint is directed by the Commission, the matter is referred to the Office of Chief Trial Counsel for preparation of the complaint, and proceedings thereunder. The complaint names the respondent or respondents, alleges a violation or violations of law, and contains a statement of the charges. The proceedings are carried forward thereafter in conformity with the Rules of Practice.

(b) Should an order to cease and desist be issued by the Commission under the Federal Trade Commission Act or the Wool Products Labeling Act, the order becomes final sixty days after date of service upon the respondent, unless within that period the respondent petitions an appropriate United States Circuit Court of Appeals to review the order. In case of review, the Circuit Court enters a decree affirming, modifying, or setting aside the order of the Commission and enforcing the same to the extent that such order is affirmed. Final orders in such cases are enforceable by civil penalty suits, instituted by the Attorney General. Under the Clayton Act, however, an order to cease and desist does not become final by lapse of time. The order must be affirmed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals on application for review by the respondent or upon petition of the Commission. After affirmation, appropriate proceedings may be brought for violation of the Court's decree.

(c) The foregoing functions are performed by the legal staff in the Office of General Counsel. That office is under the supervision and direction of a General Counsel, an Associate General Counsel, an Assistant General Counsel, a Chief Trial Counsel, and three Assistant Chief Trial Counsel.

(d) The General Counsel also acts as the principal legal adviser to the Commission on a wide variety of matters, but neither he nor any other attorney in the Office of the General Counsel having to do with the prosecution of a formal complaint participates or advises in the decision, recommended decision, or agency review of such complaint or of a factually related complaint except under the same conditions that are applicable to persons not connected with the Commission, and which are set forth in the Commission's published Rules of Practice.

§ 7.11 Administration of Export Trade Act. (a) The Export Trade Act is administered in the Office of General Counsel. The Export Trade Act authorizes the organization and operation of export trade associations and extends to them certain limited exemptions from the antitrust laws. Such associations must be entered into for the sole purpose of engaging in export trade and must be actually so engaged and are prohibited from restraining the trade of a domestic competitor, from artificially or intentionally enhancing or depressing prices in this country, or substantially lessening competition or otherwise restraining trade within the United States. The Commission's Export Trade Office administers this Act.

(b) Under Section 5 of the Act, any association organized under the Act is required to file with the Commission within thirty days, copies of organizational papers and thereafter to make annual reports, listing its members or stockholders, and such special reports as the Commission may require concerning the organization, business, conduct, practices, management, and relation to other associations, corporations, and individuals. No particular forms for reporting are required, but for the convenience of parties interested, forms of a first report and of the annual report currently used, are available on request. All reports must be verified. Such information is examined and analyzed by the Assistant Chief Trial Counsel for Export Trade matters who reports thereon.

(c) If the Commission has reason to believe than an association has violated the antitrust laws, it conducts an investigation and if it concludes that the law has been violated, it makes to such association recommendations for the readjustment of its busines in order that it may thereafter conduct its business in accordance with law. Any such investigation is conducted by the Director, who reports to the Commission thereon with recommendation as to any necessary readjustment.

(d) The procedure in such investigations is as follows: Summons and bill of particulars are issued and served upon the association, its officers and members. The investigation is held before a designated officer and sworn testimony and documentary exhibits are introduced. The association, its officers and members, may be represented by counsel, and may introduce such relevant testimony and evidence as they desire to offer. Since such investigation is not an adversary proceeding, witnesses are not cross-examined and objections to evidence are not entertained.

(e) The Assistant Chief Trial Counsel for Export Trade matters examines and analyzes the evidence and reports thereon with his recommendation.

§ 7.12 Hearings on formal complaints. (a) When, after the issuance of formal complaint, issues are joined, the matter comes under the Commission's trial procedure, which is implemented through the Trial Examiner's Division, consisting of the Chief Trial Examiner, an Assistant Chief Trial Examiner, and a staff of trial examiners. The Chief Trial Examiner acts as the administrative head and chief law officer of the Division. He exercises supervision over the forms of reports and coordinates methods of compliance by the trial examiners with the Rules of Practice.

(b) Insofar as practicable, trial examiners are assigned in rotation to cases by the Commission on recommendation of the Chief Trial Examiner. The trial examiner thus designated proceeds to convene hearings for the reception of relevant evidence on the issues. A Commissioner may be assigned to this duty.

(c) Hearings are held in such parts of the country as may be necessary with due regard for the convenience of the parties and witnesses. All proper parties may be represented by counsel and all fundamental rights such as cross-examination of witnesses, adduction of evidence, objections, exceptions, motions, appeals, and the submission of briefs and oral argument are preserved to the respondents.

(d) After the evidence is concluded in a case and parties have been duly heard and their contentions considered, the Trial Examiner makes his report, consisting of (1) report upon the facts, (2) conclusions of fact, (3) conclusions of law, and (4) recommended order. The Trial Examiner's recommended decision becomes a part of the record and a copy thereof is served on each party who may then file exceptions thereto and present substitute conclusions and form of order. After consideration of the case on the record, briefs and argument (or otherwise if agreed), the Commission makes its decision and issues its order.

§ 7.13 Trade Practice Conference Proceedings. (a) Rules for the elimination and prevention of unfair trade practices on an industry-wide basis are established by the Commission under the trade practice conference procedure, the requirements for which are contained in the Commission's published Rules of Practice. This procedure permits of the organization and utilization of cooperative effort among members of an industry for elevating the standards of business ethics and preventing unfair methods of competition, monopolistic restraint, and other trade abuses that are contrary to the laws administered by the Commission.

(b) The work is carried out by the Commission through the staff of the Office of Trade Practice Conferences and Wool Act Administration, which under the supervision of a Director who is principal adviser to the Commission in such matters, an Associate Director, and three Assistant Directors.

(c) Proceedings for establishment of such rules for an industry may be instituted on the Commission's own motion or upon application from members of the industry. In pursuance thereof, a survey and study of the competitive problems of the industry is made and the results reported to the Commission with recommendation as to whether an industry conference should be called or other appropriate action taken. Upon direction of the Commission that a conference be held, a public announcement is made as to the time and place and all members of the industry are invited to attend and participate. The conference considers proposed rules submitted by members of the industry and those deemed necessary or desirable. These are studied and analyzed and report thereon is made to the Commission by the Director, together with his recommendations. Thereafter, proposed rules in the form deemed appropriate are released to the members of the industry and the public. Notice of hearing is issued to all interested or affected parties under which they are afforded opportunity to obtain copies of the proposed rules and to submit their suggestions, objections, and views, and also to be heard at a time and place designated in such public notice. All such hearings and trade practice conferences are open to the public and are conducted by a Commissioner or the Director or other designated official of the Office.

(d) After final hearing the entire proceedings, including the hearing record and other information submitted and bearing on the subject, are considered and reported by the Director to the Commission with his recommendations. Thereupon the entire matter receives the consideration of the Commission and all rules approved and accepted by it are promulgated and published in the Federal Register as rules for the industry. Copies of the rules are supplied to members of the industry, together with a form of acceptance by which each member of the industry may record his intention of observing the rules in the conduct of his business. Approved and accepted rules become operative thirty days after promulgation unless otherwise specified.

(e) Administration of the rules and compliance work in respect thereto are likewise handled through this Office. Information is gathered from time to time as to operation of the rules and cooperative liaison with the industry is maintained to prevent, in accordance with the purposes of the rules, the inception or growth of unfair trade practices.

§ 7.14 Administration of the Wool Products Labeling Act. (a) The general administration of the Wool Products Labeling Act and of the Rules and Regulations issued thereunder is carried out at the direction of the Commission by the Director of Trade Practice Conferences and Wool Act Administration. Rules and regulations including forms have been issued pursuant to the provisions of the Act and were duly published in the Federal Register on July 15, 1941 (16 CFR, 300.1 to 300.36). Any affected person may obtain a copy thereof upon request to the Commission.

(b) Among the various duties involved in such administration of the Act are: the formulation and issuance of rules and regulations or amendments thereto and the holding of such hearings as may be required from time to time; receiving, examining, and recording continuing guarantees for public record under Section 9 of the Act; acting upon applications for manufacturers' registered identification numbers and issuing or canceling such numbers; supervising and directing field inspection work and the handling of administrative compliance and matters of interpretation.

(c) Manufacturers' registered identification numbers are issued by the Commission under the provisions of Rule 4 of the Rules and Regulations to manufacturers residing in the United States and producing wool products subject to the Act. Any such manufacturer desiring to obtain a registered identification number may file with the Commission an application therefor, such application to be in accordance with the specified form and appropriately executed and notarized. Numbers are issued when, upon examination of the application and related facts, the applicant is found to come within the terms of the Rules and Regulations and entitled to use such a registered identification number, the same being subject to revocation for cause or upon the applicant's discontinuance of the manufacture of wool products subject to the Act.

(d) Continuing guarantees against misbranding as defined in the Act may be filed with the Commission under section 9 thereof and when found to be in due form and substance as prescribed in the Rules and Regulations are recorded and held open to public inspection. They are renewable annually and at such other times as any change is made in the ownership or management of the guarantor. Necessary blanks may be obtained upon request.

(e) Through field inspection work wool products subject to the Act as marketed by manufacturers, distributors, and dealers, are examined to ascertain whether they are properly labeled under the requirements and to effect administrative compliance in instances of alleged violation. Inspection likewise covers manufacturers' records. Administrative action to effect correction of infractions through voluntary cooperation is also taken under supervision of the Director in specific cases in which such means of correction are found adequate to effect immediate compliance and protect the public interest. If not so found, the matter may be referred to the Commission for further action. Thereafter, the formal remedial procedure specified in the Federal Trade Commission Act may be ordered by the Commission or such other remedial processes may be pursued as are authorized in the Wool Products Labeling Act.

§ 7.15 General Economic Surveys and Reports. (a) Under section 6 of its organic act, the Federal Trade Commission has broad powers to ascertain the facts with respect to the organization, business, conduct, practices, and management of any corporation subject to its jurisdiction, and the relations of any such corporation to other corporations and to individuals, associations, and partnerships. The Commission has power under this section to require such corporations to file with it annual or special and both annual and special reports or answers in writing to specific questions, furnishing to the Commission such information as it may require respecting the business, conduct, practices, management, etc., of any such corporation and its relation to other business enterprises. These functions of the Commission are performed by its Division of Accounts, Statistics, and Economic Reports.

(b) The administration of this Division is conducted by a Director who is also the Chief Economist, and by a Chief Accountant and Chief Statistician who are Assistant Directors of the Division. The Commission on its own initiative or upon the application of the Attorney General, may direct this Division, whenever a final decree has been entered against any defendant corporation under the Antitrust Acts, to ascertain and report the economic effects of such decree and the manner in which it is being carried out.

(c) The purposes of these general economic surveys are to ascertain and report the facts to the President or to the Congress concerning general economic conditions, the state of competition and the degree of concentration in a given industry, together with suggestions for remedial legislation. Such general economic surveys are made in response to the request of the President, at the direction of the Congress, or upon the initiative of the Commission.

(d) In the past, the economic and business facts developed by the Commission have contributed to the adoption of much remedial legislation, including the Stock Yards Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the Holding Company Act, the Revised Federal Power Commission Act, the Natural Gas Act., etc. In other cases, certain industries have voluntarily made changes in the conduct of their business following disclosures of uneconomic and harmful competitive trade practices.

(e) This division also furnishes general economic information, including industry-wide costs of production and of distribution and makes special reports to the Commission for submission to the president, the Congress, and to various government departments and agencies. The personnel of the division includes accountants, economists and statisticians, and as a regular part of its work, members of its staff may be called upon to act as expert witnesses, to advise and consult with the Commission's attorneys, and to prepare accounting, economic, and statistical analyses in connection with legal cases. This is particularly true with respect to basing point and Robinson-Patman cases. The latter cases involve accounting and statistical problems particularly where differences in costs are used as a justification for price differences.

FEDERAL WORKS AGENCY

OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

[44 CFR, Ch. VI]

PART 601—ORGANIZATION

§ 601.1 Creation, organization. The Federal Works Agency was created July 1, 1939, for the purpose of grouping and consolidating those agencies dealing with public works not incidental to the normal work of other departments, and which administer Federal grants and loans to state and local governments or other agencies for purposes of construction.

The Federal Works Agency consists of the following:

(a) The Office of the Administrator, in which is the Administrator, who is responsible for the general direction and supervision of the administration of the three constituent organizations, and for the coordination of their functions and programs, and his staff, who assist him in carrying out his responsibilities.

(b) The Public Buildings Administration, which deals primarily with the construction and management of Federal public buildings.

(c) The Public Roads Administration, which deals essentially with the Federal-Aid roads program.

(d) The Bureau of Community Facilities, which at present deals with all other programs pertaining to public works assigned to the Federal Works Agency.

Each of the above listed constitutent organizations is under the direction of a Commissioner. Matters of official record pertaining to each program are in the custody of the Commissioner directing the program. Matters of official record on file in the Office of the Administrator such as General Orders, Administrative Orders, Special Orders, and delegations of authority are available to persons properly and directly concerned through application to the Administrator.

PHILIP B. FLEMING,
Major General U. S. A.,
Administrator.

SUBPART A—CENTRAL OFFICE

§ 211.1 Office of the Commissioner. The Commissioner of Community Facilities is responsible to the Federal Works Administrator for the administration of the Bureau of Community Facilities. The functions and responsibilities of the Bureau are prescribed by law and/or the orders and regulations of the Federal Works Administrator. The directors of the following divisions report directly to the Commissioner.

(a) Labor Relations Division. The Director of Labor Relations is responsible for the labor relations activities of the Bureau in the Central and Division Offices.

(b) Racial Relations Division. The Director of Racial Relations is responsible for the racial relations activities of the Bureau in the Central and Division Offices.

(c) Division of Investigations. The Director of the Division of Investigations is responsible for the investigative activities of the Bureau in the Central and Division Offices.

§ 211.2 Office of the Solicitor. The Solicitor is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the legal activities of the Bureau, including the preparation and examination of legal documents, the rendering of legal opinions, the handling of the legal aspects of claims and litigations, and the interpretation and application of statutes, executive orders, rules and regulations. The Solicitor shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Division Counsels of the Bureau.

§ 211.3 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Planning. The Deputy Commissioner for Planning is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the research activities of the Bureau, including the supervision and direction of the Research, Statistics, Finance, and Field Divisions in the Central Office. As directed by the Commissioner, he shall serve as Acting Commissioner and shall assume the authorities and responsibilities of the Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner for Planning shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Division Engineers of the Bureau.

(a) Research Division. The Director of the Research Division is responsible for carrying out research studies; special surveys; over-all analysis of reports and surveys and relevant reports and studies of other governmental bodies and private research organizations; and for the analysis of reports of the Bureau.

(b) Statistics Division. The Director of the Statistics Division is responsible for analyzing, assembling, and reporting statistical data on the activities of the Bureau, including the development of statistical procedures.

(c) Finance Division. The Director of the Finance Division is responsible for rendering consulting services to the Bureau on matters concerning the finances of State and local governments with respect to public works.

(d) Field Division. The Director of the Field Division is responsible for contacting the Division Offices to render consulting and technical advice on all advance planning activities of the Bureau.

§ 211.4 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Administration. The Deputy Commissioner for Administration is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the administrative activities of the Bureau, including the supervision and direction of the Administrative Management, Fiscal, Personnel and General Services Divisions in the Central Office. As directed by the Commissioner, he shall serve as Acting Commissioner and shall assume the authorities and responsibilities of the Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner for Administration shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Administrative Officers of the Bureau.

(a) Administrative Management Division. The Director of the Administrative Management Division is responsible for the administrative planning, budget and procedures work of the Bureau.

(b) Fiscal Division. The Director of the Fiscal Division is responsible for the conduct of audits, for the examination of vouchers and claims, and for the maintenance of accounts showing the status of appropriated funds, the value of property owned by the Bureau, the revenues accruing therefrom and related matters.

(c) Personnel Division. The Personnel Officer is responsible for the personnel work of the Bureau, including the maintenance of necessary personnel records, standards, and procedures, and for assisting the organizational units of the Bureau on personnel matters.

(d) General Services Division. The Director of the General Services Division is responsible for providing office and tabulating services, maintenance and control of administrative property, and for supervising the retirement of records of the Bureau.

§ 211.5 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Engineering. The Deputy Commissioner for Engineering is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the engineering activities of the Bureau, including the supervision and direction of the Engineering, Control, and Property Divisions in the Central Office. As directed by the Commissioner, he shall serve as Acting Commissioner and shall assume the authorities and responsibilities of the Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner for Engineering shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Assistant Division Engineers for Engineering of the Bureau.

(a) Engineering Division. The Director of the Engineering Division is responsible for the engineering services of the Bureau, including the engineering review of applications requiring approval by the Central Office.

(b) Control Division. The Director of the Control Division is responsible for the control of all project applications, including records of progress, determinations of eligibility, financial review, and preparation of project summaries for final recommendation by the Commissioner; for the clearance of applications with the units of the Bureau in the Central Office; and for the furnishing of information to the Members of the Congress, applicants, and other parties interested in the status of project applications.

(c) Property Division. The Director of the Property Division is responsible for the general direction and supervision over the maintenance, operation, and leasing of project property of the Bureau, and for the preparation of recommendations to the Commissioner in connection with the disposition of such property.

§ 211.6 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Construction. The Deputy Commissioner for Construction is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the construction activities of the Bureau, including the supervision and direction of the Construction, Material and Equipment, and Safety Divisions in the Central Office. The Deputy Commissioner for Construction shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Assistant Division Engineers for Construction of the Bureau.

(a) Construction Division. The Director of the Construction Division is responsible for the standards of supervision over construction operations, including the inspection and reporting on construction activities of the Bureau.

(b) Material and Equipment Division. The Director of the Material and Equipment Division is responsible for the establishment of standards for construction material and equipment, and for the development of reports on the source of materials and equipment essential to the construction activities of the Bureau.

(c) Safety Division. The Director of the Safety Division is responsible for the safety activities of the Bureau.

§ 211.7 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Service Projects. The Deputy Commissioner for Service Projects is responsible to the Commissioner for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the service projects activities of the Bureau. The Deputy Commissioner for Service Projects and the Field Representatives of the Central Office shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Division Engineers of the Bureau.

SUBPART B—DIVISION OFFICES

§ 211.21 Office of the Division Engineer. The Division Engineer is responsible to the Commissioner for the operation of the program of the Bureau within the Division in accordance with the regulations approved by the Federal Works Administrator, and the policies, procedures, and instructions prescribed by the Commissioner or under his authority; and for the activities of the personnel in the Division Office and the District Offices.

§ 211.22 Office of the Division Counsel. The Division Counsel is responsible to the Division Engineer for the legal activities of the Division Office. He shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Solicitor in the Central Office.

§ 211.23 Office of the Administrative Officer. The Administrative Officer is responsible to the Division Engineer for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the administrative activities of the Division Office, including the supervision of the Fiscal, Personnel, and General Services Sections. He shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Deputy Commissioner for Administration in the Central Office.

§ 211.24 Office of the Assistant Division Engineer for Engineering. The Assistant Division Engineer for Engineering is responsible to the Division Engineer for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the engineering activities of the Division Office, including the supervision of the Engineering, Control, and Property Sections. He shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Deputy Commissioner for Engineering in the Central Office.

§ 211.25 Office of the Assistant Division Engineer for Construction. The Assistant Division Engineer for Construction is responsible to the Division Engineer for the general direction, supervision, and coordination of the construction activities of the Division Office, including the supervision of the Construction, Material and Equipment and Safety Sections. He shall maintain a direct line of technical instruction and advice with the Deputy Commissioner for Construction in the Central Office.

§ 211.26 Office of the District Engineer. The District Engineer is responsible to the Division Engineer for the operation of the program of the Bureau within the District in accordance with the regulations, policies, procedures, and instructions of the Bureau and with the instructions of the Division Engineer.

212.13 Veterans' educational facilities.

SUBPART A—PROGRAMS

§ 212.1 General statement. Responsibility for the administration of the provisions of title V of the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act of 1944, Public Law 458, 78th Congress, the Virgin Islands public works program as authorized by Public Law 510, 78th Congress, the community facilities program of the Lanham Act, Public Law 849, 76th Congress, as amended, the Veterans' Educational Facilities program as authorized under Public Law 697, 79th Congress, and the emergency relief program for the Territory of Hawaii as authorized under Public Law 694, 79th Congress is placed in the Bureau of Community Facilities, under the general supervision and direction of the Federal Works Administrator.

§ 212.2 Advance planning. Title V of the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act authorizes the Federal Works Administrator to make Federal loans or advances to States and other non-Federal public agencies to assist in the preparation of plans for their proposed postwar public works. The law provides that Federal funds advanced under this authority are to be repaid without interest, when construction of projects for which funds have been thus advanced is undertaken. The act also provides that Congress is not to be committed, by the making of such advances, to undertake any project so planned.

§ 212.3 Virgin Islands public works. Public Law 510, 78th Congress, authorizes the Federal Works Administrator to provide or undertake useful public works projects in the Virgin Islands. The projects include hospitals, sanitation, sewers, water supply, schools, roads, recreation, markets, and other public works.

§ 212.4 Lanham Act. (a) Under the Lanham Act, as amended, the Federal Works Administrator is, with the approval of the President, authorized to acquire lands or interest therein and to construct certain public works on such lands; to make loans and/or grants to public agencies and to nonprofit private agencies to finance their construction of certain public works; and also to make contributions to public agencies and to nonprofit private agencies to assist their operation and maintenance of certain public works. As the provisions of the Lanham Act administered by the Federal Works Agency were of a wartime nature, upon the surrender of Germany and Japan an orderly liquidation of the program was initiated and is now in progress.

(b) Assistance for the maintenance and operation of certain school facilities under the Lanham Act will be continued for the 1946–47 school year. This assistance is limited to those schools that are still over-burdened with war-incurred school enrollments and are unable to provide normal school services with their resources. It was authorized for one more year to assist the schools in meeting their need during the transition from war to peacetime conditions.

§ 212.5 Veterans' Educational Facilities. Public Law 697, 79th Congress, approved August 8, 1946, which amends title V of the Lanham Act by adding Section 504, authorizes the Federal Works Administrator to assist in relieving acute shortages of educational facilities required for persons engaged in the pursuit of courses of training or education under title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended. Such assistance is to be provided by the use or reuse of available Government surplus structures or facilities at any educational institutions where the United States Commissioner of Education or his authorized representative finds such shortages exist or impend.

§ 212.6 Hawaii public works. Public Law 694, 79th Congress, approved August 8, 1946, section 1, authorizes the Federal Works Administrator to make grants for the repair and reconstruction of any Territorial, County, or municipal structures or facilities, other than roads, highways, or bridges, damaged or destroyed by the seismic waves which struck the Territory of Hawaii in April 1946, and for the removal of debris and other clean-up operations necessitated by the seismic waves.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURES

§ 212.11 General statement. All requests for assistance under the Lanham Act, the Advance Planning Program, the Veterans' Educational Facilities Program, and the emergency relief program for the Territory of Hawaii must be submitted to the Division Office of the Bureau of Community Facilities serving the area in which the applicant is located on application forms prescribed by the Commissioner for consideration and recommendation to the Federal Works Administrator for approval. Upon notification of approval of an application by the Federal Works Administrator, the Division Engineer executes the necessary agreement to carry out the purpose of the application.

All projects in the Virgin Islands Public Works Program are specifically authorized by the authorizing law and, therefore, no applications are required.

Further information concerning the operations of the programs of the Bureau can be obtained from the Division Engineers at the addresses given or from the Commissioner of Community Facilities in Washington, D. C.

§ 212.12 Advance planning for non-federal public works—(a) General purpose. The Bureau of Community Facilities of the Federal Works Agency has been given the responsibility for the administration of Title V of the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act of 1944. This Act authorizes the Federal Works Administrator to make advances of Federal funds to non-Federal public agencies to assist in the plan preparation of specific public works and to issue regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Title V of the Act. The Act specifically provides that the making of advances shall not in any way commit the Federal government to assist in the construction of the public works so planned. The Act and regulations provide that advances shall be repaid to the Federal government when funds become available for construction.

The purpose of the Act is to encourage States, their agencies, and the political subdivisions of the States to complete the plan preparation of specific public works and to take other steps necessary to enable them to undertake the construction of their public works when materials and manpower become available.

(b) Applicants for advances. Any non-Federal public agency may apply for an advance for plan preparation for any public work that it is authorized to construct and that it expects to construct within three years after the war. Public agencies include State governments and their agencies and political subdivisions, such as cities, towns, townships, counties, school districts, water and sewer districts, levee districts, irrigation districts, special taxing districts, and other duly authorized public agencies.

Private or privately controlled nonprofit organizations, religious, charitable, patriotic, or otherwise, may not receive advances under the Act; Federal agencies or their instrumentalities are not eligible to apply for an advance.

(c) Applications for advances. Application forms may be obtained from and shall be submitted to the Division Offices of the Bureau of Community Facilities, Federal Works Agency.

(d) Scope of application. Each application should cover only a single specific public work, such work as the applicant would expect to construct as a single public work. It should not cover a general improvement program even of a particular type, such as a general school or water improvement program, unless the applicant expects to construct the entire program at one time or will be prepared to repay the total advance when funds become available for the first portion of such program.

(e) Types of public works. Applications for advances for the plan preparation of the types of public works of public agencies set forth in 44 C F R Part 201, are eligible under the provisions of the Act and the regulations.

(f) Preparation of application. An application for an advance for plan preparation shall be made on BCF Form 3, "Application for Advance Planning for Non-Federal Public Works," copies of which are available at the Division Offices of the Bureau of Community Facilities. An original and three copies of the application shall be prepared by the applicant, one copy retained by the applicant, and the original and two copies submitted to the Division Office of the Bureau. It is essential that every item on the application be answered carefully. Where space does not permit a complete answer, the information should be placed on a separate sheet and attached securely to the application.

The following instructions will aid in the preparation of the application:

The spaces in the upper right-hand corner marked "To be filled in by Division Office" should be left blank.

(1) Item 1. Enter the exact legal corporate name of the applicant, together with its official address.

(2) Item 2. Enter the name and title of the representative of the applicant who has been officially authorized to act for the applicant in connection with the application.

(3) Item 3. Enter the name of the architect or engineer who will be responsible for the plan preparation. If an architectural or engineering firm is to be responsible, give the full name and address of the firm. If the plan preparation is to be performed by the applicant's forces, give the name of the individual who will be responsible for the actual supervision of the plan preparation. If no architect or engineer has been selected, so state.

(4) Item 4. Enter a description of the scope of the proposed public work. The description should contain sufficient information to justify the estimate of cost of the proposed public work.

(5) Item 5. Enter the location of the proposed public work. In the case of a building, this may be a street address. For other types of public works, it may be necessary to show the approximate location on a small scale map to be attached to the application.

(6) Item 6. Indicate the present status of plan preparation for the proposed public work for which the advance is requested. This should indicate whether the status of the plan preparation of the proposed public work is in the "idea stage"—where no basic engineering studies have been made except very preliminary sketches and estimates of cost; "preliminary stage"—where an engineering report is being or has been prepared and general layouts, preliminary land acquisition studies, preliminary estimates of cost, preliminary plans, and similar data are available; "design stage"—where surveys are being completed and final plans, specifications, and contract documents are in the process of preparation. If in the "design stage" state the percentage of completion.

(7) Item 7. Indicate whether the plan preparation is to be performed by an architect or engineer under a contract or whether the preparation will be performed by persons to be employed directly by the applicant.

(8) Item 8. Enter an estimate of the number of calendar days which will be required after receipt of the initial payment of the advance before the plan preparation work can be started and the number of calendar days within which it can be completed after the work is started.

(9) Item 9. Enter an estimate of the cost of constructing the proposed public work broken down as shown on the application form. Since the advance to be approved will be based primarily on this estimate, it is important that it be prepared as carefully as possible from available preliminary plans, sketches, or other information.

(10) Item 10. Enter the amount already expended on plan preparation for the proposed public work, the amount to be expended from applicant's funds, the amount of advance requested, and the estimated total cost of plan preparation. The total cost of plan preparation under Item 10 should be the same as the estimated cost of Plan Preparation under Item 9.

(11) Item 11. Enter "yes" or "no" in answer to these questions.

(12) Item 12. Attach a statement as to whether the public work as proposed conforms to the over-all plan of the area in which it is to be constructed. The following shall serve as a guide in selecting the appropriate agency for making this statement:

(i) Each application for an advance for plan preparation submitted by the State governments or departments thereof shall be accompanied by a statement from the official designated by State law or by the Governor of the State for this purpose.

(ii) Each application for an advance for plan preparation submitted by a local governmental agency shall be accompanied by a statement from whatever over-all agency has the authority to review such plans under State or local law. If the State law requires the approval of the planning for a local public work by a State planning body or of any other State agency before the public work can be planned, the application should be accompanied by a statement from that agency.

(iii) If there is no legally authorized over-all planning agency, State, local or regional, to review the planning of the proposed public work, a statement signed by the executive official having authority and jurisdiction over the proposed public work shall be attached to the application. This statement shall set forth that there is no legally authorized over-all planning body but that the public work as proposed fits into the local program. In a city this may be the Mayor; in a county, the chairman of the county governing body; and in other cases, the chief executive of the public agency.

(13) Item 13. Indicate when the applicant expects to start construction of the proposed public work.

(14) Item 14. Indicate whether the site for the public work has been selected and, if not, when it is expected to be selected. No application providing for plan preparation for any building or major engineering structure will be approved until the site has been selected. No advance can be made to assist in the purchase of a site or any interest therein nor may any of the funds advanced be used for such purpose.

(15) Item 15. Indicate in this space whether the applicant has the legal authority to construct, maintain, and operate the proposed public work.

(16) Item 16. Indicate whether the applicant has the ability to finance the cost of constructing the proposed public work. Indicate the anticipated sources of funds with the amounts from each source. If the applicant has a prepared financial statement, a copy of the latest statement should be attached to the application.

(17) Item 17. Indicate any special conditions or comments concerning the application.

The application should be signed by the authorized official of the applicant.

(g) Agreement and payments of advances. When an application has been approved, an agreement will be forwarded to the applicant for execution. Upon the return of the agreement properly signed, the Division Office of the Bureau will execute the agreement for the Government and return one copy to the applicant. An initial payment of 50% of the agreed advance will be made. When the plan preparation has been completed, approved by the Division Office of the Bureau, and final costs determined, final payment will be made to the applicant. Should the initial payment exceed the actual cost, the applicant shall refund the difference promptly.

A set of prints of the drawings and specifications and the final estimate of construction costs for each public work planned under an advance must be submitted to the Division Office of the Bureau before the final payment is made. Such drawings and specifications must bear approval of any State agency or department whose approval is required by law before construction can be started.

(h) Applicant's records. In order to determine the final cost of plan preparation, it will be necessary for the applicant to keep accurate accounting records of all costs involved in connection with each advance. The accounts and records of the applicant, together with all supporting documents, shall be open at all times to inspection by authorized representatives of the Bureau, and copies shall be furnished when requested.

(i) Repayment of advances. Each advance made for plan preparation shall be repaid in full without interest by the applicant out of the first funds that become available to it from any source for the construction of the specific public work so planned.

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations governing advance planning for non-federal public works, see 44 CFR Part 201.

§ 212.13 Veterans' educational facilities—(a) General information. The Bureau of Community Facilities has been given the responsibility, under regulations issued by the Federal Works Administrator, for the administration of the enabling law, Section 504 of the Lanham Act, as amended. The purpose of the enabling law and the regulations is to assist in relieving acute shortages of educational facilities required for persons engaged in the pursuit of courses of training or education under Title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended. Such assistance is to be provided by the use or reuse of available Government surplus structures or facilities at any educational institution where the United States Commissioner of Education or his authorized representative finds such shortages exist or impend.

(b) Applicants. Any educational institution which files an application requesting educational facilities within the limitations of the enabling law and the regulations, may be an applicant.

An educational institution under the enabling law is (1) any public educational institution or (2) any private educational institution, no part of the net earnings of which shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder, or individual, located in any State, Territory, or possession of the United States or in the District of Columbia, which is or will be engaged in training or educating persons pursuing courses of training or education under Title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended. Educational facilities may be provided for (i) educational institutions such as universities, colleges, junior colleges, normal schools and similar institutions of higher learning, which are or will be engaged in training or educating persons pursuing courses of training under Title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended, and (ii) vocational training requirements of educational institutions which are or will be engaged in providing vocational training for such persons.

(c) Field offices for administration of program. Applicants should make the necessary contacts and inquiries regarding the provision of veterans' educational facilities at the appropriate Division Office of the Bureau of Community Facilities. A resolution and a certificate of recording officer relating to the designation of an official representative, a justification of need for the requested facilities, and an application for facilities shall be filed with the Division Engineer, Bureau of Community Facilities, Federal Works Agency, at the appropriate Division Office. Sample copies of the resolution and certificate of recording officer and copies of the "Justification of Need" and application can be obtained from the Division Offices of the Bureau.

(d) Applicant's designation of official representative. In order to expedite the Veterans' Educational Facilities Program, the governing body of the applicant shall duly designate and authorize a representative to act for the applicant, to the extent permitted by local law or charter, in all matters relating to the provision of the educational facilities requested, including without limitation the preparation and submission of applications, the making of agreements, and the acceptance of any educational facilities.

A copy of a resolution adopted by the applicant's governing body with the certification thereof by the recording officer shall be filed with the appropriate Division Office of the Bureau of Community Facilities, preferably prior to the filing of the "Justification of Need" and the "Application"; otherwise they shall be filed with such documents. In the event the applicant's governing body has heretofore so delegated such authority to one of its officials, the Division Office of the Bureau shall be furnished with a copy of such resolution and a certificate of the recording officer of the applicant. Legal or administrative limitations may require the governing body to vary the terms of the suggested resolution or to limit the scope of the delegated authority; in such cases, the resolution may be so changed.

(e) Justification of need. The enabling law provides that: "At any educational institution • • • where the Commissioner of Education shall find that there exists or impends an acute shortage of educational facilities, other than housing, required for persons engaged in the pursuit of courses of training or education under Title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended, the Federal Works Administrator is authorized, upon request of such educational institution, to provide such educational facilities • • •".

In order to enable the United States Commissioner of Education or his authorized representative to make such a finding, and to furnish information to the Bureau of Community Facilities, each eligible applicant requesting assistance under this law shall file a "Justification of Need". This justification shall be submitted to the office of the appropriate Division Engineer of the Bureau of Community Facilities.

The "Justification of Need" specifies the information required by the United States Commissioner of Education and contains instructions for its preparation. The "Justification of Need" is not an application for the provision of educational facilities and will not be so considered.

The "Justification of Need" should be submitted prior to the filing of an application in order that the need can be determined by the representative of the United States Commissioner of Education, who will be located in the Division Offices of the Bureau of Community Facilities. This is a prerequisite to consideration of any application by the Bureau of Community Facilities.

(f) Finding of need. Under the enabling law and the regulations, educational facilities cannot be provided at any educational institution, until the United States Commmissioner of Education, or his authorized representative, finds that there exists or impends an acute shortage of educational facilities at such institution. A representative of the United States Commissioner of Education will determine whether or not an acute shortage of educational facilities exists or impends at an educational institution by a review of the "Justification of Need" and by such additional examination as he may require. His findings will be reported to the Division Engineer of the Bureau of Community Facilities. A copy of such findings will also be forwarded to the educational institution by the representative of the United States Commmissioner of Education.

(g) Submission of applications. No application can be approved in whole or in part by the Federal Works Administrator until the "Finding of Need" has been determined, which finding establishes the maximum facilities that can be provided under the enabling law and the regulations.

The Federal Works Agency is further limited in the provision of educational facilities by the availability of surplus property approved for such use by the War Assets Administrator or his authorized representative and by the availability of funds appropriated to carry out the enabling law.

The applicant shall submit its request for educational facilities on BCF Form 20. An original and 3 copies of the application shall be submitted to the appropriate Division Office. It is essential that every item on the application be answered carefully and fully. Where space on the form does not permit a complete answer, the information should be placed on a separate sheet and attached securely to the application.

Separate applications shall be submitted for educational facilities (1) to be installed or erected on or near the campus, (2) to be installed or erected at locations distant from the institution, and (3) to be provided by remodeling existing surplus government structures at their present sites.

An educational facility is any structure of facility (other than housing) including equipment, materials or furnishings, required for the training or education of persons engaged in the pursuit of courses of training or education under Title II of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended. Such educational facilities may include classrooms, cafeterias, laboratories, offices, gymnasiums, libraries, auditoriums, laundries, etc., and/or available surplus materials, equipment and furnishings.

Applications for housing or dormitory facilities are not eligible under this enabling law and cannot be accepted by the Division Office of the Bureau of Community Facilities.

The Bureau of Community Facilities is not authorized to reimburse the applicant for expenditures made or assume any obligation incurred by the applicant in the provision of educational facilities for veterans.

An application cannot be acted upon until a certified copy of the resolution designating applicant's official representative and the "Finding of Need" have been filed in the Division Office of the Bureau of Community Facilities.

(h) Method of performing work. The Division Engineer will notify the applicant when the request has been approved in whole or in part, and surplus property has been made available to the Bureau. The applicant will then be required to enter into whatever agreements may be necessary to carry out the work.

To the fullest extent practicable the educational facilities to be provided by the Government shall be provided by the use or reuse of available and suitable structures and facilities, including equipment, materials, and furnishings, under the jurisdiction or control of any Federal agency which in the determination of the War Assets Administrator or his designated representative are available for such use or reuse.

Under the enabling law and regulations the Bureau of Community Facilities may not acquire or prepare the site or install streets or utility mains.

Preparation of the site includes clearing, grubbing, grading and drainage where necessary, but does not include the installation of foundations for the requested educational facilities.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide the necessary architectural and engineering services for the facilities to be installed or erected on the applicant's site. Drawings and specifications are subject to the approval of the Division Engineer. The erection or installation of Federal surplus structures or facilities will be the responsibility of the Federal Works Agency, and will be performed by contract methods as a Federal undertaking. Written authority to enter upon and use the site for the purpose of installing or erecting educational facilities must be furnished to the Division Engineer before the contractor will be authorized to begin work.

Although the provision of the facility is a Federal undertaking, it is essential that there be close cooperation between all interested parties to insure its completion in a satisfactory manner in the shortest possible time.

(i) Transfer of educational facilities or equipment. The interests of the Government in the educational facilities provided under the enabling law and installed or erected on sites provided by the institution may be transferred to the educational institution when they are completed and ready for use, and the institution shall assume full responsibility for their maintenance and operation.

Under some situations the Government may permit the use of surplus Government facilities on land which is under the control of the Government and in which the Government desires to continue an interest. In these cases the facilities provided will not be transferred to the educational institution, but may be made available to such institution for the training and education of veterans. The educational institution will be required to execute receipts to the Bureau of Community Facilities for all educational facilities or equipment provided under the enabling law.

701.16 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Administration.
701.21 Offices of the Division Engineers.
701.22 Location.

SUBPART A—PROGRAM

§ 701.1 Programs. The program of the Public Buildings Administration involves management, operation, and protection of buildings throughout the United States; the acquisition of sites for those public buildings authorized for construction; assignment of space to Government agencies; the administration and disposition of surplus real property; the leasing of buildings where Federal space is not available; a survey of Government-owned and leased office space to determine the extent to which consolidation, reassignment, and reallocation of space would be advantageous to the Government; the design of public buildings and other projects which the Public Buildings Administration is authorized to undertake and administrative functions concerning these activities.

SUBPART B—ORGANIZATION

§ 701.11 Office of the Commissioner. Direction of the operations of the Public Buildings Administration.

§ 701.12 Office of the Assistant Commissioner. Exercise of authority, performance of duties and conduct of activities as directed by the Commissioner; handling of operations or missions which, because of their nature, are not adaptable to assignment to major offices.

§ 701.13 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Design and Construction. Design and construction of public buildings and other construction projects which the Public Buildings Administration is authorized to undertake pursuant to the Public Buildings Act of 1926, as amended, 40 U. S. C. 341–347, and those which other agencies are authorized to undertake, as provided by the act of June 25, 1910, as amended, 40 U. S. C. 265; and maintenance and repair of buildings outside the District of Columbia.

§ 701.14 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Buildings Management. Management, operation and protection of buildings throughout the United States; repair and management of buildings in metropolitan Washington; management and operation of communications systems; and moving of Governmental activities in connection with space changes and assignments.

§ 701.15 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Real Estate Management. Acquisition of sites for public buildings which the Public Buildings Administration is authorized to construct; assignment of space to Government agencies; leasing of space for Government agencies; administration and disposition of surplus real property as authorized by the Act of August 27, 1935, 40 U. S. C. 304a–c, and by the War Assets Administration; and the operation of Residence Halls, which provide living quarters for approximately 7,000 female Government employees in the District of Columbia.

§ 701.16 Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Administration. Administrative, fiscal, and personnel functions and services; legal functions, subject to the technical supervision of the General Counsel; and budgetary and administrative planning.

§ 701.21 Offices of the Division Engineers. The business of the Public Buildings Administration in the field is conducted through nine division offices. A Division Engineer is in charge of each division. The organization of the divisions follows the pattern of that of the central office, with four units, as follows, which perform functions corresponding to those of the Deputy Commissioners in their respective fields:

Construction and Repair.
Buildings Management.
Real Estate.
Administration.

PUBLIC ROADS ADMINISTRATION

[23 CFR, Ch. I]

PART 51—PROGRAMS AND ORGANIZATION

Sec.
51.1 Programs of the Public Roads Administration.
51.11 Central Office Organization.
51.12 Offices of the Division Engineers.

§ 51.1 Programs of the Public Roads Administration. The Public Roads Administration is responsible for carrying into effect the Federal-Aid Road Act of 1916 as amended and supplemented. This act provides for cooperation between the Federal government and the various States and Hawaii and Puerto Rico in the administration and construction of the Federal-aid highway system. The initiative in improving the highway system is taken by the States under their various laws; and construction contracts are awarded and work is supervised by the States, subject to approval of the Public Roads Administration. All States through their highway departments are advised of and are familiar with rules and regulations promulgated for their guidance. These have been published from time to time in the Federal Register. All such Federal-aid highway work is subject to the various State and Territorial laws applicable in the area where the work is performed. Titles to all lands and interests in lands used for Federal-aid highway purposes, and all paving, structures and appurtenant highway facilities on such land vest in the States, and official records in connection therewith are maintained by the States. In case of forest, park and other highway work in Federally controlled areas, titles to land and highway improvements are held for the government by the agency controlling the area, generally the Forest Service or the Park Service. If litigation with individuals is involved it is pursued in the local courts having jurisdiction in the area, and is not settled by administrative determination of the Public Roads Administration.

The Public Roads Administration does not exercise, through administrative procedure, executive, legislative, or quasi-judicial functions which affect individual members of the public. Substantive rules are not adopted and interpretations are not formulated by the Public Roads Administration for the guidance of the public.

Highways within the National Forests, and within and leading to National Parks, and National Parkways, and in some cases other highways, are constructed by the Public Roads Administration under inter-agency agreements with the Department of Agriculture, the Department of the Interior, and other government departments. Cooperation with the Central American Republics in the construction of the Inter-American Highway, is achieved through liaison with the State Department. Final authority for the approval of highway systems and programs is retained by the Commissioner in Washington. Authority to approve plans and concur in contracts covering construction of programmed projects is delegated to Division Engineers.

§ 51.11 Central office organization. The organization of the Public Roads Administration in the Central office and the Division offices is shown on the attached organizational chart and the basic plan of organization is outlined below.

(a) Office of the Commissioner. The Commissioner of Public Roads is responsible to the Federal Works Administrator. The functions and responsibilities of the Public Roads Administration are prescribed by law and/or the orders and regulations of the Federal Works Administrator. The Deputy Commissioners of the following offices, the Solicitor, and the Division Engineers are responsible directly to the Commissioner for activities under their jurisdictions.

(b) Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Design. The Deputy Commissioner for Design has responsibility for all design and programming activities necessary in carrying out the cooperative work with the various State highway departments and other agencies on Federal-aid, Federal-aid secondary and Federal-aid urban projects; for review and approval of (1) additions or changes in the approved system of Federal-aid highways and (2) requests for approval or revision in the secondary or feeder road system.

(c) Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Construction. The Deputy Commissioner for Construction has responsibility for proper performance, progress and accomplishments on all projects undertaken cooperatively with State highway departments and other agencies; for the advancement and application of improved construction and maintenance methods; and for the correlation of field practice with research developments to secure beneficial results.

(d) Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Finance and Business Management. The Deputy Commissioner for Finance and Business Management has responsibility for all financial and business activities necessary in connection with the obligation and payment of funds for approved surveys and construction projects undertaken cooperatively with State highway departments and other agencies; in charge of all organizational matters pertaining to budget, personnel, records, equipment purchases, property control and miscellaneous services.

(e) Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Research. The Deputy Commissioner for Research has responsibility for the direction and interpretation of highway research undertaken independently or in cooperation with the State highway departments and other agencies; for the preparation and dissemination of technical data, research reports, statistics and general information; and for the direction and service of the Libraries of the Federal Works Agency.

(f) Office of the Solicitor. The Solicitor has responsibility for all legal activities necessary in carrying out the cooperative work with the various State highway departments, other State and Federal agencies, foreign countries and business organizations; in charge of the legal aspects of organizational matters pertaining to the acquisition of rights-of-way, patents, trade marks, lease agreements, claims and investigations.

§ 51.12 Offices of the division engineers. (a) The Division Engineers represent the Commissioner in carrying out the broad policies of the Public Roads Administration at the field level. It is through the Division Engineers and their field offices in each State that general supervisory control over Federal highway work is exercised by Public Roads as provided in Federal highway legislation.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD

[15 CFR, Ch. IV]

PART 405—CREATION, PURPOSE, ORGANIZATION, FUNCTIONS, AND PROCEDURES

Sec.
405.1 Creation and purpose.
405.2 Organization.
405.3 The Board.
405.4 General functions.
405.5 Description of a zone.
405.6 Public information.
405.7 Rules, regulations and practices.

§ 405.1 Creation and purpose—(a) Creation. The Foreign-Trade Zones Board was created by act of Congress approved June 18, 1934, (48 Stat. 998–1003; 19 U. S. C. 81c–81u).

(b) Purpose. The purpose of the Board, as set forth in the preamble to the act, is "To provide for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of foreign-trade zones in ports of entry of the United States, to expedite and encourage foreign commerce, and for other purposes."

§ 405.2 Organization—(a) Board. The Foreign-Trade Zones Board consists of the Secretary of Commerce, chairman and executive officer, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of War.

(b) Committee of Alternates. Each member of the Board designates an alternate to serve on a Committee of Alternates. The alternate for the Chairman of the Board is the chairman of the committee. The committee reviews all matters for presentation to the Board, may hold hearings, and makes recommendations to the Board.

(c) Executive Secretary. The general administrative activities of the Board are vested in an Executive Secretary. The secretary is the legal custodian of the seal, official documents, records, books, papers, and correspondence of the Board.

(d) Examiner. Upon receipt of an application, the secretary of the Board designates an examiner to make an analysis of it for compliance with the rules and regulations of the Board.

(e) Examiners' Committee. (1) If the application is in order, the secretary of the Board appoints an Examiners' Committee and designates a chairman thereof. This committee is composed of the examiner as provided in subsection (d) of this section, the collector of customs and the district engineer in whose districts the proposed zone is to be located.

(2) Functions. The committee, specified in subsection (e) of this section, conducts a thorough examination of the application in all its phases, and is authorized to hold public hearings and take evidence. Notices of such hearings are sent to all interested parties, and are published in the press and the Federal Register. Such hearings are usually held in the port of entry where the proposed zone is to be located. Hearings are stenographically recorded by the official reporter of the Board, under the supervision of the presiding examiner. Upon completion of its investigation the committee submits a joint report with its recommendations to the Board.

§ 405.3 The Board—(a) Headquarters. The headquarters of the Board is the U. S. Department of Commerce, at Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Office hours. The Board's office hours are from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday of each calendar week, except such days as are by law, or may be declared, legal public holidays by the Congress or by proclamation of the President of the United States. (For business hours in a zone, see note.)

NOTE: Hours of general business and service at a zone are regulated by the zone grantee and/or operator. For customs purposes they are as prescribed in the Customs Regulations of 1943, as revised (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 1.8).

(c) Communications. Formal applications for grants should be filed with, and all official communications in connection therewith addressed to, the Secretary of Commerce, Chairman and Executive Officer, Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Washington 25, D. C. All other communications to the Board, unless otherwise specifically directed, may be addressed to the Executive Secretary, Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets, NW., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 405.4 General functions—(a) Board. The primary function of the Board is to receive, review, and consider applications for the establishment and operation of Foreign-Trade Zones made by public and private corporations, and on a finding that the proposed plans and location for zones are suitable for the accomplishment of the purpose of foreign-trade zones under the act, and that the facilities and appurtenances which the applicants propose to provide are sufficient, to grant to applicants, subject to the conditions and restrictions of the act and of the rules and regulations made thereunder, the privilege of establishing, operating, and maintaining foreign-trade zones.

(b) Operation of zones. When the Board has made grants to corporations for the establishment of foreign-trade zones, the activities of the Board become supervisory, and grantees must operate zones as public utilities in strict conformity with the act and the rules and regulations of the Board.

(c) Determination of procedure. The Board, on its own initiative or when presentations are made by grantees or users of foreign-trade zones, determines procedure under the law and regulations. It may establish the definition of certain operations, manipulations, and processes. It may prohibit certain commodities from entry to a zone.

§ 405.5 Description of a zone. A foreign-trade zone is an isolated, enclosed, and policed area under the supervision of the Board, operated as a public utility by a corporation, in or adjacent to a port of entry, without resident population, furnished with the necessary facilities for lading and unlading, for storing goods, and for reshipping them by land and water—an area into which goods may be brought, stored, and subjected to certain specified manipulation operations. If reshipped to foreign points, the goods may leave the restricted trade zone without payment of duties and without the intervention of customs officials, except under certain conditions. Such products cannot, of course, leave the trade zone for domestic use or consumption without full compliance with existing customs laws. Goods may not be manufactured or exhibited in such an area. The area is subject equally with adjacent regions to all the laws relating to public health, vessel inspection, postal service, and immigration, and to the supervision of Federal agencies having jurisdiction in ports of entry, including customs to a limited extent.

§ 405.6 Public information—(a) Availability. Information concerning the establishment, operation and administration of foreign-trade zones, copies of the law, the rules and regulations, annual reports to Congress, and general informational material issued by the Board, may be obtained from the office of the Executive Secretary. The documents named herein are available for public inspection and review in the field offices of the Department of Commerce located throughout the United States as shown in 15 CFR 350–359, inclusive. Requests by the general public for interpretative or official opinions of the law, rules and regulations should be submitted to the Board. Copies of the Board's publications are on file at various public libraries, offices of collectors of customs of the Bureau of Customs, Treasury Department, district and division engineers of the Corps of Engineers, War Department, and foreign offices of the Department of State.

(b) Examination of applications. Formal applications and supporting exhibits filed with the Board in connection with proposed zones, upon application by interested parties properly and directly concerned, may be examined in the office of the secretary of the Board. Subject to the preceding conditions, such applications may be reviewed at the offices of the examiners' committee as specified in public notices issued by the Board. As may be determined by the Board, certain matters of official record may be considered "confidential for good cause found" and upon that premise the Board may decline to make them available for inspection or otherwise.

(c) Public hearings. Transcripts of the proceedings of public hearings held in connection with the investigation of applications for grants to establish zones and other hearings of the Board relating to the operation and administration of zones, may be obtained by persons properly and directly concerned from the official reporter at rates not to exceed the maximum rates fixed by contract between the reporter and the Board.

§ 405.7 Rules, regulations and practices. Detailed statements of the rules, regulations, practices and procedures of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board are contained in Part 400 of this chapter.

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

[4 CFR, Ch. I]

PART 4—ACCOUNTS AND CLAIMS [1]

Sec.
4.2 Filing of claims.
4.3 Information relating to claims.
4.4 Settlement of claims.

AUGUST 28, 1946.

§ 4.2 Filing of claims. Claims may be filed with the Claims Division, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C., or if the claims pertain to postal matters with the Postal Accounts Division, General Accounting Office, Asheville, N. C. No particular form for filing claims, except that prescribed in connection with claims for amounts due deceased persons, is required.

§ 4.3 Information relating to claims. Information relating to claims may be obtained by claimants or their authorized representatives by addressing the General Accounting Office, 5th and F Streets NW, Washington 25, D. C. Interviews will be accorded claimants or their authorized representatives at Room 201, at the same address.

§ 4.4 Settlement of claims. The settlement of claims is based upon the written record only and oral presentation of fact or law is not acceptable as a substitute. Claims are settled on the basis of the facts as established by reports of the Government office concerned and by evidence submitted by the claimant. The settlement of claims is founded on a determination of the legal liability of the United States under the factual situation involved as established by such reports. The burden is on claimants to prove their claims and matters incident thereto requisite to establishing the clear liability of the United States and claimants' rights to payment.

PART 12—ORGANIZATION AND DESIGNATIONS OF EMPLOYEES TO ACT AS OR FOR THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES [2]

§ 12.3 Organization of the General Accounting Office. The functions of the General Accounting Office includes the audit and settlement, independently of the operating agencies of the Government, of all accounts and claims not excepted by statute, in which the Government is concerned, either as debtor or creditor. The General Accounting Office, a part of the legislative branch of the Government, is under the control and direction of the Comptroller General of the United States. It includes the Office of the Comptroller General, to which are attached the several administrative functions, and operates through the Office of the General Counsel, the Office of Investigations, and the following divisions: Accounting and Bookkeeping, Audit, Claims, Corporation Audits, and Reconciliation and Clearance, located at Washington, D. C., and the Postal Accounts Division temporarily located at Asheville, N. C. The Office of Investigations and the Audit, Corporation Audits, and Reconciliation and Clearance Divisions perform part of their functions at various locations throughout the United States, depending on the demands of the work. However, these field offices or parties perform no functions independent of the headquarters of the Office at Washington, to which they are subordinate.

Finally authority in the General Accounting Office resides in the Comptroller General of the United States and those who have been designated to act as Comptroller General during the absence or incapacity of the Comptroller General and the Assistant Comptroller General, or during a vacancy in both of such offices.

PART 13—DECISIONS OF THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES

§ 13.1 Availability. All decisions of the Comptroller General of general import are published in monthly pamphlets and may be obtained for a nominal fee from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office. These decisions also are published in an annual volume entitled "Decisions of the Comptroller General of the United States". General Regulations of the General Accounting Office, including those applicable to the public, are published in the appendix of this annual volume. Decisions or regulations of the Comptroller General may be inspected in the Office of the Chief Clerk, Room 102, General Accounting Office, 5th and F Streets NW., Washington, D. C.

PART 500—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
500.1 Creation and authority.
500.2 Purpose.
500.3 Organization.
500.4 Management.

§ 500.1 Creation and authority. The Government Printing Office was created by Congressional Joint Resolution 25, June 23, 1860. A then-existing commercial printing plant was purchased for $135,000, under an appropriation made February 18, 1861. Possession was taken March 4, 1861, and the office was named the Government Printing Office. It is now the largest and best-equipped printing plant in the world. The activities of the Government Printing Office are outlined and defined in the Printing Act of January 12, 1895, as amended (28 Stat. 603; U. S. C. title 44).

§ 500.2 Purpose. The Government Printing Office executes orders for printing and binding placed by Congress and the departments, independent establishments, and agencies of the Federal Government; furnishes, on order blank paper, inks, and similar supplies to all governmental activities; distributes Government publications as required by law, and maintains necessary catalogs and a library of these publications; prints, for sale to the public, such documents as are not of a confidential nature. Information regarding Government publications and their sale may be obtained by addressing the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 500.3 Organization. The Public Printer is solely responsible for the management of the Government Printing Office. However, the Joint Committee on Printing, consisting of three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives, was created by the act of August 3, 1846, superseded by the act of January 12, 1895 (28 Stat. 601; 44 U. S. C. 1), to adopt and employ such measures as in its discretion it deemed necessary to remedy any neglect, delay, duplication, or waste in public printing, binding, and distribution of Government publications. The Joint Committee fixes the standards of paper used in public printing and approves contracts for such paper and other materials. It also passes on wage agreements which the Public Printer is authorized by the act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 658; 44 U. S. C. 40), to enter into with the committees representing the various trades in the Government Printing Office, and acts generally as the Board of Directors of the Government Printing Office.

§ 500.4 Management. Entire management of the Office, including appointment through civil service of all personnel, is by law vested in the Public Printer, who is required to be a practical printer, versed in the art of bookbinding. This official is appointed by the President of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. In directing the various functions and activities of the Government Printing Office, the Public Printer is aided by two principal assistants, the Deputy Public Printer and the Executive Officer. The Deputy Public Printer assumes the duties of the Public Printer in the absence of that official and is directly responsible to the Public Printer for all the production activities; in this matter he is assisted by the Production Manager. The Executive Officer is directly responsible to the Public Printer for the proper handling of planning and administrative functions of the Office.

JOHN J. DEVINY,
Acting Public Printer.

[22 CFR, Chapter V]

PART 900—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
900.1 Creation.
900.2 Central organization.
900.3 Field offices.
900.4 Program.
900.5 Additional information.

§ 900.1 Creation. (a) The Institute of Inter-American Affairs was caused to be created under the laws of the State of Delaware on March 31, 1942, by the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs pursuant to authority contained in the Third Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 (Public Law 353, 77th Congress, approved December 17, 1941, 55 Stat. 818). The general purpose of the Institute is to aid and improve the health and general welfare of the peoples of the Western Hemisphere in collaboration with their governments, by helping to solve critical health and sanitation and food supply problems and to carry out the obligations of this Government with relation to the health and sanitation program undertaken by it pursuant to Resolution XXX of the Meeting of the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the American Republics held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, January 15–28, 1942. The Institute is a United States Government-controlled nonprofit membership corporation.

(b) By Executive Order 9710, dated April 10, 1946, there were transferred to the Secretary of State all functions of the Director of the Office of Inter-American Affairs (the successor of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs) with respect to The Institute of Inter-American Affairs, together with all rights, interests, authority and obligations of the Director and of his predecessors with respect to the corporation.

§ 900.2 Central organization. (a) The central organization of the corporation is located in Washington, D. C., where its policies and functions are determined by its Board of Directors and put into operation by appropriate officers and division directors. The divisions of the Institute consist of the following:

Health and Sanitation Division.
Food Supply Division.
Training Division.
Administration Division.

(b) In addition the corporation maintains a General Counsel's Office, Information, Economic, and Transportation Sections.

§ 900.3 Field Offices. The principal field offices of the corporation are located in the capital cities of the following countries:

Bolivia	Haiti
Brazil	Honduras
Chile	Mexico
Colombia	Nicaragua
Costa Rica	Paraguay
Dominican Republic	Peru
Ecuador	Uruguay
El Salvador	Venezuela
Guatemala

No. 177A——74

§ 900.4 Program. The program of the Institute is carried out pursuant to cooperative agreements between the corporation and each of the other American republics concerned for the development of higher standards of public health and sanitation (Health and Sanitation Division) and the development of improved means of food production (Food Supply Division). Each of the field parties in the respective countries is under the supervision of a chief of party who is authorized to represent the corporation in the respective countries and to manage its operations in carrying out the terms and conditions of each agreement. Under the Training Division, doctors, nurses, sanitary engineers and agricultural technicians from the other American republics receive training in the United States in the tested methods of preventive medicine, environmental sanitation, nutrition, diversified crop production, farm surveys, marketing, storage, etc. In the Administration Division, there are performed the audit, accounting, budgetary, personnel and service operations functions of the Institute.

§ 900.5 Additional information. Additional information concerning the Institute of Inter-American Affairs may be secured by addressing the President, The Institute of Inter-American Affairs, 499 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

§ 1000.1 Creation. (a) The Inter-American Educational Foundation, Inc., was caused to be created under the laws of the State of Delaware on September 25, 1943, by the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, pursuant to authority contained in the National War Agencies Appropriation Act, 1944 (Pub. Law 139, 78th Cong., approved July 12, 1943, 57 Stat. 528). The Foundation is a Government-controlled nonprofit membership corporation.

(b) By Executive Order No. 9710, dated April 10, 1946, there were transferred to the Secretary of State all functions of the Director of the Office of Inter-American Affairs (the successor of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs) with respect to the Inter-American Educational Foundation, Inc., together with all rights, interests, authority, and obligations of the Director and of his predecessors with respect to the corporation.

§ 1000.2 Central organization. The central organization of the corporation is located in Washington, D. C., where its policies and functions are determined by its Board of Directors and put into operation by appropriate officers. In carrying out its program the Foundation utilizes to a large extent the administrative facilities of The Institute of Inter-American Affairs.

§ 1000.3 Purpose. The general purpose of the Foundation is the implementing of plans for Hemispheric cooperation in the solution of fundamental educational problems. In accordance with Resolution XXVIII adopted by the First Conference of Ministers and Directors of Education of the American Republics, held in Panama in 1943, the specific purpose of the Foundation is the development of cooperative educational programs in the other American republics, with emphasis on general education, particularly in rural areas, in the elementary, secondary, and normal schools; vocational and health education; and the teaching of the English language.

§ 1000.4 Program. (a) The program of the Foundation is carried out through agreements between the Foundation and the individual countries of the other American republics. As of August, 1946, the principal field offices of the Foundation are located in the capital cities of the following countries:

Bolivia	Guatemala
Brazil	Haiti
Chile	Honduras
Costa Rica	Panama
Dominican Republic	Paraguay
Ecuador	Peru
El Salvador

(b) Each of the field parties in the respective countries is under the supervision of a Special Representative of the Foundation who is authorized to represent the corporation in the particular country and to manage its operations in carrying out the terms and conditions of each agreement.

§ 1000.5 Additional information. Additional information concerning the Inter-American Educational Foundation, Inc., may be secured by addressing the President, Inter-American Educational Foundation, Inc., 499 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

Dated: August 28, 1946.

ARTHUR R. HARRIS,
President.

§ 300.1 The Librarian of Congress. The Librarian of Congress is the principal administrative officer of the Library, with authority and responsibility for making rules and regulations for the government of the Library of Congress (2 U. S. C. 136). He is aided in his administration of the Library by an immediate staff which consists of the Chief Assistant Librarian, the directors of the Acquisitions Department, Administrative Services Department, Processing Department, and Reference Department, the Director of the Legislative Reference Service, the Law Librarian, and the Register of Copyrights. Delegations of responsibility for the services of the Library are specified in the organizational sections of this chapter.

§ 300.5 The Chief Assistant Librarian. The Chief Assistant Librarian is the principal administrative officer under the Librarian, responsible for aiding him in the administration of all departments of the Library as directed by the Librarian. He is responsible for immediate direction of the Keeper of the Collections, the Director of Books for the Adult Blind, the Director of the Motion Picture Project, and the Information and Publications Officer. He serves as Acting Librarian in the absence of the Librarian.

§ 300.6 Keeper of the Collections. The Keeper of the Collections is a staff officer responsible for advising the Librarian of Congress on the custody and preservation of the collections of the Library.

§ 300.7 Division of Books for the Adult Blind. Under the administration of a Director, the Division of Books for the Adult Blind selects and contracts for the reproduction of literary materials for the blind, and makes books in raised characters, and talking books available to the blind readers on a nation-wide basis through the facilities of regional libraries designated by the Librarian of Congress.

§ 300.8 Motion Picture Project. Under the administration of a Director, the Motion Picture Project is responsible for developing, organizing and maintaining the motion picture collection of the Library of Congress. The project makes motion pictures available to the users of the Library, subject to conditions imposed by the Librarian of Congress to assure preservation of the film and protection of private rights in the reproduction and display of motion pictures.

§ 300.9 Information and Publications Office. (a) The Information and Publications Office, under the direction of an Information and Publications Officer, serves as a central source of general information about the Library of Congress itself and about any and all of the activities of the Library, much of which it makes available through the Library's publications, which it distributes and about which it answers inquiries. As an information office, however, it functions actively, as well as passively, being responsible for the dissemination of information about the Library to members of the staff and to the general public, both directly and through the press and radio. The Office is in charge of the Library's public guide service and receives and deals with requests for special visits to the Library by groups or individuals. It is in charge of the public and staff bulletin boards and clears and distributes material for posting on the divisional bulletin boards. Besides directly answering the inquiries of visitors, it responds to mail and telephone requests for information concerning the services of the Library, the location and hours of openings of departments, divisions, and other units of the Library, the location of exhibits and other objects of interest in the Library, etc. It receives and directs to the proper officials of the Library visitors having inquiries to make in the fields of specialization of particular divisions of the Library, and it assists visitors seeking general information about other institutions or points of interest in or near Washington, answering questions concerning transportation facilities, hours of opening, etc. The Office also assists in preparing, publishes and distributes the Library's weekly "Information Bulletin." For the use of the press and the public alike, it maintains and develops a file of photographs of the Library and arranges for the taking of photographs within the Library buildings. It maintains, develops and lends a collection of lantern slides about the Library for the use of institutions and public lecturers, and it also maintains a file of clippings of newspaper articles and other published material concerning the Library and its activities.

(b) The Office has general charge of the publications of the Library of Congress, their preparation for printing or processing, proofreading, storage, and distribution, as well as their requisitioning and vouchering, except contracts for miscellaneous printing and Library of Congress printed cards, which are negotiated by the Supply Office and the Card Division, respectively, and for certain publications of the Copyright Office, which that office orders and distributes directly. From the Information and Publications Office issue both printed and processed publications, including bibliographies, bulletins and other serials, catalogs, manuals, technical material (e. g., subject headings, classification schedules, etc), and informational circulars.

For information concerning all Library of Congress publications application should be made to the Information and Publications Office, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 300.20 Department of Administrative Services. (a) The Department of Administrative Services, under a Director, comprises the following divisions: the Accounts Office, the Disbursing Office, the Personnel Office, the Photoduplication Service, the Secretary's Office, the Office of the Superintendent of Library Buildings and Grounds, the Supply Office, and the Tabulating Office.

(b) The Director of Administrative Services reports to the Librarian and has responsibility for the preparation of budget estimates, the implementation and maintenance of Library policy in all fiscal matters, the preparation of statistical analyses on behalf of the Librarian and the department directors, observance of Government regulations with respect to all fiscal and personnel procedures, the protection and maintenance of the Library buildings and grounds, the Administration of the Personnel Office (except for matters of policy), and the direction of all other Administrative services of the Library.

§ 300.21 Accounts Office. Under the administration of an Accounting Officer, the Accounts Office plans, develops, directs, and advises on accounting operations of the Library. It maintains accounts, prepares periodic and special financial statements, reports and correspondence, and examines and approves all collection and disbursement vouchers.

§ 300.22 Disbursing Office. Under the administration of a Disbursing Officer, the Disbursing Office disburses funds appropriated for the Library of Congress and the United States Botanic Garden, funds provided through the Library of Congress Gift and Trust Funds, and is responsible for the deposit of funds received from certain operating services of the Library (sale of catalog cards, photoduplicates, recordings, etc.). The Office disburses cash or checks on the basis of vouchers approved by duly authorized officers of the Library.

§ 300.23 Personnel Office. Under the administration of a Director of Personnel, the Personnel Office plans and develops, in cooperation with principal officers of the Library, general policies and procedures in relation to all phases of personnel management in the Library. Through this Office the Librarian of Congress is represented in personnel management relationships with the Civil Service Commission, General Accounting Office, other federal agencies, and private agencies. The files of the Office are not available for public inspection.

§ 300.24 Photoduplication Service. Under the administration of a Chief, the Photoduplication Service exercises supervisory, planning, and research direction of the photographic activities of the Library. The Service plans methods, devises procedures, and supervises the operation, development, and maintenance of its services to the Library, to Members of Congress, to educational and other institutions, and to the general public.

§ 300.25 Office of the Secretary of the Library. Under the administration of the Secretary, the Office maintains the central unit for the receipt of all mail in the Library. The Office is responsible for the receipt, opening, recording (when necessary), and routing, or forwarding without opening, of all mail received in the Library. It maintains the central correspondence files of the Library (not subject to public inspection), receipts and schedules collections of money (except those received by the Copyright Office) and transmits such collections to the Accounts Office. It is responsible for the maintenance of a regular and special messenger and delivery service for the distribution of mail and library material within the Library buildings and within the District of Columbia, and for the maintenance of a chauffeur service for official business.

§ 300.26 Library Buildings and Grounds. Responsibility for the planning and coordination of the physical properties and arrangements relating to the needs and services of the Library of Congress buildings, including the care, maintenance, protection, and physical management of the two buildings rests in the Superintendent of Library Buildings and Grounds.

§ 300.27 Supply Office. Under the administration of a Supply Officer, the Supply Office is responsible for the procurement of miscellaneous printing, stationery and office supplies, travel reimbursements, passenger transportation, telegraph, miscellaneous services, and for mimeographing and multilithing work of the Library.

§ 300.28 Tabulating Office. Under the administration of a Tabulating Officer, the Tabulating Office develops the plans, methods, and procedures for the installation and use of electrical accounting equipment in the various fields of operation in the Library of Congress.

§ 300.100 Reference Department. The Reference Department maintains the custody of the general and special collections (exclusive of law), and performs reference and reader service for the Congress, the Federal agencies, and the general public. The Department is administered, under regulations established by the Librarian of Congress, by the Director of the Reference Department who is responsible to the Librarian for all phases of the Department's work, and by two Assistant Directors, (a) an Assistant Director for Circulation Service and (b) an Assistant Director for Public Reference Service. The Circulation Service, under the Assistant Director in charge, performs the functions of the Department relating to the custody and issue of materials. The Divisions in the Circulation Service are the Stack and Reader Division, the Serials Division and the Loan Division. The Public Reference Service, under the Assistant Director in charge, performs those functions which involve the interpretation of the general and special collections (exclusive of law), and, in specific instances, the issue of materials. Under regulations and procedures approved by the Librarian of Congress, it responds to inquiries received by telephone, by correspondence, or from readers in person. The divisions in the Public Reference Service are the Aeronautics Division, the General Reference and Bibliography Division, the Hispanic Foundation, the Manuscripts Division, the Maps Division, the Music Division, the Orientalia Division, the Prints and Photographs Division, and the Rare Books Division. Services are provided in general and special reading rooms under regulations and during hours of opening established by the Librarian of Congress.

§ 300.101 Stack and Reader Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Stack and Reader Division is responsible for the custody of the general collections (except law) and the circulation of materials from those collections to readers, including the circulation of law materials outside the buildings. As to the general collections (except law), the Division maintains, in accordance with standards of custodial care established by the Keeper of the Collections and approved by the Librarian, the physical condition and orderly arrangement of materials; issues and delivers materials as requested for use in the general reading rooms, divisional reading rooms, and study rooms; maintains records of materials in its custody and of materials issued and returned; provides study rooms or other research facilities, in accordance with established policies and practices; and passes upon applications for access to bookstacks.

§ 300.102 Serials Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Serials Division is responsible for the custody of certain groups of materials which require, or for reasons of convenience are given, reader and reference service prior to their addition to the general collections, including, insofar as they are not allocated to other divisions, periodicals, newspapers, pamphlets, government documents, books in parts, and ephemera of various sorts. The Division responds to reference inquiries, whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains special reading rooms for the service of the materials in its custody, and issues and delivers materials as requested for use therein.

§ 300.103 Loan Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Loan Division is responsible for all loans of materials in the Library's collections issued for use outside of the Library buildings. The Division passes upon all applications for borrowing privilege in accordance with regulations established by the Librarian; records, and maintains records of, all materials issued on loan; recalls materials when due; and supervises the operations of the Service for the Blind.

§ 300.104 Aeronautics Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Aeronautics Division performs special reference, bibliographic, and indexing services in the aeronautical and related sciences; responds to reference requests whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a special reading room for the service of materials in its field; and issues bibliographic publications in the literature of aeronautics.

§ 300.105 General Reference and Bibliography Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the General Reference and Bibliography Division performs reference and bibliographic work which does not require the attention of the special divisions. The Division responds to reference requests whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; provides a reference service in the general reading rooms and in other designated locations; maintains indexes of published and unpublished bibliographies; and prepare bibliographies and publications, as authorized.

§ 300.106 Hispanic Foundation. Under the administration of a Director, the Hispanic Foundation develops and coordinates the activities of the Library of Congress in relation to Spain, Portugal, and Latin America; fosters cultural interchange with Hispanic nations in terms of library materials and library service; provides reference and bibliographic service in Hispanic culture, except in subject fields specifically assigned to other units of the Library; responds to reference requests whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the Hispanic Room; and prepares bibliographies, guides, indexes, and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.107 Manuscripts Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Manuscripts Division is responsible for the custody and service of the general collections of manuscripts, and photographic reproductions of manuscripts. The Division catalogs, classifies and otherwise prepares manuscripts for use, in accordance with approved procedures; provides a reference service in terms of manuscript materials with particular emphasis on source materials related to the history and literature of the United States; responds to reference requests whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the Manuscripts Reading Room; and prepares special bibliographies, calendars, guides, indexes, and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.108 Maps Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Maps Division is responsible for the custody and service of the collection of maps and atlases. The Division catalogs, classifies, and prepares maps and atlases for use in accordance with approved procedures; provides a reference service in the fields of geography and cartography; re-

:ponds to reference requests whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the Maps Reading Room; and prepares bibliographies, guides, indexes, and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.109 Music Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Music Division is responsible for the custody and service of the collections of music and the literature of music. The Division provides a reference service concerning music in response to inquiries whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the Music Reading Room; plans and superintends the performance of public concerts; supervises the operations of the Folklore Section, including the Archive of American Folk Song, and the Recording Laboratory; and prepares special bibliographies, guides, indexes and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.110 Orientalia Division. Under the adminstration of a Chief, the Orientalia Division is responsible for the custody and service of all materials written or printed in Oriental languages (including Chinese, Japanese, Semitic, Arabic, Persian, Turkish, etc.). The Division catalogs, classifies, and otherwise prepares such materials for use, in accordance with approved procedures, except in cases where the work is performed by the Processing Department; fosters cultural interchange with Oriental nations in terms of library materials and library service; provides a reference service in all aspects of Oriental culture, except in subject fields specifically assigned to other units of the Library; responds to reference inquiries whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; provides a service to readers in the Orientalia Reading Room; and prepares bibliographies, guides, indexes, and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.111 Prints and Photographs Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Prints and Photographs Division is responsible for the custody and service of all prints, photographs (except motion pictures), and reference and reserved collections of books relating to the fine arts. The Division catalogs, classifies and otherwise prepares prints and photographs for use, in accordance with approved procedures; provides a reference service in terms of fine arts and the visual record of civilizations and cultures; responds to reference inquiries whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the divisional reading room; develops the Library's program for exhibits and supervises their installation; and prepares special bibliographies, guides, indexes and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.112 Rare Books Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Rare Books Division is responsible for the custody and service of those books or particular copies of books which, because of certain considerations, require special facilities for their preservation and supervised use, and of the general microfilm collections. The Division provides a reference service in terms of the materials in its custody; responds to inquiries whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail; maintains a service to readers in the Rare Book Room and the Microfilm Reading Room; and prepares special catalogs, bibliographies, guides and publications appropriate to its service.

§ 300.200 Law Library. (a) The Law Library was created and made part of the Library of Congress by the act of July 14, 1832 (4 Stat. 579), and by provision of law has been designated as a department of the Library of Congress (R. S. sec. 81, 2 U. S. C. 132). It is charged with responsibility for the development and service of the law collections of the Library of Congress. Administrative responsibility rests in a Law Librarian who is appointed by the Librarian of Congress.

(b) The Law Library is the only general legal research library maintained by the Federal Government; its services, however, do not include the rendering of legal opinions. Its reference staff and its facilities are available to members of the public, universities, learned societies and libraries requiring services which its staff is equipped to give and which can be given without interference with services to the Congress and other agencies of the Federal Government.

(c) The Law Library presently maintains in the Library of Congress two reading rooms — the Anglo-American Law Reading Room and the Foreign Law Reading Room—for the use of Government personnel, members of the Bar, and the general public. The Law Library also maintains the Law Library in the Capitol (Senate Wing, U. S. Capitol) for the exclusive use of Members of Congress, the Supreme Court, members of the Bar, and persons making investigations for the Government.

(d) The hours of opening are designated by regulations of the Librarian of Congress, but the Law Library in the Capitol is open during the continuance in session of either House of Congress.

§ 300.300 Acquisitions Department. (a) The Acquisitions Department (established July 1, 1943, by General Order 1188), consists of the units engaged in the selection and acquisition of materials for the use of the Library. Its officers are the Director, who, under the Librarian, has immediate supervision of the development of the collections of the Library and general direction of the acquisitioning operations, the Assistant Directors for Operations and for Planning, the Selection Officer and Editor of the Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions and the Chiefs of the Serial Record, Order, and Exchange and Gift Divisions.

(b) Recommendations for acquisition are initiated by the Recommending Officers of the Library, comprising the administrative heads of Divisions and subject specialists of the Reference Department, Law Library and other units of the Library.

(c) The Acquisitions Department issues the Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions which contains annual reports of acquisitions to the various collections of the Library and special reports on notable acquisitions. It is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 300.301 Serial Record Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Serial Record Division is responsible for receiving, opening, sorting, arranging, searching, recording and distributing all serial publications (except non-governmental newspapers) intended for the collections of the Library, and for claiming such publications due but not received.

§ 300.302 Order Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Order Division is responsible for all purchases of library materials for the collections. It also undertakes to answer inquiries as to the probable present cost and possible source for purchase or sale of a specified book or other piece of library material if such information is readily ascertainable from published information in the Library's collections.

§ 300.303 Exchange and Gift Division. (a) Under the administration of a Chief, the Exchange and Gift Division is responsible for the acquisition of materials for the collections of the Library by gift, exchange, and by deposit or transfer under special provisions of law (44 U. S. C. 139; 2 U. S. C. 148) and the Brussels Convention and other treaties.

(b) The Division publishes the Monthly Checklist of State Publications. The Checklist is sent free to those state agencies which furnish copies of their publications for listing therein. It is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 300.400 The Processing Department. The Processing Department has primary responsibility for cataloging, classifying, and preparing for binding printed materials added to the collections of the Library of Congress, for maintaining the catalogs of the Library's collections, and for maintaining a union catalog showing the holdings of research materials in other libraries. The Department is administered by a Director whose staff consists of an Assistant Director and five division chiefs. The Director reviews the technical procedures followed in all departments of the Library for cataloging and classifying materials added to the Library's collections. The divisions of the Department are: Binding Office, Card Division, Descriptive Cataloging Division, Subject Cataloging Division, and Union Catalog Division.

§ 300.401 Binding Office. Under the administration of the Binding Officer, the Binding Office is responsible for preparing newly cataloged materials for binding and for reviewing material prepared for binding in other departments, for routing material when bound, for giving limited service of material while in the bindery, and for liaison with the Library of Congress Branch Bindery of the Government Printing Office.

§ 300.402 Card Division. Under the Administration of a Chief, the Card Division is responsible for the sale of printed cards and related technical publications to other libraries and to individuals under authorization of the Act of Congress, June 28, 1902 (2 U. S. C. 150), and for other distribution of Library of Congress printed cards.

§ 300.403 Descriptive Cataloging Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Descriptive Cataloging Division is responsible for preparation of the descriptive cataloging entries for the printed cards representing materials cataloged by the Processing Department, and for editing catalog copy supplied cooperatively by other libraries.

§ 300.404 Subject Cataloging Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Subject Cataloging Division is responsible for classifying, shelf listing, and assigning subject headings for use on printed cards for all materials cataloged for the Library's collections by the Processing Department and the Copyright Office.

§ 300.405 Union Catalog Division. Under the administration of a Chief, the Union Catalog Division is responsible for maintaining a union catalog of research materials in American libraries and for providing informational service to institutions and to individuals concerning the location of copies of titles recorded in the Union Catalog.

§ 300.500 Legislative Reference Service. (a) The Legislative Reference Service is a separate department of the Library specifically authorized by the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, Title II, Sec. 203, implemented by General Order 1291 of the Librarian of Congress. The Service is administered by a Director and Assistant Director, and functions through the Advanced Research Section, the Congressional Reading Room, the Federal Law Section, the General Research Section, the Information Section and the State Law Section.

(b) The Service gathers, analyzes, and makes available to Congress or to Committees or individual Members thereof data for or bearing on legislation.

(c) Certain publications of the Service are priced and regularly available through the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office: these include the Digest of Public General Bills, and the biennial State Law Index, published on a regular schedule.

(d) Other reports are occasionally printed as Congressional documents or Committee Prints and are available as such.

§ 300.600 Copyright Office. For organization of the Copyright Office see Title 37, Chapter II, Part 200.

§ 301.23 Applications for employment. Application forms for employment by the Library of Congress may be secured by applying at the Personnel Office, or by addressing: Personnel Office, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 301.101 Public use of reading rooms; service of the general collections. Readers in the general reading rooms are required to submit requests for materials on forms provided for that purpose. Available materials so requested are located and delivered to readers by the staff. Subject to specified limitations, materials may be reserved for continued use. Reference assistance in the general reading rooms is provided by the General Reference and Bibliography Division, infra. Access to the bookstacks is permitted only under regulations established by the Librarian of Congress. Applications for access are acted upon by the Chief of the Division or by other authorized officials. Study rooms, study tables, and reserved shelves are available for assignment to persons engaged in research. Applications for such assignments are acted upon by the Chief of the Division or by other authorized officials, and assignments on approved applications are made on specified conditions of registration, tenure, and use.

§ 301.303 Loans of library materials. The Library of Congress is not a public circulating library and no material in its collections may be taken from the Library buildings except upon approval by an official of the Library empowered to authorize the privilege. Certain classes of borrowers have the privilege of books for home use by virtue of their office. Subject to regulations and conditions established by the Librarian of Congress, special permits to withdraw materials may be issued to individuals and institutions in and near the District of Columbia to meet particular needs. Applications for such privilege are acted upon by the Chief of the Loan Division, who is responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of the regulations governing loans. Persons having the borrowing privilege must present materials to be borrowed to the Loan Division for recording and for issuance of a door pass. Borrowers must present the materials for inspection to the guards on duty at the exits of the Library buildings and must surrender their door passes upon leaving the buildings. Materials are issued on interlibrary loan to other libraries outside of the District of Columbia under regulations established by the Librarian of Congress. Applications for such loans, and requests for information about interlibrary loans and the loan service generally should be directed to the Chief of the Loan Division. The Service for the Adult Blind lends books in embossed characters and talking-book records to the adult blind under established regulations and conditions of use. The area to which this service is extended is limited generally to the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, and South Carolina. The Service responds to inquiries whether received in person, by telephone, or by mail for informaiton concerning the welfare of the blind.

§ 301.104 Use of Aeronautics Reading Room. Readers requesting reference and bibliographic assistance in aeronautics and related sciences are served in the Aeronautics Reading Room, to which are delivered the available materials required in their work. Applications for access to the collection on aeronautics in the bookstacks are referred to the Chief of the Stack and Reader Division for decision.

§ 301.105 Reference and bibliographic assistance; use of card catalogs, assistance by consultants. Readers requesting reference and bibliographic assistance in the general collections and aid in the use of the card catalogs apply to the staff of the Division on duty in the general reading rooms. Requests for special assistance provided by the consultant service, the special projects, and the bibliographic unit are referred to the appropriate officials. The services provided in response to reference and bibliographic requests received by telephone or by mail are governed by policies and regulations established by the Librarian of Congress.

§ 301.106 Service of materials in the Hispanic Foundation. Services to readers requesting reference and bibliographic assistance in Hispanic culture, except in subject fields specifically assigned to other units of the Library, are provided in the Hispanic Room, to which are delivered available materials required in their work. Applications for access to the bookstacks are referred to, and acted upon by, the Chief of the Stack and Reader Division.

§ 301.107 Investigation and use of manuscript materials. Services to readers in the Manuscripts Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of registration for investigation and of use of materials and information therefrom in the custody of the Manuscripts Division. The use of such materials is restricted to the Manuscripts Reading Room. Investigators requiring materials from other collections in the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Manuscripts Division may requisition and use such materials in the Manuscripts Reading Room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein.

§ 301.108 Service of maps. Services to readers in the Maps Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of use of the materials in the custody of the Maps Division. Special facilities are provided for use of maps. Investigators requiring materials in other collections of the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Maps Division may requisition and use such materials in the Maps Reading Room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein.

§ 301.109 Use and service of music materials. Services to readers in the Music Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of use of the materials in the custody of the Music Division. Investigators requiring materials from other collections of the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Music Division may requisition and use such materials in the Music Reading Room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein. Applications for access to the bookstacks are acted upon by the Chief of the Music Division. Recordings of folk music may be purchased from the Recording Laboratory of the Music Division. Catalogs are available upon application thereto.

§ 301.110 Use and service of Orientalia. Services to readers in the Orientalia Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of use of the materials in the custody of the Orientalia Division (materials, written or printed, in Chinese, Japanese, Semitic, Arabic, Persian, Turkish, etc.). Readers requiring reference and bibliographic assistance in all fields of Oriental culture are served in the Orientalia Reading Room, to which are delivered materials from the general collections and other collections insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein.

§ 301.111 Use of prints and photographs collections. Services to readers requiring reference and bibliographic assistance in the collections of prints, photographs, and the literature of the fine arts are provided in the Prints Reading Room in accordance with prescribed conditions of use of the materials in the custody of the Prints and Photographs Division. Investigators requiring materials from other collections of the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Prints and Photographs Division may requisition and use such materials in the divisional reading room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein. Prints from photographic negatives, and photocopies of prints and photographs in the Division's collection, when not subject to copyright or other restrictions, are procurable at specified rates from the Photoduplication Service of the Library.

§ 301.112 Service of rare books. Services to readers in the Rare Books Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of registration for investigation and of use of the materials in the custody of the Rare Books Division. Investigators requiring materials from other collections of the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Rare Books Division may requisition and use such materials in the Rare Book Room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein.

§ 301.113 Service of microfilms and micro-print materials. Services to readers in the Microfilm Reading Room are provided in accordance with prescribed conditions of use of the microfilm and micro-print materials in the custody of the Room and of operations of reading machines. Investigators requiring materials from other collections of the Library for use with materials in the custody of the Microfilm Reading Room may requisition and use such materials in the Microfilm Reading Room insofar and on such conditions as they are available for use therein.

§ 301.200 Use of law reading rooms; circulation of legal materials; reference inquiries. (a) The reading rooms of the Law Library are free and accessible to the public without formality. Those volumes which are not on the open shelves may be obtained for reading room use by filling out and presenting to a reference assistant a slip provided for the purpose, indicating thereon the author and title of the work desired and the name and address of the reader.

(b) The collections of the Law Library are available in part, for use outside the Library for a limited period, to authorized borrowers in Washington, D. C., and through interlibrary loan to the general public residing in other parts of the country, in conformity with Loan Division procedures. Books which are lent for use outside of the Law Library reading rooms must be charged in the Law Library as well as in the Loan Division, where a formal charge is made. (See §§ 300.103 and 301.103.)

(c) Reference inquiries, and requests for service, which cannot be satisfied by other libraries or scholarly institutions nearer the inquirer, may be submitted to the Library of Congress which will respond to them insofar and on such conditions as personnel can be made available.

§ 301.302 Offers of materials for purchase; evaluations. The Library solicits offers of library materials (including books, periodicals, pamphlets, manuscripts, maps, views, music, recordings, motion pictures, photographs, posters, fine prints, etc.). Printed lists or catalogs of library materials offered should be submitted in three to five copies, depending on the number of subjects or forms of material included. Typewritten or manuscript lists should be submitted in duplicate. Offers should specify author, title, place of publication, publisher, date of publication, whether or not copyrighted, edition note, series note, binding, number of pages or volumes, and price of each item offered. All offers of material and all other correspondence concerning the acquisition by purchase of materials for the Library's collections (including invoices, statements, and questions concerning payment for material purchased by the Library) should be addressed to: Order Division, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C.

Materials should not be sent "on approval" unless specifically requested by the Order Division.

Reference inquiries as to the probable present cost and possible source for purchase or sale of a specific book or other piece of library material should also be directed to the above address. An exact transcription of the title page and any additional information such as edition, series note or copyright date should be submitted with the inquiry.

§ 301.302 Offers of materials for purchase; evaluations. Materials are supplied under the procedures specified in the latest edition of the Handbook of Card Distribution, supplemented by emendations in the bulletin, Cataloging Service, published by the Library of Congress, Processing Department. Cards may be ordered by author and title or by serial number. Card order slips required for this purpose are furnished to subscribers upon request.

§ 301.600 Procedures applicable to Copyright Office. For functions and procedures of Copyright Office, see Title 37, Ch. II, Part 203.

Approved, Aug. 28, 1946.

COPYRIGHT OFFICE

[37 CFR, Ch. II]

PART 200—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
200.1 General organization.
200.2 Communicating with Copyright Office.
200.3 Publications of Copyright Office.

§ 200.1 General organization. (a) The Copyright Office is located in the Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C. The executive officers of the Copyright Office are the Register of Copyrights, the Associate Register of Copyrights, and the Assistant Register of Copyrights who are assisted by a legal staff. The work of the Office is carried on through several divisions, consisting in each case of a chief and staff.

(b) The powers and duties of the Register and the statutory provision for the appointment of the Register and such subordinate assistants to the Register as may from time to time be authorized by law are contained in the Copyright Act. (17 U. S. C. 10, 13, 45, 47-51, 53-58, 60, 61, 64)

§ 200.2 Communicating with Copyright Office. Mail and other communications to the Copyright Office should be addressed to, and fees made payable to, the Register of Copyrights.

§ 200.3 Publications of Copyright Office. The Copyright Office publishes the "Catalog of Copyright Entries, Copyright Law of the United States of America, Decisions of the United States Courts involving Copyright" and occasionally other publications. These may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., for a small charge. In addition to these publications the Copyright Office also publishes and itself supplies without charge applications for copyright registration and numerous circulars furnishing information relating to copyright and how to obtain copyright registration.

PART 203—FUNCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

Sec.
203.1 Registration of claims to copyright.
203.2 Recordation of assignment of copyright.
203.3 Recordation of notice of user of musical composition.
203.4 Catalog of copyright entries.
203.5 Searches and information.
203.6 Copyright deposits.
203.7 Additional certificates of registration and certified copies of recorded assignments.

§ 203.1 Registration of claims to copyright. The Copyright Office registers copyright claims upon compliance with the provisions of the Copyright Act (17 U. S. C. 1-65 and 17 U. S. C. Sup. IV, 8) including the filing of an application for registration, the deposit of copy or copies and the payment of the statutory fee. After the recordation of the copyright claim, a certificate of registration is issued. (For information concerning the various classes of works subject to copyright, the procedure to secure copyright and to obtain applications for registration of copyright claims, sec. 37 CFR Part 201, as amended, 37 CFR, Cum. Supp., 201.4, 201.7, 201.12, 201.18, 201.21 and 201.24, 10 F. R. 14523, 11 F. R. 7346; 37 CFR Part 202, as amended, 37 CFR, 1944 Supp., 202.1.)

§ 203.4 Catalog of copyright entries. The Copyright Office compiles catalogs of copyright entries as provided by Secs. 56, 57, and 60 of the Copyright Act (17 U. S. C. 56, 57 and 60).

§ 203.5 Searches and information. Upon application and payment of statutory fee to the Register of Copyrights a search of the records, indexes and deposits will be made for such information as they may contain relative to copyright claims. (For further instructions, see 37 CFR 201.25.) Information of a general nature relative to copyright matters will be supplied without charge. The Copyright Act, however, does not contain any provision authorizing the Office to give legal opinions concerning the rights which any particular person may have in a case of alleged infringement, contracts between publisher and author, or other matters of a similar nature.

§ 203.6 Copyright deposits. (a) As a general rule, copyright deposits are retained in the Copyright Office or transferred to the collections of the Library of Congress. (For statutory provisions in reference to copyright deposits, see 17 U. S. C. 51, 54-56, 58-60 and the provisions referring to the deposit of copies, 17 U. S. C. 10-14, 21 and 22.)

(b) Copies of copyright deposits can be made with the permission of the copyright owner. The Office will also make copies when authorized by a court. (For information regarding the Photoduplication Service of the Library of Congress, see 44, CFR and Supps. 300.24 and 301.24.)

§ 203.7 Additional certificates of registration and certified copies of recorded assignments. The Office will supply additional certificates of registration and certified copies of recorded assignments upon payment of the fee prescribed in section 61 of the Copyright Act (17 U. S. C. 61).

§ 200.1 Organization and functions of the United States Maritime Commission. (a) Pursuant to the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (49 Stat. 1985), as amended, the Maritime Commission, an independent executive agency, administers Government aid in construction and operation of vessels in United States commerce; regulates United States foreign water-borne commerce, and freight forwarding and terminal services in connection with common carriers by water. It controls operation, purchase, charter, requisition, maintenance, insurance, and use of ocean-going United States-controlled noncombatant vessels, except Army and Navy transports and vessels engaged in domestic transportation controlled by the Office of Defense Transportation. In peace-time, the Commission regulates sales to aliens, and transfer to foreign registry of vessels, interests in which are owned by United States citizens and which are United States documented; and, during war or proclaimed emergency, regulates such sales and transfers regardless of documentation.

(b) The Commission insures certain ship mortgages made in connection with construction, reconstruction or reconditioning of vessels of not less than 200 tons, owned by United States citizens.

(c) The Commission's central office is in Washington, and it maintains District Managers in New York, Baltimore, Norfolk, Savannah, New Orleans, San Francisco, and Halifax, N. S.

(d) The Commission, whose five members are appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate (one being designated by the President as Chairman, and one designated by the Commissioners as Vice Chairman), functions generally through administrative sub-divisions, most of its actions being in the form of approvals of recommendations from such administrative sub-divisions relative to matters under their respective jurisdictions. All actions by such administrative sub-divisions are appealable to the Commission itself.

(e) The Commission's complete organization, together with its procedures, both general and with relation to internal affairs is set out in the Commission's "Administrative Code", which is available for examination at the office of the Secretary in Washington, to whom should be addressed inquiries as to the most expeditious method of handling specific matters with the Commission.

(f) A summary of the Commission's organization, with statements of the general course and method by which the Commission functions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of available procedure, as well as relevant forms and instructions, follows. (This summary does not include officers or organizational subdivisions whose duties and authorities are internal and do not impinge upon the public.)

§ 200.2 Executive Director. The Executive Director coordinates Commission activities; assigns functions within the organization; plans and supervises organization and procedure; reviews and coordinates recommendations to the Commission; reviews and approves Commission press releases; inspects the field organization of the Commission; directs the Division of Investigation; reviews and assumes the Commission budget prepared by the Budget Officer; is responsible for the presentation thereof to the Bureau of the Budget and Congressional Committees; reviews recommendations of the Division of Contract Settlement and Surplus Materials with respect to the acquisition of warehouses and storage facilities; and serves as the Commission's Executive Officer.

§ 200.3 Secretary. The Office of the Secretary (through 9 Sections) prepares the Commission's agenda and minutes of Commission meetings, and is responsible for appropriate notification of Commission actions; signs, attests, and seals official documents; as authorized by the Commission, acquires office space and motor transport, and allocates and regulates the use of such space and transport; passes upon requisitions for office supplies and equipment; provides for the security of property and documents; and maintains liaison with the Public Buildings Administration in connection with office space and security; is responsible for services to Commission offices including filing, library, personnel, location, directory and information service, messenger and mail, telephone, telegraph, and teletype service, and typing, stenographic, tabulating and duplicating service; participates in the formulation and codification of Commission orders and regulations, arranges for Commission hearings and conferences and notification thereof; approves the use and content of questionnaires and reports utilized to secure information for the Commission; authorizes special studies and reports; receives statements of expense and compensation filed pursuant to section 807 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, in connection with presentation, advocacy of or opposition to matters within the scope of the various shipping acts, before the Commission, Congress, or any Committee thereof.

In addition to the foregoing, the Secretary is authorized to issue to contractors releases required under facilities contracts on a cost-without-profit basis and to vessel construction contractors on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis, upon surrender of contract-records pertaining to the work, and to redelegate such authority.

§ 200.4 Legal Division. The Legal Division, headed by the General Counsel, acts as the Commission's law office. Conferences with appropriate personnel within the Legal Division with respect to matters pending in that Division, may be arranged through the Executive Assistant to the General Counsel.

§ 200.5 Construction Division. This division is in process of reorganization due to recentralization in Washington of construction supervision, which for four years was carried on from regional offices. In general, the Construction Division is responsible for the supervision and inspection of all ships under the jurisdiction of the Commission, for inspection of all material purchased by the Commission, and for the care, preservation and management of all Commission-owned shipyards, facilities and property relating to ship construction. The Construction Division accepts on behalf of the Commission, vessels delivered by shipyards under contract with the Commission. Its operations involve no formalized administrative procedures.

§ 200.6 Contract Settlement and Surplus Materials Division. This division functions through a Director, three Assistant Directors, Settlement, Materials Disposal, Warehouse and Storage, Compliance and Report Sections; two Maritime Settlement Sections: one at New Orleans Shipyard, P. O. Box 674, New Orleans 17, Louisiana, and one at Maritime Administration Building, 819 West Yard, Moore Dry Dock, P. O. Box 1558, Oakland 4, California; two sales managers: one at 45 Broadway, New York, and one at 1212 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, each sales manager maintaining offices at Commission-owned or controlled shipyards and warehouses and at various area sales outlet cities.

The Contract Settlement and Surplus Materials Division is headed by a director who exercises control over division activities through three assistant directors and the following sections, each of which is headed by a chief:

Settlement Section.
Material Disposal Section.
Warehouse and Storage Section.
Maritime Settlement Sections (in the field).
Compliance and Reports Section.

The dvision maintains its headquarters in Washington, D. C. It also maintains a field organization consisting of the following: two Maritime Settlement Sections, one at U. S. Maritime Commission Shipyard, P. O. Box 674, New Orleans 17, Louisiana, and one at Maritime Administration Building, Gate 19, West Yard, Moore Drydock, P. O. Box 1558, Oakland 4, California; two sales managers, one at 45 Broadway, New York, N. Y., and one at 1212 North Lakeshore Drive, Chicago, Illinois. Each sales manager has offices at Commission owned or controlled shipyards, warehouses, and at area sales outlet cities.

The division is responsible for: (a) settling or recommending settlement to the Settlement Review Board of Claims subject to the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 against the Commission and War Shipping Administration resulting from contract terminations; and approving partial payments pending settlement of claims; (b) clearances from contractors' plants of Commission owned materials; (c) disposal of Government owned surplus marine materials declared as surplus to the Maritime Commission as disposal agency; (d) disposal of Commission and War Shipping Administration owning agency small lots, salvage, and scrap, in accordance with War Assets Administration Regulation No. 9; (e) operating Commission owned or controlled warehouses; (f) performance of other owning agency functions of the Commission and War Shipping Administration, such as declaration of surplus materials to disposal agencies, arranging transfer of Commission owned real estate, materials and facilities to War Assets Administration for site sale, custody, etc.; (g) compliance with various requirements of War Assets Administration, Office of Contract Settlement and other authorities.

Operations and policies of the division are in accordance with the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 and the rules and regulations of the Office of Contract Settlement, and the Surplus Property Act of 1944, and the regulations of War Assets Administration.

In the settlement of claims, the standard forms prescribed by the Office of Contract Settlement are used exclusively. Processing of prime supplier contract claims is largely centralized in Washington, with some decentralization in the field to the extent practicable. All prime ship construction claims are processed in Washington. Most first tier subcontracts thereunder, which the prime contractor is not authorized to settle directly, are handled in the field and coordinated through the Washington office.

The basic directive covering Maritime Commission procedures in dealing with termination claims is General Order 57, Revised, and Supplements 1 and 2 thereto. (10 F. R. 2619, 11525, 13371; 46 CFR 1945 Supp., 298.1 to 298.204, inclusive).

The director of the division is authorized to redelegate his authority to any section chief, officer or employee of the division. He has exercised his power of redelegation to the extent of authorizing the assistant director functionally in charge of contract settlements, chiefs of the Maritime Settlement Sections in New Orleans and Oakland, and the chief of the Settlement Section in Washington, to effect final settlement of claims when the amount to be paid to claimant is less than $10,000; and to approve partial payments pending settlement of claims, as well as his authority to effect settlement of claims not exceeding $25,000 to the same assistant director of the division.

The Settlement Review Board passes on all claims in excess of $25,000 and other matters relating to contractor inventory where the amount involved is in excess of $50,000.

In connection with its disposal activities, the division maintains in its Washington office a centralized inventory of surplus materials declared to the Commission, and direct sales activities are also conducted from Washington. In addition, all field offices, including shipyard and warehouse branch offices, are sales outlets for disposal agency materials. Publicity is given materials available for sale through the "Marine Surplus Seller", special lists of certain types of property, brochures, newspaper releases, and limited paid advertising. Copies of the "Marine Surplus Seller" and other publicity materials are distributed on a mailing list basis, compiled from requests for property and other sources indicative of interests of prospective purchasers. Requests to be placed on the mailing list should be addressed to United States Maritime Commission, Contract Settlement and Surplus Materials Division, Washington 25, D. C.

Sales of property declared as surplus to the Commission as disposal agency are generally on a fixed price basis, the prices being established by a division price committee prior to announcement of property for sale. In some instances, however, sales are on a bid and acceptance basis.

Sales by the Commission of its own property as an owning agency are executed by the field offices and their respective branch or sub-offices, usually on the basis of competitive bids publicly solicited, but occasionally by negotiated sales.

Purchasers in both owning and disposal agency transactions are required to receipt a Maritime Commission standard sales order, Form 7611.

§ 200.7 Division of Economics and Statistics. The Division of Economics and Statistics is headed by a director, who exercises control over division activities through an assistant director, and the following sections, each of which is headed by a chief:

Subsidy Section.
Trade Routes Section.
Foreign Economics Section.
Vessel Statistics and Analysis Section.
Port Development Section.
Labor Research Section.

The division is charged with the collection and dissemination of information on the foreign trade of the United States and other countries; the structure of proposed and existing foreign and domestic trade routes, their essentiality, and the extent of foreign competition thereon; the necessity for, and amounts of, Government aid for vessel operation and construction with a view toward meeting foreign competition; the adequacy of ports and port facilities, domestic and foreign; the world's supply and utilization of merchant vessels; and the economic and social aspects of labor in relation to ship construction and operation and longshoring.

The division employs no formal procedures. Contacts with individuals and organizations who furnish information to the division are on an informal basis.

In collecting information, the division employs several forms: Nos. 7801 and 7802 (inbound and outbound vessel performance and cargo reports) serve to furnish data as to foreign and non-contiguous water-borne cargo and passenger traffic, and details of line operation on United States foreign trade routes. Nos. 7036 and 7037 (inbound and outbound daily report of vessel movements) and No. 7038 (report of no vessel movements) serve as a record of vessels entering and clearing United States ports in foreign and non-contiguous trades, and as a source of current data on the employment of vessels in trade with the United States, and as a check on receipt of cargo reports. Form No. 7333 (report on employment and payroll) is required monthly from operators of American flag ocean-going and Great Lakes merchant vessels of 1,000 gross tons and over. Copies of Forms 7801, 7802, 7036, 7037 and 7038 are obtainable from the Collector of Customs at United States ports. Copies of Form No. 7333 are obtainable from the Division of Economics and Statistics, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 200.8 Division of Finance (Construction) Under its Director, this division exercises general supervision of auditing, accounting and financial analysis relative to shipbuilding, ship conversion, and transportation in connection with the shipbuilding program, and Commission administrative accounting. It is charged with the administration of financial provisions of construction-differential subsidy contracts and for safeguarding the Government's interest in advance payments, loans and other financial aids in connection with ship construction, conversion, reconversion, and reconditioning.

Its fuctions are conducted as follows:

The Assistant Director (Fiscal) supervises and is responsible for the division's accounting and auditing functions. The Assistant Director (Subsidies) supervises and is responsible for the division's duties relating to fiscal phases of the Commission's "Long Range Program," for developing the merchant marine pursuant to the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, and the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946.

The General Accountant for Construction is responsible for the maintenance of accounting and financial analysis records in connection with shipbuilding, ship conversion, construction subsidy contracts, transportation and other shipbuilding activities; for the Commission's administrative accounting; for statements and reports relative to the foregoing; for accounting instructions; for examination and approval of all Commission disbursements and for collection of accounts and notes receivable.

The General Auditor of Construction is responsible for auditing contract costs for ship construction, reconstruction, conversion, reconversion and reconditioning; for auditing facilities contracts and other reimbursable contracts implementing the shipbuilding program, including sub-contracts and supply contracts containing provisions for auditing, for the determination of recapturable profits under ship construction and related contracts and subcontracts; for determining material and labor increases under escalator contract clauses; for maintaining audit proedures for shipbuilding and related contracts; and for recommendations to the Commission for final determination of contract costs and profits.

Resident Auditors are assigned to individual shipyards and report to the General Auditor (Construction).

"Regulations Prescribing the Method of Determining Profit", embodied in General Order 30, were published in the Federal Register (46 CFR Cum. Supp., Part 285). These regulations provide the several forms of financial reports, which have not been published. In addition to those forms, the following forms are utilized:

Form No. MC–4659. "Shipbuilder's Final Report of Profit—Selective Price Contracts." For use of the Commission in determining total contract price, total cost of performing contract, total profit, and recapturable profit, if any.

Form No. 6163. "Contractor's Report of Profit on Direct Purchases by U. S. Maritime Commission." For use of the Commission in determining total contract price, total cost of performing contract, total profit, and recapturable profit, if any.

Form No. 9025. "Shipbuilder's Final Report of Cost (Price Minus Contracts)." For use of the Commission in determining total contract price, total cost of performing contract, fees earned by the contractor and savings distributed between the Commission and the contractor in accordance with the contract.

"Contractors' Bulletins," numbered serially from 1 to 27 have been issued over the signature of the General Auditor of Construction, consisting of regulations for the guidance of contractors in performing the financial phases of contracts. Bulletins numbered 1, 5, 9, 11, and 19, have been determined to be no longer applicable and can be considered to be no longer binding. These bulletins have not been published.

Copies of all material issued by the division may be obtained upon application to the Commission's General Auditor of Construction, Division of Finance, at Washington, D. C.

The division makes recommendations to the Commission over the signature of its Director on matters subject to the division's jurisdiction.

§ 200.9 Division of Finance (Operations). Through its Director, the Division supervises and directs auditing and accounting relating to ship operations, is responisble for auditing and financial administration of operating-differential subsidy contracts, the maintenance of reserve fund records, the determination of additional charter hire and such adjustments thereof as may be necessary in connection with the sale of war-built vessels, the analysis of financial and operating statements submitted to the Commission (except those relating to ship construction), and the form and content of general financial statements and other reports required under section 21 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and Section 801 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended. Its functions are conducted as follows:

The Financial Analyst for Operations is responsible for financial administration of operating-differential subsidy and charter party agreements, for reserve fund control records, for analysis and custody of the financial and operating statements submitted to the Commission and the financial statements and reports filed pursuant to section 21 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and section 801 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and for compliance with the Commission's "Uniform System of Accounts".

The General Auditor for Operations is responsible for audits relating to vessel operations, including operations under operating-differential subsidy agreements, and for the determination of additional charter hire and such adjustments thereof as may be necessary in connection with the sale of war-built vessels.

The General Accountant for Operations is responsible for maintenance of all books of account and records pertaining to ship operations.

The division functions in the field through District, Area and Port Auditors who are assigned as required and report to the Financial Analyst for Operations, the General Auditor for Operations and the General Accountant for Operations with respect to matters falling under their respective jurisdictions.

The "Uniform System of Accounts" is embodied in General Order 22 (46 CFR, 232.00 to 283.4).

The form of General Financial Statement required by section 21 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and section 801 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, which companies subject to said acts are required to file with the Commission annually, has not been published but may be secured from the Financial Analyst for Operations. Generally speaking, this form provides for information as to the financial position and operating results of such companies.

The Commission's General Order 12, as amended, requires the holders of operating-differential subsidy agreements to file designated financial statements, forms for all of which have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (46 CFR 281.1).

§ 200.10 Division of Information. The Division of Information is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through an Assistant Director and the following sections, each of which is headed by a chief: Press, Graphics, Radio, Education, and Field.

The division supervises the public relations, education, public information, and advertising programs of the Commission (except those relating to the United States Maritime Service). The division obtains clearance for the release of all material under its jurisdiction from the Chairman, the appropriate Commissioners, the Executive Director or division directors. Press relations are subject to the supervision of this division.

§ 200.11 Division of Insurance. The Division of Insurance is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through an Assistant Director, a Special Assistant to the Director, a Chief Adjuster and an Assistant Chief Adjuster.

The division has comprehensive charge of insurance matters which concern the Commission and War Shipping Administration. Its specific functions include: administration of insurance authorities under the Shipping Act, 1916, Merchant Marine Act, 1920, and Merchant Marine Act, 1936; insuring the interest of the United States in vessels, in accordance with policies of the Commission and War Shipping Administration; settlement of marine and marine war risk insurance claims involving War Shipping Administration; negotiating insurance agreements with commercial underwriters and, subject to approval by the Commission or Administrator, purchasing commercial insurance; dealing with problems involving assumption of marine and war risk liabilities on Government vessels and those acquired by requisition or charter; establishing requirements as to property and liability insurance required by mortgages, subsidy agreements, charters, shipbuilding contracts, leases, etc.; procuring, approving and disposing of policies issued in compliance with such requirements; recommendation of amount of operating differential subsidies to equalize insurance costs between American and foreign owners; supervising procurement of insurance required by facilities and vessel construction contracts; determination of premium costs for workmen's compensation and liability insurance on yards subject to the comprehensive rating plan; direction of relief of vessels in disasters by stranding or grounding as well as other cases of vessel casualties in port; preparation of insurance provisions in contracts, charters, mortgages, leases, etc.; approval of commercial insurance required under War Shipping Administration operating contracts; and preparation of insurance bulletins and instructions to owners and agents.

§ 200.12 Division of Investigation. The Division of Investigation is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through a staff in Washington and regional investigators in the field. It reports to the Commission through the Executive Director. Its functions embrace all investigations relating to fraud, diversion of Commission funds, misappropriation of property, and other matters in which investigation is necessary or appropriate. Liaison is maintained by the division with the Department of Justice and other Federal departments in order to assist in the prosecution of claims and civil and criminal proceedings.

§ 200.13 Division of Maintenance and Repair. The Division of Maintenance and Repair is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through an Inspection and Maintenance Section and an Appraisal Section, each of which is headed by a chief.

Most of the normal functions of the division are presently inactive, having been transferred to War Shipping Administration. The sole functions currently performed by this division are (a) furnishing vessel appraisals to other divisions of the Commission and to other Government agencies; and (b) maintaining data and records pertaining to sales and other information for appraisals and related purposes.

Other functions currently performed by the division involve making reports and recommendations on applications for operating and construction-differential subsidies, ship mortgage insurance, essentiality of trade routes, and purchase or charter of war-built vessels under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946.

§ 200.14 Division of Operations and Traffic. The Division of Operations and Traffic is headed by a Director who exercises his functions through an administrative office and various sections now in process of reorganization to absorb several functions which, during the war, were conducted by War Shipping Administration.

The division administers sections 9 and 37 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended (46 U. S. C. 808 and 835), relating to the sale, charter, lease or mortgage of an American owned vessel to an alien and the placing of such vessel under foreign registry and flag; and the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920 (46 U. S. C. 961). For use in securing the approval required by sections 9 and 37 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, application form (MC–4639) is executed by the American owner with information and supporting documents required in the form. Certain approvals under the statute have already been granted by the Commission's Revised General Order 58 (10 F. R. 14210, § 221.6) and General Order 59 (10 F. R. 14969, § 221.7).

Under the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, no printed regulations have been issued. The formal procedure is the filing of a written request by the American owner of the vessel, together with the written consent, under seal, of the preferred mortgagee to the surrender of the marine document of the vessel, as well as a certificate of ownership (Customs Form 1330).

The applications referred to in the preceding paragraphs are filed with the Commission's Division of Operations and Traffic, Washington, D. C. Copies of all documents used by the division may be obtained through the same source. Form MC–4693 is also available at the Commission's Office, 45 Broadway, New York, N. Y., and at the customhouse at the principal U. S. ports.

§ 200.15 Division of Personnel Management. The Division of Personnel Management is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through a number of sections, each headed by a chief. The division has charge of the employment, employee relations, safety, organization, position classification, and salary administration programs of the Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration.

§ 200.16 Procurement Division. (a) In general acting under its director, this division handles and supervises procurement, transportation and maintenance of Commission purchases, is responsible for inventories of Commission ships and projects, for the issuance of priority ratings, for expediting spare parts and special tools, overages and shortages of equipment purchased by the Commission in connection with production contracts, transportation procedure and the issuance of Government bills of lading, material-routing, evaluation of transportation cost, rate information, and the certification of domestic freight transportation charges.

The division's four purchasing sections carry out purchasing activities through the Washington office and supervise field office purchases, one of these sections handling procurement of administrative supplies, materials and equipment.

(b) Domestic Freight Traffic Section. This section establishes transportation procedure, issues bills of lading, routes materials, evaluates transportation costs, furnishes rate information, and certifies domestic freight transportation vouchers. It handles transportation of transferred employees' household effects and personal property.

(c) The Inventory Section. This section is responsible for inventory of delivered or redelivered vessels and Commission project inventory.

(d) The Liaison Section. This section coordinates the division's activities with thos of other divisions, with Government agencies, and with vendors contracting through the Procurement Division.

(e) The Vessel Supplies Control Section. This section is responsible for procurement, distribution and control to shipside of vessel supplies, including slop chest materials; for agreements covering requirements for vessel supplies of owned or bareboat-chartered ships; it enters into agreements for the procurement and furnishing of such supplies and establishes ceiling prices governing the resale to owned or bareboat-chartered vessels of merchandise by chandlers, dealers and other vessel suppliers, and issues priority ratings where required in connection with Commission activities.

(f) The Allowance Material Section. This section follows up and expedites procurement by the division and certifies vouchers for materials covered by division contracts and purchases.

(g) The Material Completion Section. This section expedites production and delivery of spare parts and special tools. It represents the Commission in connection with the settlements with owners or redelivered vessels in connection with passenger and hotel accommodation materials.

(h) The Price Revision Section. This section is responsible for the price revision of procurement contracts under the provisions of Title 8 of the Revenue Act of 1943.

(i) District Purchasing Offices. District purchasing offices are located in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, New Orleans, San Pedro, San Francisco, Seattle and Portland. District purchasing offices carry out in the field all functions of the division. There is a traffic representative in Chicago and there are procurement representatives in Mobile, Alabama, and Galveston, Texas, who supervise inventory activities.

(j) Final Authority. The division has been delegated final authority to execute contracts on behalf of the Commission, administratively certify vouchers covering purchases by the division, certify transportation charges covering all domestic freight movements, terminate work under supply contracts entered into by the division, modify contracts by supplemental agreements or amendments with respect to the settlement of any dispute involving not more than $50,000.00, and to reprice contracts and subcontracts under Title VIII of the Revenue Act of 1943 provided the original contract price of each such contract or subcontract is not in excess of $50,000.00.

(k) Forms. The following forms have not been published but may be secured upon application to the division:

(1) Purchase Order Form No. 7600–7600A, used in connection with the purchase of administrative materials, supplies and equipment.

(2) Purchase Order Form No. 8024 used in the purchase of supplies, materials and equipment other than administrative.

(3) Inquiry Form No. 8027–8028, used in connection with the purchase of articles and services.

(4) Government bill of lading Standard Form No. 1103, issued in connection with the movement of supplies, materials and equipment at Government expense.

(5) Public voucher for transportation charges, Standard Form No. 1113.

(6) Vessels supplies control agreements.

(7) Slop Chest Dealer Applications Form VSCS–18.

(8) Dealers agreement used in connection with vessel supplies control program, Form No. VSCS–12.

(9) Forms utilized in connection with inventories.

§ 200.17 Division of Regulation—(a) In general. Acting under a Director, the division administers the regulatory functions of the Commission, and enforces regulatory provisions of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended.

(b) Rate and Tariff Section. This section has custody of tariffs filed with the Commission by carriers between States and Territories or possessions, or between Territories or possessions and other Territories and possessions, or between points in the Territories or possessions; recommends rejection or suspension of rates and tariffs, action upon protests in connection with rate charges, rejection of tariffs for non-compliance with the law or applicable rules; analyzes and classifies rate and tariff information, and maintains a public file room where tariffs and related information are available for examination.

(c) Agreement Section. This section receives voluntary filings of port bill of lading forms by common carriers by water in foreign commerce, made for the purpose of obtaining the protection of Clause 14 of Part II of the uniform through export bill of landing form prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It receives all agreements between carriers or "other persons subject to the Act" entered into within the purview of section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, scrutinizes the same, corresponds with the proponents regarding removal of ambiguities or provisions indicating discriminatory practices detrimental to the commerce of the United States or in violation of other provisions of the law, and prepares for the Director's signature recommendations to the Commission for action on such agreements. It also receives all tariffs filed by conferences of either carriers or terminal operators as part of the agreements within the purview of section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, and all tariffs filed by carriers transporting goods from the United States to foreign ports pursuant to the orders of the Commission in Docket 128 (see paragraph (f) (6) of this section) and all tariffs of terminal operators which are filed pursuant to the request of the Commission of October 24, 1944.

(d) Complaints Section. This section investigates possible irregularities and violations of the regulatory provisions of the Shipping Act, 1916, and related legislation; receives complaints filed pursuant to Section 22 of the Shipping Act, 1916, alleging such violations, and prepares for the Director recommendations with reference to hearings ordered by the Commission on its own motion to determine the existence of violations of the Shipping Act, 1916, and related Acts.

(e) Hearings and Decisions. Hearing procedure may be found in 46 CFR Cum. Supp. 10 F. R. 12818, and 11 F. R. 4341, Part 201—Rules of Procedure before the Commission.

Briefly, hearings with respect to unreasonable or discriminatory rates, charges, fares, or practices, the refusal of conferences to admit members, and other violations subject to the jurisdiction of the Division, are conducted as follows:

Open hearings are conducted before an examiner after pleadings have been filed; thereafter arguments and briefs are received from all interested parties, proposed reports by the examiner are issued, oral arguments are often held before the Commission, and thereafter final reports and orders are prepared and recommended for approval and issuance by the Commission. The official record of such hearings is available in the Complaints Section of the division for examination by the public. The regulatory decisions prepared by this Section are printed and issued in bound volumes which are available to the public from the Government Printing Office. Printed sheets of decisions are available to the public on application to the division.

(f) Regulations and Forms. Copies of the following rules and regulations embodying relevant forms, are available upon application to the Division:

(1) Tariff Circular No. 1, regulating publication, etc., of rates, fares and charges.

(2) Notice of July 9, 1938, for establishment of actual in lieu of maximum rates, fares and charges and publication thereof.

(3) Special Permission 920, 2nd Amendment, relative to publication and filing of schedules for certain terminal services.

(4) Special Permission No. 1834, relative to publication and filing of schedules for certain terminal services.

(5) Information Circular: A form of report to be filed by common carriers by water and other persons, subject to various shipping acts giving information as to their organization and activities.

(6) Orders in Docket No. 128, requiring common carriers by water in foreign trade to file schedules of freight rates, charges, rules, and regulations in connection with cargo transportation from the United States to foreign ports.

(7) Instructions for complying with (6).

(8) Orders in Docket No. 507, requiring common carriers by water between the East Coast of South America and the Pacific Coast of the United States, to file freight rates, charges, rules and regulations in connection with cargo transportation.

(9) Order of the Secretary of Commerce, dated December 5, 1935, prescribing rules and regulations permitting foreign trade common carriers to file port bill of lading forms under clause 14 of Part II of the uniform through export bill of lading form prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(10) Commission notice, dated October 24, 1944, requesting the filing of rates, charges, rules and regulations covering wharfage, docks, warehouse, or other terminal facilities and contracts and agreements varying rates provided in schedules of tariffs.

§ 200.18 Reserve Fleet Division. The Reserve Fleet Division is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through an Assistant Director, a Technical Assistant, two liaison officers, and four sections (Administrative, Facilities, Fleet Service, and Preservation), each of which is headed by a chief. The division is charged with responsibility for the lay-up, maintenance and preservation of all Government owned merchant vessels under the jurisdiction of the Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration when such vessels are designated for out-of-service status. The foregoing necessitates the operation of tugs, barges and launches at the fleet sites. The division is also responsible for the selection, development and maintenance of sites for mooring vessels in reserve fleets.

The division conducts no formal proceedings. It uses only one form (7945) which is an application for a pass to go aboard vessels of a reserve fleet to transact official business. Such applications are available at the site of each fleet.

§ 200.19 Division of Shipyard Labor Relations. This division, which functions through a Director and an Assistant to the Director, advises the Commission with respect to labor and labor costs in shipyards in which the Commission is interested. It acts as the Commission's liaison with other Government agencies dealing with shipyard labor and labor costs, and labor and management interested in shipyard operations.

The approval of the division is required as prerequisite for the reimbursement of increased items of labor costs under shipbuilding contracts with the Commission.

§ 200.20 Technical Division. The Technical Division is headed by a Director who exercises control over division activities through two Assistant Directors, one of whom (Assistant Director for Design, Development and Performance) serves as Chief Engineer of the Commission; and through fifteen sections (Research, Records and Files, Arrangements and Outfit, Costs, Concrete Construction, Materials, Marine Interior Design, Preliminary Design, Hull Plans, Hull Specifications, Emergency Hull Plan Approval, Engineering Specifications, Engineering Scientific, Emergency Engineering Plan Approval, and Performance), each of which is headed by a chief.

The division furnishes technical and scientific advice and supervision with respect to the Commission's shipbuilding and operating activities. Its duties include development of ship designs and conversions, conduct of research, determination of standards, review of contract plans and specifications and invitations for bids, for technical sufficiency; and furnishing information to other divisions with respect to various economic and technical aspects of shipbuilding. The division reviews, along with several others, applications for aid in the construction of vessels under Title V and Title XI of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936.

§ 200.21 Terminals and Real Estate Division. The division functions under a Director and Chiefs of the Real Estate and Disposal Section, and Terminals Section.

Through the Real Estate and Disposal Section, the division handles real property controlled by the Commission, prepares declarations of Commission-controlled real property as surplus, and implements other disposition of such Commission-controlled real property, by appraisals, estimates, negotiation, receipts and analyses of bids and offers, and appropriate recommendations to the Commission, and concluding dispositions authorized by the Commission.

Through the Terminals Section, the division negotiates and administers contracts for the operation and maintenance of steamship terminals leased or otherwise controlled by the Commission, manages and maintains Government-owned steamship terminals under jurisdiction of the Commission, assumes custody and maintenance of other real property assigned to the division by the Commission, provides engineering services requested within the Commission relative to the construction and maintenance of facilities located on Commission-controlled real property. It compiles and maintains records of terminal and other real property owned, leased, or controlled by the Commission.

The division has final authority (exercise through the Terminals Section), to authorize terminal reconditioning and repair work not exceeding $3,000 in cost, and to make recommendations for such work to the Commission in cases where cost exceeds $3,000.

§ 200.22 Division of Trials and Surveys. This division is responsible for planning, conducting and analyzing the trial performance of Commission constructed vessels or vessels in which the Commission has an interest, recommending the acceptance or rejection of such vessels, handling claims for delay under Commission construction contracts, and making recommendations thereon, and expediting final settlement of vessel construction contracts containing guarantee articles.

Acceptance trials and completion surveys and reports thereon, are handled through the Trial Board Section.

Final guarantee surveys are handled through the Surveys and Settlements Section, as are recommendations for settlement of contractor's claims for delay in vessel construction, and the negotiation of settlement with builders for guarantee work not exceeding $25,000 in amount.

The Director of the division has final authority for settlement with builders for guarantee work not exceeding $25,000 per account. The Director acts as Chairman of the Final Guarantee Board handling vessels constructed by or for the Commission or in which the Commission has an interest.

§ 200.23 Division of Large Vessel Sales. This division functions through a Director and Assistant Director, the Ship Sales Act Section and a Bid Sales Section. Under its jurisdiction falls the sale of Government-owned vessels of 1,500 gross tons and over excepting combat ships. Applications for purchase of war built merchant vessels under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946 are processed through the Ship Sales Act Section, and the sale of prewar ships and vessels not of commercial types which are not covered by the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, is handled by the Bid Sales Section.

Forms and procedure utilized in dealing with this division are found in Maritime Commission General Order 60 and Supplements 1, 2, 3, and 4 thereof (11 F. R. 4459, 4702, 8370, 8972, 8977, §§ 299.1 to 299.91). This division invites application for purchase of vessels covered by the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, and bids for non-war built vessels sold for operation, scrap or purposes other than operation, including Navy L. S. T. vessels. Requests for inclusion on mailing lists may be made to the Executive Assistant, Division of Large Vessel Sales. Inquiries concerning bids after their opening, and award of vessels should be addressed to the Chief, Bid Sales Section. The sale of vessels under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946 is publicly announced.

Sales are made pursuant to action by the Commission itself upon recommendations by this division.

§ 200.24 Division of Government Aids. (a) Acting under its Director, this division is authorized and directed to conduct preliminary negotiations with, and review applications from citizens of the United States for aid authorized by the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and

(1) To make recommendations to the Commission with respect to the following:

(i) Allocation and servicing of established trade routes and services.

(ii) Construction and sale of vessels with construction-differential subsidy to serve such routes and services.

(iii) Payment of construction-differential subsidies.

(iv) Acquisition of obsolete vessels by the Commission for retirement from services.

(v) Establishment of construction, capital and special reserve funds.

(vi) Payment of operating-differential subsidy.

(vii) Sale or charter of Government-owned vessels, lines and steamship services.

(viii) Federal ship mortgage insurance under Title XI of the act.

(ix) The sale or charter of vessels built under the 1936 act (other than those classified as "war-built" vessels), incident to any long-range program adopted by the Commission.

(2) To perform the following functions:

(i) Receive and evaluate reports from other divisions, with respect to applications, prior to submitting recommendations to the Commission.

(ii) Review contracts, prior to execution, drawn pursuant to Commission approved recommendations emanating from this division.

(iii) Supervise compliance with the requirements set forth in contracts entered into by the Commission, resulting from applications outlined above.

(b) The Division exercises its functions through the following sections:

(1) Administrative Section. The Administrative Section is responsible for the general administrative activities of the division, including (i) all personnel matters; (ii) the compilation and maintenance of budget control records, and various registers, records and reports.

(2) Examining Sections A, B, C, and D. Examining Sections A, B, C, and D, to each of which is assigned a separate group of applicants and prospective applicants, are responsible for (i) preliminary negotiations relating to and review of applications for aid authorized by the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, (ii) analysis of reports submitted by other organizational units; (iii) preparation of reports for and recommendations to the Commission; and (iv) notification of applicants of any action taken by the Commission in regard to such matters.

(3) Trade routes and hearings section. The Trade Routes and Hearings Section (i) conducts public hearings, as required by law and as administratively required by the Commission, upon applications for aid or other benefits under the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; (ii) prepares comprehensive reports, formal orders to be issued thereon; and (iii) cooperates with the Trade Routes Committee, and coordinates the findings of the Committee with the recommendations made by the division in connection with applications for Government aid.

(c) The division utilizes the following rules, forms and instructions:

(1) A pamphlet entitled: "Federal Ship Mortgage Insurance", copies of which may be secured upon application to the division. This pamphlet has been partially published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Page 1, (General Order 29, as amended), may be found in 4 F. R. 1621. Pages 2 to 6 inclusive were published and may be found as part 296, 46 CFR Cum. Supp. Pages 7 to 36 inclusive constitute forms for (i) application for commitment to insure a preferred ship mortgage and instructions as to its preparation; (ii) commitment to insure a preferred ship mortgage; (iii) contract of insurance of a preferred ship mortgage; (iv) preferred ship mortgage. These forms have not been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Pages 37 to 41 inclusive, constitute a memorandum from the General Counsel of the Commission setting out requirements as to evidence necessary to establish citizenship of mortgagor and mortgagee under Title XI, Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, which has not been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Forms of citizenship oaths, printed on pages 42 to 44, inclusive, have been revised, and as revised were published (11 F. R. 4804). The form of Federal Ship Mortgage Insurance Fund Debenture found on page 45, has not been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Pages 46 and 47 constituting "Regulations Governing Transactions and Operations in Federal Ship Mortgage Insurance Fund Debentures" have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (46 CFR Cum. Supp., part 297). The balance of the pamphlet is a reprint of applicable laws.

(2) Form VI-A, form of application for operating-differential subsidy which has been published in 2 F. R. 1884.

(3) Form No. 4564, form of application for operating-differential subsidy payment on a vessel or vessels more than 20 years old. This form (which has not been published but may be secured upon application to the division) supersedes the form published in 2 F. R. 1960.

(4) A form of application for allowance of credit for trade-in of obsolete vessels, has not been published, but copies may be secured upon application to the division.

(5) Form of application for permission to establish a construction reserve fund under section 511 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, was published in 7 F. R. 5676.

(6) Form VA-1, form of application for aid in the construction of a new vessel to be operated in foreign commerce, was published in 2 F. R. 1879. Instructions for special information to be furnished with form VA-1, has not been published, but copies thereof may be secured upon application to the division.

(7) Form VA-9 of application for aid in the construction of a new vessel to be operated in the domestic trade, has been published in 2 F. R. 1881. Instructions for special information to be furnished with Form VA-9 have not been published, but copies may be secured upon application to the division.

§ 200.25 Final Guarantee Survey Board. This board, composed of a chairman and representatives of the Technical, Procurement, Construction, and Maintenance and Repair Divisions, conducts final guarantee surveys on all vessels built by the Commission, or in which the Commission has an interest, and which, by the terms of their contracts, must pass through a guarantee period. Its reports and recommendations are made to the Commission via the Executive Director.

§ 200.26 Price Adjustment Board. The Price Adjustment Board of the Maritime Commission conducts renegotiation proceedings devolving upon the Chairman of the Commission, pursuant to the Renegotiation Act.

Renegotiation procedures vary slightly with respect to contractors' fiscal years ended on or before June 30, 1943, and those which ended thereafter.

(a) As to fiscal years ended on or before June 30, 1943. Contracts between a contractor assigned to the Board and a Government Department directed to renegotiate its war contracts are renegotiable if uncompleted, by final payment or otherwise, prior to April 28, 1942. Sub-contracts under such contracts are also subject to renegotiation. The Maritime Commission Price Adjustment Board derives its authority to renegotiate such contracts by a delegation from the Chairman of the Commission dated August 14, 1942, the authority of the Chairman being derived from the Renegotiation Act itself. By a cross-delegation dated February 26, 1944 (which superseded an earlier cross-delegation) the heads of the renegotiating departments and agencies authorized each other, and their respective delegates, to renegotiate such renegotiable contracts of an assigned contractor as may have been awarded by the other Departments or agencies than the one to whom the contractor is assigned for renegotiation.

By an agreement dated September 24, 1943, between the heads of the renegotiating departments, a Joint Price Adjustment Board was created. The agreement contains a delegation to the board from the heads of all of the said departments to perform certain functions, the principal purpose being to produce uniformity in the procedure, policies and interpretations under the Renegotiation Act. Pursuant to the delegated authority, the Joint Price Adjustment Board assigns the names of contractors among the various renegotiating departments.

Renegotiation proceedings for years ended on or before June 30, 1943, are initiated by a letter from the Price Adjustment Board to the contractor stating that such proceedings have been instituted and requesting specified financial data. Such data, when received, is reviewed by the board, and if the contractor is found not to be exempt and his profits appear excessive, he is notified of the time and place for a renegotiation conference. At such conference the contractor confers with a renegotiating panel of the board. The conference may result in a determination that no excessive profits have been earned for the period under review on the basis of the evidence sumbitted; or in a determination as to the amount of excessive profits if such profits appear to have been earned. The determination of the renegotiating panel is subject to review by a "booking panel," and the determination is then communicated to the contractor with a notice that it is subject to the approval of the Price Adjustment Board. If the proposal submitted to the contractor is accepted by him, it is incorporated in an agreement which is submitted to the contractor for execution, subsequent to approval given by the Price Adjustment Board. The board may revise the figures, in which event the contractor is invited to accept the revision. If the contractor accepts, the contract is signed by the Chairman of the Maritime Commission. If the contractor does not accept the board's determination, the Chairman of the Commission signs an order determining the amount of excessive profits, and demanding payment. A counterpart of the order is forwarded to the contractor by registered mail. Appropriate measures are taken by the board to determine for its own information and on behalf of the contractor the amount of income tax credit to which the contractor will be entitled by reason of his refund to the Treasury of excessive profits.

The Joint Price Adjustment Board serves as a coordinating agency for the individual departments and agencies conducting renegotiations. It has issued a Joint Renegotiation Manual containing instructions, regulations, explanations and forms for the guidance of departmental and agency price adjustment boards. Forms required to be filed by contractors for fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 1943, are as follows:

Contractor's Information Form for Purposes of Renegotiation (Budget Bureau No. 49-R112).

Statement and Affidavit as to Non-applicability of Renegotiation Act under Provisions of Section 403 (c) (6).

(b) As to fiscal years ended after June 30, 1943. Renegotiation relating to fiscal years ended after June 30, 1943, is under the general jurisdiction of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, pursuant to an amendment to the Renegotiation Act approved February 25, 1944. This board consists of six members, one each from the War Department, Navy Department, Treasury, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, Reconstruction Finance Corporation and Civilian Production Administration. Authority of the Maritime Commission Price Adjustment Board as to fiscal years ended after June 30, 1943, is derived by delegation from the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board dated February 26, 1944, to the Chairman of the Maritime Commission and, by his sub-delegation, to the Maritime Commission Price Adjustment Board under date of March 2, 1944. The delegation of February 26, 1944 has been amended from time to time, the presently effective delegation being dated August 10, 1945.

Renegotiations for fiscal periods ended after June 30, 1943, are assigned by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board. For these fiscal periods, the contractor is required by statute to take the initiative to file with the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board on or before the first day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year a financial statement setting forth information prescribed by regulations of that board. Assignment of the contractor for renegotiation is made to one of the renegotiating agencies either before or after the submission by the contractor of his financial statement. Renegotiation proceedings are initiated by registered-mailing to the contractor a notice of the time and place of a renegotiation conference. An agreement or order determining the amount of excessive profits is made within one year following the commencement of such proceedings. In the renegotiation conference, the statutory factors are considered on the basis of information which the contractor has been invited to submit in advance and such information as he produces at the conference.

In the absence of agreement, the Chairman of the Maritime Commission executes an order, a copy of which is sent by registered mail to the contractor with a notice which, instead of demanding payment of excessive profits determined in the order, states that the order may be reviewed by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board on its own motion or at the request of the contractor, and that in the absence of review within the time prescribed by the Renegotiation Act, the order shall be deemed the determination of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board. If, upon review, that board redetermines the amount of excessive profits, the contractor is invited to enter into a renegotiation agreement for the payment of the amount so redetermined. If he declines, the redetermination results in an order of the board, which directs the head of the renegotiating department or agency to whom the contractor has been assigned to take appropriate measures to collect the amount owing by the contractor.

If no review is initiated within the prescribed time, the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board notifies the contractor by registered mail that the order of the departmental or agency board has become the determination of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board; and demand is made for the payment of the excessive profits.

All renegotiations under the jurisdiction of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board employ forms issued by that board.

Copies of all forms and other material employed by the Maritime Commission Price Adjustment Board are available at the office of the board in Washington, D. C., and in San Francisco, California.

§ 200.27 Settlement Review Board. The Settlement Review Board determines the over-all reasonableness of proposed settlements of certain termination claims. Membership of the board, for the purpose of reviewing settlements of amounts due under termination claims under prime contracts for vessel construction, consists of the members of the Commission. For all other purposes, the board is composed of four officers designated by the Commission and at least two members of the Commission. In reviewing a proposed settlement of $100,000 or less, three members constitute a quorum of the board (composed as last mentioned). Where the proposed settlement is in excess of $100,000, a quorum consists of four members of the board as so composed, including at least one member of the Commission. The Board as so composed has a Chairman and Vice Chairman appointed by the Commission from among the board members.

In addition to performing the functions above specified, the board: approves classification of termination inventory costing $25,000 or more, as unserviceable property, or (regardless of cost) as scrap for disposal as such; approves equitable bases for determining the amount payable on account of termination claims; determines what constitutes unreasonable delay in settlement of termination claims under section 6 (f) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 649)—hereinafter called the act; approves the return to suppliers, retention by, or sale to or by, war contractors of termination inventories where credit or prices received by the Government is less than the amount included for such inventory in the contractor's claim, and the cost of such inventories exceeds $50,000; requires audits of prime contractors' and subcontractors' books and records when necessary to protect the Government's interest; where necessary for the protection of subcontractors, provides for settlement of their termination claims by direct settlement, direct payment, or deposit in a controlled account; in case of bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership of a prime contractor, recommends to the Commission action pursuant to section 7 of the act; enters into agreements with prime contractors for submission to arbitration under section 13 (e) of the act of claims over $25,000; mediates or arbitrates, under section 13 (f) of the act, disputes between contractors and subcontractors concerning termination claims of the latter; takes action as to certain company-wide settlements in accordance with requirements of the Office of Contract Settlement; empowers contractors to settle termination claims of subcontractors where the amount of the settlement is not over $10,000; acts upon authorized settlements exceeding $25,000 when approved by the director of the Contract Settlement and Surplus Materials Division or his designee; acts upon settlements of termination claims under subcontracts where the settlement exceeds $25,000; where a termination claim has not been settled by agreement, requires a determination and findings by the proper officers under section 13 of the act; upon proper recommendation, acts upon requests for partial payments on behalf of subcontractors pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 6 of Regulation 2 of the Office of Contract Settlement; and acts upon pretermination settlement agreements amendatory of prime contracts and subcontracts providing for payment as fair compensation of amounts specified or readily computable in lieu of other compensation.

The Board uses no forms other than those issued by the Office of Contract Settlement.

§ 200.28 Committee on Admissions to Practice. This committee is composed of five members, one of whom is Secretary of the Commission, and one of whom is designated by the Commission as Chairman.

It administers (through recommendation to the Commission) the Commission rules governing practice and admission to practice before the Commission. These rules have been published in the Federal Register (Title 46, Chapter II, part 203), and application forms for admission to practice may be secured from the Secretary of the Commission.

§ 200.29 Construction Cost Committees. The function of construction cost committees is to facilitate the financial administration of construction contracts and related matters. One construction cost committee is attached to the Washington office of the Commission and exercises reviewing, supervisory and coordinating functions over regional construction cost committees. There is a regional construction cost committee attached to each of the Commission's regional headquarters.

The Washington committee reviews, accepts, or disapproves decisions of regional committees with respect to matters of reimbursement or recapture, holding hearings in connection therewith; and settles disallowances, exceptions and suspensions. It makes recommendations thereon to the Commission where necessary. The Washington committee conducts hearings on disputed matters under the Commission's "Regulations Prescribing Method of Determining Profits," reporting its findings to the Commission. The Director of Finance (Construction) is Chairman of the Washington committee, which consists of three members appointed by the Commission.

Each of the regional committees consists of the Assistant Director in charge of the regional office, the Regional Construction Auditor and the Regional Counsel, each of whom may be represented by an alternate. Each regional committee has a secretary in addition to the committee membership. The regional committees deal with contracts between the Commission and shipbuilders where operations under the contracts are subject to audit by reason of reimbursement or recapture provisions, or provisions relating to the determination of fees and profits; and expedite settlement of all items of disallowance, exceptions and suspensions. Adjustments arising out of escalator clauses are not without the jurisdiction of the regional committees but are considered by the General Auditor for Construction in Washington except where the contractor appeals to the Washington Construction Cost Committee.

The contractor may refer a matter to a regional committee, through its secretary, where, after failure to effect settlements and adjustments through the Resident Auditor and the Regional Construction Auditor, he considers himself aggrieved because of inability to obtain adequate information as to exceptions and disallowances, failure to obtain prompt action with respect thereto, or dissatisfaction with any action concerning exceptions or disallowances or affecting payments believed to be due to him. Reference of any matter to a regional committee should set forth briefly the matters involved in the reference and should be accompanied by briefs, memoranda or other supporting documents and may include a request for a hearing.

Hearing procedure is informal, being designed to clarify issues between the contractor and the Commission. A regional committee may allow a contractor up to ten days after hearing for the submission of briefs and memoranda.

A regional committee, if its decision is unanimous, reports it briefly to the Washington Construction Cost Committee, which may affirm the decision or take such other action thereon as may be appropriate. If the decision of the regional committee is not unanimous, the entire matter is referred to the Washington committee which procedure is also followed wherever a matter of law is involved, whether or not the regional committee's decision is unanimous.

A contractor dissatisfied with an affirmed decision of a regional committee, or any decision of the Washington committee, may request a hearing before the Washington committee, the request to be filed (within fifteen days after the contractor is notified of the decision) with the Director of Finance for Construction, Washington, D. C., with a copy to the secretary of the regional committee and the Resident Auditor.

§ 200.30 Crews Quarters Committee. This committee consists of three members and consults with administrative subdivisions of the Commission, military and other branches of the Government and labor unions, and submits recommendations to the Commission with respect to requirements and general policies for crews quarters on Government-owned vessels or vessels bareboat-chartered to the Commission or War Shipping Administration, on scheduled construction by the Commission, and for modification of crews quarters on vessels already constructed.

It receives complaints and suggestions relative to accommodations or working of vessels and submits recommendations thereon to the Commission with respect to vessels under construction and vessels in operation.

§ 200.31 Patent Royalty Adjustment Committee. This Committee, consisting of three members designated by the General Counsel and approved by the Commission, is charged with carrying out the provisions of the Act of October 31, 1942 (Pub. Law 768, 77th Cong.) which relates to the use and compensation therefor by the United States of inventions patented or unpatented. So called "Rules and Regulations" where adopted by this Committee and approved by the Commission November 1, 1944 but have not been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Said rules relate only to the duties and authorities of the Committee and prescribe no rules or regulations effective as to the public or forms of any nature. They delineate the duties of the Committee which are to investigate royalties charged the United States, to negotiate voluntary adjustments of royalties for settlement of infringement claims against the United States before the institution of suit, to fix fair and just royalties and authorize the payment thereof subject to Commission approval, and when deemed desirable by the Committee, to acquire licenses or similar instruments from foreign governments under obligation to reimburse, indemnify or save harmless the United States against loss, cost or damage from claims arising out of the use of inventions, such action to be taken pursuant to Effective Agreement Series 268 or other applicable power or authority.

Copies of these "Rules and Regulations" may be secured upon application to the Secretary of the Committee.

§ 200.32 General reference to rules and regulations of the Commission. Rules and regulations of the Commission have heretofore been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and may be found in Title 46, Chapter II of the Code of Federal Regulations, and are as follows:

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL PROVISIONS AND RULES OF PROCEDURE

Part
201 Rules of procedure before the Commission.
202 Approved forms.
203 Admission to practice before the Commission.
211 Adoption of existing orders.

SUBCHAPTER B—REGULATIONS AFFECTING MARITIME CARRIERS

221 Documentation, transfer or charter of vessels.
222 Statements and agreements required to be filed.
223 Filing of port bill of lading forms.
231 Tariff regulations; common carriers by water in interstate commerce.
233 Schedules of carriers subject to the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933.
234 Schedules establishing additional terminal facilities by intercoastal carriers.
235 Schedules of common carriers by water in foreign commerce.
237 Repairs to vessels under bareboat charter.
246 Formula for determining sea speed of vessels.

SUBCHAPTER C—REGULATIONS AFFECTING SUBSIDIZED VESSELS AND OPERATORS

251 Application for subsidies.
261 Cadet officers and cadets.
262 Minimum-wage, minimum-manning, and reasonable working conditions.
271 Inspection of operating-differential subsidized vessels.
275 Outfitting materials and equipment for construction-differential subsidy vessels.
276 Construction-differential subsidy repayment while vessels not operated in foreign trade.
281 Information and procedure required under operating-differential subsidy agreements.
282 Uniform system of accounts for operating-differential subsidy contractors.
283 Financial and operating exhibits.
284 Valuation of vessels for determining capital employed and net earnings under operating-differential subsidy agreements.
285 Determination of profit in contracts and subcontracts for construction, reconditioning, or reconstruction of ships.
286 Establishment and maintenance of the statutory capital and special reserve funds and for the determination of "capital necessarily employed in the business" and "net earnings".
287 Establishment of construction reserve funds.

SUBCHAPTER D—FEDERAL SHIP MORTGAGE INSURANCE

Part
296 Information concerning Federal Ship Mortgage Insurance.
297 Transactions and operations in Federal Ship Mortgage Insurance Fund Debentures.

SUBCHAPTER E—WAR CONTRACTS

298 Settlement of claims arising under terminated war contracts.

SUBCHAPTER F—MERCHANT SHIP SALES ACT OF 1946

299 Rules and regulations, forms and citizenship requirements.

§ 200.33 War Shipping Administration Functions. Functions performed by War Shipping Administration as designated in section 202 of Public Law 492, 79th Congress, 2d Session, approved July 8, 1946 become the responsibility of the Commission on September 1, 1946, War Shipping Administration having been abolished as of that date by the same statute.

Such functions being numerous and of far reaching importance, their assignment within the administrative structure of the Maritime Commission involves complex organizational steps which have been in process of development since the act providing for performance of these functions by the Commission became law.

Upon completion of reorganization, presently in progress, this chapter will be supplemented to cover all such functions.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

PART 204—RECORDS AVAILIBLE FOR INSPECTION [1]

§ 204.1 Opinions, orders, and public records available for inspection. (a) Pursuant to section 3 (a) and (c), respectively, of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) there shall be available:

(1) For public inspection, all final opinions or orders in the adjudication of cases (except those held by the Commission for good cause to be confidential and not cited as precedents), and all rules;

(2) To persons properly and directly concerned therewith, matters of official record, except as otherwise required by statute, and except information held confidential for good cause found.

(b) Application for inspection of materials covered by paragraph (a) of this section shall be made to the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., who shall have authority to decide all questions presented by the application.

NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

[32 CFR, Ch. IV]

PART 401—CREATION AND AUTHORITY

§ 401.1 Creation and authority. The NACA was created by Act of Congress approved March 3, 1915 (38 Stat. 930; 49 U. S. C. 241), as amended by the Act approved March 2, 1929 (45 Stat. 1451; 49 U. S. C. 241), as amended by the Act approved June 23, 1938 (52 Stat. 1027; 49 U. S. C. 241). The NACA operates under intra-agency regulations formulated by the Committee and approved by the President of the United States.

PART 402—PURPOSE AND FUNCTIONS

Sec.
402.1 Purpose.
402.2 Functions.

§ 402.1 Purpose. The Committee was established to supervise and direct the scientific study of the problems of flight with a view to their practical solution, and to direct and conduct research and experiment in aeronautics, in such laboratory or laboratories in whole or in part as may be placed under its direction. It is the responsibility of the NACA to recognize in advance the trend of aeronautical development, civil and military, to anticipate the research problems that will arise, and to design and provide research equipment to meet the needs of this rapidly-advancing science, and then to conduct the necessary scientific investigations. Research of the NACA is not considered completed until results are tested by sufficient practical application. However, NACA research will not include development of specific aircraft or equipment.

§ 402.2 Functions. Specific functions of the NACA are to:

(a) Coordinate research needs of private, commercial, and military aviation, avoiding duplication of effort and making pertinent information available to all concerned.

(b) Conduct, under unified control of the Committee, scientific aeronautical research, including first, fundamental researches instituted by the Committee on its own initiative or authorized upon request of the Army, Navy, or Civil Aeronautics Authority; and second, special investigations in the nature of applied research on problems submitted by the Army and Navy for immediate improvement in performance of military aircraft.

Such investigations are conducted by the Committee in its own laboratories, or by research contracts with scientific and educational institutions.

(c) Advise the War and Navy Departments, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, and the aviation industry as to the latest research information.

(d) Advise upon any special problem in aeronautics which may be referred to it by the President, the Congress, or any governmental agency.

PART 403—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
403.1 Main Committee.
403.2 Subcommittees.
403.3 Central office.
403.4 Directorate.
403.5 Secretariat.
403.6 Deposit and distribution of information.
403.7 Laboratories.

§ 403.1 Main Committee. The Committee is composed of fifteen members appointed by the President, headed by a chairman elected annually by the Committee. The Committee consists of two representatives each of the War and Navy Departments (from the offices in charge of military and naval aeronautics) and Civil Aeronautics Authority, one representative each of the Smithsonian Institution, the United States Weather Bureau, and the National Bureau of Standards, together with six additional persons who are "acquainted with the needs of aeronautical science, either civil or military, or skilled in aeronautical engineering or its allied sciences." Members of government agencies are appointed for indefinite periods in their capacities as agency representatives. The six additional members are appointed for terms of five years. All members serve as such without compensation.

§ 403.2 Subcommittees. Under the Main Committee are technical committees and subcommittees concerned with specific phases of aeronautical research.

§ 403.3 Central office. The Committee's headquarters are at 1500 New Hampshire Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. Committee and subcommittee meetings are generally held there. Research programs are discussed and recommended by the subcommittees and upon approval by the Main Committee research authorizations are issued by the Director of Aeranautical Research.

§ 403.4 Directorate. The Director of Aeronautical Research at the Headquarters Office, directs the research activities of the Committee's Laboratories; coordinates the committee's research activities by means of effective liaison service with scientific and educational institutions, aircraft and allied industries, and with agencies of the Federal Government concerned with aeronautics; and supervises the program of research contracts with scientific and educational institutions.

§ 403.5 Secretariat. The Executive Secretary at the Headquarters Office exercises functions required to be performed by "head of department or agency"; determines necessity for meetings of Executive Committee, Technical Committees, and Sub-Committees; directs all intelligence activities and public relations; co-ordinates administrative relations with other Federal Agencies and with aircraft and allied industries; and directs the administration of the organization.

§ 403.6 Deposit and distribution of information. The deposit and distribution of scientific and technical information collected by the committee from governmental and private agencies in this country and abroad is handled in the Washington, D. C. office. The data distributed includes classified and unclassified series of publications covering the results of fundamental research in aeronautics. This office effects limited distribution of current committee publications without charge to persons and organizations properly and directly concerned, subject to applicable security regulations. This office also distributes foreign and domestic technical data on aeronautics published in other than committee documents, and controls the loan of valuable documents to meet special needs.

§ 403.7 Laboratories. The NACA operates three laboratories. The original and largest is the Langley Memorial Aeronautical Laboratory at Langley Field, Virginia, where research is conducted under the direction of an Engineer-in-Charge of the laboratory on problems of aerodynamics, aircraft structures, and hydrodynamics.

The Ames Aeronautical Laboratory at Moffett Field, California, under the direction of an Engineer-in-Charge, provides an extension of NACA facilities for general aerodynamic research, with emphasis on high-speed research.

The Aircraft Engine Research Laboratory at the Cleveland Airport, Cleveland, Ohio, under the direction of a manager, is devoted to research on problems of aircraft propulsion.

PART 404—WORK FOR PRIVATE PARTIES

Sec.
404.1 Procedure.
404.2 Substantive regulations.

§ 404.1 Procedure. Any American citizen or American firm, association, or corporation which desires the Committee to conduct any investigation or test will make application by letter addressed to the Committee at 1500 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 404.2 Substantive regulations. The research facilities of NACA Laboratories may be used to assist private individuals and corporations whenever other facilities are not available and NACA facilities are available, provided that the investigation is considered by the NACA to be worth making. If the investigation is considered by the NACA to be in the public interest and the private individual or corporation agrees, the work may be undertaken at public expense and the results published. If the investigation is primarily of private interest, the cost should be met by those requesting assistance and the results reported only to them. In such cases, certified check payable to the order of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics in an amount sufficient to meet the estimated cost must be posted with the Committee in advance. Such check will be deposited by the Committee in the U. S. Treasury in a special deposit account against which will be charged the cost of work performed. Additional deposits may be required. Upon completion of the work an amount equal to the total cost will be transferred in the Treasury to "Miscellaneous Receipts" and the balance of the special deposit account will be returned to the depositor.

PART 405—AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION AND RECORDS

Sec.
405.1 Printed documents.
405.2 Other material.

§ 405.1 Printed documents. Committee documents of permanent value are printed, and are available for purchase at nominal prices from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 405.2 Other material. Inquiries concerning publications or information not available at the office of the Superintendent of Documents, should be addressed to the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, 1500 New Hampshire Avenue, N. W., Washington 25, D. C. Such inquiries should state clearly what is wanted and for what purpose it is to be used.

J. F. VICTORY,
Executive Secretary.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

[44 CFR, Ch. I]

Part 1, Use of Records in the Custody of the Archivist of the United States (44 CFR, Cum. Supp., 1.1 to 1.24) is redesignated as Part 2; Part 2, Authentication and Attestation of Copies of Archives in the Custody of the Archivist of the United States (44 CFR, 1944 Supp., 2.1) is redesignated as Part 3; and a new Part 1, Organization and Procedure, is added as follows:

PART 1—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Sec.
1.1 Creation.
1.2 Purpose.
1.3 Organization.

§ 1.1 Creation. The National Archives was established under an Act of Congress approved June 19, 1934, as amended (48 Stat. 1122–1124, 49 Stat. 1821, 52 Stat. 421; 44 U. S. C. 300–300k), which created the office of the Archivist of the United States and prescribed his duties. The Division of the Federal Register was established under an Act of Congress approved July 26, 1935, as amended (49 Stat. 500–503, 52 Stat. 421, 56 Stat. 1045; 44 U. S. C. 301–314).

§ 1.2 Purpose. The primary objective of The National Archives is to make the experience of the Government and the people of the United States, as it is embodied in the records of the Federal Government and related materials, available to guide and assist the Government and the people in planning and conducting their activities. It endeavors to attain that objective by assembling, preserving, arranging, and describing such of the noncurrent records of agencies of the Federal Government as have sufficient value to warrant preservation and by making such records available for use by Government officials, scholars, and others who have occasion to consult them. "Motion-picture films and sound recordings pertaining to and illustrative of historical activities of the United States" are also accepted, preserved, and made available. Another function of The National Archives is the appraisal of records believed to be appropriate for disposal in order that the Archivist may report to Congress such of them as in his opinion lack sufficient value to warrant their continued preservation by the Government. The Division of the Federal Register is responsible for providing for the custody of Federal proclamations, orders, regulations, notices, and other documents, and for the uniform printing and distribution thereof.

§ 1.3 Organization—(a) Office of the Archivist. The National Archives is under the direction of the Archivist of the United States, who is appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Within the Office of the Archivist are the following staff officers with functions as indicated:

(1) Management Officer. Coordinates all work and action upon proposals contemplating changes in the program, policies, procedures, organization, indoctrination, or training activities of the National Archives; effects the issuance of necessary regulations and directives; is responsible for the administrative operation of the employee suggestion system; and supervises the activities of the Documentation Unit.

(2) Administrative Secretary. Is responsible for liaison with Congress, its Committees, and its members, for the conduct of relations with other agencies of the Government insofar as such responsibility is not otherwise specifically assigned, and for the planning and supervision of the public relations, publications, and exhibits activities carried on by the Exhibits and Publications Unit; and serves as liaison officer of the National Archives in relations with the National Archives Council.

(3) Program Adviser. Studies and makes recommendations concerning large, complex, and lasting problems of program and policy; initiates and conducts research and bibliographical work in the history and administration of archives; conducts external relations having to do with foreign, State, local, and private records or archival establishments; and exercises line supervision over the National Archives Library.

(4) Budget Officer. Is responsible for budgetary clearance of expenditures and staff jurisdiction over relations with the Bureau of the Budget, fiscal relations with other agencies, and all matters pertaining to budget estimates and cost accounting; and exercises line supervision over the Division of Finance and Accounts and the Statistical Unit.

(b) Division of the Federal Register. (1) The Division, headed by a Director, acts under the general direction of the Archivist of the United States, who is charged with the custody and, together with the Public Printer, with the prompt and uniform printing and distribution of the documents required or authorized to be published under section 5 of the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 501; 44 U. S. C. 305). These documents include:

(i) All Presidential proclamations and Executive orders, except such as have no general applicability and legal effect or are effective only against Federal agencies or persons in their capacity as officers, agents, or employees thereof;

(ii) Such documents or classes of documents as the President determines from time to time have general applicability and legal effect; and

(iii) Such documents or classes of documents as are required so to be publicized by Act of Congress: Provided, That for the purposes of the Federal Register Act every document or order which prescribes a penalty is deemed to have general applicability and legal effect.

(iv) In addition to the foregoing, there are also published in the FEDERAL REGISTER such other documents or classes of documents as are authorized to be published pursuant to regulations prescribed under the act with the approval of the President, but in no case are comments or news items of any character whatsoever authorized to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(2) In regard to documents required by Act of Congress to be published, a number of statutes specifically provide for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of regulations issued by an agency. Probably the most important of these is the Administrative Procedure Act approved June 11, 1946 (Public Law 404, 79th Cong.), which provides that every agency of the Federal Government shall publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER descriptions of its organization, procedures, and substantive rules.

(3) Regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee of the FEDERAL REGISTER, approved by the President, setting forth requirements for agencies to follow in preparation and submission of documents appear at 1 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 2.

(4) The Division is organized into the Administrative, Editorial, and Legal Sections. These sections perform designated functions in respect to the preparation and publication of the daily issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER and the Code of Federal Regulations and supplements thereto.

(c) Office of the Director of Operations. The Director of Operations exercises line supervision over all records divisions and offices, the General Reference Division, and the Divisions of Personnel Management, Records and Communications, Property, and Printing and Processing. In the absence of the Archivist he serves as Acting Archivist of the United States. With the assistance of staff officers responsible to him he is responsible for continuous development of the policies, program, and standards of the National Archives with respect to records administration, disposal of records, accessioning of records, preservation of records, analysis and description of records, and reference service. Within the scope of these functions as well as within the scope of all other activities of operating units under his supervision he is responsible for taking or directing the taking of final action on all transactions involving the application of policies, program, or standards in specific cases, except where such action is required to be taken by the Archivist personally. The following staff officers to the Director of Operations assist him with respect to the performance of the functions indicated:

(1) Deputy Director of Operations. Assists, and, as directed, acts for and in the name of the Director in matters relating to general management, preservation of records, and business services, insofar as such matters fall within the assigned jurisdiction of the Director; is responsible for the execution of approved transfers of records to the custody of the Archivist; administers the pool of professional personnel detailed as needed to other operating units; exercises general supervision over the Division of Cleaning and Rehabilitation and over the Labor and Traffic Section and the Packing and Shelving Unit in the Office of the Director; and serves as extra duty staff officer to the Archivist with respect to the formulation and enforcement of a safety program for the National Archives.

(2) Records Appraisal Officer. Assists, and, as directed, acts for and in the name of the Director in matters relating to records administration, disposal of records, and accessioning of records, excepting the execution of approved transfers; is responsible for the development of the policies, program, and standards of the National Archives with respect to the disposal and accessioning of Government records, for the development of standards of appraisal of records, and for making recommendations with respect to the allocation of each agency of the Government to one of the various departmental records divisions and offices for purposes of liaison; and has staff jurisdiction over any field service, exclusive of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library.

(3) Records Control Officer. Assists, and, as directed, acts for and in the name of the Director in matters relating to analysis and description of records and reference service; is responsible for the continuous development of the policies, program, and standards of the National Archives with respect to the organizing of accessioned records, the production of finding aids, the preparation of file microcopies of significant record materials, reproduction service on records, and the rendering of reference service; reviews proposals for the undertaking of specific projects within the scope of such activities and the end-products of such projects; and serves as liaison officer of the National Archives in relations with the National Historical Publications Commission.

(d) Records divisions and offices. The core of the National Archives is composed of 13 records divisions or offices, among which is apportioned the responsibility for dealing with the records and records problems of all agencies of the Federal Government. In these divisions or offices, each of which is headed by a chief or director, are carried on the actual operations of the agency with respect to records administration, disposal of records, accessioning of records, packing and shelving of records, analysis and description of records, and reference and reproduction services. All these operating units are under the line supervision of the Director of Operations. The 11 departmental records divisions or offices are as follows: Agriculture Department Archives, Commerce Department Archives, Interior Department Archives, Justice Department Archives, Labor Department Archives, Legislative Archives, Post Office Department Archives, State Department Archives, Treasury Department Archives, Veterans' Records, and War Records. Two units are responsible for special types of archival material, namely, maps and charts (Division of Maps and Charts) and photographic and phonographic records (Photographic Records Office).

(e) Special service divisions or units—(1) General Reference Division. Is responsible for reference work that does not appropriately fall within the province of any records division or office, for routing of written reference inquiries to the appropriate records divisions or offices, for authentication and attestation of records in the custody of the Archivist, and for custody of the seal of the National Archives; supervises the central search room; receives applications for and issues cards of admission to the search rooms; handles certain requests for the reproduction of records in the custody of the Archivist; and performs reference service on certain records placed indefinitely in the custody of the Division.

(2) Division of Cleaning and Rehabilitation. Is responsible for cleaning and fumigating records and library materials and for unfolding, flattening, laminating, and repairing records in the custody of the Archivist.

(3) National Archives Library. Provides reference library facilities to the staff of the National Archives and searchers.

(f) Business Service Divisions—(1) Division of Personnel Management. Is responsible for recruitment, placement, classification, retirement, and related personnel activities; maintains personnel records; and applies personnel laws and regulations.

(2) Division of Finance and Accounts. Is responsible for administering and supervising receipts and disbursements of all funds under the jurisdiction of the Archivist, including those of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library.

(3) Property Division. Is responsible for procurement, receipt, inspection, storage, issuance, and maintenance of supplies and equipment; handles the disposal of surplus property; and supervises the maintenance of the National Archives Building and its facilities and protection of its contents.

(4) Division of Records and Communications. Maintains the central files of the agency and furnishes communication, mail, and messenger services within the agency.

(5) Division of Printing and Processing. Furnishes duplicating services to the National Archives.

§ 1.4 Statutes administered. The National Archives was established under an act of Congress approved June 19, 1934, as amended (48 Stat. 1122–1124, 49 Stat. 1821, 52 Stat. 421; 44 U. S. C. 300–300k), which created the office of Archivist of the United States and prescribed his duties. Other legislation affecting the National Archives Establishment includes an act to provide for the printing and distribution of Government publications to the National Archives, approved June 17, 1935 (49 Stat. 386; 44 U. S. C. 215a); the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935, as amended (49 Stat. 500–503, 52 Stat. 421, 56 Stat. 1045; 44 U. S. C. 301–314); the joint resolution establishing the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library, approved July 18, 1939 (53 Stat. 1062–1066); the National Archives Trust Fund Board Act, approved July 9, 1941 (55 Stat. 581; 44 U. S. C. 300aa–300jj); and the act concerning the disposal of records, approved July 7, 1943, as amended July 6, 1945 (57 Stat. 380–383, 59 Stat. 434; 44 U. S. C. 366–380).

PART 10—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES COUNCIL

Sec.
10.1 Creation and purpose.
10.2 Organization.

§ 10.1 Creation and purpose. The National Archives Council was created by the National Archives Act approved June 19, 1934 (48 Stat. 1123; 44 U. S. C. 300f), which provides that the Council shall "define the classes of material which shall be transferred to the National Archives Building and establish regulations governing such transfer; and shall have power to advise the Archivist in respect to regulations governing the disposition and use of the archives and records transferred to his custody." An act of July 7, 1943, as amended July 6, 1945, concerning the disposal of records (57 Stat. 380–383, 59 Stat. 434; 44 U. S. C. 366–380), assigned to the Council the duties of "establishing (1) procedures for the compiling and submitting to the Archivist of the United States of lists and schedules of records proposed for disposal, (2) procedures for the disposal of records authorized for disposal, and (3) standards for the reproduction of records by photographic or microphotographic processes with a view to the disposal of the original records." Such regulations, when approved by the President, are binding on all agencies of the United States Government.

§ 10.2 Organization. The Archivist of the United States is chairman of the Council. The alternate for the Secretary of State is vice chairman. Other members of the Council are the Secretary of each executive department (or alternate named by the Secretary thereof), Chairman of the Senate Committee on the Library, Chairman of the House Committee on the Library, the Librarian of Congress, and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. The Secretary to the Council is the Administrative Secretary of the National Archives.

PART 20—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE OF THE NATIONAL HISTORICAL PUBLICATIONS COMMISSION

Sec.
20.1 Creation and purpose.
20.2 Organization.

§ 20.1 Creation and purpose. The National Historical Publications Commission was created by the National Archives Act (48 Stat. 1123; 44 U. S. C. 300e). The duties of the Commission are to "make plans, estimates, and recommendations for such historical works and collections of sources as seem appropriate for publication and/or otherwise recording at the public expense." Such recommendations are transmitted to Congress by the Archivist of the United States in his capacity as chairman of the Commission.

§ 20.2 Organization. The Archivist of the United States is chairman of the Commission. Other members of the Commission are the Historical Adviser of the Department of State, Chief of the Historical Section of the Army War College, Officer in Charge of the Naval Records and Library, Chief of the Division of Manuscripts of the Library of Congress, and two members of the American Historical Association appointed by the president thereof. The Secretary to the Commission is the Records Control Officer, National Archives.

PART 30—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE OF THE FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT LIBRARY

Sec.
30.1 Creation and purpose.
30.2 Organization.

§ 30.1 Creation and purpose. The Franklin D. Roosevelt Library was created by a joint resolution of Congress approved July 18, 1939 (53 Stat. 1062–1066). The primary functions of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library are the preservation and administration of the papers and collections donated to it by Franklin D. Roosevelt and such other material related to and contemporary with this material as may be acquired from other sources by gift, purchase, or loan. A Board known as the Trustees of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library, created by the joint resolution establishing the Library, is authorized to "receive gifts and bequests of personal property and to hold and administer the same as trust funds for the benefit of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library."

§ 30.2 Organization. The Franklin D. Roosevelt Library is under the general administration of the Archivist of the United States. Immediate administration of the Library is vested in a Director, who makes his headquarters at Hyde Park, New York. The Archivist of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury are ex officio members of the Board. Five other members are appointed by the President for life membership on the Board. The Archivist of the United States is chairman of the Board.

PART 40—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES TRUST FUND BOARD

Sec.
40.1 Creation and purpose.
40.2 Organization.

§ 40.1 Creation and purpose. The National Archives Trust Fund Board was created by an Act of Congress approved July 9, 1941 (55 Stat. 581; 44 U. S. C. 300aa–300jj), which authorizes the Board "to accept, receive, hold, and administer such gifts or bequests of money, securities, or other personal property, for the benefit of or in connection with the National Archives, its collections, or its services, as may be approved by the Board."

§ 40.2 Organization. The Archivist of the United States is chairman of the Board. The other members of the Board are the Chairman of the Senate Committee on the Library and the Chairman of the House Committee on the Library.

[SEAL] DAN LACY,
Acting Archivist of the United States.

201.17 Other submittals or requests.

§ 201.1 The Board. The Board, composed of three members, has its central and principal office in Washington, D. C. Each of the members is appointed by the President, with the approval of the Senate, for a term of five years. The Board is created by virtue of the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act, 49 Stat. 449. The Board has two principal functions under the National Labor Relations Act: (a) the prevention of statutorily defined unfair labor practices by employers, and (b) the determination of employee-representatives for purposes of collective bargaining. The Board has also been delegated to enforce the labor-protection provisions of section 222 (f) of the Telegraph Merger Act, 57 Stat. 5, and to certify representatives of employees as bona fide for purposes of section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 52 Stat. 29.

§ 201.2 The Washington staff. The Washington staff is made up of five main Divisions: The Legal Division, the Field Division, the Trial Examiner's Division, the Administrative Division, and the Information Division.

(a) The Legal Division. Headed by the General Counsel, the Division is responsible for providing the Board with legal services. The General Counsel is assisted by two Associate General Counsels, each of whom has general supervision over certain sections of the Division. One of the Associate General Counsels supervises the Review, Litigation, and Order Sections; the other has charge of the Field Legal Section and of legislative and administrative matters affecting the Division.

(1) The Review Section. Headed by an Assistant General Counsel, the Section assists the Board in performance of its decisional and quasi-judicial functions by review and analysis of cases and proceedings, including Intermediate Reports (recommended decisions) of Trial Examiners, pleadings, briefs, exceptions and proposed findings and conclusions, and by drafting proposed decisions after determination by the Board. The staff of the Section has not been delegated any final authority but performs its duties only at the direction of the Board and the Assistant General Counsel in charge. The Assistant General Counsel, however, has been delegated authority to extend the time for the filing of briefs and exceptions with the Board and to schedule cases for oral argument before the Board. None of the personnel of the Section performs any investigative or prosecuting functions in any case in which he assists the Board in making its decision, or in a factually related case; and no agent of the Board who engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in any case is permitted to participate or advise in the decision of that or a factually related case.

(2) The Litigation Section. Headed by an Assistant General Counsel, the Section represents the Board in all phases of court litigation, including the enforcement or review of Board orders, contempt of court decrees, enforcement of subpenas and any other type of litigation to which the Board or its members or agents may be parties. The Assistant General Counsel has the authority to file petitions for enforcement and to answer petitions for review of Board Orders, to sign briefs and petitions for rehearing, and generally to enter into all procedural and other legal stipulations in connection with Board litigation.

(3) The Field Legal Section. Headed by an Assistant General Counsel, this Section supervises the Board's Field Attorneys in the various Regional Offices of the Board, and advises and counsels them in the performance of their legal duties. The Assistant General Counsel is assisted by Associate Chiefs of the Field Legal Section and a small staff of attorneys. The Associate Chiefs are the representatives of the Assistant General Counsel for the purpose of maintaining liaison with the legal staffs of the Regional Offices, coordinating and directing their work, and supervising generally the legal aspects of case handling in the regions.

(4) The Order Section. Headed by a Chief, this Section has authority to certify copies of all papers and documents which are a part of the Board's files or records. Personnel of the Section are responsible for administrative details of Board litigation, including the preparation of records for filing in the courts, the preparation of consent orders and decrees, and similar documents. The Chief of the Section is authorized as the Board's agent to prepare and sign certain formal orders and certifications at the direction of the Board.

(b) The Field Division. Under the supervision of a Director, this Division supervises and reviews the work of the Regional Directors and Regional Offices, exclusive of the legal services of the Regional Attorneys and the Field Attorneys. The Director is assisted by an Associate Director and Assistant Directors. The Associate Director, supervising a small staff of Administrative Examiners, is responsible for the processing of cases referred to the Field Division and for liaison with other Government agencies. The Assistant Directors are the representatives of the Director and through visits to and consultations with the Regional Office staffs, coordinate and direct the work in the Regional Offices, exclusive of the legal services performed there.

(c) The Trial Examiners' Division. (1) Headed by the Chief Trial Examiner, this Division supervises the functions of the Trial Examiners, who are responsible for the conduct of all hearings and for the preparation of all Intermediate Reports (recommended decisions) in unfair labor practice and Telegraph Merger Act cases. The Chief Trial Examiner, assisted by several Associate Chief Trial Examiners, has final authority to designate Trial Examiners to conduct hearings upon complaints, to approve dates scheduled for such hearings by the Regional Offices, to order the hearings reopened before issuance of Intermediate Reports, and to rule upon requests for extensions of time within which to file briefs, proposed findings and conclusions. The Chief Trial Examiner is the liaison officer of the Board to the Civil Service Commission concerning all matters affecting Trial Examiners.

(2) The Trial Examiners have the authority, with respect to cases assigned to them, between the opening of the hearing and the issuance of the Intermediate Report or transfer of the case to the Board, subject to the published Rules and Regulations of the Board and within its powers:

(i) To administer oaths and affirmations;

(ii) To grant or deny applications for subpenas authorized by law;

(iii) To rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence;

(iv) To take or cause depositions to be taken whenever the ends of justice would be served thereby;

(v) To regulate the course of the hearing and, if appropriate or necessary, to exclude persons or counsel from the hearing for contemptuous conduct and to strike all testimony of witnesses refusing to answer any proper question;

(vi) To hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties, but not to adjust cases;

(vii) To dispose of procedural requests or similar matters, including motions referred to the Trial Examiner by the Regional Director and motions to amend pleadings; also to dismiss complaints or portions thereof, and to order hearings reopened prior to issuance of Intermediate Reports.

(viii) To make and transmit Intermediate Reports (recommended decisions), in conformity with section 8 of the Administrative Procedure Act, and the rules and regulations of the Board.

(ix) To call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence.

(x) To take any other action necessary under the foregoing and authorized by the published rules and regulations of the Board.

(d) The Administrative Division. The Administrative Division, under the direction of the Executive Secretary, is responsible generally for the administrative, management, and service functions of the Board. Its activities are carried out through the Management Section, the Personnel Office, the Fiscal and Office Services Section, the Administrative Statistics Section, and the Library.

(e) The Information Division. This Division consists of a Director, an assistant, and a few clericals. It serves as the information center for members of the public who wish to be informed concerning the Board, its activities, and the status of cases. It also acts as liaison with the press and prepares press and other types of public releases.

(f) The Appeals and Review Committee. In addition to the foregoing main divisions the Board has established in Washington, the Appeals and Review Committee. This Committee consists of the Associate General Counsel in charge of the Field Legal Section and the Director of the Field Division. The Committee's functions are, with the assistance of personnel from the Washington staff of the Field Legal Section and Field Division (who may not thereafter, in that or a factually related case, participate or advise in the decision of the Board or the Intermediate Report (recommended decision) of the Trial Examiner), to review and advise the Board regarding appeals taken by aggrieved parties from refusals of Regional Directors to issue Complaints or Notices of Hearing. The Committee also responds to requests for advice from Regional Offices with respect to problems of interpretation of law or policy in connection with particular cases, or where, as to matters in the Regional Office requiring the concurrence of the Regional Attorney, he disagrees with the Regional Director.

§ 201.3 Regional Offices; their staffs generally. The Board has established 22 regional offices. Twenty of these are located in the continental United States, and the remaining 2 are in the territories of Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Certain of the larger geographical regions have suboffices in addition to the central regional office. The areas constituting the regions, and the locations of the regional and sub-regional offices, are set forth in an appendix hereto. Assigned to each regional office are a Regional Director, Regional Attorney, Field Examiners, Field Attorneys, and a clerical staff. Each sub-regional office is headed by an Examiner-in-Charge, and assigned to Puerto Rico is an Agent-in-Charge. The Regional Director is the chief administrative officer of the Board in the region and responsible for case-flow in the offices; the Regional Attorney is the chief legal officer of the Board in the region.

§ 201.4 Regional Directors; their delegations of final authority. The Regional Directors have the following delegations of final authority from the Board:

(a) To receive charges and petitions, to have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, to receive evidence, and to permit the withdrawal of charges and petitions;

(b) To issue, cause to be served, amend and withdraw complaints and Notices of Hearing, and to dismiss complaints where withdrawal of the charges on which they are based has been permitted, subject to the concurrence of the Regional Attorney; also to receive responsive pleadings;

(c) To decline to issue a complaint or a Notice of Hearing, subject to the right of the aggrieved party to appeal to the Board;

(d) To initiate discussion of, and receive and consider, facts, arguments, offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment, except where time, the nature of the proceedings, and the public interest do not permit, and

(1) Respecting cases in any stage of informal or investigative proceedings, to negotiate and enter into agreements and stipulations not providing for Board orders or other Board determinations;

(2) Respecting cases in any stage of informal or investigative proceedings, to negotiate and enter into agreements and stipulations providing for Board orders or other Board determinations, subject to the approval of the Board; and

(3) Respecting cases in any stage of formal proceedings, to effect compliance with the statutes administered by the Board and to negotiate and enter into agreements and stipulations relating thereto, with the concurrence of the Regional Attorney and subject to the approval of the Board;

(e) To receive and rule upon or refer to the trial examiner or hearing officer, as the case may be, all motions, applications or requests (including applications for subpenas) made prior to formal hearing, except that motions to consolidate or sever proceedings and motions to dismiss petitions in representation cases shall be referred to the Board;

(f) To conduct secret ballots among employees and to make preliminary rulings and recommendations and issue reports with respect to challenged ballots and objections to elections;

(g) To issue Rules to Show Cause, subject to the concurrence of the Regional Attorney, and to receive responsive pleadings thereto, in proceedings to certify representatives of employees as bona fide for purposes of section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(h) To conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(i) To approve agreements and stipulations providing for the holding of consent elections or cross-checks and for final determination by the Regional Director of all questions arising thereunder, including challenges and objections to the conduct of the election or cross-check; to issue, pursuant thereto, statements or reports of facts ascertained after such consent elections or cross-checks; and to investigate and issue final rulings upon challenges or objections to the election or cross-check, filed by any party to such agreements and stipulations;

(j) To perform all other and necessary acts required of the Regional Director in connection with the foregoing and the published rules and regulations of the Board.

§ 201.5 Regional attorneys; their delegations of final authority. The Regional attorneys have the following delegations of final authority from the Board:

(a) To perform all necessary legal services for the Board in connection with the operations of the Regional Office, to prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board, to have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses and to receive evidence;

(b) To appear and participate as counsel for the Board in Board hearings and in other litigation and proceedings;

(c) To file exceptions to Intermediate Reports (recommended decisions) of trial examiners;

(d) Respecting cases in any stage of formal proceedings, to receive and consider facts, arguments, offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment, except where time, the nature of the proceedings, and the public interest do not permit; to effect compliance with the statutes administered by the Board, and to negotiate and enter into agreements and stipulations relating thereto, with the approval of the Regional Director and of the Board;

(e) To conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(f) To perform all other and necessary acts required of the Board's attorneys in connection with the foregoing and the published rules and regulations of the Board.

§ 201.6 Field examiners and examiners-in-charge; their delegations of final authority. The field examiners in each of the Regional Offices and the examiners-in-charge of sub-regional offices are directly responsible to the Regional Director and work under his direction. Essentially, their duties are to investigate, report to the Regional Director upon, and adjust, subject to the approval of the Regional Director, proceedings instituted in the Regional Offices; and to conduct elections for selection of collective bargaining representation of employees. They may also from time to time perform other necessary functions of the Regional Office. In connection with their duties, they have the following specific delegations of final authority:

(a) To investigate concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees), in accordance with section 9 (c) of the National Labor Relations Act;

(b) To prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board; to have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses and to receive evidence:

(c) To conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(d) To perform all other and necessary acts required of them in connection with the foregoing and the published Rules and Regulations of the Board.

§ 201.7 Field attorneys; their delegations of final authority. The field attorneys in each of the Regional Offices are charged in general with the duty of performing all necessary legal services for the Board in the region. They are directly responsible to the Regional Attorney for performance of these services and in that connection work under his direction. They may also from time to time perform other necessary functions of the Regional Office. Essentially, their duties are to make legal analyses and reports to the Regional Attorney with respect to pending cases in the Regional Office which have been investigated by the field examining staff, for purposes of taking formal or other action; to draft legal documents; and to appear and participate as counsel for the Board in Board hearings and in other litigation and proceedings. In connection with performance of their duties, they have the following specific delegations of final authority:

(a) To appear and participate as counsel for the Board in Board hearings and in other Board litigation and proceedings;

(b) To prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board, to have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses and to receive evidence:

(c) To conduct hearings in proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(d) To investigate concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees), in accordance with section 9 (c) of the National Labor Relations Act;

(e) To perform all other and necessary acts required of them in connection with the foregoing and the published Rules and Regulations of the Board.

§ 201.8 Persons in "acting" capacity. Persons who are in an "acting" capacity have all the powers and authority of those in whose positions they are acting.

§ 201.9 Places and manner of obtaining information. The public may obtain information concerning the Board, its functions, operations, and procedures upon inquiry at any Regional Office or to the Director of Information in Washington, D. C. Information respecting specific cases may be obtained by inquiry at the Regional Office in which the case is pending or, if pending before the Board in Washington, D. C., by inquiry to the Director of Information in Washington.

§ 201.10 Submittals or requests respecting cases in Regional Offices before hearing. With respect to all proceedings pending in Regional Offices and before hearing, the public may make the following submittals or requests by filing with the Regional Office:

(a) Petitions for certification under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act;

(b) Petitions for certification as bona fide representative under section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act;

(c) Charges in unfair labor practice and Telegraph Merger Act cases;

(d) Requests to amend or withdraw the aforesaid petitions and charges and for leave to amend pleadings;

(e) Procedural motions or applications including applications for subpenas, motions to intervene, requests to take depositions, and motions to postpone or extend hearing date or time within which to plead. Copies of all such documents, except applications for subpenas, should be served simultaneously on all other parties and proof of service filed with the Regional Office;

(f) Compliance or settlement proposals, including submissions of fact, arguments, and offers with respect thereto.

§ 201.11 Submittals or requests respecting cases in Regional Offices, during hearing. With respect to all proceedings pending in the Regional Office and during hearing thereon, the public may make the following submittals or requests:

(a) To the Regional Office:

(1) Motions to amend charges and amended charges;

(2) Requests for leave to withdraw charges and petitions;

(3) Compliance or settlement proposals including submissions of fact, arguments, and offers with respect thereto;

(4) Proposals to enter into consent election or consent cross-check agreements in reperesentation cases under section 9 of National Labor Relations Act.

(b) To the Trial Examiner or hearing officer:

(1) All procedural motions or applications, including applications for subpenas, motions to intervene, requests to take depositions, and motions to postpone or extend hearing date or time within which to plead;

(2) Stipulations of fact;

(3) Requests with respect to oral arguments or briefs before the Trial Examiner or hearing officer, and oral arguments, briefs and proposed findings and conclusions;

(4) Proposals to enter into consent election or consent cross-check agreements in representation cases under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act;

(5) Motions for leave to amend petitions in representation cases under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act and proceedings under section 7 (b) of Fair Labor Standards Act, and amended petitions.

§ 201.12 Submittals or requests respecting complaint cases after hearing but before Intermediate Report. With respect to all unfair labor practice and Telegraph Merger Act cases in which hearings have been held and before issuance of Intermediate Report, the public may make the following submittals or requests:

(a) To the Regional Office:

(1) Applications for leave to withdraw charges;

(2) Compliance or settlement proposals, including submissions of fact, arguments, and offers with respect thereto.

(b) To the Chief Trial Examiner in Washington, D. C. (copies of all of the following documents should also be served simultaneously on all other parties and a copy, with proof of service, should be filed with the Regional Office):

(1) Motions to reopen records;

(2) Requests for extensions of time in which to file briefs and proposed findings with the Trial Examiner;

(3) All other motions.

§ 201.13 Submittals or requests respecting complaint cases pending in Washington and before decision by the Board. With respect to all unfair labor practice and Telegraph Merger Act cases in which hearings have been held and Intermediate Report has been issued, after transfer of the case to the Board but before decision by the Board, the public may make submittals and requests by filing with the Board in Washington, except that proposals of compliance or settlement, including submissions of fact, arguments, and offers with respect thereto should be made to the Regional Office in which the case originated. Copies of all documents filed with the Board should be served simultaneously upon all other parties and proof of service filed with the Board.

§ 201.14 Submittals or requests respecting representation cases pending in Washington and before decision by the Board. With respect to all representation cases and cases under section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act in which hearing has been held and the case transferred to the Board, but before decision by the Board, the public may make submittals and requests should be made by filing with the Board in Washington. Copies of all motions and briefs should be served simultaneously upon all other parties and proof of service filed with the Board.

§ 201.15 Submittals or requests respecting all cases after Board decision. With respect to all proceedings, after Board decision, direction of election, or order has issued, the public may make the following submittals or requests:

(a) To the Regional Director:

(1) Objections to the conduct of or affecting elections;

(2) Compliance or settlement proposals, including submissions of fact, arguments, and offers with respect thereto.

(b) To the Board in Washington, D. C.:

(1) All motions. Copies should be served simultaneously on all other parties and the Regional Office;

(2) Exceptions to Regional Director's report on objections or challenges. Copies should be served simultaneously on all other parties and the Regional Director;

(3) Requests or applications to modify or set aside Board orders made before filing of record in Circuit Court of Appeals for enforcement or review.

§ 201.16 Requests for Board review of Regional Director's dismissal of charge or petition. Requests for Board review of a Regional Director's refusal to issue a Complaint or Notice of Hearing in any proceeding should be filed with the Board in Washington, D. C., within ten days after service of notice of the Director's action, and a copy filed with the Regional Director.

§ 201.17 Other submittals or requests. Any other submittals or requests with reference to Board proceedings may be made by filing either with the Board in Washington or with the Regional Office for the area affected by the proceeding.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of August 1946.

[SEAL] PAUL M. HERZOG,
Chairman.

SUBPART A—DEFINITIONS

§ 203.1 Terms defined in section 2 of the act. The terms "person," "employer," "employee," "representatives," "labor organization," "commerce," "affecting commerce," and "unfair labor practice," as used herein, shall have the meanings set forth in section 2 of the National Labor Relations Act, a copy of which act is appended hereto.

§ 203.2 Act, Board. The term "act" as used herein shall mean the National Labor Relations Act, and the term "Board" shall mean the National Labor Relations Board.

§ 203.3 Region. The term "Region" as used herein shall mean that part of the United States or any territory thereof designated by the Board as a separate region.

§ 203.4 Regional Director. The term "Regional Director" as used herein shall mean the agent designated by the Board

SUBPART B—PROCEDURE UNDER SECTION 10 OF THE ACT FOR THE PREVENTION OF UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

CHARGE

§ 203.7 Who may file; withdrawal and dismissal. A charge that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any unfair labor practice affecting commerce may be made by any person or labor organization. A charge may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Regional Director with whom such charge was filed or of the Board. Upon withdrawal of any charge, any complaint based thereon shall be dismissed by the Regional Director issuing the complaint, by the Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing, or by the Board.

§ 203.8 Where to file. Except as provided in § 203.42, such charge shall be filed with the Regional Director for the Region in which the alleged unfair labor practice has occurred or is occurring. A charge alleging that an unfair labor practice has occurred or is occurring in two or more regions may be filed with the Regional Director for any of such regions.

§ 203.9 Form; jurat. Such charge shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to before any notary public, the Board agent, or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths and take acknowledgments. Three adidtional copies of such charge shall be filed.

§ 203.10 Contents. Such charge shall contain the following:

(a) The full name and address of the person or labor organization making the charge.

(b) The full name and address of the person against whom the charge is made (hereinafter referred to as the "respondent").

(c) A clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices affecting commerce.

COMPLAINT

§ 203.11 When and by whom issued; contents; service. After a charge has been filed, if it appears to the Regional Director that formal proceedings in respect thereto should be instituted, he shall issue and cause to be served upon the respondent and the person or labor organization making the charge (hereinafter referred to as the "parties") a formal complaint in the name of the Board stating the charges and containing a Notice of Hearing before a Trial Examiner at a place therein fixed and at a time not less than ten days after the service of the complaint.

Whenever the complaint contains allegations [illegible] the legality of which is put in issue by any allegation of the complaint, such labor organization shall be made a party to the proceeding.

§ 203.12 Hearing; extension. Upon his own motion or upon proper cause shown by any of the parties the Regional Director issuing the complaint may extend the date of such hearing.

§ 203.13 Amendments. Any such complaint may be amended upon such terms as may be deemed just, prior to the hearing, by the Regional Director issuing the complaint; at the hearing and until the case has been transferred to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, upon motion, by the Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing; and after the case has been transferred to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, at any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon, by the Board.

§ 203.14 Withdrawal. Any such complaint may be withdrawn before the hearing by the Regional Director on his own motion.

§ 203.15 Review by the Board of refusal to issue. If, after the charge has been filed, the Regional Director declines to issue a complaint, he shall so advise the parties in writing, accompanied by a simple statement of the procedural or other grounds. The person or labor organization making the charge may obtain a review of such action by filing a request therefor with the Board in Washington, D. C., and filing a copy of the request with the Regional Director, within ten days from the service of the notice of such refusal by the Regional Director. The request shall contain a complete statement setting forth the facts and reasons upon which the request is based.

ANSWER

§ 203.16 Answer to complaint; time for filing; contents; allegations not denied deemed admitted. The respondent shall, within ten days from the service of the complaint, file an answer thereto. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the grounds of defense. The respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless the respondent is without knowledge, in which case the respondent shall so state, such statement operating as a denial. All of the allegations in the complaint, if no answer is filed, or any allegation in the complaint not specifically denied or explained in an answer filed unless the respondent shall state in the answer that he is without knowledge shall be deemed to be admitted to be true and may be [illegible] the Board.

§ 203.17 Where to file; form; jurat; service upon other parties. The original answer shall be filed with the Regional Director issuing the complaint and shall be signed and sworn to before any notary public, the Board agent, or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths and take acknowledgments. Immediately upon filing his answer the respondent shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties.

§ 203.18 Extension of time for filing. Upon his own motion or upon proper cause shown by a party the Regional Director issuing the complaint may by written order extend the time within which the answer shall be filed.

§ 203.19. Amendment. The respondent may amend his answer at any time prior to the hearing. During the hearing or subsequent thereto, he may amend his answer in any case where the complaint has been amended, within such period as may be fixed by the Trial Examiner or the Board. Whether or not the complaint has been amended, the answer may, in the discretion of the Trial Examiner or the Board, upon motion, be amended upon such terms and within such periods as may be fixed by the Trial Examiner or the Board.

MOTIONS

§ 203.20 Motions; where to file prior to hearing and during hearing; contents; service on other parties. All motions made prior to the hearing shall be filed in writing with the Regional Director issuing the complaint, and shall briefly state the order or relief applied for and the grounds for such motion. The moving party shall file an original and four additional copies of all such motions. Immediately upon the filing of such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties. All motions made at the hearing shall be made in writing to the Trial Examiner or stated orally on the record.

§ 203.21 Rulings on motions; where to file motions after hearing and before transfer of case to Board. The Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing shall rule upon all motions (except as provided in § § 203.12, 203.18, 203.25, and 203.40). The Trial Examiner may, before the hearing, rule on motions filed prior to the hearing, and shall cause copies thereof to be served upon the parties and the Regional Director. All motions filed subsequent to the hearing, but before the transfer of the case to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, shall be filed with the Trial Examiner by filing with the Chief Trial Examiner in Washington, D. C., and a copy thereof shall be served upon each of the parties. Rulings by the Trial Examiner on motions, and any orders in connection therewith if announced at the hearing shall be stated orally on the record. In all other cases such rulings and orders shall be issued in writing and filed with the Regional Director, who shall cause a copy of the same to be served upon each of the [illegible] Board. § 203.6 State. The term "State" as used herein shall include all States, Territories, and possessions of the United States and the District of Columbia.

CHARGE

§ 203.7 Who may file; withdrawal and dismissal. A charge that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any unfair labor practice affecting commerce may be made by any person or labor organization. A charge may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Regional Director with whom such charge was filed or of the Board. Upon withdrawal of any charge, any complaint based thereon shall be dismissed by the Regional Director issuing the complaint, by the Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing, or by the Board.

§ 203.8 Where to file. Except as provided in § 203.42, such charge shall be filed with the Regional Director for the Region in which the alleged unfair labor practice has occurred or is occurring. A charge alleging that an unfair labor practice has occurred or is occurring in two or more regions may be filed with the Regional Director for any of such regions.

§ 203.9 Form; jurat. Such charge shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to before any notary public, the Board agent, or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths and take acknowledgments. Three additional copies of such charge shall be filed.[1]

§ 203.10 Contents. Such charge shall contain the following:

(a) The full name and address of the person or labor organization making the charge.

(b) The full name and address of the person against whom the charge is made (hereinafter referred to as the "respondent").

(c) A clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices affecting commerce.

COMPLAINT

§ 203.11 When and by whom issued; contents; service. After a charge has been filed, if it appears to the Regional Director that formal proceedings in respect thereto should be instituted, he shall issue and cause to be served upon the respondent and the person or labor organization making the charge (hereinafter referred to as the "parties") a formal complaint in the name of the Board stating the charges and containing a Notice of Hearing before a Trial Examiner at a place therein fixed and at a time not less than ten days after the service of the complaint.

Whenever the complaint contains allegations under section 8 (2) of the act, any labor organization referred to in such allegations shall be duly served with a copy of the complaint and notice of hearing. Whenever any labor organization, not the subject of section 8 (2) allegation in the complaint, is a party to any contract with the respondent the legality of which is put in issue by any allegation of the complaint, such labor organization shall be made a party to the proceeding.

§ 203.12 Hearing; extension. Upon his own motion or upon proper cause shown by any of the parties the Regional Director issuing the complaint may extend the date of such hearing.

§ 203.13 Amendments. Any such complaint may be amended upon such terms as may be deemed just, prior to the hearing, by the Regional Director issuing the complaint; at the hearing and until the case has been transferred to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, upon motion, by the Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing; and after the case has been transferred to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, at any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon, by the Board.

§ 203.14 Withdrawal. Any such complaint may be withdrawn before the hearing by the Regional Director on his own motion.

§ 203.15 Review by the Board of refusal to issue. If, after the charge has been filed, the Regional Director declines to issue a complaint, he shall so advise the parties in writing, accompanied by a simple statement of the procedural or other grounds. The person or labor organization making the charge may obtain a review of such action by filing a request therefor with the Board in Washington, D. C., and filing a copy of the request with the Regional Director, within ten days from the service of the notice of such refusal by the Regional Director. The request shall contain a complete statement setting forth the facts and reasons upon which the request is based.

ANSWER

§ 203.16 Answer to complaint; time for filing; contents; allegations not denied deemed admitted. The respondent shall, within ten days from the service of the complaint, file an answer thereto. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the grounds of defense. The respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless the respondent is without knowledge, in which case the respondent shall so state, such statement operating as a denial. All of the allegations in the complaint, if no answer is filed, or any allegation in the complaint not specifically denied or explained in an answer filed, unless the respondent shall state in the answer that he is without knowledge, shall be deemed to be admitted to be true and may be so found by the Board.

§ 203.17. Where to file; form; jurat; service upon other parties. The answer shall be filed with the Regional Director issuing the complaint. It shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to by the respondent or by a duly authorized agent with appropriate power of attorney affixed, and shall contain the post-office address of the respondent. The respondent shall file three additional copies of the answer. Immediately upon filing his answer the respondent shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties.

§ 203.18 Extension of time for filing. Upon his own motion or upon proper cause shown by a party the Regional Director issuing the complaint may by written order extend the time within which the answer shall be filed.

§ 203.19. Amendment. The respondent may amend his answer at any time prior to the hearing. During the hearing or subsequent thereto, he may amend his answer in any case where the complaint has been amended, within such period as may be fixed by the Trial Examiner or the Board. Whether or not the complaint has been amended, the answer may, in the discretion of the Trial Examiner or the Board, upon motion, be amended upon such terms and within such periods as may be fixed by the Trial Examiner or the Board.

MOTIONS

§ 203.20 Motions; where to file prior to hearing and during hearing; contents; service on other parties. All motions made prior to the hearing shall be filed in writing with the Regional Director issuing the complaint, and shall briefly state the order or relief applied for and the grounds for such motion. The moving party shall file an original and four additional copies of all such motions. Immediately upon the filing of such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties. All motions made at the hearing shall be made in writing to the Trial Examiner or stated orally on the record.

§ 203.21 Rulings on motions; where to file motions after hearing and before transfer of case to Board. The Trial Examiner designated to conduct the hearing shall rule upon all motions (except as provided in § § 203.12, 203.18, 203.25, and 203.40). The Trial Examiner may, before the hearing, rule on motions filed prior to the hearing, and shall cause copies thereof to be served upon the parties and the Regional Director. All motions filed subsequent to the hearing, but before the transfer of the case to the Board pursuant to § 203.38, shall be filed with the Trial Examiner by filing with the Chief Trial Examiner in Washington, D. C., and a copy thereof shall be served upon each of the parties. Rulings by the Trial Examiner on motions, and any orders in connection therewith, if announced at the hearing, shall be stated orally on the record; in all other cases such rulings and orders shall be issued in writing and filed with the Regional Director, who shall cause a copy of the same to be served upon each of the parties, or shall be contained in the Intermediate Report. Whenever the Trial Examiner has reserved his ruling on any motion, and the proceeding is thereafter transferring to and continued before the Board pursuant to § 203.42, the Board shall rule on such motion.

§ 203.22 Motions; rulings and orders part of record; rulings not to be appealed directly to Board without special permission. All motions, rulings, and orders shall become part of the record, except that rulings on applications for subpenas shall become a part of the record only upon the request of the party whose application has been denied, as provided in § 203.27. Unless expressly authorized by these Rules and Regulations, rulings by the Regional Director and by the Trial Examiner on motions, and by the Trial Examiner on objections, and orders in connection therewith, shall not be appealed directly to the Board except by special permission of the Board, but shall be considered by the Board in reviewing the record, if exception is taken to the rulings or order when made and included in the statement of Exceptions filed with the Board, pursuant to § 203.39.

§ 203.23 Review of granting of motion to dismiss entire complaint; reopening of record. If any motion in the nature of a motion to dismiss the complaint in its entirety is granted by the Trial Examiner, the party making the charge may obtain a review of such action by filing a request therefor with the Board in Washington, D. C., stating the grounds for review, and filing a copy of such request with the Regional Director and serving copies upon the parties. Unless such request for review is filed within ten days from the date of service of the order of dismissal, the case shall be closed. The Board may, upon motion made within a reasonable period and for good cause shown, reopen the record for further proceedings.

§ 203.24 Filing of answer or other participation in proceeding not a waiver of rights. The right to make motions or to make objection to rulings upon motions shall not be deemed waived by the filing of an answer or by other participation in the proceedings before the Trial Examiner or the Board.

INTERVENTION

§ 203.25 Intervention; requisites; rulings on motions to intervene. Any person or labor organization desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall file a motion in writing or, if made at the hearing, may move orally on the record, stating the grounds upon which such person or organization claims an interest. Prior to the hearing such motion shall be filed with the Regional Director issuing the complaint; during the hearing such motion shall be made to the Trial Examiner. An original and four copies of written motions shall be filed. Immediately upon filing such motion, the moving party shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties. The Regional Director shall rule upon all such motions filed prior to the hearing, and shall cause a copy of said ruling to be served upon each of the parties, or shall refer the motion to the Trial Examiner for ruling. The Trial Examiner shall rule upon all such motions made at the hearing or referred to him by the Regional Director, in the manner set forth in § 203.21. The Regional Director or the Trial Examiner, as the case may be, may by order permit intervention in person or by counsel or other representative to such extent and upon such terms as he may deem proper.

WITNESSES, DEPOSITIONS, AND SUBPENAS

§ 203.26 Examination of witnesses; depositions. Witnesses shall be examined orally under oath, except that for good cause shown, after the issuance of a complaint, testimony may be taken by deposition.

(a) Applications to take depositions shall be in writing setting forth the reasons why such depositions should be taken, the name and post-office address of the witness, the matters concerning which it is expected the witness will testify, and the time and place proposed for the taking of the deposition, together with the name and address of the person before whom it is desired that the deposition be taken (for the purposes of this section hereinafter referred to as the "officer"). Such application shall be made to the Regional Director prior to the hearing, and to the Trial Examiner during and subsequent to the hearing but before transfer of the case to the Board pursuant to § 203.38 or § 203.42. Such application shall be served upon the Regional Director or the Trial Examiner, as the case may be, and upon the other parties, not less than seven days (when the deposition is to be taken within the continental United States) and fifteen days (if the deposition is to be taken elsewhere) prior to the time when it is desired that the deposition be taken. The Regional Director or Trial Examiner, as the case may be, shall, upon receipt of the application, if in his discretion good cause has been shown, make and serve upon the parties an order which will specify the name of the witness whose deposition is to be taken, the time when, the place where, and shall contain a designation of the officer before whom the witness is to testify, who may or may not be the same officer as that specified in the application. Such order shall be served upon all parties by the Regional Director or the Trial Examiner.

(b) Such deposition may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, including any agent of the Board authorized to administer oaths. If the examination is held in a foreign country, it may be taken before any Secretary of Embassy or Legation, Consul General, Consul, Vice Consul, or Consular Agent of the United States.

(c) At the time and place specified in said order the officer designated to take such deposition shall permit the witness to be examined and cross-examined under oath by all the parties appearing, and his testimony shall be reduced to typewriting by the officer or under his direction. All objections to questions or evidence shall be deemed waived unless made at the examination. The officer shall not have power to rule upon any objections but he shall note them upon the deposition. The testimony shall be subscribed by the witness in the presence of the officer who shall attach his certificate stating that the witness was duly sworn by him, that the deposition is a true record of the testimony and exhibits given by the witness and that said officer is not of counsel or attorney to any of the parties nor interested in the event of the proceeding or investigation. If the deposition is not signed by the witness because he is ill, dead, cannot be found, or refuses to sign it, such fact shall be included in the certificate of the officer and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed. The officer shall immediately deliver an original and two copies of said transcript, together with his certificate, in person or by registered mail to the Regional Director or the Trial Examiner, care of the Chief Trial Examiner, Washington, D. C., as the case may be.

(d) The Trial Examiner shall rule upon the admissibility of the deposition or any part thereof.

(e) All errors or irregularities in compliance with the provisions of this section shall be deemed waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is or, with due diligence, might have been ascertained.

(f) If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person at any time or place, upon any notice and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

§ 203.27 Issuance of subpenas; requisites of application for. Any member of the Board may issue subpenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence, including books, records, correspondence, or documents that relate to any matter under investigation or in question, before the Board, its member, agent, or agency, conducting the hearing or investigation. Applications for subpenas may be filed with the Regional Director in writing by any party, including Board agents, prior to the hearing. The Regional Director may grant or deny the application or may refer it to the Trial Examiner, who may thereafter grant or deny the application. Applications for subpenas made during the hearing shall be made in writing to the Trial Examiner who may grant or deny the application. If the application is denied the denial shall be accompanied by a simple statement of procedural or other grounds. Such applications may be made ex parte, shall be timely, and shall specify the name of the witness and show the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought, and, if calling for documents, shall specify the same with such particularity as will enable them to be identified for purposes of production. The application for subpenas and ruling thereon shall not become a part of the official record except upon the request of the party whose application has been denied. Persons compelled to submit data or evidence at a public proceeding are entitled to retain or, on payment of lawfully prescribed costs, to procure copies or transcripts of the data or evidence submitted by them. Persons compelled to submit data or evidence in the nonpublic investigative stages of proceedings may for good cause by limited by the Regional Director to inspection of the official transcript of his testimony.

§ 203.28 Payment of witness fees and mileage; fees of persons taking depositions. Witnesses summoned before the Trial Examiner shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear and the person taking the deposition shall be paid by the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

HEARING

§ 203.29 Who shall conduct; to be public unless otherwise ordered. The hearing for the purpose of taking evidence upon a complaint shall be conducted by a Trial Examiner designated by the Chief Trial Examiner, unless the Board or any member thereof presides. At any time a Trial Examiner may be designated to take the place of the Trial Examiner previously designated to conduct the hearing. Such hearings shall be public unless otherwise ordered by the Board or the Trial Examiner.

§ 203.30 Duty of Trial Examiner; powers of Board counsel and Trial Examiners. It shall be the duty of the Trial Examiner to inquire fully into the facts as to whether the respondent has engaged in or is engaging in an unfair labor practice affecting commerce as set forth in the complaint or amended complaint. The Trial Examiner shall have authority, with respect to cases assigned to him, between the opening of the hearing and the issuance of the Intermediate Report (recommended decision) or transfer of the case to the Board, subject to the rules and regulations of the Board and within its powers:

(1) To administer oaths and affirmations;

(2) To grant or deny applications for subpenas authorized by law;

(3) To rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence;

(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken whenever the ends of justice would be served thereby;

(5) To regulate the course of the hearing and, if appropriate or necessary, to exclude persons or counsel from the hearing for contemptuous conduct and to strike all testimony of witnesses refusing to answer any proper question;

(6) To hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties, but not to adjust cases;

(7) To dispose of procedural requests or similar matters, including motions referred to the Trial Examiner by the Regional Director and motions to amend pleadings; also to dismiss complaints or portions thereof, and to order hearings reopened prior to issuance of Intermediate Reports;

(8) To make and transmit Intermediate Reports (recommended decisions), in conformity with section 8 of the Administrative Procedure Act;

(9) To call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence;

(10) To take any other action necessary under the foregoing and authorized by the published Rules and Regulations of the Board.

Counsel for the Board shall have power to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence.

§ 203.31 Rights of parties. Any party shall have the right to appear at such hearing in person, by counsel, or by other representative, to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce into the record documentary or other evidence.

§ 203.32 Rules of evidence not controlling. In any such proceeding the rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity shall not be controlling.

§ 203.33 Stipulations of fact admissible. In any such proceeding stipulations of fact may be introduced in evidence with respect to any issue.

§ 203.34 Objection to conduct of hearing; how made; objections not waived by further participation. Any objection with respect to the conduct of the hearing, including any objection to the introduction of evidence, may be stated orally or in writing, accompanied by a short statement of the grounds of such objection, and included in the record. No such objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing.

§ 203.35 Filing of briefs and proposed findings with the Trial Examiner and oral argument at the hearing. Any party shall be entitled, upon request, to a reasonable period at the close of the hearing for oral argument, which shall be included in the stenographic report of the hearing. Any party shall be entitled, upon request made before the close of the hearing, to file a brief or proposed findings and conclusions, or both, with the Trial Examiner who may fix a reasonable time for such filing but not in excess of fifteen days from the close of the hearing. Requests for extensions of time shall be made to the Chief Trial Examiner.

§ 203.36 Continuance and adjournment. In the discretion of the Trial Examiner, the hearing may be continued from day to day, or adjourned to a later date or to a different place, by announcement thereof at the hearing by the Trial Examiner, or by other appropriate notice. The Chief Trial Examiner may, at any time prior to the service of the Intermediate Report, upon appropriate notice to the parties, direct that the hearing be reopened.

§ 203.37 Contemptuous conduct; refusal of witness to answer questions. Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before a Trial Examiner or before the Board shall be ground for exclusion from the hearing. The refusal of a witness at any such hearing to answer any question which has been ruled to be proper shall, in the discretion of the Trial Examiner, be ground for striking out all testimony previously given by such witness on related matters.

INTERMEDIATE REPORT AND TRANSFER OF CASE TO THE BOARD

§ 203.38 Intermediate Report; contents; service; transfer of the case to the Board; contents of record in case. After a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence upon a complaint, the Trial Examiner shall prepare an Intermediate Report (recommended decision), but the initial decision shall be made by the Board. Such report shall contain (a) findings of fact, conclusions, and the reasons or basis therefor, upon all material issues of fact, law, of discretion presented on the record; and (b) recommendations as to what disposition of the case should be made, which may include, if it be found that the respondent has engaged in or is engaging in the alleged unfair labor practice, a recommendation for such affirmative action by the respondent as will effectuate the policies of the act. The Intermediate Report shall be transmitted to the Chief Trial Examiner, who shall thereupon file the original of the Intermediate Report with the Board, and cause a copy thereof to be served upon each of the parties. Upon the filing of the Intermediate Report, the Board shall enter an order transferring the case to the Board and shall serve copies of the order, setting forth the date of such transfer, upon each of the parties and the Regional Director.

The charge upon which the complaint was issued and any amendments thereto, the complaint and any amendments thereto, Notice of Hearing, answer and any amendments thereto, motions, rulings, orders, the stenographic report of the hearing, stipulations, exhibits, documentary evidence, and depositions, together with the Intermediate Report and Exceptions, shall constitute the record in the case.

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RECORD AND PROCEEDING

§ 203.39 Exceptions or supporting briefs; time for filing; where to file; service on parties; extension of time; effect of failure to include matter in exceptions. Within fifteen days from the date of service of the order transferring the case to the Board, pursuant to § 203.38, any party or counsel for the Board may file with the Board at Washington, D. C., an original and four copies of a statement in writing setting forth such exceptions to the Intermediate Report or to any other part of the record or proceeding (including rulings upon all motions or objections) as he relies upon, together with the original and four copies of a brief in support thereof; and any party or counsel for the Board may, within the same period, file an original and four copies of a brief in support of the Intermediate Report. Upon special leave of the Board any party or counsel for the Board may file a reply brief upon such terms and conditions as the Board may impose. Immediately upon the filing of the statement of exceptions or briefs, the party or counsel for the Board filing the same shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties and shall file a copy with the Regional Director. Upon proper cause shown, the Board may extend the period within which to file a statement of exceptions or brief.

No matter not included in a statement of exceptions may thereafter be objected to before the Board, and failure to file a statement of exceptions shall operate as a submission of the case to the Board on the record.

Should any party desire permission to argue orally before the Board, request therefor must be made in writing to the Board within ten days after the date of service of the order transferring the case to the Board (or in Board cases the date of service of the Intermediate Report), pursuant to § 203.38. The Board shall notify the parties of the time and place for oral argument, if such permission is granted.

§ 203.40 Filing of motion after transfer of case to Board. All motions filed after the case has been transferred to the Board, pursuant to Section 203.38, shall be filed with the Board in Washington, D. C., by transmitting an original and three copies thereof and serving additional copies upon the Regional Director and upon each of the parties.

PROCEDURE BEFORE THE BOARD

§ 203.41 Action of Board upon expiration of time to file exceptions to Intermediate Report; oral arguments before and filing of briefs with Board; action of Board where Trial Examiner finds no unfair labor practices and no exceptions filed; reopening of record. Upon the expiration of the period for filing a statement of exceptions and briefs, as provided in § 203.39, the Board may decide the matter forthwith upon the record, or after oral argument, or may reopen the record and receive further evidence before a member of the Board or other Board agent or agency, or may close the case upon compliance with the recommendations of the Intermediate Report, or may make other disposition of the case.

Where the Trial Examiner has found in his Intermediate Report that the respondent has not engaged in and is not engaging in any of the alleged unfair labor practices affecting commerce, and no Exceptions have been filed within the period for filing a statement of Exceptions as provided for in § 203.39, the case shall be closed. The Board may, upon motion made within a reasonable period and upon proper cause shown, reopen the record for further proceedings in accordance with this section.

§ 203.42 Proceedings before Board; filing charges with Board; transfer of charge and proceeding from Region to Board or to another Region; consolidation of proceedings in same Region; severance. Whenever the Board deems it necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the act, it may permit a charge to be filed with it in Washington, D. C., or may, at any time after a charge has been filed with a Regional Director pursuant to § 203.8, order that such charge and any proceeding which may have been instituted in respect thereto—

(a) Be transferred to and continued before it, for the purpose of consolidation with any other proceeding which may have been instituted by the Board, or for any other purpose; or

(b) Be consolidated for the purpose of hearing, or for any other purpose, with any other proceeding which may have been instituted in the same Region; or

(c) Be transferred to and continued in any other Region, for the purpose of consolidation with any proceeding which may have been instituted in or transferred to such other Region, or for any other purposes; or

(d) Be severed from any other proceeding with which it may have been consolidated pursuant to this section.

The provisions of §§ 203.9 to 203.37, inclusive, shall, insofar as applicable, apply to proceedings before the Board pursuant to this section, and the powers granted to Regional Directors in such provisions shall, for the purpose of this section, be reserved to and exercised by the Board. After the transfer of any charge and any proceeding which may have been instituted in respect thereto from one Region to another pursuant to this section, the provisions of §§ 203.9 to 203.41, inclusive, shall apply to such charge and such proceeding as if the charge had originally been filed in the Region to which the transfer is made.

§ 203.43 Procedure before Board in cases over which it has assumed jurisdiction. After a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence upon the complaint in any proceeding over which the Board has assumed jurisdiction in accordance with § 203.42, the Board may—

(a) Direct that the Trial Examiner prepare an Intermediate Report, in which case the provisions of §§ 203.38 to 203.41, inclusive, shall insofar as applicable govern subsequent procedure, and the powers granted to Regional Directors in such provisions shall for the purpose of this section be reserved to and exercised by the Board; or

(b) Reopen the record and receive further evidence before a member of the Board, or other agent or agency; or

(c) Make other disposition of the case.

Within fifteen days from the date of service of the Intermediate Report pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, any party or counsel for the Board may file with the Board at Washington, D. C., an original and four copies of a statement in writing setting forth such exceptions to the Intermediate Report, or to any other part of the record or proceeding (including rulings upon all motions or objections) as he relies upon, together with the original and four copies of a brief in support thereof, and any party or counsel for the Board may, within the same period, file an original and four copies of a brief in support of the Intermediate Report. Immediately upon the filing of the statement of exceptions or briefs, the party or counsel for the Board filing the same shall serve copies upon the Regional Director and the other parties. Upon proper cause shown, the Board may extend the period within which to file a statement of exceptions or brief.

Should any party desire permission to argue orally before the Board, request therefor must be made in writing to the Board within ten days after the date of service of the Intermediate Report. The Board shall notify the parties of the time and place for the oral argument, if such permission is granted. Thereafter the Board shall forthwith decide the matter or make other disposition of the case.

§ 203.44 Modification or setting aside of order of Board before record filed in court; action thereafter. Until a transcript of the record in a case shall have been filed in a court, within the meaning of section 10 of the act, the Board may at any time upon reasonable notice modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any findings of fact, conclusions of law, or order made or issued by it. Thereafter the Board may proceed pursuant to §§ 203.42 or 203.43, or make any other disposition of the case.

§ 203.45 Settlement or adjustment of issues. At any stage or proceedings prior to hearing, where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit, all interested parties shall have opportunity for the submission to the Regional Director with whom the charge was filed, and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement, or proposals of adjustment.

SUBPART C—PROCEDURE UNDER SECTION 9 (C) OF THE ACT FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

§ 203.46 Petition for certification; where to file; withdrawal. A petition to investigate and certify under section 9 (c) of the act the name or names of representatives designated or selected for the purpose of collective bargaining may be filed by an employee or any person or labor organization acting on behalf of employees, or by an employer. Such petition shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to before any notary public, Board agent, or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths or take acknowledgements. Three copies of the petition shall be filed. Except as provided in § 203.58, such petitions shall be filed with the Regional Director for the Region wherein the contemplated bargaining unit exists, or, if the contemplated bargaining unit exists in two or more Regions, with the Regional Director for any of such Regions. Prior to the transfer of the case to the Board, pursuant to § 203.53, the petition may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Board or of the Regional Director with whom such petition was filed. After such transfer, a petition may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Board. Whenever the Board or Regional Director approve the withdrawal of any petition the case shall be closed.

§ 203.47 Contents of petition. (a) Such petition, when filed by an employee or any person or labor organization acting on behalf of employees, shall contain the following:

(1) The name of the employer.

(2) The addresses of the establishments involved.

(3) The general nature of the employer's business.

(4) A description of the bargaining unit which the petitioner claims to be appropriate.

(5) The number of employees in the alleged appropriate unit.

(6) The names and addresses of any other persons or labor organizations who claim to represent any employees in the alleged appropriate unit.

(7) The nature of the alleged question concerning representation.

[2] Blank forms for filing such petitions will be supplied by the Regional Office upon request.

(8) The name, affiliation, if any, and address of the petitioner.

(9) Any other relevant facts.

(b) Such petition, when filed by an employer, shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the petitioner.

(2) The general nature of the petitioner's business.

(3) A brief statement setting forth that a question or controversy affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the petitioner in that two or more persons or labor organizations have presented to the petitioner conflicting claims that each represents a majority of the employees in the unit or units claimed to be appropriate.

(4) The names, affiliation, if any, and addresses of the persons or labor organizations making such claims of representation.

(5) A statement whether the petitioner has contracts with any of the competing labor organizations, and, if so, their expiration dates.

(6) Any other relevant facts.

§ 203.48 Consent election agreements; consent cross-check agreements; hearings waived by stipulation. (a) Where a petition has been filed the employer and any individuals or labor organizations representing a substantial number of employees involved may, with the approval of the Regional Director, enter into a consent election agreement or consent cross-check agreement leading to a determination by the Regional Director of the facts ascertained after such consent election or cross-check. Such agreement shall include a description of the appropriate unit, the time and place of holding any election, and the payroll to be used in determining what employees within the appropriate unit shall be eligible to vote or be counted. Such consent election or consent cross-check shall be conducted under the direction and supervision of the Regional Director. The method of conducting such consent cross-check shall be set forth in the consent cross-check agreement. The rulings of the Regional Director on all matters in question under the cross-check, and the determination by the Regional Director of the results of the cross-check shall be final. The method of conducting such consent election shall be consistent with the method followed by the Regional Director in conducting elections pursuant to §§ 203.55 and 203.56, except that the rulings and the determination by the Regional Director of the results thereof shall be final.

(b) Where a petition has been filed, the employer and any individuals or labor organizations representing a substantial number of the employees involved may, with the approval of the Regional Director, enter into an agreement providing for a waiver of hearing and a consent election leading to certification by the Board of representatives, if any, designated or selected. Such agreement shall also include a description of the appropriate bargaining unit, the time and place of holding the election, and the payroll to be used in determining which employees within the appropriate unit shall be eligible to vote. The method of conducting such election and the post-election procedure shall be consistent with that followed by the Regional Director in conducting elections pursuant to §§ 203.55 and 203.56.

§ 203.49 Investigation of petition by Regional Director; notice of hearing; service of notice; withdrawal of notice. After a petition has been filed, if no agreement such as that provided in § 203.48 is entered into and if it appears to the Regional Director that the policies of the act will be effectuated and that (if the petition is filed by a labor organization), there is a reasonable probability that an investigation will result in a free choice by employees of a bona fide representative, he shall institute such investigation: Provided, however, That the Regional Director shall not institute an investigation on a petition filed by an employer unless it appears to the Regional Director that two or more persons or labor organizations have presented to the employer conflicting claims that each represents a majority of the employees in the bargaining unit or units claimed to be appropriate.[3] The Regional Director shall prepare and cause to be served upon the employer and upon any known persons or labor organizations purporting to act as representatives of any employees directly affected by the investigation (all of whom shall thereupon become parties to the proceeding), and upon any employee or other person or labor organization who has filed a pending motion to intervene, a notice of hearing before a hearing officer at a time and place fixed therein. A copy of the petition shall be served with such notice of hearing. Any such notice of hearing may be amended or withdrawn before the hearing by the Regional Director on his own motion.

§ 203.50 Conduct of hearing. (a) Hearings shall be conducted by a hearing officer, and shall be open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the hearing officer. At any time a hearing officer may be substituted for the hearing officer previously presiding. It shall be the duty of the hearing officer to inquire fully into all matters in issue and necessary to obtain a full and complete record upon which the Board may discharge its duties under section 9 of the act.

(b) The hearing officer may, in his discretion, continue the hearing from day to day, or adjourn it to a later date or to a different place, by announcement thereof at the hearing, or by other appropriate notice. The Regional Director who issued the notice of hearing may, at any time prior to the transfer of the case to the Board, upon appropriate notice to the parties, direct that the hearing be reopened.

§ 203.51 Motions; interventions. (a) All motions, including motions for intervention pursuant to subsection (b) hereof, shall be in writing or, if made at the hearing, may be stated orally on the record, and shall briefly state the order or relief sought and the grounds for such motion. An original and four copies of written motions shall be filed and at the time of filing, a further copy thereof shall be served upon each of the parties to the proceeding. Prior to transfer of the case to the Board, written motions shall be filed with the Regional Director before whom the proceeding is pending, except that motions filed during the hearing shall be filed with the hearing officer. After transfer of the case to the Board, all motions shall be filed with the Board. The Regional Director may rule upon all motions filed with him, causing a copy of said ruling to be served upon each of the parties, or he may refer the motion to the hearing officer for ruling, except that all motions to dismiss petitions shall be referred to the Board for appropriate action. The hearing officer shall rule, either orally on the record or in writing, upon all motions filed at the hearing or referred to him as hereinabove provided, except that he shall refer to the Board for appropriate action all motions to dismiss petitions, at such time as the Board considers the entire record.

(b) Any employer, employee, other person, or labor organization desiring to intervene in any proceeding shall make a motion for intervention, stating the grounds upon which such person or organization claims to have an interest in the proceeding. The Regional Director or the hearing officer, as the case may be, may by order permit intervention in person or by counsel or other representative to such extent and upon such terms as he may deem proper, and such intervenor shall thereupon become a party to the proceeding.

(c) All motions, rulings and orders shall become a part of the record, except that rulings on applications for subpenas shall become a part of the record only upon the request of the party whose application has been denied, as provided in § 203.52 (c). Unless expressly authorized by these Rules and Regulations, rulings by the Regional Director and by the hearing officer shall not be appealed directly to the Board except by special permission of the Board, but shall be considered by the Board in reviewing the record after the case has been transferred to the Board.

(d) The right to make motions or to make objections to rulings on motions shall not be deemed waived by participation in the proceedings.

§ 203.52 Introduction of evidence; rights of parties at hearing. (a) Any party shall have the right to appear at any hearing in person, by counsel, or by other representative, and any party, counsel for the Board and the hearing officer shall have power to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce into the record documentary and other evidence. Witnesses shall be examined orally under oath. The rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity shall not be controlling. Stipulations of fact may be introduced in evidence with respect to any issue.

[3] At any stage of the investigation, either before hearing or after the hearing but before transfer of the case to the Board, the Regional Director may in cases which present no substantial issues, conduct a secret ballot of the employees, or he may decline to continue the investigation.

(b) Any objection with respect to the conduct of the hearing, including any objection to the introduction of evidence, may be stated orally or in writing, accompanied by a short statement of the grounds of such objection, and included in the record. No such objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing.

(c) Prior to the hearing, application for subpenas may be filed in writing by any party, including Board agents, with the Regional Director. The Regional Director may grant or deny the application, or may refer it to the hearing officer who may thereafter grant or deny the application. During the hearing applications for subpenas shall be made in writing to the hearing officer, who may grant or deny the application. If any application is denied the denial shall be accompanied by a simple statement of procedural or other grounds. Such applications may be made ex parte shall be timely, and shall specify the name of the witness and show the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought, and, if calling for documents, shall specify the same with such particularity as will enable them to be identified for the purposes of production. The application for subpenas and ruling thereon shall not become a part of the record except upon the request of the party whose application has been denied. Persons compelled to submit data or evidence are entitled to retain or, on payment of lawfully prescribed costs, to procure copies of transcripts of the data or evidence submitted by them.

(d) Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before a hearing officer or before the Board shall be ground for exclusion from the hearing. The refusal of a witness at any such hearing to answer any question which has been ruled to be proper shall, in the discretion of the hearing officer, be ground for striking out all testimony previously given by such witness on related matters.

(e) Any party shall be entitled, upon request, to a reasonable period at the close of the hearing, for oral argument, which shall be included in the stenographic report of the hearing.

(f) Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witness appears.

§ 203.53 Record; what constitutes; transmission to Board. At any appropriate stage of the investigation following the hearings, the Regional Director may transfer the case to the Board and shall thereupon forward to the Board in Washington, D. C., the petition, notice of hearing, motions, rulings, orders, the stenographic report of the hearing, stipulations, exhibits, documentary evidence, and depositions, all of which shall constitute the record in the proceeding.

§ 203.54 Proceedings before the Board; further hearing; briefs; Board direction of election; certification of representatives. Upon transfer of the proceeding to the Board, the Board shall proceed, either forthwith upon the record, or after oral argument or the submission of briefs, or further hearing, as it may determine, to certify to the parties the name or names of the representatives that have been designated or selected, or to direct a secret ballot of the employees in order to complete the investigation, or to make other disposition of the matter. Should any party desire to file a brief with the Board, the original and three copies thereof shall be filed with the Board at Washington, D. C., within seven days after Notice of Transfer of the case to the Board. Immediately upon such filing, the party filing the same shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties. No reply brief may be filed except upon special leave of the Board.

§ 203.55 Election procedure; tally of the ballots; objections; report on challenged ballots; report on objections; exceptions; action of the Board; hearing. Unless otherwise directed by the Board, all elections shall be conducted under the supervision of the Regional Director in whose Region the proceeding is pending. All elections shall be by secret ballot. Any party may be represented by observers of his own selection, subject to such limitations as the Regional Director may prescribe. Any party and Board agent may challenge for good cause the eligibility of any person to participate in the election. The ballots of such challenged persons shall be impounded. Upon the conclusion of the election, the designated agent shall cause to be furnished to the parties a Tally of the Ballots. Within five (5) days thereafter any party may file with the designated agent an original and three copies of objections to the conduct of the election or conduct affecting the results of the election. The objections shall contain a short statement of the reasons therefor. Copies thereof shall be served upon each of the other parties by the party filing such objections.

If no such objections are filed within five (5) days after the conclusion of the election, and if the challenged ballots are insufficient in number to affect the result of the election, the designated agent shall, if no run-off election is to be held pursuant to § 203.56, forthwith forward to the Board in Washington, D. C., the Tally of the Ballots which, together with the record previously made, shall constitute the record in the case, and the Board may thereupon decide the matter forthwith upon the record, or may make other disposition of the case.[1]

If objections are filed to the conduct of the election or conduct affecting the results of the election or if the challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the result of the election, the designated agent shall investigate the issues raised by such objections, challenges, or both, and shall prepare and cause to be served upon the parties a report on challenged ballots, objections, or both, including his recommendations, which report, together with the tally of the ballots, he shall forward to the Board in Washington, D. C. Within five (5) days from the date of service of the report on challenged ballots, objections, or both, the parties may file with the Board in Washington, D. C., an original and three copies of exceptions to such report. Immediately upon the filing of such exceptions, the party filing the same shall serve a copy thereof upon each of the other parties, and shall file a copy with the designated agent. If no exceptions are filed to such report the Board, upon the expiration of the period for filing such exceptions, may decide the matter forthwith upon the record, or may make other disposition of the case.

The report on challenged ballots shall be consolidated with the report on objections in appropriate cases.

If exceptions are duly filed, either to the report on challenged ballots, objections, or both if it be a consolidated report, or to conduct affecting the results of the election, and it appears to the Board that such exceptions do not raise substantial and material issues with respect to the conduct or results of the election, the Board may decide the matter forthwith upon the record, or may make other disposition of the case. If it appears to the Board that such exceptions raise substantial and material issues, the Board may direct the designated agent or other agent of the Board to issue, and cause to be served upon the parties, a notice of hearing on said exceptions before a hearing officer. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of §§ 203.50, 203.51, and 203.52, insofar as applicable. Upon the close of the hearing, the agent conducting the hearing shall forward to the Board in Washington, D. C., the notice of hearing, motions, rulings, orders, stenographic report of the hearing, stipulations, exceptions, documentary evidence, all of which, together with the objection to the conduct of the election on conduct affecting the results of the election, the report on such objections, the report on challenged ballots, and exceptions to the report on objections or to the report on challenged ballots, and the record previously made, shall constitute the record in the case. The Board shall thereupon proceed pursuant to § 203.54.

§ 203.56 Run-off elections. (a) The agent designated pursuant to the provisions of § 203.55 to conduct the election, shall conduct a run-off election, without further order of the Board, when the results in the election are inconclusive because no choice on the ballot in the election received a majority of the valid ballots cast and when no objections are filed as provided in § 203.55: Provided, That a written request by any representative entitled to appear on the run-off ballot pursuant to this section is submitted to him within ten (10) days after the date of the election. Only one run-off election shall be held pursuant to this section.

[1] This and the subsequent provisions of this section do not apply to elections conducted by the Regional Director as part of the investigation before hearing (see footnote 3). In such instances, the Regional Director, following the election, shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice to all parties, unless it appears to him that the investigation should not be continued; and all issues, including issues with respect to the conduct of the election or conduct affecting the election results and issues raised by challenged ballots, shall be heard at such hearing.

(b) Employees who were eligible to vote in the election and who are employed in an eligible category on the date of the run-off election shall be eligible to vote in a run-off election.

(c) The ballot in the run-off election shall provide for a selection between the two choices that receive the largest and the second largest number of valid votes cast in the election, except as provided in this paragraph or otherwise directed by the Board.

(1) In the event the number of votes cast for "neither" in an inconclusive election in which the ballot provided for a choice among two representatives and "neither" is less than the number cast for one representative, but more than or equal to the number cast for the other representative, or if the votes are equally divided among the three choices, the run-off ballot shall provide for a choice between the two representatives.

(2) In the event the number of votes cast for "neither" in an inconclusive election in which the ballot provided for a choice among two representatives and "neither" is more than the number cast for either of the two representatives but the votes cast for the two representatives are tied and the combined number of votes cast for the two representatives is equal to or exceeds 50 percent of the total valid votes cast, the run-off ballot shall provide for a selection between the three choices afforded in the original ballot.

(3) In the event the number of votes cast for "none" in an inconclusive election, in which the ballot provided for a choice among three or more representatives and "none", is equal to the number cast for the representative with the largest number of votes, or is less than the number cast for the representative with the largest number of votes but more than or the same as the number cast for the representative with the second largest number of votes as among representatives, or is the same as the number cast for each of the two highest representatives, the run-off ballot shall provide for a choice between the two representatives.

(4) In the event the number of votes cast for "none" in an inconclusive election, in which the ballot provided for a choice among three or more representatives and "none," is less than the number cast for the representative with the largest number of votes and more than the number cast for any other representative but an equal number of votes is cast for each of two or more such other representatives, the run-off ballot shall provide for a choice among the three or more representatives, provided, however, that in the event such run-off election is inconclusive no further run-off shall be conducted.

(5) No representative shall be accorded a place on the run-off ballot unless that representative received at least twenty percent of the valid votes cast in the election.

(d) Upon the conclusion of the run-off election, the agent who conducted the run-off election, the parties, and the Board shall proceed pursuant to § 203.55, insofar as applicable.

§ 203.57 Refusal to institute investigation; termination of investigation; appeals to Board from action of the Regional Director. (a) If, after a petition has been filed, it shall appear to the Regional Director that no investigation should be made, the Regional Director may decline to institute such investigation, and close the case. If, after an investigation has been instituted pursuant to § 203.49, it shall appear to the Regional Director that further investigation should not be made, he may terminate the investigation and close the case at any time prior to issuance of an order transferring the case to the Board.

(b) If the Regional Director closes a case, pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof, he shall so advise the petitioner in writing, accompanied by a simple statement of the procedural or other grounds. The petitioner may obtain a review of such action by filing a request therefor with the Board in Washington, D. C., and filing a copy of such request with the Regional Director, within ten (10) days of notification of the close of the case. The request shall contain a complete statement setting forth the facts and reasons upon which the request is based.

§ 203.58 Proceedings before Board; filing petition with Board; investigation upon motion of Board; transfer of petition and proceeding from Region to Board or to another Region; consolidation of proceedings in same Region; severance; procedure before Board in cases over which it has assumed jurisdiction.—Whenever the Board deems it necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the act, it may—

(a) Permit a petition requesting an investigation and certification to be filed with it, and may upon the filing of such petition proceed to conduct an investigation under section 9 (c) of the act, or direct a Regional Director, or other agent or agency to conduct such an investigation; or

(b) Upon its own motion conduct, or direct any member, Regional Director, or other agent or agency to conduct an investigation under section 9 (c) of the act; or

(c) At any time after a petition has been filed with a Regional Director pursuant to § 203.46, order that such petition and any proceeding which may have been instituted in respect thereto—

(1) Be transferred to and continued before it, for the purpose of consolidation with any proceeding which may have been instituted by the Board, or for any other purpose; or

(2) Be consolidated, for the purpose of hearing, or for any other purpose, with any other proceeding which may have been instituted in the same Region; or

(3) Be transferred to and continued in any other Region, for the purpose of consolidation with any proceeding which may have been instituted in such other Region, or for any other purpose; or

(4) Be severed from any other proceeding with which it may have been consolidated.

The provisions of this subpart shall insofar as applicable, apply to proceedings conducted pursuant to subsections (a), (b), and (c) (1) of this section, and the powers granted to the Regional Director in such provisions shall for the purpose of this section be reserved to and exercised by the Board, or by the Regional Director, or other agent or agency directed to conduct the investigation. After the transfer of any petition and any proceeding which may have been instituted in respect thereto from one region to another pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of this section, the provisions of this subpart shall apply to such proceedings as if the petition had originally been filed in the region to which the transfer is made.

SUBPART D—DESIGNATION OF REGIONAL DIRECTORS, EXAMINERS, AND ATTORNEYS AS AGENTS OF THE BOARD

§ 203.59 Powers and duties of Regional Directors. All Regional Directors now or hereafter in the employ of the Board are herewith designated by the Board as its agents:

(a) To prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board, in accordance with section 5 of the act.

(b) To investigate concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees) and conduct hearings in connection with such investigations, in accordance with section 9 (c) of the act.

(c) To issue, cause to be served, and amend complaints, in accordance with section 10 (b) of the act.

(d) To have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, and to receive evidence, in accordance with section 11 (1) of the act.

§ 203.60 Powers and duties of Field Examiners. All Field Examiners now or hereafter in the employ of the Board are herewith designated by the Board as its agents:

(a) To prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board, in accordance with section 5 of the act.

(b) To investigate concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees) and conduct hearings in connection with such investigation, in accordance with section 9 (c) of the act.

(c) To have access to and the right to copy evidence, and to administer oaths and affirmations, in accordance with section 11 (1) of the act.

§ 203.61 Powers and duties of attorneys. All attorneys now or hereafter in the employ of the Board are herewith designated by the Board as its agents:

(a) To prosecute any inquiry necessary to the functions of the Board, in accordance with section 5 of the act.

(b) To investigate concerning the representation of employees (including the taking of secret ballots of employees) and conduct hearings in connection with such investigation, in accordance with section 9 (c) of the act.

(c) To have access to and the right to copy evidence, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, and to receive evidence, in accordance with section 11 (1) of the act.

§ 203.62 Special designation of agents. The foregoing designations shall not be construed to limit the power of the Board to make such special designation of agents as may in its discretion be necessary or proper to effectuate the purposes of the act.

SUBPART E—SERVICE OF PAPERS

§ 203.63 Service of process and papers; proof of service. Complaints, orders, and other process and papers of the Board, its member, agent, or agency, may be served personally or by registered mail or by telegraph or by leaving a copy thereof at the principal office or place of business of the person required to be served. The verified return by the individual so serving the same, setting forth the manner of such service, shall be proof of the same, and the return post-office receipt or telegraph receipt therefor when registered and mailed or telegraphed as aforesaid shall be proof of service of the same.

§ 203.64 Same; by parties; proof of service. Service of papers by a party on other parties shall be made by registered mail or in any manner provided for the service of papers in a civil action by the law of the State in which the hearing is pending. When service is made by registered mail, the return post-office receipt shall be proof of service. When service is made in any manner provided by such law, proof of service shall be made in accordance with such law.

§ 203.65 Filing of proof of service. The person or party serving the papers or process on other parties in conformance with §§ 203.63 and 203.64 shall make proof of service thereof to the Board promptly and in any event within the time during which the parties are required to be served. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

§ 203.66 Time; additional time after service by mail. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run, is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event, the period runs until the end of the next day, which is neither a Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven (7) days, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after service of a notice or other paper upon him, and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

SUBPART F—CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE OF DOCUMENTS

§ 203.67 Certification of papers and documents. The Chief of the Order Section, or in the event of his absence or disability whosoever may be designated by the Board in his place and stead, shall certify copies of all papers and documents which are a part of any of the files or records of the Board as may be necessary or desirable from time to time.

§ 203.68 Signatures of orders and complaints. The Chief of the Order Section, or in the event of his absence or disability whosoever may be designated by the Board in his place and stead, is hereby authorized to sign all orders of the Board, and sign and issue all complaints authorized to be issued by the Board.

SUBPART G—RECORDS AND INFORMATION

§ 203.69 Files, records, etc. in exclusive custody of Board and not subject to inspection; formal documents and final opinions and orders subject to inspection. The formal documents described as the record in the case or proceeding and defined in §§ 203.38, 203.53, and 203.55 of these rules and regulations are matters of official records, and are available to inspection and examination by persons properly and directly concerned, during usual business hours, at the appropriate Regional Office of the Board or in Washington, D. C., as the case may be. True and correct copies thereof will be certified upon submission of such copies a reasonable time in advance of need and payment of lawfully prescribed costs; provided, however, that if the Board or the Regional Director with whom the documents are filed shall find in a particular instance good cause why a matter of official record should be kept confidential, such matter shall not be available for public inspection or examination. Application for such inspection, if desired to be made at the Board's offices in Washington, D. C., shall be made to the Chief of the Order Section, and if desired to be made at any Regional Office, shall be made to the Regional Director. The Chief of the Order Section or the Regional Director may, in his discretion, require that the application be made in writing and under oath and set forth the facts upon which the applicant relies to show that he is properly and directly concerned with such inspection and examination. Should the Chief of the Order Section or the Regional Director, as the case may be, deny any such application, he shall give prompt notice thereof, accompanied by a simple statement of procedural or other grounds.

All final opinions or orders of the Board in the adjudication of cases (except those required for good cause to be held confidential and not cited as precedents) and its rules and regulations are available to public inspection during regular business hours at the Board's offices in Washington, D. C. Copies may be obtained upon request made to any Regional Office of the Board at its address as published in the Federal Register, or to the Director of Information in Washington. Subject to the provisions of §§ 203.27 and 203.52 (c) of these rules and regulations, all files, documents, reports, memoranda, and records pertaining to the internal management of the Board or to the investigation or disposition of charges or petitions during the nonpublic investigative stages of proceedings and before the institution of formal proceedings, and all matters of evidence obtained by the Board or any of its agents in the course of investigation, which have not been offered in evidence at a hearing before a Trial Examiner or hearing officer or have not been made part of an official record by stipulation, whether in the Regional Offices of the Board or in its principal office in the District of Columbia, are for good cause found by the Board held confidential and are not matters of official record or available to public inspection, unless permitted by the Board, its Chairman, or any Regional Director.

§ 203.70 Same; Board employees prohibited from producing files, records, etc., pursuant to subpena duces tecum, prohibited from testifying in regard thereto. No Regional Director, Field Examiner, Trial Examiner, attorney, specially designated agent, member of the Board or other officer or employee of the Board shall produce or present any files, documents, reports, memoranda or records of the Board or testify in behalf of any party to any cause pending in any court or before any Board, Commission, or other administrative agency of the United States or of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia with respect to any information, facts, or other matter coming to his knowledge in his official capacity or with respect to the contents of any files, documents, reports, memoranda, or records of the Board, whether in answer to a subpena, subpena duces tecum or otherwise, without the written consent of the Board or the Chairman of the Board. Whenever any subpena or subpena duces tecum calling for records or testimony as described hereinabove shall have been served upon any such persons or other officer or employee of the Board, he will, unless otherwise expressly directed by the Board or the Chairman of the Board, appear in answer thereto and respectfully decline by reason of this Rule to produce or present such files, documents, reports, memoranda, or records of the Board or give such testimony.

SUBPART H—PRACTICE BEFORE THE BOARD OF FORMER EMPLOYEES

§ 203.71 Prohibition of practice before Board of its former Regional employees in cases pending in Region during employment. No person who has been an employee of the Board and attached to any of its Regional Offices shall engage in practice before the Board or its agents in any respect or in any capacity in connection with any case or proceeding which was pending in any Regional Office to which he was attached during the time of his employment with the Board.

§ 203.72 Same; application to former employees of Washington staff. No person who has been an employee of the Board and attached to the Washington staff shall engage in practice before the Board or its agents in any respect or in any capacity in connection with any case or proceeding pending before the Board or any Regional Offices during the time of his employment with the Board.

SUBPART I—CONSTRUCTION OF RULES

§ 203.73 Rules to be liberally construed. These rules and regulations shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions of the act.

SUBPART J—ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, AND IMMUNITIES GRANTED OR GUARANTEED UNDER SECTION 222 (F), COMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED, TO EMPLOYEES OF MERGED TELEGRAPH CARRIERS

§ 203.74 Enforcement of rights, privileges and immunities granted or guaranteed under section 222 (f) Communications Act of 1934, as amended. All matters relating to the enforcement of rights, privileges, or immunities granted or guaranteed under section 222 (f) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, shall be governed by the provisions of Subparts A, B, D, E, F, G, H, I, and K of these Rules and Regulations, insofar as applicable, except that reference in Subpart B to "unfair labor practices" or "unfair labor practices affecting commerce" shall for the purposes of this Article mean the denial of any rights, privileges, or immunities granted or guaranteed under section 222 (f) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

SUBPART K—AMENDMENTS

§ 203.75 Amendment or rescission of rules. Any rule or regulation may be amended or rescinded by the Board at any time.

§ 203.76 Petitions for issuance, amendment or repeal of rules. Any interested person may petition the Board, in writing, for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule or regulation. An original and three copies of such petition shall be filed with the Board in Washington, D. C., and shall state the rule or regulation proposed to be issued, amended or repealed, together with a statement of grounds in support of such petition.

§ 203.77 Action on petition. Upon the filing of such petition, the Board shall consider the same, and may thereupon either grant or deny the petition in whole or in part, conduct an appropriate hearing thereon, or make other disposition of the petition. Should the petition be denied in whole or in part, prompt notice shall be given of the denial, accompanied by a simple statement of the grounds unless the denial is self-explanatory.

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS ACT

(49 Stat. 449)

AN ACT To diminish the causes of labor disputes burdening or obstructing interstate and foreign commerce, to create a National Labor Relations Board, and for other purposes

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled,

FINDINGS AND POLICY

SECTION 1. The denial by employers of the right of employees to organize and the refusal by employers to accept the procedure of collective bargaining lead to strikes and other forms of industrial strife or unrest, which have the intent or the necessary effect of burdening or obstructing commerce by (a) impairing the efficiency, safety, or operation of the instrumentalities of commerce; (b) occurring in the current of commerce; (c) materially affecting, restraining, or controlling the flow of raw materials or manufactured or processed goods from or into the channels of commerce, or the prices of such materials or goods in commerce; or (d) causing diminution of employment and wages in such volume as substantially to impair or disrupt the market for goods flowing from or into the channels of commerce.

The inequality of bargaining power between employees who do not possess full freedom of association or actual liberty of contact and employers who are organized in the corporate or other forms of ownership association substantially burdens and affects the flow of commerce, and tends to aggravate recurrent business depressions, by depressing wage rates and the purchasing power of wage earners in industry and by preventing the stabilization of competitive wage rates and working conditions within and between industries.

Experience has proved that protection by law of the right of employees to organize and bargain collectively safeguards commerce from injury, impairment, or interruption, and promotes the flow of commerce by removing certain recognized sources of industrial strife and unrest, by encouraging practices fundamental to the friendly adjustment of industrial disputes arising out of differences as to wages, hours, or other working conditions, and by restoring equality of bargaining power between employers and employees.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to eliminate the cause of certain substantial obstructions to the free flow of commerce and to mitigate and eliminate these obstructions when they have occurred by encouraging the practice and procedure of collective bargaining and by protecting the exercise by workers of full freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of representatives of their own choosing, for the purpose of negotiating the terms and conditions of their employment or other mutual aid or protection.

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 2. When used in this act:

(1) The term "person" includes one or more individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.

(2) The term "employer" includes any person acting in the interest of an employer, directly or indirectly, but shall not include the United States, or any State or political subdivision thereof, or any person subject to the Railway Labor Act, as amended from time to time, or any labor organization (other than when acting as an employer), or anyone acting in the capacity of officer or agent of such labor organization.

(3) The term "employee" shall include any employee, and shall not be limited to the employees of a particular employer, unless the Act explicitly states otherwise, and shall include any individual whose work has ceased as a consequence of, or in connection with any current labor dispute or because of any unfair labor practice, and who has not obtained any other regular and substantially equivalent employment, but shall not include any individual employed as an agricultural laborer, or in the domestic service of any family or person at his home, or any individual employed by his parent or spouse.

(4) The term "representatives" includes any individual or labor organization.

(5) The term "labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or any agency or employee representation committee or plan, in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

(6) The term "commerce" means trade, traffic, commerce, transportation, or communication among the several States, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State or Territory, or between any foreign country and any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory, or between points in the same State but through any other State or any Territory or the District of Columbia or any foreign country.

(7) The term "affecting commerce" means in commerce, or burdening or obstructing commerce or the free flow of commerce, or having led or tending to lead to a labor dispute burdening or obstructing commerce or the free flow of commerce.

(8) The term "unfair labor practice" means any unfair labor practice listed in section 8.

(9) The term "labor dispute" includes any controversy concerning terms, tenure, or conditions of employment, or concerning the association or representation of persons in negotiating, fixing, maintaining, changing, or seeking to arrange terms or conditions of employment, regardless of whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employer and employee.

(10) The term "National Labor Relations Board" means the National Labor Relations Board created by section 3 of this Act.

(11) The term "old Board" means the National Labor Relations Board established by Executive Order Numbered 6763 of the President on June 29, 1934, pursuant to Public Resolution Numbered 44, approved June 19, 1934 (48 Stat. 1183), and reestablished and continued by Executive Order Numbered 7074 of the President of June 15, 1935, pursuant to Title I of the National Industrial Recovery Act (48 Stat. 195) as amended and continued by Senate Joint Resolution 133 [1] approved June 14, 1935.

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

SEC. 3 (a) There is hereby created a board, to be known as the "National Labor Relations Board" (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"), which shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of three years, and one for a term of five years, but their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any individual chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he shall succeed. The President shall designate one member to serve as the chairman of the Board. Any member of the Board may be removed by the President, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause.

(b) A vacancy in the Board shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the Board, and two members of the Board shall, at all times, constitute a quorum. The Board shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed.

(c) The Board shall at the close of each fiscal year make a report in writing to Congress and to the President stating in detail the cases it has heard, the decisions it has rendered, the names, salaries, and duties of all employees and officers in the employ or under the supervision of the Board, and an account of all moneys it has disbursed.

SEC. 4 (a) Each member of the Board shall receive a salary of $10,000 a year, shall be eligible for reappointment, and shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment. The Board shall appoint, without regard for the provisions of the civil-service laws but subject to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, an executive secretary, and such attorneys, examiners, and regional directors, and shall appoint such other employees with regard to existing laws applicable to the employment and compensation of officers and employees of the United States, as it may from time to time find necessary for the proper performance of its duties and as may be from time to time appropriated for by Congress. The Board may establish or utilize such regional, local, or other agencies, and utilize such voluntary and uncompensated services, as may from time to time be needed. Attorneys appointed under this section may, at the direction of the Board, appear for and represent the Board in any case in court. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the Board to appoint individuals for the purpose of conciliation or mediation (or for statistical work), where such service may be obtained from the Department of Labor.

(b) Upon the appointment of the three original members of the Board and the designation of its chairman, the old Board shall cease to exist. All employees of the old Board shall be transferred to and become employees of the Board with salaries under the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, without acquiring by such transfer a permanent or civil-service status. All records, papers, and property of the old Board shall become records, papers, and property of the Board, and all unexpended funds and appropriations for the use and maintenance of the old Board shall become funds and appropriations available to be expended by the Board in the exercise of the powers, authority, and duties conferred on it by this Act.

(c) All of the expenses of the Board, including all necessary traveling and subsistence expenses outside the District of Columbia incurred by the members or employees of the Board under its orders, shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the Board or by any individual it designates for that purpose.

SEC. 5. The principal office of the Board shall be in the District of Columbia, but it may meet and exercise any or all of its powers at any other place. The Board may, by one or more of its members or by such agents or agencies as it may designate, prosecute any inquiry necessary to its functions in any part of the United States. A member who participates in such an inquiry shall not be disqualified from subsequently participating in a decision of the Board in the same case.

SEC. 6. (a) The Board shall have authority from time to time to make, amend, and rescind such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon publication in the manner which the Board shall prescribe.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES

SEC. 7. Employees shall have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in concerted activities, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

SEC. 8. It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer—

(1) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in section 7.

(2) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any labor organization or contribute financial or other support to it: Provided, That subject to rules and regulations made and published by the Board pursuant to section 6 (a), an employer shall not be prohibited from permitting employees to confer with him during working hours without loss of time or pay.

(3) By discrimination in regard to hire or tenure of employment or any term or condition of employment to encourage or discourage membership in any labor organization: Provided, That nothing in this act, or in the National Industrial Recovery Act (U. S. C., Supp. VII, title 15, secs. 701-712), as amended from time to time, or in any code or agreement approved or prescribed thereunder, or in any other statute of the United States, shall preclude an employer from making an agreement with a labor organization (not established, maintained, or assisted by any action defined in this Act as an unfair labor practice) to require, as a condition of employment, membership therein, if such labor organization is the representative of the employees as provided in section 9 (a), in the appropriate collective bargaining unit covered by such agreement when made.

(4) To discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because he has filed charges or given testimony under this Act.

(5) To refuse to bargain collectively with the representatives of his employees, subject to the provisions of section 9 (a).

REPRESENTATIVES AND ELECTIONS

SEC. 9. (a) Representatives designated or selected for the purposes of collective bargaining by the majority of the employees in a unit appropriate for such purposes, shall be the exclusive representatives of all the employees in such unit for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment: Provided, That any individual employee or a group of employees shall have the right at any time to present grievances to their employer.

(b) The Board shall decide in each case whether, in order to insure to employees the full benefit of their right to self-organization and to collective bargaining, and otherwise to effectuate the policies of this Act, the unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining shall be the employer unit, craft unit, plant unit, or subdivision thereof.

(c) Whenever a question affecting commerce arises concerning the representation of employees, the Board may investigate such controversy and certify to the parties, in writing, the name or names of the representatives that have been designated or selected. In any such investigation, the Board shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice, either in conjunction with a proceeding under section 10 or otherwise, and may take a secret ballot of employees, or utilize any other suitable method to ascertain such representatives.

(d) Whenever an order of the Board made pursuant to section 10 (c) is based in whole or in part upon facts certified following an investigation pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, and there is a petition for the enforcement or review of such order, such certification and the record of such investigation shall be included in the transcript of the entire record required to be filed under subsections 10 (e) or 10 (f), and thereupon the decree of the court enforcing, modifying, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the Board shall be made and entered upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript.

PREVENTION OF UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

SEC. 10. (a) The Board is empowered, as hereinafter provided, to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice (listed in section (8) affecting commerce. This power shall be exclusive, and shall not be affected by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been or may be established by agreement, code, law, or otherwise.

(b) Whenever it is charged that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any such unfair labor practice, the Board, or any agent or agency designated by the Board for such purposes, shall have power to issue and cause to be served upon such person a complaint stating the charges in that respect, and containing a notice of hearing before the Board or a member thereof, or before a designated agent or agency, at a place therein fixed, not less than five days after the serving of said complaint. Any such complaint may be amended by the member, agent, or agency conducting the hearing or the Board in its discretion at any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon. The person so complained of shall have the right to file an answer to the original or amended complaint and to appear in person or otherwise and give testimony at the place and time fixed in the complaint. In the discretion of the member, agent, or agency conducting the hearing or the Board, any other person may be allowed to intervene in the said proceeding and to present testimony. In any such proceeding the rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity shall not be controlling.

(c) The testimony taken by such member, agent, or agency or the Board shall be reduced to writing and filed with the Board. Thereafter, in its discretion, the Board upon notice may take further testimony or hear argument. If upon all the testimony taken the Board shall be of the opinion that any person named in the complaint has engaged in or is engaging in any such unfair labor practice, then the Board shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on such person an order requiring such person to cease and desist from such unfair labor practice, and to take such affirmative action, including reinstatement of employees with or without back pay, as will effectuate the policies of this Act. Such order may further require such person to make reports from time to time showing the extent to which it has complied with the order. If, upon all the testimony taken, the Board shall be of the opinion that no person named in the complaint has engaged in or is engaging in any such unfair labor practice, then the Board shall state its findings of fact and shall issue an order dismissing the said complaint.

(d) Until a transcript of the record in a case shall have been filed in a court, as hereinafter provided, the Board may at any time, upon reasonable notice and in such manner as it shall deem proper, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any finding or order made or issued by it.

(e) The Board shall have power to petition any circuit court of appeals of the United States (including the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia), or if all the circuit courts of appeals to which application may be made are in vacation, any district court of the United States (including the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia), within any circuit or district, respectively, wherein the unfair labor practice in question occurred or wherein such person resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of such order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order, and shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, including the pleadings and testimony upon which such order was entered and the findings and order of the Board. Upon such filing, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon such person, and thereupon shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the Board. No objection that has not been urged before the Board, its member, agent or agency, shall be considered by the court, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. The findings of the Board as to the facts, if supported by evidence, shall be conclusive. If either party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence in the hearing before the Board, its member, agent, or agency, the court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the Board, its member, agent, or agency, and to be made a part of the transcript. The Board may modify its findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of additional evidence so taken and filed, and it shall file such modified or new findings, which, if supported by evidence shall be conclusive, and shall file its recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside of its original order. The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the appropriate circuit court of appeals if application was made to the district court as hereinabove provided, and by the Supreme Court of the United States and upon writ of certiorari or certification as provided in sections 239 and 240 of the Judicial Code, as amended (U. S. C., title 28, secs. 346 and 347).

(f) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the Board granting or denying in whole or in part the relief sought may obtain a review of such order in any circuit court of appeals of the United States in the circuit wherein the unfair labor practice in question was alleged to have been engaged in or wherein such person resides or transacts business, or in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, by filing in such a court a written petition praying that the order of the Board be modified or set aside. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served upon the Board, and thereupon the aggrieved party shall file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceedings, certified by the Board, including the pleading and testimony upon which the order complained of was entered and the findings and order of the Board. Upon such filing, the court shall proceed in the same manner as in the case of an application by the Board under subsection (e), and shall have the same exclusive jurisdiction to grant to the Board such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and in like manner to make and enter a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the Board; and the findings of the Board as to the facts, if supported by evidence, shall in like manner be conclusive.

(g) The commencement of proceedings under subsection (e) or (f) of this section shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the Board's order.

(h) When granting appropriate temporary relief or a restraining order, or making and entering a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified or setting aside in whole or in part an order of the Board; as provided in this section, the jurisdiction of courts sitting in equity shall not be limited by the Act entitled "An Act to amend the Judicial Code and to define and limit the jurisdiction of courts sitting in equity, and for other purposes," approved March 23, 1932 (U. S. C., Supp. VII, title 29, secs. 101-115).

(i) Petitions filed under this Act shall be heard expeditiously, and if possible within ten days after they have been docketed.

INVESTIGATORY POWERS

SEC. 11. For the purpose of all hearings and investigations, which, in the opinion of Board, are necessary and proper for the exercise of the powers vested in it by section 9 and section 10—

(1) The Board, or its duly authorized agents or agencies, shall at all reasonable times have access to, for the purpose of examination, and the right to copy any evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against that relates to any matter under investigation or in question. Any member of the Board shall have power to issue subpenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence that relates to any matter under investigation or in question, before the Board, its member, agent, or agency conducting the hearing or investigation. Any member of the Board, or any agent or agency designated by the Board, for such purposes, may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Such attendance of witnesses and the production of such evidence may be required from any place in the United States or any Territory or possession thereof, at any designated place of hearing.

(2) In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpena issued to any person, any District Court of the United States or the United States courts of any Territory or possession, or the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the Board shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the Board, its member, agent, or agency, there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof.

(3) No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, records, correspondence, documents, or other evidence in obedience to the subpena of the Board, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

(4) Complaints, orders, and other process and papers of the Board, its member, agent, or agency, may be served either personally or by registered mail or by telegraph or by leaving a copy thereof at the principal office or place of business of the person required to be served. The verified return by the individual so serving the same setting forth the manner of such service shall be proof of the same, and the return post office receipt or telegraph receipt therefor when registered and mailed or telegraphed as aforesaid shall be proof of service of the same. Witnesses summoned before the Board, its member, agent, or agency, shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States.

(5) All process of any court to which application may be made under this Act may be served in the judicial district wherein the defendant or other person required to be served resides or may be found.

(6) The several departments and agencies of the Government, when directed by the President, shall furnish the Board, upon its requests, all records, papers, and information in their possession relating to any matter before the Board.

SEC. 12. Any person who shall willfully resist, prevent, impede, or interfere with any member of the Board or any of its agents or agencies in the performance of duties pursuant to this Act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

LIMITATIONS

SEC. 13. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so to interfere with or impede or diminish in any way the right to strike.

SEC. 14. Wherever the application of the provisions of section 7 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act (U. S. C., Supp. VII, title 15, sec. 707 (a)), as amended from time to time, or of section 77 B, paragraphs (l) and (m) of the Act approved June 7, 1934, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States' approved July 1, 1898, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto" (48 Stat. 922, pars. (l) and (m)), as amended from time to time, or of Public Resolution Numbered 44, approved June 19, 1934 (48 Stat. 1183), conflicts with the application of the provisions of this Act, this Act shall prevail: Provided, That in any situation where the provisions of this Act cannot be validly enforced, the provisions of such other Acts shall remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 15. If any provisions of this Act, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held invalid, the remainder of this Act, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 16. This Act may be cited as the "National Labor Relations Act."

Approved: JULY 5, 1935.

MAXIMUM HOURS

SEC. 7. (a) No employer shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, employ any of his employees who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce—

(1) For a workweek longer than 44 hours during the first year from the effective date of this section,

(2) For a workweek longer than 42 hours during the second year from such date, or

(3) For a workweek longer than 40 hours after the expiration of the second year from such date, unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed.

(b) No employer shall be deemed to have violated subsection (a) by employing any employee for a workweek in excess of that specified in such subsection without paying the compensation for overtime employment prescribed therein if such employee is so employed—

(1) In pursuance of an agreement, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that no employee shall be employed more than 1,000 hours during any period of 26 consecutive weeks.

(2) On an annual basis in pursuance of an agreement with his employer, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that the employee shall not be employed more than 2,080 hours during any period of 52 consecutive weeks, or

(3) For a period or periods of not more than 14 workweeks in the aggregate in any calendar year in an industry found by the Administrator to be of a seasonal nature, and if such employee receives compensation for employment in excess of 12 hours in any workday, or for employment in excess of 56 hours in any workweek, as the case may be, at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed.

(c) In the case of an employer engaged in the first processing of milk, whey, skimmed milk, or cream into dairy products, or in the ginning and compressing of cotton, or in the processing of cottonseed, or in the processing of sugar beets, sugar beet molasses, sugarcane, or maple sap, into sugar (but not refined sugar) or into sirup, the provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to his employees in any place of employment where he is so engaged; and in the case of an employer engaged in the first processing of, or in canning or packing, perishable or seasonal fresh fruits or vegetables, or in the first processing, within the area of production (as defined by the Administrator), of any agricultural or horticultural commodity during seasonal operations, or in handling, slaughtering, or dressing poultry or livestock, the provisions of subsection (a), during a period or periods of not more than 14 workweeks in the aggregate in any calendar year, shall not apply to his employees in any place of employment where he is so engaged.

EXTRACT FROM AMENDMENT, 1943, TO COMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1934[1]

CONSOLIDATIONS AND MERGERS OF TELEGRAPH CARRIERS

SEC. 222. (a) As used in this section:

(1) The term "consolidation or merger" includes the legal consolidation or merger of two or more corporations, and the acquisition by a corporation through purchase, lease, or in any other manner, of the whole or any part of the property, securities, facilities, services, or business of any other corporation or corporations, or of the control thereof, in exchange for its own securities, or otherwise.

(2) The term "domestic telegraph carrier" means any common carrier by wire or radio, the major portion of whose traffic and revenues is derived from domestic telegraph operations; and such term includes a corporation owning or controlling any such common carrier.

(3) The term "international telegraph carrier" means any common carrier by wire or radio, the major portion of whose traffic and revenues is derived from international telegraph operations; and such term includes a corporation owning or controlling any such common carrier.

(4) The term "consolidated or merged carrier" means any carrier by wire or radio which acquires or operates the properties and facilities unified and integrated by consolidation or merger.

(5) The term "domestic telegraph operations" includes acceptance, transmission, reception, and delivery of record communications by wire or radio which either originate or terminate at points within the continental United States, Alaska, Canada, Saint Pierre-Miquelon, Mexico, or Newfoundland and terminate or originate at points within the continental United States, Alaska, Canada, Saint Pierre-Miquelon, Mexico, or Newfoundland, and includes acceptance, transmission, reception, or delivery performed within the continental United States between points of origin within and points of exit from, and between points of entry into and points of destination within the continental United States with respect to record communications by wire or radio which either originate or terminate outside the continental United States, Alaska, Canada, Saint Pierre-Miquelon, Mexico, and Newfoundland, and also includes the transmission within the continental United States of messages which both originate and terminate outside but transit through the continental United States Provided, That nothing in this section shall prevent international telegraph carriers from accepting and delivering international telegraph messages in the cities which constitute gateways approved by the Commission as points of entrance into or exit from the continental United States under regulations prescribed by the Commission, and the incidental transmission or reception of the same over its own or leased lines or circuits within the continental United States.

(6) The term "international telegraph operations" includes acceptance, transmission, reception, and delivery of record communications by wire or radio which either originate or terminate at points outside the continental United States, Alaska, Canada, Saint Pierre-Miquelon, Mexico, and Newfoundland, but does not include acceptance, transmission, reception, and delivery performed within the continental United States between points of origin within and points of exit from, and between points of entry into, and points of destination within, the continental United States with respect to such communications, or the transmission within the continental United States of messages which both originate and terminate outside but transit through the continental United States.

(7) The terms "domestic telegraph properties" and "domestic telegraph facilities" mean properties and facilities, respectively, used or to be used in domestic telegraph operations.

(8) The term "employee" or "employees" shall include any individual who is absent from active service because of furlough, illness, or leave of absence, except that there shall be no obligation upon the consolidated or merged carrier to reemploy any employee who is absent because of furlough, except in accordance with the terms of his furlough, and (ii) shall not include any employee of any carrier which is a party to a consolidation or merger pursuant to this section to the extent that he is employed in any business which such carrier continues to operate independently of the consolidation or merger.

(9) The term "representative" includes any individual or labor organization.

(10) The term "continental United States" means the several States and the District of Columbia.

(f) (1) Each employee of any carrier which is a party to a consolidation or merger pursuant to this section who was employed by such carrier immediately preceding the approval of such consolidation or merger, and whose period of employment began on or before March 1, 1941, shall be employed by the carrier resulting from such consolidation or merger for a period of not less than four years from the date of the approval of such consolidation or merger, and during such period no such employee shall, without his consent, have his compensation reduced or be assigned to work which is inconsistent with his past training and experience in the telegraph industry.

(2) If any employee of any carrier which is a party to any such consolidation or merger, who was employed by such carrier immediately preceding the approval of such consolidation or merger, and whose period of employment began after March 1, 1941, is discharged as a consequence of such consolidation or merger by the carrier resulting therefrom, within four years from the date of approval of the consolidation or merger, such carrier shall pay such employee at the time he is discharged severance pay in cash equal to the amount of salary or compensation he would have received during the full four-week period immediately preceding such discharge at the rate of compensation or salary payable to him during such period, multiplied by the number of years he has been continuously employed immediately preceding such discharge by one or another of such carriers who were parties to such consolidation or merger, but in no case shall any such employee receive less severance pay than the amount of salary or compensation he would have received at such rate if he were employed during such full four-week period: Provided, however, That such severance pay shall not be required to be paid to any employee who is discharged after the expiration of a period, following the date of approval of the consolidation or merger, equal to the aggregate period during which such employee was in the employ, prior to such date of approval, of one or more of the carriers which are parties to the consolidation or merger.

(3) For a period of four years after the date of approval of any such consolidation or merger, any employee of any carrier which is a party to such consolidation or merger who was such an employee on such date of approval, and who is discharged as a result of such consolidation or merger, shall have a preferential hiring and employment status for any position for which he is qualified by training and experience over any person who has not theretofore been an employee of any such carrier.

(4) If any employee is transferred from one community to another, as a result of any such consolidation or merger, the carrier resulting therefrom shall pay, in addition to such employee's regular compensation as an employee of such carrier, the actual traveling expenses of such employee and his family, including the cost of packing, crating, drayage, and transportation of household goods and personal effects.

(5) In the case of any consolidation or merger pursuant to this section, the consolidated or merged carrier shall accord to every employee or former employee, or representative or beneficiary of an employee or former employee, of any carrier which is a party to such consolidation or merger, the same pension, health, disability, or death insurance benefits, as were provided for prior to the date of approval of the consolidation or merger, under any agreement or plan of any carrier which is a party to the consolidation or merger which covered the greatest number of the employees affected by the consolidation or merger; except that in any case in which, prior to the date of approval of the consolidation or merger, an individual has exercised his right of retirement, or any right to health, disability, or death insurance benefits has accrued, under any agreement or plan of any carrier which is a party to the consolidation or merger, pension, health, disability, or death insurance benefits, as the case may be, shall be accorded in conformity with the agreement or plan under which such individual exercised such right of retirement or under which such right to benefits accrued. For purposes of determining and according the rights and benefits specified in this paragraph, any period spent in the employ of the carrier of which such individual was an employee at the time of the consolidation or merger shall be considered to have been spent in the employ of the consolidated or merged carrier. The application for approval of any consolidation or merger under this section shall contain a guaranty by the proposed consolidated carrier that there will be no impairment of any of the rights or benefits specified in this paragraph.

(6) Any employee who, since August 27, 1940, has left a position, other than a temporary position, in the employ of any carrier which is a party to any such consolidation or merger, for the purpose of entering the military or naval forces of the United States, shall be considered to have been in the employ of such carrier during the time he is a member of such forces, and, upon making an application for employment with the consolidated or merged carrier within forty days from the time he is relieved from service in any of such forces under honorable conditions, such former employee shall be employed by the consolidated or merged carrier and entitled to the benefits to which he would have been entitled if he had been employed by one of such carriers during all of such period of service with such forces; except that this paragraph shall not require the consolidated or merged carrier, in the case of any such individual, to pay compensation, or to accord health, disability, or death insurance benefits, for the period during which he was a member of such forces. If any such former employee is disabled and because of such disability is no longer qualified to perform the duties of his former position but otherwise meets the requirements for employment, he shall be given such available employment at an appropriate rate of compensation as he is able to perform and to which his service credit shall entitle him.

(7) No employee of any carrier which is a party to any such consolidation or merger shall, without his consent, have his compensation reduced, or (except as provided in paragraph (2) and paragraph (8) of this subsection) be discharged or furloughed during the four-year period after the date of the approval of such consolidation or merger. No such employee shall, without his consent, have his compensation reduced, or be discharged or furloughed, in contemplation of such consolidated and merger, during the six-month period immediately preceding such approval.

(8) Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the discharge of any employee for insurbordination, incompetency, or any other similar cause.

(9) All employees of any carrier resulting from any such consolidation or merger, with respect to their hours of employment, shall retain their rights provided by any collective bargaining agreement in force and effect upon the date of approval of such consolidation or merger until such agreement is terminated, executed, or superseded. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, any agreement not prohibited by law pertaining to the protection of employees may hereafter be entered into by such consolidated or merged carrier and the duly authorized representative or representatives of its employees selected according to existing law.

(10) For purposes of enforcement or protection of rights, privileges, and immunities granted or guaranteed under this subsection, the employees of any such consolidated or merged carrier shall be entitled to the same remedies as are provided by the National Labor Relations Act in the case of employees covered by that act; and the National Labor Relations Board and the courts of the United States (including the courts of the District of Columbia) shall have jurisdiction and power to enforce and protect such rights, privileges, and immunities in the same manner as in the case of enforcement of the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act.

(11) Nothing contained in this subsection shall apply to any employee of any carrier which is a party to any such consolidation or merger whose compensation is at the rate of more than $5,000 per annum.

(12) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (7), the protection afforded therein for the period of four years from the date of approval of the consolidation or merger shall not, in the case of any particular employee, continue for a longer period, following such date of approval, than the aggregate period during which such employee was in the employ, prior to such date of approval, of one or more of the carriers which are parties to the consolidation or merger. As used in paragraphs (1), (2), and (7), the term "compensation" shall not include compensation attributable to overtime not guaranteed by collective bargaining agreements.

SUBPART A—GENERAL STATEMENT

§ 202.1 General statement. By virtue of the authority vested in it by the National Labor Relations Act, 49 Stat. 452, the National Labor Relations Board has issued and caused to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER simultaneously herewith, its Rules and Regulations—Series 4, which it has found necessary, as provided in section 6 (a) of the National Labor Relations Act, to carry out the provisions of that act. These rules and regulations state the general rules of procedure followed by the Board in administering its functions. The following statements of the general course and method by which the Board's functions are channeled and determined, issued, and published as provided in section 3 (a) (2) of the Administrative Procedure Act, amplify and supplement these rules of procedure.

SUBPART B—UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICE AND TELEGRAPH MERGER ACT CASES

§ 202.2 Initiation of Unfair Labor Practice and Telegraph Merger Act cases. The investigation of an alleged violation of the rights of employees guaranteed by the National Labor Relations Act or section 222 (f) of the Telegraph Merger Act is initiated by the filing of a charge by any person or labor organization. The charge, which must be in writing and under oath, is filed with the Regional Director for the Region in which the alleged violations have accurred or are occurring. A blank form for filing such charges is supplied by the Regional Office upon request. The charge contains the name and address of the employer against whom the charge is made and a statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices or unlawful conduct.

§ 202.3 Investigation of charges. When the charge is received in the Regional Office it is filed, docketed, and assigned a case number. The Regional Director requests the person or labor organization filing the charge to submit evidence in its support. Also, the employer is given immediate and written notification of the nature of the charge filed. This consists usually of a verbatim quotation of the allegations in the charge and the name of the person or labor organization making the charge. The employer is asked to submit a written statement of his position in respect to the allegations. The case is then assigned to a Field Examiner for investigation, who interviews representatives of all parties and those persons who have knowledge as to the charges. After full investigation, the case may be disposed of through informal methods such as withdrawal, dismissal, and settlement; or, the case may necessitate formal methods of disposition. Some of the informal methods of handling unfair labor practice cases will be stated first.

§ 202.4 Withdrawal of charges. If investigation reveals that there has been no violation of the National Labor Relations or Telegraph Merger Acts or the evidence is insufficient to substantiate the charge, the Regional Director recommends withdrawal of the charge by the person or labor organization which filed. The complainant may also, on its own initiative, request withdrawal. If the complainant accepts the recommendation of the Director or requests withdrawal on its own initiative, the employer is immediately notified of the withdrawal of the charge.

§ 202.5 Dismissal of charges and appeals to Board. If the complainant refuses to withdraw the charge as recommended, the Regional Director refers the file and investigation report to the Regional Attorney, who assigns the case to a member of the Field Legal Staff to review it. Following this review, the Regional Director may refuse to issue a formal complaint, thereby, in effect, dismissing the charge. The Regional Director thereupon informs the parties of his action, together with a simple statement of the grounds therefor, and the complainant of his right of appeal to the Board in Washington within ten days. If the complainant appeals to the Board, the entire file in the case is sent to Washington where the case is fully reviewed by the Board with the assistance of the Appeals and Review Committee. Following such review, the Board may sustain the Regional Director's dismissal, stating the grounds of its affirmance, or may direct the Regional Director to take further action.

§ 202.6 Settlements. Before any complaint is issued or other formal action taken, the Regional Director affords an opportunity to all parties for the submission and consideration of facts, argument, offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment, except where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest do not permit. Normally prehearing conferences are held, the principal purpose of which is to discuss and explore such submissions and proposals of adjustment. The Regional Office provides Board-prepared forms for such settlement agreements, as well as printed notices for posting by the employer. These agreements, which are subject to the approval of the Regional Director, provide for the withdrawal of the charge by the complainant at such time as the employer has complied with the terms of the settlement agreement. Proof of such compliance is obtained by the Regional Director before the case is closed. If the employer fails to perform his obligations under the informal agreement, the Regional Director may determine to institute formal proceedings.

§ 202.7 Complaints. If the charge appears to have merit and efforts to dispose of it by informal adjustment are unsuccessful, the Regional Director transmits the file to the Regional Attorney with the recommendations that formal action be instituted by issuance of a complaint and notice of hearing. The entire file is then reviewed by the Regional Attorney or a member of his staff, following which the Regional Attorney prepares a concurrence or dissent from the recommendation of the Director. If the Regional Attorney dissents, insructions from the Appeals and Review Committee in Washington are obtained. If he concurs, the Regional Director taking formal action for the first time in the proceeding, issues a complaint and a notice of hearing. The complaint, which is served on all parties, sets forth the facts upon which the Board bases its jurisdiction and the facts relating to the alleged violations of law by the employer. The employer may file an answer to the complaint within 10 days of its receipt, setting forth a statement of its defense.

§ 202.8 Settlement after issuance of complaint. (a) Even though formal proceedings have begun, the parties again have full opportunity at every stage to dispose of the case by amicable adjustment and in compliance with the law. Thus, after the complaint has been issued and a hearing scheduled or even begun by the Regional Attorney, the attorney and the Regional Director afford all parties every opportunity for the submission and consideration of facts, arguments, offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment, except where time, the nature of the proceeding and the public interest do not permit.

(b) All settlement stipulations made after the issuance of a Complaint are subject to the approval of the Regional Director and of the Board in Washington. Under this type of settlement, the parties agree to waive their right to hearing and agree further that the Board may issue an order requiring the employer to take action appropriate to the terms of the adjustment. Usually the settlement stipulation also contains the employer's consent to the Board's application for the entry of a decree by the appropriate Circuit Court of Appeals enforcing the Board's order.

(c) In the event the employer fails to comply with the terms of a settlement stipulation, upon which a Board order and court decree are based, the Board may petition that court to adjudge the employer in contempt. If the employer refuses to comply with the terms of a stipulation settlement providing solely for the entry of a Board order, the Board may petition the court for enforcement of its order, pursuant to Section 10 of the National Labor Relations Act.

§ 202.9 Hearings. Except in extraordinary situations the hearing is open to the public and usually conducted in the Region where the charge originated. A Trial Examiner, designated by the Chief Trial Examiner and sent from the Washington staff, presides over the hearing. The Government's case is conducted by an attorney attached to the Board's Regional Office, who has the responsibility, under the general direction of the Regional Attorney, of presenting the evidence in support of the complaint. Counsel for the Board, all parties to the proceeding, and the Trial Examiner have the power to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence into the record. They may also submit briefs, engage in oral argument, and submit proposed findings and conclusions to the Trial Examiner. The attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence material to any matter under investigation may be compelled by subpena.

§ 202.10 Intermediate report (recommended decisions. (a) At the conclusion of the hearing the Trial Examiner prepares an Intermediate Report (recommended decision) stating findings of fact and conclusions, as well as the reasons for his determinations on all material issues, and making recommendations as to action which should be taken in the case. The Trial Examiner may recommend dismissal or Sustain the Complaint, in whole or in part, and recommend that the employer cease and desist from the unlawful acts found and take action to remedy their effects.

(b) The Intermediate Report is filed with the Board in Washington and copies are simultaneously served on each of the parties. At the same time the Board, through its Order Section, issues and serves on each of the parties an order transferring the case to the Board. The parties may accept and comply with the recommendations of the Trial Examiner, and thus normally conclude the entire proceeding at this point. Or, the parties or counsel for the Board may file exceptions to the Intermediate Report with the Board and may also request permission to appear and argue orally before the Board in Washington. They may also submit proposed findings and conclusions to the Board. Oral argument is very frequently granted.

§ 202.11 Board decision and order. If (a) any party files exceptions to the Intermediate Report, or (b) if the Trial Examiner finds a violation of the law and the employer fails to remedy it, or (c) if the employer complies with the Trial Examiner's recommendations but the Board deems it necessary, in order to effectuate the policies of the Act, the Board may decide the case. The Board, with the assistance of the staff of the Review Section, who function in much the same manner as law clerks do for judges, reviews the entire record, including the Trial Examiner's Report and Recommendations, the complete transcript of evidence, briefs and arguments. The Board also consults with members of the Trial Examining staff in its deliberations, but no agent of the Board who engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in any case is permitted to participate or advise in the decision or recommended decision of that or a factually related case. It then issues its Decision and Order in which it may adopt, modify, or reject the findings and recommendations of the Trial Examiner. The Decision and Order contains detailed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, the basic reasons for decision on all material issues raised, and an Order either dismissing the complaint in whole or in part or requiring the employer to cease and desist from its unlawful practices and to take appropriate affirmative action.

§ 202.12 Compliance with Board decision and order. (a) Shortly after the Board's Decision and Order is issued the Director of the Regional Office in which the charge was filed communicates with the employer for the purpose of obtaining compliance. Conferences may be held to arrange the details necessary for compliance with the terms of the Order.

(b) The Regional Director and the Regional Attorney, after investigation, submit to the Board a joint report on compliance when compliance is obtained. This report must meet the approval of the Board before the case may be closed. Despite compliance, however, the Board's Order is a continuing one; therefore, the closing of a case on compliance is necessarily conditioned upon the continued observance of that Order; and in some cases it is deemed desirable, notwithstanding compliance, to implement the Order with an enforcing decree. Subsequent violations of the Order may become the basis of further proceedings.

§ 202.13. Judicial review of Board decisions and orders. If the employer does not comply with the Board's Order, or the Board deems it desirable to implement the Order with a court decree, the Board may petition the appropriate federal court for enforcement. Or, the employyer may petition the circuit court of appeals to review and set aside the Board's order. Upon such review or enforcement proceedings, the court reviews the record and the Board's findings and order and sustains them if they are in accordance with the requirements of law. The court may enforce, modify, or set aside in whole or in part the Board's findings and order, or it may remand the case to the Board for further proceedings as directed by the court. Following the court's decree, either the government or the employer may petition the Supreme Court for review upon writ of certiorari. Such applications for review to the Supreme Court are handled by the Board through the Solicitor General of the United States.

§ 202.14 Compliance with court decree. After a Board Order has been enforced by a court decree, the Board has the responsibility of obtaining compliance with that decree. Investigation is made by the Regional Office of the employer's efforts to comply. If the Board finds that the employer has failed to live up to the terms of the court's decree, the Board may petition the court to hold him in contempt of court. The court may order immediate remedial action and impose sanctions and penalties.

SUBPART C—REPRESENTATION CASES UNDER SECTION 9 OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS ACT

§ 202.15 Initiation of representation case. The investigation of the question as to whether a union represents a majority of an appropriate grouping of employees is initiated by the filing of a petition by any person or labor organization acting on behalf of employees, or by an employer when two or more labor organizations assert conflicting claims to represent the same or overlapping groups of employees. The petition, which must be notarized, is filed with the Regional Director for the area in which the proposed bargaining unit exists. The blank petition form, which is supplied by the Regional Office upon request, provides, among other things, for a description of the alleged appropriate bargaining unit, the approximate number of employees involved, and the names of other labor organizations which also claim to represent the same employees.

§ 202.16 Investigation of petition. (a) Upon receipt of the petition in the Regional Office, it is filed, docketed, and assigned to a member of the staff, usually a field examiner, for investigation. He conducts an investigation to ascertain (1) whether the employer's operations affect commerce within the meaning of the Act, (2) the appropriateness of the unit of employees for the purposes of collective bargaining, and the existence of a question concerning representation within the meaning of the Act, (3) whether an investigation, including an election would effectuate the policies of the Act by providing for a free expression of choice by employees of a bona fide representative, and (4) whether there is a sufficient probability, based on the evidence of representation of the petitioner, that the employees have freely selected a representative. The evidence of representation submitted by the petitioning labor organization, usually in the form of cards signed by individual employees authorizing representation by the union, is ordinarily checked to determine the number or proportion of employees who desire to be represented by that labor organization, it being the Board's administrative experience that in the absence of special factors such as, for example, a closed-shop by a rival union, the conduct of an election serves no purpose under the statute unless the petitioning union has been designated by at least 30 percent of the employees. The Board's agent attempts to ascertain from the petitioner, the employer, and any other labor organization which may be involved whether or not the grouping or unit of employees described in the petition constitutes an appropriate bargaining unit.

(b) The petitioner may on its own initiative request the withdrawal of the petition if the investigation discloses that no question of representation exists within the meaning of the statute, because, among other possible reasons, the unit is not appropriate, or a written contract held by another labor organization precludes further investigation at that time, or the petitioning union's card showing of representation among the employees is insufficient to warrant an election under the 30 percent principle state in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) For the same or similar reasons the Regional Director may request the petitioner to withdraw its petition. If the petitioner, despite the Regional Director's recommendation, refuses to withdraw the petition, the file is reviewed by the Regional Attorney or a member of his staff and a report and recommendation is submitted to the Director. The Regional Director may then refuse to institute or continue the investigation, stating the grounds for his refusal and informing the petitioner of his right of appeal to the Board in Washington, D. C. The petitioner may within 10 days appeal from the Regional Director's refusal by filing such request with the Board in Washington. After a full review of the file with the assistance of the Appeals and Review Committee, the Board may sustain the dismissal, stating the grounds of its affirmance, or may direct the Regional Director to take further action.

§ 202.17 Consent adjustments before formal hearing. The Board has devised and makes available to the parties several types of informal consent procedures through which representation issues can be resolved without recourse to formal procedures. These informal arrangements are commonly referred to as (a) recognition agreement, (b) consent cross-check agreement, (c) consent election agreement, followed by Regional Director's determination, and (d) consent election agreement, followed by Board certification. Forms for use in these informal procedures are available in the Regional Offices.

(a) The recognition agreement is used in a situation in which the employer is satisfied that the claims of the petitioner to representation rights are valid, without recourse to a formal election. In such cases he may, subject to the approval of the Board's agents, voluntarily recognize the petitioner as exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the appropriate unit by entering into an agreement in the form of a Notice to Employees which sets forth the employer's intention to recognize the union. This notice is then posted under the supervision of Board agents in conspicuous places in the employer's plant for 5 days so that all employees and other interested labor organizations have opportunity to question the propriety of the employer's proposed action and to assert conflicting claims before the Regional Office. If within the 5-day posting period no good cause is presented to the Regional Office why the agreement should not be approved, the Regional Director will approve the agreement and it will become operative. The proceeding is then terminated.

(b) In the consent cross-check agreement procedure, the parties agree that a Board agent may determine whether or not the union represents the majority by comparing the number of valid signed union cards submitted by the union with an appropriate payroll furnished by the employer. The agreement also describes the appropriate unit of employees involved and sets forth the understanding of the parties on all other questions involved. Pursuant to this agreement, a Notice to Employees also must be posted in conspicuous places in the plant for 5 days before the agreement becomes effective. If within such period no good cause is presented to the Regional Office why the cross-check may not be relied upon as an accurate expression of the free will of the employees, the Regional Director reports the results of the cross-check to the parties and the proceeding is terminated.

(c) (1) The consent election agreement followed by the Regional Director's determination of representatives is the most frequently used method of informal adjustment of representation cases. It is similar to the consent cross-check agreement except for the substitution of an election instead of a comparison of union cards against the payroll. The terms of the agreement providing for this form of adjustment are set forth in printed forms, which are available upon request at the Board's Regional Offices. Under these terms the parties agree with respect to the appropriate unit, the payroll to be used as the basis of eligibility to vote in an election, and the place, date and hours of election. A board agent arranges the details incident to the mechanics and conduct of the election. For example, he usually arranges preelection conferences in which the parties check the list of voters and attempt to resolve any questions of eligibility. Also, prior to the date of election, official notices of election are posted conspicuously in the plant. These notices reproduce a sample ballot and outline such election details as location of polls, time of voting, and eligibility rules.

(2) The actual polling is always conducted and supervised by Board agents. Appropriate representatives of each party may assist them and observe the election. As to the mechanics of the election, a ballot is given to each eligible voter by the Board's agents. The ballots are marked in the secrecy of a voting booth. The Board agents and authorized observers have the privilege of challenging for reasonable cause employees who apply for ballots.

(3) Customarily the Board agents, in the presence and with the assistance of the authorized observers, count and tabulate the ballots, immediately after the closing of the polls. A complete tally of the ballots is served upon the parties upon the conclusion of the count.

(4) If challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the results of the count, the Regional Director conducts an investigation and rules on the challenges. Similarly, if objections to the conduct of the election are filed within 5 days of the issuance of the tally of ballots, the Regional Director likewise conducts an investigation and rules upon the objections. If, after investigation, the objections are found to have merit, the Regional Director may void the election results and conduct a new election.

(5) This form of agreement also provides that the rulings of the Regional Director on all questions relating to the election (for example, eligibility to vote and the validity of challenges and objections) are final and binding. Also, the agreement provides for the conduct of a run-off election, in accordance with the provisions of the Board's Rules and Regulations, if two or more labor organizations appear on the ballot and no one choice receives the majority of the valid votes cast.

(d) The consent election agreement followed by a Board certification provides that the agreed-upon election shall be the basis of a formal decision by the Board instead of an informal determination by the Regional Director. In this agreement also it is provided that the Board, rather than the Regional Director, makes the final determination of questions raised concerning eligibility, challenged votes and objections to the conduct of the election. Thus, if challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the results of the count, the Regional Director conducts an investigation and issues a report on the challenges instead of ruling thereon. Similarly, if objections to the conduct of the election are filed within 5 days after issuance of the tally of ballots, the Regional Director likewise conducts an investigation and issues a report instead of ruling upon the validity of the objections. In either event, the Regional Director's report is served upon the parties, who may file exceptions thereto within 5 days with the Board in Washington. The Board then reviews the entire record made and may, if a substantial issue is raised, direct a hearing on the challenged ballots or the objections to the conduct of the election. Or, the Board may, if no substantial issues are raised, affirm the Regional Director's report and take appropriate action in termination of the proceedings. If a hearing is held upon the challenged ballots or objections, all parties are heard and the record made on the hearing is reviewed by the Board with the assistance of the Review Section and a final determination made thereon. If the objections are found to have merit, the election results may be voided and a new election conducted under the supervision of the Regional Director. If the union has been selected as the representative, the Board issues its certification and the proceeding is terminated.

§ 202.18 Formal hearing. If no informal adjustment of the question concerning representation has been effected, the Regional Director will recommend that formal procedures be taken. These may take the form of either (a) an immediate election folowed by a hearing, if the case presents no issues of such substance as to require final decision by the Board before a proper election may be held, or (b) a hearing followed by Board determination of the issues and, if appropriate, an election. In either case, before the formal procedures are actually pursued, however, the file is reviewed by the Regional Attorney or a member of his staff and a concurrence or dissent prepared from the Regional Director's recommendation. If the Regional Attorney concurs, the Director immediately issues either notice of election or notice of hearing, as the case may be. If the Regional Attorney dissents, the case is referred to the Appeals and Review Committee in Washington for instructions as to the appropriate course to be followed.

§ 202.19 Procedures respecting elections conducted before hearing. (a) If the Regional Office determines that the case is an appropriate one for election before formal hearing, an election is conducted as quickly as possible among the employees, the rights of all parties, however, being preserved by opportunity for appropriate challenges and objections to the conduct of the election, and for full hearing after the election. If the election shows that a representative has been selected and no objections are filed by any party, the employer may recognize such representative by entering into a recognition agreement or a stipulation for Board certification after election. Both of these forms are available upon request to the Regional Offices. If objections are filed or if for any other reason the employer does not choose to terminate the case by either of the above informal adjustments, the Regional Director will issue a notice of hearing. At this hearing, conducted before a hearing officer who is usually an attorney or field examiner attached to the Regional Office but who may also be another qualified official, all issues, including issues with respect to the conduct of the election and challenged ballots, are fully heard. Following the hearing, the hearing officer submits an informal analysis to the Board.

(b) If no representative is chosen at the election and no objections are filed, the petitioner may withdraw his petition or, if he refuses to withdraw, the Regional Director may discontinue the investigation, subject to a review by the Board of the Regional Director's action if requested within 10 days. If no representative is chosen but substantial objections are filed, a notice of hearing will issue.

(c) The record made at the hearing is promptly transferred to the Board by an order entered by the Regional Director and served upon the parties. The Board with the assistance of the Review Section reviews the entire record and issues an appropriate decision determining all issues in the case and either certifying the union or dismissing the petition.

§ 202.20 Procedure respecting elections conducted after hearing. (a) If the preliminary investigation indicates that there are substantial issues which require Board determination before an appropriate election may be held, the Regional Director refers the case to the Regional Attorney with the recommendation that a hearing on the issues be held. If the Regional Attorney concurs, notice of hearing immediately issues; if he dissents, the case is referred to the Appeals and Review Committee in Washington for instructions. The notice of hearing, together with a copy of the petition, is served upon the petitioning union, the employer, and upon any other known persons or labor organizations claiming to have been designated by employees involved in the proceeding.

(b) The hearing, usually open to the public, is held before a hearing officer who normally is an attorney or field examiner attached to the Regional Office but may be another qualified official. The hearing, which is non-adversary in character, is part of the investigation in which the primary interest of the Board's agents is to insure that the record contains as full a statement of the pertinent facts as may be necessary for determination of the case by the Board. The parties are afforded full opportunity to present their respective positions and to produce the significant facts in support of their contentions. In most cases a substantial number of the relevant facts are undisputed and stipulated. The parties are permitted to argue orally on the record before the hearing officer.

(c) Upon the close of the hearing, the Regional Director issues and serves an order transferring the case to the Board. The entire record in the case is then forwarded to the Board in Washington, together with the informal recommendations of the hearing officer. All parties may file briefs with the Board within 7 days after the close of the hearing and may also request to be heard orally by the Board. Because of the nature of the proceedings, however, permission to argue orally is rarely granted. After review of the entire case, the Board issues its decision either dismissing the petition or directing that an election be held. In the latter event, the election is conducted under the supervision of the Regional Director in the manner already described in Section 202.17 above.

(d) The parties have the same rights, and the same procedure is followed, with respect to objections to the conduct of the election and challenged ballots, as has already been described in connection with the post-election procedures in cases involving consent elections to be followed by Board certifications.

(e) If the election involves two or more labor organizations and if the election results are inconclusive because no choice on the ballot received the majority of valid votes cast, any of the contestants entitled to participate in a run-off election, as provided in the Board's Rules and Regulations, may obtain a run-off election upon request to the Regional Director within 10 days following service of the tally of ballots.

SUBPART D.—PROCEEDINGS TO CERTIFY REPRESENTATIVES AS BONA FIDE FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 7 (B) OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT OF 1938

§ 202.21 Petitions; who may file; where to file; form, jurat. A petition for certification under section 7 (b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 as a bona fide representative of employees may be filed by any person or labor organization claiming to be such bona fide representative. Such petition shall be filed with the Regional Director for the region wherein the bargaining unit to be covered by the collective bargaining agreement is located or, if the bargaining unit exists in two or more regions, with the Regional Director for any such region. Such petition shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to before any Notary Public or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths and take acknowledgments or any agent of the Board authorized to administer oaths or acknowledgments. Three copies of the petition shall be filed. Blank forms of petitions are available in the regional offices.

§202.22. Contents of petition. Such petition shall contain the following:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner, including its affiliation, if any;

(b) The name and principal address of the employer involved, the general nature of his business, and the address of the particular establishment involved;

(c) A statement whether the petitioner and employer have entered into a collective bargaining agreement, together with a copy of such agreement, if any;

(d) A statement whether any other known labor organizations claim to represent employees at the establishment of the employer, and a brief description of the contracts, if any, they have with the employer, including a statement of the date of expiration of such agreements;

(e) A statement whether the petitioner has been previously found by the Board to be the collective bargaining agent for employees at the establishment of the employer in proceedings under the National Labor Relations Act.

§ 202.23 Investigation of petition by Regional Director; Order to Show Cause; Notice of Hearing; service of Notice. After a petition has been filed the Regional Director institutes such investigation as appears necessary and appropriate to determine the bona fides of the petitioner. Upon the conclusion of the investigation, the Regional Director embodies the material facts in a written report and forwards the same to the Board, together with his recommendation. Attached to the submission of the Regional Director is the Regional Attorney's analysis of the Director's report and a statement of his own conclusions and recommendations. If on the basis of the report it appears that petitioner may appropriately be certified to be a bona fide representative without conducting a formal hearing, the Board forthwith issues such certification. This procedure normally is followed in instances where either (a) the investigation has disclosed that the petitioner has been designated in an outstanding certification under section 9 (c) of the National Labor Relations Act as the representative of employees within the bargaining unit affected; or (b) where it appears from the investigation that the petitioner had previously filed unfair labor practice charges under section 8, subsection (5), of the National Labor Relations Act, which have been sustained by the Board, in regard to the affected bargaining unit; and where in addition nothing in the investigation throws any doubt upon the status of the petitioner as a bona fide representative of employees for collective bargaining purposes. If it appears from the report that there is some question or issue as to the bona fides of the representative, the Board authorizes the Regional Director to issue and serve upon all interested parties (the petitioner, the employer, and any other labor organizations known to be interested in the proceeding) an order to show cause, upon timely notice, why the petitioner should not be certified as bona fide. The order to show cause is also posted in conspicuous places in the establishment of the employer involved. If no cause is thereafter duly shown why the petitioner should not be certified, and if no timely request for hearing is received by the Regional Director, the Board ordinarily issues the certification. If within the time fixed by the order to show cause any interested person requests an opportunity to present evidence in opposition to the certification of petitioner, or if other cause for hearing appears, the Regional Director issues a Notice of Hearing upon timely notice before a Hearing Officer at a time and place fixed therein. Such Notice of Hearing is served upon the petitioner, the employer, and any labor organization known to be interested in the proceeding. A copy of the petition is served with such Notice of Hearing.

§ 202.24 Motions; interventions; subpenas. All matters relating to motions interventions, and subpenas are governed by the provisions of § 203.51 of this chapter, insofar as applicable.

§ 202.25 Conduct of hearing. The hearing is conducted by a hearing officer, who is usually an attorney or field examiner attached to the Regional Office. It is open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the Hearing Officer. It is the duty of the Hearing Officer to inquire fully into the bona fides of the petitioner. Counsel for the Board, and the Hearing Officer, may call, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and introduce into the record documentary and other evidence. In general, the hearing conforms to that normally held in representation case proceedings under section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act.

§ 202.26 Introduction of evidence and rights of parties at hearing; witness fees. The introduction of evidence at the hearing, the rights of the parties, and witness fees are governed by § 203.52 of this chapter, insofar as applicable.

§ 202.27 Record; what constitutes; transmission to Board. Upon the close of the hearing the Regional Director forwards to the Board in Washington, D. C., the petition, order to show cause, responses thereto, if any, notice of hearing, motions, rulings, orders, the stenographic transcript of the hearing, stipulations, exhibits, documentary evidence and depositions, all of which constitute the record in the proceeding.

§ 202.28 Proceedings before Board; briefs; further hearing; certification. The Board thereupon proceeds, either forthwith upon the record, or after oral argument or the submission of briefs, or after further hearing, as it may determine, to certify the petitioner as bona fide or to make other disposition of the matter. Should any party desire to file a brief with the Board, the original and three copies thereof are filed with the Board at Washington, D. C., and served upon all other parties, within 7 days after notice of transfer of the case to the Board. If proof of service of the documents is not filed, the documents may be rejected by the Board. Should any party desire to file a reply brief, he may do so within 3 days after service of the opposing main brief.

500.33 Delegation of authority to make records available.
500.35 Delegation to Chief, Royalty Collection Unit, Division of Patent Administration.
500.40 Notification of delegations and appointments made by Alien Property Custodian's predecessor.

§ 500.1 Central and field organization—(a) Direction. The Office of Alien Property Custodian is under the direction of the Alien Property Custodian who is appointed by the President in the exercise of authority granted by the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and is responsible directly to him. The President's authority under that act has been delegated to the Alien Property Custodian by and to the extent set forth in the Executive Orders listed in § 500.20. The Custodian is assisted by a Deputy Alien Property Custodian whose authority is set out in § 500.21.

(b) Divisions. The Office is composed of the following divisions and offices with functions as indicated:

(1) Offices of the Custodian and of the Deputy Custodian. The Custodian and Deputy Custodian are responsible for the exercise of all powers and performance of all duties delegated to the Alien Property Custodian.

(2) Executive Committee (composed of the Alien Property Custodian, the Deputy Alien Property Custodian, and such other staff officers as are named by the Custodian). The Executive Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Custodian in determination of policies and administrative actions.

(3) Vested Property Claims Committee. The Vested Property Claims Committee conducts hearings and examines evidence on claims filed with the Office and determines their disposition, subject to review by the Custodian.

(4) Office of Executive Officer. The Office of Executive Officer is responsible for budgetary control, administrative planning and coordination of activities of service divisions.

(5) Division of Personnel. The Division of Personnel is responsible for recruitment, classification, and related personnel activities; maintains personnel records; administers personnel laws and regulations.

(6) Division of Administrative Services. The Division of Administrative Services provides procurement, messenger, duplicating, and other administrative services; maintains files and records.

(7) Office of the Secretary. The Office of the Secretary provides liaison with other government agencies and with other governments; handles general correspondence of the Office; reviews and processes formal orders and documents; acts as Secretary to Executive Committee; coordinates policies and practices of the Office.

(8) Office of the General Counsel. The General Counsel is the legal adviser to the Custodian, determining, and advising the public with respect to the legal policy of the Agency. He passes upon legal documents and regulations, analyzes legislation and prepares legislative proposals, analyzes litigation and cooperates with the Department of Justice in its disposition, and recommends action with respect to claims, advising as to their allowance or developing the record so that the Agency may make an informed judgment as to their disposition.

(9) Division of Research and Statistics. The Division of Research and Statistics conducts research to evaluate effectiveness of programs and assist in policy formulation; assembles statistical data on controlled properties; prepares annual and other official reports.

(10) Comptroller's Division. The Comptroller's Division maintains all accounting records pertaining to vested property and administrative expenses and prepares financial reports; reviews financial data on vested and supervised business enterprises.

(11) Division of Investigation. The Division of Investigation is responsible for identification and establishment of proof of ownership of all enemy-owned assets except patents, applications for patent, copyrights, trademarks, estates, trusts and insurance policies.

(12) Division of Business Management and Control. The Division of Business Management and Control supervises operation of business enterprises continuing as going concerns and conducts sales of the vested interests; controls policies and activities of field offices in Hawaii and the Philippine Islands which comprise the Territorial and Insular Offices of the Office of Alien Property Custodian.

(13) Division of Real Estate and Liquidation. The Division of Real Estate and Liquidation supervises liquidation of enterprises not continued as going concerns; manages and sells real estate, mortgages, and tangible personal property.

(14) Property Division. The Property Division investigates enemy ownership of property involved in court proceedings, especially estates and trusts; investigates insurance policies; obtains possession of vested properties; handles cash transactions; administers all property not assigned to other divisions; and represents enemy nationals in court proceedings.

(15) Division of Patent Administration. The Division of Patent Administration administers programs relating to patents, applications for patent, copyrights, and trademarks, secret processes, and industrial technique including investigation of enemy ownership, licensing, patent prosecution, royalty collection, contract renegotiation, and dissemination of technical information relating to vested patents.

(16) Office of Manager, New York Office. The Office of Manager, New York Office, coordinating activities of all divisions in New York; handles personnel and service functions in that office.

(17) Office of Manager, San Francisco. The Officer of Manager, San Francisco, coordinates activities of all divisions in San Francisco; handles personnel and service functions in that office.

(18) Office of Manager, Hawaii. The Office of Manager, Hawaii, is responsible for administration of all functions of the Office in the Hawaiian Islands.

(19) Office of Manager, Philippine Office. The Office of Manager, Philippine Office, is responsible for administration of all functions of the office in the Philippine Islands.

(20) Chicago Office, Property Division, Estates and Trusts Section. The Chicago Office, Property Division, Estates and Trusts Section, represents enemy nationals in court proceedings in the Midwest; performs other limited branch office functions.

(c) Location of offices. The Office of Alien Property Custodian maintains offices at the following locations:

(e) Executive Order 9747 of July 3, 1946 (11 F. R. 7518).

§ 500.21 Delegation to Deputy Alien Property Custodian. The Deputy Alien Property Custodian, in the absence of the Alien Property Custodian or in the event of his inability to act, may exercise, to the extent permitted by law, all of the powers and authority granted and delegated to, conferred upon and vested in, or which may be granted and delegated to, conferred upon and vested in the Alien Property Custodian by the laws of the United States of America, orders of the President of the United States, or regulations made or issued in pursuance of said laws or orders, including, without being limited to, the power and authority to appoint and fix the compensation of attorneys, investigators, accountants, clerks and such other employees as may be deemed to be necessary for the due and proper administration of the provisions of said laws, orders of the President, and regulations, and the power to execute proxies in behalf of the Alien Property Custodian with the same force and effect as if they were executed by him upon any shares of stock in any corporation which are held by, or stand in the name of, the Alien Property Custodian, or which the Alien Property Custodian has power to vote by virtue of his office; and authority is hereby further delegated to, conferred upon and vested in the said Deputy Alien Property Custodian to exercise at all times any and all of the powers granted and delegated to, conferred upon and vested in, or which may be granted and delegated to, conferred upon and vested in the Alien Property Custodian by the laws of the United States, orders of the President, and regulations made or issued pursuant to said laws or orders, to the extent that such authority may be lawfully delegated by the Alien Property Custodian.

§ 500.22 Delegation to Assistant to the Alien Property Custodian. [Formerly Special Regulation No. 2, 8 CFR, 1944 Supp. 508.2] (a) Thomas H. Creighton, Jr., as Assistant to the Alien Property Custodian and Chief of the Property Division, is hereby designated and appointed as agent and delegate of the Alien Property Custodian,

(1) To take such action as he deems necessary in the administration of paragraph 2 (f) and 5 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and any orders issued pursuant thereto;

(2) To issue any demand, direction, or instruction directed to any person, firm, or corporation, or take any other action necessary in order to effectuate any Vesting Order issued by the Alien Property Custodian;

(3) To take custody of and to receipt for any property or interest therein, or to accept payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery made to or for the account of the Alien Property Custodian.

(b) (Subparagraph (b) of Special Regulation No. 2 has no future application.)

(c) The authority heretofore conferred upon the Chief, Estates and Trusts Section, Territory of Hawaii, by an instrument of delegation dated September 17, 1943, executed by Leo T. Crowley, as Alien Property Custodian (§500.23), continued in effect by virtue of § 500.40, shall be exercised under the general supervision of Thomas H. Creighton, Jr., as Assistant to the Alien Property Custodian and Chief of the Property Division.

§ 500.23 Delegation to Chief, Estates and Trusts Section, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Territory of Hawaii. (Executed by the Alien Property Custodian September 17, 1943.) Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, I, Leo T. Crowley, Alien Property Custodian, do hereby authorize and empower the Chief, Estates and Trusts Section, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Territory of Hawaii, to take such action as he deems necessary within the Territory of Hawaii in the administration of paragraph 5 of Executive Order 9095, as amended, and General Orders 5–H, 6–H, and 20 (§§ 503.20h, 501.6h, 503.7), issued pursuant to said Executive Order 9095, as amended. The authority hereby conferred upon the Chief, Estates and Trusts Section, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Territory of Hawaii, shall be exercised under the general supervision of the Assistant to the Alien Property Custodian in charge of the Property Division, Washington, D. C., whose actions heretofore taken pursuant to the power and authority conferred upon him by me under an instrument dated August 1, 1942, are hereby approved, confirmed and ratified.

§ 500.25 Delegation to Vested Property Claims Committee. (See § 501.1.)

§ 500.31 Prohibition of transactions, and appointment of agents and delegates. [General Order No. 31] (See § 503.5.)

§ 500.32 Delegation of authority to certify documents. General Order No. 7, 8 CFR, 1943 Supp., 503.7, is amended to read as follows:

The Secretary of the Office of Alien Property Custodian, and the Assistant Secretary for Records, severally, are authorized to exercise the power vested in the Alien Property Custodian to authenticate, certify and attest copies of any books, records, papers or other documents in the official custody of the Alien Property Custodian, and to subscribe the Alien Property Custodian's name to such certificates in his behalf.

§ 500.33 Delegation of authority to make records available. Each Division Chief of the Office of Alien Property Custodian, in the conduct of affairs of his Division, is authorized to make official records available to applicants in accordance with § 506.17. Applications for disclosure of records in connection with litigation, and subpenas, will be submitted to the General Counsel by the Division chief.

§ 500.35 Delegation to Chief, Royalty Collection Unit, Division of Patent Administration. The Chief, Royalty Collection Unit, Division of Patent Administration is authorized to make demand for royalty payments under vested contracts.

§ 500.40 Ratification of delegations and appointments made by Alien Property Custodian's predecessor. [Formerly Special Regulation No. 1, 8 CFR, 1944 Supp., 508.1] (a) (1) The appointment and designation of all employees, appointees, delegates, designees, agents, supervisors, proxies, attorneys, representatives and other personnel heretofore appointed on behalf of the Alien Property Custodian or in the Office of Alien Property Custodian, together with all powers, authority, functions and duties conferred, granted or delegated by virtue of any Certificate of Appointment, General Order, proxy, letter or other instrument of appointment or delegation by or under the authority of Leo T. Crowley as Alien Property Custodian, and

(2) All certificates of appointment, general orders, special orders, orders, regulations, licenses, instructions, directions, delegations, designations, authorizations and forms executed, issued or promulgated by or under the authority of Leo T. Crowley as Alien Property Custodian, are, except as hereinafter indicated, hereby affirmed, ratified and continued in effect according to their terms until revoked, superseded or terminated by or by authority of, the Alien Property Custodian.

(b) Any instrument which might lawfully be issued by or under the authority of the Alien Property Custodian shall not be deemed invalid for the reason that it contains the printed, or otherwise stamped or affixed, name "Leo T. Crowley" instead of the name "James E. Markham", but shall be construed as though it contained the name "James E. Markham" in place of the name "Leo T. Crowley" unless the context otherwise requires.

(c) The certificate of appointment granted to James E. Markham as Deputy Alien Property Custodian dated March 19, 1942. (7 F. R. 2363) and October 30, 1942 (7 F. R. 8911), having no further utility, are hereby terminated and revoked, but without impairment of any action heretofore taken thereunder or by virtue thereof.

§ 501.1 Receipt and disposition of claims. (For text, see 8 CFR, 1943 Supp., 501.1.) (See § 501.60, Forms APC–1, 1A, 1B, 6, 16, 17.)

§ 501.2 Rules of Vested Property Claims Committee. (a) All claims are listed for disposition according to the date on which they were received for filing. In scheduling claims for hearing, those claims which assert an erroneous determination by the Custodian, either of nationality or of ownership, will, however, be given general preference on the Committee's calendar. Two or more claims related to the same property or presenting a common question of law or fact may, upon notice to the parties, be consolidated by the Committee for hearing.

(b) Hearings before the Committee shall be at the time and place ordered by the Committee and for cause may be adjourned from time to time. Notice of a hearing will be served on the claimant (or the person designated by him in his notice of claim, as the case may be) by registered letter, mailed at least ten days in advance of the date of the hearing, and filed for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All hearings before the Committee shall be public, except as otherwise ordered in the national interest by the Committee.

(c) Testimony at any hearing will be upon oath (or affirmation) and subject to cross-examination. The rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law and equity will not necessarily be controlling. For example, hearsay and secondary evidence may be admitted, but the Committee will give consideration to its nature in determining its weight and credibility. The Committee will, however, on its own motion or on objection, exclude evidence which it deems privileged by law from disclosure, or which it deems immaterial, irrelevant, unduly repetitious, or otherwise of no probative value. On objection to rulings made during the examination of witnesses, a brief statement of grounds of objection must be made, but an automatic exception will follow if the objection is overruled by the Committee.

(d) The claimant shall be the moving party and the burden of proof on the issues tendered by the claim shall be on him and he shall proceed first at the hearing. The Committee shall in each case determine the time and manner of filing and exchanging tentative determinations and briefs.

(e) Any notice of claim, or other paper filed in a proceeding, may be corrected or amended, but any such correction or amendment taking place after a claim is noticed for hearing shall be by leave of the Committee. By leave of the Committee any party who has made profert of an original exhibit may withdraw it from the record of the proceeding by substitution of a certified photostatic copy on notice to all other parties.

(f) It is the policy of the Committee to arrange prehearing conferences for the purpose of clarifying the issues, agreeing on matters of exhibits, and taking other steps related to simplification of the hearing.

§ 501.70 Public participation in substantive rule making—(a) Submission of written or oral views on proposed rule. Within 15 days after the Alien Property Custodian has published in the Federal Register notice of proposed substantive rule making, any person may submit in writing to Secretary, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C., a statement of his views, arguments, or other data concerning the proposed rule. The statement must be submitted in duplicate, typewritten double-spaced, and must set forth the writer's interest. Any person may, within the same period, apply in writing to the Secretary for permission to be heard orally in connection with a proposed rule, setting forth his interest and the gist of the subject-matter which he intends to present. Hearings will be allowed in the discretion of the Custodian, and will be informal.

(b) Petitions on rules. Any person may submit to Secretary, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C., a petition for issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule. The petition must be in duplicate, typewritten double-spaced, and must set forth petitioner's interest, the desired change or proposal, and supporting reasons. If the Alien Property Custodian deems the petition meritorious, appropriate action will be taken to effectuate the petitioner's proposal. If the petition is denied, in whole or in part, prompt notice of denial will be given.

§ 501.75 Renewal of licenses. Application for renewal of any license, authorization, permit, certificate, approval, registration, or other form of permission, with reference to an activity of a continuing nature, shall be filed with the appropriate Division of the Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C., not less than 30 days prior to the expiration date thereof, unless otherwise provided therein. In the case of permissions originally granted for less than 45 days, the activity shall be deemed not to be of a continuing nature, and the permission shall be non-renewable, except as may be otherwise expressly provided.

§ 501.80 Reference by obsolete designation. Whatever in any section of Parts 500–510, or in any order, rule, regulation, or form issued by the Office of Alien Property Custodian, reference is made to a section, order, rule, regulation, or form by number or other designation which is obsolete, such reference shall be deemed to be made to the current corresponding section of Parts 500–510.

PART 506—AVAILABILITY OF RECORDS

Sec.

506.1 Official records available to public.
506.17 Records generally confidential; application for disclosure.

§ 506.1 Official records available to public.—(a) Records available for inspection and distribution. The following documents are available for inspection and, in so far as supply permits, for distribution on application to Secretary, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C.:

(1) Annual Reports of the Office of Alien Property Custodian.

(2) Instructions and forms for filing claims, and for reporting information which the Alien Property Custodian requires. See § 501.60.

(3) Final determination, opinions, and orders in cases heard or reviewed by the Vested Property Claims Committee.

(4) Notices of public sale, prospectuses, and terms and conditions of sale.

(5) Rules issued by the Office of Alien Property Custodian.

(6) Documents which have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(7) Formal Opinions of the General Counsel issued for the guidance of the public.

(b) Records available for inspection. (1) The following documents are available for inspection by persons properly and directly concerned on application to Secretary, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C.

(i) Claims filed with the Office of Alien Property Custodian.

(ii) Records in cases heard or reviewed by the Vested Property Claims Committee.

(iii) Records of bids in public sales, notifications of acceptance, and orders for sale.

(2) Copies of contracts in which the Alien Property Custodian has vested the interest of a foreign national are available for inspection in the United States Patent Office in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 9424 of February 18, 1944.

(c) Patent applications. Any person may petition for permission to inspect or copy a patent application filed by a national of a "designated enemy country" as defined in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended. Petitions should be submitted to Prosecution Section, Division of Patent Administration, Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C., on a form which that section will provide on request. Petitions will ordinarily be granted upon a showing of proper interest unless:

(1) A title claim has been filed with respect to such patent application, or

(2) The patent application is involved in litigation, or

(3) An American national has filed a patent application which may be in interference with the patent application of the enemy national.

§ 506.17 Records generally confidential; application for disclosure. [General Order No. 17. For text, see 8 CFR, Cum. Supp., 503.17].

Paragraph (b) of General Order No. 17 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) All information, records, files and papers of the Office of Alien Property Custodian shall be deemed strictly confidential unless:

(1) Disclosure is permitted by § 506.1, in which case disclosure will be in the manner and to the extent therein provided, or

(2) Disclosure in a particular case is authorized by the Alien Property Custodian or his delegate (see § 500.33). Application for disclosure may be addressed to Secretary, Office of Alien Property Custodian, Washington 25, D. C., and should set forth the applicant's interest, description of the material or information requested, and purpose for which disclosure is sought. When copies of records are desired, they will be made available, consistently with provisions of this section, upon payment of costs of reproduction. Decisions on applications will be based on interest and purpose shown, and such other considerations as the Alien Property Custodian, or his delegate, deems appropriate, including the following:

(i) Security requirements in matters bearing on national or military affairs,

(ii) Possible interference with execution of Alien Property Custodian's functions,

(iii) Whether the disclosure requested is of information inherently intra-governmental in character.

(iv) Likelihood of undue or unnecessary embarrassment, prejudice, or loss to other persons.

Paragraph (h) of General Order No. 17 is hereby amended by adding the following:

A litigant or claimant preparing for trial or hearing will, in so far as consistent with the provisions of this section, be granted access to pertinent records in order to determine what portions of the records he will require.

8095.6 Appeal Board of the Office of Contract Settlement; procedures.

PART 8095—GENERAL STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION, FUNCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

§ 8095.1 Creation and authority. The Office of Contract Settlement, the Contract Settlement Advisory Board, and the Appeal Board of the Office of Contract Settlement, all exist under the provisions of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 651; 41 U. S. C. 104), approved July 1, 1944.

Among the subjects dealt with by the act are the principles governing the determination of fair compensation for the termination of war contracts, the prompt clearance from contractors' plants of property connected with terminated contracts, the financing of contractors during the period between the termination of their contracts and their final settlement, and defective, informal and quasi contracts.

By act of Congress approved October 3, 1944 (58 Stat. 785; 50 U. S. C. 1651), the Office of Contract Settlement was placed within the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, its functions to be subject to the general supervision of the Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

§ 8095.2 Office of Contract Settlement; organization and function. Section 4 (a) of the Contract Settlement Act established the Office of Contract Settlement, which is headed by the Director of Contract Settlement. The Office of Contract Settlement is housed in the Federal Reserve Building, Washington 25, D. C. It has no field organization. The Director's function is to prescribe, by general regulation, policies, principles, methods, procedures and standards for settlement of terminated war contracts and of defective, informal and quasi-contracts under the act. These regulations and amendments thereto are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with section 4 (e) of the act. In adidtion, in accordance with section 20 (d) of the act, Directive Orders of the Director of War Mobilization relating to the subject matter of the act, remain in full force and effect unless and until superseded by regulations in accordance with the act.

Directive Orders of the Director of War Mobilization

1. Uniform Termination Article: Jan. 10, 1944, 9 F. R. 478.
2. Uniform Termination Article: This directive 2 amends directive 1 and is further amended by Regulations 3 and 5 of the Office of Contract Settlement: Feb. 24, 1944, 9 F. R. 2251.
3. Pricing Policy on Termination Inventory: This directive is obsolete: May 2, 1944, 9 F. R. 5192.
4. Interpretations of Uniform Termination Article: May 2, 1944, 9 F. R. 5192.
5. Settlement Organization of Contracting Agencies: May 2, 1944, 9 F. R. 5193.
6. Settlement of Subcontractors' Claims: This directive is amended by Regulation 6 of the Office of Contract Settlement: June 1, 1944, 9 F. R. 6135.

In accordance with section 4 (d) of the act the Director performs the duties imposed upon him primarily through the personnel and facilities of the contracting agencies and other established Government agencies. In adidtion, under section 23 (a) of the act, the Director, by delegation, has authorized the Deputy Director to exercise any authority or discretion conferred upon the Director by the act. The Director under section 23 (a) of the act has delegated by Regulation 13 (Part 8042, Feb. 14, 1945, 10 F. R. 2036), to the head of each contracting agency, his authority under section 8 (d) to suspend or modify penalty for overstatement in connection with interim financing. In Regulation 15 (Part 8085, March 23, 1945, 10 F. R. 3132; Apr. 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 3603; Aug. 21, 1946, 11 F. R. 9138), the Director, in accordance with section 13 (d) (3) of the act, authorized the Appeal Board to prescribe any amendments to its rules and any further rules of practice and procedure to govern its proceeding.

The public may secure information from or make submittals and requests to the Director, and matters of official record are available at his office to persons properly and directly concerned, except information held confidential for good cause found.

§ 8095.3 Office of Contract Settlement; procedures. All procedural rules made by the Director have been made by general regulation in accordance with section 4 (b) of the act. These primarily concern procedural matters between the public and the contracting agencies and other established Government agencies, although Regulations 12 and 16 make provision for referral of certain matters from the contracting agencies to the Director. Citation is made to the following regulations relating in part to procedural matters.

Regulations of the Office of Contract Settlement

1. Part 8040, Termination Loans: Aug. 18, 1944, 9 F. R. 10358.
2. Part 8041, Partial Payments: Sept. 8, 1944, 9 F. R. 11275.
4. Part 8050, Plant Clearance: Sept. 28, 1944, 9 F. R. 11964.
8. Part 8075, Standard Contract Settlement Proposal Forms: Oct. 13, 1944, 9 F. R. 12541.
9. Part 8040, Guaranteed Termination Loans: Dec. 9, 1944, 9 F. R. 14501.
10. Part 8051, Plant Clearance: Jan. 24, 1945, 10 F. R. 1279.
11. Part 8076, Microfilming and Destruction of War Contractors' Records: Jan. 24, 1945, 10 F. R. 1280.
12. Part 8060, Claims Under Defective, Informal and Quasi Contracts: Jan. 24, 1945, 10 F. R. 1278.
15. Part 8085, Rules of Practice and Procedure for the Appeal Board: Mar. 23, 1945, 10 F. R. 3132; Amendment No. 1: Apr. 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 3603; Amendment No. 2: Aug. 21, 1946, 11 F. R. 9138.
16. Part 8007, Program for Limited Company-Wide Settlement of Termination Claims: May 29, 1945, 10 F. R. 6249; Amendment No. 1: Aug. 27, 1945, 10 F. R. 11075; Amendment No. 2: Sept. 6, 1945, 10 F. R. 11401.
17. Part 8008, Protection of Termination Claims of Subcontractors: May 29, 1945, 10 F. R. 6250.
18. Part 8075, Form of Application for Disposition of Plant Equipment: June 1, 1945, 10 F. R. 6802.
19. Part 8076, Retention of Records by Contracting Agencies: July 9, 1945, 10 F. R. 8750; Correction: Dec. 7, 1945, 10 F. R. 14903.

§ 8095.4 Contract Settlement Advisory Board. Section 5 of the Contract Settlement Act created a Contract Settlement Advisory Board with which the Director advises and consults. The Board consists of the Director who acts as its Chairman, and of the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Maritime Commission, the Secretary of State as successor to the Administrator of the Foreign Economic Administration, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Administrator of the Civilian Production Administration as successor to the Chairman of the War Production Board, the Secretary of Commerce as successor to the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Smaller War Plants Corporation and the Attorney General or any alternate or representative designated by any of them. The Director requests other Government agencies to participate in the deliberations of the Board whenever matters especially affecting them are under consideration. Since the function of the Contract Settlement Advisory Board is to advise and consult with the Director, it has no public function. Any request in regard to it may be addressed to the Director of the Office of Contract Settlement as its Chairman.

§ 8095.5 Appeal Board of the Office of Contract Settlement; organization and function. Under section 13 (d) (1) of the Contract Settlement Act, the Director has appointed an Appeal Board which hears appeals from determinations of the contracting agencies and submissions made under the provisions of section 13 of the act. The Appeal Board consists of such number of members as the Director from time to time deems necessary, and at the present time has three full-time members and two part-time members.

Its decisions are published and are available upon application to the Clerk of the Appeal Board. Matters of official record, which largely consist of records of the proceedings before the Appeal Board, are available at the office of the Clerk of the Appeal Board to persons properly and directly concerned, except information held confidential for good cause found.

The public may secure other information or make submittals or requests by addressing the Clerk of the Appeal Board at its office in the Federal Reserve Building, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 8095.6 Appeal Board of the Office of Contract Settlement; procedures. The rules of practice and procedure for the Appeal Board are prescribed in Regulation 15 and amendments thereto of the Office of Contract Settlement. See Part 8085, March 23, 1945, 10 F. R. 3132; April 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 3603; August 21, 1946, 11 F. R. 9138.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION

[49 CFR, Ch. II]

PART 507—ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

Sec.
507.1 Organization, authority, and functions of the Office of Defense Transportation.
507.2 Presidential powers exercised by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Director.
507.3 Central organization; functions of officers, divisions, and departments.
507.4 Field organizations; functions.
507.5 Information, submittals, and requests; where to be submitted or made.

§ 507.1 Organization, authority, and functions of the Office of Defense Transportation. The Office of Defense Transportation was organized pursuant to Executive Order 8989 (6 F. R. 6725), and the authority, powers, duties, and functions of the Office and of the Director thereof are described in that order and in Executive Orders 9156 (7 F. R. 3349), 9214 (7 F. R. 6097), 9389 (8 F. R. 14183), 9661 (10 F. R. 14591), and 9729 (11 F. R. 5641).

§ 507.2 Presidential powers exercised by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Director. (a) Subject to such policies and regulations as the President of the United States may from time to time prescribe, the Office of Defense Transportation is directed to perform the functions and exercise the authority vested in the President by sections 1 (15) and 6 (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended (49 USC Sections 1 (15) and 6 (8)). The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation is authorized to perform the functions and exercise the power, authority, and discretion conferred upon the President by Section 2 (a) of the act of June 28, 1940 (45 Stat. 676), as amended by Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, as amended (56 Stat. 177, 50 USC App. 633, 58 Stat. 827, 59 Stat. 658, Pub. Law 475, 79th Congress), for the purpose of allocating the use of transportation equipment and facilities by rail carriers, motor carriers, water carriers (except vessels under the jurisdiction of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration), and air carriers, upon such conditions and to such extent as the Director shall deem necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense. In order to perform such functions and to exercise such power, authority, and discretion, the Director is further authorized to exercise the authority conferred upon the President by the Second War Powers Act, 1942, as amended, to obtain information, require reports and the keeping of records, make inspection of books, records and other writings, premises or property of any person, make investigations, administer oaths and affirmations, and require attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, records and other documentary or physical evidence, pursuant to such statute. The Director may exercise the power, authority, and discretion so conferred upon him through such persons and agencies and in such manner as he may determine.

(b) From time to time the Director is authorized and directed by the President, on his behalf or as his delegate, to take possession and assume control of, and to operate, the transportation systems, plants, and facilities of one or more domestic carriers when there are interruptions or threatened interruptions of their operation, or to operate transportation systems, plants, and facilities of one or more domestic carriers, possession and control of which has been taken by the President. In such instances the Director is authorized and directed to exercise all or a portion of the authority, powers, and discretion of the President vested in him by section 9 of the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940, as amended by Section 3 of the War Labor Disputes Act (57 Stat. 164), and the act of August 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 645).

(c) Pursuant to Executive Order 9661 (10 F. R. 14591), the Director took possession and assumed control of, and is operating, the transportation system, plants, and facilities of the Great Lakes Towing Company, as a delegate, and on behalf, of the President, under the authority of said acts.

(d) In fulfilling the responsibility imposed by Executive Order 8989, the Office of Defense Transportation, whenever there is threatened interruption or interruption of the operations of a domestic transportation system or part thereof investigates to determine the impact of such interruption upon the national economy and defense and makes recommendations to, and advises, the President with respect to the exercise of his authority and powers contained in Section 9 of the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940, as amended by Section 3 of the War Labor Disputes Act and the act of August 29, 1916.

§ 507.3 Central organization; functions of officers, divisions, and departments.—(a) Office of the Director. The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation is appointed by the President of the United States and is the head of said office. Under the general direction of the President and as a part of the Executive Office, the Director, in order to assure maximum utilization of the domestic transportation facilities of the Nation for the successful prosecution of the War, is responsible for the planning, development, and execution of a comprehensive program relating to and coordinating all domestic transportation and related facilities in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 8989, as amended, and for securing maximum utilization of domestic transportation facilities; advises and makes certifications or recommendations to the President, Government departments and agencies, and industry, concerning the provision, maintenance and operation of such facilities and concerning proposed or existing legislation affecting domestic transportation. In exercising the authority and performing the functions, duties, and responsibilities imposed upon him and the Office, he issues orders, directives, instructions, and statements of policy having general applicability and legal effect. He keeps the President informed with respect to transportation matters and the progress made in the performance of these duties and functions.

The Office of the Director, in addition to the Director, consists of a deputy director, an executive assistant to the director, an executive officer, an information officer, a rate consultant, a highway transport consultant, a statistician, and a historian.

(1) Office of the deputy director. The deputy director, during the absence of the director, acts as director and for him on such matters of official business as require immediate attention, and is responsible at all times for the coordination of all parts of the transportation program.

(2) Office of the executive assistant. The executive assistant to the director is responsible for the coordination of interdivisional relationships in the Office of Defense Transportation, for the effectuation of policies established by the director in the overall administration of programs of the Office; provides liaison with other Government departments, independent establishment and agencies; and performs such other duties as may be assigned to him from time to time by the director or deputy director.

(3) Executive officer. The executive officer's functions relate only to the internal management of the Office of Defense Transportation. He is in charge of the administrative office which consists of a personnel officer, a budget and fiscal officer, and a service operations officer.

(4) Information officer. The information officer plans, directs, and coordinates the public information and public relations activities of the Office.

(b) Staff divisions and departments. The remainder of the central organization is divided into: staff divisions and transport departments.

(1) Staff divisions. The staff divisions are: Office of the General Counsel and Division of Manpower and Materials.

(i) Office of the General Counsel. The Office of the General Counsel consists of a general counsel, two assistant general counsels, one or more attorneys, and staff. During the absence of the general counsel and when so directed one of the assistants acts as general counsel.

The Office of the General Counsel handles all legal matters pertaining to the activities of the Office of Defense Transportation and the Director thereof; represents the legal interests of the Office before commissions, boards, and other tribunals, departments and agencies; is responsible for the legal aspects of compliance with, and enforcement of, the orders, directives, and policies of the Office; and renders opinions and interpretations involving such orders and directives.

(ii) Division of Manpower and Materials. The Division of Manpower and Materials consists of a director and an assistant director. During the absence of the director, the assistant acts as director.

The Division of Manpower and Materials is responsible for the procurement and availability of basic data as to labor supply and requirements with respect to domestic transportation; analyzes and estimates employment trends; works with various labor and mangement committees, with other Government agencies, trade associations, and transport departments of the Office of Defense Transportation in planning manpower programs for each branch of domestic transportation; explores and encourages the use of new sources of personnel; prepares for the Office of Defense Transportation, as agent for the Civilian Production Administration, and presents to the Director of Selective Service certifications for deferment from induction into the military service of important or key personnel, or personnel difficult of replacement, employed in domestic transportation service; promotes more efficient utilization of transportation personnel; encourages establishment of adequate personnel training programs; analyzes the important monthly employment data collected by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the monthly survey of labor needs and surpluses collected by the Railroad Retirement Board, and manpower reports received from individual railroads.

With respect to transportation materials and equipment, the Division of Manpower and Materials acts for, and represents, the Office of Defense Transportation as claimant agency for domestic transportation needs before the Civilian Production Administration with respect to controlled or rationed materials. In this connection it determines the estimated requirements for transportation material and equipment; assembles the estimates into an integrated domestic transportation requirements program; presents the approved program to the Civilian Production Administration; arranges the proper allocation of materials and equipment in accordance with determinations of the Civilian Production Administration; sees that material and equipment are forthcoming in accordance with approved schedules of priority; maintains liaison between the Office of Defense Transportation and all Government and private agencies on matters of material and equipment for which the Office is claimant agency; cooperates with other Federal agencies and private groups to determine the accurate and justifiable needs of the domestic transportation industry.

(2) Transport departments. The transport departments are: Railway Transport Department and Waterways Transport Department.

(i) Railway Transport Department. The Railway Transport Department consists of a director in charge of the department, an assistant director, an assistant director in charge of car utilization, and an assistant director in charge of export-import transportation (domestic).

The assistant director assists the director in the performance of his duties and in his absence acts as director of the department.

The assistant director in charge of car utilization is directly responsible for the administration of General Order ODT 1, Revised, and General Order ODT 18A, Revised. He handles for the department matters pertaining to the maximum and efficient utilization of railway cars and motive power.

The assistant director in charge of export-import transportation (domestic) administers the provisions of General Order ODT 16C and handles for the department matters pertaining to railway freight traffic into, within, and from port areas.

This department plans, directs, and coordinates the railway transportation program of the Office; surveys railway facilities and equipment and determines their adequacy to fulfill wartime requirements; develops and administers measures designed to secure the maximum use of railway transport facilities and equipment; maintains liaison with other Government agencies and members of the transportation industry to carry out effectively the duties and activities of the department.

This department administers the provisions of General Order ODT 1, Revised (11 F. R. 8228), General Order ODT 18A, Revised (11 F. R. 8229), and General Order ODT 16C (10 F. R. 12855).

(ii) Waterways Transport Department. The Waterways Transport Department consists of a director in charge of the department, an assistant to the director, and staff. The assistant to the director acts as director of the department in the absence of the director.

It is the responsibility of this department to plan for and secure maximum and efficient utilization of all water craft and shore facilities in domestic transportation, including Great Lakes, inland waterways, and coastwise and intercoastal shipping.

§ 507.4 Field organization; functions. (a) The field organization is a part of the Railway Transport Department and performs its functions under the supervision and direction of the director of that department. The organization consists of an associate director, Railway Transport Department, in charge of the organization, assisted by an assistant associate director.

(b) The organization supervises, plans, and coordinates the movement of iron ore and grain over existing domestic transportation facilities (rail, motor vehicle, and water) to relieve congestion at loading points and rail terminals, to secure maximum use of such facilities and to provide such facilities at points of urgent need; gathers and receives information from shippers, the transportation industry, and others, concerning the movement of iron ore and grain and the need for transportation facilities at specific points or in areas of need, the causes of delays in transportation, and the condition of loading and unloading points with respect to congestion of traffic; makes recommendations to the Director of Railway Transport, the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the railroads, concerning the placing and lifting of embargoes, and, when so ordered by the Commission, as its agent, orders rerouting of grain shipments; explains to shippers of iron ore and grain, and others, the policy of the Office respecting the movement of such commodities and attempts to secure voluntary cooperation to carrying out such policy.

(c) Its offices are located at Room 1823, 209 South Wells Street, Chicago, Illinois, where requests for, and information pertaining to, car supply for the movement of iron ore and grain may be submitted.

§ 507.5 Information, submittals, and requests; where to be submitted or made. (a) Unless otherwise ordered, directed, or instructed by an order, directive, or instruction issued by the Office of Defense Transportation and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, any request for, or submittal of, information pertaining to, and any request or application for official action on, any matter within the jurisdiction of the Office of Defense Transportation, may be directed to it at the Interstate Commerce Commission Building, 12th and Constitution Avenue, Washington 25, District of Columbia.

(b) Requests for assistance in obtaining from the Civilian Production Administration priority ratings for materials for the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of domestic transportation facilities may also be directed to the Director, Division of Manpower and Materials, Office of Defense Transportation, at the address above stated. Anyone desiring such assistance under the present provisions of Civilian Production Administration Priority Regulation 28 should obtain Form CPA 541A from the nearest office of the Civilian Production Administration and submit the completed form together with supporting information to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, District of Columbia, and a copy of such form and supporting information to the Director, Division of Manpower and Materials, with a request for such assistance.

(c) Requests for certification for deferment of registrants employed in domestic transportation service from induction into military service should be prepared and submitted as provided in Administrative Order ODT 33.

(d) Applications for special permits to relieve applicant from some provision of an order, directive, or instruction issued by the Office of Defense Transportation, when such order, directive, or instruction provides for such permits, may be made to the officer authorized to issue such permits at the Office of Defense Transportation, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, 12th and Constitution Avenue, Washington 25, District of Columbia. Applications for special permits provided for in General Orders ODT 1, Revised, and 18A, Revised, should be directed to the Assistant Director, Car Utilization, Railway Transport Department, at the address given above. The manner of making and handling such applications is set forth in Administrative Order ODT 32, Part 503 of this chapter.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of August 1946.

J. M. JOHNSON,
Director.

[Administrative Order ODT 32]

PART 503—ADMINISTRATION; PROCEDURES; ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PERMITS

General outline. This order prescribes the procedure for applying for, and the issuance of, special permits granting relief from compliance with one or more provisions of an order, directive, or instruction of the Office of Defense Transportation relating to the use or operation of domestic transportation facilities. Special permits are granted only when provision is made therefor in the substantive order, directive, or instruction from which relief is sought. Provision for such permits is now contained in only two of the outstanding orders of the Office of Defense Transportation: General Order ODT 1, Revised, as amended (11 F. R. 8228, 8740, and 9040), and General Order ODT 18A, Revised, as amended (11 F. R. 8229 and 8829).

This order specifies the information to be submitted by the applicant and the place and manner of making application. The issuing officer, as defined in the order, is authorized, upon approval of an application in whole or in part, to issue a special permit under prescribed circumstances; otherwise he may deny.

The applicant may have the issuing officer's decision reviewed, as provided in the order. Procedure for renewal or extension of a special permit is set forth. This general outline shall not be construed to alter the meaning of any provision of this order.

The text of Administrative Order ODT 32 follows:

Pursuant to section 2 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940, as amended by Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, as amended, Executive Orders 8989, as amended, 9156, 9214, and 9729, and in order to regulate application for, and the issuance of, special permits authorized by, and granting relief from compliance with, provisions of substantive orders, directives, or instructions of the Office of Defense Transportation relating to the use and operation of domestic transportation facilities It is hereby ordered, That:

Sec.
503.530 Application for special permit.
503.531 Proof required; investigation by issuing officer.
503.532 Approval or disapproval of application; issuance of special permit.
503.533 Disapproval memorandum; service.
503.534 Review of issuing officer's disapproval; public inspection of records of final disposition of applications.
503.535 Application for renewal or extension.
503.536 Termination and expiration of special permits.
503.537 Definitions.
503.538 Communications.

§ 503.530 Application for special permit. (a) An application for a special permit relieving any person from compliance with one or more provisions of a substantive order, directive, or instruction issued by the Office of Defense Transportation relating to the use or operation of domestic transportation facilities may be made informally, either orally or in writing, and shall show:

(1) The correct name, address, and principal place of business of the applicant;

(2) The specific provision or provisions from which the applicant requests relief;

(3) The specific relief requested by applicant; and

(4) The pertinent facts upon which applicant bases his request for relief.

(b) The application, if in writing, shall be signed by applicant or by his lawfully authorized agent or representative familiar with the facts stated therein. If the application is made orally it shall be confirmed by written memorandum or letter signed by applicant or such an agent or representative and mailed or delivered forthwith to the issuing officer, as herein defined, and shall contain the information above specified.

(c) Any application for a special permit shall be addressed to the issuing officer, Office of Defense Transportation, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, 12th and Constitution Avenue, Washington 25, D. C., unless otherwise directed by an order or instruction of said Office.

§ 503.531 Proof required; investigation by issuing officer. The issuing officer may require applicant to submit reasonable proof of statements made in support of the application and may make such investigation as may be reasonably necessary for proper disposition of the application. The issuing officer is not required to make disposition unless and until such reasonable proof, if required, has been submitted, provided that disposition of any such application shall not be delayed for more than fifteen days from the date of making the same for the purpose of completing any such investigation.

§ 503.532 Approval or disapproval of application; issuance of special permit. (a) The issuing officer may grant the application in whole or in part when:

(1) The provisions of the pertinent order, directive, or instruction of the Office of Defense Transportation from which relief is sought are subject to a special permit; and

(2) The facts warrant the issuance of a special permit as specified in such order, directive, or instruction.

(b) Upon approving an application in whole or in part, the issuing officer shall issue a special permit and may limit the scope and period of effectiveness thereof as the facts may warrant.

(c) When the issuing officer disapproves an application in accordance with a pertinent order, directive, or instruction, the special permit applied for shall be denied.

§ 503.533 Disapproval memorandum; service. Upon disapproving an application in whole or in part, the issuing officer shall make a written memorandum of his findings, the fact of such disapproval and the reasons therefor, and forthwith shall serve a copy thereof upon the applicant by mail at the address shown by the application.

§ 503.534 Review of issuing officer's disapproval; public inspection of records of final disposition of applications. (a) Within ten days after the receipt of notice of the issuing officer's disapproval of an application in whole or in part, applicant may file with the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation a request for review of such disapproval. Such request may be made informally in writing and shall contain statements showing the reason why the issuing officer's disapproval should be amended, modified, or reversed.

(b) The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation will promptly review the application and all material submitted in support thereof, the request for review and material submitted in support thereof, and the findings of the issuing officer, and enter a decision affirming, amending, modifying, or reversing the issuing officer's disapproval as the law and the facts may warrant together with the reasons therefor, and forthwith shall serve a copy thereof upon applicant by mail at the address shown in the application, unless the applicant shall have designated in writing a different address.

(c) Every decision made upon review of disapproval of an application for a special permit, or of an extension or renewal thereof, or upon review of the termination of a special permit, as provided in § 503.536 (a), and the opinion supporting, or reasons assigned for, such order, and every memorandum of the approval by an issuing officer of an application for a special permit or renewal or extension thereof, and of the reasons for such approval, shall be open to public inspection during office hours at the offices of the Office of Defense Transportation, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, 12th and Constitution Avenue, Washington 25, D. C. Request for such inspection may be made to the executive officer.

§ 503.535 Application for renewal or extension. The issuing officer may renew or extend the period of effectiveness of any special permit issued by him under the provisions of this order upon application therefor showing the facts claimed by the permit holder to justify such renewal or extension. The application shall be made in the same manner as an original application for the permit and shall be disposed of in the same manner.

§ 503.536 Termination and expiration of special permits. (a) The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation or the issuing officer may terminate any special permit or renewal or extension thereof at any time after the issuance thereof when it appears from reliable information that the facts upon which such permit was issued or any renewal or extension thereof granted were misrepresented or that the conditions warranting the issuance or the renewal or extension thereof no longer exist. Notice of termination and the reasons therefor shall be given to the permit holder by mail and upon receipt of such notice the holder shall surrender the permit forthwith by delivering or mailing it to the issuing officer. A review of the termination of any permit terminated by an issuing officer may be had within the time and in the manner specified in § 503.534 for review of disapproval of an application.

(b) Each special permit or any renewal or extension thereof shall become void upon the issuance by the Office of Defense Transportation of any order, directive, or instruction, or any amendment or modification thereof, which increases in any respect the requirements of the provisions from which the permit grants relief. In such event, the permit holder shall surrender the permit forthwith by delivering or mailing it to the issuing officer.

(c) No subsequent application for a permit or for any renewal or extension thereof filed by an applicant who has failed to surrender his permit in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section will be considered until such surrender has been made.

§ 503.537 Definitions. As used in this order, the term: (a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative, and includes any department or agency of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or any other political, governmental, or legal entity.

(b) "Issuing officer" means any officer of the Office of Defense Transportation authorized by an order, directive, or instruction of that Office to pass upon applications for and issue special permits granting relief from any provision of any such order, directive, or instruction. With respect to special permits authorized by General Orders ODT 1, Revised, as amended, and 18A, Revised, as amended, the term "issuing officer" means the assistant director (car utilization), Railway Transport Department, Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 503.538 Communications. Communications concerning §§ 503.530 to 503.538, inclusive, should refer to "Administrative Order ODT 32" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Railway Transport Department, Office of Defense Transportation, Room 5107, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, Washington 25, D. C. (Telephone Number Republic 7500, Extension 3539).

This order shall become effective on September 11, 1946.

NOTE: The recording and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D. C. this 28th day of August 1946.

J. M. JOHNSON,
Director.

R. 526); procedure for adjustments, amendments, protests, and interpretations under rent regulations.* (1) Landlords' petitions and tenants' applications. Procedure governing filing, form, content, investigation, action by rent director, application for review, action on application for review, and oral hearings.

(2) Petition for amendment. Procedure governing filing, form, contents, and action by the Administrator.

(3) Protests. Procedure governing filing, time of filing, form, amendment of protest and presentation of additional evidence, action by the Administrator, basis for determination, contents of protests and supporting materials, consideration of protests by boards of review, rules governing consideration by boards of review, and determination of protests.

(4) Interpretations. Definition of official interpretation and procedure for requesting, issuing and revoking or modifying.

(5) Miscellaneous provisions. Includes witness fees, contemptuous conduct, continuance or adjournment of hearing, subpoenas, filing of notices, service of papers, action by representative, office hours of the Office of the Secretary, confidential information, and appearance of employees or former employees before the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Revised Procedural Regulation 4 (9 F. R. 9412); procedure for issuance of Rationing Suspension Orders, and determination of violation. (1) Institution and conduct of proceedings. Notice of hearing, conduct of hearing, rules of evidence, appearances, continuance or adjournment of hearing, defaults, subpoenas, payment of witness fees and mileage, contemptuous conduct, transcript of hearings, presiding officer's advisory report, service of the report, briefs on presiding officer's advisory report, briefs after hearing before hearing commissioner.

(2) Orders and determinations of hearing commissioners. Suspension order or determination of hearing commissioner, stay of operation of suspension order, consent order or determination, application for modification, vacation or further hearing in suspension order proceedings and order upon application.

(3) Appeals from orders of war price and rationing boards or special hearing officers.

(4) Appeals to review and hearing by hearing administrator. Hearing and order by the administrator, petition for reconsideration of order or determination of hearing administrator, appeals from orders or determinations of hearing commissioners, notice of appeal, stay pending appeal, record on appeal briefs, oral argument, order on appeal, review on initiative of hearing administrator.

(5) Miscellaneous. Service of papers, office hours of the office of hearing commissioners and hearing administrator, definitions and effective date.

(d) Procedural Regulation 6 (7 F. R. 5087); procedure for the adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. (1) Procedure governing filing, form, verification, place for filing, number of copies, action by regional offices, review by the Administrator, action by the Administrator, and protest of denial of application.

(2) Appendix A, including Form 6 PH–1.

(e) Procedural Regulation 7 (8 F. R. 5842); adjustment of prices in territories and possessions. Establishes procedure governing adjustment of prices in territories and possessions, including filing, content, verification, place of filing, investigation, action by the regional administrator, review by the Administrator, action by the Administrator, and protest of denial of application.

(f) Procedural Regulation 11 (7 FR 9390); notice of increases in rates and charges of common carriers and other public utilities. (1) Definition of a general increase.

(2) General requirements with respect to notice.

(3) Contents of notice filed by common carriers, public utilities, and public utilities subject to regulation under the Packers and Stockyards Act.

(g) Second Revised Procedural Regulation 13 (11 FR 9355); procedure applicable to Industry Advisory Committees appointed under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended. (1) General functions and powers of industry advisory committees.

(2) Authority of the price executive of a commodity or service branch and of the director of the office of industry advisory committees.

(3) Appointment of committees. Includes time of appointment, composition of committees, committee designation and announcement, alteration of committees, standing subcommittees, and temporary subcommittees.

(4) Operations of committees. Includes officers and employees, finances, and meetings, and formal committee action.

(5) Waiver.

(h) Procedural Regulation 14 (9 FR 1594); appearance of Office of Price Administration employees and former employees before the Office of Price Administration. Defines administrative proceedings, person, and full-time officer or employee, and states the prohibitions on appearance of employees and former employees before the Office of Price Administration in Administrative proceedings.

(i) Procedural Regulation 15 (10 F. R. 9957); applications by ineligible slaughterers receiving extra-compensation payments for relief with respect to such payments. Establishes procedures, including filing of applications, form and place of filing, content, additional information required, hearings, action by the Administrator, and review by the U. S. Emergency Court of Appeals, to be used by the Administrator in carrying out functions, powers and duties delegated to him by the Economic Stabilization Director pursuant to the provisions of Sec. 2 of the Act of June 26, 1945 (P. L. 88, 79th Congress, First Session).

(j) Procedural Regulation 16 (10 F. R. 10226); applications for special subsidy payable to slaughterers. Establishes procedure, including filing of applications, form, content, amount of subsidy, conditions of subsidy, and termination, to be used by the Administrator pursuant to Directive No. 41 issued by the Economic Stabilization Director on April 23, 1945.

(k) Procedural Regulation 17 (11 F. R. 9345); procedures for statutory decontrol. (1) Decontrol petitions by industry advisory committees for removal of maximum prices: procedure governing form, content, signature, action by the Administrator, dismissal, amended petitions.

(2) Hearings. Procedure governing requests for further considerations, notice of hearings before the Administrator or Deputy Administrator, evidence on behalf of the Consumers Advisory Committee, and the Labor Advisory Committee conduct of hearing, reports, and action by the Administrator.

(3) Miscellaneous. Petitions to the Price Decontrol Board, confidential information, service of notices, decontrol division office hours, acceptance of filing and assignment of docket number.

(l) Supplementary Order 173 (11 F. R. 8828); exemption from price control of new commodities. Establishes procedure for filing an application for exemption from price control of a new commodity where the Administrator finds that its use, in the production, manufacturing, or processing of any commodity, without increasing the cost to the ultimate user, either increases the life or reduces the cost of production, manufacture, or processing of the commodity produced, manufactured, or processed.

§ 1300.1102 Price control board conferences. When a price control board has received information which leads it to believe that a seller has violated an OPA price ceiling, that board asks the seller to appear for a conference. A panel of board members, who specialize in the commodity concerned, acts for the board. At the conference the panel discusses with the seller the facts it has obtained relating to the reported violation and endeavors to determine whether or not the seller actually has violated maximum price regulations. If he has not violated the regulations, the panel will dismiss the case. If he has violated the regulations the panel will negotiate with him a settlement of the OPA Administrator's claim. In case the seller agrees with the recommendation of the panel, he signs Form T–821, Seller's Determination of Overcharges, and Form T–806 Seller's Compliance Statement. He provides a check or money order for the amount of the settlement and also a check or money order for the amount of any refunds to known consumers who were overcharged. The board then transmits the case to the district office where the settlement will be reviewed before approval. Although the panel cannot compel the seller to attend a conference or to agree to the recommended settlement, because of its friendly approach and because its members are fellow citizens, it usually receives the cooperation of the seller. If the seller refuses to cooperate, the board reports the full facts of the case to the district office which has full authority to take any necessary action.

§ 1300.1103. Forms and instructions. The Office of Price Administration predicates its actions on factual information which covers a wide variety of subjects. A great deal of that information is obtained from members of the public on the forms listed below:

SUBPART A—THE ADMINISTRATOR

§ 1305.510 Authority of the Price Administrator; directing and approval powers of the President and other Federal agencies with respect to price control and rationing. The Office of Price Administration, under the direction of a Price Administrator, was created by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, with basic authority to establish maximum prices for commodities (including services in connection with commodities) and maximum rents for defense area housing accommodations. The act specifies legal standards governing the exercise of this authority, and grants supplementary powers, including the power to delegate authority, necessary for its administration and enforcement. Regulations establishing maximum prices and maximum rents are subject to review by the Emergency Court of Appeals in accordance with procedures prescribed by the act.

(a) The Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, granted broad economic stabilization powers to the President, including authority to prescribe policies governing the Office of Price Administration and other agencies. The President has delegated to the Office of Economic Stabilization in the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion this power to issue directives on policy.

(b) With respect to agricultural commodities and food or feed products derived in whole or substantial part therefrom, actions by the Price Administrator must be previously approved in writing by the Secretary of Agriculture. In addition (after September 1, 1946), no maximum price may apply to any such commodity unless the Secretary has certified that it is in short supply. The Secretary has authority to make binding recommendations to the Price Administrator for the adjustment of maximum prices on such commodities which are in short supply, and for the removal of maximum prices on such commodities which the Secretary determines are not important in relation to business costs or living costs. Whenever the Secretary determines that such a commodity from which control has been removed is in short supply, and should be subjected to price control, he may, with the written consent of the Price Decontrol Board (see below), make a binding recommendation to the Price Administrator for the reestablishment of maximum prices for that commodity.

(c) The Price Decontrol Board was established by the Emergency Price Control Act (as amended in July 1946) to act upon the petitions of industry advisory committees for the decontrol of commodities, where such petitions have been presented to and denied by the Price Administrator, in the case of nonagricultural commodities, and by the Secretary of Agriculture in the case of agricultural commodities and food or feed products derived in whole or substantial part therefrom. With respect to certain commodities, from which price control was removed by Congress until August 21, 1946, and for which the Board, pursuant to its powers under the amended act, did not, prior to August 21, 1946, order recontrol, the Board has authority to direct the Administrator to reestablish price controls.

(d) The rationing authority of OPA is derived from delegations of the President's power to allocate materials and facilities under the Second War Powers Act of 1942. This power has been delegated through the Secretary of Agriculture in the case of food commodities and through the War Production Board (succeeded by Civilian Production Administration) in the case of other commodities.

(e) The Price Administrator is authorized by the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, to make subsidy payments under certain conditions. Funds have not been provided for the direct exercise of this power by the Administrator. In the case of commodities designated by the President as strategic or critical, the subsidy powers granted by the Act must be exercised by or through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Where the Reconstruction Finance Corporation conducts subsidy programs under this authority, the Price Administrator cooperates in the administration of related price controls. The Corporation, like the Price Administrator, is subject to the directive powers of the Office of Economic Stabilization.

(f) During any absence of the Administrator, an acting Administrator duly appointed by the Administrator may exercise all of the powers of the Administrator.

SUBPART B—GENERAL PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

§ 1305.525 Outline. The Office of Price Administration shall comprise the office of the Administrator, the executive staff, and the operating staff.

§ 1305.526 Office of the Administrator. The office of the Administrator shall comprise the deputy administrator and the assistants to the Administrator.

§ 1305.527 Authority of the Administrator. The authority of the Administrator, except as expressly reserved, shall be exercised:

(a) Generally by the deputy administrator for the purpose of over-all agency administration and management, including planning and coordinating programs, executing and administering orders, regulations and directives, and managing and supervising all general agency operations and personnel.

(b) Particularly by the executive heads of the several operating departments for planning and technically directing their several programs.

(c) Specifically by the assistants to the Administrator for purposes of a particular project assigned by the Administrator or deputy administrator.

§ 1305.528 The executive staff. The executive staff shall comprise the advisory offices, the advisory committees, the office of administrative hearings, and the management offices.

SUBPART I—PRICE DEPARTMENT

§ 1305.1100 Organization outline. The price department shall consist of the following organizational units:

Office of the Deputy Administrator.
Assistant Deputy Administrator for Decontrol.
Special Assistant.
Economic Adviser.
Office of War Goods and Foreign Trade.
Executive Officer.
Staff Divisions:
  Price-Legal Division.
  Price Decontrol Division.
Operating Divisions:
  Building and Construction Price Division.
  Consumer Goods Price Division.
  Food Price Division.
  Industrials Price Division.
  Sugar Rationing Division.
  Transportation Services and Fuel Division.

§ 1305.1110 Responsibilities of the Price Department—(a) Price. Authority of OPA for its price activities derives from the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended and the Stabilization Act of October 2, 1942 supplemented by Executive Orders 9250, 9328, 9599, and 9697.

(1) Under these acts the Administrator has, among others, the following responsibilities and powers:

(i) To establish, by regulation or order, generally fair and equitable maximum prices whenever prices have risen or threaten to rise contrary to the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, and to adjust maximum prices to correct gross inequities and remove impediments to the effective transition to a peace-time economy.

(ii) To issue temporary regulations and orders effective up to 60 days.

(iii) To issue regulations containing such classifications and differentials, and providing for such adjustments and reasonable exceptions as the Administrator deems necessary to carry out the purposes of the act.

(iv) To enter into voluntary arrangements or agreements with sellers relating to the fixing of maximum prices.

(v) To issue rules and regulations necessary to execute the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, to control speculative and manipulative practices, and to prevent circumvention and evasion.

(vi) To utilize the services of federal, state, and local agencies.

(vii) To make such studies and investigations and obtain such information as the Administrator deems necessary and proper to assist him in prescribing any regulation or order under the act.

(viii) To require the furnishing of information by those engaged in dealing with commodities; also the keeping of prescribed records, the making of prescribed reports, and the submission of books, records, and inventories for inspection.

(ix) To receive 30-day notice of every proposed general increase in the rates or charges of a common carrier or other public utility, and, in appropriate cases, to intervene on behalf of the Director of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion before the federal, state, or municipal authority having jurisdiction to consider such increases.

(2) In discharging these responsibilities the Administrator must conform to the requirements of the cited price control acts and executive orders including among others that the Administrator shall:

(i) Issue with each regulation or order (except a temporary 60-day regulation or order) a statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of the regulation or order.

(ii) Advise and consult so far as practicable, with representative members of the industry which will be affected, before issuance of any regulation or order (except a temporary 60-day regulation or order).

(iii) Withdraw maximum prices in conformity with decontrol provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act.

(iv) Obtain the prior approval of the Secretary of Agriculture or Price Decontrol Board in cases specified by the Stabilization laws.

(3) Under the general direction of the Administrator, the price department is responsible for discharging the responsibilities and exercising the functions, powers, and duties of OPA for Price Control.

(b) Rationing. Authority of OPA for its rationing activities derives from the Second War Powers Act and from directives of the Secretary of Agriculture.

(1) Under the act and directives the Administrator has the responsibility of providing equitable rationing of designated commodities allocated to meet civilian requirements.

(2) Under the general direction of the Administrator, the price department is responsible for discharging the responsibilities and exercising the functions, powers, and duties of OPA for rationing commodities.

§ 1305.1111 Deputy Administrator for Price. In the discharge of the designated responsibilities of the department, the deputy administrator for price, subject to the general supervision of the Administrator shall:

§ 1305.1304 Public Utilities Branch. This branch is chiefly concerned with the prevention of rate increases. Under authority delegated by the Office of Economic Stabilization, it receives notices of proposed rate increases; and compiles economic and other information on the utility involved, attempts to secure voluntary rate stabilization, and when necessary, intervenes in proceedings before federal, state, or local regulatory bodies to prevent such increases.

§ 1305.1305 Service Trades Price Branch. This branch performs for certain services the functions assigned to commodity branches (§1305.1123). In addition the services branch serves in an advisory capacity on pricing services under the jurisdiction of other price commodity branches, and is the official repository for all orders, interpretations, and other materials issued regarding services.

§ 1305.1306 Fuels Price Branch. The fuels price branch shall perform, for fuel commodities under its jurisdiction, the functions assigned to commodity branches (§ 1305.1123). In addition, it shall perform specific functions under compensatory adjustment plans covering solid fuels and stripper wells subsidy, and shall analyze price trends of decontrolled petroleum and petroleum products.

SUBPART J—ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

§ 1305.1400 Organization outline. The accounting department shall consist of the following organization units:

Office of the Deputy Administrator.
Executive Office for Accounting.
Field Accounting Division.
Accounting Operations Divisions.
Consumer Products Accounting Division.
Industrial Accounting Division.
Services Accounting and Audits Division.
Financial Reporting Division.

§ 1305.1401 Basic organization principles. Accounting operations divisions shall be organized in conformance to the following basic principles.

(a) Control level. Accounting operations units should parallel the accounting data collection controls established by operating departments. In general, unless other factors take precedence, the accounting branch should correspond to the control level in the operating department. Where the control level in the operating department is a division, the formation of accounting sections should, in the interests of flexibility, be kept to a minimum consistent with other organization principles.

(b) Supervisory requirements. Where the workload, size of staff, and multiplicity of special accounting problems warrant a division of responsibilities below the branch level, sections may be established with the approval of the executive officer for accounting and the director of budget and planning.

(c) Interchangeability. The accounting staff shall be organized in accordance with industry accounting practice to achieve maximum flexibility of assignment among programs as work pressures increase or decrease in commodity areas.

(d) Historical development. Due recognition shall be given to the working relationships which have developed between the accounting department and the operating departments.

§ 1305.1402 Responsibilities of the Accounting Department. Under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended June 30, 1944, the Administrator is required:

(a) Establish generally fair and equitable prices and rents.

(b) Give due consideration to the prices prevailing during the base period.

(c) Make adjustments for general increases and decreases in costs and profits.

(d) Make individual adjustments in those classes of cases where substantial hardship has resulted since the maximum rent date from a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

(e) Determine that no regulation or order shall contain any provision requiring the determination of costs otherwise than in accordance with established accounting methods. Under this act, the Administrator may make such investigations and obtain such information as he deems necessary to assist him in prescribing any regulation or order under this act, and in the administration and enforcement of this act and regulations, orders, and price schedules thereunder.

(1) The accounting department is responsible for obtaining the accounting information required for making these determinations in the administration of price and rent, and rationing regulations and their enforcement. Accounting investigations are requested by operating executives who determine their need and suggest their scope and timing.

(2) In performing accountant assignments as the basis for OPA actions, the accounting department, in order to insure objective treatment of business records, shall have full responsibility for the determination of accounting policy, the application of accounting methods, and the direction of the accounting program.

(3) The department shall be responsible for the collection, safeguarding, and tabulation of financial forms A and B and income tax data; for special periodic tabulations for price branches; and for supplying financial tabulations from forms A and B to other Federal agencies.

§ 1305.1403 Office of the Deputy Administrator for Accounting. In the exercise of the designated responsibilities of the department, the deputy administrator for accounting shall, subject to the general direction of the Administrator, establish and maintain accounting standards, determine accounting policies, supervise and direct the national office accounting staff, and provide technical supervision and direction for the accounting program in the field.

§ 1305.1404 Executive Office. The executive office for accounting shall be responsible for all management functions of the accounting department. Under the direction of the deputy administrator for accounting, the executive officer for accounting shall:

(a) Develop, install, and maintain basic systems of work control and program reporting.

(b) Review program operations for effectiveness and adequacy of performance; develop and effectuate plans for improvement; and approve all organization changes in the department.

(c) Review and approve accounting procedural issuances for administrative feasibility and conformance with department and agency policy; serve as a clearance point for the department for general materials.

(d) Be responsible for the preparation, justification, and administration of the budget for the department, and advise regional accounting executives on budget matters.

(e) Advise the deputy administrator for accounting on budgetary and personnel implications of policies, programs, shifts in jurisdictional assignments, and proposed organization changes; and approve plans for personnel use submitted by the division directors.

(f) Represent the department both in the field and in the national office on all administrative management matters; and provide administrative services for the national office department.

(g) Maintain liaison with the executive offices of other departments to achieve coordination of accounting activities with OPA programs.

§ 1305.1405 Field Accounting Division. (a) The field accounting division shall plan and coordinate the field accounting program; distribute accounting and auditing instructions to the field; evaluate field performances; and report to the deputy administrator for accounting on all field accounting matters.

(b) The division director is responsible to the deputy administrator for accounting for planning and coordinating departmental activities related to field operations. Specifically, he shall:

(1) Maintain liaison with the other departments of the national office and with the other divisions of the accounting department so that proposed programs can be briefed and the field advised as to the probable effect of such programs on field accounting operations. Advise the deputy administrator for accounting and the regional accounting executives as to field accounting implications of all OPA programs delegated to the field. On behalf of the deputy administrator for accounting, maintain personal contact with the appropriate assistant to the administrator on matters petraining to field accounting.

(2) Be responsible for the distribution to the field of accounting and auditing procedures and instructions pertaining to specific regulations or specific types of assignments.

(3) Coordinate and schedule all major accounting programs for the field, pursuant to consultations with the deputy administrator for accounting and the regional accounting executives as to the available field staff.

(4) Develop training programs for the field staff and arrange for advice and assistance to regional and district accounting executives on unusual problems.

(5) Review progress reports, narrative reports and workload reports, work with the executive officer for accounting in matters relating to field budget and personnel and transmit budget data to the field.

(6) Act for the deputy administrator for accounting by personal field contact in all matters concerned with the conduct of accounting operations in the field; organize and conduct conferences of the field accounting staff; attend field meetings as a representative of the national office; and serve as a central point of contact on field accounting operations.

§ 1305.1406 Accounting Operations Divisions. (a) Operating divisions covering specific accounting areas shall include the office of the director and commodity or service area branches within the jurisdiction of the division. The operating divisions shall, subject to the policies and procedures established by the deputy administrator for accounting, make accounting examinations, audits, analyses, investigations, and studies upon request of the price, rent, and enforcement departments, and perform other technical accounting services as delegated by the Administrator.

(b) The division director shall be responsible to the deputy administrator for accounting for the direction, coordination, and operation of the accounting and auditing program. Within the area of responsibility of the division he shall:

(1) Maintain professional accounting standards and accounting policy in the execution of the work program assigned to the division and for corresponding commodity and service area activities in the field; explain and interpret the standards to operating executives and to industry.

(2) Consult with and advise operating division heads in the development of broad operating plans and priority scheduling of work involving accounting activity to insure that they are capable of execution within the facilities of the accounting activity, or within the procurable facilites of other federal agencies.

(3) Maintain maximum feasible flexibility of the resources of the division and make such general reassignments of personnel and work programs as required to achieve the expeditious and adequate performance of assignments according to their relative urgency and importance.

(4) Participate in meetings with industry involving discussions of accounting methods and practices and advise on the accounting implications of proposed price or rent control or enforcement techniques.

(5) Continually appraise the technical accuracy and adequacy of accounting work within his area of responsibility both in the national office and the field, review accounting reports, evaluate and rectify sources of complaint.

(6) Consult and advise with the deputy administrator for accounting on accounting standards, policies and procedures as to their effect on OPA operations and business relations.

(7) Develop specifications, criteria, and instructions for use of field accountants in processing case assignments from the price, rent, rationing, and enforcement activities in the field.

§ 1305.1407 Accounting Operations Branches. (a) Commodity or service area branches, directed by branch chiefs, shall be responsible to the appropriate division director. Subject to his direction, the accounting operations branches shall:

(1) Advise and cooperate with operating executives in the development of plans for accounting or financial data collection projects involving determinations as to type and extent of data to be collected, sources of data and method of collection, and forms to be used.

(2) Conduct industry studies and accumulate data on production, marketing, overhead, and other costs and profits and profit margins.

(3) Develop specifications, procedures, and instructions for studies, audits, and investigations to be performed by field accountants.

(4) Study costs and profits of individual companies, industries, or corporations and make reports of findings as the basis for action on hardship cases, requests for exemption, or protests.

(5) Investigate accounting records and render reports on enforcement cases as required. Provide witnesses to testify in court in enforcement or other cases involving accounting records or accounting practices.

(6) Make such special studies, audits, and investigations in connection with compensatory adjustment regulations, subsidy payments, defense supply pricing, etc., as require technical auditing and accounting skills.

(b) Where effective execution of the branch work program requires further division of responsibilities, sections covering specific commodity or service areas may be established subject to approval by the executive officer for accounting and the director of budget and planning. Such sections will be under the direction of section heads responsible to the branch chiefs. Complete flexibility will be maintained at the branch level where work programs and personnel, other than section heads, will be assigned to sections on a project basis. Section heads shall act as staff assistants to the branch chief to the extent required for effective operation of the branch. Otherwise they will actively participate in the conduct of accounting work programs as project supervisors.

§ 1305.1408 Financial Reporting Division. Subject to the policies and procedures established by the deputy administrator for accounting, the financial reporting division shall collect, examine, tabulate and perform critical analyses of financial data representative of the financial position of industrial and commercial concerns subject to OPA regulations.

FIELD ACCOUNTING DIVISION

§ 1305.1420 Organization outline. The field accounting division shall consist of the following organization units:

Office of the Director.
Training Advisory and Procedures Branch.

Chemicals and Rubber Accounting Branch.
Machinery Accounting Branch.
Paper Accounting Branch.

§ 1305.1461 Responsibilities of the Division. The industrial accounting division shall, for all accounting requirements of the industrial materials and industrial manufacturing divisions and the agricultural chemicals section of the price department, perform the functions assigned to accounting operations divisions (§ 1305.1406).

§ 1305.1462 Commodity branches. The accounting branches shall for the commodities under the jurisdiction of industrial manufacturing and the price industrial divisions perform the functions assigned to accounting operations branches (§ 1305.1407).

§ 1305.1463 Building and Construction Accounting Branch. In addition to performing the functions of an accounting operations branch, the building and construction accounting branch, through the distribution and construction accounting section, shall conduct surveys required in the preparation of price actions on basic building components at the distributive levels and shall develop specifications and instructions for field accountants in obtaining and processing data for use in the establishment and/or adjustment of dollar-and-cent prices covering these products on an area basis.

SERVICES ACCOUNTING AND AUDITS DIVISION

§ 1305.1480 Organization of the Services Accounting and Audits Division. The division shall consist of the following units:

Office of the Director:
Rent, Services, and Enforcement Accounting Branch.
Fuel Accounting Branch.

§ 1305.1481 Responsibilities of the Division. The services accounting and audits division shall perform for the designated commodity and service areas the functions assigned to accounting operations divisions (§ 1305.1406).

§ 1305.1482 Rent, Services, and Enforcement Accounting Branch. The rent, services, and enforcement accounting branch shall perform for the rent and enforcement departments and the price organizational units indicated, the functions outlined for accounting operations branches (§ 1305.1407).

(a) The accounting surveys section shall conduct such surveys of rental housing income and expense as may be required by the rent department in the development and administration of the rent regulations.

(b) The rent adjustments accounting section shall make such examinations of accounting statements and accounting records of petitioners for adjustment under section 5 (a) (12) of the housing regulation and section 5 (a) (9) of the hotel and rooming house regulation as required at the national office level by the rent department for the effective administration of these sections. The section shall develop specifications, criteria, and instructions for field accountants in processing adjustment cases in the field.

(c) The transportation and services accounting section shall perform the accounting functions required by the transportation and public utilities division, the export-import office, the sugar rationing division, and the enforcement department. In addition the section shall develop procedures and instructions for the performance of such special audits as required by the enforcement department and the sugar rationing division.

(d) The restaurant accounting section shall perform the accounting functions required by the restaurant price branch.

§ 1305.1483 Fuel Accounting Branch. The fuel accounting branch shall, for the fuel price division, perform the functions assigned to accounting operations branches (§ 1305.1407). In addition, the compensatory adjustment section, under compensatory adjustment regulations as revised and amended, shall:

(a) Receive, audit, and approve for payment or disapprove applications for adjustment on the excess cost of transporting coal to dealers and other distributors within the area covered by the regulation.

(b) Make such audits of the records of the applicants as required to establish eligibility for compensatory adjustment.

FINANCIAL REPORTING DIVISION

§ 1305.1500 Organization of the Financial Reporting Division. The division shall consist of the following units:

Office of the Director.
Examination Branch.
Records and Control Branch.
Tabulation and Analysis Branch.

§ 1305.1501 Responsibilities of the Financial Reporting Division. The financial reporting division shall collect, examine, tabulate, and make critical analyses of financial data. It shall:

(a) Develop forms, procedures, and instructions for the use of industrial and commercial concerns in submitting annual and interim financial reports.

(b) Develop representative industry mailing lists, and make request of industry for submittal of financial reports.

(c) Obtain financial data for 1936 and subsequent years from income tax transcripts and original income tax forms of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

(d) Examine financial data received, in order to insure their accuracy and consistency from accounting and financial standpoints.

(d) Tabulate financial data and analyze critically by comparing results for various industries, size groups, and geographical area and testing results by other statistical methods.

(f) Be responsible for controlling and safeguarding financial information received in accordance with section 202 of the Emergency Price Control Act and for conducting negotiations with the Bureau of Internal Revenue and other federal agencies for the interchange of reports comparable with forms A and B.

§ 1305.1502 Office of the Director. Subject to the accounting policies established by the deputy administrator for accounting, the director shall be responsible for establishing policies governing the financial reporting program. The office of the director shall include an assistant to the director who shall be responsible to the director for developing over-all procedures and policies and for technical assistance in the operation of the division; and represent the director as an alternate in meetings with operating executives, industry, and other federal agencies.

§ 1305.1503. Examination Branch. The examination branch shall be responsible for:

(a) Developing forms A and B, supplements thereto, and related forms for obtaining financial data, subject to approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(b) Developing procedures and criteria for the examination of financial data.

(c) Examining and correcting financial reports.

(d) Handling correspondence with companies filing reports under the financial reporting program.

§ 1305.1504 Records and Controls Branch. The records and controls branch shall be responsible for:

(a) Safeguarding the confidential character of financial reports and income tax records through:

(1) Provision and maintenance of a central filing system, including charging-out items.

(2) Provision and maintenance of a routing system for financial reports within the national office, between the national and field offices, and between OPA and other governmental agencies.

(b) Maintaining mailing list of representative concerns in industries subject to price control.

(c) Maximum utilization of information furnished by financial reports and correspondence through development and maintenance of:

(1) A system of recording and following up required reports to insure compliance with reporting schedules.

(2) A system of receiving, routine, and expediting correspondence to insure good public relations.

(3) A centralized directory of financial records available in the division and elsewhere in OPA and of their location.

(d) A system of summarizing and condensing financial records according to plans formulated in collaboration with the historical records branch, and of transferring them to the OPA records center or the National Archives.

§ 1305.1505 Tabulation and Analysis Branch. The tabulation and analysis branch shall be responsible for:

(a) Scheduling manual and machine tabulations of statistical data.

(b) Developing statistical standards and procedures for guidance of the division in its presentation of financial data designed to meet the needs of price projects and programs.

(c) Preparing machine code sheets for financial reports and income tax transcripts.

(d) Making tabulations as required by manual or machine methods.

(e) Editing, reviewing, analyzing, and summarizing tabulated material.

(f) Developing and revising samples of representative concerns used in connection with the financial reporting program.

(g) Evaluating coverage of reports and advising other departments on sampling problems in connection with the financial reporting program.

SUBPART K—RENT DEPARTMENT

§ 1305.1700 Organization outline. The rent department shall be under the direction of the deputy administrator for rent who shall be responsible to the Administrator. The rent department shall have the following organization:

The Office of the Deputy Administrator for Rent:
Rent Legal Division.
Program Division.
Operations Division.

§ 1305.1701 Responsibilities of the Rent Department. The authority of OPA for rent control derives from the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The rent department in both the national office and in the field is responsible for the effective execution of the rent control provisions of the Act and for all matters pertaining thereto, except those which have been specifically delegated by the Administrator to the accounting, enforcement, and information departments.

§ 1305.1702 Office of the Deputy Administrator for Rent. The office of the deputy administrator for rent shall include an assistant to the deputy administrator for rent who shall generally assist the deputy administrator in the discharge of the responsibilities of the rent department. Subject to the provisions of law, policies, rules, and regulations prescribed by the Administrator, the office of the deputy administrator for rent shall:

(a) Advise the Administrator concerning the designation of defense-rental areas and the institution, modification, or discontinuance of rent control in defense-rental areas.

(b) Direct the preparation of rent regulations and amendments thereto for issuance by the Administrator and general interpretations.

(c) Collaborate with the general counsel in formulating recommendations for the disposition by the Administrator of protests against rent regulations and orders.

(d) Approve for issuance policy statements and operating instructions in connection with the rent control program.

(e) Direct and supervise the rent department in the national office.

RENT-LEGAL DIVISION

§ 1305.1720 Organization. The rent-legal division consists of the associate general counsel for rent and his staff.

§ 1305.1721. Responsibilities of the Division. The associate general counsel for rent acts as legal advisor to the deputy administrator for rent. The rent-legal division, under the direct supervision of the associate general counsel for rent, is responsible for the legal aspects of the federal rent control program, including the legal sufficiency of substantive and procedural regulations, and amendments thereto, as well as all orders issued by the Administrator in the field of rent control. It is directly responsible for the issuance of official interpretations and the over-all supervision of all interpretations of the rent regulations. Through the regional rent attorneys, it coordinates and gives over-all direction to the work of area rent attorneys.

OPERATIONS DIVISION

§ 1305.1740 Organization outline. The operations division shall consist of the following units:

Office of the Director.
Field Liaison Branch.
Review Branch.
Compliance Branch.
Control Branch.

§ 1305.1741 Responsibilities of the Division. The operations division is responsible for the planning, direction, supervision, and operation of the rent control program throughout the field organization.

§ 1305.1742 Office of the Director. The office of the director shall include an associate director who shall generally assist the director in administering the rent control program in the field and advise the deputy administrator for rent of budgetary implications of proposed changes in policy, program, and organization. Specifically, the office shall:

(a) Direct the formulation of standards, practices, and methods for the administration of field offices.

(b) Act as liaison between the national office and field offices and direct the preparation of instructions, procedures, and forms for use both in the national office and in the field and assist in the installation of new procedures in the field.

(c) Direct the training and the work simplification programs both in the national office and in the field.

(d) Be responsible for the administrative direction of the rent compliance program both in the national office and the field.

(e) Analyze and review field operations through program reports and actual case records and review regional office decisions on applications for review.

(f) Act in a liaison capacity with the national budget and planning office on field budget matters; and with the national personnel office with respect to standards and qualifications for field personnel. Consults with regional rent executives on budget and personnel matters.

§ 1305.1743 Field Liaison Branch. The field liaison branch acts in liaison between the national office and field offices and is responsible for the installation of the work simplification and training programs in all field offices. Specifically, the branch shall:

(a) Be generally responsible for the effectiveness of operations in field offices relating to adjustment actions and to evictions and make recommendations of changes in policies and procedures.

(b) Develop standards and procedures which will effectively implement the execution of established rent policies in the field.

(c) Direct the installation of the work simplification and training programs in the field offices.

(d) Be responsible for the training of all field personnel except compliance personnel.

§ 1305.1744 Review Branch. The review branch is responsible, through examination of case dockets involving adjustment actions and eviction actions, for obtaining national uniformity in the application of the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the rent and procedural regulations and amendments, and established procedures and policies as they affect the determination of rent adjustment and eviction actions. Specifically, the branch shall:

(a) Review all applications for review of area rent directors' orders which have been filed and acted upon by the regional offices and review by spot check area rent office case dockets involving landlords' petitions for adjustment or eviction, tenants' applications for adjustment and actions of adjustment begun by the rent director on his own initiative, all for the purpose of obtaining national uniformity in the application of the provision of the Act, regulations, policy procedures, etc.

(b) Analyze monthly narrative reports submitted by all field offices for the purpose of determining overall operational activities.

§ 1305.1745 Compliance Branch The compliance branch, under the administrative direction of the director of the operations division and with technical guidance from the associate general counsel for rent, plans and directs the operation of the rent compliance program both in the national office and in the field. Specifically, the branch shall:

(a) Act as representative of the rent department in integrating the compliance and enforcement program both in the national office and in the field.

(b) Develop techniques and procedures to facilitate surveys designed to discover significant conditions of noncompliance with the rent regulations, issuing instructional and training materials therefor.

(c) Be responsible for the training of all compliance personnel.

§ 1305.1746 Control Branch. The control branch is responsible for the proper administration of the correspondence and files of the rent department, maintaining a mail control system and control of distribution of procedural releases, forms, reports, and instructions to the field.

PROGRAM DIVISION

§ 1305.1760 Organization outline. The program division shall consist of the following organization units:

Office of the Director.
Regulations and Review branch.
Financial and Statistical branch.

§ 1305.1761. Responsibilities of the Division. The program division is responsible for formulating the basic economic policy and for developing and recommending programs to effectuate the over-all policy of the rent department.

§1305.1762 Office of the Director. The office of the director shall be responsible to the deputy administrator for rent for formulating the economic policy, the development of programs, and the research for carrying out such policy. Specifically, the office of the director shall:

(a) Make over-all economic analyses of the effects of various regulations on the rent control program.

(b) Make recommendations concerning the fairness and equity of rent ceilings throughout the United States.

(c) Draft new programs which the rent department may undertake.

(d) Collaborate with economic advisers of other federal agencies on policies and methods for stabilizing the national economy in the broad field of residential real estate.

§ 1305.1763 Regulations and Review Branch. The regulations and review branch shall be responsible for formulating policies and making recommendations concerning the establishment and removal of rent control in defense-rental areas throughout the United States, and for review of all rent regulations, amendments, interpretations, and Administrator's opinions on protest prior to their issuance to determine their economic implications and to assure conformity with the basic policies of the rent control program. Specifically, the branch shall:

(a) Formulate policies and develop procedures for the establishment and removal of rent control. Make surveys and analyze survey data on the need for control of rents and the decontrol of rents in defense-rental areas and, on the basis of these analyses, make recommendations for the establishment and removal of rent control, the maximum rent dates for new areas, and the geographic boundaries of areas to be placed under rent control or decontrolled.

(b) Review rent regulations, amendments, interpretations and Administrator's opinions on protests prior to their issuance to determine their economic implications and to assure conformity with the basic policies of the rent control program. Where necessary, initiate new amendments and interpretations and recommend alternatives which will make proposed actions conform to the economic objectives of the rent control program.

(c) Prepare economic records and briefs which serve as the basis for legal orders and opinions to dispose of protests against the rent regulations or individual orders issued thereunder and of petitions for amendment of the rent regulations in all cases where an issue is made concerning the need for rent control, the maximum rent dates selected, or the geographic boundaries of defense-rental areas. Advise the court review, research, and opinion division, office of the general counsel, on rent matters.

§ 1305.1764 Financial and Statistical Branch. The financial and statistical branch shall be responsible for the collection, analysis and interpretation of all cost data pertaining to rental housing operation; assembling of such financial data as is necessary for a determination on protests against the rent regulations; and the reporting of workload and program statistics from area offices. Specifically, the branch shall:

(a) Program and analyze accounting surveys conducted by the accounting department on the operation of rental housing.

(b) Present graphically the results of the financial or operations work of the branch for use in the national and field offices.

(c) Analyze and present operations statistics received from all field offices.

(d) Prepare economic records and briefs which serve as the basis for legal orders and opinions to dispose of protests against the rent regulations or individual orders issued thereunder and of petitions for amendment of the rent regulations in all cases involving the income and expense of rental housing operation. Advise the Court Review, Research, and Opinion Division on matters concerned with the financial operations of rental housing.

SUBPART L—THE FIELD

FIELD OFFICES

§ 1305.2000 Organization. The price control boards and field offices maintained by the Office of Price Administration are organized into regions, districts, defense rental areas, and zones. This chapter defines these subordinate jurisdictions and their relations to each other and to the national office.

§ 1305.2001 Regions. A region comprises the price control boards and field offices in a group of States, Territories or Possessions, combined for administrative purposes, under a regional administrator.

§ 1305.2002 Districts. A district is a division of a region comprising price control boards and field offices in counties and independent cities of a State, Territory, or Possession combined for administrative purposes, under a district director.

§ 1305.2003 Field Zones. A field zone is a subdivision of a district comprising price control boards grouped together, for administrative purposes, under a board supervisor.

§ 1305.2004 Defense rental areas. A defense rental area designated by the Price Administrator, generally consisting of one or more counties to which rent regulations have been made applicable, is regarded, for administrative purposes, as a subdivision of a district, under an area rent director.

§ 1305.2005. Liaison. Field offices are units of the operating staff of the Office of Price Administration. Liaison between the field offices and the national office is maintained through the office of the deputy administrator.

REGIONAL OFFICES

§ 1305.2025 Location, jurisdiction, and organization. The United States, and the Territories and possessions under its jurisdiction, is divided for purposes of administration into nine OPA regions.

(a) Location of regional offices. OPA regional offices are established in Boston, Mass., Region 1; New York, Region 2; Cleveland, Ohio, Region 3; Atlanta, Ga., Region 4; Dallas, Tex., Region 5; Chicago, Ill., Region 6; Denver, Colo., Region 7; San Francisco, Calif., Region 8; Washington, D. C., Region 9.

(b) Area comprised in regions. (1) Region 1 comprises the States of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

(2) Region 2 comprises the States of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia.

(3) Region 3 comprises the States of Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, and West Virginia, and the State of Indiana with the exception of Lake County thereof.

(4) Region 4 comprises the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia.

(5) Region 5 comprises the States of Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Texas.

(6) Region 6 comprises the States of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin, and Lake County of the State of Indiana.

(d) Survey organization, staffing, and procedures to eliminate duplication and waste.

(e) Evaluate performance in the light of estimated workload and recorded achievement.

§ 1305.2036 Regional operating divisions. The regional operating divisions are responsible to the regional administrator and the deputy regional administrator, jointly for furnishing counsel and advice in the establishment of regional policy and in coordinating regional programs and projects, and severally for operation of their programs in the region under technical direction of the corresponding operating department. They shall represent the regional administrator in public relations concerning their respective programs and in giving technical supervision to district operating divisions.

(a) The regional accounting division, under the regional accounting executive, shall:

(1) Provide accounting and auditing service to the executive, administrative, and operating divisions of the regional office staff.

(i) The regional accounting executive shall determine the availability of man power with respect to any divisional request after consultation with the requesting division concerning the need, character, and workload of the requested operation.

(ii) The executive head of the division requesting an accounting or auditing operation shall be responsible for furnishing all necessary information and instruction regarding applicable regulations, interpretations and specifications to the accountant assigned to the operation, and for supplying clerical personnel to assist him.

(iii) The accountant assigned to the operation is responsible to the regional accounting executive for performance of the assignment in conformity with accounting department procedure and for supervision of the clerical personnel supplied to him.

(iv) The regional accounting executive is responsible for transmitting the approved report of the assigned accountant to the requesting division.

(v) The accountant assigned to a divisional operation shall have no responsibility for any divisional decision or action based on his report.

(2) Provide for periodic audit of the ration currency accountability system at district and regional offices.

(3) Maintain a complete file of accounting and auditing reports submitted by regional accounting division personnel.

(b) Regional enforcement division. The regional enforcement division under the regional enforcement executive, shall comprise the litigation section, the field operations section, and such commodity sections as the deputy administrator for enforcement may authorize, and shall exercise technical supervision of district enforcement divisions.

(1) The regional enforcement executive shall, with appropriate delegation to his staff, plan, direct, and supervise all enforcement activities throughout the region.

(2) The litigation section shall function as experts on the litigation aspects of enforcement; conduct legal research; as delegated by the national office, handle appellate litigation; try and assist in the trial of novel and unusually significant or protracted cases; assist regional commodity sections on legal problems, trial tactics, and development and application of sanction and settlement policies.

(3) The field operations section shall assist the regional enforcement executive in the management of enforcement throughout the region (in its non-commodity aspects) on matters crossing commodity lines, and on organization and general operating problems involving either an entire enforcement division or more than one commodity section.

(4) The commodity sections shall, with substantial operating delegation from the regional enforcement executive, plan, direct, and supervise enforcement operations in their respective commodity fields throughout the region.

(c) The regional information division, under the regional information executive, shall:

(1) Assist the regional administrator in the statement of national and regional policies and represent him in liaison with agencies and organs of public information.

(2) Direct the preparation and control the release, of all materials for dissemination by press, radio, and other means of general public communication.

(3) Develop programs for organization, group, and school participation.

(4) Plan and supervise the community service program.

DISTRICT OFFICES

§ 1305.2200 Location, jurisdiction, and organization. Each of the eight regions of the continental United States is subdivided for purposes of administration into districts.

(a) Location. Appendix 1305.2200 shows the location of the district offices of each of the eight regions, and indicates the district in which each county of the continental United States is located.

(b) Changes in district boundaries. No changes shall be made in the boundaries of any district except with the approval of the office of the Administrator, and official notice of such change shall be made by publication in the OPA Manual.

(c) Jurisdiction. Each district office shall have immediate jurisdiction of the several area rent offices and price boards within the area comprised in the district.

(d) Organization outline. In each district the district office shall comprise the office of the district director, the district management staff and the district operating staff.

§ 1305.2201 Office of the district director. The office of the district director shall comprise the district director and such assistants as the regional administrator may authorize.

(a) The authority of the district director, except as expressly reserved, shall be exercised:

(1) Generally by the district director for purposes of over-all district administration and management, including planning and coordinating programs, executing and administering orders, regulations and directives, and managing and supervising district operatings and personnel.

(2) Particularly by district executives of operating divisions for planning and technically directing their several programs.

(3) Specifically:

(i) By the area rent directors for administration of rent regulations and supervision of area rent offices, branch offices and board stations.

(ii) By the district board executive for administration of price regulations by price boards.

(b) The district director, whenever he is to be absent from the district office for more than one business day, shall designate in writing a responsible member of the district office staff as acting district director with full authority to act for him during his absence in all matters not expressly reserved in the written delegation, of which a copy shall be kept permanently on file.

§ 1305.2202 Responsibility and authority of the district director. In each district the district director:

(a) Shall be appointed by the regional administrator with prior approval of the office of the Administrator and may be removed by him in accordance with established Civil Service and OPA procedure.

(b) Shall be responsible to the regional administrator for:

(1) All operations.

(2) Conformity of district operations to orders, regulations, directives, interpretations, instructions, and statements of policy issued by authority of the Administrator (§ 1305.510) or the regional administrator (§ 1305.2027).

(3) Management and supervision of area rent offices, branch offices, board stations, field stations and war price and rationing boards.

(4) Direction and supervision of all district personnel including members, volunteer assistants, and employees of price boards.

(5) Preparation and submission of reports required by the office of the Administrator, the management offices, the operating departments, the office of the regional administrator, and the regional management and operating divisions.

(c) Shall have authority:

(1) To plan, coordinate, direct and supervise all operations.

(2) To classify positions under specific delegation of authority from the regional administrator.

(3) To appoint and remove area rent directors, all members of the district office staff, and members, volunteer assistants and employees of price boards, in accordance with established Civil Service and OPA procedure.

(i) In appointing or removing an area rent director, he shall consult with the regional rent executive.

(ii) In appointing or removing a district executive he shall consult with the appropriate regional executive who may nominate qualified candidates for his consideration.

(iii) In appointing or removing any other employee he shall consult the appropriate district executive.

(4) To allot budget and positions by offices, locations, activities, and objects.

(5) To visit and inspect all offices and to evaluate the performance of all personnel.

(d) Shall sign all documents requiring official signature with his name and title.

(e) Shall have the right to represent to the regional administrator that in his judgment any policy, procedure, or program is detrimental to the interests of OPA in his district, but he shall not alter, amend, nullify, or suspend any order, regulation, directive, instruction, or statement of policy issued by authority of the Administrator or the regional administrator.

§ 1305.2203 District Management Staff. The district administrative staff shall comprise: the district administrative and board management divisions which, under technical direction of corresponding regional administrative division, shall furnish administrative, board management, budget, fiscal, and personnel services to the district director and all district organization units.

§ 1305.2204 District Operating Staff. The district operating staff shall comprise the district accounting, enforcement, information, price (rationing), and rent divisions, which, under technical direction of corresponding regional operating divisions, shall formulate district projects consistent with national programs and regional projects, and provide technical direction to area rent offices and war price and rationing boards in accordance with plans and policies of the operating departments.

AREA RENT OFFICES

§ 1305.2300 Area rent offices. An area rent office is the supervising office of one or more legally designated defense-rental areas, which is authorized to be headed by an area rent director empowered to sign formal orders in his own name. Area rent offices shall be established and maintained within each district in the number required for efficient operation of the rent control program.

§ 1305.2301 Area rent director. (a) The area rent director is appointed by the district director after consultation with the regional rent executive. The rent director, subject to administrative supervision of the district director through the district rent executive, shall be responsible for the effective administration of the rent control program throughout his defense-rental area, and shall have direct charge of rent operations within the area. He shall:

(1) Keep the public informed of the purposes and requirements of Federal rent control, in conformity with the district OPA public relations program.

(2) Be responsible for the effective performance of all duties assigned to members of his staff, efficient operation of the office or offices under his supervision, proper and efficient processing of landlords' petitions and tenant applications for rent adjustments, and issuance of orders on adjustments.

(3) Sign and be responsible for all orders and certificates of eviction issued in his area as authorized by the rent regulations.

(4) Be responsible for obtaining compliance with the rent regulations.

(b) The rent director may designate members of his staff to act formally in his behalf on the following occasions:

(1) Temporary absence of rent director from area office. The rent director may appoint an acting rent director to carry out his functions during his absence. The delegation of such authority should be in writing and should confer upon the designee the authority to perform the duties of the rent director. Such delegation should be given each time the necessity for it arises. All orders and formal matters should be signed by the designee in his own name, as acting area rent director. Following is a form to be used when this delegation is made:

I, A. B., Rent Director of the———— Defense-Rental Area, do hereby appoint B. C., as acting Rent Director with full power and authority to perform all duties vested in me as Rent Director, including, but not limited to, the power to issue and sign all orders authorized by the Rent Regulations.

Dated this —— day of ————

Rent Director of the Defense-Rental Area.

(2) Workload too great for rent director to consider personally all landlord's petitions and other proceedings where formal action is required. To the extent possible the orders should be signed by the rent director. Where the volume is too great he should designate in writing one or more members of his staff, such as the deputy director, the chief examiner, or the area rent attorney, to sign and issue orders in the name of the rent director.

(3) Member of rent director's staff is in charge of a branch office or other office covering a locality within the rent director's jurisdiction.

§ 1305.2302 Area rent attorney. The area rent attorney shall be under the direction of the rent director to whom, in effect, he acts as counsel. Operating in accordance with legal and enforcement procedures established by the national, regional and district offices, he shall:

(a) Supervise the activities of the legal staff of the area office.

(b) Prepare interpretations of the regulations and other provisions of law pertinent to the rent program. Official interpretations given to the public should be signed by the area rent attorney in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 3.

(c) Advise the rent director on the legal sufficiency of orders issued by the rent director.

(d) Appear informally in courts of law to explain requirements of the regulations in eviction matters.

(e) Handle enforcement matters to the extent prescribed by the national office or as delegated to him by the district enforcement attorney.

(f) Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the rent director.

§ 1305.2303 Area rent representative. (a) The rent director may assign area rent representatives to branch offices and board rent stations who shall perform such functions as the area rent director may designate. In general, the area rent representative will be made responsible for supervising and providing technical assistance to personnel assigned to rent control activities in such branch offices and board stations.

(b) At the discretion of the rent director and with the approval of the district director and the regional rent executive, the area rent representative may be vested with authority to issue formal orders for and on behalf of the rent director. Such authority should be given in writing, signed by the rent director. Signatures of the district director and the regional rent executive are not necessary.

(c) The authority to issue formal orders can be given only by the person who is officially designated as rent director for the area concerned.

§ 1305.2304 Branch rent offices. A branch rent office is an office below the area office level which is staffed by one or more full time, permanent rent employees. Branch rent offices shall be established in localities where work load and other conditions justify the maintenance of full time personnel for rent control operations other than the issuance of formal orders. They shall be directed and supervised by the appropriate area rent office and formal orders will be issued by the director of that area rent office or by an area rent representative as authorized by the rent director.

§ 1305.2305 Board rent stations. (a) The designation "Board Rent Stations" includes all offices or stations, whether located in the office of a price control board or in other space, which are not staffed by full time permanent rent personnel, but which may have the services of a rent clerk charged to the board, and which are serviced by area rent representatives on a "circuit rider" basis.

(b) Board rent stations shall be established in those price control boards where work load does not justify the maintenance of full time personnel but where local rent control requires provision of informational and clerical services.

(c) Establishment of such rent stations does not comprise an assignment of rent functions to local board volunteers, but merely the use of the local board site and paid clerical staff to aid economical administration of the rent program. Rent stations shall be under the technical direction and supervision of the appropriate area rent office within the district.

(d) The area rent representative of the supervising area rent office, when properly authorized shall issue such formal orders as are required, and shall perform those duties which cannot be appropriately performed by the clerical staff of the rent station.
